Chapter 3: Civil Nuclear Constabulary

Section 60: Charges

195. The Government's intention is that the Police Authority will, as now, recover its costs from those to whom it provides services. Section 60 essentially requires those organisations to whom the Constabulary provides services to meet the costs incurred by the Police Authority in or in connection with the provision of those services. In other words, the intention is that the Police Authority should set its charges at the level that will enable it to recover fully the costs of providing such services. As is standard practice for Non Departmental Public Bodies, the detailed financial arrangements of the Authority will be set out in its Financial Memorandum.
