

Human Tissue Act 2004

2004 CHAPTER 30

U.K.

An Act to make provision with respect to activities involving human tissue; to make provision about the transfer of human remains from certain museum collections; and for connected purposes. [15th November 2004]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

VALID FROM 20/10/2005

PART 1 E+W+N.I.

REMOVAL, STORAGE AND USE OF HUMAN ORGANS AND OTHER TISSUE FOR SCHEDULED PURPOSES

1 Authorisation of activities for scheduled purposes E+W+N.I.

- (1) The following activities shall be lawful if done with appropriate consent—
- (a) the storage of the body of a deceased person for use for a purpose specified in Schedule 1, other than anatomical examination;
 - (b) the use of the body of a deceased person for a purpose so specified, other than anatomical examination;
 - (c) the removal from the body of a deceased person, for use for a purpose specified in Schedule 1, of any relevant material of which the body consists or which it contains;
 - (d) the storage for use for a purpose specified in Part 1 of Schedule 1 of any relevant material which has come from a human body;

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) the storage for use for a purpose specified in Part 2 of Schedule 1 of any relevant material which has come from the body of a deceased person;
 - (f) the use for a purpose specified in Part 1 of Schedule 1 of any relevant material which has come from a human body;
 - (g) the use for a purpose specified in Part 2 of Schedule 1 of any relevant material which has come from the body of a deceased person.
- (2) The storage of the body of a deceased person for use for the purpose of anatomical examination shall be lawful if done—
- (a) with appropriate consent, and
 - (b) after the signing of a certificate—
 - (i) under section 22(1) of the Births and Deaths Registration Act 1953 (c. 20), or
 - (ii) under Article 25(2) of the Births and Deaths Registration (Northern Ireland) Order 1976 (S.I. 1976/1041 (N.I. 14)), of the cause of death of the person.
- (3) The use of the body of a deceased person for the purpose of anatomical examination shall be lawful if done—
- (a) with appropriate consent, and
 - (b) after the death of the person has been registered—
 - (i) under section 15 of the Births and Deaths Registration Act 1953, or
 - (ii) under Article 21 of the Births and Deaths Registration (Northern Ireland) Order 1976.
- (4) Subsections (1) to (3) do not apply to an activity of a kind mentioned there if it is done in relation to—
- (a) a body to which subsection (5) applies, or
 - (b) relevant material to which subsection (6) applies.
- (5) This subsection applies to a body if—
- (a) it has been imported, or
 - (b) it is the body of a person who died before the day on which this section comes into force and at least one hundred years have elapsed since the date of the person's death.
- (6) This subsection applies to relevant material if—
- (a) it has been imported,
 - (b) it has come from a body which has been imported, or
 - (c) it is material which has come from the body of a person who died before the day on which this section comes into force and at least one hundred years have elapsed since the date of the person's death.
- (7) Subsection (1)(d) does not apply to the storage of relevant material for use for the purpose of research in connection with disorders, or the functioning, of the human body if—
- (a) the material has come from the body of a living person, and
 - (b) the research falls within subsection (9).
- (8) Subsection (1)(f) does not apply to the use of relevant material for the purpose of research in connection with disorders, or the functioning, of the human body if—

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the material has come from the body of a living person, and
 - (b) the research falls within subsection (9).
- (9) Research falls within this subsection if—
- (a) it is ethically approved in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) it is to be, or is, carried out in circumstances such that the person carrying it out is not in possession, and not likely to come into possession, of information from which the person from whose body the material has come can be identified.
- (10) The following activities shall be lawful—
- (a) the storage for use for a purpose specified in Part 2 of Schedule 1 of any relevant material which has come from the body of a living person;
 - (b) the use for such a purpose of any relevant material which has come from the body of a living person;
 - (c) an activity in relation to which subsection (4), (7) or (8) has effect.
- (11) The Secretary of State may by order—
- (a) vary or omit any of the purposes specified in Part 1 or 2 of Schedule 1, or
 - (b) add to the purposes specified in Part 1 or 2 of that Schedule.
- (12) Nothing in this section applies to—
- (a) the use of relevant material in connection with a device to which Directive 98/79/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on in vitro diagnostic medical devices applies, where the use falls within the Directive, or
 - (b) the storage of relevant material for use falling within paragraph (a).
- (13) In this section, the references to a body or material which has been imported do not include a body or material which has been imported after having been exported with a view to its subsequently being re-imported.

2 “Appropriate consent”: children E+W+N.I.

- (1) This section makes provision for the interpretation of “appropriate consent” in section 1 in relation to an activity involving the body, or material from the body, of a person who is a child or has died a child (“the child concerned”).
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), where the child concerned is alive, “appropriate consent” means his consent.
- (3) Where—
- (a) the child concerned is alive,
 - (b) neither a decision of his to consent to the activity, nor a decision of his not to consent to it, is in force, and
 - (c) either he is not competent to deal with the issue of consent in relation to the activity or, though he is competent to deal with that issue, he fails to do so,
- “appropriate consent” means the consent of a person who has parental responsibility for him.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Where the child concerned has died and the activity is one to which subsection (5) applies, “appropriate consent” means his consent in writing.
- (5) This subsection applies to an activity involving storage for use, or use, for the purpose of—
 - (a) public display, or
 - (b) where the subject-matter of the activity is not excepted material, anatomical examination.
- (6) Consent in writing for the purposes of subsection (4) is only valid if—
 - (a) it is signed by the child concerned in the presence of at least one witness who attests the signature, or
 - (b) it is signed at the direction of the child concerned, in his presence and in the presence of at least one witness who attests the signature.
- (7) Where the child concerned has died and the activity is not one to which subsection (5) applies, “appropriate consent” means —
 - (a) if a decision of his to consent to the activity, or a decision of his not to consent to it, was in force immediately before he died, his consent;
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—
 - (i) the consent of a person who had parental responsibility for him immediately before he died, or
 - (ii) where no person had parental responsibility for him immediately before he died, the consent of a person who stood in a qualifying relationship to him at that time.

3 “Appropriate consent”: adults E+W+N.I.

- (1) This section makes provision for the interpretation of “appropriate consent” in section 1 in relation to an activity involving the body, or material from the body, of a person who is an adult or has died an adult (“the person concerned”).
- (2) Where the person concerned is alive, “appropriate consent” means his consent.
- (3) Where the person concerned has died and the activity is one to which subsection (4) applies, “appropriate consent” means his consent in writing.
- (4) This subsection applies to an activity involving storage for use, or use, for the purpose of—
 - (a) public display, or
 - (b) where the subject-matter of the activity is not excepted material, anatomical examination.
- (5) Consent in writing for the purposes of subsection (3) is only valid if—
 - (a) it is signed by the person concerned in the presence of at least one witness who attests the signature,
 - (b) it is signed at the direction of the person concerned, in his presence and in the presence of at least one witness who attests the signature, or
 - (c) it is contained in a will of the person concerned made in accordance with the requirements of—
 - (i) section 9 of the Wills Act 1837 (c. 26), or

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(ii) Article 5 of the Wills and Administration Proceedings (Northern Ireland) Order 1994 (S.I. 1994/1899 (N.I. 13)).

(6) Where the person concerned has died and the activity is not one to which subsection (4) applies, “appropriate consent” means—

(a) if a decision of his to consent to the activity, or a decision of his not to consent to it, was in force immediately before he died, his consent;

(b) if—

(i) paragraph (a) does not apply, and

(ii) he has appointed a person or persons under section 4 to deal after his death with the issue of consent in relation to the activity, consent given under the appointment;

(c) if neither paragraph (a) nor paragraph (b) applies, the consent of a person who stood in a qualifying relationship to him immediately before he died.

(7) Where the person concerned has appointed a person or persons under section 4 to deal after his death with the issue of consent in relation to the activity, the appointment shall be disregarded for the purposes of subsection (6) if no one is able to give consent under it.

(8) If it is not reasonably practicable to communicate with a person appointed under section 4 within the time available if consent in relation to the activity is to be acted on, he shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (7) as not able to give consent under the appointment in relation to it.

4 Nominated representatives E+W+N.I.

(1) An adult may appoint one or more persons to represent him after his death in relation to consent for the purposes of section 1.

(2) An appointment under this section may be general or limited to consent in relation to such one or more activities as may be specified in the appointment.

(3) An appointment under this section may be made orally or in writing.

(4) An oral appointment under this section is only valid if made in the presence of at least two witnesses present at the same time.

(5) A written appointment under this section is only valid if—

(a) it is signed by the person making it in the presence of at least one witness who attests the signature,

(b) it is signed at the direction of the person making it, in his presence and in the presence of at least one witness who attests the signature, or

(c) it is contained in a will of the person making it, being a will which is made in accordance with the requirements of—

(i) section 9 of the Wills Act 1837 (c. 26), or

(ii) Article 5 of the Wills and Administration Proceedings (Northern Ireland) Order 1994 (S.I. 1994/1899 (N.I. 13)).

(6) Where a person appoints two or more persons under this section in relation to the same activity, they shall be regarded as appointed to act jointly and severally unless the appointment provides that they are appointed to act jointly.

(7) An appointment under this section may be revoked at any time.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) Subsections (3) to (5) apply to the revocation of an appointment under this section as they apply to the making of such an appointment.
- (9) A person appointed under this section may at any time renounce his appointment.
- (10) A person may not act under an appointment under this section if—
 - (a) he is not an adult, or
 - (b) he is of a description prescribed for the purposes of this provision by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

5 Prohibition of activities without consent etc. E+W+N.I.

- (1) A person commits an offence if, without appropriate consent, he does an activity to which subsection (1), (2) or (3) of section 1 applies, unless he reasonably believes—
 - (a) that he does the activity with appropriate consent, or
 - (b) that what he does is not an activity to which the subsection applies.
- (2) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) he falsely represents to a person whom he knows or believes is going to, or may, do an activity to which subsection (1), (2) or (3) of section 1 applies—
 - (i) that there is appropriate consent to the doing of the activity, or
 - (ii) that the activity is not one to which the subsection applies, and
 - (b) he knows that the representation is false or does not believe it to be true.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a person commits an offence if, when he does an activity to which section 1(2) applies, neither of the following has been signed in relation to the cause of death of the person concerned—
 - (a) a certificate under section 22(1) of the Births and Deaths Registration Act 1953 (c. 20), and
 - (b) a certificate under Article 25(2) of the Births and Deaths Registration (Northern Ireland) Order 1976 (S.I. 1976/1041 (N.I. 14)).
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply—
 - (a) where the person reasonably believes—
 - (i) that a certificate under either of those provisions has been signed in relation to the cause of death of the person concerned, or
 - (ii) that what he does is not an activity to which section 1(2) applies, or
 - (b) where the person comes into lawful possession of the body immediately after death and stores it prior to its removal to a place where anatomical examination is to take place.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), a person commits an offence if, when he does an activity to which section 1(3) applies, the death of the person concerned has not been registered under either of the following provisions—
 - (a) section 15 of the Births and Deaths Registration Act 1953, and
 - (b) Article 21 of the Births and Deaths Registration (Northern Ireland) Order 1976.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply where the person reasonably believes—
 - (a) that the death of the person concerned has been registered under either of those provisions, or

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) that what he does is not an activity to which section 1(3) applies.

(7) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—

(a) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;

(b) on conviction on indictment—

(i) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or

(ii) to a fine, or

(iii) to both.

(8) In this section, “appropriate consent” has the same meaning as in section 1.

6 Activities involving material from adults who lack capacity to consent E+W

+N.I.

Where—

(a) an activity of a kind mentioned in section 1(1)(d) or (f) involves material from the body of a person who—

(i) is an adult, and

(ii) lacks capacity to consent to the activity, and

(b) neither a decision of his to consent to the activity, nor a decision of his not to consent to it, is in force, there shall for the purposes of this Part be deemed to be consent of his to the activity if it is done in circumstances of a kind specified by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

7 Powers to dispense with need for consent E+W+N.I.

(1) If the Authority is satisfied—

(a) that relevant material has come from the body of a living person,

(b) that it is not reasonably possible to trace the person from whose body the material has come (“the donor”),

(c) that it is desirable in the interests of another person (including a future person) that the material be used for the purpose of obtaining scientific or medical information about the donor, and

(d) that there is no reason to believe—

(i) that the donor has died,

(ii) that a decision of the donor to refuse to consent to the use of the material for that purpose is in force, or

(iii) that the donor lacks capacity to consent to the use of the material for that purpose, it may direct that subsection (3) apply to the material for the benefit of the other person.

(2) If the Authority is satisfied—

(a) that relevant material has come from the body of a living person,

(b) that it is desirable in the interests of another person (including a future person) that the material be used for the purpose of obtaining scientific or medical information about the person from whose body the material has come (“the donor”),

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) that reasonable efforts have been made to get the donor to decide whether to consent to the use of the material for that purpose,
- (d) that there is no reason to believe—
 - (i) that the donor has died,
 - (ii) that a decision of the donor to refuse to consent to the use of the material for that purpose is in force, or
 - (iii) that the donor lacks capacity to consent to the use of the material for that purpose, and
- (e) that the donor has been given notice of the application for the exercise of the power conferred by this subsection, it may direct that subsection (3) apply to the material for the benefit of the other person.

- (3) Where material is the subject of a direction under subsection (1) or (2), there shall for the purposes of this Part be deemed to be consent of the donor to the use of the material for the purpose of obtaining scientific or medical information about him which may be relevant to the person for whose benefit the direction is given.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations enable the High Court, in such circumstances as the regulations may provide, to make an order deeming there for the purposes of this Part to be appropriate consent to an activity consisting of—
 - (a) the storage of the body of a deceased person for use for the purpose of research in connection with disorders, or the functioning, of the human body,
 - (b) the use of the body of a deceased person for that purpose,
 - (c) the removal from the body of a deceased person, for use for that purpose, of any relevant material of which the body consists or which it contains,
 - (d) the storage for use for that purpose of any relevant material which has come from a human body, or
 - (e) the use for that purpose of any relevant material which has come from a human body.

8 Restriction of activities in relation to donated material E+W+N.I.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person commits an offence if he—
 - (a) uses donated material for a purpose which is not a qualifying purpose, or
 - (b) stores donated material for use for a purpose which is not a qualifying purpose.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the person reasonably believes that what he uses, or stores, is not donated material.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment—
 - (i) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or
 - (ii) to a fine, or
 - (iii) to both.
- (4) In subsection (1), references to a qualifying purpose are to—
 - (a) a purpose specified in Schedule 1,
 - (b) the purpose of medical diagnosis or treatment,

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the purpose of decent disposal, or
- (d) a purpose specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(5) In this section, references to donated material are to—

- (a) the body of a deceased person, or
- (b) relevant material which has come from a human body, which is, or has been, the subject of donation.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a body, or material, is the subject of donation if authority under section 1(1) to (3) exists in relation to it.

9 Existing holdings E+W+N.I.

(1) In its application to the following activities, section 1(1) shall have effect with the omission of the words “if done with appropriate consent”—

- (a) the storage of an existing holding for use for a purpose specified in Schedule 1;
- (b) the use of an existing holding for a purpose so specified.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the existing holding is a body, or separated part of a body, in relation to which section 10(3) or (5) has effect.

(3) Section 5(1) and (2) shall have effect as if the activities mentioned in subsection (1) were not activities to which section 1(1) applies.

(4) In this section, “existing holding” means—

- (a) the body of a deceased person, or
- (b) relevant material which has come from a human body, held, immediately before the day on which section 1(1) comes into force, for use for a purpose specified in Schedule 1.

10 Existing anatomical specimens E+W+N.I.

(1) This section applies where a person dies during the three years immediately preceding the coming into force of section 1.

(2) Subsection (3) applies where—

- (a) before section 1 comes into force, authority is given under section 4(2) or (3) of the Anatomy Act 1984 (c. 14) for the person’s body to be used for anatomical examination, and
- (b) section 1 comes into force before anatomical examination of the person’s body is concluded.

(3) During so much of the relevant period as falls after section 1 comes into force, that authority shall be treated for the purposes of section 1 as appropriate consent in relation to—

- (a) the storage of the person’s body, or separated parts of his body, for use for the purpose of anatomical examination, and
- (b) the use of his body, or separated parts of his body, for that purpose.

(4) Subsection (5) applies where—

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) before section 1 comes into force, authority is given under section 6(2) or (3) of the Anatomy Act 1984 for possession of parts (or any specified parts) of the person's body to be held after anatomical examination of his body is concluded, and
 - (b) anatomical examination of the person's body is concluded—
 - (i) after section 1 comes into force, but
 - (ii) before the end of the period of three years beginning with the date of the person's death.
- (5) With effect from the conclusion of the anatomical examination of the person's body, that authority shall be treated for the purposes of section 1 as appropriate consent in relation to—
- (a) the storage for use for a qualifying purpose of a part of the person's body which—
 - (i) is a part to which that authority relates, and
 - (ii) is such that the person cannot be recognised simply by examination of the part, and
 - (b) the use for a qualifying purpose of such a part of the person's body.
- (6) Where for the purposes of section 1 there would not be appropriate consent in relation to an activity but for authority given under the Anatomy Act 1984 (c. 14) being treated for those purposes as appropriate consent in relation to the activity, section 1(1) to (3) do not authorise the doing of the activity otherwise than in accordance with that authority.
- (7) In subsection (3), “the relevant period”, in relation to a person, means whichever is the shorter of—
- (a) the period of three years beginning with the date of the person's death, and
 - (b) the period beginning with that date and ending when anatomical examination of the person's body is concluded.
- (8) In subsection (5), “qualifying purpose” means a purpose specified in paragraph 6 or 9 of Schedule 1.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by order amend subsection (8).

11 Coroners E+W+N.I.

- (1) Nothing in this Part applies to anything done for purposes of functions of a coroner or under the authority of a coroner.
- (2) Where a person knows, or has reason to believe, that—
- (a) the body of a deceased person, or
 - (b) relevant material which has come from the body of a deceased person,
- is, or may be, required for purposes of functions of a coroner, he shall not act on authority under section 1 in relation to the body, or material, except with the consent of the coroner.

12 Interpretation of Part 1 E+W+N.I.

In this Part, “excepted material” means material which has—

- (a) come from the body of a living person, or

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) come from the body of a deceased person otherwise than in the course of use of the body for the purpose of anatomical examination.

VALID FROM 01/04/2005

PART 2 E+W+N.I.

REGULATION OF ACTIVITIES INVOLVING HUMAN TISSUE

The Human Tissue Authority

13 The Human Tissue Authority E+W+N.I.

- (1) There shall be a body corporate to be known as the Human Tissue Authority (referred to in this Act as “the Authority”).
- (2) Schedule 2 (which makes further provision about the Authority) has effect.

14 Remit E+W+N.I.

- (1) The following are the activities within the remit of the Authority—
- (a) the removal from a human body, for use for a scheduled purpose, of any relevant material of which the body consists or which it contains;
 - (b) the use, for a scheduled purpose, of—
 - (i) the body of a deceased person, or
 - (ii) relevant material which has come from a human body;
 - (c) the storage of an anatomical specimen or former anatomical specimen;
 - (d) the storage (in any case not falling within paragraph (c)) of—
 - (i) the body of a deceased person, or
 - (ii) relevant material which has come from a human body,for use for a scheduled purpose;
 - (e) the import or export of—
 - (i) the body of a deceased person, or
 - (ii) relevant material which has come from a human body,for use for a scheduled purpose;
 - (f) the disposal of the body of a deceased person which has been—
 - (i) imported for use,
 - (ii) stored for use, or
 - (iii) used,for a scheduled purpose;
 - (g) the disposal of relevant material which—
 - (i) has been removed from a person’s body for the purposes of his medical treatment,
 - (ii) has been removed from the body of a deceased person for the purposes of an anatomical, or post-mortem, examination,

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) has been removed from a human body (otherwise than as mentioned in sub-paragraph (ii)) for use for a scheduled purpose,
 - (iv) has come from a human body and been imported for use for a scheduled purpose, or
 - (v) has come from the body of a deceased person which has been imported for use for a scheduled purpose.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1)(a) and (b), the activities within the remit of the Authority include, in particular—
- (a) the carrying-out of an anatomical examination, and
 - (b) the making of a post-mortem examination.
- (3) An activity is excluded from the remit of the Authority if—
- (a) it relates to the body of a person who died before the day on which this section comes into force or to material which has come from the body of such a person, and
 - (b) at least one hundred years have elapsed since the date of the person’s death.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order amend this section for the purpose of adding to the activities within the remit of the Authority.
- (5) In this section, “relevant material”, in relation to use for the scheduled purpose of transplantation, does not include blood or anything derived from blood.

15 General functions E+W+N.I.

The Authority shall have the following general functions—

- (a) maintaining a statement of the general principles which it considers should be followed—
 - (i) in the carrying-on of activities within its remit, and
 - (ii) in the carrying-out of its functions in relation to such activities;
- (b) providing in relation to activities within its remit such general oversight and guidance as it considers appropriate;
- (c) superintending, in relation to activities within its remit, compliance with—
 - (i) requirements imposed by or under Part 1 or this Part, and
 - (ii) codes of practice under this Act;
- (d) providing to the public, and to persons carrying on activities within its remit, such information and advice as it considers appropriate about the nature and purpose of such activities;
- (e) monitoring developments relating to activities within its remit and advising the Secretary of State, the National Assembly for Wales and the relevant Northern Ireland department on issues relating to such developments;
- (f) advising the Secretary of State, the National Assembly for Wales or the relevant Northern Ireland department on such other issues relating to activities within its remit as he, the Assembly or the department may require.

Licensing

16 Licence requirement E+W+N.I.

- (1) No person shall do an activity to which this section applies otherwise than under the authority of a licence granted for the purposes of this section.
- (2) This section applies to the following activities—
 - (a) the carrying-out of an anatomical examination;
 - (b) the making of a post-mortem examination;
 - (c) the removal from the body of a deceased person (otherwise than in the course of an activity mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b)) of relevant material of which the body consists or which it contains, for use for a scheduled purpose other than transplantation;
 - (d) the storage of an anatomical specimen;
 - (e) the storage (in any case not falling within paragraph (d)) of—
 - (i) the body of a deceased person, or
 - (ii) relevant material which has come from a human body, for use for a scheduled purpose;
 - (f) the use, for the purpose of public display, of—
 - (i) the body of a deceased person, or
 - (ii) relevant material which has come from the body of a deceased person.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations specify circumstances in which storage of relevant material by a person who intends to use it for a scheduled purpose is excepted from subsection (2)(e)(ii).
- (4) An activity is excluded from subsection (2) if—
 - (a) it relates to the body of a person who died before the day on which this section comes into force or to material which has come from the body of such a person, and
 - (b) at least one hundred years have elapsed since the date of the person's death.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend this section for the purpose of—
 - (a) adding to the activities to which this section applies,
 - (b) removing an activity from the activities to which this section applies, or
 - (c) altering the description of an activity to which this section applies.
- (6) Schedule 3 (which makes provision about licences for the purposes of this section) has effect.
- (7) In subsection (2)—
 - (a) references to storage do not include storage which is incidental to transportation, and
 - (b) “relevant material”, in relation to use for the scheduled purpose of transplantation, does not include blood or anything derived from blood.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 17 Persons to whom licence applies E+W+N.I.

The authority conferred by a licence extends to—

- (a) the designated individual,
- (b) any person who is designated as a person to whom the licence applies by a notice given to the Authority by the designated individual, and
- (c) any person acting under the direction of—
 - (i) the designated individual, or
 - (ii) a person designated as mentioned in paragraph (b).

18 Duty of the designated individual E+W+N.I.

It shall be the duty of the individual designated in a licence as the person under whose supervision the licensed activity is authorised to be carried on to secure—

- (a) that the other persons to whom the licence applies are suitable persons to participate in the carrying-on of the licensed activity,
- (b) that suitable practices are used in the course of carrying on that activity, and
- (c) that the conditions of the licence are complied with.

19 Right to reconsideration of licensing decisions E+W+N.I.

- (1) If an application for the grant, revocation or variation of a licence is refused, the applicant may require the Authority to reconsider the decision.
- (2) If a licence is—
 - (a) revoked under paragraph 7(2) of Schedule 3, or
 - (b) varied under paragraph 8(3) or (5) of that Schedule, the holder of the licence, or the designated individual, may require the Authority to reconsider the decision.
- (3) If an application for the grant, or revocation, of permission for the purposes of an authorisation condition is refused, the applicant may require the Authority to reconsider the decision.
- (4) If permission for the purposes of an authorisation condition is revoked under paragraph 12(4)(b) of Schedule 3, any of—
 - (a) the individual concerned,
 - (b) the holder of the licence, and
 - (c) the designated individual, may require the Authority to reconsider the decision.
- (5) The right under subsection (1) or (2) is exercisable by giving the Authority notice of exercise of the right before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which notice of the decision concerned was given under paragraph 11 of Schedule 3.
- (6) The right under subsection (3) or (4) is exercisable by giving the Authority notice of exercise of the right before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which notice of the decision concerned was given under paragraph 12 of Schedule 3.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(7) Subsections (1) to (4) do not apply to a decision on reconsideration.

(8) In this section, “authorisation condition” means a condition of a licence where—
(a) the licence is one to which paragraph 3 of Schedule 3 applies, and
(b) the condition is the one required in the licence by sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph.

20 Appeals committees E+W+N.I.

- (1) The Authority shall maintain one or more committees to carry out its functions in pursuance of notices under section 19.
- (2) A committee under subsection (1) is referred to in this Part as an appeals committee.
- (3) An appeals committee shall consist of not less than five members of the Authority.
- (4) The quorum for an appeals committee shall be three.

21 Procedure on reconsideration E+W+N.I.

- (1) Reconsideration shall be by way of fresh decision.
- (2) On reconsideration—
 - (a) the person by whom reconsideration is required (“the appellant”) shall be entitled to require that he or his representative be given an opportunity to appear before and be heard by the appeals committee dealing with the matter,
 - (b) at any meeting at which such an opportunity is given, the person who made the decision which is the subject of reconsideration shall be entitled to appear and be heard in person or by a representative, and
 - (c) the appeals committee dealing with the matter shall consider any written representations received from the appellant or the person who made the decision which is the subject of reconsideration.
- (3) The appeals committee by which a decision is reconsidered in pursuance of a notice under section 19 shall give the appellant notice of its decision.
- (4) If on reconsideration an appeals committee upholds the previous decision, the notice under subsection (3) shall include a statement of the reasons for the appeals committee’s decision.
- (5) The Authority may by regulations make such other provision about procedure in relation to reconsideration as it thinks fit.
- (6) Where reconsideration of a decision—
 - (a) is required under section 19(2) or (4) by only one of two persons by whom it could have been required, or
 - (b) is required under section 19(4) by only one or two of three persons by whom it could have been required,it shall be treated for the purposes of this section as required “by both or (as the case may be) all of them.”
- (7) In this section, “reconsideration” means reconsideration in pursuance of a notice under section 19.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

22 Appeal on point of law E+W+N.I.

A person aggrieved by a decision on reconsideration in pursuance of a notice under section 19 may appeal to the High Court on a point of law.

23 Conduct of licensed activities E+W+N.I.

- (1) Directions may impose requirements in relation to the conduct of the activity which a licence authorises to be carried on.
- (2) Directions under subsection (1) may be given in relation to licences generally, licences of a particular description or a particular licence.
- (3) A person shall comply with a requirement imposed by directions under subsection (1) if it is applicable to him.

24 Changes of licence circumstance E+W+N.I.

- (1) Directions may make provision for the purpose of dealing with a situation arising in consequence of—
 - (a) the variation of a licence, or
 - (b) a licence ceasing to have effect.
- (2) Directions under subsection (1)(a) may impose requirements—
 - (a) on the holder of the licence;
 - (b) on a person who is the designated individual immediately before, or immediately after, the variation;
 - (c) on any other person, if he consents.
- (3) Directions under subsection (1)(b) may impose requirements—
 - (a) on the person who is the holder of the licence immediately before the licence ceases to have effect;
 - (b) on the person who is the designated individual at that time;
 - (c) on any other person, if he consents.
- (4) Directions under subsection (1) may, in particular, require anything kept, or information held, in pursuance of the licence to be transferred in accordance with the directions.
- (5) Where a licence has ceased to have effect by reason of the death or dissolution of its holder, anything subsequently done by a person before directions are given under subsection (1) shall, if the licence would have been authority for doing it, be treated as authorised by a licence.

25 Breach of licence requirement E+W+N.I.

- (1) A person who contravenes section 16(1) commits an offence, unless he reasonably believes—
 - (a) that what he does is not an activity to which section 16 applies, or
 - (b) that he acts under the authority of a licence.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) shall be liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (b) on conviction on indictment—
 - (i) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or
 - (ii) to a fine, or
 - (iii) to both.

Codes of practice

26 Preparation of codes E+W+N.I.

- (1) The Authority may prepare and issue codes of practice for the purpose of—
 - (a) giving practical guidance to persons carrying on activities within its remit, and
 - (b) laying down the standards expected in relation to the carrying-on of such activities.
- (2) The Authority shall deal under subsection (1) with the following matters—
 - (a) the carrying-out of anatomical examinations;
 - (b) the storage of anatomical specimens;
 - (c) the storage and disposal of former anatomical specimens;
 - (d) the definition of death for the purposes of this Act;
 - (e) communication with the family of the deceased in relation to the making of a post-mortem examination;
 - (f) the making of post-mortem examinations;
 - (g) communication with the family of the deceased in relation to the removal from the body of the deceased, for use for a scheduled purpose, of any relevant material of which the body consists or which it contains;
 - (h) the removal from a human body, for use for a scheduled purpose, of any relevant material of which the body consists or which it contains;
 - (i) the storage for use for a scheduled purpose, and the use for such a purpose, of—
 - (i) the body of a deceased person, or
 - (ii) relevant material which has come from a human body;
 - (j) the storage for use for a scheduled purpose, and the use for such a purpose, of an existing holding within the meaning of section 9;
 - (k) the import, and the export, of—
 - (i) the body of a deceased person, or
 - (ii) relevant material which has come from a human body, for use for a scheduled purpose;
 - (l) the disposal of relevant material which—
 - (i) has been removed from a human body for use for a scheduled purpose, or
 - (ii) has come from a human body and is an existing holding for the purposes of section 9.
- (3) In dealing under subsection (1) with the matters mentioned in subsection (2)(h) and (i), the Authority shall, in particular, deal with consent.
- (4) The Authority shall—

- (a) keep any code of practice under this section under review, and
 - (b) prepare a revised code of practice when appropriate.
- (5) Before preparing a code of practice under this section, the Authority shall—
- (a) consult such persons as it considers appropriate,
 - (b) if the code of practice relates to Wales, consult the National Assembly for Wales, and
 - (c) if the code of practice relates to Northern Ireland, consult the relevant Northern Ireland department.
- (6) The Authority shall publish a code of practice issued under this section in such way as, in its opinion, is likely to bring it to the attention of those interested.
- (7) A code of practice issued under this section shall come into effect on such day as may be appointed by directions.
- (8) Codes of practice under this section may make different provision in relation to England, Wales and Northern Ireland respectively.

27 Provision with respect to consent E+W+N.I.

- (1) The duty under section 26(3) shall have effect, in particular, to require the Authority to lay down the standards expected in relation to the obtaining of consent where consent falls by virtue of section 2(7)(b)(ii) or 3(6)(c) to be obtained from a person in a qualifying relationship.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the standards required to be laid down by subsection (1) shall include provision to the effect set out in subsections (4) to (8).
- (3) The standards required to be laid down by subsection (1) may include provision to different effect in relation to cases which appear to the Authority to be exceptional.
- (4) The qualifying relationships for the purpose of sections 2(7)(b)(ii) and 3(6)(c) should be ranked in the following order—
- (a) spouse or partner;
 - (b) parent or child;
 - (c) brother or sister;
 - (d) grandparent or grandchild;
 - (e) child of a person falling within paragraph (c);
 - (f) stepfather or stepmother;
 - (g) half-brother or half-sister;
 - (h) friend of longstanding.
- (5) Relationships in the same paragraph of subsection (4) should be accorded equal ranking.
- (6) Consent should be obtained from the person whose relationship to the person concerned is accorded the highest ranking in accordance with subsections (4) and (5).
- (7) If the relationship of each of two or more persons to the person concerned is accorded equal highest ranking in accordance with subsections (4) and (5), it is sufficient to obtain the consent of any of them.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/11/2004. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Human Tissue Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) In applying the principles set out above, a person's relationship shall be left out of account if—
- (a) he does not wish to deal with the issue of consent,
 - (b) he is not able to deal with that issue, or
 - (c) having regard to the activity in relation to which consent is sought, it is not reasonably practicable to communicate with him within the time available if consent in relation to the activity is to be acted on.
- (9) The Secretary of State may by order amend subsection (4).

28 Effect of codes E+W+N.I.

- (1) A failure on the part of any person to observe any provision of a code of practice under section 26 shall not of itself render the person liable to any proceedings.
- (2) The Authority may, in carrying out its functions with respect to licences, take into account any relevant observance of, or failure to observe, a code of practice under section 26, so far as dealing with a matter mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) and (e) to (j) of subsection (2) of that section.

29 Approval of codes E+W+N.I.

- (1) The Authority may not issue a code of practice under section 26 that deals with a matter mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) and (e) to (j) of subsection (2) of that section unless—
 - (a) a draft of it has been sent to and approved by the Secretary of State and laid by him before both Houses of Parliament, and
 - (b) the 40-day period has elapsed without either House resolving not to approve the draft.
- (2) Before approving a draft code of practice sent to him under subsection (1), the Secretary of State shall—
 - (a) if the code relates to Wales, consult the National Assembly for Wales, and
 - (b) if the code relates to Northern Ireland, consult the relevant Northern Ireland department.
- (3) If the Secretary of State approves a draft code of practice sent to him under subsection (1)—
 - (a) if the code relates to Wales, he shall send a copy of it to the National Assembly for Wales, and
 - (b) if the code relates to Northern Ireland, he shall send a copy of it to the relevant Northern Ireland department.
- (4) If the Secretary of State does not approve a draft sent to him under subsection (1), he shall give reasons to the Authority.
- (5) The relevant Northern Ireland department shall lay before the Northern Ireland Assembly any document which it receives under subsection (3)(b).
- (6) In subsection (1)(b), “40-day period”, in relation to the draft of a code of practice, means—

Trafficking

32 Prohibition of commercial dealings in human material for transplantation E+W+N.I.

- (1) A person commits an offence if he—
- (a) gives or receives a reward for the supply of, or for an offer to supply, any controlled material;
 - (b) seeks to find a person willing to supply any controlled material for reward;
 - (c) offers to supply any controlled material for reward;
 - (d) initiates or negotiates any arrangement involving the giving of a reward for the supply of, or for an offer to supply, any controlled material;
 - (e) takes part in the management or control of a body of persons corporate or unincorporate whose activities consist of or include the initiation or negotiation of such arrangements.
- (2) Without prejudice to subsection (1)(b) and (c), a person commits an offence if he causes to be published or distributed, or knowingly publishes or distributes, an advertisement—
- (a) inviting persons to supply, or offering to supply, any controlled material for reward, or
 - (b) indicating that the advertiser is willing to initiate or negotiate any such arrangement as is mentioned in subsection (1)(d).
- (3) A person who engages in an activity to which subsection (1) or (2) applies does not commit an offence under that subsection if he is designated by the Authority as a person who may lawfully engage in the activity.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) shall be liable—
- (a) on summary conviction—
 - (i) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or
 - (ii) to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or

- (5) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (2) shall be liable on summary conviction—
- (a) to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks, or
 - (b) to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or
 - (c) to both.
- (6) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), payment in money or money's worth to the holder of a licence shall be treated as not being a reward where—
- (a) it is in consideration for transporting, removing, preparing, preserving or storing controlled material, and
 - (b) its receipt by the holder of the licence is not expressly prohibited by the terms of the licence.
- (7) References in subsections (1) and (2) to reward, in relation to the supply of any controlled material, do not include payment in money or money's worth for defraying or reimbursing—
- (a) any expenses incurred in, or in connection with, transporting, removing, preparing, preserving or storing the material,
 - (b) any liability incurred in respect of—
 - (i) expenses incurred by a third party in, or in connection with, any of the activities mentioned in paragraph (a), or
 - (ii) a payment in relation to which subsection (6) has effect, or
 - (c) any expenses or loss of earnings incurred by the person from whose body the material comes so far as reasonably and directly attributable to his supplying the material from his body.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, controlled material is any material which—
