- (3) The kinds of enforcement action which are to involve the use of the new system are—
  - (a) the new kinds of enforcement action contained in Chapter 2 (improvement notices, prohibition orders and hazard awareness notices),
  - (b) the new emergency measures contained in Chapter 3 (emergency remedial action and emergency prohibition orders), and

- (4) In this Part “residential premises” means—
  - (a) a dwelling;
  - (b) an HMO;
  - (c) unoccupied HMO accommodation;
  - (d) any common parts of a building containing one or more flats.

- (5) In this Act “anti-social behaviour” means conduct on the part of occupiers of, or visitors to, residential premises—

62 Temporary exemption from licensing requirement E+W

- (1) This section applies where a person having control of or managing an HMO which is required to be licensed under this Part (see section 61(1)) but is not so licensed, notifies the local housing authority of his intention to take particular steps with a view to securing that the house is no longer required to be licensed.
- (2) The authority may, if they think fit, serve on that person a notice under this section (“a temporary exemption notice”) in respect of the house.
- (3) If a temporary exemption notice is served under this section, the house is (in accordance with sections 61(1) and 85(1)) not required to be licensed either under this Part or under Part 3 during the period for which the notice is in force.
- (4) A temporary exemption notice under this section is in force—
  - (a) for the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which it is served, or
  - (b) (in the case of a notice served by virtue of subsection (5)) for the period of 3 months after the date when the first notice ceases to be in force.
- (5) If the authority—
  - (a) receive a further notification under subsection (1), and
  - (b) consider that there are exceptional circumstances that justify the service of a second temporary exemption notice in respect of the house that would take effect from the end of the period of 3 months applying to the first notice, the authority may serve a second such notice on the person having control of or managing the house (but no further notice may be served by virtue of this subsection).

  - (a) the decision,
  - (b) the reasons for it and the date on which it was made,
  - (c) the right to appeal against the decision under subsection (7), and
  - (d) the period within which an appeal may be made under that subsection.
- (7) The person concerned may appeal to a residential property tribunal against the decision within the period of 28 days beginning with the date specified under subsection (6) as the date on which it was made.
- (8) Such an appeal—
  - (a) is to be by way of a re-hearing, but
  - (b) may be determined having regard to matters of which the authority were unaware.
- (9) The tribunal—
  - (a) may confirm or reverse the decision of the authority, and
  - (b) if it reverses the decision, must direct the authority to serve a temporary exemption notice that comes into force on such date as the tribunal directs.

- (1) In deciding for the purposes of section 64(3)(b) or (d) whether a person (“P”) is a fit and proper person to be the licence holder or (as the case may be) the manager of the house, the local housing authority must have regard (among other things) to any evidence within subsection (2) or (3).
- (2) Evidence is within this subsection if it shows that P has—
  - (a) committed any offence involving fraud or other dishonesty, or violence or drugs, or any offence listed in Schedule 3 to the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (c. 42) (offences attracting notification requirements);
  - (b) practised unlawful discrimination on grounds of sex, colour, race, ethnic or national origins or disability in, or in connection with, the carrying on of any business;
  - (c) contravened any provision of the law relating to housing or of landlord and tenant law; or
  - (d) acted otherwise than in accordance with any applicable code of practice approved under section 233.
- (3) Evidence is within this subsection if—
  - (a) it shows that any person associated or formerly associated with P (whether on a personal, work or other basis) has done any of the things set out in subsection (2)(a) to (d), and
  - (b) it appears to the authority that the evidence is relevant to the question whether P is a fit and proper person to be the licence holder or (as the case may be) the manager of the house.
- (4) For the purposes of section 64(3)(b) the local housing authority must assume, unless the contrary is shown, that the person having control of the house is a more appropriate person to be the licence holder than a person not having control of it.
- (5) In deciding for the purposes of section 64(3)(e) whether the proposed management arrangements for the house are otherwise satisfactory, the local housing authority must have regard (among other things) to the considerations mentioned in subsection (6).
- (6) The considerations are—
  - (a) whether any person proposed to be involved in the management of the house has a sufficient level of competence to be so involved;
  - (b) whether any person proposed to be involved in the management of the house (other than the manager) is a fit and proper person to be so involved; and
  - (c) whether any proposed management structures and funding arrangements are suitable.
- (7) Any reference in section 64(3)(c)(i) or (ii) or subsection (4) above to a person having control of the house, or to being a person of any other description, includes a reference to a person who is proposing to have control of the house, or (as the case may be) to a person of that description, at the time when the licence would come into force.

67 Licence conditions E+W

- (1) A licence may include such conditions as the local housing authority consider appropriate for regulating all or any of the following—
  - (a) the management, use and occupation of the house concerned, and
  - (b) its condition and contents.
- (2) Those conditions may, in particular, include (so far as appropriate in the circumstances)—
  - (a) conditions imposing restrictions or prohibitions on the use or occupation of particular parts of the house by persons occupying it;
  - (b) conditions requiring the taking of reasonable and practicable steps to prevent or reduce anti-social behaviour by persons occupying or visiting the house;
  - (c) conditions requiring facilities and equipment to be made available in the house for the purpose of meeting standards prescribed under section 65;
  - (d) conditions requiring such facilities and equipment to be kept in repair and proper working order;
  - (e) conditions requiring, in the case of any works needed in order for any such facilities or equipment to be made available or to meet any such standards, that the works are carried out within such period or periods as may be specified in, or determined under, the licence;
  - (f) conditions requiring the licence holder or the manager of the house to attend training courses in relation to any applicable code of practice approved under section 233.
- (3) A licence must include the conditions required by Schedule 4.
- (4) As regards the relationship between the authority's power to impose conditions under this section and functions exercisable by them under or for the purposes of Part 1 ("Part 1 functions")—
  - (a) the authority must proceed on the basis that, in general, they should seek to identify, remove or reduce category 1 or category 2 hazards in the house by the exercise of Part 1 functions and not by means of licence conditions;
  - (b) this does not, however, prevent the authority from imposing licence conditions relating to the installation or maintenance of facilities or equipment within subsection (2)(c) above, even if the same result could be achieved by the exercise of Part 1 functions;
  - (c) the fact that licence conditions are imposed for a particular purpose that could be achieved by the exercise of Part 1 functions does not affect the way in which Part 1 functions can be subsequently exercised by the authority.

- (5) A licence may not include conditions imposing restrictions or obligations on a particular person other than the licence holder unless that person has consented to the imposition of the restrictions or obligations.
- (6) A licence may not include conditions requiring (or intended to secure) any alteration in the terms of any tenancy or licence under which any person occupies the house.

68 Licences: general requirements and duration E+W

- (1) A licence may not relate to more than one HMO.
- (2) A licence may be granted before the time when it is required by virtue of this Part but, if so, the licence cannot come into force until that time.
- (3) A licence—
  - (a) comes into force at the time that is specified in or determined under the licence for this purpose, and
  - (b) unless previously terminated by subsection (7) or revoked under section 70, continues in force for the period that is so specified or determined.
- (4) That period must not end more than 5 years after—
  - (a) the date on which the licence was granted, or
  - (b) if the licence was granted as mentioned in subsection (2), the date when the licence comes into force.
- (5) Subsection (3)(b) applies even if, at any time during that period, the HMO concerned subsequently ceases to be one to which this Part applies.
- (6) A licence may not be transferred to another person.
- (7) If the holder of the licence dies while the licence is in force, the licence ceases to be in force on his death.
- (8) However, during the period of 3 months beginning with the date of the licence holder's death, the house is to be treated for the purposes of this Part and Part 3 as if on that date a temporary exemption notice had been served in respect of the house under section 62.
- (9) If, at any time during that period (“the initial period”), the personal representatives of the licence holder request the local housing authority to do so, the authority may serve on them a notice which, during the period of 3 months after the date on which the initial period ends, has the same effect as a temporary exemption notice under section 62.

- (10) Subsections (6) to (8) of section 62 apply (with any necessary modifications) in relation to a decision by the authority not to serve such a notice as they apply in relation to a decision not to serve a temporary exemption notice.

69 Variation of licences E+W

- (1) The local housing authority may vary a licence—

For this purpose “change of circumstances” includes any discovery of new information.

- (2) Subsection (3) applies where the authority—
- (a) are considering whether to vary a licence under subsection (1)(b); and
  - (b) are considering—
    - (i) what number of households or persons is appropriate as the maximum number authorised to occupy the HMO to which the licence relates, or
    - (ii) the standards applicable to occupation by a particular number of households or persons.
- (3) The authority must apply the same standards in relation to the circumstances existing at the time when they are considering whether to vary the licence as were applicable at the time when it was granted.

This is subject to subsection (4).

- (4) If the standards—
- (a) prescribed under section 65, and
  - (b) applicable at the time when the licence was granted,
- have subsequently been revised or superseded by provisions of regulations under that section, the authority may apply the new standards.
- (5) A variation made with the agreement of the licence holder takes effect at the time when it is made.

80 Designation of selective licensing areas E+W

- (1) A local housing authority may designate either—
- (a) the area of their district, or
  - (b) an area in their district,
- as subject to selective licensing, if the requirements of subsections (2) and (9) are met.
- (2) The authority must consider that—
- (a) the first or second set of general conditions mentioned in subsection (3) or (6), or
  - (b) any conditions specified in an order under subsection (7) as an additional set of conditions,
- are satisfied in relation to the area.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/02/2005. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Housing Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The first set of general conditions are—
- (a) that the area is, or is likely to become, an area of low housing demand; and
  - (b) that making a designation will, when combined with other measures taken in the area by the local housing authority, or by other persons together with the local housing authority, contribute to the improvement of the social or economic conditions in the area.
- (4) In deciding whether an area is, or is likely to become, an area of low housing demand a local housing authority must take into account (among other matters)—
- (a) the value of residential premises in the area, in comparison to the value of similar premises in other areas which the authority consider to be comparable (whether in terms of types of housing, local amenities, availability of transport or otherwise);
  - (b) the turnover of occupiers of residential premises;
  - (c) the number of residential premises which are available to buy or rent and the length of time for which they remain unoccupied.
- (5) The appropriate national authority may by order amend subsection (4) by adding new matters to those for the time being mentioned in that subsection.
- (6) The second set of general conditions are—
- (a) that the area is experiencing a significant and persistent problem caused by anti-social behaviour;
  - (b) that some or all of the private sector landlords who have let premises in the area (whether under leases or licences) are failing to take action to combat the problem that it would be appropriate for them to take; and
  - (c) that making a designation will, when combined with other measures taken in the area by the local housing authority, or by other persons together with the local housing authority, lead to a reduction in, or the elimination of, the problem.
- “Private sector landlord” does not include a registered social landlord within the meaning of Part 1 of the Housing Act 1996 (c. 52).
- (7) The appropriate national authority may by order provide for any conditions specified in the order to apply as an additional set of conditions for the purposes of subsection (2).
- (8) The conditions that may be specified include, in particular, conditions intended to permit a local housing authority to make a designation for the purpose of dealing with one or more specified problems affecting persons occupying Part 3 houses in the area.
- “Specified” means specified in an order under subsection (7).
- (9) Before making a designation the local housing authority must—
- (a) take reasonable steps to consult persons who are likely to be affected by the designation; and
  - (b) consider any representations made in accordance with the consultation and not withdrawn.
- (10) Section 81 applies for the purposes of this section.

81 Designations under section 80: further considerations E+W

- (1) This section applies to the power of a local housing authority to make designations under section 80.
- (2) The authority must ensure that any exercise of the power is consistent with the authority's overall housing strategy.
- (3) The authority must also seek to adopt a co-ordinated approach in connection with dealing with homelessness, empty properties and anti-social behaviour, both—
  - (a) as regards combining licensing under this Part with other courses of action available to them, and
  - (b) as regards combining such licensing with measures taken by other persons.
- (4) The authority must not make a particular designation under section 80 unless—
  - (a) they have considered whether there are any other courses of action available to them (of whatever nature) that might provide an effective method of achieving the objective or objectives that the designation would be intended to achieve, and
  - (b) they consider that making the designation will significantly assist them to achieve the objective or objectives (whether or not they take any other course of action as well).

- (8) That date must be no earlier than three months after the date on which the designation is made.
- (9) Where a designation comes into force, this Part applies in relation to the occupation by persons of houses in the area on or after the coming into force of the designation even if their occupation began before, or in pursuance of a contract made before, it came into force.

- (7) The person concerned may appeal to a residential property tribunal against the decision within the period of 28 days beginning with the date specified under subsection (6) as the date on which it was made.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/02/2005. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Housing Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) it is an HMO or a Part 3 house which is required to be licensed under Part 2 or Part 3 (see section 61(1) or 85(1)) but is not so licensed, and
  - (b) they consider either—
    - (i) that there is no reasonable prospect of its being so licensed in the near future, or
    - (ii) that the health and safety condition is satisfied (see section 104).
- (3) The authority must make an interim management order in respect of a house if—
- (a) it is an HMO or a Part 3 house which is required to be licensed under Part 2 or Part 3 and is so licensed,
  - (b) they have revoked the licence concerned but the revocation is not yet in force, and
  - (c) they consider either—
    - (i) that, on the revocation coming into force, there will be no reasonable prospect of the house being so licensed in the near future, or
    - (ii) that, on the revocation coming into force, the health and safety condition will be satisfied (see section 104).
- (4) The authority may make an interim management order in respect of a house if—
- (a) it is an HMO other than one that is required to be licensed under Part 2, and
  - (b) on an application by the authority to a residential property tribunal, the tribunal by order authorises them to make such an order, either in the terms of a draft order submitted by them or in those terms as varied by the tribunal;
- and the authority may make such an order despite any pending appeal against the order of the tribunal (but this is without prejudice to any order that may be made on the disposal of any such appeal).
- (5) The tribunal may only authorise the authority to make an interim management order under subsection (4) if it considers that the health and safety condition is satisfied (see section 104).
- (6) In determining whether to authorise the authority to make an interim management order in respect of an HMO under subsection (4), the tribunal must have regard to the extent to which any applicable code of practice approved under section 233 has been complied with in respect of the HMO in the past.
- (7) The authority may make an interim management order in respect of a house if—
- (a) it is a house to which section 103 (special interim management orders) applies, and

- (8) The authority may make an interim management order which is expressed not to apply to a part of the house that is occupied by a person who has an estate or interest in the whole of the house.

In relation to such an order, a reference in this Chapter to “the house” does not include the part so excluded (unless the context requires otherwise, such as where the reference is to the house as an HMO or a Part 3 house).

- (9) Nothing in this section requires or authorises the making of an interim management order in respect of a house if—
- (a) an interim management order has been previously made in respect of it, and

- (5) The appropriate national authority may by order—
- (a) prescribe categories of circumstances for the purposes of subsection (3),
  - (b) provide for any of the provisions of this Act to apply in relation to houses to which this section applies, or interim or final management orders made in respect of them, with any modifications specified in the order.

104 The health and safety condition E+W

- (1) This section explains what “the health and safety condition” is for the purposes of section 102.

- (3) A threat to evict persons occupying a house in order to avoid the house being required to be licensed under Part 2 may constitute a threat to the welfare of those persons for the purposes of subsection (2).
This does not affect the generality of that subsection.
- (4) The health and safety condition is not to be regarded as satisfied for the purposes of section 102(2)(b)(ii) or (3)(c)(ii) where both of the conditions in subsections (5) and (6) are satisfied.
- (5) The first condition is that the local housing authority either—

  - (b) (in a case within section 102(3)(c)(ii)) consider that on the revocation coming into force they will be required to take such a course of action.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/02/2005. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Housing Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 26 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. #### 105 Operation of interim management orders E+W

- (1) This section deals with the time when an interim management order comes into force or ceases to have effect.
- (2) The order comes into force when it is made, unless it is made under section 102(3).
- (3) If the order is made under section 102(3), it comes into force when the revocation of the licence comes into force.
- (4) The order ceases to have effect at the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which it is made, unless it ceases to have effect at some other time as mentioned below.
- (5) If the order provides that it is to cease to have effect on a date falling before the end of that period, it accordingly ceases to have effect on that date.
- (6) If the order is made under section 102(3)—
  - (a) it must include a provision for determining the date on which it will cease to have effect, and
  - (b) it accordingly ceases to have effect on the date so determined.
- (7) That date must be no later than 12 months after the date on which the order comes into force.
- (8) Subsections (9) and (10) apply where—
  - (a) a final management order (“the FMO”) has been made under section 113 so as to replace the order (“the IMO”), but
  - (b) the FMO has not come into force because of an appeal to a residential property tribunal under paragraph 24 of Schedule 6 against the making of the FMO.
- (9) If—
  - (a) the house would (but for the IMO being in force) be required to be licensed under Part 2 or 3 of this Act (see section 61(1) or 85(1)), and

- (10) If, on the application of the authority, the tribunal makes an order providing for the IMO to continue in force, pending the disposal of the appeal, until a date later than that on which the IMO would cease to have effect apart from this subsection, the IMO accordingly continues in force until that later date.
- (11) This section has effect subject to sections 111 and 112 (variation or revocation of orders by authority) and to the power of revocation exercisable by a residential property tribunal on an appeal made under paragraph 24 or 28 of Schedule 6.

156 Duty to provide copy of home information pack on request E+W

- (1) Where a potential buyer makes a request to a responsible person for a copy of the home information pack, or of a document (or part of a document) which is or ought to be included in that pack, it is the duty of the responsible person to comply with that request within the permitted period.
- (2) The responsible person does not comply with that duty unless—
  - (a) he provides the potential buyer with a document which is—
    - (i) a copy of the home information pack for the property as it stands at the time when the document is provided, or
    - (ii) a copy of a document (or part of a document) which is included in that pack, as the case may be; and
  - (b) that pack or document complies with the requirements of any regulations under section 163 at that time.
- (3) In subsection (2) “the home information pack” means the home information pack intended by the responsible person to be the one required by section 155.
- (4) That duty does not apply if, before the end of the permitted period, the responsible person believes on reasonable grounds that the person making the request—
  - (a) is unlikely to have sufficient means to buy the property in question;
  - (b) is not genuinely interested in buying a property of a general description which applies to the property; or
  - (c) is not a person to whom the seller is likely to be prepared to sell the property.

Nothing in this subsection authorises the doing of anything which constitutes an unlawful act of discrimination.

- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the responsible person knows or suspects that the person making the request is an officer of an enforcement authority.
- (6) That duty does not apply where the responsible person is the seller if, when the request is made, the duty under section 155 does not (by virtue of subsection (2) of that section) apply to him.
- (7) But where the duty under this section is excluded by subsection (6), it is the duty of the seller to take reasonable steps to inform the potential buyer that the request should be made to the other person.
- (8) The responsible person may charge a sum not exceeding the reasonable cost of making and, if requested, sending a paper copy of the pack or document.
- (9) The permitted period for the purposes of this section is (subject to section 157(5)) the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the request is made.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/02/2005. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (10) If the responsible person ceases to be responsible for marketing the property before the end of the permitted period (whether because the property has been taken off the market or sold or for any other reason), he ceases to be under any duty to comply with the request.
- (11) A person does not comply with the duty under this section by providing a copy in electronic form unless the potential buyer consents to receiving it in that form.

Section 183

NEW SCHEDULE 5A TO THE HOUSING ACT 1985: INITIAL DEMOLITION NOTICES

“SCHEDULE 5A E+W”

Section 138A

INITIAL DEMOLITION NOTICES

Initial demolition notices

- 1 (1) For the purposes of this Schedule an “initial demolition notice” is a notice served on a secure tenant—
  - (a) stating that the landlord intends to demolish the dwelling-house or (as the case may be) the building containing it (“the relevant premises”),
  - (b) setting out the reasons why the landlord intends to demolish the relevant premises,
  - (c) specifying the period within which he intends to demolish those premises, and
  - (d) stating that, while the notice remains in force, he will not be under any obligation to make such a grant as is mentioned in section 138(1) in respect of any claim made by the tenant to exercise the right to buy in respect of the dwelling-house.
- (2) An initial demolition notice must also state—
  - (a) that the notice does not prevent—
    - (i) the making by the tenant of any such claim, or
    - (ii) the taking of steps under this Part in connection with any such claim up to the point where section 138(1) would otherwise operate in relation to the claim, or
    - (iii) the operation of that provision in most circumstances where the notice ceases to be in force, but
  - (b) that, if the landlord subsequently serves a final demolition notice in respect of the dwelling-house, the right to buy will not arise in respect of it while that notice is in force and any existing claim will cease to be effective.
- (3) If, at the time when an initial demolition notice is served, there is an existing claim to exercise the right to buy in respect of the dwelling-house, the notice shall—
  - (a) state that section 138C confers a right to compensation in respect of certain expenditure, and
  - (b) give details of that right to compensation and of how it may be exercised.
- (4) The period specified in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)(c) must not—
  - (a) allow the landlord more than what is, in the circumstances, a reasonable period to carry out the proposed demolition of the relevant premises (whether on their own or as part of a scheme involving the demolition of other premises); or
  - (b) in any case expire more than five years after the date of service of the notice on the tenant.

Period of validity of initial demolition notice

  - (b) the reasons why the landlord intends to demolish those premises,
  - (c) the period within which the landlord intends to demolish those premises,
  - (d) the date when any initial demolition notice or notices relating to those premises will cease to be in force, unless revoked or otherwise terminated under or by virtue of paragraph 3 below,
  - (e) that, during the period of validity of any such notice or notices, the landlord will not be under any obligation to make such a grant as is mentioned in section 138(1) in respect of any claim to exercise the right to buy in respect of any dwelling-house contained in those premises,
  - (f) that there may be a right to compensation under section 138C in respect of certain expenditure incurred in respect of any existing claim.

Revocation or termination of initial demolition notices

- 3 (1) Paragraph 15(4) to (7) of Schedule 5 (revocation notices) shall apply in relation to an initial demolition notice as they apply in relation to a final demolition notice.
- (2) If a compulsory purchase order has been made for the purpose of enabling the landlord to demolish the dwelling-house in respect of which he has served an initial demolition notice (whether or not it would enable him to demolish any other premises as well) and—
- (a) a relevant decision within sub-paragraph (3)(a) becomes effective while the notice is in force, or
  - (b) a relevant decision within sub-paragraph (3)(b) becomes final while the notice is in force,
- the notice ceases to be in force as from the date when the decision becomes effective or final.
- (3) A “relevant decision” is—

  - (b) of the reason why it has ceased to be in force.
- (8) If, while an initial demolition notice is in force in respect of a dwelling-house, a final demolition notice comes into force under paragraph 13 of Schedule 5 in respect of that dwelling-house, the initial demolition notice ceases to be in force as from the date when the final demolition notice comes into force.
