- (a) either the same course of action again or another such course of action, if they consider that the action taken by them so far has not proved satisfactory, or
 - (b) another such course of action, where the first course of action is that mentioned in subsection (2)(g) and their eventual decision under section 289(2F) of the Housing Act 1985 means that the premises concerned are not to be included in a clearance area.

- (2) In the case of paragraph (b) or (f) of that subsection, the reference to making an order such as is mentioned in that paragraph is to be read as a reference to making instead a determination under section 300(1) or (2) of the Housing Act 1985 (c. 68) (power to purchase for temporary housing use) in a case where the authority consider the latter course of action to be the better alternative in the circumstances.

Changes to legislation: Housing Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date.  - (a) the same kind of action again, or
 - (b) a different kind of enforcement action,in relation to the hazard, where they consider that the action taken by them so far has not proved satisfactory.

- the taking by the authority of emergency remedial action under this section in respect of the hazard is a course of action available to the authority in relation to the hazard for the purposes of section 5 (category 1 hazards: general duty to take enforcement action).

- (5) Paragraphs 3 to 5 of Schedule 3 (improvement notices: enforcement action by local authorities) apply in connection with the taking of emergency remedial action under this section as they apply in connection with the taking of the remedial action required by an improvement notice which has become operative but has not been complied with.

But those paragraphs so apply with the modifications set out in subsection (6).

- (6) The modifications are as follows—
- (a) the right of entry conferred by paragraph 3(4) may be exercised at any time; and

 - (b) if an area is for the time being designated by the authority under section 56 as subject to additional licensing, any HMO in that area which falls within any description of HMO specified in the designation.
- (3) The appropriate national authority may by order prescribe descriptions of HMOs for the purposes of subsection (2)(a).

- (1) A local housing authority may designate either—
- (a) the area of their district, or
 - (b) an area in their district,
- as subject to additional licensing in relation to a description of HMOs specified in the designation, if the requirements of this section are met.

- (3) Before making a designation the authority must—
- (a) take reasonable steps to consult persons who are likely to be affected by the designation; and
 - (b) consider any representations made in accordance with the consultation and not withdrawn.
- (4) The power to make a designation under this section may be exercised in such a way that this Part applies to all HMOs in the area in question.

- (1) This section applies to the power of a local housing authority to make designations under section 56.
- (2) The authority must ensure that any exercise of the power is consistent with the authority's overall housing strategy.
- (3) The authority must also seek to adopt a co-ordinated approach in connection with dealing with homelessness, empty properties and anti-social behaviour affecting the private rented sector, both—
 - (a) as regards combining licensing under this Part with other courses of action available to them, and
 - (b) as regards combining such licensing with measures taken by other persons.
- (4) The authority must not make a particular designation under section 56 unless—
 - (a) they have considered whether there are any other courses of action available to them (of whatever nature) that might provide an effective method of dealing with the problem or problems in question, and
 - (b) they consider that making the designation will significantly assist them to deal with the problem or problems (whether or not they take any other course of action as well).
- (5) In this Act “anti-social behaviour” means conduct on the part of occupiers of, or visitors to, residential premises—
 - (a) which causes or is likely to cause a nuisance or annoyance to persons residing, visiting or otherwise engaged in lawful activities in the vicinity of such premises, or
 - (b) which involves or is likely to involve the use of such premises for illegal purposes.

- (1) This section applies where a person having control of or managing an HMO which is required to be licensed under this Part (see section 61(1)) but is not so licensed, notifies the local housing authority of his intention to take particular steps with a view to securing that the house is no longer required to be licensed.
- (2) The authority may, if they think fit, serve on that person a notice under this section (“a temporary exemption notice”) in respect of the house.

- (5) If the authority—
- (a) receive a further notification under subsection (1), and
 - (b) consider that there are exceptional circumstances that justify the service of a second temporary exemption notice in respect of the house that would take effect from the end of the period of 3 months applying to the first notice,
- the authority may serve a second such notice on the person having control of or managing the house (but no further notice may be served by virtue of this subsection).
- (6) If the authority decide not to serve a temporary exemption notice in response to a notification under subsection (1), they must without delay serve on the person concerned a notice informing him of—

 - (c) the right to appeal against the decision under subsection (7), and
 - (d) the period within which an appeal may be made under that subsection.
- (7) The person concerned may appeal to [^{F9}the appropriate tribunal] against the decision within the period of 28 days beginning with the date specified under subsection (6) as the date on which it was made.
- (8) Such an appeal—
- (a) is to be by way of a re-hearing, but
 - (b) may be determined having regard to matters of which the authority were unaware.

- (a) the authority must proceed on the basis that, in general, they should seek to identify, remove or reduce category 1 or category 2 hazards in the house by the exercise of Part 1 functions and not by means of licence conditions;
 - (b) this does not, however, prevent the authority from imposing licence conditions relating to the installation or maintenance of facilities or equipment within subsection (2)(c) above, even if the same result could be achieved by the exercise of Part 1 functions;
 - (c) the fact that licence conditions are imposed for a particular purpose that could be achieved by the exercise of Part 1 functions does not affect the way in which Part 1 functions can be subsequently exercised by the authority.

68 Licences: general requirements and duration

- (1) A licence may not relate to more than one HMO.
- (2) A licence may be granted before the time when it is required by virtue of this Part but, if so, the licence cannot come into force until that time.
- (3) A licence—
 - (a) comes into force at the time that is specified in or determined under the licence for this purpose, and
 - (b) unless previously terminated by subsection (7) or revoked under section 70 [^{F12}or 70A], continues in force for the period that is so specified or determined.
- (4) That period must not end more than 5 years after—

- (5) Subsection (3)(b) applies even if, at any time during that period, the HMO concerned subsequently ceases to be one to which this Part applies.
- (6) A licence may not be transferred to another person.
- (7) If the holder of the licence dies while the licence is in force, the licence ceases to be in force on his death.
- (8) However, during the period of 3 months beginning with the date of the licence holder's death, the house is to be treated for the purposes of this Part and Part 3 as if on that date a temporary exemption notice had been served in respect of the house under section 62.

- (9) If, at any time during that period (“the initial period”), the personal representatives of the licence holder request the local housing authority to do so, the authority may serve on them a notice which, during the period of 3 months after the date on which the initial period ends, has the same effect as a temporary exemption notice under section 62.
- (10) Subsections (6) to (8) of section 62 apply (with any necessary modifications) in relation to a decision by the authority not to serve such a notice as they apply in relation to a decision not to serve a temporary exemption notice.

- (1) The local housing authority may vary a licence—
- if they do so with the agreement of the licence holder, or
 - if they consider that there has been a change of circumstances since the time when the licence was granted.

For this purpose “change of circumstances” includes any discovery of new information.

- (2) Subsection (3) applies where the authority—

- prescribed under section 65, and
 - applicable at the time when the licence was granted,

- (5) A variation made with the agreement of the licence holder takes effect at the time when it is made.
- (6) Otherwise, a variation does not come into force until such time, if any, as is the operative time for the purposes of this subsection under paragraph 35 of Schedule 5 (time when period for appealing expires without an appeal being made or when decision to vary is confirmed on appeal).
- (7) The power to vary a licence under this section is exercisable by the authority either—
 - (a) on an application made by the licence holder or a relevant person, or
 - (b) on the authority’s own initiative.
- (8) In subsection (7) “relevant person” means any person (other than the licence holder)—
 - (a) who has an estate or interest in the HMO concerned (but is not a tenant under a lease with an unexpired term of 3 years or less), or
 - (b) who is a person managing or having control of the house (and does not fall within paragraph (a)), or
 - (c) on whom any restriction or obligation is imposed by the licence in accordance with section 67(5).

- (9) The power to revoke a licence under this section is exercisable by the authority either—

Designation of selective licensing areas

80 Designation of selective licensing areas

- (1) A local housing authority may designate either—
 - (a) the area of their district, or
 - (b) an area in their district,
 as subject to selective licensing, if the requirements of subsections (2) and (9) are met.
- (2) The authority must consider that—
 - (a) the first or second set of general conditions mentioned in subsection (3) or (6), or
 - (b) any conditions specified in an order under subsection (7) as an additional set of conditions, are satisfied in relation to the area.
- (3) The first set of general conditions are—
 - (a) that the area is, or is likely to become, an area of low housing demand; and
 - (b) that making a designation will, when combined with other measures taken in the area by the local housing authority, or by other persons together with the local housing authority, contribute to the improvement of the social or economic conditions in the area.
- (4) In deciding whether an area is, or is likely to become, an area of low housing demand a local housing authority must take into account (among other matters)—
 - (a) the value of residential premises in the area, in comparison to the value of similar premises in other areas which the authority consider to be comparable (whether in terms of types of housing, local amenities, availability of transport or otherwise);
 - (b) the turnover of occupiers of residential premises;
 - (c) the number of residential premises which are available to buy or rent and the length of time for which they remain unoccupied.
- (5) The appropriate national authority may by order amend subsection (4) by adding new matters to those for the time being mentioned in that subsection.
- (6) The second set of general conditions are—
 - (a) that the area is experiencing a significant and persistent problem caused by anti-social behaviour;

- (b) that some or all of the private sector landlords who have let premises in the area (whether under leases or licences) are failing to take action to combat the problem that it would be appropriate for them to take; and
- (c) that making a designation will, when combined with other measures taken in the area by the local housing authority, or by other persons together with the local housing authority, lead to a reduction in, or the elimination of, the problem.

“Private sector landlord” does not include [^{F38}a non-profit registered provider of social housing or] a registered social landlord within the meaning of Part 1 of the Housing Act 1996 (c. 52).

- (7) The appropriate national authority may by order provide for any conditions specified in the order to apply as an additional set of conditions for the purposes of subsection (2).
- (8) The conditions that may be specified include, in particular, conditions intended to permit a local housing authority to make a designation for the purpose of dealing with one or more specified problems affecting persons occupying Part 3 houses in the area.
 - “Specified” means specified in an order under subsection (7).
- (9) Before making a designation the local housing authority must—
 - (a) take reasonable steps to consult persons who are likely to be affected by the designation; and
 - (b) consider any representations made in accordance with the consultation and not withdrawn.
- (10) Section 81 applies for the purposes of this section.

86 Temporary exemption from licensing requirement

- (1) This section applies where a person having control of or managing a Part 3 house which is required to be licensed under this Part (see section 85(1)) but is not so licensed, notifies the local housing authority of his intention to take particular steps with a view to securing that the house is no longer required to be licensed.
- (2) The authority may, if they think fit, serve on that person a notice under this section (“a temporary exemption notice”) in respect of the house.
- (3) If a temporary exemption notice is served under this section, the house is (in accordance with section 85(1)) not required to be licensed under this Part during the period for which the notice is in force.
- (4) A temporary exemption notice under this section is in force—
 - (a) for the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which it is served, or
 - (b) (in the case of a notice served by virtue of subsection (5)) for the period of 3 months after the date when the first notice ceases to be in force.
- (5) If the authority—
 - (a) receive a further notification under subsection (1), and
 - (b) consider that there are exceptional circumstances that justify the service of a second temporary exemption notice in respect of the house that would take effect from the end of the period of 3 months applying to the first notice,
 the authority may serve a second such notice on the person having control of or managing the house (but no further notice may be served by virtue of this subsection).
- (6) If the authority decide not to serve a temporary exemption notice in response to a notification under subsection (1), they must without delay serve on the person concerned a notice informing him of—
 - (a) the decision,
 - (b) the reasons for it and the date on which it was made,
 - (c) the right to appeal against the decision under subsection (7), and
 - (d) the period within which an appeal may be made under that subsection.
- (7) The person concerned may appeal to [^{F39}the appropriate tribunal] against the decision within the period of 28 days beginning with the date specified under subsection (6) as the date on which it was made.
- (8) Such an appeal—
 - (a) is to be by way of a re-hearing, but
 - (b) may be determined having regard to matters of which the authority were unaware.
- (9) The tribunal—
 - (a) may confirm or reverse the decision of the authority, and
 - (b) if it reverses the decision, must direct the authority to issue a temporary exemption notice with effect from such date as the tribunal directs.

- (2) Evidence is within this subsection if it shows that P has—

- (3) Evidence is within this subsection if—
- (a) it shows that any person associated or formerly associated with P (whether on a personal, work or other basis) has done any of the things set out in subsection (2)(a) to (c), and
 - (b) it appears to the authority that the evidence is relevant to the question whether P is a fit and proper person to be the licence holder or (as the case may be) the manager of the house.
- [^{F41}(3C) A person is not a fit and proper person for the purposes of section 88(3)(a) or (c) if a banning order under section 16 of the Housing and Planning Act 2016 is in force against the person.]

- (5) In deciding for the purposes of section 88(3)(d) whether the proposed management arrangements for the house are otherwise satisfactory, the local housing authority must have regard (among other things) to the considerations mentioned in subsection (6).
- (6) The considerations are—

- (2) Those conditions may, in particular, include (so far as appropriate in the circumstances)—
- (a) conditions imposing restrictions or prohibitions on the use or occupation of particular parts of the house by persons occupying it;
 - (b) conditions requiring the taking of reasonable and practicable steps to prevent or reduce anti-social behaviour by persons occupying or visiting the house.
- (3) A licence may also include—
- (a) conditions requiring facilities and equipment to be made available in the house for the purpose of meeting standards prescribed for the purposes of this section by regulations made by the appropriate national authority;
 - (b) conditions requiring such facilities and equipment to be kept in repair and proper working order;
 - (c) conditions requiring, in the case of any works needed in order for any such facilities or equipment to be made available or to meet any such standards, that the works are carried out within such period or periods as may be specified in, or determined under, the licence.
- (4) A licence must include the conditions required by Schedule 4.
- (5) As regards the relationship between the authority’s power to impose conditions under this section and functions exercisable by them under or for the purposes of Part 1 (“Part 1 functions”)—
- (a) the authority must proceed on the basis that, in general, they should seek to identify, remove or reduce category 1 or category 2 hazards in the house by the exercise of Part 1 functions and not by means of licence conditions;
 - (b) this does not, however, prevent the authority from imposing (in accordance with subsection (3)) licence conditions relating to the installation or maintenance of facilities or equipment within subsection (3)(a) above, even if the same result could be achieved by the exercise of Part 1 functions;
 - (c) the fact that licence conditions are imposed for a particular purpose that could be achieved by the exercise of Part 1 functions does not affect the way in which Part 1 functions can be subsequently exercised by the authority.
- (6) A licence may not include conditions imposing restrictions or obligations on a particular person other than the licence holder unless that person has consented to the imposition of the restrictions or obligations.
- (7) A licence may not include conditions requiring (or intended to secure) any alteration in the terms of any tenancy or licence under which any person occupies the house.

- (2) A licence may be granted before the time when it is required by virtue of this Part but, if so, the licence cannot come into force until that time.
- (3) A licence—
 - (a) comes into force at the time that is specified in or determined under the licence for this purpose, and
 - (b) unless previously terminated by subsection (7) or revoked under section 93 [^{F42}or 93A], continues in force for the period that is so specified or determined.
- (4) That period must not end more than 5 years after—
 - (a) the date on which the licence was granted, or
 - (b) if the licence was granted as mentioned in subsection (2), the date when the licence comes into force.
- (5) Subsection (3)(b) applies even if, at any time during that period, the house concerned subsequently ceases to be a Part 3 house or becomes an HMO to which Part 2 applies (see section 55(2)).
- (6) A licence may not be transferred to another person.
- (7) If the holder of the licence dies while the licence is in force, the licence ceases to be in force on his death.
- (8) However, during the period of 3 months beginning with the date of the licence holder's death, the house is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as if on that date a temporary exemption notice had been served in respect of the house under section 86.
- (9) If, at any time during that period (“the initial period”), the personal representatives of the licence holder request the local housing authority to do so, the authority may serve on them a notice which, during the period of 3 months after the date on which the initial period ends, has the same effect as a temporary exemption notice under section 86.
- (10) Subsections (6) to (8) of section 86 apply (with any necessary modifications) in relation to a decision by the authority not to serve such a notice as they apply in relation to a decision not to serve a temporary exemption notice.

 - (a) are under a duty to make an interim management order in respect of a house in a case within subsection (2) or (3), and
 - (b) have power to make an interim management order in respect of a house in a case within subsection (4) [^{F71}, (7) or (7A)].
- (2) The authority must make an interim management order in respect of a house if—
 - (a) it is an HMO or a Part 3 house which is required to be licensed under Part 2 or Part 3 (see section 61(1) or 85(1)) but is not so licensed, and
 - (b) they consider either—
 - (i) that there is no reasonable prospect of its being so licensed in the near future, or
 - (ii) that the health and safety condition is satisfied (see section 104).
- (3) The authority must make an interim management order in respect of a house if—
 - (a) it is an HMO or a Part 3 house which is required to be licensed under Part 2 or Part 3 and is so licensed,
 - (b) they have revoked the licence concerned but the revocation is not yet in force, and
 - (c) they consider either—
 - (i) that, on the revocation coming into force, there will be no reasonable prospect of the house being so licensed in the near future, or
 - (ii) that, on the revocation coming into force, the health and safety condition will be satisfied (see section 104).
- (4) The authority may make an interim management order in respect of a house if—
 - (a) it is an HMO other than one that is required to be licensed under Part 2, and
 - (b) on an application by the authority to [^{F72}the appropriate tribunal], the tribunal by order authorises them to make such an order, either in the terms of a draft order submitted by them or in those terms as varied by the tribunal;and the authority may make such an order despite any pending appeal against the order of the tribunal (but this is without prejudice to any order that may be made on the disposal of any such appeal).
- (5) The tribunal may only authorise the authority to make an interim management order under subsection (4) if it considers that the health and safety condition is satisfied (see section 104).
- (6) In determining whether to authorise the authority to make an interim management order in respect of an HMO under subsection (4), the tribunal must have regard to the extent to which any applicable code of practice approved under section 233 has been complied with in respect of the HMO in the past.

- (7) The authority may make an interim management order in respect of a house if—
- (a) it is a house to which section 103 (special interim management orders) applies, and
 - (b) on an application by the authority to a residential property tribunal, the tribunal by order authorises them to make such an order, either in the terms of a draft order submitted by them or in those terms as varied by the tribunal; and the authority may make such an order despite any pending appeal against the order of the tribunal (but this is without prejudice to any order that may be made on the disposal of any such appeal).

Subsections (2) to (6) of section 103 apply in relation to the power of [^{F73}the appropriate tribunal] to authorise the making of an interim management order under this subsection.

[^{F74}(7A) The authority may make an interim management order in respect of any property let in breach of a banning order under section 16 of the Housing and Planning Act 2016.]

- (8) The authority may make an interim management order which is expressed not to apply to a part of the house that is occupied by a person who has an estate or interest in the whole of the house.

In relation to such an order, a reference in this Chapter to “the house” does not include the part so excluded (unless the context requires otherwise, such as where the reference is to the house as an HMO or a Part 3 house).

- (9) Nothing in this section requires or authorises the making of an interim management order [^{F75}under subsection (2), (3), (4) or (7)] in respect of a house if—

 - (b) the authority have not exercised any relevant function in respect of the house at any time after the making of the interim management order.

 - (a) under a single tenancy or licence that is not an exempt tenancy or licence under section 79(3) or (4), or
 - (b) under two or more tenancies or licences in respect of different dwellings contained in it, none of which is an exempt tenancy or licence under section 79(3) or (4).
- (2) [^{F76}The appropriate tribunal] may only authorise the authority to make an interim management order in respect of such a house under section 102(7) if it considers that both of the following conditions are satisfied.

- (8) In this Chapter—
 - (a) any reference to “the house”, in relation to an interim management order under section 102(7), is a reference to the house to which the order relates, and

- (3) ^{F208}[The appropriate tribunal] may allow an appeal to be made to it after the end of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) if it is satisfied that there is a good reason for the failure to appeal before the end of that period (and for any delay since then in applying for permission to appeal out of time).
- (4) Where the demand relates to action taken by virtue of paragraph 3(3), an appeal may be brought on the ground that reasonable progress was being made towards compliance with the improvement notice when the local housing authority gave notice under paragraph 4 of their intention to enter and take the action.
- This does not affect the generality of sub-paragraph (1).
- (5) The tribunal may, on an appeal, make such order confirming, quashing or varying the demand as it considers appropriate.
- (6) A demand against which an appeal is brought becomes operative as follows—
- (a) if a decision is given on the appeal which confirms the demand and the period within which an appeal to the ^{F209}[Upper Tribunal] may be brought expires without such an appeal having been brought, the demand becomes operative at end of that period;
- (b) if an appeal to the ^{F209}[Upper Tribunal] is brought and a decision is given on the appeal which confirms the demand, the demand becomes operative at the time of that decision.
- (7) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (6)—
- (a) the withdrawal of an appeal has the same effect as a decision which confirms the demand, and
- (b) references to a decision which confirms the demand are to a decision which confirms it with or without variation.
- (8) No question may be raised on appeal under this paragraph which might have been raised on an appeal against the improvement notice.

“SCHEDULE 5A

Section 138A

INITIAL DEMOLITION NOTICES

Initial demolition notices

- 1 (1) For the purposes of this Schedule an “initial demolition notice” is a notice served on a secure tenant—
 - (a) stating that the landlord intends to demolish the dwelling-house or (as the case may be) the building containing it (“the relevant premises”),
 - (b) setting out the reasons why the landlord intends to demolish the relevant premises,

Status: Point in time view as at 02/12/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Housing Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) specifying the period within which he intends to demolish those premises, and
 - (d) stating that, while the notice remains in force, he will not be under any obligation to make such a grant as is mentioned in section 138(1) in respect of any claim made by the tenant to exercise the right to buy in respect of the dwelling-house.
- (2) An initial demolition notice must also state—
- (a) that the notice does not prevent—
 - (i) the making by the tenant of any such claim, or
 - (ii) the taking of steps under this Part in connection with any such claim up to the point where section 138(1) would otherwise operate in relation to the claim, or
 - (iii) the operation of that provision in most circumstances where the notice ceases to be in force, but
 - (b) that, if the landlord subsequently serves a final demolition notice in respect of the dwelling-house, the right to buy will not arise in respect of it while that notice is in force and any existing claim will cease to be effective.
- (3) If, at the time when an initial demolition notice is served, there is an existing claim to exercise the right to buy in respect of the dwelling-house, the notice shall—
- (a) state that section 138C confers a right to compensation in respect of certain expenditure, and
 - (b) give details of that right to compensation and of how it may be exercised.
- (4) The period specified in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)(c) must not—
- (a) allow the landlord more than what is, in the circumstances, a reasonable period to carry out the proposed demolition of the relevant premises (whether on their own or as part of a scheme involving the demolition of other premises); or
 - (b) in any case expire more than five years after the date of service of the notice on the tenant.

Period of validity of initial demolition notice

- 2 (1) For the purposes of this Schedule an initial demolition notice—
- (a) comes into force in respect of the dwelling-house concerned on the date of service of the notice on the tenant, and
 - (b) ceases to be so in force at the end of the period specified in accordance with paragraph 1(1)(c),
- but this is subject to compliance with the conditions mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) (in a case to which they apply) and to paragraph 3.
- (2) The conditions in sub-paragraphs (6) and (7) of paragraph 13 of Schedule 5 (publicity for final demolition notices) shall apply in relation to an initial demolition notice as they apply in relation to a final demolition notice.
- (3) The notice mentioned in paragraph 13(7) (as it applies in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) above) must contain the following information—
- (a) sufficient information to enable identification of the premises that the landlord intends to demolish,
 - (b) the reasons why the landlord intends to demolish those premises,
 - (c) the period within which the landlord intends to demolish those premises,

Status: Point in time view as at 02/12/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Housing Act 2004 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 22 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) the date when any initial demolition notice or notices relating to those premises will cease to be in force, unless revoked or otherwise terminated under or by virtue of paragraph 3 below,
- (e) that, during the period of validity of any such notice or notices, the landlord will not be under any obligation to make such a grant as is mentioned in section 138(1) in respect of any claim to exercise the right to buy in respect of any dwelling-house contained in those premises,
- (f) that there may be a right to compensation under section 138C in respect of certain expenditure incurred in respect of any existing claim.

Revocation or termination of initial demolition notices

- 3 (1) Paragraph 15(4) to (7) of Schedule 5 (revocation notices) shall apply in relation to an initial demolition notice as they apply in relation to a final demolition notice.
- (2) If a compulsory purchase order has been made for the purpose of enabling the landlord to demolish the dwelling-house in respect of which he has served an initial demolition notice (whether or not it would enable him to demolish any other premises as well) and—
- (a) a relevant decision within sub-paragraph (3)(a) becomes effective while the notice is in force, or
 - (b) a relevant decision within sub-paragraph (3)(b) becomes final while the notice is in force,
- the notice ceases to be in force as from the date when the decision becomes effective or final.
- (3) A “relevant decision” is—
- (a) a decision under Part 2 of the Acquisition of Land Act 1981 to confirm the order with modifications, or not to confirm the whole or part of the order, or
 - (b) a decision of the High Court to quash the whole or part of the order under section 24 of that Act,
- where the effect of the decision is that the landlord will not be able, by virtue of that order, to carry out the demolition of the dwelling-house.
- (4) A relevant decision within sub-paragraph (3)(a) becomes effective—
- (a) at the end of the period of 16 weeks beginning with the date of the decision, if no application for judicial review is made in respect of the decision within that period, or
 - (b) if such an application is so made, at the time when—
 - (i) a decision on the application which upholds the relevant decision becomes final, or
 - (ii) the application is abandoned or otherwise ceases to have effect.
- (5) A relevant decision within sub-paragraph (3)(b), or a decision within sub-paragraph (4)(b), becomes final—
- (a) if not appealed against, at the end of the period for bringing an appeal, or
 - (b) if appealed against, at the time when the appeal (or any further appeal) is disposed of.
- (6) An appeal is disposed of—
- (a) if it is determined and the period for bringing any further appeal has ended, or

Status: Point in time view as at 02/12/2019. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) if it is abandoned or otherwise ceases to have effect.
- (7) Where an initial demolition notice ceases to be in force under sub-paragraph (2), the landlord must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, serve a notice on the tenant which informs him—
 - (a) that the notice has ceased to be in force as from the date in question, and
 - (b) of the reason why it has ceased to be in force.
- (8) If, while an initial demolition notice is in force in respect of a dwelling-house, a final demolition notice comes into force under paragraph 13 of Schedule 5 in respect of that dwelling-house, the initial demolition notice ceases to be in force as from the date when the final demolition notice comes into force.
- (9) In such a case the final demolition notice must state that it is replacing the initial demolition notice.

Restriction on serving further demolition notices

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies where an initial demolition notice (“the relevant notice”) has (for any reason) ceased to be in force in respect of a dwelling-house without it being demolished.
- (2) No further initial demolition notice may be served in respect of the dwelling-house during the period of 5 years following the time when the relevant notice ceases to be in force, unless—
 - (a) it is served with the consent of the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) it states that it is so served.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (4), no final demolition notice may be served in respect of the dwelling-house during the period of 5 years following the time when the relevant notice ceases to be in force, unless—
