CHAPTER 1

INTERIM AND FINAL MANAGEMENT ORDERS

Final management orders: making and operation of orders

114 Operation of final management orders

- (1) This section deals with the time when a final management order comes into force or ceases to have effect.
- (2) The order does not come into force until such time (if any) as is the operative time for the purposes of this subsection under paragraph 27 of Schedule 6 (time when period for appealing expires without an appeal being made or when order is confirmed on appeal).
- (3) The order ceases to have effect at the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the date on which it comes into force, unless it ceases to have effect at some other time as mentioned below.
- (4) If the order provides that it is to cease to have effect on a date falling before the end of that period, it accordingly ceases to have effect on that date.
- (5) Subsections (6) and (7) apply where—
 - (a) a new final management order (“the new order”) has been made so as to replace the order (“the existing order”), but
 - (b) the new order has not come into force because of an appeal to [^{F1}the appropriate tribunal] under paragraph 24 of Schedule 6 against the making of that order.

the existing order continues in force until that later date.
- (7) If, on the application of the authority, the tribunal makes an order providing for the existing order to continue in force, pending the disposal of the appeal, until a date later than that on which it would cease to have effect apart from this subsection, the existing order accordingly continues in force until that later date.
- (8) This section has effect subject to sections 121 and 122 (variation or revocation of orders) and to the power of revocation exercisable by [^{F2}the appropriate tribunal] on an appeal made under paragraph 24 or 28 of Schedule 6.
