2004 CHAPTER 5

PART 2

LOCAL DEVELOPMENT

Documents

17 Local development documents

^{F1}(1)

^{F1}(2)

(3) [^{F2}The local planning authority's local development documents] must (taken as a whole) set out the authority's policies (however expressed) relating to the development and use of land in their area.

(4) In the case of the documents which are included in a minerals and waste development scheme they must also (taken as a whole) set out the authority's policies (however expressed) [^{F3}Where a county council is required to prepare a minerals and waste development scheme in respect of an area, the council's local development documents must (taken as a whole) set out the council's policies (however expressed) for that area] within the meaning of paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to the principal Act (ignoring sub-paragraph (1)(i)).

(5) If to any extent a policy set out in a local development document conflicts with any other statement or information in the document the conflict must be resolved in favour of the policy.

(6) The authority must keep under review their local development documents having regard to the results of any review carried out under section 13 or 14.

(7) Regulations under this section may prescribe—

20 Independent examination

- (1) The local planning authority must submit every development plan document to the Secretary of State for independent examination.
 - (2) But the authority must not submit such a document unless—
 - (a) they have complied with any relevant requirements contained in regulations under this Part, and
 - (b) they think the document is ready for independent examination.
 - (3) The authority must also send to the Secretary of State (in addition to the development plan document) such other documents (or copies of documents) and such information as is prescribed.
 - (4) The examination must be carried out by a person appointed by the Secretary of State.
 - (5) The purpose of an independent examination is to determine in respect of the development plan document—
 - (a) whether it satisfies the requirements of sections 19 and 24(1), regulations under section 17(7) and any regulations under section 36 relating to the preparation of development plan documents;
 - (b) whether it is sound.^[F21]; and
 - (c) whether the local planning authority complied with any duty imposed on the authority by section 33A in relation to its preparation.]
 - (6) Any person who makes representations seeking to change a development plan document must (if he so requests) be given the opportunity to appear before and be heard by the person carrying out the examination.
- ^F22 The Secretary of State may by notice to the person appointed to carry out the examination—
- (a) direct the person not to take any step, or any further step, in connection with the examination of the development plan document, or of a specified part of it, until a specified time or until the direction is withdrawn;
 - (b) require the person—
 - (i) to consider any specified matters;
 - (ii) to give an opportunity, or further opportunity, to specified persons to appear before and be heard by the person;
 - (iii) to take any specified procedural step in connection with the examination.
- In this subsection “specified” means specified in the notice.]
- ^F23 Where the person appointed to carry out the examination—
- (a) has carried it out, and
 - (b) considers that, in all the circumstances, it would be reasonable to conclude—
 - (i) that the document satisfies the requirements mentioned in subsection (5)(a) and is sound, and
 - (ii) that the local planning authority complied with any duty imposed on the authority by section 33A in relation to the document's preparation,the person must recommend that the document is adopted and give reasons for the recommendation.
- (7A) Where the person appointed to carry out the examination—

- (a) has carried it out, and
 - (b) is not required by subsection (7) to recommend that the document is adopted, the person must recommend non-adoption of the document and give reasons for the recommendation.
- (7B) Subsection (7C) applies where the person appointed to carry out the examination—
- (a) does not consider that, in all the circumstances, it would be reasonable to conclude that the document satisfies the requirements mentioned in subsection (5)(a) and is sound, but
 - (b) does consider that, in all the circumstances, it would be reasonable to conclude that the local planning authority complied with any duty imposed on the authority by section 33A in relation to the document's preparation.
- (7C) If asked to do so by the local planning authority, the person appointed to carry out the examination must recommend modifications of the document that would make it one that—
- (a) satisfies the requirements mentioned in subsection (5)(a), and
 - (b) is sound.]
- (8) The local planning authority must publish the recommendations and the reasons.

21 Intervention by Secretary of State

- (1) If the Secretary of State thinks that a local development document is unsatisfactory—
 - (a) he may at any time before the document is adopted under section 23 direct the local planning authority to modify the document in accordance with the direction;
 - (b) if he gives such a direction he must state his reasons for doing so.
- (2) The authority—
 - (a) must comply with the direction;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2016.

- (b) must not adopt the document unless the Secretary of State gives notice that he is satisfied that they have complied with the direction.
- (3) But subsection (2) does not apply if [^{F24}or to the extent that] the Secretary of State withdraws the direction.
- (4) At any time before a development plan document is adopted by a local planning authority the Secretary of State may direct that the document (or any part of it) is submitted to him for his approval.
- (5) The following paragraphs apply if the Secretary of State gives a direction under subsection (4)—
 - (a) the authority must not take any step in connection with the adoption of the document until the Secretary of State gives his decision [^{F25}, or withdraws the direction];
 - [^{F26}(b) if the direction is given, and not withdrawn, before the authority have submitted the document under section 20(1), the Secretary of State must hold an independent examination;]
 - (c) if the direction is given after the authority have submitted the document but before the person appointed to carry out the examination has made his recommendations [^{F27}, and is not withdrawn before those recommendations are made, the person] must make his recommendations to the Secretary of State;
 - [^{F28}(d) the document has no effect unless the document or (as the case may be) the relevant part of it has been approved by the Secretary of State, or the direction is withdrawn.]
- [^{F29}(5A) Subsections (4) to (7C) of section 20 apply to an examination held under subsection (5) (b), the reference to the local planning authority in subsection (7C) of that section being read as a reference to the Secretary of State.
- (5B) For the purposes of subsection (5)(d) the “relevant part” of a development plan document is the part that—
 - (a) is covered by a direction under subsection (4) which refers to only part of the document, or
 - (b) continues to be covered by a direction under subsection (4) following the partial withdrawal of the direction.]
- (6) The Secretary of State must publish the recommendations made to him by virtue of subsection (5)(b) or (c) and the reasons of the person making the recommendations.
- (7) In considering a document or part of a document submitted under subsection (4) the Secretary of State may take account of any matter which he thinks is relevant.
- (8) It is immaterial whether any such matter was taken account of by the authority.
- (9) In relation to a document or part of a document submitted to him under subsection (4) the Secretary of State—
 - (a) may approve, approve subject to specified modifications or reject the document or part;
 - (b) must give reasons for his decision under paragraph (a).
- [^{F30}(9A) The Secretary of State may at any time—
