

Gender Recognition Act 2004

2004 CHAPTER 7

Consequences of issue of gender recognition certificate etc.

20 Gender-specific offences

- (1) Where (apart from this subsection) a relevant gender-specific offence could be committed or attempted only if the gender of a person to whom a full gender recognition certificate has been issued were not the acquired gender, the fact that the person's gender has become the acquired gender does not prevent the offence being committed or attempted.
- (2) An offence is a "relevant gender-specific offence" if—
 - (a) either or both of the conditions in subsection (3) are satisfied, and
 - (b) the commission of the offence involves the accused engaging in sexual activity.
- (3) The conditions are—
 - (a) that the offence may be committed only by a person of a particular gender, and
 - (b) that the offence may be committed only on, or in relation to, a person of a particular gender,and the references to a particular gender include a gender identified by reference to the gender of the other person involved.
