Power of investigation

2 Power of investigation

- (1) The Ombudsman may investigate a complaint [F²under this Part] in respect of a matter if—
- (a) the complaint has been duly made or referred to him, and
 - (b) the matter is one which he is entitled to investigate under sections 7 to 11.
- (2) A complaint is “duly made” to the Ombudsman if (but only if)—
- (a) it is made by a person who is entitled under section 4 to make the complaint to the Ombudsman, and
 - (b) the requirements of section 5 are met in respect of it.
- (3) A complaint is “duly referred” to the Ombudsman if (but only if)—
- (a) it is referred to him by a listed authority, and
 - (b) the requirements of section 6 are met in respect of it.
- (4) The Ombudsman may investigate a complaint [F³under this Part] in respect of a matter even if the requirements of section 5(1) or (as the case may be) section 6(1)(b) or (d) are not met in respect of the complaint, if—
- (a) the matter is one which he is entitled to investigate under sections 7 to 11, and
 - (b) he thinks it reasonable to do so.
- (5) It is for the Ombudsman to decide whether to begin, continue or discontinue an investigation.
- (6) The Ombudsman may take any action which he thinks may assist in making a decision under subsection (5).
- (7) The Ombudsman may begin or continue an investigation into a complaint even if the complaint, or the referral of the complaint, has been withdrawn.

3 Alternative resolution of complaints

- (1) The Ombudsman may take any action he thinks appropriate with a view to resolving a complaint which he has power to investigate under section 2.
- (2) The Ombudsman may take action under this section in addition to or instead of conducting an investigation into the complaint.
- (3) Any action under this section must be taken in private.

Complaints

4 Who can complain

- (1) The persons entitled to make a complaint to the Ombudsman [^{F4}under this Part] are—
 - (a) a member of the public (in this [^{F5}Part] referred to as “the person aggrieved”) who claims or claimed to have sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of a matter which the Ombudsman is entitled to investigate under sections 7 to 11;
 - (b) a person authorised by the person aggrieved to act on his behalf;
 - (c) if the person aggrieved is not capable of authorising a person to act on his behalf (for example because he has died), a person who appears to the Ombudsman to be appropriate to act on behalf of the person aggrieved.
- (2) “Member of the public” means any person other than a listed authority acting in its capacity as such.
- (3) It is for the Ombudsman to determine any question of whether a person is entitled under this section to make a complaint to him.

Textual Amendments

- F4 Words in s. 4(1) inserted (1.11.2014) by Social Services and Well-being \(Wales\) Act 2014 \(anaw 4\), s. 199(2), Sch. 3 para. 16\(a\); S.I. 2014/2718, art. 2(b)

6 Requirements: complaints referred to the Ombudsman

- (1) The requirements mentioned in section 2(3)(b) are that—
- (a) the complaint must have been made to the listed authority by a person who would have been entitled under section 4 to make the complaint to the Ombudsman;
 - (b) the complaint must have been made to the listed authority before the end of the period of one year starting on the day on which the person aggrieved first had notice of the matters alleged in the complaint;
 - (c) the complaint must be referred to the Ombudsman in writing;
 - (d) the complaint must be referred to the Ombudsman before the end of the period of one year starting on the day on which the complaint was made to the listed authority.
- (2) It is for the Ombudsman to determine any question of whether the requirements of subsection (1) are met in respect of a complaint.

Matters which may be investigated

7 Matters which may be investigated

- (1) The matters which the Ombudsman is entitled to investigate [^{F6}under this Part] are—
- (a) alleged maladministration by a listed authority in connection with relevant action;
 - (b) an alleged failure in a relevant service provided by a listed authority;
 - (c) an alleged failure by a listed authority to provide a relevant service.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to sections 8 to 11.
- (3) Relevant action is—
- (a) in the case of a listed authority which is a family health service provider in Wales or an independent provider in Wales, action taken by the authority in connection with the provision of a relevant service;
 - (b) in the case of a listed authority which is a social landlord in Wales or a Welsh health service body other than the [^{F7}Welsh Ministers], action taken by the authority in the discharge of any of its functions;
 - (c) in the case of a listed authority which is a person with functions conferred by regulations made under section 113(2) of the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003 (c. 43), action taken by the authority in the discharge of any of those functions;
 - (d) in the case of a listed authority which is a listed authority by virtue of an order under section 28(2) adding it to Schedule 3, action taken by the authority in the discharge of any of its specified functions;
 - (e) in any other case, action taken by the authority in the discharge of any of its administrative functions.
- (4) A relevant service is—
- (a) in the case of a listed authority which is a family health service provider in Wales, any of the family health services which the authority had, at the time of the action which is the subject of the complaint, entered into a contract, undertaken, or made arrangements, to provide;

9 Exclusion: other remedies

- (1) The Ombudsman may not investigate a matter [^{F9}under this Part] if the person aggrieved has or had—
 - (a) a right of appeal, reference or review to or before a tribunal constituted under an enactment or by virtue of Her Majesty's prerogative,
 - (b) a right of appeal to a Minister of the Crown or the [^{F10}, the Welsh Ministers, the First Minister for Wales or the Counsel General to the Welsh Assembly Government], or
 - (c) a remedy by way of proceedings in a court of law.
- (2) But subsection (1) does not apply if the Ombudsman is satisfied that, in the particular circumstances, it is not reasonable to expect the person to resort, or to have resorted, to the right or remedy.
- (3) The Ombudsman may investigate a matter [^{F11}under this Part] only if he is satisfied that—
 - (a) the matter has been brought to the attention of the listed authority to which it relates by or on behalf of the person aggrieved, and
 - (b) the authority has been given a reasonable opportunity to investigate and respond to it.
- (4) But subsection (3) does not prevent the Ombudsman from investigating a matter if he is satisfied that it is reasonable in the particular circumstances for him to investigate the matter despite the fact that the requirements of that subsection have not been met.

11 Decisions taken without maladministration

- (1) The Ombudsman may not question the merits of a decision taken without maladministration by a listed authority in the exercise of a discretion.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the merits of a decision to the extent that the decision was taken in consequence of the exercise of professional judgement which appears to the Ombudsman to be exercisable in connection with the provision of health or social care.

Decisions not to investigate etc.

12 Decisions not to investigate or to discontinue investigation

- (1) If the Ombudsman decides under section 2(5)—
 - (a) not to begin an investigation into a complaint in respect of a listed authority, or
 - (b) to discontinue such an investigation,he must prepare a statement of the reasons for his decision.
- (2) The Ombudsman must send a copy of the statement to—
 - (a) the person who made the complaint, and
 - (b) the listed authority.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The Ombudsman may send a copy of the statement to any other persons he thinks appropriate.
- (4) The Ombudsman may publish a statement under this section if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons he thinks appropriate, he considers it to be in the public interest to do so.
- (5) The Ombudsman may supply a copy of a statement published under subsection (4), or any part of such a statement, to any person who requests it.
- (6) The Ombudsman may charge a reasonable fee for supplying a copy of a statement, or part of a statement, under subsection (5).
- (7) If a statement prepared under subsection (1)—
 - (a) mentions the name of any person other than the listed authority in respect of which the complaint was made, or
 - (b) includes any particulars which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, are likely to identify any such person and which, in his opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the statement, that information must not be included in a version of the statement sent to a person under subsection (2) or (3) or published under subsection (4), subject to subsection (8).
- (8) Subsection (7) does not apply in relation to a version of the statement if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons he thinks appropriate, the Ombudsman considers it to be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the statement.
- (9) ^{F15}

Textual Amendments

- F15 S. 12(9) repealed by Government of Wales Act 2006 \(c. 32\), ss. 160(1), 163, Sch. 10 para. 72, Sch. 12 (with Sch. 11 para. 22), the amending provision coming into force immediately after "the 2007 election" (held on 3.5.2007) subject to s. 161(4)(5) of the amending Act, which provides for certain provisions to come into force for specified purposes immediately after the end of "the initial period" (which ended with the day of the first appointment of a First Minister on 25.5.2007) - see ss. 46, 161(1)(4)(5) of the amending Act.

Investigation procedure and evidence

13 Investigation procedure

- (1) If the Ombudsman conducts an investigation into a complaint in respect of a listed authority, he must—
 - (a) give the listed authority an opportunity to comment on any allegations contained in the complaint;
 - (b) give any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken or authorised the action complained of an opportunity to comment on any allegations relating to that person.
- (2) An investigation must be conducted in private.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), the procedure for conducting an investigation is to be such as the Ombudsman thinks appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(4) In particular, the Ombudsman may—

- (a) make such inquiries as he thinks appropriate;
- (b) determine whether any person may be represented in the investigation by [^{F16}an authorised person] or otherwise.

[^{F17}(4A) In subsection (4) “authorised person” means a person who, for the purposes of the Legal Services Act 2007, is an authorised person in relation to an activity which constitutes the exercise of a right of audience or the conduct of litigation (within the meaning of that Act).]

(5) The Ombudsman may pay to the person who made the complaint and to any other person who attends or supplies information for the purposes of the investigation—

- (a) such sums as he may determine in respect of expenses properly incurred by them, and
- (b) such allowances as he may determine by way of compensation for the loss of their time, subject to such conditions as he may determine.

(6) The conduct of an investigation in respect of a listed authority does not affect—

- (a) the validity of any action taken by the listed authority, or
- (b) any power or duty of the listed authority to take further action with respect to any matter under investigation.

14 Information, documents, evidence and facilities

[^{F18}(A1) This section applies in relation to investigations conducted under this Part.]

(1) For the purposes of an investigation the Ombudsman may require a person he thinks is able to supply information or produce a document relevant to the investigation to do so.

(2) For the purposes of an investigation the Ombudsman has the same powers as the High Court in respect of—

- (a) the attendance and examination of witnesses (including the administration of oaths and affirmations and the examination of witnesses abroad), and
- (b) the production of documents.

(3) For the purposes of an investigation the Ombudsman may require a person he thinks is able to supply information or produce a document relevant to the investigation to provide any facility he may reasonably require.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Subject to subsection (6), no person is to be compelled for the purposes of an investigation to give any evidence or produce any document which he could not be compelled to give or produce in civil proceedings before the High Court.
- (5) No obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction on the disclosure of information obtained by or supplied to persons in Her Majesty's service, whether imposed by any enactment or rule of law, is to apply to the disclosure of information for the purposes of an investigation.
- (6) The Crown is not entitled in relation to an investigation to any privilege in respect of the production of documents or the giving of evidence that would otherwise be allowed by law in legal proceedings.

Textual Amendments

F18 S. 14(A1) inserted (1.11.2014) by Social Services and Well-being \(Wales\) Act 2014 \(anaw 4\), s. 199(2), Sch. 3 para. 20; S.I. 2014/2718, art. 2(b)

15 Obstruction and contempt

- (1) If the Ombudsman is satisfied that the condition in subsection (2) is met in relation to a person, he may issue a certificate to that effect to the High Court.
- (2) The condition is that the person—
 - (a) without lawful excuse, has obstructed the discharge of any of the Ombudsman's functions under this Part, or
 - (b) has done an act in relation to an investigation which, if the investigation were proceedings in the High Court, would constitute contempt of court.
- (3) But the condition in subsection (2) is not met in relation to a person merely because he has taken action such as is mentioned in section 13(6).
- (4) If the Ombudsman issues a certificate under subsection (1), the High Court may inquire into the matter.
- (5) If the High Court is satisfied that the condition in subsection (2) is met in relation to the person, it may deal with him in any manner in which it could have dealt with him if he had committed contempt in relation to the High Court.

Reports of investigations

16 Reports of investigations

- (1) The Ombudsman must, after conducting an investigation into a complaint in respect of a listed authority—
 - (a) prepare a report on his findings, and
 - (b) send a copy of the report to all the appropriate persons.

This is subject to section 21.
- (2) The appropriate persons are—
 - (a) the person who made the complaint;

- (8) The references to listed authorities, or to a particular listed authority, are to be taken to be references to persons, or a particular person, of the same description as that person.

19 Action following receipt of a report

- (1) This section applies if, in a report under section 16 of an investigation in respect of a listed authority, the Ombudsman concludes that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of the matter investigated.
- (2) The listed authority must consider the report and notify the Ombudsman before the end of the permitted period of—
- (a) the action it has taken or proposes to take in response to it, and
 - (b) the period before the end of which it proposes to have taken that action (if it has not already done so).
- (3) The permitted period is—
- (a) the period of one month beginning on the date on which the authority receives the report, or
 - (b) any longer period specified by the Ombudsman in writing.

PROSPECTIVE

20 Non-action following receipt of a report

- (1) If the Ombudsman is satisfied that the condition in subsection (2) is met in relation to a listed authority, he may issue a certificate to that effect to the High Court.
- (2) The condition is that the listed authority has wilfully disregarded his report without lawful excuse.

21 Reports: alternative procedure

- (1) This section applies if, after the Ombudsman has conducted an investigation into a complaint in respect of a listed authority—
- (a) he concludes that the person aggrieved has not sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of the matter investigated, and
 - (b) he is satisfied that the public interest does not require sections 16 to 19 to apply.
- (2) This section also applies if, after the Ombudsman has conducted an investigation into a complaint in respect of a listed authority—
- (a) he concludes that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of the matter investigated,
 - (b) the listed authority agrees to implement, before the end of the permitted period, any recommendations he makes, and
 - (c) he is satisfied that the public interest does not require sections 16 to 19 to apply.
- (3) The permitted period is—

- (a) a period agreed between the Ombudsman, the listed authority and the person who made the complaint, or
 - (b) if the Ombudsman thinks that no such agreement can be reached, the period specified by him in writing.
- (4) The Ombudsman may decide to prepare a report on his findings under this section instead of under section 16.
- (5) If the Ombudsman decides to prepare a report under this section—
- (a) sections 16 to 19 do not apply;
 - (b) he must send a copy of the report to—
 - (i) the person who made the complaint;
 - (ii) the listed authority;
 - (c) he may send a copy of the report to any other persons he thinks appropriate.
- (6) The Ombudsman may publish a report prepared under this section if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons he thinks appropriate, he considers it to be in the public interest to do so.
- (7) The Ombudsman may supply a copy of a report published under subsection (6), or any part of such a report, to any person who requests it.
- (8) The Ombudsman may charge a reasonable fee for supplying a copy of a report, or part of a report, under subsection (7).
- (9) If a report prepared under this section—
- (a) mentions the name of any person other than the listed authority in respect of which the complaint was made, or
 - (b) includes any particulars which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, are likely to identify any such person and which, in his opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the report,
- that information must not be included in a version of the report sent to a person under subsection (5) or published under subsection (6), subject to subsection (10).
- (10) Subsection (9) does not apply in relation to a version of the report if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons he thinks appropriate, the Ombudsman considers it to be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the report.

Special reports

22 Special reports

- (1) The Ombudsman may prepare a report under this section (a “special report”) if subsection (2), (4) or (6) applies.
- (2) This subsection applies if, in a report under section 16, the Ombudsman has concluded that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of the matter investigated and—
 - (a) the Ombudsman has not received the notification required under section 19 before the end of the period permitted under that section,
 - (b) he has received that notification but he is not satisfied with—
 - (i) the action which the listed authority has taken or proposes to take, or
 - (ii) the period before the end of which it proposes to have taken that action, or
 - (c) he has received that notification but he is not satisfied that the listed authority has, before the end of the permitted period, taken the action it proposed to take.
- (3) The permitted period for the purposes of subsection (2)(c) is—
 - (a) the period referred to in section 19(2)(b), or
 - (b) any longer period specified by the Ombudsman in writing.
- (4) This subsection applies if the Ombudsman—
 - (a) has prepared a report under section 21 by virtue of subsection (2) of that section, and
 - (b) is not satisfied that the listed authority has implemented his recommendations before the end of the permitted period.
- (5) The permitted period for the purposes of subsection (4)(b) is—
 - (a) the period referred to in section 21(2)(b), or
 - (b) any longer period specified by the Ombudsman in writing.
- (6) This subsection applies if—
 - (a) a complaint in respect of a listed authority has been resolved under section 3,
 - (b) in resolving the complaint, the Ombudsman has concluded that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship in consequence of the matter which is the subject of the complaint,
 - (c) the listed authority has agreed to take particular action before the end of a particular period, and
 - (d) the Ombudsman is not satisfied that the listed authority has taken that action before the end of the permitted period.
- (7) The permitted period for the purposes of subsection (6)(d) is—
 - (a) the period referred to in subsection (6)(c), or
 - (b) any longer period specified by the Ombudsman in writing.
- (8) A special report must—
 - (a) set out the facts on the basis of which subsection (2), (4) or (6) applies, and
 - (b) make such recommendations as the Ombudsman thinks fit with respect to the action which, in his opinion, should be taken—
 - (i) to remedy the injustice or hardship to the person aggrieved, and

- (ii) to prevent similar injustice or hardship being caused in the future.
- (9) The Ombudsman must send a copy of a special report—
 - (a) if the special report is prepared because subsection (2) applies, to each person to whom a copy of the report under section 16 was sent under section 16(1)(b);
 - (b) if the special report is prepared because subsection (4) or (6) applies, to the person who made the complaint and the listed authority.
- (10) The Ombudsman may send a copy of a special report to any other persons he thinks appropriate.

23 Special reports: supplementary

- (1) The Ombudsman may—
 - (a) publish a special report [^{F23}made under section 22] ;
 - (b) supply a copy of the published report or any part of it to any person who requests it.
- (2) The Ombudsman may charge a reasonable fee for supplying a copy of a report (or part of a report) under subsection (1)(b).
- (3) The listed authority in respect of which a special report is made must reimburse the Ombudsman for the cost of publishing a special report if requested to do so by the Ombudsman.
- (4) If a special report—
 - (a) mentions the name of any person other than the listed authority in respect of which the complaint was made, or
 - (b) includes any particulars which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, are likely to identify any such person and which, in his opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the report,that information must not be included in a version of the report sent to a person under section 22(9) or (10) or published under subsection (1) of this section, subject to subsection (5).
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply in relation to a version of the special report if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons he thinks appropriate, the Ombudsman considers it to be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the special report.
- (6) ^{F24}
- (7) Sections 17 and 18 (publicising reports under section 16) apply in relation to a special report [^{F25}under section 22] as they apply in relation to a report under section 16.

Miscellaneous

31 Power to issue guidance

- (1) The Ombudsman may issue to one or more listed authorities such guidance about good administrative practice as he thinks appropriate.
- (2) Before issuing guidance under this section the Ombudsman must consult such listed authorities, or persons appearing to him to represent them, as he thinks appropriate.
- (3) If guidance issued under this section is applicable to a listed authority, the authority must have regard to the guidance in discharging its functions.
- (4) In conducting an investigation in respect of a listed authority, the Ombudsman may have regard to the extent to which the authority has complied with any guidance issued under this section which is applicable to the authority.
- (5) The Ombudsman may publish any guidance issued under this section in any manner that he thinks appropriate, including in particular by putting the guidance in an annual or extraordinary report.
- (6) Guidance issued under this section may contain different provision for different purposes.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), guidance issued under this section must not—
 - (a) mention the name of any person other than the listed authorities to which it is applicable or a listed authority in respect of which a complaint has been made or referred to the Ombudsman under this Act, or
 - (b) include any particulars which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, are likely to identify any such person and which, in his opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the guidance.
- (8) Subsection (7) does not apply if, after taking account of the interests of any persons he thinks appropriate, the Ombudsman considers it to be in the public interest to include that information in the guidance.

Application of this Part

34A Matters to which this Part applies

- (1) This Part applies to the following matters—
- (a) action taken by a care home provider in connection with the provision of accommodation, nursing or personal care in a care home in Wales;
 - (b) action taken by a domiciliary care provider in connection with the provision of domiciliary care in Wales;
 - (c) action taken by an independent palliative care provider in connection with the provision of a palliative care service in Wales.
- (2) But this Part does not apply to—
- (a) matters which may be investigated under Part 2, or
 - (b) matters described in Schedule 3A.
- (3) The Welsh Ministers may by order amend Schedule 3A by—
- (a) adding an entry,
 - (b) removing an entry, or
 - (c) changing an entry.
- (4) Before making an order under subsection (3), the Welsh Ministers must consult the Ombudsman.
- (5) No order is to be made under subsection (3) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the Assembly.
- (6) For the meaning of the following terms see sections 34R to 34T—
- “care home”;
 - “care home provider”;
 - “domiciliary care”;
 - “domiciliary care provider”;
 - “palliative care service”;
 - “independent palliative care provider”.

Investigation of complaints

34B Power to investigate complaints

- (1) The Ombudsman may investigate a complaint about a matter to which this Part applies if—
 - (a) the complaint has been duly made or referred to the Ombudsman, and
 - (b) in the case of a complaint which relates to an independent palliative care provider, the condition in subsection (2) is met.
- (2) The condition is that the independent palliative care provider has received public funding, within the three years before the date of the action to which the complaint relates, in respect of a palliative care service that it provides in Wales.
- (3) In subsection (2) “public funding” means funding from—
 - (a) the Welsh Ministers,
 - (b) a Local Health Board established under section 11 of the National Health Service (Wales) Act 2006,
 - (c) an NHS Trust, or
 - (d) a county council or county borough council in Wales.
- (4) A complaint is “duly made” to the Ombudsman if (but only if)—
 - (a) it is made by a person who is entitled under section 34D to make a complaint to the Ombudsman,
 - (b) before the complaint is made—
 - (i) the matter to which it relates has been brought, by or on behalf of the person affected, to the notice of the provider to whom it relates, and
 - (ii) the provider has been given a reasonable opportunity to investigate the matter and to respond, and
 - (c) the requirements of section 34E are met in respect of it.
- (5) A complaint is “duly referred” to the Ombudsman if (but only if)—
 - (a) it is made by a person who is entitled under section 34D to make a complaint to the Ombudsman, and
 - (b) the requirements of section 34F are met in respect of it.
- (6) It is for the Ombudsman to determine whether the requirements of subsection (1) have been met in respect of a complaint.
- (7) Where the Ombudsman determines that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met in respect of a complaint because the requirements of subsection (4)(b), section 34E or section 34F(1)(a)(ii) or (b)(ii) have not been met in respect of that complaint, the Ombudsman may nonetheless investigate the complaint if—
 - (a) it relates to a matter to which this Part applies, and
 - (b) the Ombudsman thinks it reasonable to do so.
- (8) It is for the Ombudsman to decide whether to begin, continue or discontinue an investigation.
- (9) The Ombudsman may take any action which he or she thinks may assist in making a decision under subsection (8).

*Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
 Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (10) The Ombudsman may begin or continue an investigation into a complaint even if the complaint has been withdrawn.

34C Alternative resolution of complaints

- (1) The Ombudsman may take any action he or she considers appropriate with a view to resolving a complaint which he or she has the power to investigate under section 34B.
- (2) The Ombudsman may take action under this section in addition to or instead of conducting an investigation into the complaint.
- (3) Any action under this section must be taken in private.

34D Who can complain

- (1) The persons entitled to make a complaint to the Ombudsman are—
- (a) a member of the public (referred to in this Part as “the person aggrieved”) who claims or claimed to have sustained injustice or hardship as a result of a matter to which this Part applies,
 - (b) a person authorised in writing by the person aggrieved to act on that person's behalf, or
 - (c) if the person aggrieved is not capable of authorising a person to act on his or her behalf (for example because the person has died), a person who appears to the Ombudsman to be appropriate to act on behalf of the person aggrieved.
- (2) “Member of the public” does not include a person acting in his or her capacity as—
- (a) a care home provider,
 - (b) a domiciliary care provider,
 - (c) an independent palliative care provider, or
 - (d) a listed authority.
- (3) It is for the Ombudsman to determine any question of whether a person is entitled under this section to make a complaint.

34E Requirements: complaints made to the Ombudsman

- (1) The requirements mentioned in section 34B(4)(c) are that the complaint must be made—
- (a) in writing, and
 - (b) before the end of the permitted period.
- (2) In subsection (1)(b) (and in section 34F(1)(a)(ii)) “the permitted period” means—
- (a) where the person aggrieved has notice of the matter before the date on which section 34B comes into force, the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which that section comes into force, and
 - (b) in any other case, the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the person aggrieved first has notice of the matter.
- (3) It is for the Ombudsman to determine whether the requirements of subsection (1) are met in respect of a complaint.

Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

34F Requirements: complaints referred to the Ombudsman

- (1) The requirements mentioned in section 34B(5)(b) are that the complaint—
 - (a) must have been made to the provider to whom it relates—
 - (i) by a person who would have been entitled under section 34D to make the complaint to the Ombudsman, and
 - (ii) before the end of the permitted period (within the meaning given by section 34E(2)), and
 - (b) must be referred to the Ombudsman—
 - (i) in writing, and
 - (ii) before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the complaint was made to the provider.

Decisions not to investigate etc

34G Decisions not to investigate complaints or to discontinue investigations

- (1) If the Ombudsman decides under section 34B(8) not to begin an investigation into a complaint or to discontinue an investigation, the Ombudsman must prepare a statement of the reasons for that decision.
- (2) The Ombudsman must send a copy of the statement to—
 - (a) the person who made the complaint, and
 - (b) the provider to whom the complaint relates.
- (3) The Ombudsman may also send a copy of the statement to any other persons he or she thinks appropriate.
- (4) The Ombudsman may publish a statement under this section if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons the Ombudsman thinks appropriate, he or she considers that it would be in the public interest to do so.
- (5) The Ombudsman may supply a copy of the published statement, or part of that statement, to any person who requests it.
- (6) The Ombudsman may charge a reasonable fee for supplying a copy of a statement, or part of a statement, under subsection (5).
- (7) The following information must not be included in a version of a statement sent to a person under subsection (2)(b) or (3) or published under subsection (4)—
 - (a) the name of a person other than the provider to whom the complaint relates;
 - (b) information which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, is likely to identify such a person and which, in the Ombudsman's opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the statement.
- (8) Subsection (7) does not apply if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons the Ombudsman thinks appropriate, the Ombudsman considers that it would be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the statement.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Investigation procedure and evidence

34H Investigation procedure

- (1) If the Ombudsman decides under section 34B(8) to conduct an investigation into a complaint, he or she must—
 - (a) give the provider to whom the complaint relates an opportunity to comment on the allegations contained in the complaint, and
 - (b) give any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken or authorised the action complained of an opportunity to comment on the allegations relating to that person.
- (2) An investigation must be conducted in private.
- (3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), the procedure for conducting an investigation is that which the Ombudsman thinks appropriate in the circumstances of the case.
- (4) The Ombudsman may, among other things—
 - (a) make any inquiries which he or she thinks appropriate, and
 - (b) determine whether any person may be represented in the investigation by an authorised person or another person.
- (5) In subsection (4) “authorised person” means a person who, for the purposes of the Legal Services Act 2007, is an authorised person in relation to an activity which constitutes the exercise of a right of audience or the conduct of litigation (within the meaning of that Act).
- (6) The Ombudsman may pay to the person who made the complaint and to any other person who attends or supplies information for the purposes of the investigation—
 - (a) sums in respect of the expenses properly incurred by them, and
 - (b) allowances to compensate for the loss of their time.
- (7) The Ombudsman may attach conditions to those payments.

34I Information, documents, evidence and facilities

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of an investigation under this Part.
- (2) The Ombudsman may require a person he or she thinks is able to supply information or produce a document relevant to the investigation to do so.
- (3) The Ombudsman has the same powers as the High Court in relation to—
 - (a) the attendance and examination of witnesses (including the administration of oaths and affirmations and the examination of witnesses abroad), and
 - (b) the production of documents.
- (4) The Ombudsman may require a person he or she thinks is able to supply information or produce a document relevant to the investigation to provide any facility the Ombudsman may reasonably require.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), no person may be compelled to give any evidence or produce any document which the person could not be compelled to give or produce in civil proceedings before the High Court.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The Crown is not entitled to any privilege in relation to the production of documents or the giving of evidence that would otherwise be allowed by law in legal proceedings.
- (7) Where an obligation to maintain secrecy or other restriction on the disclosure of information obtained by or supplied to persons in Her Majesty's service has been imposed by an enactment or rule of law, the obligation or restriction does not to apply to the disclosure of information for the purposes of the investigation.

34J Obstruction and contempt

- (1) If the Ombudsman is satisfied that the condition in subsection (2) is met in relation to a person, he or she may issue a certificate to that effect to the High Court.
- (2) The condition is that the person—
 - (a) without lawful excuse, has obstructed the discharge of any of the Ombudsman's functions under this Part, or
 - (b) has done an act in relation to an investigation which, if the investigation were proceedings in the High Court, would constitute contempt of court.
- (3) If the Ombudsman issues a certificate, the High Court may inquire into the matter.
- (4) If the High Court is satisfied that the condition in subsection (2) is met in relation to the person, it may deal with that person in the same manner as it may deal with a person who has committed contempt in relation to the High Court.

Reports about investigations

34K Investigation reports

- (1) This section applies to investigations under this Part unless section 34N applies.
- (2) The Ombudsman must, after conducting an investigation into a complaint about a matter to which this Part applies—
 - (a) prepare a report on the findings of the investigation (“an investigation report”), and
 - (b) send a copy of the report to the appropriate persons.
- (3) The appropriate persons are—
 - (a) the person who made the complaint,
 - (b) the provider to whom it relates,
 - (c) any other person who is alleged in the complaint to have taken or authorised the action complained of, and
 - (d) the Welsh Ministers.
- (4) The Ombudsman may also send a copy of the report to any other persons he or she thinks appropriate.
- (5) The Ombudsman may publish the report if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons the Ombudsman thinks appropriate, he or she considers that it would be in the public interest to do so.
- (6) The Ombudsman may supply a copy of the published report, or part of that report, to any person who requests it.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) The Ombudsman may charge a reasonable fee for supplying a copy of a report, or part of a report, under subsection (6).
- (8) The following information must not be included in a version of a report sent to a person under subsection (3)(b) or (c) or (4) or published under subsection (5)—
 - (a) the name of a person other than the provider to whom the complaint relates;
 - (b) information which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, is likely to identify such a person and which, in the Ombudsman's opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the report.
- (9) Subsection (8) does not apply if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons the Ombudsman thinks appropriate, the Ombudsman considers that it would be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the report.

34L Further publicity for investigation reports

- (1) The Ombudsman may arrange for a notice about an investigation report to be published—
 - (a) in one or more newspapers, or
 - (b) by means of broadcast or other electronic media.
- (2) The notice may, for example—
 - (a) provide a summary of the Ombudsman's findings,
 - (b) specify an address or addresses at which a copy of the published report can be inspected during ordinary office hours and from which a copy of that report (or part of that report) may be obtained, and
 - (c) specify a website address at which a copy of the published report can be viewed.
- (3) The provider to whom the report relates must, if required to do so by the Ombudsman, reimburse the Ombudsman for the reasonable costs of arranging the publication of the notice.
- (4) In deciding whether it is appropriate to make arrangements under subsection (1), the Ombudsman must take into account—
 - (a) the public interest,
 - (b) the interests of the person aggrieved, and
 - (c) the interests of any other persons the Ombudsman thinks appropriate.

34M Action following receipt of investigation reports

- (1) This section applies where the Ombudsman has concluded in an investigation report that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship as a result of the matter investigated.
- (2) The provider to whom the matter relates must consider the report and notify the Ombudsman before the end of the permitted period of—
 - (a) the action the provider has taken or proposes to take in response to the report, and
 - (b) the period before the end of which the provider proposes to take that action (if that action has not already been taken).

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In subsection (2) “the permitted period” means—
- (a) the period of one month beginning on the date on which the authority receives the report, or
 - (b) a longer period specified by the Ombudsman in writing (if any).

34N Reports: alternative procedure

- (1) This section applies if, after the Ombudsman has conducted an investigation under this Part—
- (a) the Ombudsman concludes that the person aggrieved has not sustained injustice or hardship as a result of the matter complained of, and
 - (b) the Ombudsman is satisfied that the public interest does not require sections 34K to 34M to apply.
- (2) This section also applies if, after the Ombudsman has conducted an investigation under this Part—
- (a) the Ombudsman concludes that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship as a result of the matter complained of,
 - (b) the provider to whom the complaint relates agrees to implement, before the end of the permitted period, any recommendations that the Ombudsman makes, and
 - (c) the Ombudsman is satisfied that the public interest does not require sections 34K to 34M to apply.
- (3) In subsection (2)(b) “the permitted period” means—
- (a) a period agreed between the Ombudsman, the provider and the person who made the complaint, or
 - (b) if the Ombudsman thinks that no such agreement can be reached, a period specified by him or her in writing.
- (4) The Ombudsman may decide to prepare a report on his or her findings under this section, rather than under section 34K; and if the Ombudsman decides to do so, sections 34K to 34M do not apply.
- (5) If a report is prepared under this section, the Ombudsman—
- (a) must send a copy of the report to the person who made the complaint and the provider to whom the complaint relates, and
 - (b) may send a copy of the report to any other persons he or she thinks appropriate.
- (6) The Ombudsman may publish the report if, after taking account of the interests of the persons aggrieved and any other persons the Ombudsman thinks appropriate, he or she considers it to be in the public interest to do so.
- (7) The Ombudsman may supply a copy of a report published under subsection (6), or a part of that report, to any person who requests it.
- (8) The Ombudsman may charge a reasonable fee for supplying a copy of a report, or part of a report, under subsection (7).
- (9) The following information must not be included in a version of the report sent to a person under subsection (5) or published under subsection (6)—
- (a) the name of a person other than the provider to whom the complaint relates;

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) information which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, is likely to identify such a person and which, in the Ombudsman's opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the report.
- (10) Subsection (9) does not apply if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons the Ombudsman thinks appropriate, the Ombudsman considers that it would be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the report.

Special reports

34O Circumstances in which special reports may be prepared

- (1) The Ombudsman may prepare a special report under section 34P if case 1, 2 or 3 applies.
- (2) Case 1 applies if—
 - (a) the Ombudsman has concluded in an investigation report that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship as a result of the matter investigated, and
 - (b) one of the circumstances in subsection (3) applies.
- (3) The circumstances are that—
 - (a) the Ombudsman has not received the notification required under section 34M before the end of the period permitted under that section;
 - (b) the Ombudsman has received that notification but is not satisfied with—
 - (i) the action which the provider has taken or proposes to take, or
 - (ii) the period before the end of which the provider proposes to have taken that action;
 - (c) the Ombudsman has received that notification but is not satisfied that the provider has, before the end of the permitted period, taken the action that the provider proposed to take.
- (4) In subsection (3)(c) “the permitted period” means—
 - (a) the period referred to in section 34M(2)(b), or
 - (b) a longer period specified by the Ombudsman in writing (if any).
- (5) Case 2 applies if—
 - (a) the Ombudsman has prepared a report under section 34N by virtue of subsection (2) of that section, and
 - (b) he or she is not satisfied that the provider has implemented the Ombudsman's recommendations before the end of the permitted period.
- (6) In subsection (5)(b) “the permitted period” means—
 - (a) the period referred to in section 34N(2)(b), or
 - (b) a longer period specified by the Ombudsman in writing (if any).
- (7) Case 3 applies if—
 - (a) a complaint in respect of a provider has been resolved under section 34C,
 - (b) in resolving the complaint, the Ombudsman has concluded that the person aggrieved has sustained injustice or hardship as a result of the matter complained of,

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the provider has agreed to take particular action before the end of a particular period, and
 - (d) the Ombudsman is not satisfied that the provider has taken that action before the end of the permitted period.
- (8) In subsection (7)(d) “the permitted period” means—
- (a) the period referred to in subsection (7)(c), or
 - (b) a longer period specified by the Ombudsman in writing (if any).

34P Special reports

- (1) A special report must—
- (a) set out the facts which entitle the Ombudsman to prepare the special report (that is, the facts on the basis of which case 1, 2 or 3 of section 34O applies), and
 - (b) make such recommendations as the Ombudsman thinks fit as to the action which, in his or her opinion, should be taken—
 - (i) to remedy the injustice or hardship to the person aggrieved, and
 - (ii) to prevent similar injustice or hardship being caused in the future.
- (2) If the special report is prepared because case 1 of section 34O applies, the Ombudsman must send a copy of the report to each person to whom a copy of the section 34K report was sent under section 34K(2)(b).
- (3) If the special report is prepared because case 2 or 3 of section 34O applies, the Ombudsman must send a copy of the report to the person who made the complaint and the provider to whom the complaint relates.
- (4) The Ombudsman may send a copy of a special report to any other persons he or she thinks appropriate.
- (5) The Ombudsman may publish a special report.
- (6) The Ombudsman may supply a copy of a published special report, or a part of such a report, to any person who requests it.
- (7) The Ombudsman may charge a reasonable fee for supplying a copy of a special report, or part of such a report, under subsection (6).
- (8) The following information must not be included in a version of a special report sent to a person under subsection (2), (3) or (4) or published under subsection (5)—
- (a) the name of any person other than the provider in respect of whom the complaint was made;
 - (b) information which, in the opinion of the Ombudsman, is likely to identify any such person and which, in the Ombudsman's opinion, can be omitted without impairing the effectiveness of the special report.
- (9) Subsection (8) does not apply if, after taking account of the interests of the person aggrieved and any other persons the Ombudsman thinks appropriate, the Ombudsman considers that it would be in the public interest to include that information in that version of the special report.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

34Q Further publicity for special reports

- (1) The Ombudsman may arrange for a notice about a special report to be published—
 - (a) in one or more newspapers, or
 - (b) by means of broadcast or other electronic media.
- (2) The notice may, for example—
 - (a) provide a summary of the Ombudsman's findings,
 - (b) specify an address or addresses at which a copy of the published report can be inspected during ordinary office hours and from which a copy of that report (or part of that report) may be obtained, and
 - (c) specify a website address at which a copy of the published report can be viewed.
- (3) The provider to whom the report relates must, if required to do so by the Ombudsman, reimburse the Ombudsman for the reasonable costs of arranging the publication of the notice.
- (4) In deciding whether to make arrangements under subsection (1), the Ombudsman must take into account—
 - (a) the public interest,
 - (b) the interests of the person aggrieved, and
 - (c) the interests of any other person the Ombudsman thinks appropriate.

Interpretation

34R Meaning of “care home” and “care home provider”

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) “Care home” has the same meaning as in the Care Standards Act 2000.
- (3) “Care home provider” means a person who carries on a care home.
- (4) Action is to be treated as action taken by a care home provider if it is taken by—
 - (a) a person employed by that provider,
 - (b) a person acting on behalf of that provider, or
 - (c) a person to whom that provider has delegated any functions.
- (5) Action is also to be treated as action taken by a care home provider if—
 - (a) that provider provides, by means of an arrangement with another person, accommodation, nursing or personal care in a care home in Wales for a person falling within section 3(2) of the Care Standards Act 2000, and
 - (b) the action is taken by or on behalf of the other person in carrying out the arrangement.

34S Meaning of “domiciliary care” and “domiciliary care provider”

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) “Domiciliary care” means personal care provided in their own homes for persons who by reason of illness, infirmity or disability are unable to provide it for themselves without assistance.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) “Domiciliary care provider” means a person who carries on an activity which involves the provision of domiciliary care, but it does not include an individual who—
- (a) carries on the activity otherwise than in partnership with others,
 - (b) is not employed by a body corporate or unincorporated association to carry it on,
 - (c) does not employ any other person to carry out the activity, and
 - (d) provides or arranges the provision of domiciliary care to fewer than four persons.
- (4) Action is to be treated as action taken by a domiciliary care provider if it is taken by—
- (a) a person employed by that provider,
 - (b) a person acting on behalf of that provider, or
 - (c) a person to whom that provider has delegated any functions.
- (5) Action is also to be treated as action taken by a domiciliary care provider if—
- (a) that provider provides domiciliary care by means of an arrangement with another person, and
 - (b) the action is taken by or on behalf of the other person in carrying out the arrangement.

34T Meaning of “palliative care service” and “independent palliative care provider”

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) “Palliative care service” means a service the main purpose of which is to provide palliative care.
- (3) “Independent palliative care provider” means a person who—
- (a) provides a palliative care service, and
 - (b) is not a Welsh health service body.
- (4) Action is to be treated as action taken by an independent palliative care provider if it is taken by—
- (a) a person employed by that provider,
 - (b) a person acting on behalf of that provider, or
 - (c) a person to whom that provider has delegated any functions.
- (5) Action is also to be treated as action taken by an independent palliative care provider if—
- (a) that provider provides palliative care by means of an arrangement with another person, and
 - (b) the action is taken by or on behalf of the other person in carrying out the arrangement.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

PART 2B

INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS: SUPPLEMENTARY

Consultation and co-operation

34U Consultation and co-operation with other ombudsmen

- (1) This section applies if, in making a decision under section 2(5) or 34B(8) or conducting an investigation under Part 2 or 2A, the Ombudsman forms the opinion that a matter which is the subject of the complaint or investigation could be the subject of an investigation by an ombudsman mentioned in subsection (7).
- (2) The Ombudsman must consult that ombudsman about the matter.
- (3) The Ombudsman may co-operate with that ombudsman in relation to the matter.
- (4) Consultation under subsection (2), and co-operation under subsection (3), may extend to anything relating to a matter which is the subject of the complaint or investigation, including (among other things)—
 - (a) the conduct of an investigation into the complaint, and
 - (b) the form, content and publication of a report of the investigation.
- (5) If the Ombudsman consults an ombudsman about a matter under subsection (2), the Ombudsman and that ombudsman may—
 - (a) conduct a joint investigation into the matter,
 - (b) prepare a joint report in relation to the investigation, and
 - (c) publish the joint report.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply if the ombudsman consulted under subsection (2) is the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman.
- (7) The ombudsmen referred to in subsection (1) are—
 - (a) the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration;
 - (b) the Health Service Commissioner for England;
 - (c) a Local Commissioner;
 - (d) the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman;
 - (e) a housing ombudsman appointed in accordance with a scheme approved under section 51 of the Housing Act 1996;
 - (f) the Children's Commissioner for Wales.
- (8) The Welsh Ministers may by order amend subsection (7) by—
 - (a) adding a person,
 - (b) omitting a person, or
 - (c) changing the description of a person.
- (9) An order under subsection (8) may add a person to subsection (7) only if the person appears to the Welsh Ministers to have functions relating to the investigation of complaints.
- (10) No order is to be made under subsection (8) unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of the Assembly.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

34V Working jointly with other Commissioners

- (1) This section applies where it appears to the Ombudsman that—
 - (a) there is a complaint in respect of a matter which he or she is entitled to investigate, and
 - (b) the matter is one which could also be the subject of an examination by the Commissioner for Older People in Wales or the Welsh Language Commissioner.
- (2) Where the Ombudsman considers it appropriate, he or she must (as respects the Commissioner for Older People in Wales) or may (as respects the Welsh Language Commissioner)—
 - (a) inform the Commissioner about the matter, and
 - (b) consult him or her in relation to it.
- (3) Where the Ombudsman consults a Commissioner under this section, the Ombudsman and the Commissioner may—
 - (a) co-operate with each other in relation to the matter,
 - (b) conduct a joint investigation into the matter, and
 - (c) prepare and publish a joint report in relation to the investigation.

34W Working collaboratively with other Commissioners

- (1) This section applies where it appears to the Ombudsman that a complaint relates to or raises a matter which could be the subject of an examination by the Commissioner for Older People in Wales or the Welsh Language Commissioner (“the connected matter”).
- (2) Where the Ombudsman considers it appropriate, he or she must (as respects the Commissioner for Older People in Wales) or may (as respects the Welsh Language Commissioner) inform the Commissioner about the connected matter.
- (3) Where the Ombudsman considers that the complaint also relates to or raises a matter into which he or she is entitled to conduct an investigation (“the Ombudsman matter”), the Ombudsman must (as respects the Commissioner for Older People in Wales) or may (as respects the Welsh Language Commissioner) also if he or she considers it appropriate—
 - (a) inform the Commissioner about the Ombudsman's proposals for conducting an investigation into the complaint, and
 - (b) consult the Commissioner about those proposals.
- (4) Where the Ombudsman and the Commissioner consider that they are entitled to investigate, respectively, the Ombudsman matter and the connected matter, they may—
 - (a) co-operate with each other in the separate investigation of each of those matters,
 - (b) act together in the investigation of those matters, and
 - (c) prepare and publish a joint report containing their respective conclusions in relation to the matters they have each investigated.
- (5) Where the Ombudsman considers—
 - (a) that the complaint does not relate to or raise a matter into which he or she is entitled to conduct an investigation, and
 - (b) that it is appropriate to do so,

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

the Ombudsman must (as respects the Commissioner for Older People in Wales) or may (as respects the Welsh Language Commissioner) inform the person who initiated the complaint about how to secure the referral of the connected matter to the Commissioner.

Disclosure

34X Disclosure of information

- (1) The information to which this section applies is—
- (a) information obtained by the Ombudsman, a member of the Ombudsman's staff or another person acting on the Ombudsman's behalf or assisting the Ombudsman in the discharge of his or her functions—
 - (i) in deciding whether to begin an investigation,
 - (ii) in the course of an investigation, or
 - (iii) in resolving a complaint under section 3 or 34C;
 - (b) information obtained from an ombudsman mentioned in section 34U(7) by virtue of any provision of section 34U or a corresponding provision in an enactment relating to any of those ombudsmen;
 - (c) information obtained from the Commissioner for Older People in Wales by virtue of section 34V or 34W of this Act or section 16 or 17 of the Commissioner for Older People (Wales) Act 2006 (working with other ombudsmen);
 - (d) information obtained from the Welsh Language Commissioner by virtue of section 34V or 34W of this Act or section 22 of the Welsh Language (Wales) Measure 2011 (power to disclose information);
 - (e) information obtained from the Information Commissioner by virtue of section 76 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (disclosure between Information Commissioner and ombudsmen).
- (2) The information must not be disclosed except—
- (a) for the purposes of deciding whether to begin an investigation;
 - (b) for the purposes of an investigation;
 - (c) for the purposes of resolving a complaint under section 3 or 34C;

Audit

- 17 (1) The accounts prepared by the Ombudsman for a financial year must be submitted by him to the Auditor General for Wales no later than 30 November in the following financial year.
- (2) The Auditor General for Wales must—
- (a) examine, certify and report on each set of accounts submitted to him under this paragraph, and
 - (b) no later than four months after the accounts are so submitted, lay before the Assembly a copy of them as certified by him together with his report on them.
- (3) In examining accounts submitted to him under this paragraph the Auditor General for Wales must, in particular, satisfy himself that the expenditure to which the accounts relate has been incurred lawfully and in accordance with the authority which governs it.

Accounting officer

- 18 (1) The Ombudsman is the accounting officer for the office of the Ombudsman.
- (2) If the Ombudsman is incapable of discharging his responsibilities as accounting officer, the [F116Audit Committee] may designate a member of his staff to be the accounting officer for as long as he is so incapable.
- (3) If the office of the Ombudsman is vacant and there is no acting Ombudsman, the [F116Audit Committee] may designate a member of the Ombudsman's staff to be the accounting officer for as long as the office of the Ombudsman is vacant and there is no acting Ombudsman.
- (4) The accounting officer has, in relation to the accounts and the finances of the Ombudsman, the responsibilities which are from time to time specified by the [F116Audit Committee].
- (5) In this paragraph references to responsibilities include in particular—
- (a) responsibilities in relation to the signing of accounts,
 - (b) responsibilities for the propriety and regularity of the finances of the Ombudsman, and
 - (c) responsibilities for the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which the resources of the Ombudsman are used.
- (6) The responsibilities which may be specified under this paragraph include responsibilities owed to—
- (a) the Assembly, the [F117Welsh Ministers] or the Audit Committee, or
 - (b) the House of Commons or its Committee of Public Accounts.
- (7) If requested to do so by the House of Commons Committee of Public Accounts, the Audit Committee may—
- (a) on behalf of the Committee of Public Accounts take evidence from the accounting officer, and
 - (b) report to the Committee of Public Accounts and transmit to that Committee any evidence so taken.

Examinations into the use of resources

- 19 (1) The Auditor General for Wales may carry out examinations into the economy, efficiency and effectiveness with which the Ombudsman has used his resources in discharging his functions.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) is not to be construed as entitling the Auditor General for Wales to question the merits of the policy objectives of the Ombudsman.
- (3) In determining how to discharge his functions under this paragraph, the Auditor General for Wales must take into account the views of the Audit Committee as to the examinations which he should carry out.
- (4) The Auditor General for Wales may lay before the Assembly a report of the results of any examination carried out by him under this paragraph.

Examinations by the Comptroller and Auditor General

- 20 (1) For the purposes of enabling him to carry out examinations into, and report to Parliament on, the finances of the Ombudsman, the Comptroller and Auditor General—
- (a) has a right of access at all reasonable times to all such documents in the custody or under the control of the Ombudsman, or of the Auditor General for Wales, as he may reasonably require for that purpose, and
- (b) is entitled to require from any person holding or accountable for any of those documents any assistance, information or explanation which he reasonably thinks necessary for that purpose.
- (2) The Comptroller and Auditor General must—
- (a) consult the Auditor General for Wales, and
- (b) take account of any relevant work done or being done by the Auditor General for Wales,
- before he acts in reliance on sub-paragraph (1) or carries out an examination in respect of the Ombudsman under section 7 of the National Audit Act 1983 (c. 44) (economy etc. examinations).

SCHEDULE 5

Section 37

TRANSFER OF STAFF, PROPERTY ETC.

Interpretation

1 In this Schedule—

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“the commencement date” means the date on which this Schedule comes into force;

“existing authority” means each of—

- (a) the Welsh Administration Ombudsman;
- (b) the Health Service Commissioner for Wales;
- (c) the Commission for Local Administration in Wales;
- (d) a Local Commissioner who is a member of the Commission for Local Administration in Wales;
- (e) the Social Housing Ombudsman for Wales;

“relevant employee” means a person who, immediately before the commencement date, was an officer or member of staff of an existing authority;

“the relevant existing authority”, in relation to a relevant employee, means the existing authority of which he was an officer or member of staff immediately before the commencement date.

Transfer of staff

2 On the commencement date each relevant employee transfers to and becomes a member of the staff of the Ombudsman.

3 The contract of employment of a relevant employee transferred under paragraph 2—

- (a) is not terminated by the transfer;
- (b) has effect on and after the commencement date as if originally made between the employee and the Ombudsman.

4 Accordingly—

- (a) all rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the relevant existing authority under or in connection with the contract of employment are transferred to the Ombudsman on the commencement date;
- (b) anything done before that date by or in relation to the relevant existing authority in respect of that contract or the relevant employee is to be treated on and after that date as having been done by or in relation to the Ombudsman.

5 But if a relevant employee informs the relevant existing authority or the Ombudsman before the commencement date that he objects to the transfer—

- (a) paragraphs 2 to 4 do not apply; and
- (b) the contract of employment is terminated immediately before the commencement date but the relevant employee is not to be treated, for any purpose, as having been dismissed by the relevant existing authority.

6 Paragraph 5 does not affect any right of a relevant employee to terminate his contract of employment if (apart from the change of employer) a substantial change is made to his detriment in his working conditions.

Transfer of property, rights and liabilities

7 On the commencement date all property, rights and liabilities to which each existing authority was entitled or subject immediately before that date transfer to and vest in the Ombudsman.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2016. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Public Services Ombudsman (Wales) Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- 8 The reference in paragraph 7 to rights and liabilities does not include any rights and liabilities under a contract of employment transferred to the Ombudsman under paragraph 2.
- 9 Paragraph 7 has effect in relation to any property, rights and liabilities to which it applies despite any provision (of whatever nature) which would otherwise prevent, penalise or restrict their transfer.
- 10 Anything (including legal proceedings) which is in the process of being done by or in relation to an existing authority immediately before the commencement date and which relates to—
- (a) any function of that existing authority, or
 - (b) any property, rights or liabilities of that existing authority transferred to the Ombudsman under paragraph 7,
- may, on and after the commencement date, be continued by or in relation to the Ombudsman.
- 11 Anything done by an existing authority for the purpose of, or in connection with—
- (a) any function of that existing authority, or
 - (b) any property, rights or liabilities of that existing authority transferred to the Ombudsman under paragraph 7,
- and which is in effect immediately before the commencement date is to have effect on and after the commencement date as if done by the Ombudsman.
- 12 On and after the commencement date, the Ombudsman is to be substituted for each existing authority in any instruments, contracts or legal proceedings which relate to—
- (a) any function of that existing authority, or
 - (b) any property, rights or liabilities of that existing authority transferred to the Ombudsman under paragraph 7,
- and which are made or commenced before the commencement date.
