I18 Sch. 1 para. 14 in force at 16.10.2005 by S.I. 2005/2812, art. 2(1), Sch. 1

- 15 (1) Section 26 of the 1993 Act (invitation to tender for franchises) is amended as follows.
- (2) In subsection (1), for the words from the beginning to “Authority” substitute “ The appropriate franchising authority may select the person who is to be the franchisee in relation to a franchise agreement ”.
- (3) In subsections (2) and (3), for “Authority”, wherever occurring, substitute “ appropriate franchising authority ”.
- (4) Subsection (4) shall cease to have effect.
- (5) For subsections (5) to (10) (statement by the Secretary of State about his power to give directions) substitute—
- “(4A) The Secretary of State and the Scottish Ministers shall each publish a statement of policy about how he proposes, or (as the case may be) they propose, to exercise the power under subsection (1) above.
- (4B) The statement must in particular include the policy of the Secretary of State or the Scottish Ministers about—
- (a) when his or their selection of the person to be a franchisee under a franchise agreement is likely to be from those submitting tenders in response to an invitation to do so;
- (b) when it is likely such an invitation will not be issued; and
- (c) the means by which he is, or they are, proposing that the selection will be made in cases where there is no such invitation.
- (4C) In deciding whether to select the person who is to be the franchisee under a franchise agreement by means of an invitation to tender and whom so to select, the appropriate franchising authority must have regard to its statement of policy.
- (4D) The Secretary of State or Scottish Ministers—
- (a) may at any time alter or replace the statement of policy which he has made or (as the case may be) which they have made; and
- (b) where that statement is altered or replaced, must publish the altered or replacement statement.
- (4E) Before preparing, altering or replacing a statement of policy—
- (a) the Secretary of State must consult the National Assembly for Wales and undertake such other consultation as he considers appropriate; and
- (b) the Scottish Ministers must undertake such consultation as they consider appropriate.

16 For sections 26A, 26B and 26C of the 1993 Act (directions of the Secretary of State where no tenders or tenders appear unsatisfactory) substitute—

“26ZA No adequate tender for franchise received

(1) This section applies in the case of an invitation to tender under section 26 for the provision of services if—

- (a) the appropriate franchising authority receives no tender in response to the invitation; or
- (b) it receives a tender but considers that the services would be provided more economically and efficiently if they were provided otherwise than under a franchise agreement entered into in response to the tender.

(2) The appropriate franchising authority may —

- (a) issue a new invitation to tender under section 26 for the provision of the services;
- (b) decide to secure the provision of the services under a franchise agreement with a person who did not submit a tender; or
- (c) decide not to seek to secure the provision of the services under a franchise agreement.

(3) Nothing in this section prevents the appropriate franchising authority, where it has decided not to seek to secure the provision of services under a franchise agreement, from subsequently making a decision to issue a new invitation to tender for the provision of those services.”

Property, rights and liabilities that may be transferred

- 2 (1) The property, rights and liabilities that may be transferred by a scheme include—
- (a) property, rights and liabilities that would not otherwise be capable of being transferred or assigned by the transferor;
 - (b) property acquired in the period after the making of the scheme and before it comes into force and rights and liabilities arising in that period;
 - (c) rights and liabilities arising after the scheme comes into force in respect of matters occurring before it comes into force;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) rights and liabilities under an enactment, Community instrument or subordinate legislation.
- (2) The transfers to which effect may be given by a scheme include transfers that are to take effect in accordance with the scheme as if there were—
 - (a) no such requirement to obtain a person's consent or concurrence,
 - (b) no such liability in respect of a contravention of any other requirement, and
 - (c) no such interference with any interest or right,as there would be, in the case of a transaction apart from this Act, by reason of a provision falling within sub-paragraph (3).
- (3) A provision falls within this sub-paragraph to the extent that it has effect (whether under an enactment or agreement or otherwise) in relation to the terms on which the transferor is entitled or subject to anything to which the transfer relates.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (5) applies where (apart from that sub-paragraph) a person would be entitled, in consequence of anything done or likely to be done by or under this Act in connection with a scheme under section 1(2)—
 - (a) to terminate, modify, acquire or claim an interest or right to which the transferor is entitled or subject; or
 - (b) to treat such an interest or right as modified or terminated.
- (5) That entitlement shall be enforceable in relation to the interest or right—
 - (a) in consequence of what is done or likely to be done by or under this Act, and
 - (b) in corresponding circumstances arising after the transfer,to the extent only that the scheme provides for it to be so enforceable.
- (6) Sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) have effect where shares in a subsidiary of the transferor are or are to be transferred—
 - (a) as if the reference in sub-paragraph (3) to the terms on which the transferor is entitled or subject to anything to which the transfer relates included a reference to the terms on which the subsidiary is entitled or subject to anything immediately before the transfer takes effect; and
 - (b) as if the reference in sub-paragraph (4) to the transferor included a reference to the subsidiary.

- 4 (1) A scheme may contain provision for imposing on a transferee or a transferor an obligation—
 - (a) to enter into such agreements with another person on whom a corresponding obligation is, or could be or has been, imposed by virtue of this paragraph (whether in the same or a different scheme), or
 - (b) to execute such instruments in favour of any such person, as may be specified or described in the scheme.
- (2) An obligation imposed on a person by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) shall be enforceable by the relevant person in civil proceedings—
 - (a) for an injunction;
 - (b) for specific performance of a statutory duty under section 45 of the Court of Session Act 1988 (c. 36); or
 - (c) for any other appropriate remedy or relief.
- (3) The relevant person for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) is the person with, or in favour of whom, the agreement or instrument is to be entered into or executed.

Effect of scheme

- 5 (1) Where a scheme provides for the transfer of property, rights or liabilities, or for the creation of interests, rights or liabilities—
- (a) this Act shall have the effect that, at the time when the scheme comes into force, the property or interests, rights or liabilities shall vest, without further assurance, in the transferee; and
 - (b) the provisions of that scheme in relation to that property or those interests, rights or liabilities shall have effect from that time.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) is subject to so much of a scheme as provides for—
- (a) the transfer of property, rights or liabilities which are to be transferred in accordance with the scheme, or
 - (b) the creation of interests, rights and liabilities which are to be created in accordance with the scheme,
- to be effected by or under an agreement or instrument entered into or executed in pursuance of an obligation imposed by virtue of paragraph 4(1).
- (3) In its application to Scotland, sub-paragraph (1) has effect with the omission of the words “without further assurance”.

Powers and duties under statutory provisions

- 6 (1) A scheme may make provision for some or all of the powers and duties to which this paragraph applies—
- (a) to be transferred to a transferee;
 - (b) to become powers and duties that are exercisable, or must be performed, concurrently by two or more transferees; or
 - (c) to become powers and duties that are exercisable, or must be performed, concurrently by a transferor and a transferee.
- (2) The powers and duties to which this paragraph applies are the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the transferor by or under a relevant enactment so far as they relate to—
- (a) property to be transferred in accordance with the scheme;
 - (b) the carrying out of works designed to be used in connection with such property; or
 - (c) the acquisition of land for the purpose of the carrying out of such works.
- (3) In this paragraph “relevant enactment” means any enactment other than—

Supplementary provisions of schemes

- 7 (1) A scheme may—
- (a) make such incidental, supplemental, consequential and transitional provision in connection with the transfers to be made in accordance with the scheme as the person making the scheme thinks fit;
 - (b) make different provision for different cases.
- (2) In particular, a scheme may make provision, in relation to transfers in accordance with the scheme—
- (a) for the transferee to be treated as the same person in law as the transferor;
 - (b) for agreements made, transactions effected or other things done by or in relation to the transferor to be treated, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of or in connection with the transfers, as made, effected or done by or in relation to the transferee;
 - (c) for references in an agreement, instrument or other document to the transferor, or to an employee or office holder of the transferor, to have effect, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of or in connection with a transfer, with such modifications as are specified in the scheme; and
 - (d) for proceedings commenced by or against the transferor to be continued by or against the transferee.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2)(c) does not apply to references in an enactment or in subordinate legislation.
- (4) In this paragraph references to a transfer in accordance with a scheme include references to the creation of an interest, right or liability in accordance with a scheme.

Continuity of employment etc.

- 9
- (1) Where in accordance with a scheme a person employed by a transferor becomes an employee of a transferee—
 - (a) he is not to be regarded for the purposes of Part 11 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (c. 18) as having been dismissed by virtue of the transfer;
 - (b) his period of employment with the transferor counts for the purposes of that Act as a period of employment with the transferee;
 - (c) the change of employment does not break the continuity of the period of employment either for the purposes of that Act or for the purposes of Schedule 11 to the 1993 Act (pensions); and
 - (d) in a case in which the transferee is not engaged in the railway industry, that person's period of employment with the transferee is to be disregarded for the purpose of determining whether the termination conditions under paragraph 8 of Schedule 11 to the 1993 Act are fulfilled in his case.
 - (2) References in this paragraph to becoming an employee of the transferee and to employment with the transferee include references, respectively, to becoming and to being employed in the civil service of the state.

Compensation for third parties

- 10
- (1) Where—
 - (a) an entitlement of a third party to an interest or right would, apart from a provision of a scheme under section 1(2) and paragraph 2(4) and (5), become enforceable in respect of the transfer or creation in accordance with such a scheme of any property, rights or liabilities,

- (b) the provisions of that scheme or of paragraph 2(4) and (5) have the effect of preventing the third party's entitlement to that interest or right from being enforced in respect of anything for which the scheme provides, and
 - (c) provision is not made by the scheme for securing that an entitlement to that interest or right, or to an equivalent interest or right, is preserved or created so as to arise and be enforceable in respect of the first occasion when corresponding circumstances next occur after the coming into force of the transfers for which the scheme provides,
- the third party shall be entitled to compensation in respect of the extinguishment of his entitlement.
- (2) The amount of compensation to which a third party is entitled under this paragraph is the amount necessary for securing, to the extent that it is just to do so, that he does not suffer financial loss from the extinguishment of his entitlement.
 - (3) A liability to pay compensation under this paragraph shall fall on the Secretary of State.
 - (4) In the preceding provisions of this paragraph “third party”, in relation to a scheme, means a person other than the transferor and the transferee.
 - (5) This paragraph shall have effect in relation to—
 - (a) the provisions of an agreement or instrument entered into or executed in pursuance of an obligation imposed by a scheme under section 1(2), and
 - (b) the provisions of an agreement under paragraph 8 relating to property, rights or liabilities transferred or created in accordance with such a scheme, as it has effect in relation to the scheme but as if, in the case of an agreement under paragraph 8, only persons who are not parties to the agreement were third parties.

Provision of information to person making scheme

- 11 (1) A person who proposes to make a scheme (“the scheme authority”) may direct—
- (a) a proposed transferor, or
 - (b) a proposed transferee,
- to provide him with such information as he considers necessary to enable him to make the scheme.
- (2) Such a direction must specify the period within which the information is to be provided.
 - (3) The period specified in the direction must be not less than 28 days beginning with the day of the giving of the direction.
 - (4) If a person fails to comply with such a direction, the scheme authority may serve a notice on him requiring him—
 - (a) to produce to the scheme authority any documents which are specified or described in the notice and are in his custody or under his control; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

- (b) to provide to the scheme authority such information as may be specified or described in the notice.
- (5) Documents or information to be produced or provided in accordance with such a notice must be produced or provided at the time and place, and in the form and manner, specified in the notice.
- (6) No person may be required under this paragraph—
 - (a) to produce a document which he could not be compelled to produce in civil proceedings in the court; or
 - (b) to provide information which he could not be compelled to give in evidence in such proceedings.
- (7) A person who intentionally alters, suppresses or destroys a document which he has been required to produce by a notice under sub-paragraph (4) is guilty of an offence and liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum; and
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
- (8) If a person fails to comply with a notice under sub-paragraph (4), the court may, on the application of the scheme authority, make such order as the court thinks fit for requiring the failure to be made good.
- (9) Any order under sub-paragraph (8) may include provision requiring all the costs or expenses of and incidental to the application to be borne by one or more of the following—
 - (a) the person in default;
 - (b) any officers of a company or other association who are responsible for its default.
- (10) In this paragraph—
 - (a) a reference to the production of a document includes a reference to the production of a legible and intelligible copy of information recorded otherwise than in legible form; and
 - (b) the reference to suppressing a document includes a reference to destroying the means of reproducing information recorded otherwise than in legible form.
- (11) In this paragraph “the court” means—
 - (a) in England and Wales, the High Court; and
 - (b) in Scotland, the Court of Session.

SCHEDULE 3

Section 2

TRANSFER OF SAFETY FUNCTIONS

Railway safety purposes

- 1 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (4), in this Schedule “railway safety purposes” means so much of the general purposes of Part 1 of the 1974 Act (within the meaning of section 1 of that Act) as—
 - (a) relates to risks that are exclusively relevant to one or more of the purposes specified in sub-paragraph (2); or
 - (b) relates to so much of any risks that are primarily so relevant as arises in connection with anything mentioned in that sub-paragraph.
- (2) The purposes mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) are—
 - (a) securing the proper construction and safe operation of transport systems falling within sub-paragraph (3);
 - (b) securing the proper construction and safe operation of locomotives, rolling stock or other vehicles used, or to be used, on such systems;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) protecting the public (whether or not they are passengers) from personal injury and other risks arising from the construction and operation of such systems;
 - (d) protecting persons at work from personal injury and other risks so arising.
- (3) A transport system falls within this sub-paragraph if it is—
- (a) a railway;
 - (b) a tramway; [^{F1}or]
 - ^{F2}(c)
 - (d) a transport system using any other mode of guided transport [^{F3}other than a guided bus system].
- [^{F4}but not to the extent that the transport system consists of or is operated for the purposes of fairground equipment.]
- (4) The Secretary of State may, by regulations, modify the definition of “railway safety purposes”.
- (5) Before making any regulations under sub-paragraph (4), the Secretary of State must consult—
- (a) the Office of Rail Regulation;
 - (b) the Health and Safety Commission; and
 - (c) such other persons as he considers appropriate.
- (6) Regulations under sub-paragraph (4) are subject to the negative resolution procedure.
- (7) In this paragraph—
- [^{F5}“bus” means a motor vehicle which is designed or adapted to travel along roads and to carry more than eight passengers but which is not a tramcar;
 - “fairground equipment” has the same meaning as in section 53 of the 1974 Act;
 - “guided bus system” means a system of transport, used wholly or mainly for the carriage of passengers, that employs buses which for some or all of the time when they are in operation—
 - (a) travel along roads; and
 - (b) are guided (whether while on the road or at other times) by means of—
 - (i) apparatus, a structure or other device which is fixed and not part of the bus; or
 - (ii) a guidance system which is automatic;]
 - “guided transport”, “railway”, “tramway”, ^{F6}... and “vehicle” have the same meanings as in the Transport and Works Act 1992 (c. 42) except that, for this purpose, paragraph (b) of the definition of “railway” in section 67(1) of that Act (which includes a condition as to the minimum gauge of track) is to be disregarded; and
 - “person at work” has the same meaning as it for the time being has in Part 1 of the 1974 Act (see section 52 of that Act).
 - [^{F7}“road”—
 - (a) in England and Wales, means any length of highway or of any other road to which the public has access, and includes bridges over which a road passes; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) in Scotland, has the same meaning as in the Roads (Scotland) Act 1984.]

ORR's principal railway safety functions

- 2 (1) It shall be the general duty of the Office of Rail Regulation—
- (a) to do such things and make such arrangements as it considers appropriate for the railway safety purposes; and
 - (b) to assist and encourage persons concerned with matters relevant to any of those purposes to further those purposes.
- (2) It shall be the duty of the Office of Rail Regulation—
- (a) to make such arrangements as it considers appropriate for the carrying out of research in connection with the railway safety purposes and for the publication of the results of such research; and
 - (b) to encourage research by others in that connection.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Office of Rail Regulation—
- (a) to make such arrangements as it considers appropriate for the provision of training and information in connection with the railway safety purposes;
 - (b) to encourage the provision by others of training and information in that connection; and
 - (c) to make such arrangements as it considers appropriate for securing that the persons mentioned in sub-paragraph (4)—
 - (i) are provided with an information and advisory service with respect to matters relevant to the railway safety purposes;
 - (ii) are kept informed about such matters; and
 - (iii) are adequately advised about them.
- (4) Those persons are—
- (a) government departments;

- (b) employers;
 - (c) employees;
 - (d) organisations representing employers and employees respectively; and
 - (e) other persons concerned with matters relevant to any of the railway safety purposes.
- (5) It shall be the duty of the Office of Rail Regulation from time to time to submit such proposals as it considers appropriate for the making of regulations for the railway safety purposes to the authorities having power to make regulations for those purposes under any of the relevant statutory provisions.
- (6) Before submitting proposals under sub-paragraph (5), the Office of Rail Regulation must consult—
- (a) such government departments, and
 - (b) such other persons,
- as it considers appropriate.
- (7) Before—
- (a) making regulations for the railway safety purposes independently of any proposals submitted under sub-paragraph (5), or
 - (b) making regulations which give effect to such proposals but with modifications,
- the authority having the power to make the regulations must consult the Office of Rail Regulation.
- (8) In this paragraph “employer”, “employee” and “the relevant statutory provisions” have the same meanings as in Part 1 of the 1974 Act (see section 53(1) of that Act).

- 16
- (1) Meetings of the RPC must be open to the public; but the public must be excluded during any item of business that is confidential for the purposes of this paragraph.
 - (2) An item of business is confidential for the purposes of this paragraph where, if members of the public were to be present during that item, it is likely that information furnished in confidence to the RPC by—
 - (a) the Office of Rail Regulation, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State,would be disclosed in breach of the obligation of confidence.
 - (3) An item of business is confidential for the purposes of this paragraph where the RPC has resolved that—
 - (a) because of the confidential nature of the item, or
 - (b) for other special reasons stated in the resolution,it is desirable in the public interest that the public be excluded during that item.
 - (4) An item of business is confidential for the purposes of this paragraph where, if members of the public were to be present during that item, it is likely that—
 - (a) there would be disclosed to them a matter relating to the affairs of an individual or relating specifically to the affairs of a particular body (whether corporate or unincorporate); and
 - (b) public disclosure of the matter would or might, in the opinion of the RPC, seriously and prejudicially affect the interests of that individual or body.
 - (5) An item of business is confidential for the purposes of this paragraph where the circumstances—
 - (a) are specified for the purposes of this sub-paragraph in an order made by the Secretary of State; or
 - (b) are determined to be confidential for those purposes in accordance with an order so made.
 - (6) An order under sub-paragraph (5) is subject to the negative resolution procedure.

General duty of LTUC to keep railway matters under review

- 2 Before section 253 of that Act insert—

Committee to keep railways matters under review

“252A) It shall be the duty of the Committee, so far as it appears to it expedient from time to time to do so—

- (a) to keep under review matters affecting the interests of the public in relation to railway passenger services provided wholly or partly within the London railway area;
- (b) to keep under review matters affecting the provision of station services within that area;
- (c) to make representations to, and to consult, such persons as it thinks appropriate about the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b); and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) to co-operate with other bodies representing the interests of users of public passenger transport services provided wholly or partly within that area.
- (2) In this section—
- (a) references to the London railway area are references to the area for which the Committee fell, immediately before the repeal of section 2 of the Railways Act 1993 (Rail Passengers' Committees), to be treated as the Rail Passengers' Committee for the purposes specified in subsection (4) of that section;
 - (b) references to railway passenger services include references to bus substitution services; and
 - (c) subject to that, expressions used in this section and in Part 1 of the Railways Act 1993 have the same meanings in this section as in that Part.”

Duty of LTUC to investigate matters

3 In that Act, after the section 252A inserted by paragraph 2 of this Schedule, insert—

“252B References to Committee in relation to railways

- (1) It shall be the duty of the Committee to investigate any matter relating to a relevant railway matter if—
 - (a) it is the subject of a representation made to the Committee by a user or potential user of railway passenger services;
 - (b) it is referred to the Committee by the Secretary of State, the Office of Rail Regulation, the Rail Passengers' Council, the London Assembly or Transport for London; or
 - (c) it appears to the Committee that it is a matter that it ought to investigate.
- (2) A matter is a relevant railway matter for the purposes of subsection (1) if it relates to—
 - (a) the provision of railway passenger services wholly or partly within the London railway area; or
 - (b) the provision of station services within that area in a case in which the operator of the station is authorised by a licence under Part 1 of the Railways Act 1993.
- (3) The Secretary of State may also refer the following matters to the Committee for the purpose only of requiring the Committee to prepare a report on them—
 - (a) matters relating to the quality of railway passenger services provided wholly or partly within the London railway area; and
 - (b) matters relating to the quality of station services provided in that area.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Committee must also assist the Secretary of State, to such extent and in such manner as he may require, in ascertaining whether the franchise operator in the case of a particular franchise agreement is attaining the standards set for the provision of the franchised services.
- (5) The Committee is not required to investigate a matter in a case falling within subsection (1)(a) if it appears to the Committee that the representation is frivolous or vexatious.
- (6) Subsection (2) of section 252A applies for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that section.

252C Action on investigation under section 252B

- (1) On investigating a matter under section 252B the Committee must, if it considers it appropriate to do so—
 - (a) in every case, make appropriate representations to the person providing the service;
 - (b) in the case of a service provided under a franchise agreement by a person other than the franchisee, make appropriate representations to the franchisee; and
 - (c) in the case of a secured service (within the meaning of Part 4 of the Railways Act 2005), make appropriate representations to the Secretary of State.
- (2) In subsection (1) “appropriate representations” means representations about—
 - (a) any matter appearing to the Committee to be relevant to the subject-matter of the investigation; and
 - (b) any other matter to which a matter so appearing relates.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), where the Committee—
 - (a) having made representations under subsection (1), is of the opinion that it is unable to obtain a satisfactory resolution by that means,
 - (b) on investigating a matter, has reason for believing that the holder of a licence under Part 1 of the Railways Act 1993 is contravening a condition of the licence, or is likely to do so, or
 - (c) on investigating a matter, has reason for believing that a franchisee in relation to a franchise agreement is contravening the provisions of the agreement, or is likely to do so,the Committee must refer the matter to the Secretary of State (or if he referred it to the Committee, back to him) with a view to his exercising such of his powers as he considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply in a case where representations under subsection (2) have been made to the Secretary of State.
- (5) If the Secretary of State considers that it would be more appropriate for a matter referred to him by the Committee under subsection (3) to be referred to the Office of Rail Regulation, he must—
 - (a) refer it to that Office, or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) if it was referred to the Committee by that Office, refer it back to that Office, with a view to that Office exercising such of its powers as it considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.
- (6) The Committee must not—
 - (a) include a proposal for the taking of any steps in representations made by it under this section, or
 - (b) make a reference under this section to the Secretary of State by reason only of the failure of a person to take any steps, unless the test in subsection (7) is satisfied.
- (7) That test is satisfied if, on the basis of the information available to the Committee, it considers that, balancing each of the following against the other—
 - (a) the costs of taking the steps, and
 - (b) the benefits that will be enjoyed by persons in consequence of the taking of those steps,
 the expenditure involved represents good value for money.
- (8) In this section “franchise agreement” and “franchisee” have the same meanings as in Part 1 of the Railways Act 1993.

252D Reports on investigation etc.

- (1) Where the Committee investigates a matter under section 252B—
 - (a) it may prepare a report of its findings; and
 - (b) it must do so if required to do so by the Secretary of State in relation to any matter falling within section 252B(3) that was referred to it by him for the purposes of that requirement.
- (2) The Committee must not include a proposal for the taking of any steps in a report prepared by it under this section unless, on the basis of the information available to it, it considers that, balancing each of the following against the other—
 - (a) the costs of taking those steps, and
 - (b) the benefits that will be enjoyed by persons in consequence of the taking of those steps,
 the expenditure involved represents good value for money.
- (3) The Committee—
 - (a) must send a copy of every report prepared under this section to the Rail Passengers' Council; and
 - (b) may publish the report;
 but the Committee may publish a report relating to findings on a matter referred to the Committee by the Secretary of State only if required to do so by him under this section.
- (4) Where—
 - (a) the Committee prepares a report relating to a matter referred to it by the Secretary of State, but

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the report is not a report that the Secretary of State has required under subsection (1)(b), the Committee must publish the report if it is required to do so by him.
- (5) The Secretary of State may arrange for the publication of any report by the Committee the preparation of which he has required under subsection (1)(b).
- (6) The publication of a report by the Committee or the Secretary of State may be in any manner that the Committee or (as the case may be) the Secretary of State thinks appropriate.
- (7) References in this section to a matter referred to the Committee by the Secretary of State include references to a matter in relation to which he has required the Committee's assistance under section 252B(4)."

Power of Secretary of State to exclude matters from duties of LTUC

- 4 (1) In that Act, after the section 252D inserted by paragraph 3 of this Schedule insert—

“252E Power to make exclusions from duties under sections 252A to 252D

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order—
 - (a) exclude services from one or more of the duties imposed by sections 252A to 252D;
 - (b) provide that one or more of those duties applies to services of a particular class or description, particular services or services provided by a particular person only to such extent as is specified in the order; or
 - (c) provide that one or more of those duties applies with specified modifications in the case of services of a particular class or description, particular services or services provided by a particular person.
 - (2) Before making an order under this section the Secretary of State must consult the Committee and the Rail Passengers' Council.
 - (3) The power to make exclusions by an order under this section includes—
 - (a) power to exclude services of a particular class or description, particular services or services provided by a particular person; and
 - (b) power to provide that services are excluded subject to compliance with specified conditions.
 - (4) An order under this section may not revoke an exclusion except—
 - (a) for breach of a condition; or
 - (b) in accordance with the order that made it.”
- (2) In section 420(8) of that Act (orders subject to negative resolution procedure), after “section 242(10)” insert— “ section 252E; ”.

Section 25

PROPOSALS TO DISCONTINUE EXCLUDED LONDON SERVICES

Introductory

1 (1) This Schedule applies, where a proposal for the discontinuance of all the excluded London services provided on a particular line, or from a particular station, is made by the person providing them (“the service operator”), to so much of the proposal as relates to excluded London services which are special procedure excluded services.

(2) In this Schedule “excluded London service” and “special procedure excluded service” have the same meanings as in section 25.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Notice of proposal

- (1) The service operator—
 - (a) must give notice in the required manner of his proposal; and
 - (b) must not give effect to the closure before the end of the period specified in the notice for the making of objections to the London Transport Users' Committee.
 - (2) The notice must set out—
 - (a) the proposal date;
 - (b) the other particulars of the proposal;
 - (c) particulars of alternative services which it appears to the service operator will be available;
 - (d) any proposal of the service operator for providing or augmenting the alternative services;
 - (e) a statement that any objections about the proposal may be sent to the London Transport Users' Committee on or before the proposal date.
 - (3) The proposal date must be not less than six weeks after the notice is last published in a local newspaper for the purposes of sub-paragraph (4).
 - (4) A notice under this paragraph is published in the required manner if it is published, in two successive weeks—
 - (a) in a local newspaper circulating in the area affected by the proposal;
 - (b) in two newspapers circulating generally in England (or in England and any other part of the United Kingdom); and
 - (c) in such other manner as appears to the person giving the notice to be appropriate.
 - (5) The service operator must send a copy of every notice published under this paragraph—
 - (a) to the London Transport Users' Committee; and
 - (b) to every person who is the operator of a station within the area affected by the proposal;and must require every such operator to publish the notice by displaying it at the stations he operates in that area.
 - (6) In this paragraph a reference to the area affected by the proposal is a reference to the area in which is situated the line or station referred to in paragraph 1(1).

Objections etc.

- 3
- (1) Where a notice has been published under paragraph 2 objections about the proposal may be made to the London Transport Users' Committee—
 - (a) by any user of a service to which the proposal relates; or
 - (b) by any person representing such users.
 - (2) Objections may only be made within the period specified in the notice.

Consideration of objections and report to Mayor of London

- (1) This paragraph applies where any objection is made under paragraph 3.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The London Transport Users' Committee must immediately inform—
 - (a) the Mayor of London, and
 - (b) the service operator, about the objection.
- (3) The service operator may give effect to the proposed closure only if the Mayor of London consents to it.
- (4) As soon as possible after the end of the period for the making of objections to the London Transport Users' Committee, the Committee must—
 - (a) consider the objections made during that period;
 - (b) consider any representations made by the service operator; and
 - (c) report to the Mayor of London on the hardship the Committee considers will be caused by the proposed closure.
- (5) If the London Transport Users' Committee decides—
 - (a) to hear an objector orally, or
 - (b) to hear oral representations from the service operator, the hearing must be in public.
- (6) The report to the Mayor of London under this paragraph may contain proposals for alleviating any hardship to which it refers.
- (7) After receiving that report the Mayor of London may require further reports from the London Transport Users' Committee relating to the proposed closure.
- (8) The London Transport Users' Committee must send to the service operator a copy of every report or further report it makes under this paragraph.

Consent of Mayor to closure

- 5 (1) After—
 - (a) receiving—
 - (i) the report from the London Transport Users' Committee required by sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 4, and
 - (ii) any further reports required by him under that paragraph, and
 - (b) carrying out any consultation required by sub-paragraph (2), the Mayor of London must decide whether or not to consent to the proposed closure.
- (2) If any of the services to which the proposed closure relates operates in any area outside Greater London, the Mayor of London must, before deciding whether to consent to the proposed closure, consult the local authority for each such area.
- (3) At any time after the period for making objections the Mayor of London may make that decision without receiving a report or further report if—
 - (a) he has made such enquiries as he thinks fit, and
 - (b) he considers that the report or further report has been unreasonably delayed.
- (4) The Mayor of London may give his consent subject to such conditions as he thinks fit.
- (5) The Mayor of London may at any time vary or revoke conditions that are for the time being required to be complied with.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Where the Mayor of London gives his consent to a proposed closure, he must—
- (a) send a copy of his decision to every person who is the operator of a station in the area affected by the closure; and
 - (b) require that person to publish it by displaying it at the station.
- (7) In this paragraph a reference to the area affected by the closure is a reference to the area in which is situated the line or station referred to in paragraph 1(1).
- (8) In this paragraph “local authority” means a county council, a community council or council for a district in an area for which there is no county council.

SCHEDULE 9

Section 46

BYE-LAWS BY RAILWAY OPERATORS

Introductory

- 1 (1) In this Schedule—
- “appropriate national authority”, in relation to any bye-laws, means—
- (a) where the relevant assets by reference to which the bye-laws are or were made are all Scottish assets, the Scottish Ministers;
 - (b) where some but not all of those assets are Scottish assets or include assets that are used partly in Scotland and partly elsewhere, the Secretary of State and the Scottish Ministers; and
 - (c) in any other case, the Secretary of State;
- “bye-laws” means bye-laws under section 46; and
- “railway operator” has the same meaning as in that section.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) “Scottish asset” means—
- (a) an asset that is permanently situated in Scotland; or
 - (b) an asset that is used only in Scotland.
- (3) In the case of bye-laws in relation to which both the Secretary of State and the Scottish Ministers are the appropriate national authority —
- (a) anything that must be done under this Schedule in relation to those bye-laws by the appropriate national authority must be done by them both, acting jointly;
 - (b) anything that may be done under this Schedule in relation to those bye-laws by the appropriate national authority may be done only by them both, acting jointly; and
 - (c) any requirement of this Schedule in relation to those bye-laws to send something to the appropriate national authority is complied with only if that thing is sent both to the Secretary of State and to the Scottish Ministers.

PART 2

OTHER TRANSFERS UNDER SECTION 1(2) SCHEMES

Meaning of “relevant transfer” in Part 2 of Schedule

- 9 In this Part of this Schedule, “relevant transfer” means a transfer in accordance with a scheme made under section 1(2) to a person other than a national authority.

Commencement Information

I155 Sch. 10 para. 9 in force at 8.6.2005 by S.I. 2005/1444, art. 2(1), Sch. 1

Computation of profits and losses in respect of transfer of trade

- 10 (1) This paragraph applies where a person (“the predecessor”) is carrying on a trade or a part of a trade and, in consequence of a scheme made under section 1(2)—
- (a) the predecessor ceases to carry on that trade or that part of that trade; and
 - (b) a person who is not a national authority (“the successor”) begins to carry on that trade or that part of it.
- (2) For the purpose of computing, in relation to the time when the scheme comes into force and subsequent times, the relevant trading profits or losses of the predecessor and the successor—
- (a) the trade or part is to be treated as having been a separate trade at the time of its commencement and as having been carried on by the successor at all times since its commencement as a separate trade; and
 - (b) the trade carried on by the successor after the time when the scheme comes into force is to be treated as the same trade as that which it is treated, by virtue of paragraph (a), as having carried on as a separate trade before that time.
- (3) Where a trade or a part of a trade falls to be treated under this paragraph as a separate trade, such apportionments of receipts, expenses, assets and liabilities shall be made for the purpose of computing relevant trading profits and losses as may be just and reasonable.
- (4) This paragraph is subject to paragraphs 12 and 18.
- (5) In this paragraph, “relevant trading profits and losses” means profits or losses under Case I of Schedule D in respect of the trade or part of a trade in question.

Capital allowances: transfer of whole trade

- 12 (1) This paragraph applies where a person (“the predecessor”) is carrying on a trade and, in consequence of a scheme made under section 1(2)—
- (a) the predecessor ceases to carry on that trade; and
 - (b) a person who is not a national authority (“the successor”) begins to carry on that trade.
- (2) For the purposes of the allowances and charges provided for by the 2001 Act, the trade is not to be treated as permanently discontinued, nor a new trade as set up; but sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph are to apply.
- (3) There are to be made to or on the successor, in accordance with the 2001 Act, all such allowances and charges as would, if the predecessor had continued to carry on the trade, have fallen to be made to or on the predecessor.
- (4) The amounts of those allowances and charges are to be computed as if—
- (a) the successor had been carrying on the trade since the predecessor began to do so; and
 - (b) everything done to or by the predecessor had been done to or by the successor;
- but so that transfers in accordance with the scheme, so far as they relate to assets in use for the purposes of the trade, shall not be treated as giving rise to an allowance or charge.

Capital allowances: transfer of plant or machinery

14 (1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) there is a relevant transfer of plant or machinery;
- (b) paragraph 12 does not apply in relation to that transfer;
- (c) the plant or machinery would be treated for the purposes of the 2001 Act as disposed of by the transferor to the transferee on the transfer taking effect; and
- (d) the scheme in accordance with which the transfer is made contains provision for the disposal value of the plant or machinery to be treated for the purposes of that Act as an amount specified in or determined in accordance with the scheme.

(2) For the purposes of the 2001 Act—

- (a) the provision mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(d) is to have effect (instead of section 61(2) to (4), 72(3) to (5), 88, 171, 196 or 423 of that Act) for determining an amount as the disposal value of the plant or machinery or the price at which a fixture is to be treated as sold;
- (b) the transferee is to be treated as having incurred capital expenditure of that amount on the provision of the plant or machinery for the purposes for which it is used by the transferee on and after the taking effect of the transfer;
- (c) the property is to be treated as belonging to the transferee in consequence of the transferee having incurred that expenditure; and
- (d) in the case of a fixture, the expenditure which falls to be treated as incurred by the transferee is to be treated for the purposes of sections 181(1) and 182(1) of that Act to be incurred by the giving of a consideration consisting in a capital sum of that amount.

(3) The provision mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(d) for the determination of an amount may include provision for a determination—

- (a) to be made by the Secretary of State in a manner described in the scheme;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (b) to be made by reference to factors so described or to the opinion of a person so described; and
 - (c) to be capable of being modified (on one or more occasions) in a manner and in circumstances so described.
- (4) The consent of the Treasury is required for the making or modification of a determination under the provision mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(d).
- (5) The consent of the transferee is required for the modification of a determination under the provision mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(d).
- (6) If there is a determination or a modification of a determination under the provision mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(d), all necessary adjustments—
- (a) must be made by making assessments or by repayment or discharge of tax; and
 - (b) must be made despite any limitation on the time within which assessments may be made.
- (7) Expressions used in this paragraph and in Part 2 of the 2001 Act have the same meanings in this paragraph as in that Part.

Capital allowances: determination of capital value of industrial buildings etc.

- 24 (1) This paragraph applies for the purposes of Part 3 of the 2001 Act, and the other provisions of that Act which are relevant to that Part, in relation to a relevant transfer of the relevant interest in an industrial building or structure.
- (2) The transfer is to be treated as a sale of that relevant interest.
- (3) The net proceeds of that sale, in relation to the transferor, are to be treated—
- (a) if a capital sum is received by the transferor by way of consideration or compensation in respect of the transfer, as an amount equal to that sum; or
 - (b) if no such sum is received, as nil.
- (4) Sections 567 to 570 of the 2001 Act (sales treated as being for alternative amount) are not to have effect in relation to that sale.
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph a sum received by a person connected with the transferor is to be treated as received by the transferor.

Chargeable gains: disposals not be treated as made at market value

- 25 (1) Section 17 of the 1992 Act (disposals and acquisitions treated as made at market value) is not to have effect in relation to—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a disposal constituted by a relevant transfer or a disposal in accordance with provision contained by virtue of paragraph 3 or 4 of Schedule 2 to this Act in a scheme made under section 12 of this Act; or
 - (b) the acquisition made by the person to whom the disposal is made.
- (2) But sub-paragraph (1) does not apply—
- (a) if the person making the disposal is connected with the person making the acquisition; or
 - (b) in the case of a disposal in accordance with provision contained in a scheme by virtue of paragraph 3 or 4 of Schedule 2, if the disposal is made by or to a person other than the transferor or transferee.
- (3) If sub-paragraph (1) applies to the disposal of an asset, the disposal is to be taken (in relation to the person making the acquisition as well as the person making the disposal) to be—
- (a) in a case where consideration in money or money's worth is given by the person making the acquisition or on his behalf in respect of the vesting of the asset in him, for a consideration equal to the amount or value of that consideration; or
 - (b) in a case where no such consideration is given, for a consideration of nil.

I171 Sch. 10 para. 25 in force at 24.7.2005 by S.I. 2005/1909, art. 2, Sch.

Chargeable gains: degrouping charges

- 26 (1) This paragraph applies if a company (“the degrouped company”)—
- (a) acquired an asset from another company at a time when both were members of the same group of companies (“the old group”); and
 - (b) ceases by virtue of a relevant transfer to be a member of the old group.
- (2) Section 179 of the 1992 Act (company ceasing to be member of group) is not to treat the degrouped company as having by virtue of the transfer sold and immediately reacquired the asset.
- (3) Where sub-paragraph (2) has applied to an asset, section 179 of the 1992 Act is to have effect on and after the first subsequent occasion on which the degrouped company ceases to be a member of a group of companies (“the new group”) otherwise than by virtue of a relevant transfer as if—
- (a) the degrouped company, and
 - (b) the company from which it acquired the asset,
- had been members of the new group at the time of acquisition.
- (4) If, disregarding any preparatory transactions, a company would be regarded for the purposes of section 179 of the 1992 Act (and, accordingly, of this paragraph) as ceasing to be a member of a group of companies by virtue of a relevant transfer, it is to be regarded for those purposes as so doing by virtue of the relevant transfer and not by virtue of any preparatory transactions.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. PART 4

OTHER PROVISIONS CONCERNING TRANSFERS

Stamp duty

- 29 (1) Stamp duty is not to be chargeable—
- (a) on a scheme made under section 1(2); or
 - (b) on an instrument certified by the Secretary of State to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue as made for the purposes of such a scheme, or as made for purposes connected with such a scheme.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2006.

Changes to legislation: Railways Act 2005 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 06 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) But where, by virtue of sub-paragraph (1), stamp duty is not chargeable on a scheme or instrument, the scheme or instrument is to be treated as duly stamped only if—
- (a) in accordance with section 12 of the Stamp Act 1891 (c. 39) it has been stamped with a stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable to duty or that it has been duly stamped; or
 - (b) it is stamped with the duty to which it would be chargeable apart from sub-paragraph (1).
- (3) In this paragraph, “instrument” has the same meaning as in the Stamp Act 1891.

Financial assistance from the Secretary of State to companies in railway administration

- 9 (1) In section 63 (financial assistance for companies in railway administration), for subsection (1)(b) substitute—
- “(b) agree to indemnify a relevant person in respect of—
 - (i) liabilities incurred by that person in connection with the carrying out by the railway administrator of his functions under the order; and
 - (ii) loss or damage incurred by that person in that connection.”
- (2) After subsection (2) of that section insert—
- “(2A) A grant, loan, indemnity or guarantee under this section may be made or given in whatever manner, and on whatever terms and subject to whatever conditions, the Secretary of State considers appropriate.”
- (3) After subsection (3) insert—
- “(3A) The power of the Secretary of State under this section to agree to indemnify a relevant person—
- (a) is confined to a power to agree to indemnify that person in respect of liabilities, loss and damage incurred or sustained by him as a relevant person; but
 - (b) includes power to agree to indemnify persons (whether or not they are identified or identifiable at the time of the agreement) who subsequently become relevant persons.
- (3B) A person is a relevant person for the purposes of this section if he is—
- (a) the railway administrator;
 - (b) an employee of the railway administrator;
 - (c) a member or employee of a firm of which the railway administrator is a member;
 - (d) a member or employee of a firm of which the railway administrator is an employee;
 - (e) a member of a firm of which the railway administrator was an employee or member at a time when the order was in force;
 - (f) a body corporate which is the employer of the railway administrator; or
 - (g) an officer, employee or member of such a body corporate.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(3C) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) the references in this section to the railway administrator, in relation to a railway administration order, are references to the person appointed to achieve the purposes of the order and, where two or more persons are so appointed, are to be construed as references to any one or more of them; and
- (b) the references to a firm of which a person was a member or employee at a particular time include references to a firm which holds itself out to be the successor of a firm of which he was a member or employee at that time.”

(4) After subsection (4) of that section insert—

“(4A) If sums are paid by the Secretary of State in consequence of an indemnity agreed to under this section in the case of a company in relation to which a railway administration order is in force, the company must pay him—

- (a) such amounts in or towards the repayment to him of those sums as he may direct; and
- (b) interest, at such rates as he may direct, on amounts outstanding under this subsection.

(4B) Payments to the Secretary of State under subsection (4A) must be made at such times and in such manner as he may determine.

(4C) Subsection (4A) does not apply in the case of a sum paid by the Secretary of State for indemnifying a person in respect of a liability to the company in relation to which the railway administration order in question was made.

(4D) The consent of the Treasury is required for the giving of a direction under subsection (4A) and for the making of a determination under subsection (4B).”
