Part 9: Temporary Use of Premises

Sections 219 & 220: Giving notice: procedure

549. A temporary use notice must be served upon a licensing authority for the area in which the premises are situated. It must be given at least three months before it is proposed to have effect. It must arrive with both the licensing authority and any other person entitled to receive it within 7 days of the date on which it is stated to have been given.
550. A number of procedural requirements must be followed, including the payment of any fee that is prescribed by the Secretary of in regulations. In England and Wales this fee setting power may be devolved to licensing authorities in accordance with section 212. In addition, the person giving notice must also give a copy of it to the Commission, the police, and Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs and Excise. This allows these people to object to the proposed notice, as outlined below.
551. The licensing authority receiving a notice must acknowledge its receipt as soon as practicable thereafter.
