- (6) In such a case the judge's home jurisdiction is—
- (a) if he was qualified for appointment, or first appointment, by virtue of being a qualifying practitioner in one jurisdiction, that jurisdiction;
 - (b) if he was so qualified by virtue of being a qualifying practitioner in more than one jurisdiction, the jurisdiction with which he was, as a qualifying practitioner, most closely associated.

Disqualification

- 5
- (1) The President, the Deputy President, an ordinary judge of the Court or a territorial judge is disqualified for the purposes of membership of a selection commission if it appears to the Lord Chancellor that that person is for the time being incapacitated from serving as a member of that commission.
 - (2) The Deputy President is disqualified for the purposes of membership of a selection commission for the office of President unless he gives the Lord Chancellor notice that he is not willing to be appointed to the current vacancy.
 - (3) An ordinary judge of the Court is disqualified for the purposes of membership of a selection commission for the office of President or Deputy President unless he gives the Lord Chancellor notice that he is not willing to be appointed to the current vacancy.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/07/2013.

Changes to legislation: Constitutional Reform Act 2005, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 12 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) A territorial judge is disqualified for the purposes of membership of any selection commission unless he gives the Lord Chancellor notice that he is not willing to be appointed to the current vacancy.

Non-judicial members of selection commissions

- 6 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to those persons who are to be members of a selection commission by virtue of paragraph 1(1)(c).
- (2) The Lord Chancellor must nominate one member of each Commission or Board referred to in that provision to be a member of the selection commission.
- (3) At least one of the persons nominated under sub-paragraph (2) to be a member of the selection commission must be non-legally qualified.
- (4) The Lord Chancellor may nominate a person under sub-paragraph (2) only on the recommendation of the Commission or Board of which the person is a member.
- (5) The Lord Chancellor may, out of money provided by Parliament, pay to any person nominated under sub-paragraph (2) such allowances as the Lord Chancellor may determine.
- (6) For the purposes of this paragraph a person is non-legally qualified if—
- (a) he does not hold, and has never held, any of the offices listed in Schedule 1 to the House of Commons Disqualification Act 1975 (c. 24) (judicial offices disqualifying for membership of the House of Commons), and
 - (b) he is not, and has never been, a practising lawyer.
- (7) In sub-paragraph (6) “practising lawyer” has the same meaning as in paragraph 6 of Schedule 12 to this Act.

Chairing of selection commissions

- 7 A selection commission is to be chaired—
- (a) by the President of the Supreme Court, or
 - (b) by the Deputy President of the Supreme Court, if the President is not a member of the commission, or
 - (c) by the senior judge of the Supreme Court who is a member of the commission, if neither the President nor the Deputy President is a member, or
 - (d) by the most senior of the territorial judges who are members of the commission, if no judges of the Supreme Court are members.
