

Consumer Credit Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 14

An Act to amend the Consumer Credit Act 1974; to extend the ombudsman scheme under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to cover licensees under the Consumer Credit Act 1974; and for connected purposes. [30th March 2006]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Agreements regulated under the 1974 Act etc.

VALID FROM 06/04/2007

1 Definition of 'individual'

In section 189(1) of the 1974 Act (definitions) for the definition of "individual" substitute—

““individual” includes—

- (a) a partnership consisting of two or three persons not all of whom are bodies corporate; and
- (b) an unincorporated body of persons which does not consist entirely of bodies corporate and is not a partnership;”.

VALID FROM 06/04/2008

2 Removal of financial limits etc.

(1) In section 8 of the 1974 Act (which defines consumer credit agreements)—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in subsection (1) for “personal” substitute “consumer”;
  - (b) subsection (2) shall cease to have effect.
- (2) In section 15(1) of that Act (which defines consumer hire agreements) paragraph (c) and the “and” immediately preceding it shall cease to have effect.
- (3) In section 43(3) of that Act (financial and other limits relating to regulation of advertisements) paragraph (a) and the “or” immediately after it shall cease to have effect.

3 Exemption relating to high net worth debtors and hirers

After section 16 of the 1974 Act insert—

“16A Exemption relating to high net worth debtors and hirers

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide that this Act shall not regulate a consumer credit agreement or a consumer hire agreement where—
- (a) the debtor or hirer is a natural person;
  - (b) the agreement includes a declaration made by him to the effect that he agrees to forgo the protection and remedies that would be available to him under this Act if the agreement were a regulated agreement;
  - (c) a statement of high net worth has been made in relation to him; and
  - (d) that statement is current in relation to the agreement and a copy of it was provided to the creditor or owner before the agreement was made.
- (2) For the purposes of this section a statement of high net worth is a statement to the effect that, in the opinion of the person making it, the natural person in relation to whom it is made—
- (a) received during the previous financial year income of a specified description totalling an amount of not less than the specified amount; or
  - (b) had throughout that year net assets of a specified description with a total value of not less than the specified value.
- (3) Such a statement—
- (a) may not be made by the person in relation to whom it is made;
  - (b) must be made by a person of a specified description; and
  - (c) is current in relation to an agreement if it was made during the period of one year ending with the day on which the agreement is made.
- (4) An order under this section may make provision about—
- (a) how amounts of income and values of net assets are to be determined for the purposes of subsection (2)(a) and (b);
  - (b) the form, content and signing of—
    - (i) statements of high net worth;
    - (ii) declarations for the purposes of subsection (1)(b).
- (5) Where an agreement has two or more debtors or hirers, for the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) a separate statement of high net worth must have been made in relation to each of them; and paragraph (d) of that subsection shall have effect accordingly.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (6) In this section—
    ‘previous financial year’ means, in relation to a statement of high net worth, the financial year immediately preceding the financial year during which the statement is made;
    ‘specified’ means specified in an order under this section.
- (7) In subsection (6) ‘financial year’ means a period of one year ending with 31st March.
- (8) Nothing in this section affects the application of sections 140A to 140C.”

4 Exemption relating to businesses

Before section 17 of the 1974 Act insert—

“16B Exemption relating to businesses

- (1) This Act does not regulate—
    (a) a consumer credit agreement by which the creditor provides the debtor with credit exceeding £25,000, or
    (b) a consumer hire agreement that requires the hirer to make payments exceeding £25,000, if the agreement is entered into by the debtor or hirer wholly or predominantly for the purposes of a business carried on, or intended to be carried on, by him.
- (2) If an agreement includes a declaration made by the debtor or hirer to the effect that the agreement is entered into by him wholly or predominantly for the purposes of a business carried on, or intended to be carried on, by him, the agreement shall be presumed to have been entered into by him wholly or predominantly for such purposes.
- (3) But that presumption does not apply if, when the agreement is entered into—
    (a) the creditor or owner, or
    (b) any person who has acted on his behalf in connection with the entering into of the agreement, knows, or has reasonable cause to suspect, that the agreement is not entered into by the debtor or hirer wholly or predominantly for the purposes of a business carried on, or intended to be carried on, by him.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order make provision about the form, content and signing of declarations for the purposes of subsection (2).
- (5) Where an agreement has two or more creditors or owners, in subsection (3) references to the creditor or owner are references to any one or more of them.
- (6) Nothing in this section affects the application of sections 140A to 140C.”

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

Statements to be provided in relation to regulated credit agreements

6 Statements to be provided in relation to fixed-sum credit agreements

After section 77 of the 1974 Act insert—

“77A Statements to be provided in relation to fixed-sum credit agreements

- (1) The creditor under a regulated agreement for fixed-sum credit—
  - (a) shall, within the period of one year beginning with the day after the day on which the agreement is made, give the debtor a statement under this section; and
  - (b) after the giving of that statement, shall give the debtor further statements under this section at intervals of not more than one year.
- (2) Regulations may make provision about the form and content of statements under this section.
- (3) The debtor shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving to him of a statement under this section.
- (4) The creditor is not required to give the debtor any statement under this section once the following conditions are satisfied—
  - (a) that there is no sum payable under the agreement by the debtor; and
  - (b) that there is no sum which will or may become so payable.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if at a time before the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) are satisfied the creditor fails to give the debtor—
  - (a) a statement under this section within the period mentioned in subsection (1)(a); or
  - (b) such a statement within the period of one year beginning with the day after the day on which such a statement was last given to him.
- (6) Where this subsection applies in relation to a failure to give a statement under this section to the debtor—
  - (a) the creditor shall not be entitled to enforce the agreement during the period of non-compliance;
  - (b) the debtor shall have no liability to pay any sum of interest to the extent calculated by reference to the period of non-compliance or to any part of it; and
  - (c) the debtor shall have no liability to pay any default sum which (apart from this paragraph)—
    - (i) would have become payable during the period of non-compliance; or
    - (ii) would have become payable after the end of that period in connection with a breach of the agreement which occurs during that period (whether or not the breach continues after the end of that period).
- (7) In this section ‘the period of non-compliance’ means, in relation to a failure to give a statement under this section to the debtor, the period which—

7 Further provision relating to statements

(1) In section 78 of the 1974 Act (duty to give information to debtor under running-account credit agreement) after subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) Regulations may require a statement under subsection (4) to contain also information in the prescribed terms about the consequences of the debtor—

- (a) failing to make payments as required by the agreement; or
- (b) only making payments of a prescribed description in prescribed circumstances.”

(2) In subsection (7) of that section for “(4) and (5)” substitute “ (4) to (5) ”.

(3) In section 185 of that Act (agreement with more than one debtor or hirer) for subsection (2) substitute—

“(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(a), where credit is provided under an agreement to two or more debtors jointly, in performing his duties—

- (a) in the case of fixed-sum credit, under section 77A, or
- (b) in the case of running-account credit, under section 78(4),

the creditor need not give statements to any debtor who has signed and given to him a notice (a ‘dispensing notice’) authorising him not to comply in the debtor's case with section 77A or (as the case may be) 78(4).

(2A) A dispensing notice given by a debtor is operative from when it is given to the creditor until it is revoked by a further notice given to the creditor by the debtor.

(2B) But subsection (2) does not apply if (apart from this subsection) dispensing notices would be operative in relation to all of the debtors to whom the credit is provided.

(2C) Any dispensing notices operative in relation to an agreement shall cease to have effect if any of the debtors dies.

(2D) A dispensing notice which is operative in relation to an agreement shall be operative also in relation to any subsequent agreement which, in relation to the earlier agreement, is a modifying agreement.”

Default under regulated agreements

8 OFT to prepare information sheets on arrears and default

At the beginning of Part 7 of the 1974 Act insert—

“Information sheets

86A OFT to prepare information sheets on arrears and default

- (1) The OFT shall prepare, and give general notice of, an arrears information sheet and a default information sheet.
- (2) The arrears information sheet shall include information to help debtors and hirers who receive notices under section 86B or 86C.
- (3) The default information sheet shall include information to help debtors and hirers who receive default notices.
- (4) Regulations may make provision about the information to be included in an information sheet.
- (5) An information sheet takes effect for the purposes of this Part at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which general notice of it is given.
- (6) If the OFT revises an information sheet after general notice of it has been given, it shall give general notice of the information sheet as revised.
- (7) A revised information sheet takes effect for the purposes of this Part at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which general notice of it is given.”

- (a) that the debtor or hirer under an applicable agreement is required to have made at least two payments under the agreement before that time;
  - (b) that the total sum paid under the agreement by him is less than the total sum which he is required to have paid before that time;
  - (c) that the amount of the shortfall is no less than the sum of the last two payments which he is required to have made before that time;
  - (d) that the creditor or owner is not already under a duty to give him notices under this section in relation to the agreement; and
  - (e) if a judgment has been given in relation to the agreement before that time, that there is no sum still to be paid under the judgment by the debtor or hirer.
- (2) The creditor or owner—
  - (a) shall, within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the conditions mentioned in subsection (1) are satisfied, give the debtor or hirer a notice under this section; and
  - (b) after the giving of that notice, shall give him further notices under this section at intervals of not more than six months.
- (3) The duty of the creditor or owner to give the debtor or hirer notices under this section shall cease when either of the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) is satisfied; but if either of those conditions is satisfied before the notice required by subsection (2)(a) is given, the duty shall not cease until that notice is given.
- (4) The conditions referred to in subsection (3) are—
  - (a) that the debtor or hirer ceases to be in arrears;
  - (b) that a judgment is given in relation to the agreement under which a sum is required to be paid by the debtor or hirer.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a) the debtor or hirer ceases to be in arrears when—
  - (a) no sum, which he has ever failed to pay under the agreement when required, is still owing;
  - (b) no default sum, which has ever become payable under the agreement in connection with his failure to pay any sum under the agreement when required, is still owing;
  - (c) no sum of interest, which has ever become payable under the agreement in connection with such a default sum, is still owing; and
  - (d) no other sum of interest, which has ever become payable under the agreement in connection with his failure to pay any sum under the agreement when required, is still owing.
- (6) A notice under this section shall include a copy of the current arrears information sheet under section 86A.
- (7) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving to him of a notice under this section.
- (8) Regulations may make provision about the form and content of notices under this section.
- (9) In the case of an applicable agreement under which the debtor or hirer must make all payments he is required to make at intervals of one week or less, this

10 Notice of sums in arrears under running-account credit agreements

After section 86B of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 9 of this Act) insert—

“86C Notice of sums in arrears under running-account credit agreements

- (1) This section applies where at any time the following conditions are satisfied—
  - (a) that the debtor under an applicable agreement is required to have made at least two payments under the agreement before that time;
  - (b) that the last two payments which he is required to have made before that time have not been made;
  - (c) that the creditor has not already been required to give a notice under this section in relation to either of those payments; and
  - (d) if a judgment has been given in relation to the agreement before that time, that there is no sum still to be paid under the judgment by the debtor.
- (2) The creditor shall, no later than the end of the period within which he is next required to give a statement under section 78(4) in relation to the agreement, give the debtor a notice under this section.
- (3) The notice shall include a copy of the current arrears information sheet under section 86A.
- (4) The notice may be incorporated in a statement or other notice which the creditor gives the debtor in relation to the agreement by virtue of another provision of this Act.
- (5) The debtor shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving to him of the notice.

11 Failure to give notice of sums in arrears

After section 86C of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 10 of this Act) insert—

“86D Failure to give notice of sums in arrears

- (1) This section applies where the creditor or owner under an agreement is under a duty to give the debtor or hirer notices under section 86B but fails to give him such a notice—
  - (a) within the period mentioned in subsection (2)(a) of that section; or
  - (b) within the period of six months beginning with the day after the day on which such a notice was last given to him.
- (2) This section also applies where the creditor under an agreement is under a duty to give the debtor a notice under section 86C but fails to do so before the end of the period mentioned in subsection (2) of that section.
- (3) The creditor or owner shall not be entitled to enforce the agreement during the period of non-compliance.
- (4) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay—
  - (a) any sum of interest to the extent calculated by reference to the period of non-compliance or to any part of it; or
  - (b) any default sum which (apart from this paragraph)—
    - (i) would have become payable during the period of non-compliance; or
    - (ii) would have become payable after the end of that period in connection with a breach of the agreement which occurs during that period (whether or not the breach continues after the end of that period).
- (5) In this section ‘the period of non-compliance’ means, in relation to a failure to give a notice under section 86B or 86C to the debtor or hirer, the period which—
  - (a) begins immediately after the end of the period mentioned in (as the case may be) subsection (1)(a) or (b) or (2); and
  - (b) ends at the end of the day mentioned in subsection (6).

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) That day is—
- (a) in the case of a failure to give a notice under section 86B as mentioned in subsection (1)(a) of this section, the day on which the notice is given to the debtor or hirer;
  - (b) in the case of a failure to give a notice under that section as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of this section, the earlier of the following—
    - (i) the day on which the notice is given to the debtor or hirer;
    - (ii) the day on which the condition mentioned in subsection (4)(a) of that section is satisfied;
  - (c) in the case of a failure to give a notice under section 86C, the day on which the notice is given to the debtor.”

12 Notice of default sums

After section 86D of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 11 of this Act) insert—

“86E Notice of default sums

- (1) This section applies where a default sum becomes payable under a regulated agreement by the debtor or hirer.
- (2) The creditor or owner shall, within the prescribed period after the default sum becomes payable, give the debtor or hirer a notice under this section.
- (3) The notice under this section may be incorporated in a statement or other notice which the creditor or owner gives the debtor or hirer in relation to the agreement by virtue of another provision of this Act.
- (4) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay interest in connection with the default sum to the extent that the interest is calculated by reference to a period occurring before the 29th day after the day on which the debtor or hirer is given the notice under this section.
- (5) If the creditor or owner fails to give the debtor or hirer the notice under this section within the period mentioned in subsection (2), he shall not be entitled to enforce the agreement until the notice is given to the debtor or hirer.
- (6) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving to him of the notice under this section.
- (7) Regulations may—
  - (a) provide that this section does not apply in relation to a default sum which is less than a prescribed amount;
  - (b) make provision about the form and content of notices under this section.
- (8) This section does not apply in relation to a non-commercial agreement or to a small agreement.”

16 Time orders

- (1) In subsection (1) of section 129 of the 1974 Act (time orders) before paragraph (c) insert—

“(ba) on an application made by a debtor or hirer under this paragraph after he has been given a notice under section 86B or 86C; or”.

- (2) After that section insert—

“129A Debtor or hirer to give notice of intent etc. to creditor or owner

- (1) A debtor or hirer may make an application under section 129(1)(ba) in relation to a regulated agreement only if—

- (a) following his being given the notice under section 86B or 86C, he gave a notice within subsection (2) to the creditor or owner; and
- (b) a period of at least 14 days has elapsed after the day on which he gave that notice to the creditor or owner.

- (2) A notice is within this subsection if it—

- (a) indicates that the debtor or hirer intends to make the application;
- (b) indicates that he wants to make a proposal to the creditor or owner in relation to his making of payments under the agreement; and

17 Interest payable on judgment debts etc.

After section 130 of the 1974 Act insert—

“Interest

130A Interest payable on judgment debts etc.

- (1) If the creditor or owner under a regulated agreement wants to be able to recover from the debtor or hirer post-judgment interest in connection with a sum that is required to be paid under a judgment given in relation to the agreement (the ‘judgment sum’), he—
  - (a) after the giving of that judgment, shall give the debtor or hirer a notice under this section (the ‘first required notice’); and
  - (b) after the giving of the first required notice, shall give the debtor or hirer further notices under this section at intervals of not more than six months.
- (2) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay post-judgment interest in connection with the judgment sum to the extent that the interest is calculated by reference to a period occurring before the day on which he is given the first required notice.
- (3) If the creditor or owner fails to give the debtor or hirer a notice under this section within the period of six months beginning with the day after the day on which such a notice was last given to the debtor or hirer, the debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay post-judgment interest in connection with the judgment sum to the extent that the interest is calculated by reference to the whole or to a part of the period which—
  - (a) begins immediately after the end of that period of six months; and
  - (b) ends at the end of the day on which the notice is given to the debtor or hirer.
- (4) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving to him of a notice under this section.
- (5) A notice under this section may be incorporated in a statement or other notice which the creditor or owner gives the debtor or hirer in relation to the agreement by virtue of another provision of this Act.
- (6) Regulations may make provision about the form and content of notices under this section.
- (7) This section does not apply in relation to post-judgment interest which is required to be paid by virtue of any of the following—
  - (a) section 4 of the Administration of Justice (Scotland) Act 1972;
  - (b) Article 127 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981;
  - (c) section 74 of the County Courts Act 1984.
- (8) This section does not apply in relation to a non-commercial agreement or to a small agreement.

18 Definition of “default sum”

- (1) After section 187 of the 1974 Act insert—

“187A Definition of ‘default sum’

- (1) In this Act ‘default sum’ means, in relation to the debtor or hirer under a regulated agreement, a sum (other than a sum of interest) which is payable by him under the agreement in connection with a breach of the agreement by him.
- (2) But a sum is not a default sum in relation to the debtor or hirer simply because, as a consequence of his breach of the agreement, he is required to pay it earlier than he would otherwise have had to.”
- (2) In section 189(1) of that Act (definitions) after the definition of “default notice” insert—

“‘default sum’ has the meaning given by section 187A;”.

19 Unfair relationships between creditors and debtors

- After section 140 of the 1974 Act insert—

“Unfair relationships

140A Unfair relationships between creditors and debtors

- (1) The court may make an order under section 140B in connection with a credit agreement if it determines that the relationship between the creditor and the debtor arising out of the agreement (or the agreement taken with any related agreement) is unfair to the debtor because of one or more of the following—
- (a) any of the terms of the agreement or of any related agreement;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the way in which the creditor has exercised or enforced any of his rights under the agreement or any related agreement;
  - (c) any other thing done (or not done) by, or on behalf of, the creditor (either before or after the making of the agreement or any related agreement).
- (2) In deciding whether to make a determination under this section the court shall have regard to all matters it thinks relevant (including matters relating to the creditor and matters relating to the debtor).
- (3) For the purposes of this section the court shall (except to the extent that it is not appropriate to do so) treat anything done (or not done) by, or on behalf of, or in relation to, an associate or a former associate of the creditor as if done (or not done) by, or on behalf of, or in relation to, the creditor.
- (4) A determination may be made under this section in relation to a relationship notwithstanding that the relationship may have ended.
- (5) An order under section 140B shall not be made in connection with a credit agreement which is an exempt agreement by virtue of section 16(6C).”

20 Powers of court in relation to unfair relationships

After section 140A of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 19 of this Act) insert—

“140B Powers of court in relation to unfair relationships

- (1) An order under this section in connection with a credit agreement may do one or more of the following—
- (a) require the creditor, or any associate or former associate of his, to repay (in whole or in part) any sum paid by the debtor or by a surety by virtue of the agreement or any related agreement (whether paid to the creditor, the associate or the former associate or to any other person);
  - (b) require the creditor, or any associate or former associate of his, to do or not to do (or to cease doing) anything specified in the order in connection with the agreement or any related agreement;
  - (c) reduce or discharge any sum payable by the debtor or by a surety by virtue of the agreement or any related agreement;
  - (d) direct the return to a surety of any property provided by him for the purposes of a security;
  - (e) otherwise set aside (in whole or in part) any duty imposed on the debtor or on a surety by virtue of the agreement or any related agreement;
  - (f) alter the terms of the agreement or of any related agreement;
  - (g) direct accounts to be taken, or (in Scotland) an accounting to be made, between any persons.
- (2) An order under this section may be made in connection with a credit agreement only—
- (a) on an application made by the debtor or by a surety;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) at the instance of the debtor or a surety in any proceedings in any court to which the debtor and the creditor are parties, being proceedings to enforce the agreement or any related agreement; or
  - (c) at the instance of the debtor or a surety in any other proceedings in any court where the amount paid or payable under the agreement or any related agreement is relevant.
- (3) An order under this section may be made notwithstanding that its effect is to place on the creditor, or any associate or former associate of his, a burden in respect of an advantage enjoyed by another person.
- (4) An application under subsection (2)(a) may only be made—
- (a) in England and Wales, to the county court;
  - (b) in Scotland, to the sheriff court;
  - (c) in Northern Ireland, to the High Court (subject to subsection (6)).
- (5) In Scotland such an application may be made in the sheriff court for the district in which the debtor or surety resides or carries on business.
- (6) In Northern Ireland such an application may be made to the county court if the credit agreement is an agreement under which the creditor provides the debtor with—
- (a) fixed-sum credit not exceeding £15,000; or
  - (b) running-account credit on which the credit limit does not exceed £15,000.
- (7) Without prejudice to any provision which may be made by rules of court made in relation to county courts in Northern Ireland, such rules may provide that an application made by virtue of subsection (6) may be made in the county court for the division in which the debtor or surety resides or carries on business.
- (8) A party to any proceedings mentioned in subsection (2) shall be entitled, in accordance with rules of court, to have any person who might be the subject of an order under this section made a party to the proceedings.
- (9) If, in any such proceedings, the debtor or a surety alleges that the relationship between the creditor and the debtor is unfair to the debtor, it is for the creditor to prove to the contrary.”

21 Interpretation of ss. 140A and 140B of the 1974 Act

After section 140B of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 20 of this Act) insert—

“140C Interpretation of ss. 140A and 140B

- (1) In this section and in sections 140A and 140B ‘credit agreement’ means any agreement between an individual (the ‘debtor’) and any other person (the ‘creditor’) by which the creditor provides the debtor with credit of any amount.
- (2) References in this section and in sections 140A and 140B to the creditor or to the debtor under a credit agreement include—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) references to the person to whom his rights and duties under the agreement have passed by assignment or operation of law;
  - (b) where two or more persons are the creditor or the debtor, references to any one or more of those persons.
- (3) The definition of ‘court’ in section 189(1) does not apply for the purposes of sections 140A and 140B.
- (4) References in sections 140A and 140B to an agreement related to a credit agreement (the ‘main agreement’) are references to—
- (a) a credit agreement consolidated by the main agreement;
  - (b) a linked transaction in relation to the main agreement or to a credit agreement within paragraph (a);
  - (c) a security provided in relation to the main agreement, to a credit agreement within paragraph (a) or to a linked transaction within paragraph (b).
- (5) In the case of a credit agreement which is not a regulated consumer credit agreement, for the purposes of subsection (4) a transaction shall be treated as being a linked transaction in relation to that agreement if it would have been such a transaction had that agreement been a regulated consumer credit agreement.
- (6) For the purposes of this section and section 140B the definitions of ‘security’ and ‘surety’ in section 189(1) apply (with any appropriate changes) in relation to—
- (a) a credit agreement which is not a consumer credit agreement as if it were a consumer credit agreement; and
  - (b) a transaction which is a linked transaction by virtue of subsection (5).
- (7) For the purposes of this section a credit agreement (the ‘earlier agreement’) is consolidated by another credit agreement (the ‘later agreement’) if—
- (a) the later agreement is entered into by the debtor (in whole or in part) for purposes connected with debts owed by virtue of the earlier agreement; and
  - (b) at any time prior to the later agreement being entered into the parties to the earlier agreement included—
    - (i) the debtor under the later agreement; and
    - (ii) the creditor under the later agreement or an associate or a former associate of his.
- (8) Further, if the later agreement is itself consolidated by another credit agreement (whether by virtue of this subsection or subsection (7)), then the earlier agreement is consolidated by that other agreement as well.”

22 Further provision relating to unfair relationships

- (1) After section 140C of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 21 of this Act) insert—

he shall be entitled to be issued with a standard licence covering the carrying on of that type of business with no limitation.

(1AA) If such an applicant—

- (a) makes an application within subsection (1)(b) of section 24A in relation to a type of business, and
- (b) satisfies the OFT that he is a fit person to carry on that type of business so far as it falls within the description or descriptions of business set out in his application in accordance with subsection (2) of that section,

he shall be entitled to be issued with a standard licence covering the carrying on of that type of business so far as it falls within the description or descriptions in question.

(1AB) If such an applicant makes an application within section 24A(1)(a) or (b) in relation to a type of business but fails to satisfy the OFT as mentioned in subsection (1) or (1AA) (as the case may be), he shall nevertheless be entitled to be issued with a standard licence covering the carrying on of that type of business so far as it falls within one or more descriptions of business if—

- (a) he satisfies the OFT that he is a fit person to carry on that type of business so far as it falls within the description or descriptions in question;
- (b) he could have applied for the licence to be limited in that way; and
- (c) the licence would not cover any activity which was not covered by his application.

(1AC) In this section ‘description of business’ means, in relation to a type of business, a description of business specified in a general notice under section 24A(5)(a).

(1AD) An applicant shall not, by virtue of this section, be issued with a licence unless he satisfies the OFT that the name or names under which he would be licensed is or are not misleading or otherwise undesirable.”

(2) For subsection (2) of that section substitute—

“(2) In determining whether an applicant for a licence is a fit person for the purposes of this section the OFT shall have regard to any matters appearing to it to be relevant including (amongst other things)—

- (a) the applicant's skills, knowledge and experience in relation to consumer credit businesses, consumer hire businesses or ancillary credit businesses;
- (b) such skills, knowledge and experience of other persons who the applicant proposes will participate in any business that would be carried on by him under the licence;
- (c) practices and procedures that the applicant proposes to implement in connection with any such business;

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

(d) evidence of the kind mentioned in subsection (2A).

(2A) That evidence is evidence tending to show that the applicant, or any of the applicant's employees, agents or associates (whether past or present) or, where the applicant is a body corporate, any person appearing to the OFT to be a controller of the body corporate or an associate of any such person, has—

- (a) committed any offence involving fraud or other dishonesty or violence;
- (b) contravened any provision made by or under—
  - (i) this Act;
  - (ii) Part 16 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 so far as it relates to the consumer credit jurisdiction under that Part;
  - (iii) any other enactment regulating the provision of credit to individuals or other transactions with individuals;
- (c) contravened any provision in force in an EEA State which corresponds to a provision of the kind mentioned in paragraph (b);
- (d) practised discrimination on grounds of sex, colour, race or ethnic or national origins in, or in connection with, the carrying on of any business; or
- (e) engaged in business practices appearing to the OFT to be deceitful or oppressive or otherwise unfair or improper (whether unlawful or not).

(2B) For the purposes of subsection (2A)(e), the business practices which the OFT may consider to be deceitful or oppressive or otherwise unfair or improper include practices in the carrying on of a consumer credit business that appear to the OFT to involve irresponsible lending.”

(3) In subsection (3) of that section for “(2)” substitute “(2A)”.

30 Guidance on fitness test

After section 25 of the 1974 Act insert—

“25A Guidance on fitness test

- (1) The OFT shall prepare and publish guidance in relation to how it determines, or how it proposes to determine, whether persons are fit persons as mentioned in section 25.
- (2) If the OFT revises the guidance at any time after it has been published, the OFT shall publish it as revised.
- (3) The guidance shall be published in such manner as the OFT thinks fit for the purpose of bringing it to the attention of those likely to be affected by it.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In preparing or revising the guidance the OFT shall consult such persons as it thinks fit.
- (5) In carrying out its functions under this Part the OFT shall have regard to the guidance as most recently published.”

VALID FROM 06/04/2008

31 Variation of standard licences etc.

- (1) In section 30 of the 1974 Act (variation of licences by request) for subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) If it thinks fit, the OFT may by notice to the licensee under a standard licence—

- (a) in the case of a licence which covers the carrying on of a type of business only so far as it falls within one or more descriptions of business, vary the licence by—
  - (i) removing that limitation;
  - (ii) adding a description of business to that limitation; or
  - (iii) removing a description of business from that limitation;
- (b) in the case of a licence which covers the carrying on of a type of business with no limitation, vary the licence so that it covers the carrying on of that type of business only so far as it falls within one or more descriptions of business;
- (c) vary the licence so that it no longer covers the carrying on of a type of business at all;
- (d) vary the licence so that a type of business the carrying on of which is not covered at all by the licence is covered either—
  - (i) with no limitation; or
  - (ii) only so far as it falls within one or more descriptions of business; or
- (e) vary the licence in any other way except for the purpose of varying the descriptions of activities covered by the licence.

(1A) The OFT may vary a licence under subsection (1) only in accordance with an application made by the licensee.

(1B) References in this section to a description of business in relation to a type of business—

- (a) are references to a description of business specified in a general notice under section 24A(5)(a); and
- (b) in subsection (1)(a) (apart from sub-paragraph (ii)) include references to a description of business that was, but is no longer, so specified.”

- (2) In subsection (1) of section 31 of that Act (compulsory variation of licences) for “the licence should be varied” substitute “ it should take steps mentioned in subsection (1A) ”.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

(3) After that subsection insert—

“(1A) Those steps are—

- (a) in the case of a standard licence, steps mentioned in section 30(1)(a)(ii) and (iii), (b), (c) and (e);
- (b) in the case of a group licence, the varying of terms of the licence.”

(4) After subsection (7) of that section insert—

“(8) Subsection (1) shall have effect in relation to a standard licence as if an application could be made for the renewal or further renewal of the licence on the same terms (except as to expiry) even if such an application could not be made because of provision made in a general notice under section 24A(5).

(9) Accordingly, in applying subsection (1AA) of section 25 in relation to the licence for the purposes of this section, the OFT shall treat references in that subsection to the description or descriptions of business in relation to a type of business as references to the description or descriptions of business included in the licence in relation to that type of business, notwithstanding that provision under section 24A(5).”

(5) In section 32 of that Act (suspension and revocation of licences) after subsection (8) insert—

“(9) The OFT has no power to revoke or to suspend a standard licence simply because, by virtue of provision made in a general notice under section 24A(5), a person cannot apply for the renewal of such a licence on terms which are the same as the terms of the licence in question.”

VALID FROM 06/04/2008

32 Winding-up of standard licensee's business

(1) After section 34 of the 1974 Act insert—

“34A Winding-up of standard licensee's business

(1) If it thinks fit, the OFT may, for the purpose of enabling the licensee's business, or any part of his business, to be transferred or wound up, include as part of a determination to which subsection (2) applies provision authorising the licensee to carry on for a specified period—

- (a) specified activities, or
- (b) activities of specified descriptions, which, because of that determination, the licensee will no longer be licensed to carry on.

(2) This subsection applies to the following determinations—

- (a) a determination to refuse to renew a standard licence in accordance with the terms of the application for its renewal;
- (b) a determination to vary such a licence under section 31;
- (c) a determination to suspend or revoke such a licence.

---

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

(3) Such provision—

- (a) may specify different periods for different activities or activities of different descriptions;
- (b) may provide for persons other than the licensee to carry on activities under the authorisation;
- (c) may specify requirements which must be complied with by a person carrying on activities under the authorisation in relation to those activities;

and, if a requirement specified under paragraph (c) is not complied with, the OFT may by notice to a person carrying on activities under the authorisation terminate the authorisation (in whole or in part) from a specified date.

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (c) of subsection (3), a requirement specified under that paragraph may have the effect of—

- (a) preventing a named person from being an employee of a person carrying on activities under the authorisation, or restricting the activities he may engage in as an employee of such a person;
- (b) preventing a named person from doing something, or restricting his doing something, in connection with activities being carried on by a person under the authorisation;
- (c) securing that access to premises is given to officers of the OFT for the purpose of enabling them to inspect documents or to observe the carrying on of activities.

(5) Activities carried on under an authorisation shall be treated for the purposes of sections 39(1), 40, 148 and 149 as if carried on under a standard licence.”

(2) In section 29 of that Act (renewal of licences) after subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) In its application to the renewal of standard licences by virtue of subsection (3) of this section, section 27(1) shall have effect as if for paragraph (b) there were substituted—

- “(b) invite the applicant to submit to the OFT in accordance with section 34 representations—
  - (i) in support of his application; and
  - (ii) about the provision (if any) that should be included under section 34A as part of the determination were the OFT to refuse the application or grant it in terms different from those applied for.””

(3) Subsection (5) of that section (which gives the OFT power to give directions allowing licensees to carry agreements into effect) shall cease to have effect.

(4) In section 31(2) of that Act (procedure to be followed in case of proposed compulsory variation of a standard licence) for paragraph (b) substitute—

- “(b) invite him to submit to the OFT in accordance with section 34 representations—
  - (i) as to the proposed variations; and
  - (ii) about the provision (if any) that should be included under section 34A as part of the determination were the OFT to vary the licence.”

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In subsection (2) of section 32 of that Act (procedure to be followed in case of proposed revocation or suspension of a standard licence) for paragraph (b) substitute—
- “(b) invite him to submit to the OFT in accordance with section 34 representations—
- (i) as to the proposed revocation or suspension; and
- (ii) about the provision (if any) that should be included under section 34A as part of the determination were the OFT to revoke or suspend the licence.”
- (6) Subsection (5) of that section (which gives the OFT power to give directions allowing licensees to carry agreements into effect) shall cease to have effect.

33 Consequential amendments relating to ss. 27 to 32

- (1) In section 21(1) of the 1974 Act (businesses needing a licence) for “consumer hire business” substitute “ a consumer hire business or an ancillary credit business ”.
- (2) In section 22 of that Act (standard and group licences) after subsection (5) insert—
- “(5A) A group licence to carry on a business may limit the activities it covers in any way the OFT thinks fit.”
- (3) In subsection (1) of section 23 of that Act (authorisation of specific activities) for “this section” substitute “ the terms of the licence ”.
- (4) In subsection (4) of that section for “Regulations may be made specifying” substitute “ The OFT may by general notice specify ”.
- (5) After section 27 of that Act insert—

“27A Consumer credit EEA firms

- (1) Where—
- (a) a consumer credit EEA firm makes an application for a standard licence, and
- (b) the activities covered by the application are all permitted activities, the OFT shall refuse the application.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies where—
- (a) a consumer credit EEA firm makes an application for a standard licence; and
- (b) some (but not all) of the activities covered by the application are permitted activities.
- (3) In order to be entitled to be issued with a standard licence in accordance with section 25(1) to (1AB) in relation to a type of business, the firm need not satisfy the OFT that it is a fit person to carry on that type of business so far as it would involve any of the permitted activities covered by the application.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (4) A standard licence held by a consumer credit EEA firm does not at any time authorise the carrying on of an activity which is a permitted activity at that time.
- (5) In this section ‘permitted activity’ means, in relation to a consumer credit EEA firm, an activity for which the firm has, or could obtain, permission under paragraph 15 of Schedule 3 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.”
- (6) In the Table in section 41 of that Act (appeals) in the entry relating to “refusal to make order under section 40(2) in accordance with terms of application” after “40(2)” insert “, 148(2) or 149(2) ”.
- (7) In sections 194(3) and 203(4) of the 2000 Act (powers of intervention and prohibition) for “(a) to (d) of section 25(2)” substitute “ (a) to (e) of section 25(2A) ”.
- (8) In section 203(10) of that Act (definitions relating to Consumer Credit Act businesses) in the definition of “associate” for “25(2)” substitute “ 25(2A) ”.
- (9) In paragraph 15(3) of Schedule 3 to that Act (EEA passport rights) for “21, 39(1) and 147(1)” substitute “ 21 and 39(1) ”.
- (10) In paragraph 23 of that Schedule in sub-paragraph (1) for “Sub-paragraph (2) applies” substitute “ Sub-paragraphs (2) and (2A) apply ”.
- (11) In sub-paragraph (2) of that paragraph for “(a) to (d) of section 25(2)” substitute “ (a) to (e) of section 25(2A) ”.
- (12) After that sub-paragraph insert—
  - “(2A) The Authority may also exercise its power under section 45 in respect of the firm if the Office of Fair Trading has informed the Authority that it has concerns about any of the following—
    - (a) the firm's skills, knowledge and experience in relation to Consumer Credit Act businesses;
    - (b) such skills, knowledge and experience of other persons who are participating in any Consumer Credit Act business being carried on by the firm;
    - (c) practices and procedures that the firm is implementing in connection with any such business.”

Duration of licences and charges

34 Definite and indefinite licences

- (1) In subsection (1) of section 22 of the 1974 Act (definitions of standard and group licences)—
  - (a) in paragraph (a) for “during the prescribed period” substitute “ whilst the licence is in effect ”;
  - (b) in paragraph (b) for the words from “during” to “indefinitely” substitute “ whilst the licence is in effect ”.
- (2) After that subsection insert—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

“(1A) The terms of a licence shall specify—

- (a) whether it has effect indefinitely or only for a limited period; and
- (b) if it has effect for a limited period, that period.

(1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A)(b) the period specified shall be such period not exceeding the prescribed period as the OFT thinks fit (subject to subsection (1E)).

(1C) A standard licence shall have effect indefinitely unless—

- (a) the application for its issue requests that it have effect for a limited period only; or
- (b) the OFT otherwise thinks there is good reason why it should have effect for such a period only.

(1D) A group licence shall have effect for a limited period only unless the OFT thinks there is good reason why it should have effect indefinitely.

(1E) Where a licence which has effect indefinitely is to be varied under section 30 or 31 for the purpose of limiting the licence's duration, the variation shall provide for the licence to expire—

- (a) in the case of a variation under section 30, at the end of such period from the time of the variation as is set out in the application for the variation; or
- (b) in the case of a variation under section 31, at the end of such period from the time of the variation as the OFT thinks fit;

but a period mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) shall not exceed the prescribed period.”

(3) In section 29 of that Act (renewal of licences)—

- (a) in subsection (1) after “standard licence” insert “ of limited duration ”;
- (b) in subsection (4) for “in force” substitute “ to have effect ”.

(4) In subsection (1) of section 31 of that Act (compulsory variation of licences) after “that time” insert “ (assuming, in the case of a licence which has effect indefinitely, that it were a licence of limited duration) ”.

(5) Before subsection (2) of that section insert—

“(1B) The OFT shall also proceed as follows if, having regard to section 22(1B) to (1E), it is of the opinion—

- (a) that a licence which has effect indefinitely should have its duration limited; or
- (b) in the case of a licence of limited duration, that the period during which it has effect should be shortened.”

(6) In section 32(1) of that Act (suspension and revocation of licences) after “that time” insert “ (assuming, in the case of a licence which has effect indefinitely, that it were a licence of limited duration) ”.

(7) In section 35(1)(b) of that Act (particulars to be kept in register maintained by OFT) for “force” substitute “ effect ”.

(8) In section 37 of that Act (circumstances giving rise to termination of a licence) after subsection (1) insert—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details) “(1A) A licence terminates if the licensee gives the OFT a notice under subsection (1B).

---

(1B) A notice under this subsection shall—

- (a) be in such form as the OFT may by general notice specify;
- (b) contain such information as may be so specified;
- (c) be accompanied by the licence or give reasons as to why it is not accompanied by the licence; and
- (d) be signed by or on behalf of the licensee.”

(9) In subsection (3)(a) of that section after “(1)” insert “ or (1A) ”.

35 Charges for indefinite licences

After section 28 of the 1974 Act insert—

“Charges for indefinite licences

28A Charges to be paid by licensees etc. before end of payment periods

- (1) The licensee under a standard licence which has effect indefinitely shall, before the end of each payment period of his, pay the OFT a charge towards the costs of carrying out its functions under this Act.
- (2) The original applicant for a group licence which has effect indefinitely shall, before the end of each payment period of his, pay the OFT such a charge.
- (3) The amount of the charge payable by a person under subsection (1) or (2) before the end of a payment period shall be determined in accordance with provision which—
  - (a) is made by the OFT by general notice; and
  - (b) is current on such day as may be determined in accordance with provision made by regulations.
- (4) The provision that may be made by the OFT under subsection (3)(a) includes—
  - (a) different provision in relation to persons of different descriptions (including persons whose payment periods end at different times);
  - (b) provision for no charge at all to be payable by persons of specified descriptions.
- (5) The approval of the Secretary of State and the Treasury is required for a general notice under subsection (3)(a).
- (6) For the purposes of this section a person's payment periods are to be determined in accordance with provision made by regulations.”

36 Extension of period to pay charge for indefinite licence

After section 28A of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 35 of this Act) insert—

“28B Extension of period to pay charge under s. 28A

- (1) A person who is required under section 28A to pay a charge before the end of a period may apply once to the OFT for that period to be extended.
- (2) The application shall be made before such day as may be determined in accordance with provision made by the OFT by general notice.
- (3) If the OFT is satisfied that there is a good reason—
  - (a) why the applicant has not paid that charge prior to his making of the application, and
  - (b) why he cannot pay that charge before the end of that period, it may, if it thinks fit, by notice to him extend that period by such time as it thinks fit having regard to that reason.
- (4) The power of the OFT under this section to extend a period in relation to a charge—
  - (a) includes the power to extend the period in relation to a part of the charge only;
  - (b) may be exercised even though the period has ended.”

38 Power of OFT to impose requirements on licensees

After section 33 of the 1974 Act insert—

“Further powers of OFT to regulate conduct of licensees etc.

33A Power of OFT to impose requirements on licensees

- (1) This section applies where the OFT is dissatisfied with any matter in connection with—
- (a) a business being carried on, or which has been carried on, by a licensee or by an associate or a former associate of a licensee;
  - (b) a proposal to carry on a business which has been made by a licensee or by an associate or a former associate of a licensee; or
  - (c) any conduct not covered by paragraph (a) or (b) of a licensee or of an associate or a former associate of a licensee.
- (2) The OFT may by notice to the licensee require him to do or not to do (or to cease doing) anything specified in the notice for purposes connected with—
- (a) addressing the matter with which the OFT is dissatisfied; or
  - (b) securing that matters of the same or a similar kind do not arise.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A requirement imposed under this section on a licensee shall only relate to a business which the licensee is carrying on, or is proposing to carry on, under the licence under which he is a licensee.
- (4) Such a requirement may be framed by reference to a named person other than the licensee.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1) it is immaterial whether the matter with which the OFT is dissatisfied arose before or after the licensee became a licensee.
- (6) If—
  - (a) a person makes an application for a standard licence, and
  - (b) while dealing with that application the OFT forms the opinion that, if such a licence were to be issued to that person, it would be minded to impose on him a requirement under this section, the OFT may, before issuing such a licence to that person, do (in whole or in part) anything that it must do under section 33D or 34(1) or (2) in relation to the imposing of the requirement.
- (7) In this section ‘associate’, in addition to the persons specified in section 184, includes a business associate.”

VALID FROM 06/04/2008

39 Power of OFT to impose requirements on supervisory bodies

After section 33A of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 38 of this Act) insert—

“33B Power of OFT to impose requirements on supervisory bodies

- (1) This section applies where the OFT is dissatisfied with the way in which a responsible person in relation to a group licence—
  - (a) is regulating or otherwise supervising, or has regulated or otherwise supervised, persons who are licensees under that licence; or
  - (b) is proposing to regulate or otherwise to supervise such persons.
- (2) The OFT may by notice to the responsible person require him to do or not to do (or to cease doing) anything specified in the notice for purposes connected with—
  - (a) addressing the matters giving rise to the OFT's dissatisfaction; or
  - (b) securing that matters of the same or a similar kind do not arise.
- (3) A requirement imposed under this section on a responsible person in relation to a group licence shall only relate to practices and procedures for regulating or otherwise supervising licensees under the licence in connection with their carrying on of businesses under the licence.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) it is immaterial whether the matters giving rise to the OFT's dissatisfaction arose before or after the issue of the group licence in question.
- (5) If—
  - (a) a person makes an application for a group licence, and
  - (b) while dealing with that application the OFT forms the opinion that, if such a licence were to be issued to that person, it would be minded to impose on him a requirement under this section, the OFT may, before issuing such a licence to that person, do (in whole or in part) anything that it must do under section 33D or 34(1) or (2) in relation to the imposing of the requirement.
- (6) For the purposes of this Part a person is a responsible person in relation to a group licence if—
  - (a) he is the original applicant for it; and
  - (b) he has a responsibility (whether by virtue of an enactment, an agreement or otherwise) for regulating or otherwise supervising persons who are licensees under the licence.”

40 Supplementary provision relating to requirements

After section 33B of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 39 of this Act) insert—

“33C Supplementary provision relating to requirements

- (1) A notice imposing a requirement under section 33A or 33B may include provision about the time at or by which, or the period during which, the requirement is to be complied with.
- (2) A requirement imposed under section 33A or 33B shall not have effect after the licence by reference to which it is imposed has itself ceased to have effect.
- (3) A person shall not be required under section 33A or 33B to compensate, or otherwise to make amends to, another person.
- (4) The OFT may by notice to the person on whom a requirement has been imposed under section 33A or 33B vary or revoke the requirement (including any provision made under subsection (1) of this section in relation to it) with effect from such date as may be specified in the notice.
- (5) The OFT may exercise its power under subsection (4) in relation to a requirement either on its own motion or on the application of a person falling within subsection (6) or (7) in relation to the requirement.
- (6) A person falls within this subsection in relation to a requirement if he is the person on whom the requirement is imposed.
- (7) A person falls within this subsection in relation to a requirement if—

41 Procedure in relation to requirements

After section 33C of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 40 of this Act) insert—

“33D Procedure in relation to requirements

- (1) Before making a determination—
  - (a) to impose a requirement on a person under section 33A or 33B,
  - (b) to refuse an application under section 33C(5) in relation to a requirement imposed under either of those sections, or
  - (c) to vary or to revoke a requirement so imposed, the OFT shall proceed as follows.
- (2) The OFT shall give a notice to every person to whom subsection (3) applies in relation to the determination—
  - (a) informing him, with reasons, that it is minded to make the determination; and
  - (b) inviting him to submit to it representations as to the determination under section 34.
- (3) This subsection applies to a person in relation to the determination if he falls within, or as a consequence of the determination would fall within, section 33C(6) or (7) in relation to the requirement in question.
- (4) This section does not require the OFT to give a notice to a person if the determination in question is in the same terms as a proposal made to the OFT by that person (whether as part of an application under this Part or otherwise).”

42 Guidance on requirements

After section 33D of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 41 of this Act) insert—

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Powers and duties in relation to information

44 Provision of information etc. by applicants

- (1) In subsection (2) of section 6 of the 1974 Act (which contains provision relating to applications)—
- (a) for “particulars” substitute “ information and documents ”;
  - (b) for “by” in the second place where it occurs substitute “ or describe in a ”.
- (2) For subsection (3) of that section substitute—
- “(3) Where the OFT receives an application, it may by notice to the applicant at any time before the determination of the application require him to provide such information or documents relevant to the application as may be specified or described in the notice.”
- (3) After subsection (4) of that section insert—
- “(5) Subsection (6) applies where a general notice under subsection (2) comes into effect—
- (a) after an application has been made; but
  - (b) before its determination.
- (6) The applicant shall, within such period as may be specified in the general notice, provide the OFT with any information or document—
- (a) which he has not previously provided in relation to the application by virtue of this section;
  - (b) which he would have been required to provide with his application had it been made after the general notice came into effect; and
  - (c) which the general notice requires to be provided for the purposes of this subsection.
- (7) An applicant shall notify the OFT, giving details, if before his application is determined—
- (a) any information or document provided by him in relation to the application by virtue of this section is, to any extent, superseded or otherwise affected by a change in circumstances; or
  - (b) he becomes aware of an error in or omission from any such information or document.
- (8) A notification for the purposes of subsection (7) shall be given within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which (as the case may be)—
- (a) the information or document is superseded;
  - (b) the change in circumstances occurs; or
  - (c) the applicant becomes aware of the error or omission.
- (9) Subsection (7) does not require an applicant to notify the OFT about—

- (b) an error in or omission from any information or document which is a clerical error or omission not affecting the substance of the information or document.”

45 Duties to notify changes in information etc.

After section 36 of the 1974 Act insert—

“36A Further duties to notify changes etc.

- (1) Subsections (2) to (4) apply where a general notice under section 6(2) comes into effect.
- (2) A person who is the licensee under a standard licence or who is the original applicant for a group licence shall, in relation to each relevant application which he has made and which was determined before the general notice came into effect, provide the OFT with any information or document—
  - (a) which he would have been required to provide with the application had the application been made after the general notice came into effect; and
  - (b) which the general notice requires to be provided for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) Any such information or document shall be provided within such period as may be specified in the general notice.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not require a person to provide any information or document—
  - (a) which he provided in relation to the application by virtue of section 6;
  - (b) which he has previously provided in relation to the application by virtue of this section; or
  - (c) which he would have been required to provide in relation to the application by virtue of subsection (5) but for subsection (6).
- (5) A person who is the licensee under a standard licence or who is the original applicant for a group licence shall, in relation to each relevant application which he has made, notify the OFT giving details if, after the application is determined, any information or document which he—
  - (a) provided in relation to the application by virtue of section 6, or
  - (b) has so provided by virtue of this section,is, to any extent, superseded or otherwise affected by a change in circumstances.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not require a person to notify the OFT about a matter unless it falls within a description of matters specified by the OFT in a general notice.
- (7) A description may be specified for the purposes of subsection (6) only if the OFT is satisfied that the matters which would fall within that description are matters which would be relevant to the question of—
  - (a) whether, having regard to section 25(2), a person is a fit person to carry on a business under a standard licence; or

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (b) whether the public interest is better served by a group licence remaining in effect than by obliging the licensees under it to apply separately for standard licences.
- (8) A person who is the licensee under a standard licence or who is the original applicant for a group licence shall, in relation to each relevant application which he has made, notify the OFT about every error or omission—
  - (a) in or from any information or document which he provided by virtue of section 6, or which he has provided by virtue of this section, in relation to the application; and
  - (b) of which he becomes aware after the determination of the application.
- (9) A notification for the purposes of subsection (5) or (8) shall be given within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which (as the case may be)—
  - (a) the information or document is superseded;
  - (b) the change in circumstances occurs; or
  - (c) the licensee or the original applicant becomes aware of the error or omission.
- (10) This section does not require a person to notify the OFT about—
  - (a) anything of which he is required to notify it under section 36; or
  - (b) an error in or omission from any information or document which is a clerical error or omission not affecting the substance of the information or document.
- (11) In this section ‘relevant application’ means, in relation to a person who is the licensee under a standard licence or who is the original applicant for a group licence—
  - (a) the original application for the licence; or
  - (b) an application for its renewal or for its variation.”

- (b) at such place as may be so specified.
- (4) A requirement may be imposed under subsection (1) on a person who is—
  - (a) the licensee under a standard licence, or
  - (b) the original applicant for a group licence,only if the provision or production of the information or documents in question is reasonably required for purposes connected with the OFT's functions under this Act.
- (5) A requirement may be imposed under subsection (1) on any other person only if—
  - (a) an act or omission mentioned in subsection (6) has occurred or the OFT has reason to suspect that such an act or omission has occurred; and
  - (b) the provision or production of the information or documents in question is reasonably required for purposes connected with—
    - (i) the taking by the OFT of steps under this Part as a consequence; or
    - (ii) its consideration of whether to take such steps as a consequence.
- (6) Those acts or omissions are acts or omissions which—
  - (a) cast doubt on whether, having regard to section 25(2), a person is a fit person to carry on a business under a standard licence;
  - (b) cast doubt on whether the public interest is better served by a group licence remaining in effect, or being issued, than by obliging the persons who are licensees under it, or who would be licensees under it, to apply separately for standard licences;
  - (c) give rise, or are likely to give rise, to dissatisfaction for the purposes of section 33A(1) or 33B(1); or
  - (d) constitute or give rise to a failure of the kind mentioned in section 39A(1).”

- (i) specified or described in the notice; and
  - (ii) situated on the premises.
- (2) The notice shall set out the reasons why the access is required.
- (3) The premises which may be specified or described in the notice—
  - (a) include premises which are not premises of the licensee if they are premises from which he carries on activities in connection with the business in question; but
  - (b) do not include premises which are used only as a dwelling.
- (4) The licensee shall secure that the required access is given at such times as the OFT reasonably requires.
- (5) The OFT shall give reasonable notice of those times.
- (6) Where an officer is given access to any premises by virtue of this section, the licensee shall also secure that persons on the premises give the officer such assistance or information as he may reasonably require in connection with his observation or inspection of documents (as the case may be).
- (7) The assistance that may be required under subsection (6) includes (amongst other things) the giving to the officer of an explanation of a document which he is inspecting.
- (8) A requirement may be imposed under subsection (1) on a person who is—
  - (a) the licensee under a standard licence, or
  - (b) the original applicant for a group licence,only if the observation or inspection in question is reasonably required for purposes connected with the OFT's functions under this Act.
- (9) A requirement may be imposed under subsection (1) on any other person only if—
  - (a) an act or omission mentioned in section 36B(6) has occurred or the OFT has reason to suspect that such an act or omission has occurred; and
  - (b) the observation or inspection in question is reasonably required for purposes connected with—
    - (i) the taking by the OFT of steps under this Part as a consequence; or
    - (ii) its consideration of whether to take such steps as a consequence.
- (10) In this section—
  - (a) references to a licensee under a licence include, in relation to a group licence issued on application, references to the original applicant; and
  - (b) references to a business being carried on under a licence by a licensee include, in relation to the original applicant for a group licence, activities being carried on by him for the purpose of regulating or otherwise supervising (whether by virtue of an enactment, an agreement or otherwise) licensees under that

48 Entry to premises under warrant

After section 36C of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 47 of this Act) insert—

“36D Entry to premises under warrant

- (1) A justice of the peace may issue a warrant under this section if satisfied on information on oath given on behalf of the OFT that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the following conditions are satisfied.
- (2) Those conditions are—
  - (a) that there is on the premises specified in the warrant information or documents in relation to which a requirement could be imposed under section 36B; and
  - (b) that if such a requirement were to be imposed in relation to the information or documents—
    - (i) it would not be complied with; or
    - (ii) the information or documents would be tampered with.
- (3) A warrant under this section shall authorise an officer of an enforcement authority—
  - (a) to enter the premises specified in the warrant;
  - (b) to search the premises and to seize and detain any information or documents appearing to be information or documents specified in the warrant or information or documents of a description so specified;
  - (c) to take any other steps which may appear to be reasonably necessary for preserving such information or documents or preventing interference with them; and
  - (d) to use such force as may be reasonably necessary.
- (4) An officer entering premises by virtue of this section may take such persons and equipment with him as he thinks necessary.
- (5) In the application of this section to Scotland—
  - (a) the reference to a justice of the peace includes a reference to a sheriff;
  - (b) for ‘information on oath’ there is substituted ‘evidence on oath’.
- (6) In the application of this section to Northern Ireland the reference to a justice of the peace shall be construed as a reference to a lay magistrate.”

49 Failure to comply with information requirement

After section 36D of the 1974 Act (inserted by section 48 of this Act) insert—

“36E Failure to comply with information requirement

- (1) If on an application made by the OFT it appears to the court that a person (the ‘information defaulter’) has failed to do something that he was required to do by virtue of section 36B or 36C, the court may make an order under this section.
- (2) An order under this section may require the information defaulter—
  - (a) to do the thing that it appears he failed to do within such period as may be specified in the order;
  - (b) otherwise to take such steps to remedy the consequences of the failure as may be so specified.
- (3) If the information defaulter is a body corporate, a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons which is not a partnership, the order may require any officer who is (wholly or partly) responsible for the failure to meet such costs of the application as are specified in the order.
- (4) In this section—
  - ‘court’ means—
    - (a) in England and Wales and Northern Ireland, the High Court or the county court;
    - (b) in Scotland, the Court of Session or the sheriff;
  - ‘officer’ means—
    - (a) in relation to a body corporate, a person holding a position of director, manager or secretary of the body or any similar position;
    - (b) in relation to a partnership or to an unincorporated body of persons, a member of the partnership or body.
- (5) In subsection (4) ‘director’ means, in relation to a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, a member of the body.”

(4) In section 165 of that Act (obstruction of authorised officers) after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) A failure to give assistance or information shall not constitute an offence under subsection (1)(c) if it is also—

- (a) a failure to comply with a requirement imposed under section 33A or 33B;
- (b) a failure to comply with section 36A; or
- (c) a failure in relation to which the OFT can apply for an order under section 36E.”

(5) In Part 12 of that Act before section 175 insert—

“174A Powers to require provision of information or documents etc.

(1) Every power conferred on a relevant authority by or under this Act (however expressed) to require the provision or production of information or documents includes the power—

- (a) to require information to be provided or produced in such form as the authority may specify, including, in relation to information recorded otherwise than in a legible form, in a legible form;
- (b) to take copies of, or extracts from, any documents provided or produced by virtue of the exercise of the power;
- (c) to require the person who is required to provide or produce any information or document by virtue of the exercise of the power—
  - (i) to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where the information or document is;
  - (ii) to give an explanation of the information or document;
  - (iii) to secure that any information provided or produced, whether in a document or otherwise, is verified in such manner as may be specified by the authority;
  - (iv) to secure that any document provided or produced is authenticated in such manner as may be so specified;
- (d) to specify a time at or by which a requirement imposed by virtue of paragraph (c) must be complied with.

(2) Every power conferred on a relevant authority by or under this Act (however expressed) to inspect or to seize documents at any premises includes the power to take copies of, or extracts from, any documents inspected or seized by virtue of the exercise of the power.

(3) But a relevant authority has no power under this Act—

- (a) to require another person to provide or to produce,
- (b) to seize from another person, or
- (c) to require another person to give access to premises for the purposes of the inspection of, any information or document which the other person would be entitled to refuse to provide or produce in proceedings in the High Court on the grounds of legal professional privilege or (in Scotland) in proceedings in the Court of Session on the grounds of confidentiality of communications.

THE CONSUMER CREDIT JURISDICTION

Introduction

16A This Part of this Schedule applies only in relation to the consumer credit jurisdiction.

Procedure for complaints etc.

16B (1) Consumer credit rules—

- (a) must provide that a complaint is not to be entertained unless the complainant has referred it under the ombudsman scheme before the applicable time limit (determined in accordance with the rules) has expired;
- (b) may provide that an ombudsman may extend that time limit in specified circumstances;
- (c) may provide that a complaint is not to be entertained (except in specified circumstances) if the complainant has not previously communicated its substance to the respondent and given him a reasonable opportunity to deal with it;
- (d) may make provision about the procedure for the reference of complaints and for their investigation, consideration and determination by an ombudsman.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2007. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (2) Sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of paragraph 14 apply in relation to consumer credit rules under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph as they apply in relation to scheme rules under that paragraph.
- (3) Consumer credit rules may require persons falling within sub-paragraph (6) to establish such procedures as the scheme operator considers appropriate for the resolution of complaints which may be referred to the scheme.
- (4) Consumer credit rules under sub-paragraph (3) may make different provision in relation to persons of different descriptions or to complaints of different descriptions.
- (5) Consumer credit rules under sub-paragraph (3) may authorise the scheme operator to dispense with or modify the application of such rules in particular cases where the scheme operator—
  - (a) considers it appropriate to do so; and
  - (b) is satisfied that the specified conditions (if any) are met.
- (6) A person falls within this sub-paragraph if he is licensed by a standard licence (within the meaning of the Consumer Credit Act 1974) to carry on to any extent a business of a type specified in an order under section 226A(2)(e) of this Act.

Fees

- 16C (1) Consumer credit rules may require a respondent to pay to the scheme operator such fees as may be specified in the rules.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 15 applies in relation to consumer credit rules under this paragraph as it applies in relation to scheme rules under that paragraph.

Enforcement of money awards

- 16D A money award, including interest, which has been registered in accordance with consumer credit rules may—
- (a) if a county court so orders in England and Wales, be recovered by execution issued from the county court (or otherwise) as if it were payable under an order of that court;
  - (b) be enforced in Northern Ireland as a money judgment under the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981;
  - (c) be enforced in Scotland as if it were a decree of the sheriff and whether or not the sheriff could himself have granted such a decree.

Procedure for consumer credit rules

- 16E (1) If the scheme operator makes any consumer credit rules, it must give a copy of them to the Authority without delay.
- (2) If the scheme operator revokes any such rules, it must give written notice to the Authority without delay.
  - (3) The power to make such rules is exercisable in writing.
  - (4) Immediately after the making of such rules, the scheme operator must arrange for them to be printed and made available to the public.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Consumer Credit Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (5) The scheme operator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of any such rules.

Verification of consumer credit rules

- 16F (1) The production of a printed copy of consumer credit rules purporting to be made by the scheme operator—
- (a) on which there is endorsed a certificate signed by a member of the scheme operator's staff authorised by the scheme operator for that purpose, and
  - (b) which contains the required statements,
- is evidence (or in Scotland sufficient evidence) of the facts stated in the certificate.
- (2) The required statements are—
- (a) that the rules were made by the scheme operator;
  - (b) that the copy is a true copy of the rules; and
  - (c) that on a specified date the rules were made available to the public in accordance with paragraph 16E(4).
- (3) A certificate purporting to be signed as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) is to be taken to have been duly signed unless the contrary is shown.

Consultation

- 16G(1) If the scheme operator proposes to make consumer credit rules, it must publish a draft of the proposed rules in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring the draft to the attention of the public.
- (2) The draft must be accompanied by—
- (a) an explanation of the proposed rules; and
  - (b) a statement that representations about the proposals may be made to the scheme operator within a specified time.
- (3) Before making any consumer credit rules, the scheme operator must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with sub-paragraph (2)(b).
- (4) If consumer credit rules made by the scheme operator differ from the draft published under sub-paragraph (1) in a way which the scheme operator considers significant, the scheme operator must publish a statement of the difference.”

SCHEDULE 3

Section 69

TRANSITIONAL PROVISION AND SAVINGS

Interpretation

- 1 (1) Expressions used in the 1974 Act have the same meaning in this Schedule (apart from paragraphs 14 to 16 and 26) as they have in that Act.
- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule an agreement becomes a completed agreement once—
- (a) there is no sum payable under the agreement; and

Statements to be provided in relation to regulated agreements

- 2 (1) Section 77A of the 1974 Act applies in relation to agreements whenever made.
- (2) Section 77A shall have effect in relation to agreements made before the commencement of section 6 of this Act as if the period mentioned in subsection (1) (a) were the period of one year beginning with the day of the commencement of section 6.
- 3 Regulations made under section 78(4A) of the 1974 Act may apply in relation to agreements regardless of when they were made.
- 4 (1) Section 7(3) of this Act shall have effect in relation to agreements whenever made.
- (2) A dispensing notice given under section 185(2) of the 1974 Act which is operative immediately before the commencement of section 7(3)—
- (a) shall, on the commencement of section 7(3), be treated as having been given under section 185(2) as substituted by section 7(3); and
- (b) shall continue to be operative accordingly.

Default under regulated agreements

- 5 The OFT shall prepare, and give general notice of, the arrears information sheet and the default information sheet required under section 86A of the 1974 Act as soon as practicable after the commencement of section 8 of this Act.

Unfair relationships

- 14 (1) The court may make an order under section 140B of the 1974 Act in connection with a credit agreement made before the commencement of section 20 of this Act but only—
- (a) on an application of the kind mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 140B made at a time after the end of the transitional period; or
  - (b) at the instance of the debtor or a surety in any proceedings of the kind mentioned in paragraph (b) or (c) of that subsection which were commenced at such a time.
- (2) But the court shall not make such an order in connection with such an agreement so made if the agreement—
- (a) became a completed agreement before the commencement of section 20; or
  - (b) becomes a completed agreement during the transitional period.
- (3) Expressions used in sections 140A to 140C of the 1974 Act have the same meaning in this paragraph as they have in those sections.
- (4) In this paragraph “the transitional period” means the period of one year beginning with the day of the commencement of section 20.
- (5) An order under section 69 of this Act may extend, or further extend, the transitional period.
- 15 (1) The repeal by this Act of sections 137 to 140 of the 1974 Act shall not affect the court's power to reopen an existing agreement under those sections as set out in this paragraph.
- (2) The court's power to reopen an existing agreement which—
- (a) became a completed agreement before the commencement of section 22(3) of this Act, or
  - (b) becomes a completed agreement during the transitional period,
- is not affected at all.
- (3) The court may also reopen an existing agreement—
