

Commons Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 26

PART 1

REGISTRATION

Introductory

4 Commons registration authorities

- (1) The following are commons registration authorities—
 - (a) a county council in England;
 - (b) a district council in England for an area without a county council;
 - (c) a London borough council; and
 - (d) a county or county borough council in Wales.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, the commons registration authority in relation to any land is the authority in whose area the land is situated.
- (3) Where any land falls within the area of two or more commons registration authorities, the authorities may by agreement provide for one of them to be the commons registration authority in relation to the whole of the land.
