

International Development (Reporting and Transparency) Act 2006

CHAPTER 31

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT (REPORTING AND TRANSPARENCY) ACT 2006

Annual reports

- 1 Annual reports: general
- 2 Statistics to be reported
- 3 Progress towards United Nations 0.7% expenditure target
- 4 Aid effectiveness and Millennium Development Goals 1 to 7
- 5 Policy coherence and Millennium Development Goal 8
- 6 Transparency

Miscellaneous and final provisions

- 7 Interpretation, and meaning of terms used in annual report
- 8 Expenses
- 9 Short title and commencement

SCHEDULE — Information to be included in annual report

- 1 An annual report must include the following information for the...
- 2 (1) The amount mentioned in paragraph 1(a) for each relevant...
- 3 The amount mentioned in paragraph 1(b) for each relevant period...
- 4 (1) The amount mentioned in paragraph 1(e) for each relevant...
- 5 (1) To the extent that it is practicable to do...
- 6 The amounts included in the annual report for each country...
- 7 Nothing in this Act requires information to be included for...

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the International Development (Reporting and Transparency) Act 2006. (See end of Document for details)

8 Where an annual report includes a figure for the United...

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the International Development (Reporting and Transparency) Act 2006.