

Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 38

PART 1

ALCOHOL-RELATED VIOLENCE AND DISORDER

CHAPTER 1

DRINKING BANNING ORDERS

Introductory

VALID FROM 31/08/2009

1 Drinking banning orders

- (1) A drinking banning order is an order that prohibits the individual against whom it is made (“the subject”) from doing the things described in the order.
- (2) Such an order may impose any prohibition on the subject which is necessary for the purpose of protecting other persons from criminal or disorderly conduct by the subject while he is under the influence of alcohol.
- (3) The prohibitions imposed by such an order must include such prohibition as the court making it considers necessary, for that purpose, on the subject's entering—
 - (a) premises in respect of which there is a premises licence authorising the use of the premises for the sale of alcohol by retail; and
 - (b) premises in respect of which there is a club premises certificate authorising the use of the premises for the supply of alcohol to members or guests.
- (4) A drinking banning order may not impose a prohibition on the subject that prevents him—
 - (a) from having access to a place where he resides;
