216 Application of trust property: further provisions E+W

- (1) Any discretion given by a trust instrument to the trustees of property transferred under—
- section 24 of the National Health Service Reorganisation Act 1973 (c. 32) (transfer of trust property from abolished authorities),
 - section 25 of that Act (transfer of trust property held for health services by local health authorities),
 - section 92 of the National Health Service Act 1977 (c. 49) (further transfers of trust property), or
 - section 213 or 214 of this Act,
- is exercisable by the person to whom the property is so transferred and, subject to this section, the transfer does not affect the trusts on which the property is held.
- (2) Where—
- property has been transferred under section 24 of the National Health Service Reorganisation Act 1973, or section 92 of the National Health Service Act 1977, and
 - any discretion is given by a trust instrument to the trustees to apply the property, or income arising from the property, to such hospital services (including research) as the trustees consider appropriate without any restriction on the kinds of hospital services and without any restriction to one or more specified hospitals,
- the discretion is enlarged so as to allow the application of the property or of the income arising from the property, to such extent as the trustees consider appropriate, for any other part of the health service associated with any hospital.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies on any subsequent transfer of the property under section 213 or 214 [^{F21}of this Act or section 300 or 302 of the Health and Social Care Act 2012].

217 Trusts: supplementary provisions E+W

(1) This section applies in relation to—

- ^{F22}(a)
- (b) sections [^{F23}213 and] 214,
- (c) section 216,
- (d) section 218,
- (e) section 220,
- ^{F24}(ea)
- ^{F25}(eb)
- ^{F26}(f)
- ^{F27}(g)
- (h) paragraph 10 of Schedule 4, and
- (i) [^{F28}paragraph 8] of Schedule 6.

(2) A provision—

- (a) contained in a provision to which this section applies,
- (b) for the transfer of any property,

includes provision for the transfer of any rights and liabilities arising from that property.

(3) Where a transfer of property by virtue of a provision to which this section applies is of, or includes—

- (a) land held on lease from a third party, or
- (b) any other asset leased or hired from a third party or in which a third party has an interest, the transfer is binding on the third party notwithstanding that, apart from this subsection, it would have required his consent or concurrence.

(4) “Third party” means a person other than the Secretary of State or an NHS body.

(5) Nothing in a provision to which this section applies affects any power of Her Majesty, [^{F29}the court (as defined in the Charities Act 2011)] or any other person, to alter the trusts of any charity.

(6) Nothing in section 12 of the Finance Act 1895 (c. 16) (which requires certain Acts and certain instruments relating to the vesting of property by virtue of an Act to be stamped as conveyances on sale) applies to—

- (a) a provision to which this section applies, or
- (b) an order made in pursuance of any such provision.

(7) Stamp duty is not payable on an order falling within subsection (6)(b).
