Company charges

859A Charges created by a company

(1) Subject to subsection (6), this section applies where a company creates a charge.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2015.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 25 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 August 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The registrar must register the charge if, before the end of the period allowed for delivery, the company or any person interested in the charge delivers to the registrar for registration a section 859D statement of particulars.
- (3) Where the charge is created or evidenced by an instrument, the registrar is required to register it only if a certified copy of the instrument is delivered to the registrar with the statement of particulars.
- (4) “The period allowed for delivery” is 21 days beginning with the day after the date of creation of the charge (see section 859E), unless an order allowing an extended period is made under section 859F(3).
- (5) Where an order is made under section 859F(3) a copy of the order must be delivered to the registrar with the statement of particulars.
- (6) This section does not apply to—
 - (a) a charge in favour of a landlord on a cash deposit given as a security in connection with the lease of land;
 - (b) a charge created by a member of Lloyd's (within the meaning of the Lloyd's Act 1982 ^{F2}) to secure its obligations in connection with its underwriting business at Lloyd's;
 - (c) a charge excluded from the application of this section by or under any other Act.
- (7) In this Part—
 - “cash” includes foreign currency,
 - “charge” includes—
 - (a) a mortgage;
 - (b) a standard security, assignation in security, and any other right in security constituted under the law of Scotland, including any heritable security, but not including a pledge, and
 - “company” means a UK-registered company.

859B Charge in series of debentures

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a company creates a series of debentures containing a charge, or giving a charge by reference to another instrument, and
 - (b) debenture holders of that series are entitled to the benefit of the charge pari passu.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2015.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 25 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 August 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The registrar must register the charge if, before the end of the period allowed for delivery, the company or any person interested in the charge delivers to the registrar for registration, a section 859D statement of particulars which also contains the following—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) the name of each of the trustees for the debenture holders, or
 - (ii) where there are more than four such persons, the names of any four persons listed in the charge instrument as trustees for the debenture holders, and a statement that there are other such persons;
 - (b) the dates of the resolutions authorising the issue of the series;
 - (c) the date of the covering instrument (if any) by which the series is created or defined.
- (3) Where the charge is created or evidenced by an instrument, the registrar is required to register it only if a certified copy of the instrument is delivered to the registrar with the statement of particulars.
- (4) Where the charge is not created or evidenced by an instrument, the registrar is required to register it only if a certified copy of one of the debentures in the series is delivered to the registrar with the statement of particulars.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a statement of particulars is taken to be a section 859D statement of particulars even if it does not contain the names of the debenture holders.
- (6) “The period allowed for delivery” is—
 - (a) if there is a deed containing the charge, 21 days beginning with the day after the date on which the deed is executed;
 - (b) if there is no deed containing the charge, 21 days beginning with the day after the date on which the first debenture of the series is executed.
- (7) Where an order is made under section 859F(3) a copy of the order must be delivered to the registrar with the statement of particulars.
- (8) In this section “deed” means—
 - (a) a deed governed by the law of England and Wales or Northern Ireland, or
 - (b) an instrument governed by a law other than the law of England and Wales or Northern Ireland which requires delivery under that law in order to take effect.

859Q Instruments creating charges to be available for inspection

- (1) This section applies to documents required to be kept available for inspection under section 859P (copies of instruments creating and amending charges).
- (2) The documents must be kept available for inspection—
 - (a) at the company's registered office, or
 - (b) at a place specified in regulations under section 1136.
- (3) The company must give notice to the registrar—
 - (a) of the place at which the documents are kept available for inspection, and
 - (b) of any change in that place,
 unless they have at all times been kept at the company's registered office.
- (4) The documents must be open to the inspection—
 - (a) of any creditor or member of the company, without charge, and
 - (b) of any other person, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.
- (5) If default is made for 14 days in complying with subsection (3) or an inspection required under subsection (4) is refused, an offence is committed by—
 - (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.
- (7) If an inspection required under subsection (4) is refused the court may by order compel an immediate inspection.
- (8) Where the company and a person wishing to carry out an inspection under subsection (4) agree, the inspection may be carried out by electronic means.]

CHAPTER 3

POWERS OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

893 Power to make provision for effect of registration in special register

- (1) In this section a “special register” means a register, other than [^{F8}the register], in which a charge to which [^{F9}Chapter A1] applies is required or authorised to be registered.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for facilitating the making of information-sharing arrangements between the person responsible for maintaining a special register (“the responsible person”) and the registrar that meet the requirement in subsection (4).

“Information-sharing arrangements” are arrangements to share and make use of information held by the registrar or by the responsible person.
- (3) If the Secretary of State is satisfied that appropriate information-sharing arrangements have been made, he may by order provide that—
 - (a) the registrar is authorised not to register a charge of a specified description under [^{F10}Chapter A1],
 - (b) a charge of a specified description that is registered in the special register within a specified period is to be treated as if it had been registered (and certified by the registrar as registered) in accordance with the requirements of [^{F11}Chapter A1], and
 - (c) the other provisions of [^{F12}Chapter A1] apply to a charge so treated with specified modifications.
- (4) The information-sharing arrangements must ensure that persons inspecting the [^{F13}register]—
 - (a) are made aware, in a manner appropriate to the inspection, of the existence of charges in the special register which are treated in accordance with provision so made, and
 - (b) are able to obtain information from the special register about any such charge.
- (5) An order under this section may—
 - (a) modify any enactment or rule of law which would otherwise restrict or prevent the responsible person from entering into or giving effect to information-sharing arrangements,
 - (b) authorise the responsible person to require information to be provided to him for the purposes of the arrangements,
 - (c) make provision about—
 - (i) the charging by the responsible person of fees in connection with the arrangements and the destination of such fees (including provision modifying any enactment which would otherwise apply in relation to fees payable to the responsible person), and
 - (ii) the making of payments under the arrangements by the registrar to the responsible person,
 - (d) require the registrar to make copies of the arrangements available to the public (in hard copy or electronic form).
- (6) In this section “specified” means specified in an order under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 31/01/2015.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 25 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 August 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) A description of charge may be specified, in particular, by reference to one or more of the following—
- (a) the type of company by which it is created,
 - (b) the form of charge which it is,
 - (c) the description of assets over which it is granted,
 - (d) the length of the period between the date of its registration in the special register and the date of its creation.
- (8) Provision may be made under this section relating to registers maintained under the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.
- (9) An order under this section is subject to negative resolution procedure.
