1137 Regulations about inspection of records and provision of copies

- (1) The Secretary of State may make provision by regulations as to the obligations of a company that is required by any provision of the Companies Acts—
  - (a) to keep available for inspection any company records, or
  - (b) to provide copies of any company records.
- (2) A company that fails to comply with the regulations is treated as having refused inspection or, as the case may be, having failed to provide a copy.
- (3) The regulations may—
  - (a) make provision as to the time, duration and manner of inspection, including the circumstances in which and extent to which the copying of information is permitted in the course of inspection, and
  - (b) define what may be required of the company as regards the nature, extent and manner of extracting or presenting any information for the purposes of inspection or the provision of copies.
- (4) Where there is power to charge a fee, the regulations may make provision as to the amount of the fee and the basis of its calculation.
- (5) Nothing in any provision of this Act or in the regulations shall be read as preventing a company—
  - (a) from affording more extensive facilities than are required by the regulations, or
  - (b) where a fee may be charged, from charging a lesser fee than that prescribed or none at all.
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to negative resolution procedure.

- (ii) [<sup>F4</sup>an interim manager] appointed under [<sup>F5</sup>section 76 of the Charities Act 2011][<sup>F6</sup>or section 33 of Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008], or
- (iii) a manager appointed under section 47 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 (c. 27).
- (3) This section applies whatever the purpose of the document in question.
- It is not restricted to service for purposes arising out of or in connection with the appointment or position mentioned in subsection (2) or in connection with the company concerned.
- (4) For the purposes of this section a person's “registered address” means any address for the time being shown as a current address in relation to that person in the part of the register available for public inspection.
- (5) If notice of a change of that address is given to the registrar, a person may validly serve a document at the address previously registered until the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which notice of the change is registered.
- (6) Service may not be effected by virtue of this section at an address—
- (a) if notice has been registered of the termination of the appointment in relation to which the address was registered and the address is not a registered address of the person concerned in relation to any other appointment;
  - (b) in the case of a person holding any such position as is mentioned in subsection (2)(b), if the overseas company has ceased to have any connection with the United Kingdom by virtue of which it is required to register particulars under section 1046.
- (7) Further provision as to service and other matters is made in the company communications provisions (see section 1143).
- (8) Nothing in this section shall be read as affecting any enactment or rule of law under which permission is required for service out of the jurisdiction.

Sending or supplying documents or information

1143 The company communications provisions

- (1) The provisions of sections 1144 to 1148 and Schedules 4 and 5 (“the company communications provisions”) have effect for the purposes of any provision of the Companies Acts that authorises or requires documents or information to be sent or supplied by or to a company.
- (2) The company communications provisions have effect subject to any requirements imposed, or contrary provision made, by or under any enactment.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 37 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In particular, in their application in relation to documents or information to be sent or supplied to the registrar, they have effect subject to the provisions of Part 35.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2), provision is not to be regarded as contrary to the company communications provisions by reason only of the fact that it expressly authorises a document or information to be sent or supplied in hard copy form, in electronic form or by means of a website.

1148 Interpretation of company communications provisions

- (1) In the company communications provisions—
- “address” includes a number or address used for the purposes of sending or receiving documents or information by electronic means;
  - “company” includes any body corporate;
  - “document” includes summons, notice, order or other legal process and registers.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 37 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) References in the company communications provisions to provisions of the Companies Acts authorising or requiring a document or information to be sent or supplied include all such provisions, whatever expression is used, and references to documents or information being sent or supplied shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) References in the company communications provisions to documents or information being sent or supplied by or to a company include references to documents or information being sent or supplied by or to the directors of a company acting on behalf of the company.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C21 Ss. 1143-1148 applied (26.5.2015) by Small Business, Enterprise and Employment Act 2015 \(c. 26\), s. 164(3)(g)(ii), Sch. 4 para. 14\(4\)

Requirements as to independent valuation

1149 Application of valuation requirements

The provisions of sections 1150 to 1153 apply to the valuation and report required by—

- section 93 (re-registration as public company: recent allotment of shares for non-cash consideration);
- section 593 (allotment of shares of public company in consideration of non-cash asset);
- section 599 (transfer of non-cash asset to public company).

1150 Valuation by qualified independent person

- (1) The valuation and report must be made by a person (“the valuer”) who—
  - (a) is eligible for appointment as a statutory auditor (see section 1212), and
  - (b) meets the independence requirement in section 1151.
- (2) However, where it appears to the valuer to be reasonable for the valuation of the consideration, or part of it, to be made by (or for him to accept a valuation made by) another person who—
  - (a) appears to him to have the requisite knowledge and experience to value the consideration or that part of it, and
  - (b) is not an officer or employee of—
    - (i) the company, or
    - (ii) any other body corporate that is that company's subsidiary or holding company or a subsidiary of that company's holding company, or a partner of or employed by any such officer or employee,
 he may arrange for or accept such a valuation, together with a report which will enable him to make his own report under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 06/04/2017.

Changes to legislation: Companies Act 2006, Part 37 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The references in subsection (2)(b) to an officer or employee do not include an auditor.
- (4) Where the consideration or part of it is valued by a person other than the valuer himself, the latter's report must state that fact and shall also—
  - (a) state the former's name and what knowledge and experience he has to carry out the valuation, and
  - (b) describe so much of the consideration as was valued by the other person, and the method used to value it, and specify the date of that valuation.

1151 The independence requirement

- (1) A person meets the independence requirement for the purposes of section 1150 only if—
  - (a) he is not—
    - (i) an officer or employee of the company, or
    - (ii) a partner or employee of such a person, or a partnership of which such a person is a partner;
  - (b) he is not—
    - (i) an officer or employee of an associated undertaking of the company, or
    - (ii) a partner or employee of such a person, or a partnership of which such a person is a partner; and
  - (c) there does not exist between—
    - (i) the person or an associate of his, and
    - (ii) the company or an associated undertaking of the company,a connection of any such description as may be specified by regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (2) An auditor of the company is not regarded as an officer or employee of the company for this purpose.
- (3) In this section—

“associated undertaking” means—

  - (a) a parent undertaking or subsidiary undertaking of the company, or
  - (b) a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking of the company; and “associate” has the meaning given by section 1152.

- (4) Regulations under this section are subject to negative resolution procedure.

1157 Power of court to grant relief in certain cases

- (1) If in proceedings for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust against—
- an officer of a company, or
  - a person employed by a company as auditor (whether he is or is not an officer of the company),
- it appears to the court hearing the case that the officer or person is or may be liable but that he acted honestly and reasonably, and that having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with his appointment) he ought fairly to be excused, the court may relieve him, either wholly or in part, from his liability on such terms as it thinks fit.
- (2) If any such officer or person has reason to apprehend that a claim will or might be made against him in respect of negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust—
- he may apply to the court for relief, and
  - the court has the same power to relieve him as it would have had if it had been a court before which proceedings against him for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust had been brought.
- (3) Where a case to which subsection (1) applies is being tried by a judge with a jury, the judge, after hearing the evidence, may, if he is satisfied that the defendant (in Scotland, the defender) ought in pursuance of that subsection to be relieved either in whole or in part from the liability sought to be enforced against him, withdraw the case from the jury and forthwith direct judgment to be entered for the defendant (in Scotland, grant decree of absolvitor) on such terms as to costs (in Scotland, expenses) or otherwise as the judge may think proper.
