

Armed Forces Act 2006

2006 CHAPTER 52

PART 5

INVESTIGATION, CHARGING AND MODE OF TRIAL

CHAPTER 1

INVESTIGATION

Duties of commanding officers

113 CO to ensure service police aware of possibility serious offence committed

- (1) If an officer becomes aware of an allegation or circumstances within subsection (2), he must as soon as is reasonably practicable ensure that a service police force ^{[^{F1}}or the tri-service serious crime unit] is aware of the matter.
- (2) An allegation is, or circumstances are, within this subsection if it or they would indicate to a reasonable person that a Schedule 2 offence has or may have been committed by a relevant person.
- (3) In subsection (2) “relevant person” means a person whose commanding officer is the officer mentioned in subsection (1).
- (4) In this Chapter “Schedule 2 offence” means a service offence listed in Schedule 2.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by order amend Schedule 2.

115 Duty of CO with respect to investigation of service offences

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) an officer becomes aware of an allegation or circumstances within subsection (2); and
 - (b) the officer is not required by section 113(1) or 114(1) to ensure that a service police force [^{F3}or the tri-service serious crime unit] is aware of the matter.
- (2) An allegation is, or circumstances are, within this subsection if it or they would indicate to a reasonable person that a service offence has or may have been committed by a relevant person.
- (3) In subsection (2) “relevant person” means a person whose commanding officer is the officer mentioned in subsection (1).
- (4) The officer must either—
 - (a) ensure that the matter is investigated in such way and to such extent as is appropriate; or
 - (b) ensure, as soon as is reasonably practicable, that a service police force [^{F4}or the tri-service serious crime unit] is aware of the matter.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the matter has already been investigated in such way and to such extent as is appropriate.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2023.

Duty of service policeman following investigation

116 Referral of case following investigation by service or civilian police

(1) This section applies where—

- (a) a service police force [^{F9}or the tri-service serious crime unit] has investigated an allegation which indicates, or circumstances which indicate, that a service offence has or may have been committed; or
- (b) a UK police force or overseas police force has investigated such an allegation or such circumstances and has referred the matter to a service police force [^{F9}or the tri-service serious crime unit].

(2) If—

- (a) a service policeman considers that there is sufficient evidence to charge a person with [^{F10}a service offence that is not a CO offence], or
- (b) a service policeman considers that there is sufficient evidence to charge a person with [^{F11}a service offence that is a CO offence], and is aware of circumstances of a description prescribed by regulations under section 128 for the purposes of this paragraph, he must refer the case to the Director of Service Prosecutions (“the Director”).

(3) If—

- (a) a service policeman considers that there is sufficient evidence to charge a person with a service offence, ^{F12}...
- (b) subsection (2) does not apply [^{F13}, and
- (c) section 117(5) (referral of connected cases to DSP) does not apply,]

he must refer the case to the person's commanding officer.

[^{F14}(4) Subsection (4A) applies if—

- (a) the allegation or circumstances would indicate to a reasonable person that [^{F15}a person has committed, or might have committed, a service offence which is not one that may be dealt with at a summary hearing (see section 53)], or
- (b) any circumstances investigated are circumstances of a description prescribed by regulations under section 128 for the purposes of section 114, and a service policeman proposes not to refer the case to the Director under subsection (2) [^{F16}or section 117(5)].

(4A) If this subsection applies, the service policeman must consult the Director as soon as is reasonably practicable (and before any referral of the case under subsection (3)).]

(5) [^{F17}For the purposes of this section—

- (a) there is sufficient evidence to charge a person with an offence if, were the evidence suggesting that the person committed the offence to be adduced in proceedings for the offence, the person could properly be convicted [^{F18}, and
- (b) a service offence committed by a person is a “CO offence” if a charge against the person in respect of the offence is capable of being heard summarily by the person's commanding officer (see section 52).]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Armed Forces Act 2006, Part 5 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 117 Section 116: position where investigation is of multiple offences or offenders

(1) This section applies where the investigation mentioned in section 116(1) relates to two or more incidents (or alleged incidents) or the conduct (or alleged conduct) of two or more persons.

(2) Each person's conduct in relation to each incident is to be regarded as giving rise to a separate case.

[^{F19}(3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply if—

- (a) at least one of the cases has been, or must be, referred to the Director of Service Prosecutions (“the Director”) under section 116(2),
- (b) a service policeman considers that there is sufficient evidence to charge a person with a service offence in another of the cases,
- (c) that case is not required to be referred to the Director under section 116(2), and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Armed Forces Act 2006, Part 5 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (d) the service policeman considers that there is, or may be, a connection between a case falling within paragraph (a) and the case falling within paragraph (c), whether direct or indirect, that makes it appropriate for both cases to be referred to the Director.
- (4) The service policeman must consult the Director about the existence and nature of the connection between those cases.
- (5) Following that consultation, if the service policeman considers that there is a connection described in subsection (3)(d), the service policeman must refer the case falling within subsection (3)(c) to the Director.
- (6) The reference in this section to there being sufficient evidence to charge a person with a service offence is to be read in accordance with section 116(5)(a).]

118 Duty of service policeman to notify CO of referral to DSP

- (1) This section applies where a service policeman considers that there is sufficient evidence to charge a person (“A”) with a service offence and refers the case under section 116(2) [^{F20}or 117(5)] to the Director of Service Prosecutions.
- (2) The service policeman must as soon as reasonably practicable after referring the case—
 - (a) notify A's commanding officer of the referral; and
 - (b) provide prescribed documents to A's commanding officer.
- [^{F21}(3) A notification under subsection (2)(a) must specify the service offence that the service policeman considers there is sufficient evidence to charge A with.
- (3A) Where that offence is a CO offence, the notification must—
 - (a) specify whether the case is referred under section 116(2) or 117(5), and
 - (b) if the case is referred under section 116(2), specify the circumstances that bring the case within section 116(2)(b).]
- (4) In this section—
 - (a) any reference to there being sufficient evidence to charge a person with a service offence is to be read in accordance with [^{F22}section 116(5)(a)];
 - [^{F23}(aa) any reference to a CO offence is to be read in accordance with section 116(5)(b);]
 - (b) “prescribed documents” means documents prescribed for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) by regulations under section 128.

CHAPTER 2

CHARGING AND MODE OF TRIAL

Powers of charging etc

119 Circumstances in which CO has power to charge etc

- (1) This section sets out the circumstances in which a commanding officer has initial powers (defined by section 120) in respect of a case.
- (2) If a commanding officer of a person becomes aware of an allegation which indicates, or circumstances which indicate, that the person has or may have committed a service offence, he has initial powers in respect of the case.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the allegation or circumstances—
 - (a) give or have given rise to the duty under section 113(1) or 114(1);
 - (b) are being or have been investigated by a service police force [^{F25}or the tri-service serious crime unit]; or
 - (c) are being or have been investigated by a UK police force or overseas police force, and it appears to the commanding officer that that force may refer the matter to the service police.
- (4) A commanding officer has initial powers in respect of a case which a service policeman has referred to him under section 116(3) (referral of case following investigation by service or civilian police).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Armed Forces Act 2006, Part 5 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) A commanding officer has initial powers in respect of a case which the Director of Service Prosecutions has referred to him under section 121(4) (referral of case by DSP).
- (6) If an allegation or circumstances mentioned in subsection (2) relate to two or more incidents (or alleged incidents) or the conduct (or alleged conduct) of two or more persons, each person's conduct in relation to each incident is to be regarded as giving rise to a separate case.
