- 8 (1) This paragraph applies for the purposes of construing the powers conferred on the Crown Court by paragraphs 10(1)(b), 14(2)(b)(ii), 17(3)(b) and 23(2)(b)(ii) of Schedule 8 to the 2003 Act to deal with the offender, for the offence in respect of which the order was made, in any way in which he could have been dealt with for that offence by the court which made the order.
- (2) Each of those powers shall be construed in relation to a service community order under this Act as a power to deal with the offender, for the offence in respect of which the order was made—
- (a) if that offence is an offence punishable with imprisonment, in any way in which the Crown Court could deal with him if he had just been convicted before that court of an offence punishable with imprisonment;
- (b) if it is not an offence punishable with imprisonment, in any way in which the Crown Court could deal with him if he had just been convicted before that court of an offence not punishable with imprisonment.
- (3) A term of imprisonment or fine imposed by virtue of this paragraph—
- (a) must not exceed the maximum permitted for the offence in respect of which the order was made; and
- (b) where the order was made by the Service Civilian Court, must not exceed—
- (i) in the case of a term of imprisonment, 12 months;
- (ii) in the case of a fine, the prescribed sum.
- (4) In relation to a service community order under this Act, the references in paragraphs 10(4) and 17(4)(b) of that Schedule to a custodial sentence are to be read as references to a sentence of imprisonment.

21 Paragraph 27 of that Schedule has effect in relation to an overseas community order as if it read—

- “27 On the making under this Schedule of an order revoking or amending an overseas community order, the court administration officer (within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006) must—
- (a) provide copies of the revoking or amending order—
    - (i) to the offender;
    - (ii) to the responsible officer;
    - (iii) to the offender's commanding officer; and
    - (iv) if the offender is aged under 14, to his parent or guardian;
  - (b) in the case of an amending order which imposes or amends a requirement specified in the first column of Schedule 14, provide a copy of so much of the amending order as relates to that requirement to the person specified in relation to that requirement in the second column of that Schedule; and
  - (c) in the case of an amending order which imposes or amends an education requirement, provide to Service Children's Education a copy of so much of the amending order as relates to that requirement.”
