[^{F1}CHAPTER 3A

TESTING FOR ALCOHOL AND DRUGS ON SUSPICION OF OFFENCE

Preliminary testing for alcohol and drugs

[^{F1}93D Preliminary drug test

- (1) A preliminary drug test is a procedure administered by a service policeman under which—
 - (a) a specimen of sweat or saliva is obtained from the suspected person; and
 - (b) the specimen is used for the purpose of obtaining, by means of an approved device, an indication whether there is a drug in the person's body.
- (2) A preliminary drug test may be administered only—
 - (a) at or near the place where the requirement to co-operate with the test is imposed;
 - (b) at a service police establishment determined by the service policeman; or
 - (c) at a medical establishment.]
