12 Investigation of complaints made by vulnerable designated consumers

- (1) Subsection (3) applies to a complaint which is made—
- by or on behalf of a vulnerable person in that person's capacity as a designated consumer (“the designated consumer”),
 - against a person (“the supplier”) who in the course of a business carried on by the supplier supplies or seeks to supply, or refuses to supply, goods or services to the designated consumer, and
 - in respect of a matter connected with the supply of goods or services by the supplier to the designated consumer or a refusal by the supplier to supply goods or services to the designated consumer.
- (2) For this purpose a person is “vulnerable” if [^{F52}the consumer advocacy body to which the complaint is referred] is satisfied that it is not reasonable to expect that person to pursue the complaint on that person's own behalf.
- (3) Where a complaint to which this subsection applies is referred to [^{F53}a consumer advocacy body] by or on behalf of the designated consumer, [^{F54}that consumer advocacy body] may investigate the complaint for the purpose of determining whether it is appropriate to take any action under subsection (4).
- (4) Where it appears to [^{F55}a consumer advocacy body] to be appropriate to do so with a view to assisting in reaching a satisfactory resolution of a complaint referred to it under this section, [^{F56}that consumer advocacy body] may—
- provide advice to the designated consumer or, if the complaint was made by another person on the designated consumer's behalf, that person;
 - make representations on behalf of the designated consumer to the supplier about anything to which the complaint relates.
- [^{F57}(5) Where a complaint is referred to Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland, those bodies may agree that the complaint is to be treated as having been referred to the other of them.

13 Investigation of complaints relating to disconnection of gas or electricity

(1) This section applies to—

- (a) a complaint by a gas consumer against a gas transporter, in respect of the disconnection of, or a threat to disconnect, the consumer's premises by the gas transporter;
- (b) a complaint by a gas consumer against a gas transporter, following such a disconnection, in respect of a refusal by the gas transporter to reconnect the premises;
- (c) a complaint by a gas consumer against a gas supplier, in respect of the cutting off of, or a threat to cut off, a supply of gas to the consumer's premises by the gas supplier;
- (d) a complaint by a gas consumer against a gas supplier, following such a cutting off, in respect of a refusal by the gas supplier to restore the supply to the premises;
- (e) a complaint by a gas consumer against a gas supplier, in respect of the failure of a prepayment system;
- (f) a complaint by an electricity consumer against an electricity supplier, an electricity distributor or a transmission licence holder, in respect of the disconnection of, or a threat to disconnect, the consumer's premises by the electricity supplier, electricity distributor or licence holder;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (g) a complaint by an electricity consumer against an electricity supplier, electricity distributor or transmission licence holder, following such a disconnection by the supplier, distributor or licence holder, in respect of a refusal by the supplier, distributor or licence holder to reconnect the premises;
 - (h) a complaint by an electricity consumer against an electricity supplier, in respect of the failure of a prepayment system.
- (2) Where a complaint to which this section applies is referred to^{F58} a consumer advocacy body] by or on behalf of the complainant, ^{F59} that consumer advocacy body] must investigate the complaint for the purpose of determining whether it is appropriate to take any action under subsection (3).
- (3) Where it appears to ^{F60} a consumer advocacy body] to be appropriate to do so with a view to assisting in reaching a satisfactory resolution of a complaint referred to it under this section, ^{F61} that consumer advocacy body] must—
 - (a) provide advice to the complainant, or
 - (b) make representations on behalf of the complainant to the person against whom the complaint is made about anything to which the complaint relates.
- (4) ^{F62} A consumer advocacy body] may refuse to investigate a complaint, or part of a complaint, if—
 - (a) the complaint or part appears to ^{F63} the consumer advocacy body] to be frivolous or vexatious;
 - (b) the complaint or part falls within a class of matter which a regulatory body is under a duty (whether imposed by or under an enactment or otherwise) to investigate;
 - (c) the complaint or part is being dealt with, or ^{F64} the consumer advocacy body] is satisfied that it would be better dealt with, under an ombudsman scheme or any other redress scheme or in legal proceedings;
 - (d) ^{F65} the consumer advocacy body] considers that there has been undue delay in the making of the complaint or part, or the provision of evidence to support it;
 - (e) ^{F66} the consumer advocacy body] considers that there are other compelling reasons why it is inappropriate for the complaint or part to be investigated by ^{F66} the consumer advocacy body].
- (5) ^{F67} A consumer advocacy body] may refuse to investigate a complaint until the complainant has taken such steps as appear to ^{F68} the consumer advocacy body] to be reasonable for the purpose of giving the person against whom the complaint is made a reasonable opportunity to deal with it.
- ^{F69}(5A) Where a complaint is referred to Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland , those bodies may agree that the complaint is to be treated as having been referred to the other of them.
- (5B) If Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland so agree in a particular case, subsections (2) to (5) and section 14(2) to (4) are to have effect accordingly.]
- (6) In subsection (1)—
 - (a) in paragraphs (a) and (b) “ disconnection ” in relation to any premises, means disconnection from a main of a gas transporter or the discontinuation of the conveyance of gas to the premises;

14 Reference of matters to the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority

- (1) In this section references to a complaint are to a complaint within section 11(1)(a) or to which section 12(3) or 13 applies.
- (2) Where it appears to [^{F71}the consumer advocacy body in question] that a complaint relates to a matter in respect of which any of the Authority's enforcement functions may be exercisable, [^{F72}that body] must refer the complaint to the Authority unless it is satisfied that the Authority is already aware of the matter.
- (3) Where a complaint to which section 13 applies is referred to the Authority under subsection (2), [^{F73}the consumer advocacy body in question] is not required to investigate the complaint under subsection (2) of that section until the Authority has had a reasonable opportunity to exercise its enforcement functions in relation to the matter to which the complaint relates.
- (4) On investigating a complaint, [^{F74}the consumer advocacy body in question] must inform the complainant if it considers that the complaint relates to a matter of a kind which can be referred by the complainant to the Authority under any provision of the Gas Act 1986 (c. 44) or the Electricity Act 1989 (c. 29).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F75}(4A) In this section, a reference to a consumer advocacy body does not include a reference to the GCCNI.]

(5) In this section—

“ the Authority ” means the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority;

“ enforcement function ”, in relation to the Authority, means any of its functions under section 28 or 30A of the Gas Act 1986 or section 25 or 27A of the Electricity Act 1989.

[^{F95}19A Guidance for energy consumers

- (1) [^{F96} A consumer advocacy body] must prepare, and keep under review—
 - (a) guidance for energy consumers (the “energy consumer guidance”), and
 - (b) a summary prepared in accordance with subsection (4) (the “concise guidance”).
- (2) The energy consumer guidance must address the matters included in any document published by the European Commission pursuant to Article 3(16) of the Electricity Directive or Article 3(12) of the Gas Directive.
- (3) The energy consumer guidance may include any other information relating to the rights of energy consumers which [^{F97} the consumer advocacy body in question] thinks appropriate.
- (4) The concise guidance must—
 - (a) summarise any information in the energy consumer guidance which [^{F98} in the view of the consumer advocacy body in question] is particularly relevant to the interests of energy consumers, and
 - (b) state where a copy of the energy consumer guidance can be obtained.
- (5) In preparing and reviewing [^{F99} its energy consumer guidance and its concise guidance][^{F100} a consumer advocacy body] must consult—
 - (a) the Secretary of State,
 - (b) the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority, and
 - (c) any other person [^{F101} the consumer advocacy body in question] considers appropriate.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- [^{F102}(6) A consumer advocacy body must publish the first version of its energy consumer guidance and its concise guidance on its website.]
- (7) If, following a review, [^{F103}a consumer advocacy body] considers it necessary to amend [^{F104}its energy consumer guidance and its concise guidance], [^{F105}the consumer advocacy body] must, as soon as is reasonably practicable—
- (a) publish the amended version on its website, and
 - (b) inform any person it consulted in accordance with subsection (5) that it has done so.
- (8) [^{F106}A consumer advocacy body] may also make the first and any amended version of [^{F107}its energy consumer guidance and its concise guidance] available in any other manner [^{F108}the consumer advocacy body] thinks appropriate for the purpose of bringing that guidance to the attention of those likely to be interested.
- [Until a consumer advocacy body has published the first version of its energy consumer ^{F109}(8A) guidance and its concise guidance, it must—
- (a) publish on its website, and
 - (b) make available in any other manner that it thinks appropriate for the purpose of bringing them to the attention of those likely to be interested,
- the last version of the energy consumer guidance and the concise guidance to be published by the National Consumer Council under this section (as it had effect immediately before the amendments made to this Act by the Public Bodies (Abolition of the National Consumer Council and Transfer of the Office of Fair Trading’s Functions in relation to Estate Agents etc) Order 2014 (S.I. 2014/...) came into force.
- (8B) Nothing in this section prevents a consumer advocacy body from publishing its energy consumer guidance or its concise summary in a document that includes the energy consumer guidance or, as the case may be, the concise summary of another consumer advocacy body.
- (8C) In this section, a reference to a consumer advocacy body does not include a reference to the GCCNI] .
- (9) In this section—
- “the Electricity Directive” means Directive 2009/72/ EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 concerning common rules for the internal market in electricity and repealing Directive 2003/54/ EC ;
- “energy consumer” means an individual who is—

25 Enforcement by regulator of section 24 notice

- (1) Where a regulated provider fails to comply with a notice under section 24(1), [^{F126}the consumer advocacy body in question] may refer the failure to—
- a person prescribed by the Secretary of State by order for the purposes of this section, or
 - if no person has been so prescribed, the relevant regulator.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only to the extent that the notice relates to information which is held or may be obtained by the regulated provider in [^{F127}the person's capacity] as a regulated provider.
- (3) For the purposes of this section—
- “ designated investigator ”, in relation to a failure to comply with a notice under section 24(1), means the person to whom the failure is referred under subsection (1);
- “ regulated provider ” means a person listed in the first column of the following table;
- “ relevant regulator ”, in relation to a regulated provider, means the body listed in relation to the regulated provider in the second column of that table.

Regulated provider	Relevant regulator
A person holding a licence under section 7, 7ZA ^{F128} or 7A ^{F128} , 7A or 7AB] of the Gas Act 1986 (c. 44).	The Gas and Electricity Markets Authority.

A water undertaker, sewerage undertaker [^{F130} , water supply licensee or sewerage licensee].	The Water Services Regulation Authority.
^{F131} The Water Industry Commission for Scotland.	The Water Industry Commission for Scotland.]

- (4) Where a failure is referred under subsection (1), the designated investigator must—
- consider any representations made by [^{F132}the consumer advocacy body] or the regulated provider, and
 - determine whether the regulated provider is entitled to refuse to comply with the notice by virtue of provision made under section 28 (exemptions from requirements to provide information).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) If the designated investigator determines that the regulated provider is not entitled to refuse to comply with the notice, the designated investigator must direct the regulated provider to comply with it.
- (6) The designated investigator must give [^{F133}the consumer advocacy body] and the regulated provider notice of—
- (a) a determination under subsection (4)(b) and the reasons for it, and
 - (b) any direction under subsection (5).
- [^{F134}(6A) An obligation imposed by virtue of subsection (5) on a postal operator is enforceable by OFCOM under Schedule 7 to the Postal Services Act 2011 (enforcement of regulatory requirements).]
- (7) An obligation imposed by virtue of subsection (5) on a water undertaker, sewerage undertaker [^{F135}, water supply licensee or sewerage licensee] is enforceable by the Water Services Regulation Authority under section 18 of the Water Industry Act 1991 (c. 56) (orders for securing compliance).
- (8) Schedule 2 makes provision about the enforcement of obligations imposed by virtue of subsection (5) on other regulated providers.

Standards for handling complaints

43 Standards for handling complaints

- (1) A regulator must by regulations prescribe standards for the handling by its regulated providers of consumer complaints made to them.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe standards in relation to all consumer complaints, or consumer complaints of a kind specified in the regulations.
- (3) In particular, the regulations may specify a kind of consumer complaint by reference to the subject-matter of a complaint, or the description of person making a complaint.
- (4) Regulations under this section may be made only with the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (5) A regulator must make arrangements for securing that regulations made by it under this section are available to the public, by whatever means it considers appropriate.
- (6) If a date is prescribed in relation to a regulator for the purposes of this subsection, from that date subsection (1) has effect in relation to that regulator as if, in that subsection, for “must” there were substituted “may”.
- (7) In subsection (6) “prescribed” means prescribed by order made by the Secretary of State under this section.
- (8) Before prescribing a date in relation to a regulator for the purposes of subsection (6), the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the regulator,
 - [^{F202}(b) Citizens Advice,
 - (ba) Citizens Advice Scotland, and]
 - (c) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (9) This section does not apply to the Water Services Regulation Authority.

44 Requirements for making regulations under section 43

- (1) Before making regulations under section 43 a regulator must—
- (a) arrange for such research as it considers appropriate with a view to discovering the views of a representative sample of persons likely to be affected, and consider the results,
 - (b) publish a notice of its proposals (a “proposals notice”) in such manner as the regulator considers appropriate for bringing it to the attention of those likely to be affected by the proposals,
 - (c) consider any representations duly made, and
 - (d) consult persons or bodies appearing to it to be representative of persons likely to be affected by the proposals.
- (2) The proposals notice must—
- (a) set out the standards the regulator proposes to prescribe,
 - (b) give the reasons why the regulator proposes to prescribe those standards,
 - (c) explain how the standards will be enforced, and
 - (d) specify a time (not being earlier than the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the notice is published) before which representations may be made.
- (3) The requirements of subsection (1) may be satisfied by action taken before the commencement of this section or the passing of this Act.

Requirements relating to redress schemes

47 Membership of redress scheme

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order require regulated providers to be members of a redress scheme which is—
 - (a) approved by their relevant regulator in accordance with section 49, or
 - (b) administered by the Secretary of State (or a person appointed by the Secretary of State) and designated by the Secretary of State as an appropriate redress scheme in relation to them.
- (2) The order may provide that the requirement applies only in relation to consumer complaints of a kind specified in the order.
- (3) In particular, the order may specify a kind of consumer complaint by reference to the subject-matter of a complaint, or the description of person making a complaint.
- (4) Before making an order under this section the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) each relevant regulator (in relation to regulated providers to which the order will apply), and
 - (b) other persons appearing to the Secretary of State to be representative of persons who have an interest in the matter.
- (5) The requirements of subsection (4) may be satisfied by consultation undertaken before the commencement of this section or the passing of this Act.
- (6) An order under this section which applies to a water undertaker or sewerage undertaker for an area which is wholly or mainly in Wales may be made only with the consent of the Welsh Ministers.
- (7) The Secretary of State may not make an order under this section unless satisfied, in relation to each regulated provider to which the order will apply, that—
 - (a) there is at least one qualifying redress scheme which the provider is eligible to join and membership of which will satisfy the requirement imposed by the order, or
 - (b) there will be such a scheme when the order comes into force.
- (8) The Secretary of State may not designate a scheme in relation to regulated providers under subsection (1)(b) unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that the scheme is one which could be approved by their relevant regulator in accordance with section 49.
- (9) The Secretary of State may establish or administer a scheme for the purposes of subsection (1)(b), or provide financial assistance to a person who establishes or administers such a scheme; and such a scheme may provide for fees to be payable by members of the scheme.

48 Membership of redress schemes: supplementary

- (1) In this Part—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. “qualifying redress scheme” means a redress scheme within paragraph (a) or (b) of section 47(1);

“redress scheme” means a scheme under which consumer complaints may be made to, and investigated and determined by, an independent person (“the independent person”);

“scheme administrator”, in relation to a redress scheme, means the person who administers the scheme, and references to approval of a redress scheme are to approval of the scheme for the purposes of section 47(1)(a).

- (2) In the definition of “redress scheme”, “independent”, in relation to a consumer complaint, means independent of—
 - (a) the regulated provider against whom the complaint is made, and
 - (b) the regulator who is the relevant regulator in relation to the regulated provider.
- (3) Nothing in this Part prevents a qualifying redress scheme providing—
 - (a) for membership to be open to persons who are not subject to any duty to belong to a qualifying redress scheme;
 - (b) for the investigation and determination of complaints other than those in relation to which such a duty applies, made against members who have voluntarily accepted the jurisdiction of the scheme over such complaints.
- (4) For the purposes of the law relating to defamation, proceedings under a qualifying redress scheme (in relation to a consumer complaint and a regulated provider to which an order under section 47 applies) are to be treated in the same way as proceedings before a court.

49 Approval of redress schemes

- (1) In deciding whether to approve a redress scheme, a regulator must have regard to—
 - (a) the provisions of the scheme;
 - (b) the manner in which the scheme will be operated (so far as that can be judged from the facts known to the regulator);
 - (c) the interests of relevant consumers (in relation to the regulator's regulated providers);
 - (d) such principles as—
 - (i) in the opinion of the regulator constitute generally accepted principles of best practice in relation to schemes for providing redress to consumers, and
 - (ii) it is reasonable to regard as applicable to the scheme.
- (2) In considering the interests of relevant consumers under subsection (1)(c), the regulator must in particular have regard to the number of other redress schemes applying to its regulated providers which are (or are likely to become) qualifying redress schemes.
- (3) A regulator must not approve a redress scheme unless—

- (a) membership of the scheme is open to all the regulator's regulated providers, and those regulated providers may not be expelled from membership of the scheme,
 - (b) if, at the time the approval is given, any of the regulator's regulated providers are required under section 47 to be a member of a redress scheme (or would be so required but for the fact that an order which has been made under that section is not yet in force), the scheme covers all the consumer complaints to which the requirement applies,
 - (c) the independent person may require regulated providers to provide complainants with the types of redress listed in subsection (6) (whether or not other types of redress are available), and
 - (d) the regulator considers that the scheme makes satisfactory provision about the matters listed in subsection (7).
- (4) Subsection (3)(a) does not prevent the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority approving—
- (a) a scheme which is open to all regulated gas providers, but not regulated electricity providers,
 - (b) a scheme which is open to all regulated electricity providers, but not regulated gas providers,
- and, in the case of such a scheme, subsection (3)(b) applies as if the reference to the regulator's regulated providers were to the regulated gas providers or, as the case may be, regulated electricity providers.
- (5) For this purpose—
- “regulated electricity provider” means a person holding a licence under section 6(1)(c) or (d) of the Electricity Act 1989 (c. 29);
 - “regulated gas provider” means a person holding a licence under section 7(2) or 7A(1) of the Gas Act 1986 (c. 44).
- (6) The types of redress mentioned in subsection (3)(c) are—
- (a) providing an apology or explanation,
 - (b) paying compensation, and
 - (c) taking such other action in the interests of the complainant as the independent person may specify.
- (7) The matters mentioned in subsection (3)(d) are—
- (a) the matters about which complaints may be made (which may include non-compliance with a code of practice or other document);
 - (b) the independent person's duties and powers in relation to the investigation and determination of complaints (which may include power to decide not to investigate or determine a complaint);
 - (c) the enforcement of any requirement to provide redress imposed on a regulated provider in accordance with the scheme;
 - (d) the provision of information by the independent person to the regulator and to persons within subsection (8);
 - (e) the provision of information by the independent person—
 - [^{F209}(i) to Citizens Advice Scotland, for the purposes of any qualifying public consumer advice scheme supported by it (on its own or jointly with Citizens Advice), and

- (ii) to persons who operate a qualifying public consumer advice scheme supported by Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland, or by them jointly, for the purposes of that scheme;]
 - (f) the acceptance and handling of complaints transferred from redress schemes which have their approval withdrawn under section 51.
- (8) The persons within this subsection are—
- (a) any other body having regulatory functions in relation to the regulated providers to which the scheme applies;
 - (b) persons exercising functions under other redress schemes which apply to the regulator's regulated providers;
 - [^{F210}(c) Citizens Advice;
 - (ca) so far as regards schemes to be approved by the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority, Citizens Advice Scotland;]
 - (d) the Secretary of State.
- [^{F211}(9) For the purposes of this section a qualifying public consumer advice scheme is a scheme that is supported by Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland, or by them jointly, in a manner that the Office of Fair Trading is prohibited from supporting by section 8A of the Enterprise Act 2002.]

- (1) A person engaged in estate agency work shall—
- (a) keep records for the purposes of this section (“the permanent records”); and
 - (b) ensure that anything required by subsection (3) to be included in the permanent records is kept for a period of at least six years beginning with the day on which it is included.
- (2) In the case of a person engaged in estate agency work in the course of employment the duties under subsection (1) are duties of the employer (and not the employee).
- (3) A person engaged in estate agency work shall ensure that a record of any information or event to which this subsection applies is included in the permanent records kept by that person or his employer (as the case may be).
- (4) Subsection (3) applies to—
- (a) information the person concerned is required to give by section 18(1) or (3) and any prescribed information relating to the giving of that information;
 - (b) information the person concerned is required to disclose by section 21(1) or (2) and any prescribed information relating to the disclosure of that information;
 - (c) any offer of a prescribed description received by the person concerned and any prescribed information relating to the making of the offer;
 - (d) any action of a prescribed description taken by the person concerned in relation to such an offer and any prescribed information relating to that action; and
 - (e) any other information or event of a prescribed description.
- (5) If the person concerned is acting in the course of employment, it is also the duty of the employer to ensure that the record of the information or event is included in the permanent records; but the employer is not to be regarded as having breached his duty if he shows that he took such steps as were reasonably practicable to ensure that the duty under subsection (3) was complied with by his employees.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to—
- (a) the manner in which the permanent records are to be kept;
 - (b) the place or places at which they are to be kept.
- (7) In this section “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

PART 4

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Contracts concluded away from business premises

59 Contracts concluded away from business premises

(1) The Secretary of State may make regulations entitling a consumer who is a party to a protected contract to cancel the contract.

(2) A protected contract is a contract between a consumer and a trader which is for the supply of goods or services to the consumer by a trader and is made—

(a) during a solicited visit by a trader to the consumer's home or place of work, or to the home of another individual, or

(b) after an offer made by the consumer during such a visit.

(3) A visit is solicited if it is made at the express request of the consumer.

(4) Regulations made under this section may make any provision which may be made by regulations under section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 (c. 68) (by virtue of section 2(4) of that Act).

(5) The regulations may in particular make provision—

(a) as to the circumstances in which the consumer may cancel the contract and the effect of such a cancellation;

(b) requiring the trader to inform the consumer of the matters within paragraph (a);

(c) for the enforcement of any requirement imposed by virtue of paragraph (b).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) For the purposes of this section, “consumer” and “trader” in relation to a contract have the same meaning as they have for the purposes of the relevant Directive in relation to transactions within that Directive.
- (7) “The relevant Directive” means—
- (a) Council Directive 85/577/EEC to protect the consumer in respect of contracts negotiated away from business premises, as it has effect from time to time, or
 - (b) if that Directive is repealed and re-enacted (with or without modification), that Directive as re-enacted.

Subordinate legislation

60 Orders and regulations

- (1) An order or regulations under this Act must be made by statutory instrument.
- (2) The Statutory Instruments Act 1946 (c. 36) is to apply in relation to any power of a regulator to make regulations under section 43 or 46 as if the regulator were a Minister of the Crown.
- (3) Any order or regulations under this Act may—
 - (a) make provision generally or subject to exceptions or in relation to specified cases or descriptions of case;
 - (b) make different provision for different cases or circumstances or for different purposes;
 - (c) provide for a person to exercise a discretion in dealing with any matter;
 - (d) make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitory and transitional provision and savings.
- (4) A provision of this Act which permits regulations or orders to make provision of a specified kind is without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3).
- (5) In the case of an order or regulations made by the Secretary of State, the provision which may be made by virtue of subsection (3)(d) includes provision modifying any provision made by or under any enactment.
- (6) For this purpose—

“enactment” means—

 - (a) an Act of Parliament (including, in the case of an order under section 32, this Act),
 - (b) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (c) a Measure or Act of the National Assembly for Wales, or
 - (d) Northern Ireland legislation,

whenever passed or made;

“modify” has the same meaning as in Part 1.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2018. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Nothing in this section authorises an order or regulations under this Act to make provision which would be within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament if it were contained in an Act of that Parliament.
- (8) The Documentary Evidence Act 1868 (c. 37) (proof of order and regulations etc) has effect as if—
 - (a) the regulators were included in column 1 of the Schedule to that Act, and
 - (b) the entry in column 2 of that Schedule corresponding to each regulator mentioned the regulator and persons authorised to act on the regulator's behalf.
- (9) Nothing in this section applies in relation to a court order under section 26.
- (10) In this section “regulator” means—
 - (a) the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority, ^{F217}...
 - ^{F217}(b)

61 Directions

- (1) A requirement or power under this Act to give a notice (or to notify) is a requirement or power to give notice in writing.
- (2) A requirement or power under this Act to give a direction (or to direct) is a requirement or power to give a direction in writing.
- (3) Any power conferred by this Act to give a direction includes power to vary or revoke the direction.

62 Parliamentary control of orders and regulations

- (1) Any instrument to which this subsection applies is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to any order or regulations made by the Secretary of State under any provision of this Act except—
 - (a) an order or regulations to which subsection (3) applies, or
 - (b) an order under section 66 (commencement).
- (3) An order or regulations containing (whether alone or with other provision) provision made under or by virtue of any of the following provisions may not be made unless a draft of the order or regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament—
 - (a) section 4 (“designated consumers”);
 - (b) section 24(3)(d) (power to specify persons from whom [^{F218}the consumer advocacy bodies] may require information);
 - (c) section 31 (designation of the Consumer Council for Water for abolition);
 - (d) section 37(1) (conferral of additional functions on [^{F219}Citizens Advice or Citizens Advice Scotland]);
