- (2) Where an individual does inform the transferor or transferee as specified in subparagraph (1), the individual's contract of employment with the transferor is terminated immediately before the date on which the transfer would occur; but the individual is not, for any purpose, to be regarded as having been dismissed by the transferor.
- (3) This paragraph is without prejudice to any right of an individual employed by a transferor to terminate the individual's contract of employment if (apart from the change of employer) a substantial change is made to the individual's detriment in the individual's working conditions.

Transitional

- 5 (1) Anything done by or in relation to the transferor for the purposes of or in connection with anything transferred by paragraph 2 which is in effect immediately before it is transferred is to be treated as if done by or in relation to the transferee.
- (2) There may be continued by or in relation to the transferee anything (including legal proceedings) relating to anything so transferred which is in the process of being done by or in relation to the transferor immediately before it is transferred.
- (3) A reference to the transferor in any document relating to anything so transferred is to be taken (so far as necessary for the purposes of or in consequence of the transfer) as a reference to the transferee.
