

Climate Change Act 2008

2008 CHAPTER 27

PART 3

TRADING SCHEMES

Other supplementary provisions

54 Power to make consequential provision

A national authority may by regulations—

- (a) make such provision amending, repealing or revoking any enactment as the authority considers appropriate in consequence of provision made by that authority by regulations under section 44 (trading schemes);
- (b) make such transitional provision and savings as the authority considers appropriate in connection with the coming into effect of such provision.