

Coroners and Justice Act 2009

2009 CHAPTER 25

PART 1 E+W+N.I.

CORONERS ETC

CHAPTER 1 E+W

INVESTIGATIONS INTO DEATHS

Ancillary powers of coroners in relation to deaths

14 Post-mortem examinations E+W

- (1) A senior coroner may request a suitable practitioner to make a post-mortem examination of a body if—
  - (a) the coroner is responsible for conducting an investigation under this Part into the death of the person in question, or
  - (b) a post-mortem examination is necessary to enable the coroner to decide whether the death is one into which the coroner has a duty under section 1(1) to conduct an investigation.
- (2) A request under subsection (1) may specify the kind of examination to be made.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) a person is a suitable practitioner if he or she—
  - (a) is a registered medical practitioner, or
  - (b) in a case where a particular kind of examination is requested, a practitioner of a description designated by the Chief Coroner as suitable to make examinations of that kind.
- (4) Where a person informs the senior coroner that, in the informant's opinion, death was caused wholly or partly by the improper or negligent treatment of a registered medical practitioner or other person, that practitioner or other person—
  - (a) must not make, or assist at, an examination under this section of the body, but

15 Power to remove body E+W

- (1) A senior coroner who—
- (a) is responsible for conducting an investigation under this Part into a person's death, or
  - (b) needs to request a post-mortem examination under section 14 in order to decide whether the death is one into which the coroner has a duty under section 1(1) to conduct an investigation,
- may order the body to be removed to any suitable place.
- (2) That place may be within the coroner's area or elsewhere.
- (3) The senior coroner may not order the removal of a body under this section to a place provided by a person who has not consented to its being removed there.

This does not apply to a place within the coroner's area that is provided by a district council, a county council, a county borough council, a London borough council or the Common Council.
