

Policing and Crime Act 2009

2009 CHAPTER 26

PART 9

GENERAL

112 Minor and consequential amendments and repeals and revocations

- (1) Schedule 7 (which contains minor and consequential amendments and repeals and revocations of provisions which are superseded or no longer required or which have not been brought into force) has effect.
- (2) The provisions listed in Schedule 8 are repealed or revoked to the extent specified.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order make such supplementary, incidental or consequential provision as the Secretary of State considers appropriate for the general purposes, or any particular purpose, of this Act or in consequence of any provision made by or under this Act or for giving full effect to this Act or any such provision.
- (4) The power conferred by subsection (3)—
 - (a) is exercisable by statutory instrument, and
 - (b) includes power to make transitional, transitory or saving provision.
- (5) The power conferred by this section may, in particular, be exercised by amending, repealing, revoking or otherwise modifying any provision made by or under an enactment (including this Act and any Act passed in the same Session as this Act).
- (6) An instrument containing an order under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply to an instrument containing an order under this section if the order does not amend or repeal a provision of a public general Act.
- (8) An instrument containing an order under this section to which subsection (6) does not apply is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/01/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Policing and Crime Act 2009, Part 9. (See end of Document for details)

- (9) For the purposes of subsection (7), an amendment or repeal is not an amendment or repeal of a provision of a public general Act if it is an amendment or repeal of a provision which has been inserted (whether by substitution or otherwise) into such an Act by a local Act or by any other Act which is not a public general Act.
