

Marriage (Wales) Act 2010

2010 CHAPTER 6

5 Supplementary

- (1) In this Act “the 1949 Act” means the Marriage Act 1949 (c. 76) and, unless the context otherwise requires, expressions used in this Act have the same meaning as in the 1949 Act.
- (2) Where a marriage has been solemnized—
  - (a) in accordance with section 2(1), or
  - (b) on the authority of a common licence granted by virtue of section 3,it shall not be necessary in support of the marriage to give any proof that either party had a qualifying connection with the parish in which the marriage was solemnized and no evidence shall be given to prove the contrary in any proceedings touching the validity of the marriage.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marriage (Wales) Act 2010, Section 5.