SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

Section 2

TERRORISM PREVENTION AND INVESTIGATION MEASURES

PART 1

MEASURES

Overnight residence measure

- 1 (1) The Secretary of State may impose restrictions on the individual in relation to the residence in which the individual resides.
- (2) The Secretary of State may, in particular, impose any of the following—
  - (a) a requirement to reside at a specified residence;
  - (b) a requirement to give notice to the Secretary of State of the identity of any other individuals who reside (or will reside) at the specified residence;
  - (c) a requirement, applicable overnight between such hours as are specified, to remain at, or within, the specified residence.
- (3) The specified residence must be—
  - (a) premises that are the individual's own residence, or
  - [<sup>F1</sup>(b) other premises situated in an agreed locality or in some other locality in the United Kingdom that the Secretary of State considers to be appropriate.]
- [<sup>F2</sup>(3A) If there are premises that are the individual's own residence at the time when the notice imposing restrictions under this paragraph is served on the individual, premises more than 200 miles from those premises may be specified under sub-paragraph (3)(b) only if they are in an agreed locality.]
- [<sup>F3</sup>(4) . . . . .]
- (5) An “agreed locality” is a locality in the United Kingdom which is agreed by the Secretary of State and the individual.
- [<sup>F4</sup>(5A) The specified residence (if it is not the individual's own residence) may be a residence provided by or on behalf of the Secretary of State.]
- (6) If the specified residence is provided to the individual by or on behalf of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State may require the individual to comply with any specified terms of occupancy of that residence (which may be specified by reference to a lease or other document).
- (7) A requirement of the kind mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(c) must include provision to enable the individual to apply for the permission of the Secretary of State to be away from the specified residence, for the whole or part of any applicable period, on one or more occasions.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) The Secretary of State may grant such permission subject to either or both of the following conditions—
- (a) the condition that the individual remains overnight at other agreed premises between such hours as the Secretary of State may require;
  - (b) the condition that the individual complies with such other restrictions in relation to the individual's movements whilst away from the specified residence as are so required.
- (9) “Agreed premises” are premises in the United Kingdom which are agreed by the Secretary of State and the individual.
- (10) Sub-paragraph (8) is not to be read as limiting—
- (a) the generality of sub-paragraph (7) of paragraph 13 (power to impose conditions when granting permission), or
  - (b) the power to impose further conditions under that sub-paragraph in connection with permission granted by virtue of sub-paragraph (7) of this paragraph.
- (11) In sub-paragraph (7) “applicable period” means a period for which the individual is required to remain at the specified residence by virtue of a requirement of the kind mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(c).

- 3 (1) The Secretary of State may impose restrictions on the individual entering—
- (a) a specified area or place, or
  - (b) a place or area of a specified description.
- (2) The Secretary of State may, in particular, impose any of the following requirements in respect of a specified area or place or a specified description of an area or place—
- (a) a requirement not to enter without the permission of the Secretary of State;
  - (b) a requirement to give notice to the Secretary of State before entering;
  - (c) a requirement not to enter unless other specified conditions are met.

Movement directions measure

- 4 (1) The Secretary of State may impose a requirement for the individual to comply with directions given by a constable in respect of the individual's movements (which may, in particular, include a restriction on movements).
- (2) A constable may give such directions only for the purpose of securing compliance—
- (a) with other specified measures, or
  - (b) with a condition imposed under this Act requiring the individual to be escorted by a constable.
- (3) Directions may not remain in effect for a period that is any longer than the constable giving the directions considers necessary for the purpose mentioned in subparagraph (2); but that period may not in any event be a period of more than 24 hours.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

PERMISSION AND NOTICES

Permission

- 13 (1) Any application by an individual for permission must be made in writing.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by notice specify—
- (a) the information to be supplied on an application, and
  - (b) the time by which the application is to be made.
- (3) A notice under sub-paragraph (2) may make different provision for different measures.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by notice request the provision, within such period of time as the notice may specify, of further information from the individual in connection with an application received under sub-paragraph (1).
- (5) The Secretary of State is not required to consider an application further unless any information requested under sub-paragraph (4) is provided in accordance with the notice mentioned in that sub-paragraph.
- (6) Permission on an application is granted by the Secretary of State giving notice to the individual.
- (7) Permission may be granted subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State may by notice specify.
- (8) In this paragraph “permission” means permission in connection with a requirement or restriction imposed under Part 1 of this Schedule.

Notices

- 14 (1) This paragraph applies for the purposes of any notice given by the individual to the Secretary of State in connection with measures imposed under Part 1 of this Schedule (“a Part 1 notice”).
- (2) The Secretary of State may by notice specify—
- (a) the information to be supplied in a Part 1 notice, and
  - (b) the time by which a Part 1 notice is to be given.
- (3) A notice under sub-paragraph (2) may make different provision for different measures.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by notice request the provision, within such period of time as the notice may specify, of further information from the individual in connection with a Part 1 notice received from the individual.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (5) A requirement on the individual to give a Part 1 notice is not complied with unless and until the individual has received notice from the Secretary of State—
- (a) that the Part 1 notice has been received, and
  - (b) that no (or no further) information is required under sub-paragraph (4) in relation to the Part 1 notice.

Power of Secretary of State to vary or revoke notices

- 15 The Secretary of State may vary or revoke a notice given by the Secretary of State under this Schedule.

SCHEDULE 2

Section 7

URGENT CASES: REFERENCE TO THE COURT ETC

Application

- 1 This Schedule applies if the Secretary of State—
- (a) makes the relevant decisions in relation to an individual, and
  - (b) imposes measures on the individual.

Statement of urgency

- 2 The TPIM notice must include a statement that the Secretary of State reasonably considers that the urgency of the case requires measures to be imposed without obtaining the permission of the court under section 6.

Reference to court

- 3 (1) Immediately after serving the TPIM notice, the Secretary of State must refer to the court the imposition of the measures on the individual.
- (2) The function of the court on the reference is to consider whether the relevant decisions of the Secretary of State were obviously flawed.
- (3) The court's consideration of the reference must begin within the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which the TPIM notice is served on the individual.
- (4) The court may consider the reference—
- (a) in the absence of the individual;
  - (b) without the individual having been notified of the reference; and
  - (c) without the individual having been given an opportunity (if the individual was aware of the reference) of making any representations to the court.
- (5) But that does not limit the matters about which rules of court may be made.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

Decision by court

- 4
- (1) In a case where the court determines that a decision of the Secretary of State that condition A, condition B or condition C is met is obviously flawed, the court must quash the TPIM notice.
  - (2) In a case where the court determines that a decision of the Secretary of State that condition D is met is obviously flawed, the court must quash those of the measures which it determines that decision relates to.
  - (3) If sub-paragraph (1) does not apply, the court must confirm the TPIM notice (subject to any quashing of measures under sub-paragraph (2)).
  - (4) If the court determines that the Secretary of State's decision that the urgency condition is met is obviously flawed, the court must make a declaration of that determination (whether it quashes or confirms the TPIM notice under the preceding provisions of this paragraph).

Procedures on reference

- 5
- (1) In determining a reference under paragraph 3, the court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.
  - (2) The court must ensure that the individual is notified of the court's decision on a reference under paragraph 3.

Interpretation

- 6
- (1) References in this Schedule to the urgency condition being met are references to condition E being met by virtue of section 3(5)(b) (urgency of the case requires measures to be imposed without obtaining the permission of the court).
  - (2) In this Schedule “relevant decisions” means the decisions that the following conditions are met—
    - (a) condition A;
    - (b) condition B;
    - (c) condition C;
    - (d) condition D;
    - (e) the urgency condition.

SCHEDULE 3

Section 15

APPEALS AGAINST CONVICTIONS

- 1
- An individual who has been convicted of an offence under section 23(1) may appeal against the conviction if—
- (a) a TPIM notice, the extension of a TPIM notice, or the revival of a TPIM notice is quashed, or measures specified in a TPIM notice are quashed; and
  - (b) the individual could not have been convicted had the quashing occurred before the proceedings for the offence were brought.
- 2
- An appeal under this Schedule is to be made—

---

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (a) in the case of a conviction on indictment in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, to the Court of Appeal;
  - (b) in the case of a conviction on indictment or summary conviction in Scotland, to the High Court of Justiciary;
  - (c) in the case of a summary conviction in England and Wales, to the Crown Court; or
  - (d) in the case of a summary conviction in Northern Ireland, to the county court.
- 3 (1) The right of appeal under this Schedule does not arise until there is no further possibility of an appeal against—
- (a) the decision to quash the notice, extension, revival or measures, or
  - (b) any decision on an appeal made against that decision.
- (2) In determining whether there is no further possibility of an appeal against a decision of the kind mentioned in sub-paragraph (1), any power to extend the time for giving notice of application for leave to appeal, or for applying for leave to appeal, must be ignored.
- 4 (1) On an appeal under this Schedule to any court, that court must allow the appeal and quash the conviction.
- (2) An appeal under this Schedule to the Court of Appeal against a conviction on indictment—
- (a) may be brought irrespective of whether the appellant has previously appealed against the conviction;
  - (b) may not be brought after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the right of appeal arises by virtue of paragraph 3; and
  - (c) is to be treated as an appeal under section 1 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1968 or, in Northern Ireland, under section 1 of the Criminal Appeal (Northern Ireland) Act 1980, but does not require leave in either case.
- (3) An appeal under this Schedule to the High Court of Justiciary against a conviction on indictment—
- (a) may be brought irrespective of whether the appellant has previously appealed against the conviction;
  - (b) may not be brought after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the right of appeal arises by virtue of paragraph 3; and
  - (c) is to be treated as an appeal under section 106 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 for which leave has been granted.
- (4) An appeal under this Schedule to the High Court of Justiciary against a summary conviction—
- (a) may be brought irrespective of whether the appellant pleaded guilty;
  - (b) may be brought irrespective of whether the appellant has previously appealed against the conviction;
  - (c) may not be brought after the end of the period of two weeks beginning with the day on which the right of appeal arises by virtue of paragraph 3;
  - (d) is to be by note of appeal, which shall state the ground of appeal;
  - (e) is to be treated as an appeal for which leave has been granted under Part 10 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995; and

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (f) must be in accordance with such procedure as the High Court of Justiciary may, by Act of Adjournal, determine.
- (5) An appeal under this Schedule to the Crown Court or to the county court in Northern Ireland against a summary conviction—
- (a) may be brought irrespective of whether the appellant pleaded guilty;
  - (b) may be brought irrespective of whether the appellant has previously appealed against the conviction or made an application in respect of the conviction under section 111 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 or Article 146 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (S.I. 1981/1675 (N.I. 26)) (case stated);
  - (c) may not be brought after the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the right of appeal arises by virtue of paragraph 3; and
  - (d) is to be treated as an appeal under section 108(1)(b) of that Act or, in Northern Ireland, under Article 140(1)(b) of that Order.

SCHEDULE 4

Section 18

PROCEEDINGS RELATING TO TERRORISM PREVENTION AND INVESTIGATION MEASURES

Introductory

- 1 In this Schedule—
- “appeal proceedings” means proceedings in the Court of Appeal or the Inner House of the Court of Session on an appeal relating to TPIM proceedings;
  - “the relevant court” means—
    - (a) in relation to TPIM proceedings, the court;
    - (b) in relation to appeal proceedings, the Court of Appeal or the Inner House of the Court of Session;
  - “rules of court” means rules for regulating the practice and procedure to be followed in the court, the Court of Appeal or the Inner House of the Court of Session.

Rules of court: general provision

- 2 (1) A person making rules of court relating to TPIM proceedings or appeal proceedings must have regard to the need to secure the following—
- (a) that the decisions that are the subject of the proceedings are properly reviewed, and
  - (b) that disclosures of information are not made where they would be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) Rules of court relating to TPIM proceedings or appeal proceedings may make provision—
- (a) about the mode of proof and about evidence in the proceedings;
  - (b) enabling or requiring the proceedings to be determined without a hearing;
  - (c) about legal representation in the proceedings;

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) enabling the proceedings to take place without full particulars of the reasons for the decisions to which the proceedings relate being given to a party to the proceedings (or to any legal representative of that party);
  - (e) enabling the relevant court to conduct proceedings in the absence of any person, including a party to the proceedings (or any legal representative of that party);
  - (f) about the functions of a person appointed as a special advocate (see paragraph 10);
  - (g) enabling the court to give a party to the proceedings a summary of evidence taken in the party's absence.
- (3) In this paragraph—
- (a) references to a party to the proceedings do not include the Secretary of State;
  - (b) references to a party's legal representative do not include a person appointed as a special advocate.
- (4) Nothing in this paragraph is to be read as restricting the power to make rules of court or the matters to be taken into account when doing so.

Rules of court: disclosure

- 3 (1) Rules of court relating to TPIM proceedings or appeal proceedings must secure that the Secretary of State is required to disclose—
- (a) material on which the Secretary of State relies,
  - (b) material which adversely affects the Secretary of State's case, and
  - (c) material which supports the case of another party to the proceedings.
- (2) This paragraph is subject to paragraph 4.
- 4 (1) Rules of court relating to TPIM proceedings or appeal proceedings must secure—
- (a) that the Secretary of State has the opportunity to make an application to the relevant court for permission not to disclose material otherwise than to the relevant court and any person appointed as a special advocate;
  - (b) that such an application is always considered in the absence of every party to the proceedings (and every party's legal representative);
  - (c) that the relevant court is required to give permission for material not to be disclosed if it considers that the disclosure of the material would be contrary to the public interest;
  - (d) that, if permission is given by the relevant court not to disclose material, it must consider requiring the Secretary of State to provide a summary of the material to every party to the proceedings (and every party's legal representative);
  - (e) that the relevant court is required to ensure that such a summary does not contain material the disclosure of which would be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) Rules of court relating to TPIM proceedings or appeal proceedings must secure that provision to the effect mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) applies in cases where the Secretary of State—
- (a) does not receive the permission of the relevant court to withhold material, but elects not to disclose it, or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (b) is required to provide a party to the proceedings with a summary of material that is withheld, but elects not to provide the summary.
- (3) The relevant court must be authorised—
  - (a) if it considers that the material or anything that is required to be summarised might adversely affect the Secretary of State's case or support the case of a party to the proceedings, to direct that the Secretary of State—
    - (i) is not to rely on such points in the Secretary of State's case, or
    - (ii) is to make such concessions or take such other steps as the court may specify, or
  - (b) in any other case, to ensure that the Secretary of State does not rely on the material or (as the case may be) on that which is required to be summarised.
- (4) In this paragraph—
  - (a) references to a party to the proceedings do not include the Secretary of State;
  - (b) references to a party's legal representative do not include a person appointed as a special advocate.

Article 6 rights

- 5 (1) Nothing in paragraphs 2 to 4, or in rules of court made under any of those paragraphs, is to be read as requiring the relevant court to act in a manner inconsistent with Article 6 of the Human Rights Convention.
- (2) The “Human Rights Convention” means the Convention within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998 (see section 21(1) of that Act).

Rules of court: anonymity

- 6 (1) Rules of court relating to TPIM proceedings or appeal proceedings may make provision for—
  - (a) the making by the Secretary of State or the relevant individual of an application to the court for an order requiring anonymity for that individual, and
  - (b) the making by the court, on such an application, of an order requiring such anonymity;and the provision made by the rules may allow the application and the order to be made irrespective of whether any other TPIM proceedings have been begun in the court.
- (2) Rules of court may provide for the Court of Appeal or the Inner House of the Court of Session to make an order in connection with any appeal proceedings requiring anonymity for the relevant individual.
- (3) In sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) the references, in relation to a court, to an order requiring anonymity for the relevant individual are references to an order by that court which imposes such prohibition or restriction as it thinks fit on the disclosure—
  - (a) by such persons as the court specifies or describes, or
  - (b) by persons generally,of the identity of the relevant individual or of any information that would tend to identify the relevant individual.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In this paragraph “relevant individual” means an individual on whom the Secretary of State is proposing to impose, or has imposed, measures.

Initial exercise of rule-making powers by Lord Chancellor

- 7 (1) The first time after the passing of this Act that rules of court are made in exercise of the powers conferred by this Schedule in relation to proceedings in England and Wales or in Northern Ireland, the rules may be made by the Lord Chancellor instead of by the person who would otherwise make them.
- (2) Before making rules of court under sub-paragraph (1), the Lord Chancellor must consult—
- (a) in relation to rules applicable to proceedings in England and Wales, the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales;
  - (b) in relation to rules applicable to proceedings in Northern Ireland, the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland.
- (3) But the Lord Chancellor is not required to undertake any other consultation before making the rules.
- (4) A requirement to consult under sub-paragraph (2) may be satisfied by consultation that took place wholly or partly before the passing of this Act.
- (5) Rules of court made by the Lord Chancellor under sub-paragraph (1)—
- (a) must be laid before Parliament, and
  - (b) if not approved by a resolution of each House before the end of 40 days beginning with the day on which they were made, cease to have effect at the end of that period.
- (6) In determining that period of 40 days no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (7) If rules cease to have effect in accordance with sub-paragraph (5)—
- (a) that does not affect anything done in previous reliance on the rules, and
  - (b) sub-paragraph (1) applies again as if the rules had not been made.
- (8) The following provisions do not apply to rules of court made by the Lord Chancellor under this paragraph—
- (a) section 3(6) of the Civil Procedure Act 1997 (Parliamentary procedure for civil procedure rules);
  - (b) section 56(1), (2) and (4) of the Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 (statutory rules procedure).
- (9) Until the coming into force of section 85 of the Courts Act 2003, the reference in sub-paragraph (8)(a) to section 3(6) of the Civil Procedure Act 1997 is to be read as a reference to section 3(2) of that Act.

Use of advisers

- 8 (1) In any TPIM proceedings or appeal proceedings the relevant court may if it thinks fit—

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) call in aid one or more advisers appointed for the purposes of this paragraph by the Lord Chancellor, and
    - (b) hear and dispose of the proceedings with the assistance of the adviser or advisers.
  - (2) The Lord Chancellor may appoint advisers for the purposes of this paragraph only with the approval of—
    - (a) the Lord President of the Court of Session, in relation to an adviser who may be called in aid wholly or mainly in Scotland;
    - (b) the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland, in relation to an adviser who may be called in aid wholly or mainly in Northern Ireland;
    - (c) the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales, in any other case.
  - (3) Rules of court may regulate the use of advisers in proceedings who are called in aid under sub-paragraph (1).
  - (4) The Lord Chancellor may pay such remuneration, expenses and allowances to advisers appointed for the purposes of this paragraph as the Lord Chancellor may determine.
- 9
- (1) The Lord President of the Court of Session may nominate a judge of the Court of Session who is a member of the First or Second Division of the Inner House of that Court to exercise the function under paragraph 8(2)(a).
  - (2) The Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland may nominate any of the following to exercise the function under paragraph 8(2)(b)—
    - (a) the holder of one of the offices listed in Schedule 1 to the Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2002;
    - (b) a Lord Justice of Appeal (as defined in section 88 of that Act).
  - (3) The Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales may nominate a judicial office holder (as defined in section 109(4) of the Constitutional Reform Act 2005) to exercise the function under paragraph 8(2)(c).

Appointment of special advocate

- 10
- (1) The appropriate law officer may appoint a person to represent the interests of a party in any TPIM proceedings or appeal proceedings from which the party (and any legal representative of the party) is excluded.
  - (2) A person appointed under sub-paragraph (1) is referred to in this Schedule as appointed as a “special advocate”.
  - (3) The “appropriate law officer” is—
    - (a) in relation to proceedings in England and Wales, the Attorney General;
    - (b) in relation to proceedings in Scotland, the Advocate General for Scotland;
    - (c) in relation to proceedings in Northern Ireland, the Advocate General for Northern Ireland.
  - (4) A person appointed as a special advocate is not responsible to the party to the proceedings whose interests the person is appointed to represent.
  - (5) A person may be appointed as a special advocate only if—

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in the case of an appointment by the Attorney General, the person has a general qualification for the purposes of section 71 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990;
- (b) in the case of an appointment by the Advocate General for Scotland, the person is an advocate or a solicitor who has rights of audience in the Court of Session or the High Court of Justiciary by virtue of section 25A of the Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980;
- (c) in the case of an appointment by the Advocate General for Northern Ireland, the person is a member of the Bar of Northern Ireland.

SCHEDULE 5

Section 24

POWERS OF ENTRY, SEARCH, SEIZURE AND RETENTION

Introductory

- 1 This Schedule confers powers of entry, search, seizure and retention on constables in connection with the imposition of measures on individuals.
- 2 A power conferred on a constable by virtue of this Schedule—
- (a) is additional to powers which the constable has at common law or by virtue of any other enactment, and
  - (b) is not to be taken as affecting those powers.
- 3 A constable may detain an individual for the purpose of carrying out a search of that individual under a power conferred by virtue of this Schedule.
- 4 A constable may use reasonable force, if necessary, for the purpose of exercising a power conferred on the constable by virtue of this Schedule.

Entry and search for purposes of serving TPIM notice

- 5 (1) For the purpose of serving a relevant notice on an individual, a constable may—
- (a) enter any premises where the constable has reasonable grounds for believing the individual to be, and
  - (b) search those premises for that individual.
- (2) A “relevant notice” means—
- (a) a TPIM notice;
  - (b) a notice under section 5(2) extending a TPIM notice;
  - (c) a notice under section 12(1) varying a TPIM notice as mentioned in paragraph (c) of that subsection; or
  - (d) a notice under section 13(1) reviving a TPIM notice.

Search of individual or premises at time of serving TPIM notice

- 6 (1) This paragraph applies if a TPIM notice is being, or has just been, served on an individual.
- (2) A constable may (without a warrant)—
- (a) search the individual for the purpose mentioned in sub-paragraph (3);

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) enter and search, for that purpose, any premises mentioned in sub-paragraph (4).
- (3) The purpose is that of ascertaining whether there is anything on the individual, or (as the case may be) in the premises, that contravenes measures specified in the TPIM notice.
- (4) The premises referred to in sub-paragraph (2)(b) are—
  - (a) the individual's place of residence;
  - (b) other premises to which the individual has power to grant access.
- (5) A constable may seize anything that the constable finds in the course of a search carried out under a power conferred by this paragraph—
  - (a) for the purpose of ascertaining whether measures specified in the TPIM notice are being or are about to be contravened by the individual;
  - (b) for the purpose of securing compliance by the individual with measures specified in the TPIM notice;
  - (c) if the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that—
    - (i) the thing is or contains evidence in relation to an offence, and
    - (ii) it is necessary to seize it in order to prevent it being concealed, lost, damaged, altered or destroyed.

Weapons and explosives measure

- [<sup>F7</sup>6A (1) The Secretary of State may impose on the individual—
- (a) a prohibition on possessing offensive weapons, imitation firearms or explosives;
  - (b) a prohibition on making an application for a firearm certificate or a shot gun certificate.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1)(a)—
- “offensive weapon” means an article made or adapted for use for causing injury to the person, or intended by the person in possession of it for such use (by that person or another);
- “imitation firearm” has the same meaning as in the Firearms Act 1968 or (in relation to Northern Ireland) the Firearms (Northern Ireland) Order 2004 (S.I. 2004/702 (N.I. 3));
- “explosive” means anything that is—
- (a) an explosive within the meaning of the Explosives Act 1875, or
  - (b) an explosive substance within the meaning of the Explosive Substances Act 1883.
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b)—
- (a) an application for a firearm certificate is an application under section 26A of the Firearms Act 1968 or article 4 of the Firearms (Northern Ireland) Order 2004;
  - (b) an application for a shot gun certificate is an application under section 26B of the Firearms Act 1968.]

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

Textual Amendments

- F7 Sch. 1 para. 6A and preceding cross-heading inserted (12.2.2015) by Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 \(c. 6\), ss. 18, 52\(5\)

Search of premises on suspicion of absconding

- 7 (1) This paragraph applies if a constable reasonably suspects that an individual in respect of whom a TPIM notice is in force has absconded.
- (2) The constable may (without a warrant) enter and search any premises mentioned in sub-paragraph (3)—
- (a) for the purposes of determining whether the individual has absconded;
  - (b) if it appears that the individual has absconded, for anything that may assist in the pursuit and arrest of the individual.
- (3) The premises referred to in sub-paragraph (2) are—
- (a) the individual's place of residence;
  - (b) other premises to which the individual has power to grant access;
  - (c) any premises to which the individual had power to grant access and with which there is reason to believe that the individual is or was recently connected.
- (4) A constable may seize anything that the constable finds in the course of a search carried out under a power conferred by this paragraph—
- (a) if the constable reasonably believes that the thing will assist in the pursuit or arrest of the individual;
  - (b) if the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that—
    - (i) the thing is or contains evidence in relation to an offence, and
    - (ii) it is necessary to seize it in order to prevent it being concealed, lost, damaged, altered or destroyed.

Search for compliance purposes

- 8 (1) A constable may apply for the issue of a warrant under this paragraph for the purpose of determining whether an individual in respect of whom a TPIM notice is in force is complying with measures specified in the notice.
- (2) A warrant under this paragraph may authorise a constable to do either or both of the following—
- (a) to search the individual;
  - (b) to enter and search the individual's place of residence or any other premises that are specified in the warrant.
- (3) An application for a warrant under this paragraph must be made to the appropriate judicial authority.
- (4) The appropriate judicial authority may, on such an application, grant the warrant only if satisfied that the warrant is necessary for the purpose mentioned in sub-paragraph (1).

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) A constable may seize anything that the constable finds in the course of a search carried out under a power conferred by a warrant issued under this paragraph—
  - (a) for the purpose of ascertaining whether any measure specified in the TPIM notice has been, is being, or is about to be, contravened by the individual;
  - (b) for the purpose of securing compliance by the individual with measures specified in the TPIM notice;
  - (c) if the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that—
    - (i) the thing is or contains evidence in relation to an offence, and
    - (ii) it is necessary to seize it in order to prevent it being concealed, lost, damaged, altered or destroyed.
- (6) In this paragraph “appropriate judicial authority”, in relation to a warrant, means—
  - (a) a justice of the peace, if the application for the warrant is made in England or Wales;
  - (b) the sheriff, if the application is made in Scotland;
  - (c) a lay magistrate, if the application is made in Northern Ireland.
- 9 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to a warrant issued in England, Wales or Northern Ireland under paragraph 8 so far as it authorises a constable to search an individual.
- (2) In relation to warrants issued under that paragraph so far as authorising the entry and search of premises, see—
  - (a) sections 15 and 16 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, in relation to warrants issued in England and Wales;
  - (b) Articles 17 and 18 of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989/1341 (N.I. 12)), in relation to warrants issued in Northern Ireland.
- (3) The constable applying for the warrant must—
  - (a) state the ground on which the application is made, and
  - (b) identify, so far as practicable, the articles to be sought.
- (4) The application for the warrant is to be made without notice and—
  - (a) if made in England or Wales, supported by an information in writing;
  - (b) if made in Northern Ireland, supported by a complaint in writing and substantiated on oath.
- (5) The constable must answer on oath any questions that the appropriate judicial authority (within the meaning of paragraph 8) hearing the application may ask of the constable.
- (6) If the warrant is issued it authorises a search of the individual on one occasion only.
- (7) The warrant must—
  - (a) specify the name of the constable applying for it, the date on which it is issued and the fact that it is issued under paragraph 8, and
  - (b) identify, so far as practicable, the articles to be sought.
- (8) Two copies must be made of the warrant and clearly certified as copies.
- (9) The warrant may be executed by any constable.
- (10) The search under the warrant must be carried out within 28 days of its issue.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (11) The search must be carried out at a reasonable hour unless it appears to the constable executing the warrant that the purposes of the search may be frustrated if carried out then.
- (12) The constable seeking to execute the warrant must, before carrying out the search—
  - (a) identify himself or herself to the individual,
  - (b) if not in uniform, produce documentary evidence that he or she is a constable to the individual,
  - (c) produce the warrant to the individual, and
  - (d) supply the individual with a copy of the warrant (which, in Northern Ireland, must be a certified copy).
- (13) The constable executing the warrant must make an endorsement on it stating—
  - (a) whether anything sought was found in the course of the search, and
  - (b) whether anything was seized.
- (14) When the warrant has been executed it must be returned to the designated officer.
- (15) The designated officer must retain a warrant returned under sub-paragraph (14) for a period of 12 months from the time of its return and, if requested during that period, allow the individual to inspect it.
- (16) The “designated officer” is—
  - (a) in relation to a warrant issued in England and Wales, the designated officer for the local justice area in which the justice of the peace who issued the warrant was acting when it was issued;
  - (b) in relation to a warrant issued in Northern Ireland, the clerk for the petty sessions district in which the lay magistrate who issued the warrant was acting when it was issued.

Search of individual for public safety purposes

- 10 (1) A constable may (without a warrant) search an individual in respect of whom a TPIM notice is in force for the purpose of ascertaining whether the individual is in possession of anything that could be used to threaten or harm any person.
- (2) The power of a constable to search the individual under this paragraph may be exercised—
  - (a) following entry onto premises by virtue of this Act, or
  - (b) at any other time when the constable is in the presence of the individual.
- (3) A constable may seize anything that the constable finds in the course of a search carried out under a power conferred by this paragraph—
  - (a) if the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the thing may be used to threaten or harm any person;
  - (b) if the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that—
    - (i) the thing is or contains evidence in relation to an offence, and
    - (ii) it is necessary to seize it to prevent it being concealed, lost, damaged, altered or destroyed.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

Power to retain items

- 11 (1) Anything that is seized under a power conferred by virtue of this Schedule may be—
- (a) subjected to tests;
  - (b) retained for as long as is necessary in all the circumstances.
- (2) In particular (and regardless of the ground on which the thing was seized)—
- (a) if a constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the thing is or contains evidence in relation to an offence, it may be retained—
    - (i) for use as evidence at a trial for an offence, or
    - (ii) for forensic examination or for investigation in connection with an offence; and
  - (b) if a constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the thing has been obtained in consequence of the commission of an offence, it may be retained in order to establish its lawful owner.
- (3) Nothing may be retained for either of the purposes mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)
- (a) if a photograph or copy would be sufficient for that purpose.
- (4) Nothing in this paragraph or in paragraph 12 affects any power of a court to make an order under section 1 of the Police (Property) Act 1897.
- 12 (1) This paragraph applies if—
- (a) a device is surrendered by virtue of a condition of the kind mentioned in paragraph 7(4)(e) of Schedule 1 (surrendering of electronic communication devices for inspection or modification purposes), and
  - (b) a constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the device is or contains evidence in relation to an offence.
- (2) The device may be seized and retained for as long as is necessary in all the circumstances.
- (3) In particular—
- (a) the thing may be retained—
    - (i) for use as evidence at a trial for an offence, or
    - (ii) for forensic examination or for investigation in connection with an offence; and
  - (b) if a constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the device has been obtained in consequence of the commission of an offence, it may be retained in order to establish its lawful owner.
- (4) Nothing may be retained for either of the purposes mentioned in sub-paragraph (3)
- (a) if a photograph or copy would be sufficient for that purpose.

SCHEDULE 6

Section 25

FINGERPRINTS AND SAMPLES

Taking of fingerprints and samples: England, Wales and Northern Ireland

- 1 (1) This paragraph applies at any time when a TPIM notice is in force in respect of an individual in England, Wales or Northern Ireland.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (2) A constable may take fingerprints or a non-intimate sample from the individual—
- (a) with the consent of the individual given in writing, or
  - (b) without that consent.
- (3) A constable may use reasonable force, if necessary, for the purpose of exercising the power under sub-paragraph (2)(b).
- (4) Before any fingerprints or a non-intimate sample are taken the individual must be informed—
- (a) of the reason for taking the fingerprints or sample,
  - (b) of the fact that the fingerprints or sample are taken under the power conferred by this paragraph, and
  - (c) that the fingerprints or sample may be the subject of a relevant search.
- (5) The matters mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) must be recorded as soon as practicable after the fingerprints or non-intimate sample are taken.
- (6) The information mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) must be given by—
- (a) the constable taking the fingerprints or non-intimate sample, or
  - (b) if the fingerprints or non-intimate sample are taken at a police station (see paragraph 3), any other officer.
- (7) Where a sample of hair other than pubic hair is to be taken under this paragraph, the sample may be taken either by cutting hairs or by plucking hairs with their roots so long as no more are plucked than the person taking the sample reasonably considers to be necessary for a sufficient sample.
- 2 (1) A constable may exercise the power under paragraph 1 to take fingerprints or a non-intimate sample from an individual only if at the time when the power is to be exercised—
- (a) in the case of fingerprints, the condition in sub-paragraph (2) is met;
  - (b) in the case of a sample, the condition in sub-paragraph (3) is met.
- (2) The condition in the case of fingerprints is that—
- (a) the individual has not had fingerprints taken under paragraph 1 on a previous occasion after the time on which the present TPIM notice came into force, or
  - (b) fingerprints were so taken on a previous occasion after that time but—
    - (i) the fingerprints taken do not constitute a complete set of the individual's fingerprints, or
    - (ii) some or all of the fingerprints taken are not of sufficient quality to allow satisfactory analysis, comparison or matching.
- (3) The condition in the case of a non-intimate sample is that—
- (a) the individual has not had a sample of the same type and from the same part of the body taken under paragraph 1 on a previous occasion after the time on which the present TPIM notice came into force, or
  - (b) a sample was so taken on a previous occasion after that time but it proved insufficient.
- (4) In this paragraph “the present TPIM notice” means the TPIM notice in force at the time when it is proposed to exercise the power to take the fingerprints or sample.
- 3 (1) A constable may—

- (a) require an individual to attend a police station for the purposes of taking fingerprints or a non-intimate sample from the individual under paragraph 1, and
  - (b) arrest without warrant an individual who fails to comply with such a requirement.
- (2) A requirement under sub-paragraph (1)(a)—
- (a) must give the individual a period of at least 7 days within which the individual must attend the police station (subject to sub-paragraph (4)), and
  - (b) may direct the individual to attend at a specified time of day or between specified times of day.
- (3) In specifying a period or time or times of day for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2), the constable must consider whether the fingerprints or non-intimate sample could reasonably be taken at a time when the individual is for any other reason required to attend the police station (including, in particular, under measures imposed on the individual by virtue of paragraph 10 of Schedule 1).
- (4) In giving a requirement under this paragraph a constable may specify a period of shorter than 7 days if—
- (a) there is an urgent need for the fingerprints or sample for the purposes of the investigation of an offence, and
  - (b) the shorter period is authorised by an officer of at least the rank of inspector.
- (5) Where an authorisation is given under sub-paragraph (4)(b)—
- (a) the fact of the authorisation, and
  - (b) the reasons for giving it,
- must be recorded as soon as practicable after it has been given.
- (6) If the constable who gives a requirement to an individual under this paragraph and the individual agree, it may be varied so as to specify any period within which, or date or time at which, the individual must attend; but a variation does not have effect unless confirmed by the constable in writing.

Taking of relevant physical data and samples: Scotland

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies at any time when a TPIM notice is in force in respect of an individual in Scotland.
- (2) A constable may—
- (a) take from the individual, or require the individual to provide, any relevant physical data;
  - (b) with the authority of an officer of a rank no lower than inspector, take from the individual any sample mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (6) of section 18 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 (prints, samples etc in criminal investigations) by the means specified in that paragraph in relation to the sample;
  - (c) take, or direct a police custody and security officer to take, from the individual a sample mentioned in subsection (6A) of that section by the means specified in that subsection.
- (3) A constable may—

- (a) require the individual to attend a police station for the purposes mentioned in sub-paragraph (2), and
  - (b) arrest without warrant an individual who fails to comply with such a requirement.
- (4) A requirement under sub-paragraph (3)(a)—
- (a) must give the individual at least 7 days' notice of the date on which the individual is required to attend the police station, and
  - (b) may direct the individual to attend at a specified time of day or between specified times of day.
- (5) In specifying a date or time or times of day for the purposes of sub-paragraph (4), the constable must consider whether the relevant physical data or sample could reasonably be taken at a time when the individual is for any other reason required to attend the police station (including, in particular, under measures imposed on the individual by virtue of paragraph 10 of Schedule 1).
- (6) A constable may use reasonable force, if necessary, in—
- (a) taking any relevant physical data under sub-paragraph (2)(a),
  - (b) securing compliance with a requirement imposed by the constable under that sub-paragraph, or
  - (c) taking any sample under sub-paragraph (2)(b).
- (7) A constable may, with the authority of an officer of a rank no lower than inspector, use reasonable force, if necessary, in taking any sample under sub-paragraph (2)(c).

Checking of fingerprints, samples etc

- 5 Any fingerprints, data or samples obtained under paragraph 1 or 4, or information derived from such samples, may be checked against—
- (a) other such fingerprints, data or samples or any information derived from such a sample,
  - (b) any fingerprints or samples taken under paragraph 10 or 12 of Schedule 8 to the Terrorism Act 2000 or any information derived from such a sample,
  - (c) any relevant physical data taken or provided by virtue of paragraph 20 of that Schedule, any samples taken by virtue of that paragraph or any information derived from such a sample,
  - (d) material to which section 18 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 applies,
  - (e) any fingerprints, samples or information mentioned in section 63A(1)(a) or (b) of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984,
  - (f) any of the relevant physical data, samples or information mentioned in section 19C(1) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995,
  - (g) any of the relevant physical data, samples or information held by virtue of section 56 of the Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2003, and
  - (h) any fingerprints, samples or information mentioned in Article 63A(1)(a) and (b) of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989/1341 (N.I. 12)).

Requirement to destroy material

- 6 (1) This paragraph applies to—

- (a) fingerprints taken under paragraph 1,
    - (b) a DNA profile derived from a DNA sample taken under that paragraph,
    - (c) relevant physical data taken or provided under paragraph 4,
    - (d) a DNA profile derived from a DNA sample taken under that paragraph.
  - (2) Fingerprints, relevant physical data and DNA profiles to which this paragraph applies (“paragraph 6 material”) must be destroyed if it appears to the responsible chief officer of police that the taking or providing of the material or, in the case of a DNA profile, the taking of the sample from which the DNA profile was derived, was unlawful.
  - (3) In any other case, paragraph 6 material must be destroyed unless it is retained under a power conferred by paragraph 8, 9 or 11.
  - (4) Paragraph 6 material that ceases to be retained under a power mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) may continue to be retained under any other such power that applies to it.
  - (5) Nothing in this paragraph prevents a relevant search from being carried out, in relation to paragraph 6 material, within such time as may reasonably be required for the search if the responsible chief officer of police considers the search to be desirable.
- 7
- (1) If fingerprints or relevant physical data are required by paragraph 6 to be destroyed, any copies of the fingerprints or data held by a police force must also be destroyed.
  - (2) If a DNA profile is required by that paragraph to be destroyed, no copy may be retained by a police force except in a form which does not include information which identifies the individual to whom the DNA profile relates.

Retention of paragraph 6 material

- 8
- (1) This paragraph applies to paragraph 6 material taken from, or provided by, an individual who has no previous convictions or (in the case of England and Wales or Northern Ireland) only one exempt conviction.
  - (2) The material may be retained until the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which the TPIM notice that was in force when the material was taken ceases to be in force (subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4)).
  - (3) If, before the end of that period, the TPIM notice is quashed by the court under this Act, the material may be retained only until there is no possibility of an appeal against—
    - (a) the decision to quash the notice, or
    - (b) any decision made on an appeal against that decision.
  - (4) If, after a TPIM notice is quashed or otherwise ceases to be in force, measures are imposed on the individual (whether by the revival of a TPIM notice or the imposition of a new TPIM notice)—
    - (a) within the period for which material in relation to the individual is retained by virtue of sub-paragraph (2), or
    - (b) within, or immediately after the end of, the period for which such material is retained by virtue of sub-paragraph (3), sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) apply again for the purposes of the retention of that material (taking references to the TPIM notice as references to the revived or new TPIM notice).

- (5) In determining whether there is no further possibility of an appeal against a decision of the kind mentioned in sub-paragraph (3), any power to extend the time for giving notice of application for leave to appeal, or for applying for leave to appeal, must be ignored.
- 9 (1) This paragraph applies to paragraph 6 material taken from, or provided by, an individual—
- (a) who has been convicted of a recordable offence (other than a single exempt conviction) or of an offence in Scotland which is punishable by imprisonment, or
  - (b) who is so convicted before the end of the period within which the material may be retained by virtue of paragraph 8.
- (2) The material may be retained indefinitely.
- 10 (1) For the purposes of paragraphs 8 and 9 an individual is to be treated as having been convicted of an offence if—
- (a) in relation to a recordable offence in England and Wales or Northern Ireland—
    - (i) the individual has been given a caution in respect of the offence which, at the time of the caution, the individual has admitted,
    - (ii) the individual has been found not guilty of the offence by reason of insanity,<sup>F9</sup> or
    - (iii) the individual has been found to be under a disability and to have done the act charged in respect of the offence,<sup>F10</sup> ...

<sup>F10</sup>(iv) .....
  - (b) the individual, in relation to an offence in Scotland punishable by imprisonment, has accepted or has been deemed to accept—
    - (i) a conditional offer under section 302 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995,
    - (ii) a compensation offer under section 302A of that Act,
    - (iii) a combined offer under section 302B of that Act, or
    - (iv) a work offer under section 303ZA of that Act,
  - (c) the individual, in relation to an offence in Scotland punishable by imprisonment, has been acquitted on account of the individual's insanity at the time of the offence or (as the case may be) by virtue of section 51A of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995,
  - (d) a finding in respect of the individual has been made under section 55(2) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 in relation to an offence in Scotland punishable by imprisonment,
  - (e) the individual, having been given a fixed penalty notice under section 129(1) of the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004 in connection with an offence in Scotland punishable by imprisonment, has paid—
    - (i) the fixed penalty, or
    - (ii) (as the case may be) the sum which the individual is liable to pay by virtue of section 131(5) of that Act, or

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (f) the individual, in relation to an offence in Scotland punishable by imprisonment, has been discharged absolutely by order under section 246(3) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995.
- (2) Paragraphs 8, 9 and this paragraph, so far as they relate to individuals convicted of an offence, have effect despite anything in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.
- [<sup>F11</sup>(2A) But a person is not to be treated as having been convicted of an offence if that conviction is a disregarded conviction or caution by virtue of section 92 of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012.]
- (3) For the purposes of paragraphs 8 and 9—
- (a) an individual has no previous convictions if the individual has not previously been convicted—
- (i) in England and Wales or Northern Ireland of a recordable offence, or
- (ii) in Scotland of an offence which is punishable by imprisonment, and
- (b) if the individual has previously been convicted of a recordable offence in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, the conviction is exempt if it is in respect of a recordable offence, other than a qualifying offence, committed when the individual was aged under 18.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3) “qualifying offence” has—
- (a) in relation to a conviction in respect of a recordable offence committed in England and Wales, the meaning given by section 65A of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, and
- (b) in relation to a conviction in respect of a recordable offence committed in Northern Ireland, the meaning given by Article 53A of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 ( S.I. 1989/1341 (N.I. 12)).
- (5) If an individual is convicted of more than one offence arising out of a single course of action, those convictions are to be treated as a single conviction for the purposes of calculating under paragraph 8 or 9 whether the individual has been convicted of one offence.

Requirement to destroy samples

- 12 (1) This paragraph applies to—
- (a) non-intimate samples taken under paragraph 1, or
  - (b) samples taken under paragraph 4(2)(b) or (c).
- (2) Samples to which this paragraph applies must be destroyed if it appears to the responsible chief officer of police that the taking of the sample was unlawful.
- (3) Subject to this, the rule in sub-paragraph (4) or (as the case may be) (5) applies.
- (4) A DNA sample to which this paragraph applies must be destroyed—
- (a) as soon as a DNA profile has been derived from the sample, or
  - (b) if sooner, before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which the sample was taken.
- (5) Any other sample to which this paragraph applies must be destroyed before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which it was taken.
- (6) Nothing in this paragraph prevents a relevant search, in relation to samples to which this paragraph applies, from being carried out within such time as may reasonably be required for the search if the responsible chief officer of police considers the search to be desirable.

Use of retained material

- 13 (1) Any material to which paragraph 6 or 12 applies must not be used other than—
- (a) in the interests of national security,
  - (b) for the purposes of a terrorist investigation within the meaning of the Terrorism Act 2000 (see section 32 of that Act),
  - (c) for purposes related to the prevention or detection of crime, the investigation of an offence or the conduct of a prosecution, or
  - (d) for purposes related to the identification of a deceased person or of the person to whom the material relates.
- (2) Material which is required by paragraph 6 or 12 to be destroyed must not at any time after it is required to be destroyed be used—
- (a) in evidence against the individual to whom the material relates, or
  - (b) for the purposes of the investigation of any offence.
- (3) In this paragraph—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the reference to using material includes a reference to allowing any check to be made against it and to disclosing it to any person,
- (b) the reference to crime includes a reference to any conduct which—
  - (i) constitutes one or more criminal offences (whether under the law of a part of the United Kingdom or of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom), or
  - (ii) is, or corresponds to, any conduct which, if it all took place in any one part of the United Kingdom, would constitute one or more criminal offences, and
- (c) the references to an investigation and to a prosecution include references, respectively, to any investigation outside the United Kingdom of any crime or suspected crime and to a prosecution brought in respect of any crime in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom.

SCHEDULE 8

Section 29

TRANSITIONAL AND SAVING PROVISION

Saving of control orders during transitional period

- 1 A control order which is in force immediately before commencement is to remain in force until the end of the transitional period (unless revoked or quashed before the end of that period).

Savings during and after transitional period

- 2 (1) An enactment which is amended or repealed by this Act is to continue to apply after commencement in relation to—
- (a) control orders made before commencement, and
  - (b) the operation before commencement of the PTA 2005,
- as if the enactment had not been so amended or repealed.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) is subject to paragraph 3 (2) and (3).

Savings etc for court proceedings

- 3 (1) The repeal of the PTA 2005 by this Act does not, after commencement, prevent or otherwise affect—
- (a) the court's consideration of a reference made under section 3(3)(a) of the PTA 2005 before commencement;
  - (b) the holding or continuation of any hearing in pursuance of directions under section 3(2)(c) or (6)(b) or (c) of the PTA 2005;
  - (c) the bringing or continuation of any appeal under section 10(1) or (3) of the PTA 2005;
  - (d) the bringing or continuation of any appeal, or further appeal, relating to a decision in any proceedings mentioned in any of sub-paragraphs (a) to (c) of this sub-paragraph; or
  - (e) the bringing or continuation of any proceedings for an award of damages or other relief arising out of any such proceedings.
- (2) But, after commencement, proceedings mentioned in any of sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of sub-paragraph (1) (whether the proceedings began before or after commencement) may not have a purpose other than determining whether one or more of the following should be quashed—
- (a) a certificate of the kind mentioned in section 3(8) of the PTA 2005;
  - (b) a control order;
  - (c) the renewal of a control order; or
  - (d) an obligation imposed by a control order.
- (3) Except as permitted by sub-paragraphs (1) and (2), no control order proceedings (within the meaning of section 11(6) of the PTA 2005) may be entertained after commencement.

New powers not affected by previous control order

- 4 The Secretary of State's powers under this Act in relation to an individual are not affected by a control order having been made in relation to that individual.

Last report on exercise of powers under PTA 2005

- 5 (1) Section 14(1) of the PTA 2005 applies to the period that—
- (a) begins immediately after the end of the last relevant 3 month period to end before commencement, and
  - (b) ends immediately before commencement,
- as if that period were a relevant 3 month period.
- (2) In this paragraph “relevant 3 month period” has the same meaning as in section 14 of the PTA 2005.

Last review of operation of PTA 2005

- 6 (1) Section 14(3) of the PTA 2005 does not apply to the last PTA review year.
- (2) But section 14(3) applies to the period that—
- (a) begins with the start of the last PTA review year, and
  - (b) ends immediately before commencement,
- as if that period were a PTA review year.
- (3) In this paragraph—
- “last PTA review year” means the last PTA review year to end before commencement;
  - “PTA review year” means a period determined in accordance with section 14(3)(b) of the PTA 2005.

Savings of PTA 2005 not affected by expected expiry

- 7 The fact that sections 1 to 9 of the PTA 2005 would have expired (but for their repeal by this Act) by virtue of section 13 of the PTA 2005 at a time after commencement does not prevent those sections from continuing to apply in accordance with, or for the purposes of, any other provision of this Schedule after the time when those sections would have so expired.

First review of operation of Act

- 8 (1) The review carried out under section 20(2) in respect of the first review year must also include a review in respect of so much of the preceding calendar year as falls on or after commencement (but for the purposes of section 20(3) that part of the review is to be treated as relating the first review year).
- (2) In this paragraph “first review year” means the first complete calendar year beginning after the passing of this Act.

Interpretation

- 9 In this Schedule—
- “commencement” means the coming into force of this Act;

Status: Point in time view as at 12/02/2015.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011. (See end of Document for details)

---

“control order” has the same meaning as in the PTA 2005;
“PTA 2005” means the Prevention of Terrorism Act 2005;
“transitional period” means the period of 42 days that begins with the day of commencement.

Appointments measure

- [<sup>F8</sup>10A(1) The Secretary of State may impose a requirement for the individual—
- (a) to attend appointments with specified persons or persons of specified descriptions, and
  - (b) to comply with any reasonable directions given by the Secretary of State that relate to matters about which the individual is required to attend an appointment.
- (2) A requirement under sub-paragraph (1)(a) is a requirement to attend appointments—
- (a) at specified times and places, or
  - (b) at times and places notified to the individual by persons referred to in that sub-paragraph].]
