

Postal Services Act 2011

2011 CHAPTER 5

PART 1 U.K.

RESTRUCTURING OF ROYAL MAIL GROUP

Removal of existing statutory restrictions on ownership

1 Removal of restrictions on ownership of Royal Mail Holdings plc etc U.K.*

- (1) Sections 65 to 67 of the Postal Services Act 2000 (which contain restrictions on the issue and transfer of shares and share rights in Royal Mail Holdings plc and its relevant subsidiaries) are repealed.
- (2) But see section 4 of this Act (which imposes restrictions on the issue and transfer of shares and share rights in a Post Office company etc).

Ownership of the Royal Mail

2 Report on decision to dispose of shares in a Royal Mail company etc U.K.*

- (1) This section applies where the Secretary of State—
  - (a) has decided to undertake a particular kind of relevant disposal, or
  - (b) has decided that another person may undertake a particular kind of relevant disposal.
- (2) As soon as reasonably practicable after making the decision, the Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report on the proposed disposal.
- (3) The report must state—

- (a) the kind of relevant disposal intended to be undertaken,
  - (b) the expected time-scale for undertaking it, and
  - (c) the objective intended to be achieved by the undertaking of it.
- (4) The report must—
- (a) contain information about the expected commercial relationship, after the proposed disposal, between the Royal Mail company in question and any Post Office company, and
  - (b) if the proposed disposal would result in shares or share rights being owned by or on behalf of an employee share scheme for the first time, give details of the scheme.

In paragraph (b) “employee share scheme” has the meaning given by section 3.

- (5) In this Part “relevant disposal” means—
- (a) the issue or transfer of shares in a company the effect of which is to reduce the proportion of a Royal Mail company owned by the Crown, or
  - (b) the issue or transfer of share rights to a person the effect of which would be, if the shares to which the share rights relate were issued or transferred to the person, to reduce the proportion of a Royal Mail company owned by the Crown.
- (6) In this Part “Royal Mail company” means a company that—
- (a) provides a universal postal service, and
  - (b) is or has at any time been in the same group as—
    - (i) the original holding company, or
    - (ii) another company that is or has at any time been a Royal Mail company.

3 Employee share scheme U.K.

- (1) The Secretary of State must ensure that arrangements are made, before the time at which the first relevant disposal is made in relation to a Royal Mail company, for the establishment of an employee share scheme.
- (2) Those arrangements must secure that if at any time the proportion of the company owned by the Crown is reduced to nil, the proportion of the company owned by or on behalf of the employee share scheme is at that time (or has before that time been) at least 10%.
- (3) If any shares or shares rights have been transferred under the employee share scheme to beneficiaries of the scheme, the shares or share rights are to be regarded for the purposes of subsection (2) as if they are still owned by or on behalf of the scheme.
- (4) “Employee share scheme” means a scheme for encouraging or facilitating the holding of shares or share rights in the company (or companies in the same group as the company) by or for the benefit of persons who are or include employees of the company.

Ownership of the Post Office

4 Restrictions on issue and transfer of shares and share rights in a Post Office company etc U.K.

- (1) No disposal of the Crown's interest in a Post Office company may be made other than a disposal that—
  - (a) is made pursuant to a direction under subsection (2), or
  - (b) is authorised under subsection (3).
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order—
  - (a) direct a Post Office company (if it is wholly owned by the Crown) to issue shares or share rights to a relevant mutual, or
  - (b) direct a company wholly owned by the Crown to transfer shares or share rights in a Post Office company to a relevant mutual.
- (3) A disposal of the Crown's interest in a Post Office company is authorised under this subsection if—
  - (a) the disposal is by way of an issue or transfer of shares or share rights in a Post Office company to a relevant mutual, and
  - (b) the Secretary of State has by order approved the issue or transfer.
- (4) An order under subsection (2) or (3)(b) is subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (5) No disposal of a relevant mutual's interest in a Post Office company may be made other than a disposal to—
  - (a) another relevant mutual,
  - (b) the Secretary of State or the Treasury (or a nominee of either of them), or
  - (c) a company wholly owned by the Crown.
- (6) Any disposal in contravention of subsection (1) or (5) has no effect.
- (7) For the meaning of “Post Office company” and “relevant mutual”, see sections 6 and 7.
- (8) In this section any reference to a disposal of a person's interest in a Post Office company is to—
  - (a) the issue or transfer of shares in a company the effect of which is to reduce the proportion of the Post Office company owned by the person, or
  - (b) the issue or transfer of share rights to a person the effect of which would be, if the shares to which the share rights relate were issued or transferred to the person, to reduce the proportion of the Post Office company owned by the person.

5 Report on transfer of interest in a Post Office company to a relevant mutual U.K.

- (1) This section applies where the Secretary of State proposes to make an order under section 4(2) or (3)(b) (order directing or approving issue or transfer of shares or share rights in a Post Office company to a relevant mutual).
- (2) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament a report on the proposed issue or transfer before making the order.
- (3) The report must—
  - (a) give details of the proposed issue or transfer (including the expected time-scale for the issue or transfer),
  - (b) name the body to whom shares or share rights are proposed to be issued or transferred, and
  - (c) explain how that body meets the conditions set out in section 7.

6 Meaning of “Post Office company” U.K.

- (1) In this Part “Post Office company” means a company that—
  - (a) is engaged in the provision of post offices,
  - (b) is or has at any time been—
    - (i) a subsidiary of the original holding company, or
    - (ii) in the same group as a company that is or (as the case may be) was at that time designated under this section, and
  - (c) is designated for the purposes of this subsection by order made by the Secretary of State.
- (2) A company may be designated only if, immediately before it is designated, it is wholly owned by the Crown.
- (3) An order under subsection (1) may not be amended or revoked.
- (4) An order under section 93 that appoints a day for the commencement of section 1 (removal of restrictions on ownership of Royal Mail Holdings plc etc) may not be made unless Post Office Limited (registered number 02154540) has been designated under subsection (1).

8 Transfer schemes U.K.

- (1) The Secretary of State, or the original holding company (if it is wholly owned by the Crown), may make one or more transfer schemes.
- (2) A “transfer scheme” is a scheme for the transfer of property, rights or liabilities (or the creation of interests, rights or liabilities)—
  - (a) between companies within subsection (3), or
  - (b) between—
    - (i) a company within subsection (3), and
    - (ii) the Secretary of State or the Treasury (or a nominee of either of them) or a company wholly owned by the Crown.
- (3) A company is within this subsection if—
  - (a) it is the original holding company or a subsidiary of that company, and
  - (b) it is wholly owned by the Crown.
- (4) A transfer scheme made by the original holding company has effect—
  - (a) only if approved by the Secretary of State, and
  - (b) subject to any modifications made by the Secretary of State.
- (5) The Secretary of State must consult the original holding company—
  - (a) before making a transfer scheme, and
  - (b) before making any modifications of a transfer scheme made by the company.
- (6) The Secretary of State may direct the original holding company (if it is wholly owned by the Crown) to make a transfer scheme in accordance with the direction.
- (7) Schedule 1 contains further provision about transfer schemes.
- (8) Nothing in that Schedule is to be read as restricting the provision that may be contained in transfer schemes.

9 Transfer of employees otherwise than under transfer scheme U.K.

- (1) This section applies if an agreement between companies within subsection (3) provides for the transfer from one to the other of rights and liabilities under contracts of employment.
- (2) This section also applies if—
  - (a) employees of a company within subsection (3) (“company A”) are provided to another company within that subsection (“company B”),
  - (b) an agreement between the companies provides for the employees to cease to be provided to company B, and
  - (c) company B intends to employ the employees.
- (3) A company is within this subsection if—
  - (a) it is the original holding company or a subsidiary of that company, and
  - (b) it is wholly owned by the Crown.
- (4) At any time before the agreement comes into force, the Secretary of State may—
  - (a) in a case within subsection (1), designate any contract of employment the rights and liabilities under which are to be transferred under the agreement, and
  - (b) in a case within subsection (2), designate any employee of company A who is provided as mentioned in subsection (2)(a).
- (5) The designation may specify or describe the contracts of employment or employees.
- (6) On the coming into force of the agreement, the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 apply in relation to—
  - (a) the transfer of designated contracts of employment, and
  - (b) the cessation of the provision of designated employees to company B, whether or not the agreement would otherwise be regarded for the purposes of those regulations as giving rise to a relevant transfer.

PART 2 U.K.

ROYAL MAIL PENSION PLAN

Introduction

16 Introduction U.K.

(1) In this Part—

“the RMPP” means the Royal Mail Pension Plan,

“qualifying member of the RMPP” means a person who is or has been a member of the RMPP of a prescribed description,

“the qualifying time” means the time immediately before such date as may be prescribed (which may be before the passing of this Act),

“qualifying accrued rights” means—

- (a) any right which, at the qualifying time, has accrued to or in respect of a qualifying member of the RMPP to future benefits under the RMPP,

- (b) any entitlement under the RMPP to the present payment of a pension or other benefit which a qualifying member of the RMPP has at the qualifying time, or
  - (c) any entitlement to benefits, or rights to future benefits, under the RMPP which a person who has survived a qualifying member of the RMPP has at the qualifying time in respect of the member.
- (2) For the purposes of the definition of “qualifying accrued rights”—
- (a) references to pensions or other benefits (including future benefits) do not include money purchase benefits but, subject to that, do include benefits attributable to additional voluntary contributions, and
  - (b) references to a right include a pension credit right.
- (3) In the event that qualifying members of the RMPP include any person (“P”) who is in pensionable service under the RMPP after the qualifying time—
- (a) the qualifying accrued rights in respect of P, and
  - (b) the amounts payable in respect of those rights,
- are to be determined for the purposes of this Part on the assumption that P had opted, immediately before the qualifying time, to terminate that service.

20 Protection against adverse treatment U.K.

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to <sup>F4</sup>...—
  - (a) [<sup>F5</sup>the exercise by the Minister for the Civil Service or the Secretary of State of] the power to make an order under section 17 in a case where the order contains provision establishing a new public scheme or transferring qualifying accrued rights to a new public scheme, and
  - (b) [<sup>F6</sup>the exercise by the Secretary of State of] the power to make an order under section 18 or 19.
- (2) In exercising the power the [<sup>F7</sup>Minister making the order] must ensure that the relevant pensions provision in respect of each person who is or has been a member of the RMPP is, in all material respects, at least as good immediately after the exercise of the power as it is immediately before the exercise of the power.
- (3) “The relevant pensions provision” means the provision for the payment of pensions or other benefits which is contained in the RMPP or in a new public scheme.
- (4) Subsections (1) to (3) do not require provision to be included in a new public scheme if the [<sup>F8</sup>Minister making the order] is of the opinion that the provision would be incompatible with any enactment or [<sup>F9</sup>assimilated] obligation (including any enactment applying as a result of any provision made under this Part).
- (5) Nothing in subsections (1) to (3) is to be read as—
  - (a) requiring particular provisions of the RMPP or a new public scheme to take the same or similar form,
  - (b) requiring a new public scheme to be established in a particular way,
  - (c) requiring any power or duty conferred or imposed by the RMPP or a new public scheme to be exercised or performed in a particular way, or
  - (d) affecting any power of any person to amend the RMPP or a new public scheme.
- (6) The power of the [<sup>F10</sup>Minister for the Civil Service or the] Secretary of State to amend a new public scheme may not be exercised in any manner which would or might

22 Restriction on power to transfer assets U.K.

- (1) The power of the Secretary of State to make an order under section 21 (a “transfer order”) must be exercised so as to secure that the ratio of assets to liabilities of the RMPP immediately after the relevant time is at least equal to the ratio of the assets to liabilities of the RMPP immediately before that time.
- (2) “The relevant time” is the time at which the order under section 17 in consequence of which the transfer order is made has effect.
- (3) For the purposes of this section any reference to the assets or liabilities of the RMPP is to their amount or value determined, calculated and verified by a prescribed person and in the prescribed manner.
- (4) In calculating the value of any liabilities for those purposes, a provision of the RMPP that limits the amount of its liabilities by reference to the amount of its assets is to be disregarded.
- (5) For the purposes of this section as it applies in relation to the transfer of assets after the relevant time by virtue of a transfer order—
  - (a) treat the assets as if they had been transferred at the relevant time, but
  - (b) disregard so much of the assets as were transferred to reflect the fact that the assets were not actually transferred at the relevant time.

23 Taxation U.K.

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations make provision for varying the way in which any relevant tax would, apart from the regulations, have effect in relation to—
  - (a) a new public scheme,
  - (b) members of a new public scheme, or
  - (c) a fund within section 21(1)(c).
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may include provision for treating a new public scheme as a registered pension scheme.

- (3) The Treasury may by regulations make provision for varying the way in which any relevant tax would, apart from the regulations, have effect in relation to, or in connection with, anything done in relation to—
- (a) the RMPP, or
  - (b) any members of the RMPP,
- by or under, or in consequence of, an order made under this Part.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) or (3) may include provision for any of the following—
- (a) a tax provision not to apply or to apply with modifications,
  - (b) anything done to have or not to have a specified consequence for the purposes of a tax provision, and
  - (c) the withdrawal of relief and the charging of a relevant tax.
- (5) Provision made by regulations under subsection (1) or (3), other than provision withdrawing a relief or charging a relevant tax, may have retrospective effect.
- (6) The Treasury may by regulations make provision, in relation to qualifying accounting periods, for extinguishing such losses made in a trade as they consider are attributable to deductions made for, or in connection with, contributions in respect of qualifying members of the RMPP.
- (7) A “qualifying” accounting period is one beginning on or after the date (“the trigger date”) on which an order under section 17 is made establishing a new public scheme or transferring qualifying accrued rights to a new public scheme.
- (8) Regulations under subsection (6) have effect only if the company whose losses are extinguished is wholly owned by the Crown (within the meaning of Part 1) on the day before the trigger date.
- (9) In this section—
- “relevant tax” means—
- (a) income tax,
  - (b) capital gains tax,
  - (c) corporation tax,
  - (d) inheritance tax,
  - (e) stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax, and
  - (f) stamp duty land tax,
- “registered pension scheme” has the same meaning as in Part 4 of the Finance Act 2004,
- “tax provision” means any provision made by or under an enactment relating to a relevant tax.

- (3) In performing their duty under subsection (1) OFCOM must have regard to—
  - (a) the need for the provision of a universal postal service to be financially sustainable, and
  - (b) the need for the provision of a universal postal service to be efficient before the end of a reasonable period and for its provision to continue to be efficient at all subsequent times.
- (4) The reference in subsection (3)(a) to the need for the provision of a universal postal service to be financially sustainable includes the need for a reasonable commercial rate of return for any universal service provider on any expenditure incurred by it for the purpose of, or in connection with, the provision by it of a universal postal service.
- (5) In subsection (3)(b) “a reasonable period” means such period beginning with the day on which the provisions of this Part come generally into force as OFCOM consider, in all the circumstances, to be reasonable.
- (6) OFCOM's duty under subsection (1) includes a duty to carry out their functions in relation to postal services in a way that they consider will secure the provision of sufficient access points to meet the reasonable needs of users of the universal postal service.
- (7) The Secretary of State may direct OFCOM to take, or refrain from taking, specified action for the purpose of securing that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, sufficient access points are provided throughout the United Kingdom to meet the interests of the public.
- (8) The duty imposed on OFCOM as a result of subsection (6) is subject to any direction given under this section.
- (9) The action that may be specified in a direction under this section includes the imposition of a regulatory condition consisting of or including provision specified in the direction.
- (10) Before giving a direction under this section, the Secretary of State must consult OFCOM.
- (11) In this Part “access point” means any box, receptacle or other facility provided for the purpose of receiving postal packets, or any class of postal packets, for onwards transmission by post.

- (1) Nothing in section 31 requires the doing of anything in relation to a letter or other postal packet—
- (a) whose weight exceeds 20 kilograms, or
  - (b) whose dimensions fall outside the minimum and maximum dimensions laid down in the Convention and the Agreement concerning Postal Parcels adopted by the Universal Postal Union.
- (2) The requirements in section 31 in respect of the delivery or collection of letters or other postal packets (requirements 1 and 2)—
- (a) do not need to be met on any day which is (in the part of the United Kingdom concerned) a public holiday, and
  - (b) do not need to be met in such geographical conditions or other circumstances as OFCOM consider to be exceptional.
- (3) Nothing in section 31 is to be read—
- (a) as requiring a service to continue without interruption, suspension or restriction in an emergency, or
  - (b) as preventing individual agreements as to prices from being concluded with customers.

34 Review of minimum requirements U.K.

- (1) OFCOM may from time to time review the extent to which the provision made by section 31 reflects the reasonable needs of the users of postal services provided in the United Kingdom.
- (2) A review under subsection (1) may, in particular, consider whether the requirements imposed by that section could be altered so as better to reflect those needs.
- (3) OFCOM must send a copy of each review under subsection (1) to the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State may at any time direct OFCOM to carry out a review under subsection (1).
- (5) Where OFCOM have carried out a review under subsection (1), the Secretary of State may by order amend section 31.
- (6) The provision that may be made by an order under subsection (5) does not include the making of different provision in relation to different places in the United Kingdom.
- (7) An order under subsection (5)—
  - (a) is subject to affirmative resolution procedure, and
  - (b) may include such amendments of this Part as the Secretary of State considers necessary or expedient in consequence of any provision made by the order.

Universal service providers

35 Designation of universal service providers U.K.

- (1) OFCOM may designate one or more postal operators as universal service providers.
- (2) But there are only two cases in which there may be more than one postal operator designated as a universal service provider.
- (3) The first case is where—
  - (a) OFCOM have made a procurement determination under section 45 (fairness of bearing burden of universal service obligations), and
  - (b) in the light of that determination, OFCOM consider it appropriate for the number of postal operators designated as universal service providers to be greater than one.
- (4) The second case is where—
  - (a) a postal administration order has been made under Part 4, and
  - (b) OFCOM consider it appropriate for the number of postal operators designated as universal service providers to be greater than one for, or in connection with, achieving the objective of the postal administration.
- (5) OFCOM must publish each designation in such way as they consider appropriate for bringing it to the attention of members of the public.

- (6) The procedure to be followed for the making of a designation under this section must be provided for in regulations made by OFCOM.
- (7) OFCOM may—
- (a) review the designations for the time being in force, and
  - (b) consider what (if any) designated USP conditions should continue to apply to each of the universal service providers.
- (8) The procedure to be followed on a review must be provided for in regulations made by OFCOM.
- (9) Regulations made by OFCOM must provide for a postal operator's designation to cease to have effect where, in any case described in the regulations, the operator is no longer subject to any universal service obligations.
- (10) Both the procedure for designations and the procedure for the conduct of review of designations provided for by regulations under this section must be one appearing to OFCOM—
- (a) to be efficient, objective, proportionate and transparent, and
  - (b) not to involve, or to tend to give rise to, any undue discrimination against any person or description of persons.

36 Designated USP conditions U.K.

- (1) OFCOM may impose a designated USP condition on a universal service provider.
- (2) A designated USP condition is a condition requiring the provider to do one or more of the following—
- (a) to provide a universal postal service, or part of a universal postal service, throughout the United Kingdom, or in a specified area of the United Kingdom, in accordance with the standards set out in the universal postal service order,
  - (b) to provide, or make arrangements for the provision of, access points for the purposes of a universal postal service,
  - (c) to provide specified information (at such times and in such manner as OFCOM may direct) to other postal operators and users of postal services about the services within paragraph (a) that it is required to provide, and
  - (d) to do anything else that OFCOM consider appropriate for the purposes of, or in consequence of, the obligations imposed under any of paragraphs (a) to (c).

In this subsection “specified” means specified in the condition.

- (3) OFCOM may impose a designated USP condition only if they consider it is necessary to do so in order to secure the provision of a service of a description set out in the universal postal service order in accordance with the standards set out there.
- (4) A designated USP condition may make provision as to the tariffs to be used for determining prices in accordance with which a universal postal service, or part of a universal postal service, is provided.
- (5) In exercising the power conferred by subsection (4), OFCOM must seek to ensure that—
  - (a) the prices are affordable,
  - (b) the prices take account of the costs of providing the service or part of a service, and
  - (c) the prices provide incentives to provide the service or part of a service efficiently.
- (6) A designated USP condition may impose performance targets.
- (7) If there are two or more universal service providers—
  - (a) OFCOM must secure that there is no overlap in the universal service obligations imposed on the providers, and
  - (b) designated USP conditions may require the providers to make arrangements for securing that a universal postal service operates uniformly and effectively throughout the United Kingdom.
- (8) In this Part “universal service obligations”, in relation to a universal service provider, means the obligations imposed on the provider by any designated USP condition.

Commencement Information

I36 S. 36 in force at 1.10.2011 by S.I. 2011/2329, art. 3

37 Publication of information about performance U.K.

- (1) A designated USP condition must include provision requiring the universal service provider concerned—
  - (a) to publish information about the extent to which it is providing specified postal services in accordance with specified standards, and
  - (b) to publish annually an independently audited performance report.
- (2) The reference here to an independently audited performance report is to a report that—
  - (a) contains information about the provider's performance in complying with specified requirements under the designated USP condition, and
  - (b) is audited by an independent person for accuracy and, if there are two or more universal service providers, for its usefulness in comparing information published by other universal service providers.
- (3) An “independent person” means a person who is independent of both OFCOM and universal service providers.

- (5) A designated USP condition may require the universal service provider concerned to meet the costs of the audit required as a result of subsection (1)(b).
- (6) A designated USP condition may include other provision requiring the universal service provider concerned to publish information about its performance in complying with specified requirements under the designated USP condition.
- (7) The provision made as a result of this section—
  - (a) must include provision—
    - (i) requiring information previously published to be updated and published again, and
    - (ii) requiring the published information to satisfy requirements that OFCOM consider appropriate to secure its adequacy, and
  - (b) may include requirements as to the times at which, and the manner in which, the information is to be published.
- (8) In this section “specified” means specified in the designated USP condition.

38 USP access conditions U.K.

- (1) OFCOM may impose a USP access condition on a universal service provider.
- (2) A USP access condition is a condition requiring the provider to do either or both of the following—
  - (a) to give access to its postal network to other postal operators or users of postal services, and
  - (b) to maintain a separation for accounting purposes between such different matters relating to access (including proposed or potential access) to its postal network as OFCOM may direct.
- (3) The provider's “postal network” means the systems and all the resources used by the provider for the purpose of complying with its universal service obligations (and, accordingly, includes arrangements made with others for the provision of any service).
- (4) OFCOM may not impose a USP access condition unless it appears to them that the condition is appropriate for each of the following purposes—
  - (a) promoting efficiency,
  - (b) promoting effective competition, and
  - (c) conferring significant benefits on the users of postal services.
- (5) In addition, OFCOM may not impose any price controls on a universal service provider in a USP access condition unless it appears to them that the provider concerned—

- (a) might otherwise fix and maintain some or all of its prices at an excessively high level with adverse consequences for users of postal services, or
  - (b) might otherwise impose a price squeeze with adverse consequences for users of postal services.
- (6) In imposing price controls in a USP access condition in connection with the giving of access to a universal service provider's postal network or to part of that network, OFCOM must have regard to such of the costs incurred in the provision of that network, or part of that network, as OFCOM consider appropriate.
- (7) In imposing price controls in a USP access condition OFCOM may—
- (a) have regard to the prices at which services are available in comparable competitive markets, and
  - (b) determine what they consider to represent efficiency by using cost accounting methods.
- (8) In deciding what obligations to impose in a USP access condition in a particular case, OFCOM must (in addition to taking into account anything relevant for the purpose of performing their duty under section 29) take into account, in particular, the following factors—
- (a) the technical and economic viability, having regard to the state of market development, of installing and using facilities that would make the proposed access unnecessary,
  - (b) the feasibility of giving the proposed access,
  - (c) the investment made by the universal service provider concerned in relation to the matters in respect of which access is proposed,
  - (d) the need to secure effective competition in the long term, and
  - (e) any rights to intellectual property that are relevant to the proposal.
- (9) For the purposes of this section references to giving a person access to a provider's postal network include giving a person an entitlement to use, be provided with or become a party to any services, facilities or arrangements comprised in the postal network.
- (10) In Schedule 3—
- (a) Part 1 makes provision about the kind of matters that may be included in a USP access condition, and
  - (b) Part 2 makes provision about the resolution of access disputes by OFCOM.

- (b) to comply with rules made by OFCOM in relation to those matters about the identification of costs and cost orientation,
  - (c) to comply with rules made by OFCOM about the use of cost accounting systems in relation to those matters, and
  - (d) to secure that its compliance with those systems is audited annually by a qualified independent auditor.
- (3) An obligation within subsection (2)(a)—
- (a) may require the separation to be maintained in relation to different services, facilities or products or in relation to services, facilities or products provided in different areas, and
  - (b) may impose requirements about the accounting methods to be used in maintaining the separation.
- (4) An obligation within subsection (2)(b) or (c)—
- (a) may include conditions requiring the application of presumptions in the fixing and determination of costs and charges for any purpose, and
  - (b) may require the universal service provider concerned to publish such accounts and other information relating to anything required to be done as a result of those provisions as OFCOM consider appropriate.
- (5) An obligation within subsection (2)(d) may require the universal service provider concerned to meet the costs of the audit.
- (6) If a USP accounting condition imposes rules on a universal service provider about the use of cost accounting systems, OFCOM may secure that the condition also imposes an obligation on the provider to make arrangements for a description to be made available to the public of the cost accounting system used.
- (7) If OFCOM impose an obligation under subsection (6), the description of information to be made available must include details of—
- (a) the main categories under which costs are brought into account for the purposes of that system, and
  - (b) the rules applied for the purposes of that system with respect to the allocation of costs.
- (8) In this section “qualified independent auditor” means a person who—
- (a) is eligible for appointment as a statutory auditor under Part 42 of the Companies Act 2006, and
  - (b) if the appointment were an appointment as a statutory auditor, would not be prohibited from acting by section 1214 of that Act (independence requirement).

Persons providing services within scope of universal postal service

40 Services within scope of the universal postal service U.K.

- (1) A postal service is within the scope of the universal postal service if—
- (a) the service falls within the description of a service set out in the universal postal service order, or
  - (b) the service would fall within the description of a service set out in that order but for the fact that—
    - (i) in the case of a service consisting of the delivery or collection of letters or other postal packets, the delivery or collection is not made on each of the days required by section 31 (see requirements 1 and 2),
    - (ii) the service is not provided throughout the United Kingdom, or
    - (iii) the service is not provided at an affordable price in accordance with a public tariff which is uniform throughout the United Kingdom, or
  - (c) in the opinion of OFCOM the service is of a kind that, from the point of view of users of postal services, could reasonably be said to be interchangeable with a service of a description set out in that order.
- (2) In this section any reference to a service includes a part of a service.

41 Notification condition U.K.

- (1) OFCOM may impose a notification condition on—
- (a) every person providing, or intending to provide, a service within the scope of the universal postal service, or
  - (b) every person providing, or intending to provide, a service within the scope of the universal postal service of a specified description.
- (2) A notification condition is a condition requiring the person to give OFCOM—
- (a) advance notice of the person's intention to provide a letters business on a specified scale (whether or not the person is currently providing a letters business or any other postal service), and
  - (b) where the person is already providing a letters business on a specified scale, advance notice of the person's intention to expand the business by a specified extent.
- (3) A specified scale or extent may be determined by reference to any specified factor.
- (4) The Secretary of State may at any time direct OFCOM to impose a notification condition.

- (1) OFCOM may impose a general universal service condition on—
  - (a) every postal operator providing a service within the scope of the universal postal service, or
  - (b) every postal operator providing a service within the scope of the universal postal service of a description specified in the condition.
- (2) A general universal service condition is—
  - (a) a condition containing such obligations as OFCOM consider necessary to impose for, or in connection with, securing the provision of a universal postal service in accordance with the standards set out in the universal postal service order, or
  - (b) a condition containing such obligations as OFCOM consider necessary to impose for the purposes of section 46.
- (3) A general universal service condition may require a person—
  - (a) to make contributions in accordance with any scheme established under section 46, and
  - (b) to take such steps as may be required by any such scheme as regards contributions made by users of services within the scope of the universal postal service.
- (4) At any time when there is a universal service provider, nothing in subsection (2)(a) is to be read as authorising the imposition of a condition requiring a person—
  - (a) to deliver or collect letters or other postal packets as mentioned in section 31,
  - (b) to provide a service throughout the United Kingdom, or

43 Recovery of administrative charges incurred by OFCOM U.K.

Schedule 4 makes provision authorising OFCOM to impose charges on postal operators providing services within the scope of the universal postal service to meet costs incurred by OFCOM in carrying out their functions in relation to postal services.

Financial support for universal postal service

44 Review of costs of universal service obligations U.K.

- (1) OFCOM may from time to time review the extent (if any) of the financial burden for a universal service provider of complying with its universal service obligations.
- (2) In carrying out a review under this section OFCOM must consider the extent to which, in their opinion, the provider is complying with its universal service obligations in a cost-efficient manner.
- (3) If—
  - (a) regulations under section 35 require the financial burden of complying with universal service obligations (or proposed universal service obligations) to be taken into account in determining whom to designate, and
  - (b) the regulations provide for a particular method of calculating that burden to be used for the purposes of that determination,that must be the method of calculation applied on a review under this section.
- (4) If subsection (3) does not apply, the financial burden of complying is to be taken to be the amount calculated by OFCOM to be the net cost of compliance after allowing for market benefits accruing to the universal service provider from—
  - (a) the provider's designation, and
  - (b) the application to the provider of universal service obligations.
- (5) After carrying out a review under this section OFCOM must either—
  - (a) ensure that the calculations made by them on the review are audited by a person who appears to them to be independent of universal service providers, or
  - (b) carry out an audit of those calculations themselves.
- (6) OFCOM must ensure that a report on the audit—
  - (a) is prepared, and
  - (b) if not prepared by OFCOM, is provided to them.
- (7) OFCOM must publish—
  - (a) their conclusions on the review, and
  - (b) a summary of the report of the audit which was carried out as respects the calculations made for the purposes of that review.

45 Fairness of bearing burden of universal service obligations U.K.

- (1) This section applies if OFCOM—
  - (a) have concluded on a review under section 44 that complying with its universal service obligations imposes a financial burden on a universal service provider, and
  - (b) have published that conclusion in accordance with that section.
- (2) OFCOM must determine whether they consider it is or would be unfair for the provider to bear, or to continue to bear, the whole or a part of the burden of complying with its universal service obligations.
- (3) The determination by OFCOM of—
  - (a) whether it is or would be unfair for the provider to bear, or to continue to bear, that burden, or
  - (b) the extent (if any) to which that is or would be unfair, must be made in accordance with regulations made by OFCOM.
- (4) OFCOM must publish the determination.
- (5) The publication must be in such manner as OFCOM consider appropriate for bringing it to the attention of the persons who, in their opinion, are likely to be affected by it.
- (6) If OFCOM determine that it is or would be unfair for the provider to bear, or to continue to bear, the whole or a part of that burden, they must submit a report to the Secretary of State setting out their recommendations as to the action (if any) that they consider ought to be taken to deal with the burden.
- (7) The report may make recommendations—
  - (a) about the order in which action ought to be taken, and
  - (b) as to whether the taking of action ought to be contingent on the success or otherwise of the taking of other action.
- (8) The recommended action may consist of one or more of the following—
  - (a) the carrying out of a review under section 34 (review of minimum requirements),
  - (b) requiring contributions to be made in accordance with section 46 for meeting some or all of that burden, and

- (c) the making of a procurement determination.
- (9) A procurement determination is a determination by OFCOM as to whether, in their opinion, any particular postal operator or operators (which may include the provider) could provide any of the postal services required to be provided by the universal service obligations concerned in a way which would mean that—
- (a) no unfair financial burden would be imposed on any person (or persons) in complying with those obligations, or
  - (b) the financial burden imposed on any person (or persons) in complying with those obligations would be less unfair than the one mentioned in subsection (6).
- (10) A procurement determination must be made in accordance with regulations made by OFCOM.
- (11) After receiving the report under subsection (6), the Secretary of State must determine what action (if any) the Secretary of State considers ought to be taken by OFCOM to deal with the burden.
- (12) The Secretary of State may then direct OFCOM to take that action.
- (13) A direction under subsection (12) may make provision—
- (a) about the order in which specified action is to be taken, and
  - (b) for the taking of specified action to be contingent on the success or otherwise of the taking of other specified action.
- In this subsection “specified” means specified in the direction.
- (14) A direction under subsection (12) may not require OFCOM to make a procurement determination at any time in the period of 10 years beginning with the day on which this section comes into force unless the universal service provider has agreed to the making of the determination.

46 Contributions for meeting burden U.K.

- (1) This section applies where the Secretary of State has directed OFCOM to require contributions to be made for meeting some or all of the burden concerned.
- (2) The contributions are to be made by either or both of the following—
  - (a) postal operators providing services within the scope of the universal postal service,
  - (b) users of services within the scope of the universal postal service (by way of the charges paid by them).
- (3) OFCOM may determine that the contributions under this section are to be made only by a description of postal operator or user.
- (4) The assessment, collection and distribution of the contributions must be carried out in accordance with a mechanism provided for in a scheme contained in regulations made by OFCOM.

- (5) OFCOM must exercise their power to make the regulations in a way they consider will secure the operation of the scheme—
- (a) in an objective, proportionate and transparent way,
  - (b) in a way that does not involve, or tend to give rise to, any undue discrimination against particular postal operators (or a particular description of postal operators) or particular users (or a particular description of users), and
  - (c) in a way that avoids, or (if that is impracticable) minimises, any distortion of competition.
- (6) The regulations may provide for—
- (a) the scheme, and
  - (b) any fund set up for the purposes of the scheme,
- to be administered by OFCOM or some other person specified in the regulations.
- (7) A person may be specified only if OFCOM are satisfied as to the person's independence of both—
- (a) universal service providers, and
  - (b) postal operators providing postal services within the scope of the universal postal service.
- (8) The regulations may not be made unless—
- (a) the Secretary of State has consented to the making of them and
  - (b) a draft of the statutory instrument containing them has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

- (5) A report under this section—
  - (a) must be prepared as soon as practicable after the end of the period to which it is to apply, and
  - (b) must be published as soon as practicable after its preparation is complete.
- (6) OFCOM are not required under this section—
  - (a) to publish any matter that is confidential, or
  - (b) to publish anything that it would not be reasonably practicable to publish without disclosing such a matter.
- (7) A matter is confidential for this purpose—
  - (a) if it relates specifically to the affairs of a particular body and publication of the matter would or might, in OFCOM's opinion, seriously and prejudicially affect the interests of the body, and
  - (b) if it relates to the private affairs of an individual and publication of the matter would or might, in OFCOM's opinion, seriously and prejudicially affect the interests of the individual.
- (8) A report under this section must be published in such manner as OFCOM consider appropriate for bringing it to the attention of the persons who, in their opinion, are affected by the matters to which it relates.

- (a) to give access to other postal operators, or users of postal services, to the operator's postal infrastructure or any service within the scope of the universal postal service which it provides, and
  - (b) to maintain a separation for accounting purposes between such different matters relating to access of a kind within paragraph (a) (including proposed or potential access of that kind) as OFCOM may direct.
- (3) An operator's "postal infrastructure" includes both physical infrastructure (such as letter boxes) and infrastructure in non-physical form (such as information relating to postcodes or addresses or arrangements made with others for the provision of any service).
- (4) OFCOM may impose a general access condition only if it appears to them that the condition is necessary for either or both of the following purposes—
  - (a) protecting the interests of the users of postal services, and
  - (b) promoting effective competition.
- (5) In deciding what obligations to impose in general access conditions in a particular case, OFCOM must (in addition to taking into account anything relevant for the purpose of performing their duty under section 29) take into account, in particular, the following factors—
  - (a) the technical and economic viability, having regard to the state of market development, of installing and using facilities that would make the proposed access unnecessary,
  - (b) the feasibility of giving the proposed access,
  - (c) the investment made by the postal operator in relation to the matters in respect of which access is proposed,
  - (d) the need to secure effective competition in the long term, and
  - (e) any rights to intellectual property that are relevant to the proposal.
- (6) For the purposes of this section a reference to giving a person access to an operator's postal infrastructure includes giving a person an entitlement to use, be provided with or become a party to any services, facilities or arrangements comprised in the infrastructure.
- (7) In Schedule 3—
  - (a) Part 1 makes provision about the kind of matters that may be included in general access conditions, and
  - (b) Part 2 makes provision about the resolution of access disputes by OFCOM.

- (4) For the purposes of the law relating to defamation, proceedings under an approved redress scheme are to be treated in the same way as proceedings before a court.
- (5) A consumer protection condition may require postal operators—
  - (a) to provide information to OFCOM with respect to the levels of compliance with the standards for the handling of complaints, and
  - (b) to publish information about the number of complaints made about them (whether under an approved redress scheme or otherwise) and the way in which the complaints have been dealt with.
- (6) Requirements may be contained in the condition as to the times at which, and the manner in which, any information is to be published as a result of subsection (5)(b).
- (7) A consumer protection condition imposed on a universal service provider must include a requirement within subsection (5)(b).

- (d) a decision to give or modify a direction under section 89A or 116(2A) of the Postal Services Act 2000 (schemes as to terms and conditions for provision of postal services, and the Postcode Address File), or
  - (e) a decision to give a direction under section 25(5) of the Consumers, Estate Agents and Redress Act 2007 (enforcement of requirements to give information to the <sup>F48</sup>Citizens Advice etc).
- (2) A person affected by a qualifying decision may appeal against it to the Competition Appeal Tribunal (“the CAT”).
  - (3) The means of making an appeal is by sending the CAT a notice of appeal in accordance with rules made under section 15 of the Enterprise Act 2002.
  - (4) The notice of appeal must be sent within the period specified, in relation to the decision appealed against, in those rules.
  - (5) In determining an appeal under this section the CAT must apply the same principles as would be applied by a court on an application for judicial review.
  - (6) The CAT must either—
    - (a) dismiss the appeal, or
    - (b) quash the whole or part of the qualifying decision to which the appeal relates.
  - (7) If the CAT quashes the whole or part of a qualifying decision, it may refer the matter back to the person who made the decision with a direction to reconsider and make a new decision in accordance with its ruling.
  - (8) The CAT may not direct the person who made the decision to take any action that the person would not otherwise have the power to take in relation to the decision.
  - (9) Except in the case of a decision to impose a penalty, or give or modify a direction, under Schedule 4, 7 or 8, the effect of a qualifying decision is not suspended by the making of an appeal against the decision under this section.

59 Price control decisions U.K.

- (1) A person affected by a price control decision may appeal against it by sending a notice of appeal to OFCOM within the period of two months beginning with the day on which the decision is published.
- (2) The notice of appeal must set out the grounds of appeal in sufficient detail to indicate the error (or errors) which the appellant contends OFCOM made.
- (3) OFCOM must refer any appeal made in accordance with this section (and with rules made under section 60) to the [<sup>F49</sup>Competition and Markets Authority (“the CMA”)] as soon as reasonably practicable after it is made.
- (4) The making of an appeal against a decision does not suspend the effect of the decision.
- (5) The [<sup>F50</sup>CMA] must determine an appeal before the end of—
  - (a) the period of 4 months beginning with the day on which OFCOM refer the appeal to it, or
  - (b) if the decision appealed against is not an initial price control decision and the [<sup>F50</sup>CMA] considers that the circumstances of the case are exceptional, the period of 6 months beginning with that day.

If paragraph (b) applies, the [<sup>F50</sup>CMA] must, before the end of the period mentioned in paragraph (a), publish its reasons for considering that the circumstances of the case are exceptional.
- (6) On determining the appeal, the [<sup>F50</sup>CMA] must—
  - (a) dismiss the appeal,
  - (b) allow the appeal and make its own decision on the subject matter of the appeal, or
  - (c) quash the whole or part of the price control decision to which the appeal relates.
- (7) The [<sup>F50</sup>CMA] may allow the appeal, or quash the whole or part of the price control decision to which the appeal relates, only if it considers that OFCOM made a material error.
- (8) If the [<sup>F50</sup>CMA] quashes the whole or part of a price control decision, it may refer the matter back to OFCOM with a direction to reconsider and make a new decision in accordance with its ruling.
- (9) The [<sup>F50</sup>CMA] may not direct OFCOM to take any action that they would not otherwise have the power to take in relation to the decision.

- (10) OFCOM must give effect to any decision of the [F50CMA] under subsection (6)(b) as soon as is reasonably practicable after it is made.
- (11) The [F50CMA] may investigate any matter or do any other thing for the purpose of making a decision under subsection (6)(b) or (c).
- (12) Any decision made by the [F50CMA] under subsection (6) other than one relating to an initial price control decision is a qualifying decision for the purposes of section 57.
- [F51(12A) The CMA's functions with respect to an appeal under this section are to be carried out on its behalf by a group constituted for the purpose by the chair of the CMA under Schedule 4 to the Enterprise and Regulatory Reform Act 2013]
- (13) In this section—
- a “price control decision” means—
- (a) a decision of OFCOM as to the tariffs that are to be used as mentioned in section 36(4) (designated USP condition: tariffs), or
- (b) a decision of OFCOM (other than under Part 2 of Schedule 3) as to prices that may be charged for the giving of access under an access condition, and
- an “initial price control decision” means—
- (a) the first decision of OFCOM within paragraph (a) of the definition of “price control decision”, or
- (b) the first decision of OFCOM within paragraph (b) of that definition.

67 Review of Part 3 U.K.

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the review period, the Secretary of State must—
  - (a) carry out a review of the provisions of this Part, and
  - (b) set out the conclusions of the review in a report.
- (2) The report must, in particular—
  - (a) set out the objectives intended to be achieved by the regulatory system established by those provisions,
  - (b) assess the extent to which those objectives have been achieved, and
  - (c) assess whether those objectives remain appropriate and, if so, the extent to which they could be achieved with a system that imposed less regulation.
- (3) The review period is the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the provisions of this Part come generally into force.
- (4) The Secretary of State must lay the report before Parliament.

PART 4 U.K.

SPECIAL ADMINISTRATION REGIME

Postal administration orders

68 Postal administration orders U.K.

- (1) In this Part “postal administration order” means an order which—
  - (a) is made by the court in relation to a company which is a universal service provider, and
  - (b) directs that, while the order is in force, the company's affairs, business and property are to be managed by a person appointed by the court.
- (2) The person appointed in relation to a company for the purposes of a postal administration order is referred to in this Part as the postal administrator of the company.
- (3) The postal administrator of a company must—
  - (a) manage the company's affairs, business and property, and
  - (b) exercise and perform all the powers and duties conferred or imposed on the postal administrator of the company, so as to achieve the objective set out in section 69.
- (4) In relation to a postal administration order applying to a foreign company, references in this section to the company's affairs, business and property are references to its UK affairs, business and property.

69 Objective of a postal administration U.K.

- (1) The objective of a postal administration is to secure—
- (a) that a universal postal service is provided in accordance with the standards set out in the universal postal service order, and
  - (b) that it becomes unnecessary, by one or both of the following means, for the postal administration order to remain in force for that purpose.
- (2) Those means are—
- (a) the rescue as a going concern of the company subject to the order, and
  - (b) relevant transfers.
- (3) A transfer is a “relevant” transfer if it is a transfer as a going concern—
- (a) to another company, or
  - (b) as respects different parts of the undertaking of the company subject to the order, to two or more different companies,
- of so much of that undertaking as it is appropriate to transfer for the purpose of achieving the objective of the postal administration.
- (4) The means by which relevant transfers may be effected include, in particular—
- (a) a transfer of the undertaking of the company subject to the order, or of a part of its undertaking, to a wholly-owned subsidiary of that company, and
  - (b) a transfer to a company of securities of a wholly-owned subsidiary to which there has been a transfer within paragraph (a).
- In this subsection “wholly-owned subsidiary” has the meaning given by section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006.
- (5) The objective of a postal administration may be achieved by relevant transfers to the extent only that—
- (a) the rescue as a going concern of the company is not reasonably practicable or is not reasonably practicable without the transfers,
  - (b) the rescue of the company as a going concern will not achieve the objective of the postal administration or will not do so without the transfers,
  - (c) the transfers would produce a result for the company's creditors as a whole that is better than the result that would be produced without them, or
  - (d) the transfers would, without prejudicing the interests of the company's creditors as a whole, produce a result for the company's members as a whole that is better than the result that would be produced without them.

70 Applications for postal administration orders U.K.

- (1) An application for a postal administration order in relation to a company may be made only—
  - (a) by the Secretary of State, or
  - (b) with the consent of the Secretary of State, by OFCOM.
- (2) The applicant for a postal administration order in relation to a company must give notice of the application to—
  - (a) every person who has appointed an administrative receiver of the company,
  - (b) every person who is or may be entitled to appoint an administrative receiver of the company,
  - (c) every person who is or may be entitled to make an appointment in relation to the company under paragraph 14 of Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act (appointment of administrators by holders of floating charges), and
  - (d) such other persons as may be prescribed by postal administration rules.
- (3) The notice must be given as soon as reasonably practicable after the making of the application.
- (4) In this section “administrative receiver” means—
  - (a) an administrative receiver within the meaning given by section 251 of the 1986 Act for the purposes of Parts 1 to 7 of that Act, or
  - (b) a person whose functions in relation to a foreign company are equivalent to those of an administrative receiver and relate only to its UK affairs, business and property.

- (b) that, on a petition by the Secretary of State under section 124A of the 1986 Act, it would be just and equitable (disregarding the objective of the postal administration) to wind up the company in the public interest.
- (3) The court may not make a postal administration order on the ground set out in subsection (2)(b) unless the Secretary of State has certified to the court that the case is one in which the Secretary of State considers (disregarding the objective of the postal administration) that it would be appropriate to petition under section 124A of the 1986 Act.
- (4) The court has no power to make a postal administration order in relation to a company which—
  - (a) is in administration under Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act, or
  - (b) has gone into liquidation (within the meaning of section 247(2) of the 1986 Act).
- (5) A postal administration order comes into force—
  - (a) at the time appointed by the court, or
  - (b) if no time is appointed by the court, when the order is made.
- (6) An interim order under subsection (1)(d) may, in particular—
  - (a) restrict the exercise of a power of the company or of its directors, or
  - (b) make provision conferring a discretion on a person qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the company.
- (7) In the case of a foreign company, subsection (6)(a) is to be read as a reference to restricting the exercise of a power of the company or of its directors—
  - (a) within the United Kingdom, or
  - (b) in relation to the company's UK affairs, business or property.
- (8) For the purposes of this section a company is unable to pay its debts if—
  - (a) it is a company which is deemed to be unable to pay its debts under section 123 of the 1986 Act, or
  - (b) it is an unregistered company which is deemed, as a result of any of sections 222 to 224 of the 1986 Act, to be so unable for the purposes of section 221 of the 1986 Act, or which would be so deemed if it were an unregistered company for the purposes of those sections.

  - (b) subject to those interests, the interests of the company's members as a whole.
- (4) A person is not to be the postal administrator of a company unless qualified to act as an insolvency practitioner in relation to the company.
- (5) If the court appoints two or more persons as the postal administrator of a company, the appointment must set out—
  - (a) which (if any) of the powers and duties of a postal administrator are to be exercisable or performed only by the appointees acting jointly,
  - (b) the circumstances (if any) in which powers and duties of a postal administrator are to be exercisable, or may be performed, by one of the appointees, or by particular appointees, acting alone, and
  - (c) the circumstances (if any) in which things done in relation to one of the appointees, or in relation to particular appointees, are to be treated as done in relation to all of them.

76 Making of ordinary administration orders U.K.

- (1) This section applies if a person other than the Secretary of State makes an ordinary administration application in relation to a company which is a universal service provider.
- (2) The court must dismiss the application if—
  - (a) a postal administration order is in force in relation to the company, or
  - (b) a postal administration order has been made in relation to the company but is not yet in force.
- (3) If subsection (2) does not apply, the court, on hearing the application, must not exercise its powers under paragraph 13 of Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act (other than its power of adjournment) unless—
  - (a) notice of the application has been served on the Secretary of State and OFCOM,
  - (b) a period of at least 14 days has elapsed since the service of the last of those notices to be served, and
  - (c) there is no application for a postal administration order which is outstanding.
- (4) Paragraph 44 of Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act (interim moratorium) does not prevent, or require the permission of the court for, the making of an application for a postal administration order.
- (5) On the making of a postal administration order in relation to a company, the court must dismiss any ordinary administration application made in relation to the company which is outstanding.
- (6) In this section “ordinary administration application” means an application in accordance with paragraph 12 of Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act.

- (a) the whole of the sum has been repaid to the Secretary of State before the beginning of the year, and
  - (b) the company was not at any time during the year liable to pay interest on amounts that became due in respect of the sum.
- (10) The power of the Secretary of State to agree to indemnify persons—
- (a) is confined to a power to agree to indemnify persons in respect of liabilities, loss and damage incurred or sustained by them as relevant persons, but
  - (b) includes power to agree to indemnify persons (whether or not they are identified or identifiable at the time of the agreement) who subsequently become relevant persons.
- (11) The following are relevant persons for the purposes of this section—
- (a) the postal administrator,
  - (b) an employee of the postal administrator,
  - (c) a partner or employee of a firm of which the postal administrator is a partner,
  - (d) a partner or employee of a firm of which the postal administrator is an employee,
  - (e) a partner of a firm of which the postal administrator was an employee or partner at a time when the order was in force,
  - (f) a body corporate which is the employer of the postal administrator,
  - (g) an officer, employee or member of such a body corporate, and
  - (h) a Scottish firm which is the employer of the postal administrator or of which the postal administrator is a partner.
- (12) For the purposes of subsection (11)—
- (a) references to the postal administrator are to be read, where two or more persons are appointed as the postal administrator, as references to any one or more of them, and
  - (b) references to a firm of which a person was a partner or employee at a particular time include a firm which holds itself out to be the successor of a firm of which the person was a partner or employee at that time.
- (13) The Secretary of State must pay sums received as a result of subsection (5) into the Consolidated Fund.

83 Regulatory conditions to secure funding of postal administration order U.K.

- (1) The modifications that may be made under section 82 include, in particular, modifications of any price control provision contained in a regulatory condition for the purpose of raising such amounts as may be determined by the Secretary of State.
- (2) The modified condition may require the person on whom it is imposed to pay those amounts to such persons as may be so determined for the purpose of—
  - (a) their applying those amounts in making good any shortfall in the property available for meeting the expenses of the postal administration, or
  - (b) enabling those persons to secure that those amounts are so applied.
- (3) The modified condition may require the person on whom it is imposed to apply amounts paid to it as result of this section in making good any shortfall in the property available for meeting the expenses of the postal administration.
- (4) For the purposes of this section “price control provision” means—
  - (a) provision as to the tariffs that are to be used as mentioned in section 36(4) (designated USP condition: tariffs), or
  - (b) provision as to prices that may be charged for the giving of access under an access condition (within the meaning of Part 3).
- (5) For the purposes of this section—
  - (a) there is a shortfall in the property available for meeting the costs of a postal administration if the property available (apart from this section) for meeting relevant debts is insufficient for meeting them, and
  - (b) amounts are applied in making good that shortfall if they are paid in or towards discharging so much of a relevant debt as cannot be met out of the property otherwise available for meeting relevant debts.
- (6) In this section “relevant debt”, in relation to a case in which a company is or has been subject to a postal administration order, means an obligation—
  - (a) to make payments in respect of the expenses or remuneration of any person as the postal administrator of the company,
  - (b) to make a payment in discharge of a debt or other liability of the company arising out of a contract entered into at a time when the order was in force by the person who at that time was the postal administrator of the company,
  - (c) to repay the whole or a part of a grant made to the company under section 79,
  - (d) to repay a loan made to the company under section 79 or to pay interest on such a loan,
  - (e) to make a payment under section 80(5), or
  - (f) to make a payment under section 81(5).

PART 5 U.K.

GENERAL

89 Orders and regulations made by Ministers of Crown U.K.

- (1) This section applies to orders and regulations under this Act made by the Secretary of State, [<sup>F59</sup>the Minister for the Civil Service,] the Treasury or the Lord Chancellor.
- (2) Any order or regulations may—
  - (a) contain incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision, and
  - (b) make different provision for different cases or circumstances or for different areas.
- (3) Any order or regulations are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (4) Where any order or regulations are subject to “affirmative resolution procedure” the order or regulations may not be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the order or regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (5) Where any order is subject to “approval after being made”, the order—
  - (a) must be laid before Parliament after being made, and
  - (b) ceases to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which it was made unless, during that period, it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (6) In reckoning the period of 28 days no account is to be taken of any time—
  - (a) during which Parliament is dissolved or adjourned, or
  - (b) during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.
- (7) The order ceasing to have effect does not affect—
  - (a) anything previously done under it, or
  - (b) the making of a new order.
- (8) Where any order or regulations are subject to “negative resolution procedure” the statutory instrument containing the order or regulations is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (9) Any provision that may be made by any order or regulations subject to negative resolution procedure may be included in an order or regulations subject to affirmative resolution procedure (in which case negative resolution procedure does not apply to the order or regulations).
