50 The competition objective

- (1) The competition objective is to promote effective competition in—
  - (a) the market for payment systems, and
  - (b) the markets for services provided by payment systems, in the interests of those who use, or are likely to use, services provided by payment systems.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to promoting effective competition includes, in particular, promoting effective competition—
  - (a) between different operators of payment systems,
  - (b) between different payment service providers, and
  - (c) between different infrastructure providers.
- (3) The matters to which the Payment Systems Regulator may have regard in considering the effectiveness of competition in a market mentioned in subsection (1) include—
  - (a) the needs of different persons who use, or may use, services provided by payment systems;
  - (b) the ease with which persons who may wish to use those services can do so;
  - (c) the ease with which persons who obtain those services can change the person from whom they obtain them;
  - (d) the needs of different payment service providers or persons who wish to become payment service providers;
  - (e) the ease with which payment service providers, or persons who wish to become payment service providers, can provide services using payment systems;
  - (f) the ease with which payment service providers can change the payment system they use to provide their services;
  - (g) the needs of different infrastructure providers or persons who wish to become infrastructure providers;
  - (h) the ease with which infrastructure providers, or persons who wish to become infrastructure providers, can provide infrastructure for the purposes of operating payment systems;
  - (i) the needs of different operators of payment systems;
  - (j) the ease with which operators of payment systems can change the infrastructure used to operate the payment systems;
  - (k) the level and structure of fees, charges or other costs associated with participation in payment systems;
  - (l) the ease with which new entrants can enter the market;
