PART 2

ANNUITIES

Reduction of restrictions on new annuities

40 In paragraph 20 (definition of dependants' short-term annuity) after sub-paragraph (1) insert—

“(1ZA) For the purposes of this Part, but subject to any provision made under sub-paragraph (1C)(za), an annuity payable to a dependant is also a dependants' short-term annuity if—

- (a) it is purchased by the application of sums or assets representing the whole or any part of the dependant's drawdown pension fund, or of the dependant's flexi-access drawdown fund, in respect of an arrangement,
- (b) it is payable by an insurance company,
- (c) the dependant becomes entitled to it on or after 6 April 2015, and
- (d) it is payable for a term which does not exceed five years and ends before the dependant dies.”
