

Children and Families Act 2014

2014 CHAPTER 6

PART 3

CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE IN ENGLAND WITH SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS OR DISABILITIES

Education, health and care provision: integration and joint commissioning

25 Promoting integration

- (1) A local authority in England must exercise its functions under this Part with a view to ensuring the integration of educational provision and training provision with health care provision and social care provision, where it thinks that this would—
 - (a) promote the well-being of children or young people in its area who have special educational needs or a disability, or
 - (b) improve the quality of special educational provision—
 - (i) made in its area for children or young people who have special educational needs, or
 - (ii) made outside its area for children or young people for whom it is responsible who have special educational needs.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to the well-being of children and young people is to their well-being so far as relating to—
 - (a) physical and mental health and emotional well-being;
 - (b) protection from abuse and neglect;
 - (c) control by them over their day-to-day lives;
 - (d) participation in education, training or recreation;
 - (e) social and economic well-being;
 - (f) domestic, family and personal relationships;
 - (g) the contribution made by them to society.

26 Joint commissioning arrangements

- (1) A local authority in England and its partner commissioning bodies must make arrangements (“joint commissioning arrangements”) about the education, health and care provision to be secured for—
 - (a) children and young people for whom the authority is responsible who have special educational needs, and
 - (b) children and young people in the authority's area who have a disability.
- (2) In this Part “education, health and care provision” means—
 - (a) special educational provision;
 - (b) health care provision;
 - (c) social care provision.
- (3) Joint commissioning arrangements must include arrangements for considering and agreeing—
 - (a) the education, health and care provision reasonably required by—
 - (i) the learning difficulties and disabilities which result in the children and young people within subsection (1)(a) having special educational needs, and
 - (ii) the disabilities of the children and young people within subsection (1)(b);
 - (b) what education, health and care provision is to be secured;
 - (c) by whom education, health and care provision is to be secured;
 - (d) what advice and information is to be provided about education, health and care provision;
 - (e) by whom, to whom and how such advice and information is to be provided;
 - (f) how complaints about education, health and care provision may be made and are to be dealt with;
 - (g) procedures for ensuring that disputes between the parties to the joint commissioning arrangements are resolved as quickly as possible.
- (4) Joint commissioning arrangements about securing education, health and care provision must in particular include arrangements for—
 - (a) securing EHC needs assessments;
 - (b) securing the education, health and care provision specified in EHC plans;
 - (c) agreeing personal budgets under section 49.
- (5) Joint commissioning arrangements may also include other provision.
- (6) The parties to joint commissioning arrangements must—
 - (a) have regard to them in the exercise of their functions, and
 - (b) keep them under review.
