

Mutuals' Deferred Shares Act 2015

2015 CHAPTER 13

PROSPECTIVE

1 Power to permit or facilitate the issue of deferred shares

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations make provision to permit or facilitate the issue of deferred shares by a friendly society or mutual insurer.
- (2) “Deferred shares” are instruments that—
  - (a) are issued by a friendly society or mutual insurer (“the issuer”) with the consent of the appropriate authority,
  - (b) can be transferred but not withdrawn,
  - (c) prohibit repayment of principal other than—
    - (i) on the winding up or dissolution of the issuer where all other sums due from the issuer to creditors claiming in the winding up or dissolution are paid in full, or
    - (ii) where the appropriate authority has consented to the repayment, and
  - (d) have such characteristics as are specified in regulations made by the Treasury under this paragraph.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may modify any of the following—
  - (a) the Friendly Societies Act 1992 (as amended from time to time);
  - (b) the Companies Act 2006 (as amended from time to time);
  - (c) any other primary legislation relating to friendly societies or mutual insurers (whenever passed);
  - (d) any instrument made under the legislation mentioned in any of paragraphs (a) to (c) (whenever made).
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1)—
  - (a) may not make provision that would permit or facilitate the issue of deferred shares by a friendly society or mutual insurer where it is not authorised to do so by its memorandum, rules or constitution;
  - (b) may make consequential, supplementary, incidental, transitional or saving provision;

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Mutuals' Deferred Shares Act 2015. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) may make different provision for different purposes.
- (5) A deferred share issued by virtue of regulations made under subsection (1) is not a share within the meaning of the Companies Acts.
- (6) The power to make regulations under this section is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (7) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

2 Restriction on voting rights

- (1) Regulations under section 1(1) must make provision to ensure that no friendly society or mutual insurer will confer—
  - (a) more than one vote per person as a member on holders of deferred shares who are members of the society or insurer by virtue only of being such a holder;
  - (b) additional voting rights on a member of the society or insurer by virtue of being a holder of a deferred share where the member is a member other than by virtue of being such a holder.
- (2) Regulations under section 1(1) must make provision prohibiting the holder of a deferred share who is a member of a friendly society or mutual insurer by virtue only of being such a holder from proposing or voting in respect of any of the following—
  - (a) a resolution under section 85, 86 or 91 of the Friendly Societies Act 1992 (amalgamation, transfer of engagements or conversions);
  - (b) a resolution to similar effect in the case of a mutual insurer, including a compromise or arrangement proposed at a meeting called under section 896 [F1 or 901C] of the Companies Act 2006 (court order for holding of meeting);
  - (c) an arrangement made in pursuance of section 110 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (acceptance of shares etc as consideration for sale of company property) or Article 96 of the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989 / 2405 (N.I. 19));
  - (d) such other matters as the regulations may specify.
- (3) References in this section to the holder of a deferred share are to the holder of a deferred share issued by virtue of regulations made under section 1(1).
