REGULATION OF EXPENDITURE

PART 4

MEANING OF “PETITION EXPENSE”

Guidance

- 16 (1) The Electoral Commission (“the Commission”) may prepare, and from time to time revise, a code of practice giving—
- (a) guidance as to the cases or circumstances in which expenses are, or are not, within paragraph 13(1)(a);
 - (b) guidance as to the matters which are, or are not, within paragraph 14 or 15.
- (2) Once the Commission have prepared a draft code under this paragraph, they must submit it to the Minister for approval.
- (3) The Minister may approve a draft code either without modification or with such modifications as the Minister may determine.
- (4) Once the Minister has approved a draft code, the Minister must lay before Parliament—
- (a) a copy of the draft, incorporating any modifications determined under sub-paragraph (3), and
 - (b) if the draft incorporates any such modifications, a statement of the Minister's reasons for making them.
- (5) If, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve the draft, neither the Minister nor the Commission are to take any further step in relation to the draft code.
- (6) If no such resolution is made within the 40-day period—
- (a) the Commission must arrange for the code to be published, in such manner as they think appropriate, and
 - (b) the code comes into force on such date as the Minister may by regulations appoint.
- (7) Sub-paragraph (5) does not prevent a new draft code from being laid before Parliament.
- (8) In this paragraph “the 40-day period”, in relation to a draft code, means—
- (a) if the draft is laid before the two Houses of Parliament on different days, the period of 40 days beginning with the later of the two days, and
