CREATION OF THE OPTION

Register of directors and register of directors' residential addresses

7 After section 167 insert—

“Option to keep information on the central register

167A Right to make an election

- (1) An election may be made under this section in respect of a register of directors or a register of directors' residential addresses (or both).
- (2) The election may be made—
  - (a) by the subscribers wishing to form a private company under this Act, or
  - (b) by the private company itself once it is formed and registered.
- (3) The election is made by giving notice of election to the registrar.
- (4) If the notice is given by subscribers wishing to form a private company, it must be given when the documents required to be delivered under section 9 are delivered to the registrar.

167B Effective date of election

- (1) An election made under section 167A takes effect when the notice of election is registered by the registrar.
- (2) The election remains in force until either—
  - (a) the company ceases to be a private company, or
  - (b) a notice of withdrawal sent by the company under section 167E is registered by the registrar,whichever occurs first.

167C Effect of election on obligations under sections 162 to 167

- (1) If an election is in force under section 167A with respect to a company, the company's obligations under sections 162 to 167—

Status: Point in time view as at 30/06/2016.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Small Business, Enterprise and Employment Act 2015, Paragraph 7. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) to keep and maintain a register of the relevant kind, and
  - (b) to notify the registrar of changes to it,
- do not apply with respect to the period when the election is in force.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to a register “of the relevant kind” is to a register (whether a register of directors or a register of directors' residential addresses) of the kind in respect of which the election is made.

167D Duty to notify registrar of changes

- (1) The duty under subsection (2) applies during the period when an election under section 167A is in force.
- (2) The company must deliver to the registrar—
- (a) any information of which the company would during that period have been obliged to give notice under section 167, had the election not been in force, and
  - (b) any statement that would have had to accompany such a notice.
- (3) The information (and any accompanying statement) must be delivered as soon as reasonably practicable after the company becomes aware of the information and, in any event, no later than the time by which the company would have been required under section 167 to give notice of the information.
- (4) If default is made in complying with this section, an offence is committed by—
- (a) the company, and
  - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.

For this purpose a shadow director is treated as an officer of the company.

- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
- (a) in England and Wales, to a fine and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding the greater of £500 and one-tenth of level 4 on the standard scale;
  - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.

167E Withdrawing the election

- (1) A company may withdraw an election made by or in respect of it under section 167A.
- (2) Withdrawal is achieved by giving notice of withdrawal to the registrar.
- (3) The withdrawal takes effect when the notice is registered by the registrar.
- (4) The effect of withdrawal is that the company's obligation under section 162 or (as the case may be) 165 to keep and maintain a register of the relevant kind, and its obligation under section 167 to notify the registrar of changes to that register, apply from then on with respect to the period going forward.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/06/2016.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Small Business, Enterprise and Employment Act 2015, Paragraph 7. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (5) This means that, when the withdrawal takes effect—
- (a) the company must enter in that register all the information that is required to be contained in that register in respect of matters that are current as at that time, but
  - (b) the company is not required to enter in its register information relating to the period when the election was in force that is no longer current.

167F Power to extend option to public companies

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend this Act—
- (a) to extend sections 167A to 167E (with or without modification) to public companies or public companies of a class specified in the regulations, and
  - (b) to make such other amendments as the Secretary of State thinks fit in consequence of that extension.
- (2) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.”
