Failure to comply with a time limit

- 27 A failure to do anything required by this Part to be done within a limited period of time goes not give rise to liability to a penalty if it is done within such further time (if any) as an officer of Revenue and Customs may have allowed.

Reasonable excuse

- 28 (1) Liability to a penalty for a failure does not arise if the person who would otherwise be liable to that penalty satisfies HMRC or (on an appeal notified to the tribunal) the tribunal that the person had a reasonable excuse for that failure.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph—
- (a) an insufficiency of funds is not a reasonable excuse unless attributable to events outside the person's control,
 - (b) where the person relies on another person to do anything, that cannot be a reasonable excuse—
 - (i) unless the first person took reasonable care to avoid the failure, or
 - (ii) if the first person is a UK group or UK sub-group, where the person relied on is another member of the group or sub-group,
 - (c) where the person had a reasonable excuse but the excuse has ceased, the person is to be treated as having continued to have the excuse if the failure is remedied without unreasonable delay after the excuse ceased.

Assessment of penalties

- 29 (1) Where a person becomes liable to a penalty—
- (a) HMRC may assess the penalty, and
 - (b) if they do so, HMRC must notify the person of the assessment.
- (2) An assessment of a penalty may not be made—
- (a) more than 6 months after the failure first comes to the attention of an officer of Revenue and Customs, or
 - (b) more than 6 years after the end of the financial year in which the tax strategy to which the failure relates was (or was originally) required to be published.

Appeal

- 30 (1) A person may appeal against a decision of HMRC that a penalty is payable by that person.
- (2) Notice of an appeal must be given—
- (a) in writing,
 - (b) before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which the notification under paragraph 29(1)(b) was issued,
- (3) Notice of an appeal must state the grounds of appeal.
- (4) On an appeal that is notified to the tribunal, the tribunal may confirm or cancel the decision.

- (5) Subject to this paragraph and paragraph 31, the provisions of Part 5 of TMA 1970 relating to appeals have effect in relation to appeals under this Schedule as they have effect in relation to an appeal against an assessment to income tax.

Enforcement

- 31 (1) A penalty must be paid—
- (a) before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which the notification under paragraph 29(1)(b) was issued, or
 - (b) if a notice of appeal is given, before the end of 30 days beginning with the day on which the appeal is determined or withdrawn.
- (2) A penalty may be enforced as if it were corporation tax charged in an assessment and due and payable.

Power to change amount of penalties

- 32 (1) If it appears to the Treasury that there has been a change in the value of money since the last relevant date, they may by regulations substitute for any sums for the time being specified in paragraph 18, 21 or 24 such other sum as appear to them to be justified by the change.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1) “relevant date” means—
- (a) the date on which this Act is passed, and
 - (b) each date on which the power conferred by that sub-paragraph has been exercised.
- (3) Regulations under this paragraph do not apply to a failure that occurs in respect of a financial year (of the body or partnership responsible for the failure) that begins before the date on which they come into force.

Application of provisions of TMA 1970

- 33 Subject to the provisions of this Part, the following provisions of TMA 1970 apply for the purposes of this Part as they apply for the purposes of the Taxes Acts—
- (a) section 108 (responsibility of company officers),
 - (b) section 114 (want of form), and
 - (c) section 115 (delivery and service of documents).

Meaning of “tax strategy”

- 37 (1) A member of a UK group has, or two or more members of a UK group (taken together) have, “satisfied the behaviour condition” if it has, or they have, behaved in a manner which has delayed or otherwise hindered HMRC in the exercise of their functions in connection with determining the liability to UK taxation of the group or a member of the group.
- (2) Factors which may indicate that a member of a UK group has behaved as described in sub-paragraph (1) include—
- (a) the extent to which HMRC have used statutory powers to obtain information relating to the UK group or members of the group;
 - (b) the reasons why those powers have been used;

 - (b) expires (if not previously withdrawn) at the end of the period of 15 months beginning with the day on which it was given.
- (4) Once a warning notice has been given —
- (a) it is immaterial for the purposes of this Part whether the group remains a qualifying group,
 - (b) the identity of the group is not to be regarded as altered by any change in its membership resulting from a relevant body—
 - (i) becoming a 51% subsidiary of a member of the group, or
 - (ii) ceasing to be a 51% subsidiary of another member of the group; and
 - (c) if the group becomes a UK sub-group of a foreign group it is to be treated as if it were still a UK group.

- the group has engaged in unco-operative behaviour (see paragraphs 36 to 38), and

- (b) during the period of 7 months beginning with the expiry day, a designated HMRC officer has notified the head of the group that the power under this paragraph may be exercised in relation to the group, and
