PART 3

SANCTIONS FOR PERSISTENTLY UNCO-OPERATIVE LARGE BUSINESSES

Sanctions: Commissioners publishing information

- 49 (1) If a group is subject to a confirmed special measures notice, the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (“the Commissioners”) may publish the following information—
- (a) the name of the group, including any previous name;
 - (b) the address or registered office of the head of the group;
 - (c) any other information that the Commissioners consider it appropriate to publish in order to identify the group;
 - (d) the fact that the group is subject to a confirmed special measures notice.
- (2) A group is “subject to a confirmed special measures notice” if sub-paragraph (3) or (4) is satisfied.
- (3) This sub-paragraph is satisfied if—
- (a) a special measures notice has been given to the head of the group and confirmed under paragraph 44, and
 - (b) the special measures notice is in force.
- (4) This sub-paragraph is satisfied if—
- (a) a special measures notice has been given to the head of the group and confirmed under paragraph 44,
 - (b) that notice has ceased to have effect,
 - (c) a further special measures notice has been given to the head of the group under paragraph 45 in the period of 9 months beginning with the day on which the special measures notice mentioned in paragraph (a) ceased to have effect, and
 - (d) that notice is in force.
- (5) Before publishing the information, the Commissioners must—
- (a) inform the head of the group that they are considering doing so, and
 - (b) allow the head of the group a reasonable opportunity to make representations about whether the information should be published.
- (6) If, after information about a group is published under this paragraph, the group ceases to be subject to a confirmed special measures notice, the Commissioners must publish
