

Finance Act 2016

2016 CHAPTER 24

PART 6

APPRENTICESHIP LEVY

Payment, collection and recovery

108 Time limits for assessment

- (1) The general rule is that no assessment under regulations under section 105 may be made more than 4 years after the end of the tax year to which it relates.
- (2) An assessment on a person in a case of loss of apprenticeship levy brought about carelessly by the person may be made at any time not more than 6 years after the end of the tax year to which it relates.
- (3) An assessment on a person in a case falling within subsection (4) may be made at any time not more than 20 years after the end of the tax year to which it relates.
- (4) A case falls within this subsection if it involves a loss of apprenticeship levy—
 - (a) brought about deliberately by the person,
 - (b) attributable to arrangements in respect of which the person has failed to comply with an obligation under section 309, 310 or 313 of FA 2004 (obligation of parties to tax avoidance schemes to provide information to HMRC), or
 - (c) attributable to arrangements which were expected to give rise to a tax advantage in respect of which the person was under an obligation to notify the Commissioners under section 253 of FA 2014 (duty to notify Commissioners of promoter reference number) but failed to do so.
- (5) An assessment made by virtue of section 105(6) (amounts of levy repaid which ought not to have been repaid etc) is not out of time as a result of subsection (1) if it is made before the end of the tax year following that in which the amount assessed was repaid or paid (as the case may be).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (6) Subsections (2), (3) and (5) do not limit one another’s application.
- (7) An objection to the making of an assessment on the ground that the time limit for making it has expired may only be made on an appeal against the assessment.
- (8) In subsections (2) and (4) references to a loss brought about by a person include a loss brought about by another person acting on behalf of that person.
