

Counter-Terrorism and Sentencing Act 2021

2021 CHAPTER 11

PART 3

PREVENTION AND INVESTIGATION OF TERRORISM

Serious crime prevention orders

43 Police powers to apply for serious crime prevention orders in terrorism cases

Schedule 12 amends the Serious Crime Act 2007 to make provision conferring powers on chief officers of police to apply for serious crime prevention orders in terrorism-related cases.

44 Serious crime prevention orders: review of operation of police powers

- (1) The Secretary of State must—
 - (a) review the operation of the amendments made by this Act to the Serious Crime Act 2007 (see Schedule 12), and
 - (b) publish the outcome of the review in a report.
- (2) The report must be published before the end of the period of 3 years beginning with the day on which section 43 comes into force.
- (3) The Secretary of State must lay the report before Parliament.
