

Building Safety Act 2022

2022 CHAPTER 30

PART 1

INTRODUCTION

1 Overview of Act

- (1) This Act has 6 Parts, and contains provisions intended to secure the safety of people in or about buildings and to improve the standard of buildings.
- (2) Part 2 contains provision about the building safety regulator and its functions in relation to buildings in England.
- (3) Part 3 amends the Building Act 1984.
- (4) Amendments made by Part 3—
 - (a) provide that the regulator is the building control authority in relation to higher-risk buildings in England, and
 - (b) require the regulator (for England) and the Welsh Ministers (for Wales) to establish and maintain registers of building control approvers and building inspectors.
- (5) Part 4 is about occupied higher-risk buildings in England, and imposes duties on accountable persons.
- (6) Part 5 contains further provisions, including—
 - (a) provisions about remediation and redress;
 - (b) provision requiring a new homes ombudsman scheme to be established;
 - (c) powers to make provision about construction products;
 - (d) further provision about fire safety;
 - (e) provision about the regulation of architects;
 - (f) provision about housing complaints.
- (7) Part 6 contains general provisions.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

PART 2

THE REGULATOR AND ITS FUNCTIONS

The regulator and its general functions

2 The building safety regulator

- (1) In this Part “the regulator” means the Health and Safety Executive.
- (2) Schedule 1 contains amendments of provisions of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 that relate to the regulator.

Commencement Information

I2 S. 2(1) in force at Royal Assent, see s. 170\(1\)\(b\)

I3 S. 2(2) in force at Royal Assent for specified purposes, see s. 170\(2\)\(a\)

I4 S. 2\(2\) in force at 28.6.2022 in so far as not already in force by S.I. 2022/561, regs. 1\(2\), 3\(a\)

3 The regulator: objectives and regulatory principles

- (1) The regulator must exercise its building functions with a view to—
 - (a) securing the safety of people in or about buildings in relation to risks arising from buildings, and
 - (b) improving the standard of buildings.
- (2) In exercising a building function (other than an excepted function), the regulator must have regard to the following principles—
 - (a) regulatory activities should be carried out in a way which is transparent, accountable, proportionate and consistent, and
 - (b) regulatory activities should be targeted only at cases in which action is needed.
- (3) The duty in subsection \(2\) is subject to any other requirement affecting the exercise of the function.
- (4) In subsection \(2\) “excepted function” means—
 - (a) a function under any of sections 4 to 6, or
 - (b) a function of the regulator under the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 so far as relating to any such function.
- (5) In this Part “building function” means—
 - (a) any function of the regulator under, or under an instrument made under, this Act or the Building Act 1984;
 - (b) any prescribed function of the regulator;

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) any function of the regulator under the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 so far as relating to a function within paragraph \(a\) or \(b\).

Commencement Information

- I5 S. 3 in force at Royal Assent for specified purposes, see s. 170\(2\)\(a\)

4 Duty to facilitate building safety: higher-risk buildings

- (1) The regulator must provide such assistance and encouragement to relevant persons as it considers appropriate with a view to facilitating their securing the safety of people in or about higher-risk buildings in relation to building safety risks as regards those buildings.
- (2) The assistance and encouragement that must be provided under subsection (1) includes, in particular, assistance and encouragement with a view to facilitating securing the safety of disabled people in or about higher-risk buildings in relation to building safety risks as regards those buildings.
- (3) For this purpose “relevant persons” means—
- residents of higher-risk buildings within the meaning of Part 4,
 - owners of residential units in such buildings,
 - persons who are accountable persons within the meaning of Part 4, and
 - persons upon whom duties are imposed by virtue of paragraph 5B of Schedule 1 to the Building Act 1984 (dutyholders).
- (4) In subsections (1) and (2)—
- “building safety risk” has the meaning given by section 62;
- “disabled”: see section 30;
- “higher-risk building” means—
- a higher-risk building within the meaning of Part 4 (see section 65), or
 - a higher-risk building within the meaning of the Building Act 1984.
- (5) Parts 3 and 4 confer further functions on the regulator in relation to higher-risk buildings.

Commencement Information

- I7 S. 4 in force at Royal Assent for specified purposes, see s. 170\(2\)\(a\)
I8 S. 4\(1\)\(2\)\(3\)\(4\) in force at 1.12.2022 in so far as not already in force by S.I. 2022/1210, reg. 2\(a\) (with reg. 3)
I9 S. 4\(5\) in force at 1.10.2023 in so far as not already in force by S.I. 2023/993, reg. 2\(a\)

5 Duty to keep safety and standard of buildings under review

The regulator must keep under review—

- the safety of people in or about buildings in relation to risks as regards buildings, and
- the standard of buildings.

*Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 7 Proposals and consultation relating to regulations

- (1) This section applies to regulations under—
- (a) this Part, or
 - (b) any provision of Part 4 except section 62, 65 or 68.
- (2) The regulator may at any time make proposals to the Secretary of State for the making of regulations.
- (3) Before making a proposal, the regulator must consult such persons as it considers appropriate.
- (4) Before making regulations, other than regulations proposed by the regulator, the Secretary of State must consult—
- (a) the regulator, and
 - (b) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

Commencement Information

- I14 S. 7 in force at Royal Assent, see s. 170\(1\)\(c\)

8 Duty to establish system for giving of building safety information

- (1) The regulator must make arrangements for a person to establish and operate a voluntary occurrence reporting system.
- (2) A “voluntary occurrence reporting system” is a system to facilitate the voluntary giving of information about building safety to the person who operates the system.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

11 Residents' panel

- (1) The regulator must exercise its powers under section 11A(3) of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 to establish and maintain a committee with the functions mentioned in this section (and any other function that the regulator considers appropriate).
- (2) The committee is to consist of—
 - (a) such residents of higher-risk buildings as the regulator considers appropriate, and
 - (b) such relevant persons (if any) as it considers appropriate.
- (3) The regulator must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the committee includes—
 - (a) one or more residents of a higher-risk building who are disabled,
 - (b) a body that represents, supports or promotes the interests of any description of disabled people that includes residents of higher-risk buildings, or
 - (c) a member of a body within paragraph (b).
- (4) The committee is to give advice to the regulator about such matters connected with the regulator's building functions and relating to higher-risk buildings as the regulator may specify.
- (5) The regulator must consult the committee before issuing or revising any of the following—
 - (a) guidance to residents of higher-risk buildings about any of their rights or obligations under Part 4 or regulations made under that Part;
 - (b) guidance relating to any duty under regulations made under section 89 to give information or documents to residents of higher-risk buildings or owners of residential units in such buildings;
 - (c) guidance relating to any of sections 91 to 93 or 95 or regulations made under any of those sections (engagement with residents etc, and residents' duties).
- (6) If the committee has not been established at a time when the regulator has prepared guidance to which subsection \(5\) applies—
 - (a) that subsection has effect as if it did not require the committee to be consulted before the guidance is issued, and
 - (b) the committee must be consulted in relation to the issued guidance as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (7) See also—
 - (a) section 17\(3\) (duty to consult committee about regulator's strategic plan);
 - (b) section 94\(2\) (duty to consult committee about regulator's complaints system).
- (8) In this section—

“higher-risk building” has the same meaning as in Part 4 (see section 65);

“relevant person” means—

Staffing etc

13 Local authorities and fire and rescue authorities: assistance etc to regulator

- (1) A relevant authority may at the request of the regulator do anything for the purpose of—
 - (a) facilitating the exercise by the regulator of a relevant function, or
 - (b) enabling the relevant authority to facilitate the exercise by the regulator of a relevant function.
- (2) The regulator may, for a purpose mentioned in paragraph \(a\) or \(b\) of subsection \(1\), direct a relevant authority to do anything specified in the direction.
- (3) The direction may specify the way in which, and the time by which, the thing is to be done.
- (4) A direction—
 - (a) may be given only if the regulator considers that it is expedient for the authority to do the specified thing, and

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) must state how, in the regulator’s opinion, the doing of the thing will facilitate the exercise of a relevant function or enable the authority to facilitate that exercise.
- (5) A direction may be given only with the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (6) Before giving a direction, the regulator must—
- (a) make a written request under subsection \(1\) for the authority to do the thing, and
 - (b) have regard to any written representations made by the authority in the period specified in the request.
- (7) A request under subsection \(6\)\(a\) must—
- (a) state that the regulator may seek consent to give a direction under this section if the request is not complied with,
 - (b) state how, in the regulator’s opinion, the doing of the thing will facilitate the exercise of a relevant function or enable the authority to facilitate that exercise, and
 - (c) specify a reasonable period for the authority to make any representations as to why it should not do the thing requested.
- (8) In this section—
- “relevant authority” means a local authority or fire and rescue authority;
 - “relevant function” means—
- (a) a function of the regulator relating to—
 - (i) the regulation of higher-risk buildings (within the meaning of the Building Act 1984 or Part 4 of this Act), or
 - (ii) higher-risk building work (as defined by section 91ZA of the Building Act 1984), or
 - (b) in the case of a local authority, a function of the regulator relating to the regulation of any work for which the regulator is the building control authority by virtue of section 91ZB of the Building Act 1984.
- (9) A direction or consent under this section must be in writing.

Plans and reports

17 Strategic plan

- (1) The regulator must—
- (a) prepare a strategic plan, and
 - (b) submit it to the Secretary of State for approval.
- (2) A “strategic plan” is a plan setting out how the regulator proposes to carry out its building functions in the period to which the plan relates.
- (3) Before submitting it, the regulator must consult—
- (a) the committee mentioned in section 11 (residents’ panel), and
 - (b) such other persons as the regulator considers appropriate.
- (4) The Secretary of State may approve the plan, with or without modifications.
- (5) Before approving the plan with modifications, the Secretary of State must consult the regulator.
- (6) The regulator must publish the approved plan, and act in accordance with it.
- (7) The first plan—
- (a) must be submitted as soon as reasonably practicable after this section comes into force, and
 - (b) must relate to a period ending with the third 31 March to occur after the day on which it is submitted.
- (8) If the committee mentioned in section 11 has not been established at the time the first plan is prepared—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) subsection \(3\) has effect as if it did not require the committee to be consulted before the plan is submitted, and
 - (b) the committee must be consulted in relation to the first approved plan as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (9) Any other plan—
- (a) must be submitted before the end of the period to which the most recent approved plan relates (“the current period”), and
 - (b) must relate to the period of three years, or such other period as the Secretary of State and the regulator may agree, beginning immediately after the end of the current period.

18 Revised strategic plans

- (1) This section supplements section 17.
- (2) The regulator may at any time in the period to which a plan relates—
 - (a) prepare a revised plan relating to the remainder of that period (or to such other period as the Secretary of State and the regulator may agree), and
 - (b) submit it to the Secretary of State for approval.
- (3) The Secretary of State may at any time during the period to which a plan relates require the regulator to submit a revised plan for approval.
- (4) Where such a requirement is made, the revised plan—
 - (a) must be submitted as soon as reasonably practicable, and
 - (b) must relate to the remainder of the period to which the current plan relates (or to such other period as the Secretary of State and the regulator may agree).
- (5) Section 17(3) to (6) apply in relation to a revised plan.
- (6) If approved, the revised plan replaces the current plan.
- (7) In this section—
 - “current plan” means the first plan mentioned in subsection \(2\) or (3) (as the case may be);
 - “plan” means a strategic plan as defined by section 17.

20 Statement of regulator’s engagement with residents etc

- (1) The regulator must, at least once each financial year, publish a statement about its engagement with—
 - (a) the committee mentioned in section 11 (residents’ panel),
 - (b) residents of higher-risk buildings,
 - (c) owners of residential units in higher-risk buildings, and
 - (d) bodies that represent, support or promote—
 - (i) the interests of any description of residents of higher-risk buildings or owners of residential units in such buildings, or
 - (ii) the interests of persons including any description of such residents or owners.
- (2) A statement under subsection (1) must, in particular, include information about the regulator’s engagement with residents of higher-risk buildings who are disabled.
- (3) A statement under subsection \(1\) may be published by including it in the regulator’s annual report.
- (4) In this section—

“annual report” means the report made under paragraph 10(3) of Schedule 2 to the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974;

“higher-risk building” means—

 - (a) a higher-risk building within the meaning of Part 4, or
 - (b) a higher-risk building within the meaning of the Building Act 1984.

21 Report on certain safety-related matters

- (1) Before the end of the period of three years beginning when this section comes into force, the regulator must—
 - (a) carry out a cost-benefit analysis of making regular inspections of, and testing and reporting on, the condition of electrical installations in relevant buildings;
 - (b) consider what further provision under the Building Act 1984, or in guidance under that Act, may be made about—
 - (i) stairs and ramps in relevant buildings,
 - (ii) emergency egress of disabled persons from relevant buildings, and
 - (iii) automatic water fire suppression systems in relevant buildings,with a view to improving the safety of persons in or about relevant buildings, and carry out a cost-benefit analysis of the making of that provision.
- (2) Before the end of that period, the regulator must—
 - (a) prepare one or more reports about the analysis mentioned in subsection (1) (which may also contain recommendations), and
 - (b) give them to the Secretary of State.
- (3) The Secretary of State must publish any report received under subsection (2).
- (4) In this section “cost-benefit analysis” means—
 - (a) an analysis of the costs together with an analysis of the benefits that will arise if the things mentioned in subsection (1)(a) are done or the provision mentioned in subsection (1)(b) is made, and
 - (b) an estimate of those costs and of those benefits (subject to subsection (5)).
- (5) If, in the opinion of the regulator—
 - (a) the costs or benefits cannot reasonably be estimated, or
 - (b) it is not reasonably practicable to produce an estimate,the cost-benefit analysis need not estimate them, but must include a statement of the regulator’s opinion and an explanation of it.
- (6) In this section—

“electrical installation” means fixed electrical cables or fixed electrical equipment located on the consumer’s side of the electricity supply meter;

“relevant building” means a residential building or any other kind of building that the regulator considers appropriate.

Enforcement

22 Authorised officers

- (1) The regulator may authorise a person in relation to specified paragraphs of Schedule 2 (investigatory powers), for the purposes of any specified relevant building function.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A person may be authorised in relation to a paragraph of the Schedule only if they appear to the regulator to be suitably qualified to exercise any power conferred by virtue of that paragraph or do anything else mentioned in that paragraph.
- (3) An authorisation—
- (a) must be in writing;
 - (b) may be varied or revoked by an instrument in writing.
- (4) When exercising or seeking to exercise a power conferred by virtue of Schedule 2, an authorised officer must if asked produce the authorisation (including any instrument varying it) or a duly authenticated copy.
- (5) In this section—
- “authorised officer” means a person in respect of whom an authorisation under this section is in force;
- “relevant building function” means any function of the regulator under, or under an instrument made under—
- (a) Part 4 of this Act (higher-risk buildings), or
 - (b) the Building Act 1984;
- “specified” means specified in the authorisation.

24 Provision of false or misleading information to regulator

- (1) A person commits an offence if they provide false or misleading information to the regulator—
 - (a) in purported compliance with a building enactment or a requirement imposed by virtue of such an enactment,
 - (b) in connection with an application made to the regulator under a building enactment, or
 - (c) for the purpose of avoiding enforcement action being taken or continued, and the person knows that, or is reckless as to whether, the information is false or misleading.
- (2) In this section—

“building enactment” means any provision of, or of an instrument made under—

 - (a) Part 2 or 4 of this Act, or
 - (b) the Building Act 1984;

“enforcement action” means action taken with a view to, or in connection with—

 - (a) securing compliance with a building enactment or a requirement imposed by virtue of such an enactment, or
 - (b) the imposition of a sanction in respect of a contravention of any such enactment or requirement.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both).

Reviews and appeals

25 Review by regulator of certain decisions made by it

- (1) This section applies in relation to a prescribed decision of the regulator.
- (2) A prescribed person may, before the end of a period prescribed for the purposes of this subsection, give a notice to the regulator requiring it to carry out a review of the decision in accordance with this section.
- (3) A notice under subsection \(2\) must—
 - (a) contain prescribed information,
 - (b) be in the prescribed form, and
 - (c) be given in the prescribed way.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The nature and extent of the review are to be such as appear to the regulator to be appropriate in the circumstances.
- (5) The review must take account of any representations made, or information given, by the person at a stage which gives the regulator a reasonable opportunity to consider the representations or information (and may take account of any other information).
- (6) On the conclusion of the review the regulator must either uphold or vary the decision.
- (7) The regulator must notify the person of the outcome of the review and its reasoning before the end of a period prescribed for the purposes of this subsection or such other period as may be agreed in writing (“the relevant period”).
- (8) Where the regulator is required to undertake a review but does not notify the person by the end of the relevant period—
 - (a) the review is treated as having concluded at the end of that period, and the regulator is treated as having upheld the decision, and
 - (b) the regulator must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of that period, notify the person of that fact.
- (9) The decisions that may be prescribed under subsection \(1\) are any decisions of the regulator under, or under an instrument made under, this Act or the Building Act 1984 except—
 - (a) a decision made on an appeal to the regulator, or
 - (b) a decision to do any of the following—
 - (i) give a compliance notice under section 99 of this Act;
 - (ii) give a notice under section 35B, 35C or 36 of the Building Act 1984 (notices in respect of contraventions of building regulations etc);
 - (iii) make a disciplinary order under section 58I or 58U, or an order under section 58J or 58V, of that Act (misconduct of registered building inspector or building control approver);
 - (iv) give a notice under section 58Z4 or 58Z5, or act under section 58Z6 or 58Z7, of that Act (contravention of operational standards rules).

26 Right of appeal: requirement for review before appeal

- (1) This section applies to a right of appeal against a decision of a kind prescribed under subsection \(1\) of section 25.
- (2) The right of appeal may be exercised only if the decision has been reviewed under that section.
- (3) If on the conclusion of the review the decision is varied, the right of appeal is in respect of the decision as varied (and not the original decision).
- (4) For the purpose of any time limit as regards the exercise of the right of appeal—
 - (a) the decision is treated as made on the day on which the review concludes, and

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Supplementary and general

27 Cooperation and information sharing

- (1) Schedule 3—
- (a) imposes duties of cooperation on the regulator and other persons, and
 - (b) confers powers to share information on the regulator and other persons.
- (2) Except as provided by subsection \(3\), the disclosure of information under Schedule 3 does not breach—
- (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (3) Schedule 3 does not authorise a disclosure of information if the disclosure would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, take into account the powers conferred by the Schedule).

28 Fees and charges

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision authorising the regulator—
- (a) to charge fees, and
 - (b) to recover charges,
- for or in connection with the performance of a relevant function.
- (2) The regulations may—
- (a) prescribe a fee or charge, or
 - (b) provide for the amount of a fee or charge to be determined by the regulator in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may in particular—
- (a) provide that the amount of any charge is to be determined by the regulator in accordance with a scheme made and published by it, and
 - (b) make provision about such schemes, including the principles to be embodied in such schemes.
- (4) The regulations may make provision about the effect of failing to pay a fee or charge in accordance with the regulations.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In this section “relevant function” means —
- (a) any function of the regulator under, or under regulations made under, this Part or Part 4, or
 - (b) any function of the regulator under the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 that is a building function.
- (6) The regulator may—
- (a) with the consent of the Secretary of State, provide services to a person in connection with any matter relating to buildings;
 - (b) charge fees for such services at a rate agreed with the person.
- (7) Nothing in subsection \(6\) limits any other power of the regulator to charge for a service provided by it.

Commencement Information

29 Service of documents

- (1) This section applies to a document required or authorised under this Part or Part 4, or regulations under either Part, to be given to a person; but this is subject to subsection \(11\).
- (2) The document may be given by—
- (a) delivering it by hand to the person,
 - (b) leaving it at the person’s proper address,
 - (c) sending it by post to the person at their proper address, or
 - (d) sending it by email to an electronic address at which the person has agreed to receive documents or has agreed to receive the document.
- (3) The document may—
- (a) in the case of a body corporate, be given in accordance with subsection \(2\) to an officer of the body;
 - (b) in the case of a partnership, be given in accordance with subsection \(2\) to a partner.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the “proper address” of a person (except an authorised officer of the regulator) is—
- (a) in the case of a document to be given by or on behalf of the regulator to a person who has provided an address for service to the regulator, that address;
 - (b) subject to that—
 - (i) in the case of a body corporate (including a document given to an officer of the body), the address of its registered or principal office;
 - (ii) in the case of a partnership (including a document given to a partner), the address of its principal office;
 - (iii) in the case of any other person, their last known address.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, the “proper address” of an authorised officer of the regulator is—

- (a) the address specified by the officer, or
 - (b) if no address is specified, the address of the regulator’s principal office.
- (6) If—
- (a) the document is to be given to the person as the owner of any premises, a resident of any premises, or the accountable person of a higher-risk building, and
 - (b) the person’s name and proper address is not known, despite reasonable steps having been taken to ascertain it,
- the document may be given by addressing it to the owner or resident of the premises (naming the premises) or the accountable person of the building (naming the building) and fixing it to a conspicuous part of the premises or building.
- (7) A document left as mentioned in subsection \(2\)\(b\) is treated as given when it was left.
- (8) A document sent as mentioned in subsection \(2\)\(c\) is treated as given 48 hours after it was sent, unless the contrary is proved.
- (9) A document sent as mentioned in subsection \(2\)\(d\) is treated as given 24 hours after it was sent, unless the contrary is proved.
- (10) A document fixed as mentioned in subsection \(6\) is treated as given 48 hours after it was fixed.
- (11) This section does not apply to the giving of a document for which other provision is made by or under this Part or Part 4.
- (12) In this section—
- “accountable person” has the same meaning as in Part 4 (see section 72);
 - “agreed” means agreed in writing;
 - “authorised officer” means a person in respect of whom an authorisation under section 22 is in force;
 - “giving”: references to giving include similar expressions (such as serving);
 - “specified” means specified in writing.

BUILDING ACT 1984

Building control authorities and building regulations

31 Higher-risk buildings etc

In the Building Act 1984 after section 120C (inserted by Schedule 5) insert—

“Higher-risk buildings etc

120D Meaning of “higher-risk building”: England

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to England.
- (2) “Higher-risk building” means a building in England that—
 - (a) is at least 18 metres in height or has at least 7 storeys, and
 - (b) is of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision supplementing this section.
- (4) The regulations may in particular—
 - (a) define “building” or “storey” for the purposes of this section;
 - (b) make provision about how the height of a building is to be determined for those purposes;
 - (c) provide that “higher-risk building” does not include a building of a specified description.
- (5) Regulations made by virtue of subsection \(4\)\(a\) may in particular define “building” so as to provide that it includes—
 - (a) any other structure or erection of any kind (whether temporary or permanent);
 - (b) any vehicle, vessel or other movable object of any kind, in such circumstances as may be specified.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend this section (other than subsection \(1\) or \(3\) or this subsection).
- (7) For the meaning of “higher-risk building work” see section 91ZA.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

120E Regulations under section 120D: procedure

- (1) Before making regulations under section 120D, the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the regulator, and
 - (b) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (2) But the regulator need not be consulted if—
 - (a) the regulations give effect to a recommendation made by the regulator under section 120G, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State has under section 120H asked the regulator for advice about the description of building in question.

120F Regulations under section 120D: additional procedure in certain cases

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary of State proposes to make regulations under section 120D that would result in a description of building (including anything within subsection (5) of that section) becoming a higher-risk building for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to England.
- (2) The Secretary of State must ask the regulator under section 120H(1) for advice about the description of building, except where the regulations would give effect to a recommendation under section 120G(2).
- (3) The Secretary of State must carry out a cost-benefit analysis and publish it.
- (4) In this section “cost-benefit analysis” means—
 - (a) an analysis of the costs together with an analysis of the benefits that will arise if the regulations are made, and
 - (b) an estimate of those costs and of those benefits (subject to subsection (5)).
- (5) If, in the opinion of the Secretary of State—
 - (a) the costs or benefits cannot reasonably be estimated, or
 - (b) it is not reasonably practicable to produce an estimate,
 the cost-benefit analysis need not estimate them, but must include a statement of the Secretary of State’s opinion and an explanation for it.

120G Recommendations about regulations under section 120D

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if, in respect of any description of building that is not a higher-risk building, the regulator considers—
 - (a) that a building safety risk is greater for that description of buildings than it is for buildings that are not of that description,
 - (b) that if the risk materialised as regards a building of that description it would have the potential to cause a major incident, and
 - (c) that buildings of that description should be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to England.
- (2) The regulator must—

- (a) recommend to the Secretary of State that buildings of that description should be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Act, and
 - (b) give the Secretary of State a statement of its assessment of the issues it considered when deciding to make the recommendation.
- (3) If, following a recommendation, the Secretary of State decides not to make regulations under section 120D giving effect to the recommendation, the Secretary of State must publish a document setting out—
 - (a) the regulator’s recommendation,
 - (b) the Secretary of State’s decision not to make the regulations, and
 - (c) the reasons for that decision.
- (4) If the regulator considers that a particular description of higher-risk building should cease to be a higher-risk building for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to England, it must make a recommendation to the Secretary of State to that effect.
- (5) In this section—

“building safety risk” means a risk to the safety of people in or about a building arising from any of the following occurring as regards the building—

 - (a) the spread of fire;
 - (b) structural failure;
 - (c) any other matter prescribed by regulations under section 62 of the Building Safety Act 2022 in relation to all buildings, or in relation to a description of building that includes the building;

“major incident” means an incident resulting in—

 - (a) a significant number of deaths, or
 - (b) serious injury to a significant number of people.

120H Advice about regulations under section 120D

- (1) Subsections \(2\) to \(5\) apply if the Secretary of State asks the regulator for advice as to whether a specified description of building should be a higher-risk building for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to England.
- (2) The regulator must consider whether the following conditions are met—
 - (a) the first condition is that a building safety risk is greater for that description of buildings than it is for buildings that are not of that description;
 - (b) the second condition is that, if the risk materialised as regards a building of that description, it would have the potential to cause a major incident;
 - (c) the third condition is that buildings of that description should be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to England.
- (3) The regulator must—
 - (a) if the conditions mentioned in subsection \(2\) are met, recommend to the Secretary of State that buildings of that description should be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to England;

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (b) otherwise, recommend to the Secretary of State that buildings of that description should not be higher-risk buildings for those purposes.
- (4) The regulator must give the Secretary of State a statement of its assessment of the issues it considered in relation to the recommendation under subsection \(3\).
- (5) If, following a recommendation under subsection \(3\)\(a\), the Secretary of State decides not to make regulations under section 120D giving effect to the recommendation, the Secretary of State must publish a document setting out—
 - (a) the regulator’s recommendation,
 - (b) the Secretary of State’s decision not to make the regulations, and
 - (c) the reasons for that decision.
- (6) If requested, the regulator must provide advice to the Secretary of State as to whether a specified description of building should cease to be a higher-risk building for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to England.
- (7) In this section—
 - “building safety risk” has the meaning given by section 120G;
 - “major incident” has the meaning given by that section;
 - “specified” means specified in the request.

120I Higher-risk buildings and higher-risk building work: Wales

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of this Act as it applies in relation to Wales.
- (2) “Higher-risk building” means a building of a description specified in regulations made by the Welsh Ministers.
- (3) “Higher-risk building work” means any work relating to a higher-risk building or a proposed higher-risk building, including—
 - (a) any work relating to a building that is not a higher-risk building that causes it to become such a building, and
 - (b) any work relating to a higher-risk building that causes it to cease to be such a building.
- (4) The Welsh Ministers may by regulations define “building” for the purposes of this section.
- (5) The regulations may in particular provide that “building” includes—
 - (a) any other structure or erection of any kind (whether temporary or permanent);
 - (b) any vehicle, vessel or other movable object of any kind, in such circumstances as may be specified.”

32 Building control authorities

(1) The Building Act 1984 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 91—

(a) in subsection (1) before paragraph (a) insert—

“(za) subsection \(3\) of this section and regulations under section 91ZD.”;

(b) in subsection (2) for the words from “sections” to the end substitute “—

(a) subsection \(3\) of this section,

(b) sections 5(3), 48(1) and 53(2), and

(c) regulations under section 91ZD.”;

(c) after that subsection insert—

“(3) In cases where section 91ZA or 91ZB provides that the regulator is the building control authority, it is the duty of the regulator (and not the local authority in question)—

(a) to carry Part 1 of this Act into execution, and

(b) to enforce building regulations.”;

(d) in the heading at the end insert “and the regulator”.

(3) After that section insert—

“91ZA The regulator: building control authority for higher-risk buildings in England

(1) The regulator is the building control authority in relation to any higher-risk building in England or any proposed such building.

(2) This includes the regulator being the building control authority as regards—

(a) any work relating to a building in England that is not a higher-risk building that causes it to become such a building, and

(b) any work relating to a higher-risk building in England that causes it to cease to be such a building.

(3) In this Act “higher-risk building work”, in relation to England, means any work for which the regulator is the building control authority by virtue of this section.

(4) For the meaning of “higher-risk building” see section 120D.

91ZB The regulator: building control authority for other work

(1) This section applies in relation to work of a prescribed description (“the work”) that is to be carried out in England and has a prescribed connection with any higher-risk building work.

(2) Where—

(a) the regulator and the person intending to carry out the work, acting jointly, give a notice under this section (a “regulator’s notice”) to the local authority for the area in which the work is to be carried out, and

(b) the regulator’s notice is accepted (or treated as accepted) by the local authority,

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) the regulator is the building control authority in relation to the work.

- (3) A regulator’s notice may not be given if any of the following has been given to the local authority in relation to the work (or any part of it)—
- (a) an application for building control approval;
 - (b) an initial notice (within the meaning of section 47);
 - (c) a public body’s notice (within the meaning of section 54).

91ZC Section 91ZB: supplementary

- (1) This section supplements section 91ZB.
- (2) A local authority to whom a regulator’s notice is given must reject the notice if any prescribed ground exists, and must otherwise accept the notice.
- (3) A notice of rejection must be given within the prescribed period, and must specify the ground or grounds in question.
- (4) The person intending to carry out the work may appeal to the tribunal against a decision of the local authority to reject the regulator’s notice.
- (5) Where a local authority to whom a regulator’s notice is given does not—
- (a) give a notice of rejection in accordance with subsection (3), or
 - (b) give a notice of acceptance within the period mentioned in that subsection,
- the authority is treated as having accepted the regulator’s notice at the end of that period.
- (6) As regards any notice under section 91ZB or this section, building regulations may make provision about—
- (a) the form and content of the notice;
 - (b) the information and documents that must accompany it;
 - (c) the way in which the notice, and anything that is to accompany it, is to be given.

91ZD Higher-risk buildings in Wales: local authority work

- (1) Building regulations may make provision about cases where a local authority for an area in Wales (“the relevant local authority”) proposes to carry out higher-risk building work in that area.
- (2) The regulations may in particular—
- (a) restrict (or prevent) the exercise by the relevant local authority of prescribed functions in relation to the higher-risk building work;
 - (b) require the relevant local authority to notify the Welsh Ministers of prescribed matters;
 - (c) confer on the Welsh Ministers a power to designate another local authority as the building control authority in relation to the higher-risk building work (instead of the relevant local authority);
 - (d) confer on the Welsh Ministers a power to require the relevant local authority to provide specified information, for the purposes of deciding whether to exercise the power of designation.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The regulations may also provide, in cases where a local authority is designated as the building control authority in relation to the higher-risk building work, that the relevant local authority and the designated local authority may agree that the designated local authority is to be the building control authority in relation to any work of a prescribed description that has a prescribed connection with the higher-risk building work.
- (4) Where, as a result of regulations made by virtue of subsection \(2\)\(c\) or \(3\), a designated local authority is the building control authority in relation to any work, as regards that work—
- (a) prescribed functions are functions of the designated local authority (rather than the relevant local authority);
 - (b) the designated local authority (rather than the relevant local authority) must perform such functions relating to enforcement as may be prescribed.”
- (4) After section 121 insert—

“121A Meaning of “building control authority”

- (1) In this Act “building control authority” means—
- (a) the regulator, in cases where section 91ZA or 91ZB provides that the regulator is the building control authority;
 - (b) the local authority mentioned in subsection \(2\), in any other case.
- (2) That local authority is—
- (a) if, by virtue of regulations made under section 91ZD (higher-risk buildings in Wales: local authority work), a designated local authority is the building control authority, that local authority;
 - (b) otherwise, the local authority for the area in which the building is situated or the proposed building is to be situated.”

- (2) The regulations may in particular make provision for and in connection with—
- (a) the giving of notices;
 - (b) the making of applications to building control authorities;
 - (c) the giving or receipt of certificates;
 - (d) requiring a prescribed person, in prescribed circumstances, to consult such other person as may be prescribed.
- (3) The regulations may—
- (a) confer on a building control authority a power to require a person to notify the authority of specified matters by the specified time;
 - (b) provide that in prescribed circumstances an application is treated as granted or is treated as refused;
 - (c) make provision about the effect of the grant of an application;
 - (d) make provision about the effect of certificates;
 - (e) require a person consulted to give a substantive response to the consultation before the end of a prescribed period.
- (4) In sub-paragraph \(3\)\(a\) “specified” means specified by the building control authority.

Applications for building control approval

- 1B (1) Building regulations may in particular make provision for and in connection with applications for building control approval (including approval of changes to anything that has already been approved).
- (2) “Building control approval”—
- (a) in relation to any work, means the approval by the building control authority of—
 - (i) plans of the work, and
 - (ii) such other documents, relating to compliance with any provision of building regulations, as may be prescribed (or, in a case within sub-paragraph \(5\), as are provided to the authority);
 - (b) in relation to a change to a relevant document, means the approval by the authority of the change.
- (3) Building regulations may—
- (a) confer on building control authorities a power, with the consent of the applicant—
 - (i) to impose requirements (including in particular requirements of a kind mentioned in sub-paragraph \(4\)) when granting an application;
 - (ii) to vary requirements;
 - (b) make provision about the cases in which an application for approval of a change must be made (including provision conferring on building control authorities a power to specify the circumstances in which such an application must be made).
- (4) The requirements referred to in sub-paragraph \(3\)\(a\) are—

- (a) a requirement relating to the provision of a revised version of a specified relevant document;
 - (b) a requirement that the work does not proceed beyond a specified stage unless a specified relevant document has been given to, and approved by, the building control authority.
- (5) Building regulations may provide that in prescribed cases—
- (a) an application may be made to the authority for approval of the plans and such other relevant documents as the applicant considers appropriate, and
 - (b) the authority may refuse the application if the applicant does not, on request, provide it with a specified relevant document.
- (6) In this paragraph—
- (a) “relevant document” means—
 - (i) the plans mentioned in sub-paragraph \(2\)\(a\)\(i\), or
 - (ii) a document prescribed for the purposes of sub-paragraph \(2\)\(a\)\(ii\);
 - (b) “specified” means specified by the building control authority;
 - (c) a reference to a change to a document includes the replacement of it.

Certificates: approved schemes

- 1C (1) Building regulations may in particular make provision for and in connection with certificates that are given—
- (a) by a member of a scheme that is approved,
 - (b) in accordance with the scheme, and
 - (c) in accordance with any prescribed requirement relating to the provision of insurance cover in respect of work to which the certificate relates.
- (2) Building regulations may make provision for and in connection with—
- (a) the approval of schemes by the appropriate national authority or a person designated by that authority;
 - (b) the suspension or withdrawal of approvals (including provision about appeals to the appropriate court or tribunal against the suspension or withdrawal of approvals).
- (3) The regulations may in particular provide that a scheme may be approved (and may remain approved) only if prescribed requirements relating to the provision of insurance cover are complied with.
- (4) The regulations may provide—
- (a) that an approval has effect for a particular period (including a period specified in the approval), or
 - (b) that an approval has effect until it is suspended or withdrawn.
- (5) The requirements relating to insurance cover that may be prescribed include in particular a requirement that insurance cover is provided through a scheme of insurance approved by the appropriate national authority or a person designated by that authority.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Obtaining, keeping and giving information and documents

- 1D (1) Building regulations may, in relation to any work, make provision about—
- (a) obtaining information or documents;
 - (b) creating documents;
 - (c) keeping information or documents;
 - (d) giving information or documents.
- (2) The regulations may in particular—
- (a) provide that information or documents must be given or kept in accordance with prescribed standards;
 - (b) impose requirements as regards keeping information or documents up to date;
 - (c) confer on building control authorities or other prescribed persons a power, in prescribed circumstances, to require a person to give information to them.
- (3) Where building regulations provide that any information or document must be given, they may make provision about the admissibility in any criminal proceedings of the information or document.

Reporting requirements: duty to establish and operate system

- 1E (1) This paragraph applies where building regulations made by virtue of paragraph 1D require a person to give information—
- (a) in relation to work in England, to the regulator;
 - (b) in relation to work in Wales, to the building control authority.
- (2) For the purpose of facilitating and securing compliance with any such requirement, the regulations may—
- (a) require a prescribed person to establish and operate a system for the giving of prescribed information to such person as may be prescribed, and
 - (b) make provision about such systems.

Form and content of documents etc

- 1F (1) Where building regulations provide that any document must or may be given, they may make provision about—
- (a) the form and content of the document;
 - (b) the information and other documents that must accompany it;
 - (c) the way in which the document, and anything that is to accompany it, is to be given.
- (2) Where building regulations provide that any information must or may be given, they may make provision about the way in which it is to be given.
- (3) Building regulations may provide that any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of sub-paragraph \(1\), or in sub-paragraph \(2\), are to be specified in a direction made and published in accordance with the regulations.

- (4) Building regulations may provide that—
- (a) a prescribed application must be accompanied by such prescribed documents as the applicant considers appropriate, and
 - (b) the building control authority may refuse the application if the applicant does not, on request, provide it with a document of a kind prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (a) in relation to the application.

Inspection, testing etc

- 1G (1) Building regulations may make provision for and in connection with—
- (a) the inspection and testing of work;
 - (b) the inspection and testing of buildings;
 - (c) the inspection and testing of services, fittings and equipment provided in connection with buildings;
 - (d) the taking of samples.
- (2) The regulations may in particular—
- (a) prohibit the covering up of any work, for a prescribed period after a prescribed or specified event;
 - (b) provide for the cutting into or laying open of any work or building, or the pulling down of any work.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2)(a) “specified” means specified by the building control authority.

Applications to building control authorities: extension of period by agreement

- 1H Building regulations may provide that any prescribed period for the doing of a thing by a building control authority in connection with an application made to it may be extended by agreement between the authority and the applicant.

Appeals

- 1I (1) Building regulations may make provision for and in connection with appeals against decisions made under, or under an instrument made under, Part 1, 2 or 2A of this Act.
- (2) The regulations may confer, in respect of a prescribed decision—
- (a) in relation to England—
 - (i) a right to appeal to the regulator or the tribunal, and
 - (ii) in the case of an appeal to the regulator, a right of appeal to the tribunal against the decision of the regulator made on appeal;
 - (b) in relation to Wales—
 - (i) a right to appeal to the Welsh Ministers or a magistrates’ court, and

 - (a) the work relates to one building, and
 - (b) the work is not commenced within 3 years from the end of the relevant day, the relevant provisions have effect as if the application had not been made (and the approval had not been given).

 - (3) Where—
 - (a) the work relates to more than one building, and
 - (b) the work relating to one or more of the buildings (“the relevant work”) is not commenced within 3 years from the end of the relevant day, the relevant provisions have effect in relation to those buildings and the relevant work as if the application had not been made (and the approval had not been given).

 - (4) In subsection \(1\) the reference to an application for building control approval is to an application for approval of a kind mentioned in paragraph 1B\(2\)\(a\) of Schedule 1.
 - (5) In this section “the relevant provisions” means this Act and regulations made under it except the following provisions and any regulations made under them—
 - (a) sections 56, 56A, 56B and 91A (records and registers etc);
 - (b) section 105B (fees and charges).
 - (6) Building regulations may make provision about when work, or work relating to a building, is to be regarded as commenced for the purposes of this section.”
- (3) In section 47(4)(b) (time when initial notice ceases to be in force) for “below”, in the first place it occurs, substitute “(final certificates) and section 53A (lapse of initial notice)”.
 - (4) In section 50 (plans certificates) omit subsection \(8\).
 - (5) In section 52 (cancellation of initial notice) omit subsection \(5\).
 - (6) In section 53(2) (effect of initial notice ceasing to be in force: general)—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) at the end of paragraph \(a\) insert “and”;
- (b) omit paragraph (c) and the “and” immediately before it.

(7) After section 53 insert—

“53A Lapse of initial notice

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) on any day (“the relevant day”) an initial notice is given in respect of any work, and
 - (b) the initial notice is accepted.
- (2) Where the work relates to one building and is not commenced within 3 years from the end of the relevant day—
 - (a) the initial notice ceases to be in force, and
 - (b) if a plans certificate relating to the work (or any part of it) has been accepted, the relevant provisions have effect as if the certificate had not been given (or accepted).
- (3) Where the work relates to more than one building, and the work in relation to one or more of the buildings (“the relevant work”) is not commenced within 3 years from the end of the relevant day—
 - (a) the initial notice ceases to be in force so far as it relates to the relevant work, and
 - (b) if a plans certificate relating to the relevant work (or any part of it) has been accepted, the relevant provisions have effect as if, as regards the relevant work, the certificate had not been given (or accepted).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection \(3\)\(b\) it does not matter whether the plans certificate also relates to work other than the relevant work.
- (5) In this section “the relevant provisions” has the meaning given by section 32.
- (6) Building regulations may make provision about when work, or work relating to a building, is to be regarded as commenced for the purposes of this section.”

(8) In section 54(4)—

- (a) omit the “and” at the end of paragraph \(a\);
- (b) after paragraph \(b\) insert “, and
 - (c) with the substitution, in subsection (2)(d), of a reference to paragraph 4A of Schedule 4 for the reference to section 53A.”

(9) Schedule 4 is amended as follows.

- (10) In paragraph 1(1) for “below” substitute “(final certificates) and paragraph 4A (lapse of public body’s notice)”.
- (11) In paragraph 2 omit sub-paragraph (6).
- (12) In paragraph 4(2) omit paragraph (c) and the “and” before it.
- (13) After paragraph 4 insert—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. “Lapse of public body’s notice

- 4A (1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) on any day (“the relevant day”) a public body’s notice is given in respect of any work, and
 - (b) the public body’s notice is accepted.
- (2) Where the work relates to one building and is not commenced within 3 years from the end of the relevant day—
- (a) the public body’s notice ceases to be in force, and
 - (b) if a public body’s plans certificate relating to the work (or any part of it) has been accepted, the relevant provisions have effect as if the certificate had not been given (or accepted).
- (3) Where the work relates to more than one building, and the work in relation to one or more of the buildings (“the relevant work”) is not commenced within 3 years from the end of the relevant day—
- (a) the public body’s notice ceases to be in force so far as it relates to the relevant work, and
 - (b) if a public body’s plans certificate relating to the relevant work (or any part of it) has been accepted, the relevant provisions have effect as if, as regards the relevant work, the certificate had not been given (or accepted).
- (4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph \(3\)\(b\) it does not matter whether the public body’s plans certificate also relates to work other than the relevant work.
- (5) In this paragraph “the relevant provisions” has the meaning given by section 32.
- (6) Building regulations may make provision about when work (or work relating to a building) is to be regarded as commenced for the purposes of this paragraph.”

“Determination by appropriate national authority

30A Determination of certain applications by appropriate national authority

- (1) This section applies where the building control authority fails to determine a prescribed application relating to higher-risk building work (“the original application”) within the relevant period.
- (2) The applicant may apply to the appropriate national authority for the original application to be determined by that authority.
- (3) An application under this section may be made only—
 - (a) before the end of the prescribed period, and
 - (b) if the building control authority has not determined the original application.
- (4) The building control authority may not determine the original application at any time after the making of an application under this section.
- (5) Building regulations may make provision about applications under this section, including in particular provision—
 - (a) about the making of such applications;
 - (b) requiring an applicant to notify the building control authority of the making of an application;
 - (c) imposing duties on the building control authority in cases where an application is made;
 - (d) for and in connection with the appropriate national authority appointing a person to determine the original application (including provision conferring functions on that person and providing that their decision is treated as the decision of the appropriate national authority);
 - (e) about the procedure to be adopted in connection with the determination of the original application.
- (6) The provision that may be made by virtue of subsection \(5\)\(a\) includes provision about—
 - (a) the form and content of applications;
 - (b) the information and documents that are to accompany an application;
 - (c) the way in which an application, and anything that is to accompany it, is to be given.
- (7) For the purposes of determining the original application by virtue of this section, this Act and building regulations apply in relation to the appropriate national authority (and any person appointed by virtue of subsection \(5\)\(d\)) as they apply in relation to the building control authority.
- (8) The applicant may appeal to—
 - (a) the tribunal, against a decision of the Secretary of State made under this section;
 - (b) a magistrates’ court, against a decision of the Welsh Ministers made under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (9) In this section “the relevant period” means—
- (a) the period provided by building regulations as the period within which the building control authority is to make the decision, or
 - (b) if the regulations provide that that period may be extended by agreement between the applicant and the building control authority and such an agreement is made, the agreed period.”

38 Compliance and stop notices

- (1) In the Building Act 1984 before section 36 insert—

“Notices in respect of contraventions

35B Compliance notices

- (1) The building control authority may give a compliance notice to a person who appears to the authority to have contravened, be contravening or be likely to contravene—
 - (a) a relevant provision of building regulations, or
 - (b) a requirement imposed by virtue of such a provision.
- (2) A “compliance notice” is—
 - (a) a notice requiring the recipient to take specified steps within a specified period, or
 - (b) a notice requiring the recipient to remedy the contravention or the matters giving rise to it within a specified period.
- (3) A notice of a kind mentioned in subsection \(2\)\(a\) may specify any steps relating to—
 - (a) the remedying of the contravention, or
 - (b) avoiding the contravention occurring.
- (4) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes a compliance notice commits an offence.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);
 and (in either case) is liable on summary conviction to a further fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale for each day on which the default continues after the initial conviction.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) A compliance notice may not be given in respect of a contravention which occurred more than 12 months before the day on which the notice is given.
- (7) In this section—
 - (a) “relevant provision” means any provision of building regulations except one that is prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph;
 - (b) “specified” means specified in the notice.

35C Stop notices

- (1) The building control authority may give a stop notice to a person appearing to the authority to be in control of any work if it appears to the authority that—
 - (a) the carrying out of the work would contravene a provision of building regulations prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph,
 - (b) a compliance notice relating to the work has been contravened, or
 - (c) the work contravenes a provision of building regulations or a requirement imposed by virtue of such a provision, and the risk of serious harm condition is met.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection \(1\)\(c\) the “risk of serious harm condition” is that use of the building in question without the contravention having been remedied would be likely to present a risk of serious harm to people in or about the building.
- (3) A “stop notice” is a notice prohibiting, either immediately or from a specified time, the carrying out of specified work until the occurrence of such of the following as may be specified—
 - (a) the taking of specified steps;
 - (b) the occurrence of specified circumstances;
 - (c) the remedying of a specified contravention or the matters giving rise to it.
- (4) Where a stop notice is contravened, the person to whom the notice was given commits an offence.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);and (in either case) is liable on summary conviction to a further fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale for each day on which the default continues after the initial conviction.
- (6) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to prove that the person took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the contravention of the stop notice.
- (7) In this section “specified” means specified in the notice.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 35D Compliance and stop notices: supplementary

- (1) Building regulations may make provision about compliance notices or stop notices.
- (2) The regulations may in particular make provision about—
 - (a) the form and content of notices;
 - (b) the giving of notices;
 - (c) the amendment or withdrawal of notices;
 - (d) the extension of any period specified in a compliance notice for the doing of a thing.
- (3) The regulations may require a building control authority which gives a notice to a person to take reasonable steps to notify other prescribed persons.
- (4) A compliance notice, or a stop notice under section 35C\(1\)\(a\), may not be given in respect of a contravention (including a future contravention) where—
 - (a) an application for building control approval was made to a building control authority in respect of any work that is not higher-risk building work,
 - (b) the application was granted, and
 - (c) the contravention consists (or would consist) of the carrying out of work or the doing of anything else in accordance with—
 - (i) the plans, or any other document, approved by the grant of building control approval, and
 - (ii) any requirement imposed by the building control authority in connection with the work or other thing.”
- (2) After section 39 of that Act insert—

“39A Appeals against compliance notices and stop notices etc

- (1) A person to whom a compliance notice has been given may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal.
- (2) Where an appeal under subsection \(1\) is made—
 - (a) the compliance notice is of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal, and
 - (b) the specified period mentioned in section 35B\(2\) is treated as extended by the period—
 - (i) beginning with the day on which the appeal is made, and
 - (ii) ending with the day on which the appeal is finally determined or withdrawn.
- (3) A person to whom a compliance notice has been given may apply to the appropriate court or tribunal for an extension of the period for the doing of the thing specified in the notice.
- (4) Subsection \(2\) applies in relation to such an application as it applies in relation to an appeal under subsection \(1\).

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) A person to whom a stop notice has been given may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal.
- (6) Where an appeal under subsection \(5\) is made—
 - (a) the appellant may apply to the appropriate court or tribunal for a direction that the stop notice is of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal, and
 - (b) unless and until any such direction is given, the stop notice continues to have effect despite the making of the appeal.”

Building control approvers and building inspectors

42 Regulation of building control profession

In the Building Act 1984, after Part 2 insert—

“PART 2A

REGULATION OF BUILDING CONTROL PROFESSION

Interpretation

58A “Regulatory authority”

In this Act the “regulatory authority” means—

- (a) in relation to England, the regulator;
- (b) in relation to Wales, the Welsh Ministers.

Registered building inspectors

58B “Registered building inspector”

In this Act “registered building inspector” means an individual registered as a building inspector in accordance with this Part.

58C Register of building inspectors

- (1) The regulatory authority must establish and maintain a register of building inspectors.
- (2) The register may provide for different classes of building inspectors (for example, according to qualifications or experience).
- (3) The regulatory authority must register an individual as a building inspector, or a building inspector of a particular class, if—
 - (a) the individual makes an application for registration in accordance with section 58D, and
 - (b) the authority is satisfied that the individual meets such criteria as the authority may from time to time determine.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Registration may—
 - (a) have effect in relation to all work or in relation to work of a particular description;
 - (b) be subject to conditions.
- (5) Registration must be for a prescribed period.
- (6) The register must record, in relation to each registered building inspector—
 - (a) the individual's name and business address;
 - (b) if the individual is employed by a building control authority or a registered building control approver, the name and business address of that person;
 - (c) whether the individual's registration has effect in relation to all work or work of a particular description;
 - (d) if the individual's registration has effect in relation to work of a particular description, that description of work;
 - (e) any conditions to which the individual's registration is subject;
 - (f) the period for which the individual is registered;
 - (g) if the individual's registration has been varied by an order under section 58I\(2\)\(b\), that fact and the effect of the variation;
 - (h) if the individual's registration has been suspended by an order under section 58I\(2\)\(c\) or 58J\(2\), that fact and the period of the suspension;
 - (i) any matters that are prescribed.
- (7) The regulatory authority must make the register available for inspection by the public in whatever way the authority thinks appropriate.

58D Application for registration as building inspector

- (1) An application for registration as a building inspector must—
 - (a) be made in such form and manner, and
 - (b) be accompanied by such information and supporting evidence, as the regulatory authority may from time to time determine.
- (2) The regulatory authority may make different provision about those matters for different cases.
- (3) When considering an application for registration, the regulatory authority may require the applicant to provide it with such further information or supporting evidence as the authority may require.
- (4) The applicant may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against any decision made by the regulatory authority on the application.

58E Variation or cancellation of registration as building inspector

- (1) A registered building inspector may apply for the variation or cancellation of their registration.
- (2) Section 58D applies to such an application as it applies to an application for registration.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

58F Code of conduct

- (1) The regulatory authority must prepare and publish a code of conduct for registered building inspectors.
- (2) The code must set out standards of professional conduct and practice expected of registered building inspectors.
- (3) The code may make different provision for different cases (for example, for different descriptions of work).
- (4) The regulatory authority may revise the code of conduct at any time (and must publish any revised code).

58G Registered building inspectors: information notices

- (1) The regulatory authority may by notice in writing require a registered building inspector to provide the authority with any documents or information the authority reasonably requires for the purposes its functions under sections 58B to 58M.
- (2) The notice must specify—
 - (a) the documents or information required,
 - (b) the date by which they must be provided, and
 - (c) the form in which they must be provided.

58H Professional misconduct investigations

- (1) If it appears to the regulatory authority (on receipt of a complaint or otherwise) that a registered building inspector may be guilty of professional misconduct, the authority may investigate the matter.
- (2) In this Part “professional misconduct”, in relation to a registered building inspector, means conduct that—
 - (a) falls short of the standards of conduct and practice expected of registered building inspectors, or
 - (b) is likely to bring the profession of registered building inspectors into disrepute.
- (3) The regulatory authority must prepare and publish a statement of the procedure it will follow when investigating a registered building inspector under this section (which must include an opportunity for the inspector to make representations).
- (4) The regulatory authority may revise the statement at any time (and must publish any revised statement).

58I Sanctions for professional misconduct

- (1) If following an investigation under section 58H the regulatory authority determines that an individual who is a registered building inspector is guilty of professional misconduct, the authority may make one or more disciplinary orders.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (2) A disciplinary order is an order—
 - (a) requiring the individual to pay a financial penalty of an amount specified in the order,
 - (b) varying the individual’s registration in a way specified in the order,
 - (c) suspending the individual’s registration for a period specified in the order, or
 - (d) cancelling the individual’s registration from a date specified in the order.
- (3) Varying the individual’s registration means varying any of the matters listed in section 58C\(4\) (limitations and conditions).
- (4) Where the regulatory authority makes a disciplinary order it must give a copy of the order to the individual concerned as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (5) The individual may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against a disciplinary order under this section.
- (6) A disciplinary order under subsection \(2\)\(a\) or \(b\) has no effect until—
 - (a) the end of the period within which an appeal may be brought, or
 - (b) if an appeal is brought before the end of that period, the determination of the appeal.
- (7) Where the regulatory authority is the regulator, it must pay into the Consolidated Fund the amount of any financial penalty paid to it pursuant to a disciplinary order under subsection \(2\)\(a\).

58J Interim suspension for suspected serious professional misconduct

- (1) This section applies where the regulatory authority considers that—
 - (a) an individual who is a registered building inspector may be guilty of professional misconduct, and
 - (b) the suspected misconduct is so serious that, if the authority determines that the individual is guilty, it is likely to make an order under section 58I\(2\)\(d\) cancelling the individual’s registration.
- (2) The regulatory authority may by order suspend the individual’s registration for a period specified in the order (which must not exceed 3 months).
- (3) The regulatory authority may revoke the order before the end of that period.
- (4) Where the regulatory authority makes (or revokes) an order under this section it must give a copy of the order (or notice of the revocation) to the individual concerned as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (5) The individual may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against an order under this section.

58K Suspension orders: further provision

An individual whose registration is suspended under section 58I\(2\)\(c\) or 58J\(2\) is not a registered building inspector for the purposes of section 46A or 54B

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. (restricted activities and functions) (but is a registered building inspector for the purposes of this Part).

58L Offences relating to registration

- (1) A registered building inspector commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse, they carry out a restricted activity on behalf of a building control authority or a registered building control approver—
 - (a) in relation to work which is outside the scope of their registration, or
 - (b) while their registration is suspended.
- (2) “Restricted activity”—
 - (a) in relation to a building control authority, has the meaning given by section 46A;
 - (b) in relation to a registered building control approver, has the meaning given by section 54B.
- (3) A registered building inspector commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse—
 - (a) they give advice to a building control authority or registered building control approver—
 - (i) in relation to work which is outside the scope of their registration, or
 - (ii) while their registration is suspended, and
 - (b) they know, or ought to know, that the authority or approver is obtaining that advice for the purposes of section 46A or 54B (restricted functions).
- (4) A registered building inspector commits an offence if, with intent to deceive, they do anything which implies that work which is outside the scope of their registration is within the scope of their registration.
- (5) A registered building inspector whose registration is suspended commits an offence if, with intent to deceive, they do anything which implies that their registration is not suspended.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, work is outside the scope of a registered building inspector’s registration if the inspector’s registration does not have effect in relation to work of that description.
- (7) An offence under this section is punishable on summary conviction by a fine.

58M Offence of acting as, or pretending to be, a registered building inspector

- (1) A person who is not a registered building inspector commits an offence if, with intent to deceive, the person—
 - (a) impersonates a registered building inspector, or
 - (b) does anything (including using any name, title or description) which implies that the person is a registered building inspector.
- (2) An offence under this section is punishable on summary conviction by a fine.

Registered building control approvers

58N “Registered building control approver”

In this Act “registered building control approver” means a person registered as a building control approver in accordance with this Part.

58O Register of building control approvers

- (1) The regulatory authority must establish and maintain a register of building control approvers.
- (2) The regulatory authority must register a person as a building control approver if—
 - (a) the person makes an application for registration in accordance with section 58P, and
 - (b) the authority is satisfied that the person meets such criteria as the authority may from time to time determine.
- (3) Registration may—
 - (a) have effect in relation to all work or in relation to work of a particular description;
 - (b) be subject to conditions.
- (4) Registration must be for a prescribed period.
- (5) The register must record, in relation to each registered building control approver—
 - (a) the person’s name and business address;
 - (b) whether the person’s registration has effect in relation to all work or work of a particular description;
 - (c) if the person’s registration has effect in relation to work of a particular description, that description of work;
 - (d) any conditions to which the person’s registration is subject;
 - (e) the period for which the person is registered;
 - (f) if the person’s registration has been varied by an order under section 58U\(2\)\(b\), that fact and the effect of the variation;
 - (g) if the person’s registration has been suspended by an order under section 58U\(2\)\(c\) or 58V\(2\), that fact and the period of the suspension;
 - (h) any matters that are prescribed.
- (6) The regulatory authority must make the register available for inspection by the public in whatever way the authority thinks appropriate.

58P Application for registration as building control approver

- (1) An application for registration as a building control approver must—
 - (a) be made in such form and manner, and
 - (b) be accompanied by such information and supporting evidence, as the regulatory authority may from time to time determine.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The regulatory authority may make different provision about those matters for different cases.
- (3) When considering an application for registration, the regulatory authority may require the applicant to provide it with such further information or supporting evidence as the authority may require.
- (4) The applicant may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against any decision made by the regulatory authority on the application.

58Q Variation or cancellation of registration as building control approver

- (1) A registered building control approver may apply for the variation or cancellation of their registration.
- (2) Section 58P applies to such an application as it applies to an application for registration.

58R Professional conduct rules

- (1) The regulatory authority must prepare and publish professional conduct rules applying to registered building control approvers (in addition to operational standards rules applying to them under section 58Z).
- (2) Professional conduct rules may in particular make provision about insurance and financial propriety.
- (3) The rules may make different provision for different cases (for example, for different descriptions of work).
- (4) The regulatory authority may revise the professional conduct rules at any time (and must publish any revised rules).

58S Registered building control approvers: information notices

- (1) The regulatory authority may by notice in writing require a registered building control approver to provide the authority with any documents or information the authority reasonably requires for the purposes of its functions under sections 58N to 58X.
- (2) The notice must specify—
 - (a) the documents or information required,
 - (b) the date by which they must be provided, and
 - (c) the form in which they must be provided.

58T Investigations into contraventions of professional conduct rules

- (1) If it appears to the regulatory authority (on receipt of a complaint or otherwise) that a registered building control approver may have contravened the professional conduct rules, the authority may investigate the matter.
- (2) The regulatory authority must prepare and publish a statement of the procedure it will follow when investigating a registered building control approver under

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. this section (which must include an opportunity for the person to make representations).

- (3) The regulatory authority may revise the statement at any time (and must publish any revised statement).

58U Sanctions for contravention of professional conduct rules

- (1) If following an investigation under section 58T the regulatory authority determines that a person who is a registered building control approver has contravened the professional conduct rules, the authority may make one or more disciplinary orders.
- (2) A disciplinary order is an order—
- (a) requiring the person to pay a financial penalty of an amount specified in the order,
 - (b) varying the person's registration in a way specified in the order,
 - (c) suspending the person's registration for a period specified in the order, or
 - (d) cancelling the person's registration from a date specified in the order.
- (3) Varying the person's registration means varying any of the matters listed in section 58O(3) (limitations and conditions).
- (4) Where the regulatory authority makes a disciplinary order it must as soon as reasonably practicable—
- (a) give a copy of the order to the person concerned, and
 - (b) in prescribed cases, give a copy of the order—
 - (i) to each local authority in England, where the regulatory authority is the regulator, or
 - (ii) to each local authority in Wales, where the regulatory authority is the Welsh Ministers.
- (5) The person may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against a disciplinary order under this section.
- (6) A disciplinary order under subsection (2)(a) or (b) has no effect until—
- (a) the end of the period within which an appeal may be brought, or
 - (b) if an appeal is brought before the end of that period, the determination of the appeal.
- (7) Where the regulatory authority is the regulator, it must pay into the Consolidated Fund the amount of any financial penalty paid to it pursuant to a disciplinary order under subsection (2)(a).
- (8) A person whose registration is suspended by an order under subsection (2)(c) is a registered building control approver for the purposes of this Part.
- (9) See section 58Z6(2) for further provision about cancellation of a person's registration as a building control approver.

58V Interim suspension for suspected serious contravention

- (1) This section applies where the regulatory authority considers that—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a person who is a registered building control approver may have contravened the professional conduct rules, and
 - (b) the suspected contravention is so serious that, if the authority determines that the contravention has occurred, it is likely to make an order under section 58U\(2\)\(d\) cancelling the person's registration.
- (2) The regulatory authority may by order suspend the person's registration for a period specified in the order (which must not exceed 3 months).
- (3) The regulatory authority may revoke the order before the end of that period.
- (4) Where the regulatory authority makes (or revokes) an order under this section it must as soon as reasonably practicable—
 - (a) give a copy of the order (or notice of the revocation) to the person concerned, and
 - (b) in prescribed cases, give a copy of the order (or notice of the revocation)—
 - (i) to each local authority in England, where the regulatory authority is the regulator, or
 - (ii) to each local authority in Wales, where the regulatory authority is the Welsh Ministers.
- (5) The person may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against an order under this section.
- (6) A person whose registration is suspended by an order under this section is a registered building control approver for the purposes of this Part.

58W Offence of registered building control approver acting outside scope of registration

- (1) A registered building control approver commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse, they exercise a function under this Act, or regulations made under this Act—
 - (a) in relation to work outside the scope of their registration, or
 - (b) while their registration is suspended.
- (2) A registered building control approver commits an offence if, with intent to deceive, they do anything which implies that work which is outside the scope of their registration is within the scope of their registration.
- (3) A registered building control approver whose registration is suspended commits an offence if, with intent to deceive, they do anything which implies that their registration is not suspended.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, work is outside the scope of a registered building control approver's registration if their registration does not have effect in relation to work of that description.
- (5) An offence under this section is punishable on summary conviction by a fine.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

58X Offence of pretending to be a registered building control approver

- (1) A person who is not a registered building control approver commits an offence if, with intent to deceive, the person—
 - (a) impersonates a registered building control approver, or
 - (b) does anything (including using any name, title or description) which implies that the person is a registered building control approver.
- (2) An offence under this section is punishable on summary conviction by a fine.

Delegation of registration functions

58Y Delegation of registration functions

- (1) The regulatory authority may delegate its registration functions to another person, to such extent and subject to such conditions as it considers appropriate.
- (2) The regulatory authority's registration functions are its functions under sections 58B to 58X (and include the charging of any registration fees or recovery of any registration charges).
- (3) "Registration fees" and "registration charges" mean fees and charges in connection with the regulatory authority's functions under sections 58B to 58X that are—
 - (a) prescribed by regulations under section 105B, or
 - (b) determined by the regulatory authority in accordance with regulations under that section.
- (4) The regulatory authority may vary or revoke a delegation.
- (5) Where the regulatory authority is the regulator, it—
 - (a) may make, vary or revoke a delegation only with the consent of the Secretary of State;
 - (b) must vary or revoke a delegation if directed to do so by the Secretary of State.
- (6) Section 58Z9 of this Act (sharing of information between regulatory authorities) and Schedule 3 to the Building Safety Act 2022 (information sharing between regulator and other authorities) apply as if references to the regulator included references to a person to whom the regulator has delegated functions under this section.
- (7) The following provisions of this Act apply as if references to the Welsh Ministers included references to a person to whom the Welsh Ministers have delegated functions under this section—
 - (a) section 58Z9 (sharing of information between regulatory authorities);
 - (b) section 91B (cooperation and sharing of information between Welsh Ministers and other authorities);
 - (c) section 131A (application to the Crown).

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Operational standards rules

58Z Operational standards rules

- (1) The regulatory authority may make rules (“operational standards rules”) applying to local authorities and registered building control approvers in relation to their exercise of building control functions.
- (2) Operational standards rules may in particular make provision about standards to be met, and practices, procedures or methods to be adopted, in exercising building control functions.
- (3) In this Part “building control functions”, in relation to a local authority or registered building control approver, means the functions of the authority or approver under this Act and regulations made under it.
- (4) The operational standards rules may make different provision for different cases (for example, for different descriptions of work).
- (5) The regulatory authority may revise the operational standards rules at any time.
- (6) The regulatory authority must publish the operational standards rules (and any revised rules).

58Z1 Reporting requirements

- (1) The regulatory authority may direct local authorities and registered building control approvers to provide it, at specified times or intervals, with specified reports, returns and other information relating to the exercise of their building control functions.
- (2) “Specified” means specified in the direction.
- (3) A direction under this section—
 - (a) must be in writing;
 - (b) may be general or specific;
 - (c) may be varied or revoked.
- (4) A registered building control approver who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a direction under this section commits an offence.
- (5) An offence under subsection (4) is punishable on summary conviction by a fine.

58Z2 Information: Wales

- (1) This section applies where the Welsh Ministers are the regulatory authority.
- (2) The Welsh Ministers may by notice in writing require a local authority or registered building control approver to provide the Welsh Ministers with any documents or information relating to the exercise of their building control functions that the Welsh Ministers reasonably require.
- (3) The notice must specify—
 - (a) the documents or information required,

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the date by which they must be provided, and
 - (c) the form in which they must be provided.
- (4) A registered building control approver who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a notice under this section commits an offence.
- (5) An offence under subsection \(4\) is punishable on summary conviction by a fine.

58Z3 Investigations

- (1) If it appears to the regulatory authority (on receipt of a complaint or otherwise) that a local authority or registered building control approver may have contravened the operational standards rules, the regulatory authority may investigate the matter.
- (2) The regulatory authority must prepare and publish a statement of the procedure it will follow when investigating an authority or approver under this section (which must include an opportunity for the authority or approver to make representations).
- (3) The regulatory authority may revise the statement at any time (and must publish any revised statement).

58Z4 Improvement notice

- (1) The regulatory authority may give an improvement notice to a local authority or a registered building control approver if it appears to the regulatory authority (following an investigation under section 58Z3 or otherwise) that the local authority or registered building control approver has contravened operational standards rules.
- (2) An improvement notice is a notice requiring the local authority or registered building control approver to remedy the contravention by doing, or by refraining from doing, anything specified in the order.
- (3) An improvement notice may have effect—
- (a) until it is revoked, or
 - (b) for a period specified in the notice.
- (4) Where the regulatory authority gives an improvement notice, it must also give the local authority or registered building control approver a statement of the reasons for giving the notice.
- (5) Where the regulatory authority gives an improvement notice to a registered building control approver, in prescribed cases it must as soon as reasonably practicable provide copies of the notice and the statement—
- (a) to each local authority in England, where the regulatory authority is the regulator, or
 - (b) to each local authority in Wales, where the regulatory authority is the Welsh Ministers.
- (6) Where the regulatory authority giving an improvement notice is the regulator, it must as soon as reasonably practicable provide copies of the notice and the statement of reasons to the Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) The local authority or registered building control approver to whom the improvement notice is given may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against the notice.

58Z5 Serious contravention notices

- (1) The regulatory authority may give a serious contravention notice to a local authority or a registered building control approver if it appears to the regulatory authority (following an investigation under section 58Z3 or otherwise) that the condition in subsection (2) or (3) is met.
- (2) The condition in this subsection is that—
- (a) the local authority or registered building control approver has contravened operational standards rules, and
 - (b) as a result of the contravention the safety of persons in or about buildings has been, or may have been, put at risk.
- (3) This condition in this subsection is that the local authority or registered building control approver—
- (a) has been given an improvement notice under section 58Z4, and
 - (b) has failed to remedy the contravention of operational standards rules in respect of which the notice was given.
- (4) A serious contravention notice is a notice requiring the local authority or registered building control approver to remedy the contravention in question by doing, or by refraining from doing, anything specified in the order.
- (5) A serious contravention notice may have effect—
- (a) until it is revoked, or
 - (b) for a period specified in the notice.
- (6) Where the regulatory authority gives a serious contravention notice, it must also give the local authority or registered building control approver a statement of the reasons for giving the notice.
- (7) Where the regulatory authority gives a serious contravention notice to a registered building control approver, in prescribed cases it must as soon as reasonably practicable provide copies of the notice and the statement—
- (a) to each local authority in England, where the regulatory authority is the regulator, or
 - (b) to each local authority in Wales, where the regulatory authority is the Welsh Ministers.
- (8) Where the regulatory authority giving a serious contravention notice is the regulator, it must as soon as reasonably practicable provide copies of the notice and the statement of reasons to the Secretary of State.
- (9) The local authority or registered building control approver to whom the serious contravention notice is given may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against the notice.
- (10) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes a serious contravention notice commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

58Z6 Continuing failure to meet standards: registered building control approvers

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) the regulatory authority has given a registered building control approver one or more serious contravention notices under section 58Z5, and
 - (b) it appears to the regulatory authority that the way in which the approver exercises their building control functions—
 - (i) falls short of the standards expected, and
 - (ii) puts, or may put, the safety of persons in or about buildings at risk, and is likely to continue to do so.
- (2) The regulatory authority may cancel the approver’s registration.
- (3) But before cancelling a registered building control approver’s registration under subsection \(2\) the regulatory authority must—
 - (a) give the approver notice that it is considering its registration under that subsection, and explain its reasons, and
 - (b) invite the approver to make representations within a period specified in the notice (which must not be less than 14 days).
- (4) Where the regulatory authority cancels a registered building control approver’s registration under subsection \(2\) it must as soon as reasonably practicable—
 - (a) notify the approver that it has done so,
 - (b) give the approver a statement of its reasons, and
 - (c) notify—
 - (i) each local authority in England, where the regulatory authority is the regulator, or
 - (ii) each local authority in Wales, where the regulatory authority is the Welsh Ministers.
- (5) A registered building control approver may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal against the cancellation of its registration under subsection \(2\).

58Z7 Continuing failure to meet standards: local authorities in England

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) the regulatory authority is the regulator,
 - (b) the regulatory authority has given a local authority one or more serious contravention notices under section 58Z5, and
 - (c) it appears to the regulatory authority that the way in which the local authority exercises their building control functions—
 - (i) falls short of the standards expected, and
 - (ii) puts, or may put, the safety of persons in or about buildings at risk, and is likely to continue to do so.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The regulatory authority may recommend to the Secretary of State that the Secretary of State make an order under section 116(4) (transfer of functions to the Secretary of State or another local authority).
- (3) But before making a recommendation under subsection \(2\) the regulatory authority must—
 - (a) give the local authority notice that it is considering making a recommendation under that subsection, and explain its reasons, and
 - (b) invite the authority to make representations within a period specified in the notice (which must not be less than 14 days).
- (4) Where the regulatory authority makes a recommendation under subsection \(2\) it must as soon as reasonably practicable—
 - (a) notify the local authority that it has done so, and
 - (b) give the local authority a statement of its reasons.
- (5) A local authority may appeal to the tribunal against a recommendation under subsection \(2\).

Inspection of local authorities and registered building control approvers

58Z8 Inspections

- (1) The regulatory authority may carry out an inspection of a local authority, or a registered building control approver, in relation to their exercise of building control functions.
- (2) The purposes for which an inspection may be carried out include—
 - (a) ascertaining the efficiency and effectiveness of the local authority or registered building control approver in exercising their building control functions;
 - (b) verifying any information provided by the local authority or registered building control approver to the regulatory authority, in connection with their building control functions.

Information sharing

58Z9 Sharing of information between regulatory authorities

- (1) The regulator may disclose information held in connection with a function under this Part to the Welsh Ministers for the purposes of—
 - (a) a function of the regulator under this Part, or
 - (b) a function of the Welsh Ministers under this Part.
- (2) The Welsh Ministers may disclose information held in connection with a function under this Part to the regulator for the purposes of—
 - (a) a function of the Welsh Ministers under this Part, or
 - (b) a function of the regulator under this Part.
- (3) Except as provided by subsection (4), the disclosure of information under this section does not breach—

“Building control authorities: restricted activities and functions

46A Building control authorities: restricted activities and functions

- (1) A building control authority may carry out a restricted activity in relation to any work only through a registered building inspector, acting on the authority’s behalf, whose registration has effect in relation to work of that description.
- (2) Before each exercise of a restricted function in relation to any work, a building control authority must obtain and consider the advice of a registered building inspector whose registration has effect in relation to work of that description.
- (3) The registered building inspector who carries out the restricted activity, or advises on the exercise of the restricted function, may (but need not) be employed by the authority.
- (4) In this section—
 - “restricted activity” means an activity that is prescribed for the purposes of this section;
 - “restricted function” means a function of a building control authority under—
 - (a) this Part,
 - (b) Part 3, or
 - (c) regulations made under this Part or Part 3,that is prescribed for the purposes of this section.”
- (3) After section 54A (inserted by section 47) insert—

“Registered building control approvers: restricted activities and functions

54B Registered building control approvers: restricted activities and functions

- (1) This section applies to a registered building control approver who is not a registered building inspector.
- (2) The approver may carry out a restricted activity in relation to any work only through a registered building inspector, acting on the approver’s behalf, whose registration has effect in relation to work of that description.
- (3) Before each exercise of a restricted function in relation to any work, the approver must obtain and consider the advice of a registered building inspector whose registration has effect in relation to work of that description.
- (4) The registered building inspector who carries out the restricted activity, or advises on the exercise of the restricted function, may (but need not) be employed by the approver.

45 Default powers of appropriate national authority

- (1) The Building Act 1984 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 116 (power to transfer local authority functions to appropriate national authority)—
 - (a) in the heading for “Secretary of State” substitute “appropriate national authority”;
 - (b) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) for “Secretary of State” substitute “appropriate national authority”;
 - (ii) for “he” substitute “it”;
 - (c) in subsection (2)—
 - (i) for “Secretary of State” substitute “appropriate national authority”;
 - (ii) for the words from “make an order” to the end substitute “make a transfer order in respect of the body in default.”;
 - (d) after subsection (2) insert—
 - “(3) The Secretary of State must consult the regulator before making an order under subsection (1) or (2).
 - (4) The Secretary of State may also make a transfer order in respect of a local authority if—
 - (a) under section 58Z7(2) the regulator recommends that the Secretary of State make a transfer order in respect of the authority, and
 - (b) the Secretary of State is satisfied that the way in which the authority exercises its functions under this Act—
 - (i) falls short of the standards expected, and
 - (ii) puts, or may put, the safety of persons in or about buildings at risk, and is likely to continue to do so.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- and is likely to continue to do so.
- (6) A “transfer order”, in respect of a local authority or joint board, is an order transferring to the appropriate national authority, or to another local authority, such functions of the authority or board as may be specified in the order.”
- (3) In section 117 (expenses)—
- (a) in the heading for “Secretary of State” substitute “appropriate national authority”;
 - (b) before subsection (1) insert—
 - “(A1) This section applies where the appropriate national authority has transferred functions to itself by a transfer order under section 116.
 - (A2) Any expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in discharging the transferred functions are to be paid in the first instance out of money provided by Parliament.”;
 - (c) in subsection \(1\)—
 - (i) for the words before paragraph \(a\) substitute “The amount of any expenses certified by the appropriate national authority as having been incurred by the authority in discharging the transferred functions”;
 - (ii) in paragraph \(a\) for “him” substitute “the authority”;
 - (iii) in paragraph \(b\) for the words from “him” to the end substitute “the authority from the body as a debt due to the authority”;
 - (d) in subsection \(2\) for “Secretary of State” substitute “appropriate national authority”.
- (4) In section 118 (variation or revocation of transfer order)—

46 Higher-risk building work: registered building control approvers

- (1) In section 47 of the Building Act 1984 (giving and acceptance of initial notice), in subsection (1)(a)—
 - (a) after “prescribed form” insert “relating to work that is not higher-risk building work”;
 - (b) after “carry out” insert “the”.
- (2) In section 51A of the Building Act 1984 (variation of work to which initial notice relates), for subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) This section applies where—

 - (a) it is proposed that the work to which an initial notice relates should be varied, and
 - (b) the work as varied is not higher-risk building work.”
- (3) After section 52 of the Building Act 1984 insert—

“52A Cancellation of initial notice when work becomes higher-risk building work

- (1) If, at a time when an initial notice is in force, it appears to the registered building control approver that some or all of the work has become higher-risk building work, the registered building control approver must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, cancel the relevant part of the initial notice by notice in the prescribed form given to—
 - (a) the local authority concerned, and
 - (b) the person carrying out or intending to carry out the work.
- (2) If, at a time when an initial notice is in force, it appears to the person carrying out or intending to carry out the work that some or all of the work has become higher-risk building work, the person must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, cancel the relevant part of the initial notice by notice in the prescribed form given to—
 - (a) the local authority concerned, and
 - (b) the registered building control approver.
- (3) Where a person is required to give a notice under subsection (1) or (2) in relation to higher-risk building work in England, the person must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, give a copy of that notice to the regulator.
- (4) If, at a time when an initial notice is in force, it appears to the local authority concerned that some or all of the work has become higher-risk building work, the authority must cancel the relevant part of the initial notice by notice in the prescribed form given to—
 - (a) the registered building control approver, and

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (b) the person shown in the initial notice as the person intending to carry out the work.
- (5) Where a local authority is required to give a notice under subsection (4) in relation to higher-risk building work in England, the local authority must give a copy of that notice to the regulator.
- (6) A person commits an offence if they fail without reasonable excuse to—
 - (a) give to a local authority a notice that the person is required to give by subsection (1) or (2);
 - (b) give to the regulator a copy of a notice that the person is required to give by subsection (3).
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (6) is liable on summary conviction to a fine.
- (8) Where a notice is given under any of subsections (1), (2) and (4) (a “cancellation notice”)—
 - (a) the part of the initial notice to which the cancellation notice relates is cancelled with effect from the day on which the cancellation notice is given, and
 - (b) a new initial notice may not be given in relation to any of the work to which the cancelled part of the initial notice related.
- (9) In this section “the relevant part of the initial notice” means so much of the initial notice as relates to work that has become higher-risk building work.

52B Effect of initial notice ceasing to be in force where work becomes higher-risk building work

- (1) This section applies where an initial notice ceases to be in force, whether in whole or in part, by virtue of section 47(4)(b)(ia) (higher-risk building work).
- (2) If, before the day on which the relevant part of the initial notice ceased to be in force, a final certificate—
 - (a) was given in respect of part of the work to which the relevant part of the initial notice relates, and
 - (b) was accepted by the local authority,the fact that the relevant part of the initial notice has ceased to be in force does not affect the continuing operation of section 51(3) in relation to that part of the work.
- (3) The building control authority in relation to any of the uncertified work is—
 - (a) in England, the regulator, and
 - (b) in Wales, the relevant local authority (within the meaning of section 121A(2)).
- (4) In subsection (3), the “uncertified work” means any of the work—
 - (a) to which the relevant part of the initial notice relates, and
 - (b) in respect of which no final certificate has been accepted by the local authority as mentioned in subsection (2).

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Sections 91(3) (duties of the regulator) and 121A(1) (meaning of “building control authority”) apply as if, in each case, the reference to section 91ZA or 91ZB were a reference to section 52B, 91ZA or 91ZB.
- (6) In any case where this section applies, the reference in subsection (4) of section 36 to the date of the completion of the work in question has effect, in relation to a notice under subsection (1) of that section, as if it were a reference to the date on which the relevant part of the initial notice ceased to be in force.
- (7) In this section “the relevant part of the initial notice” means so much of the initial notice as was cancelled by a notice under section 52A (cancellation of initial notice when work becomes higher-risk building work).”
- (4) In section 47 of the Building Act 1984 (giving and acceptance of initial notice), in subsection (4)(b)—
- (a) omit the “or” after sub-paragraph (i);
 - (b) after sub-paragraph (i) insert—
 - “(ia) it is cancelled, in whole or in part, by a notice under section 52A,”.
- (5) In section 55 of the Building Act 1984 (appeals), after subsection (2) insert—
- “(2A) Where a local authority cancels an initial notice, in whole or in part, by giving a notice (a “cancellation notice”) under section 52A(4)—
- (a) the person shown in the initial notice as the person intending to carry out the work, or
 - (b) the registered building control approver,
- may appeal to the appropriate court or tribunal.
- (2B) On an appeal under subsection (2A), the court or tribunal must determine whether the relevant part of the initial notice was properly cancelled.
- (2C) In a case where the court or tribunal determines that the relevant part of the initial notice was not properly cancelled—
- (a) the determination does not have the effect of reinstating the relevant part of the initial notice;
 - (b) section 52B(2) and (6) continue to apply in relation to the relevant part of the initial notice;
 - (c) a new initial notice relating to any of the work to which the relevant part of the original initial notice related (the “original work”) may be given only if the new initial notice—
 - (i) is given before the end of the period of seven days beginning with the day on which the appeal is determined or such other period as may be prescribed, and
 - (ii) relates to all of the original work, except for any work in respect of which a final certificate has been accepted by the local authority;
 - (d) the court or tribunal may give such directions as it considers appropriate in consequence of the determination (which may include giving directions to the regulator).
- (2D) Where—

- (a) a plans certificate has been given in respect of any of the original work,
- (b) the conditions in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 53(2) are fulfilled with respect to that certificate, and
- (c) a new initial notice as referred to in subsection (2C)(c) is accepted, section 50(1C) does not apply in relation to so much of the work to which the new initial notice relates as is work specified in the plans certificate.

(2E) Where—

- (a) a new initial notice is given in accordance with subsection (2C)(c), and
- (b) the registered building control approver shown in the new initial notice is different to the registered building control approver shown in the original initial notice, sections 53B to 53E apply as if any reference in those sections to a new initial notice given in accordance with section 53(7)(a) were a reference to a new initial notice given in accordance with section 55(2C)(c).

(2F) In this section the “relevant part of the initial notice” means so much of the initial notice as was subject to the cancellation notice.”

- (1) The Building Act 1984 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 50 (plans certificates)—
 - (a) for subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) In this Part a “plans certificate” means a certificate by a registered building control approver that the relevant conditions are met in relation to the work specified in the certificate (which must be work in relation to which the approver has given an initial notice).
 - (1A) The relevant conditions are that the registered building control approver—
 - (a) has inspected—
 - (i) full plans of the work, or
 - (ii) plans of the work that the approver is satisfied are sufficient for the purposes of giving a plans certificate in relation to the work,
 - (b) is satisfied that the plans are not defective,
 - (c) is satisfied that work carried out in accordance with the plans would not contravene any provision of building regulations, and
 - (d) has complied with any prescribed requirements as to consultation or otherwise.
 - (1B) Subsection (1C) applies if the person intending to carry out work to which an initial notice relates asks the registered building control approver who gave the initial notice to give a plans certificate in respect of the work.

- (3) In paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 (public body’s plans certificates)—
- (a) for sub-paragraph (1) substitute—
- “(1) In this Part a “public body’s plans certificate” means a certificate by a public body that the relevant conditions are met in relation to the work specified in the certificate (which must be work in relation to which the public body has given a public body’s notice).
- (1A) The relevant conditions are that the public body—
- (a) is satisfied that—
- (i) a competent person has inspected full plans of the work, or
- (ii) a competent person has inspected plans of the work which the public body is satisfied, in the light of that inspection, are sufficient for the purposes of giving a public body’s plans certificate in relation to the work,
- (b) is satisfied in the light of that inspection that the plans are not defective,

51 New initial notices

(1) In section 53 of the Building Act 1984 (effect of initial notice ceasing to be in force), for subsection (7) substitute—

“(7) A new initial notice relating to any of the work to which the original initial notice related (the “original work”) may be given only if—

- (a) in the case of an initial notice that ceases to be in force by virtue of—
 - (i) being cancelled under section 52(1)(d) or (e),
 - (ii) being cancelled under section 52(5A) based on a condition in section 52(5B)(a) to (d), or
 - (iii) such other provision as may be prescribed, the conditions in subsection (8) are met, or
- (b) in any other case, the conditions in subsection (9) are met.

(8) The conditions referred to in subsection (7)(a) are that the new initial notice—

- (a) is given before the end of the period of seven days beginning with the day on which the original initial notice ceased to be in force or such other period as may be prescribed,
- (b) relates to all of the original work, except for any work in respect of which a final certificate has been accepted by the local authority, and
- (c) is not a combined initial notice and plans certificate given in accordance with section 50(4).

(9) The conditions referred to in subsection (7)(b) are that—

- (a) before the original initial notice ceases to be in force, the original registered building control approver has given a final certificate under section 51 in respect of any part of the work which they are satisfied has been completed, and
- (b) the new initial notice relates to all of the original work, except for any work in respect of which a final certificate has been accepted by the local authority.

(10) Where—

- (a) a plans certificate has been given in respect of any of the original work,
 - (b) the conditions in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) are fulfilled with respect to that certificate, and
 - (c) a new initial notice as referred to in subsection (7) is accepted,
- section 50(1C) does not apply in relation to so much of the work to which the new initial notice relates as is work specified in the plans certificate.

(11) Section 53B applies in relation to a new initial notice given in accordance with subsection (7)(a).

(12) The appropriate national authority may issue guidance about the process for—

- (a) the giving of a new initial notice under subsection (7);

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (b) the giving of a transfer certificate and a transfer report under section 53B;
 - (c) the consideration of a transfer certificate and a transfer report under section 53C.
- (13) The appropriate national authority may revise or withdraw any issued guidance.
- (14) The following must have regard to guidance issued under subsection (12)—
 - (a) a local authority;
 - (b) a registered building control approver;
 - (c) a person carrying out or intending to carry out work to which a new initial notice given under subsection (7) relates.”
- (2) After section 53A of the Building Act 1984 (inserted by section 36) insert—

“53B New initial notice: change of registered building control approver

- (1) This section applies where a new initial notice is given in accordance with section 53(7)(a) (change of registered building control approver in certain cases).
- (2) Where the new initial notice is accepted by the local authority the registered building control approver must take all reasonable steps to determine whether the unfinished work contravenes any provision of building regulations (including where necessary by carrying out inspections and laying open any work).
- (3) If the registered building control approver determines that the unfinished work does not contravene any provision of building regulations, the approver must give a transfer certificate and a transfer report to the local authority before the end of the relevant period.
- (4) If the registered building control approver is unable to make the determination referred to in subsection (3), the approver must—
 - (a) give the person carrying out or intending to carry out the work a notice setting out why they were unable to make the determination, and
 - (b) give a copy of that notice to the local authority.
- (5) A transfer certificate must—
 - (a) confirm that the registered building control approver has determined that the unfinished work up to the date of the certificate does not contravene any provision of building regulations, and
 - (b) contain the prescribed information.
- (6) A transfer report must contain any plans, documents or other information related to the confirmation in subsection (5)(a).
- (7) In this section the “relevant period” means—
 - (a) the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the new initial notice is accepted or such other period as may be prescribed, or
 - (b) such longer period as may be agreed by the local authority following a request from the registered building control approver.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) A transfer certificate given by a registered building control approver—
- (a) does not impose any liability, whether civil or criminal, on the registered building control approver for any work carried out by the previous registered building control approver, and
 - (b) does not affect any liability, whether civil or criminal, of the previous registered building control approver for work carried out by that approver.
- (9) In this section “unfinished work” means all of the work to which the original initial notice related, except for any work in respect of which a final certificate was accepted by the local authority.

53C Consideration of transfer certificate and report

- (1) This section applies where a registered building control approver gives a transfer certificate and a transfer report to a local authority in accordance with section 53B(3).
- (2) The local authority must, by notice, accept or reject the certificate and report before the end of the relevant period.
- (3) The local authority may reject the certificate and report only if—
 - (a) any of the prescribed grounds exist, or
 - (b) the registered building control approver fails to comply with a requirement in subsection (4) to give information to the local authority.
- (4) During the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the transfer certificate and transfer report is given to the local authority or such other period as may be prescribed, the local authority may, by notice, require the registered building control approver to give to the local authority such information as may be specified in the notice.
- (5) The registered building control approver must give the information specified in the notice to the local authority before the end of the period of seven days beginning with the day on which the notice is given or such other period as may be prescribed.
- (6) In this section the “relevant period” means—
 - (a) the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the transfer certificate and transfer report is given to the local authority or such other period as may be prescribed, or
 - (b) such longer period as is determined in accordance with subsection (7).
- (7) Where—
 - (a) a local authority requires a registered building control approver to give information to the local authority under subsection (4), and
 - (b) the day by which the information is required to be given would (but for this subsection) fall within the final seven days of the relevant period or would fall outside the relevant period, the relevant period is to be extended to the end of the period of seven days beginning with the day after the day by which the information is required to be given.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) Where a local authority requires a registered building control approver to give information to the local authority under subsection (4), the local authority must give a copy of the notice to the person shown in the initial notice as the person intending to carry out the work.

53D Cancellation of initial notice: change of registered building control approver

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a new initial notice is given in accordance with section 53(7)(a) (change of registered building control approver in certain cases), and
 - (b) the notice is accepted by the local authority.
- (2) If, at a time when the initial notice is in force—
- (a) the registered building control approver does not give the local authority a transfer certificate and transfer report in accordance with section 53B(3), or
 - (b) the local authority rejects the transfer certificate and transfer report in accordance with section 53C,
- the local authority must cancel the initial notice by notice in the prescribed form given to the registered building control approver and the person shown in the initial notice as the person intending to carry out the work.
- (3) The person carrying out or intending to carry out the work to which the initial notice relates may, at a time—
- (a) when the initial notice is in force, and
 - (b) before the local authority accepts or rejects the transfer certificate and report in accordance with section 53C,
- cancel the initial notice by notice in the prescribed form given to the local authority and, if it is practicable to do so, to the registered building control approver.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2) or (3) has the effect of cancelling the initial notice to which it relates with effect from the day on which the notice is given.
- (5) Where an initial notice ceases to be in force by virtue of subsection (2) or (3), a new initial notice may not, except in prescribed circumstances, be given in relation to any of the work to which the cancelled notice related.
- (6) Where an initial notice ceases to be in force by virtue of subsection (2) or (3)—
- (a) for the purpose of enabling the local authority to perform the functions referred to in section 48(1) in relation to any part of the work, building regulations may require the local authority to be provided with plans that relate to that part of the work, and
 - (b) section 53(5) applies in relation to the notice as it applies in relation to an initial notice that ceases to be in force as referred to in section 53(1).
- (7) This section is without prejudice to any other provisions of this Part relating to when an initial notice ceases to be in force.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 53E Restriction on functions of registered building control approvers

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a new initial notice is given in accordance with section 53(7)(a) (change of registered building control approver in certain cases), and
 - (b) the notice is accepted by the local authority.
- (2) During the period in respect of which—
- (a) the notice is in force, but
 - (b) a transfer certificate and a transfer report have not been accepted by the local authority,
- the registered building control approver may not exercise the relevant functions.
- (3) In this section the “relevant functions” are the functions of a registered building control approver under, or under regulations made under—
- (a) section 50 (plans certificates);
 - (b) section 51 (final certificates);
 - (c) section 51A (amendment notices).”
- (3) In section 47 of the Building Act 1984 (giving and acceptance of initial notice)—
- (a) in subsection (4)(b), after sub-paragraph (ia) (inserted by section 46) insert—“(ib) it is cancelled by a notice under section 53D, or”;
 - (b) after subsection (7) insert—
“(8) This section is subject to sections 53 and 53B (new initial notices).”
- (4) In section 55 of the Building Act 1984 (appeals)—
- (a) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) omit the “or” after paragraph (a);
 - (ii) after paragraph (b) insert “or
 - (c) a transfer certificate and a transfer report,”;
 - (b) in subsection (2)(a), after “notice” insert “, report”;
 - (c) in subsection (2)(b), after “notice” insert “, report”.

“56A Giving information by electronic means: England

- (1) The regulator must establish and maintain a facility (the “facility”) to enable a specified person to give specified relevant information to another person by electronic communication.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations require or authorise a specified person to use the facility when giving specified relevant information to another person.
- (3) Any information given to a person in accordance with regulations made under subsection (2) is to be treated for the purposes of section 56B (requirement to keep register) as also having been given to the regulator.
- (4) Regulations under this section may require a person who is given specified relevant information otherwise than through the facility to give that information to the regulator using the facility.
- (5) Regulations under this section may make provision treating specified relevant information that is given using the facility as having been given in the prescribed form for the purposes of this Part.
- (6) In this section—
 - “relevant information” means information that is required or authorised to be given by this Part or regulations made under it;
 - “specified” means specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State under this section.
- (7) In this section and section 56B—
 - “information” includes documents;
 - “documents” includes notices, certificates, orders, consents, demands and plans.
- (8) The Secretary of State may make regulations under this section only in relation to England.

56B Requirement to keep register: England

- (1) The regulator must keep a register of specified relevant information.
- (2) The information that may be specified for the purposes of subsection (1) includes in particular information given, or treated as having been given, to the regulator using the facility established under section 56A(1).
- (3) The regulator—
 - (a) must maintain the register in electronic form;
 - (b) must ensure that any specified parts of the register are available for inspection by members of the public;
 - (c) must, in specified circumstances, provide to members of the public, on request, copies of information kept in the register.
- (4) In this section—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

“relevant information” means information that is required or authorised to be given by this Part or regulations made under it;

“specified” means specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State under this section.

- (5) The Secretary of State may make regulations under this section only in relation to England.

56C Delegation of functions

- (1) The regulator may by written notice delegate to a person, to such extent and subject to such conditions as the regulator considers appropriate, the functions conferred on the regulator by—
- (a) section 56A(1);
 - (b) section 56B(1) and (3) (including the ability to charge fees in connection with the exercise of those functions).
- (2) In subsection (1) “fees” means fees that are prescribed by, or determined by the regulator in accordance with, regulations under section 105B.
- (3) The regulator may delegate different functions to different persons under subsection (1).
- (4) The regulator may delegate functions under subsection (1) only with the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (5) The regulator may revoke a delegation of functions to a person by giving a written notice to the person.
- (6) The regulator may revoke a delegation under subsection (5) only with the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (7) Schedule 3 to the Building Safety Act 2022 (information sharing) applies as if references to the regulator included references to a person to whom the regulator has delegated functions under subsection (1)(b).”
- (2) In section 55 of the Building Act 1984 (appeals), after subsection (3) insert—
- “(4) On an appeal under subsection (1), the local authority must give the specified information to the regulator.
 - (5) In this section “specified” means specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State under this section.
 - (6) The Secretary of State may make regulations under this section only in relation to England.”
- (3) In section 56 of the Building Act 1984 (recording and furnishing of information)—
- (a) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) after “authority” insert “in Wales”;
 - (ii) after “public body’s notices” insert “, transfer reports”;
 - (iii) after “such notices” insert “, reports”;
 - (b) in subsection (3), after “plans certificates, final certificates” insert “, transfer certificates”;
 - (c) in subsection (4), after “section” insert “by a local authority in Wales”.

Miscellaneous and general

54 Functions under Part 3 of Building Act 1984

In the Building Act 1984 after section 90 insert—

“90A Functions under this Part: the regulator etc

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that in specified cases, a specified function under this Part of local authorities in England is to be a function of the regulator instead of, or in addition to, the local authority in question.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that in specified cases, a relevant authority proposing to exercise a specified function under this Part must notify a specified relevant authority of specified matters.
- (3) The notification must be made in the specified way and by the specified time.
- (4) In this section—
 - “relevant authority” means the regulator or a local authority for an area in England;
 - “specified” means specified by regulations under this section.”

58 Levy on applications for building control approval etc

In the Building Act 1984 after section 105B (inserted by section 57) insert—

“105C Levy on certain applications for building control approval etc

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for and in connection with the imposition, in respect of relevant applications or notices or specified descriptions of relevant applications or notices, of a levy for the purpose of meeting any building safety expenditure.
- (2) The levy is payable to the Secretary of State or a person designated by the Secretary of State.
- (3) The regulations may in particular make provision about—
 - (a) the amount of the levy;
 - (b) the person by whom it must be paid;
 - (c) when the levy must be paid;
 - (d) the provision of information or documents to, or by, the Secretary of State or designated person;
 - (e) the consequences of a failure to pay the levy in accordance with the regulations;
 - (f) the determination of disputes (including provision conferring a right to appeal to the tribunal and provision about appeals).
- (4) The different provision that may be made by the regulations by virtue of section 120A(2)(b) includes in particular different provision in relation to—
 - (a) persons who are eligible to be members of a building industry scheme and are not members of that scheme, and
 - (b) other persons.
- (5) The regulations may contain exemptions, for specified descriptions of person.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) The regulations may provide that, unless the building control authority is given a notification under subsection (7) in relation to a relevant application or notice (or a relevant application or notice of a specified description), the authority—
- (a) may not take a specified step in relation to the application or notice (for example, may not grant an application, accept a notice or give a specified certificate in relation to works connected with the application or notice), or
 - (b) must take a specified step in relation to the application or notice (for example, must reject a notice).
- (7) A notification under this section is a notification given by the Secretary of State or designated person—
- (a) that the levy payable in respect of the application or notice has been paid, or
 - (b) that no levy is payable in respect of the application or notice.
- (8) The regulations must provide for any amount received by a designated person by way of a levy to be paid to the Secretary of State, subject to retention of an amount, determined by or in accordance with the regulations, in respect of the costs of administering the levy.
- (9) A designation under this section must be published in such way as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (10) In this section “relevant application or notice” means—
- (a) an application for building control approval,
 - (b) an initial notice,
 - (c) an amendment notice, or
 - (d) a public body’s notice,
- relating to a relevant building or proposed relevant building (including any such application or notice relating to work that causes a building to become a relevant building or causes a relevant building to cease to be such a building).
- (11) In this section—
- “amendment notice, “initial notice” and “public body’s notice” have the same meaning as in Part 2 (see section 58);
- “building industry scheme” means a scheme established under section 126 of the Building Safety Act 2022;
- “building safety expenditure” means expenditure incurred by the Secretary of State (whether before or after the passing of this Act) in providing financial assistance to persons (whether by way of grant, loan or otherwise) for the purposes of enabling them to improve the safety of persons in or about buildings in England;
- “relevant building” means a building in England consisting of or containing—
- (a) one or more dwellings, or
 - (b) other accommodation,
- (and “accommodation” here includes temporary accommodation, for example in a hotel or hospital);
- “specified” means specified in the regulations.”

- (1) The following provisions bind the Crown—
 - (a) Part 1 except sections 35B to 37, 39A and 40;
 - (b) Part 2;
 - (c) Part 2A except sections 58I to 58K, 58U, 58V and 58Z4 to 58Z6;
 - (d) Part 4 so far as it relates to a provision within any of the preceding paragraphs.
- (2) No contravention by the Crown of a provision within subsection (1)(a) to (d) makes the Crown criminally liable.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not affect the criminal liability of persons in the service of the Crown.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where—
 - (a) a contravention of a provision within subsection (1)(a) or (b), or of Part 4 so far as it relates to such a provision, occurs in relation to a building or proposed building for which a local authority is the building control authority, or
 - (b) a contravention of a provision within subsection (1)(c), or of Part 4 so far as it relates to such a provision, occurs in relation to Wales, and the Crown would, but for subsection (2), be criminally liable under this Act in respect of the contravention.
- (5) The High Court may, on the application of—
 - (a) the local authority (in a case within subsection (4)(a)), or
 - (b) the Welsh Ministers (in a case within subsection (4)(b)), declare unlawful the act or omission constituting the contravention.
- (6) In this section a reference to a provision includes any instrument made under it.
- (7) For the application to the Crown of Part 3, and Part 4 so far as it relates to that Part, see section 87.”

Meaning of “building safety risk”

62 Meaning of “building safety risk”

- (1) In this Part “building safety risk” means a risk to the safety of people in or about a building arising from any of the following occurring as regards the building—
 - (a) the spread of fire;
 - (b) structural failure;
 - (c) any other prescribed matter.
- (2) Before making regulations under subsection \(1\)\(c\), the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the regulator, and
 - (b) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (3) But the regulator need not be consulted if—
 - (a) the regulations give effect to a recommendation made by the regulator under section 63, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State has under section 64 asked the regulator for its advice in relation to a proposal to make the regulations.

I175 S. 62 in force at Royal Assent, see s. 170\(1\)\(f\)

63 Recommendations about regulations under section 62

- (1) The regulator may recommend that the Secretary of State makes regulations under section 62.
- (2) The regulator may make a recommendation to prescribe a matter under section 62\(1\)\(c\) for any higher-risk building only if it considers that if the matter occurred as regards a higher-risk building it would have the potential to cause a major incident.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The regulator may make a recommendation to prescribe a matter under section 62(1)(c) for a description of higher-risk building only if it considers that if the matter occurred as regards a higher-risk building of that description it would have the potential to cause a major incident.
- (4) The regulator may make a recommendation to prescribe a matter under section 62(1)(c) for a description of building that is not a higher-risk building only if—
 - (a) it considers that—
 - (i) if the matter occurred as regards a building of that description it would have the potential to cause a major incident,
 - (ii) the risk of the matter occurring is greater for that description of buildings than it is for buildings that are not of that description, and
 - (iii) this Part should apply (with or without modifications) in relation to buildings of that description, and
 - (b) it also recommends that buildings of that description should be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Part (and, if section 69(2)(b) applies, makes a recommendation of the kind mentioned there).
- (5) The regulator may make a recommendation to make regulations that would result in a matter ceasing to be prescribed under section 62(1)(c) only if—
 - (a) where the matter is prescribed for any higher-risk building, it considers that if the matter occurred as regards a higher-risk building it would not have the potential to cause a major incident;
 - (b) where the matter is prescribed for a description of higher-risk building, it considers that if the matter occurred as regards a higher-risk building of that description it would not have the potential to cause a major incident.
- (6) When making a recommendation, the regulator must give the Secretary of State a statement of its assessment of the issues it considered when deciding to make the recommendation.
- (7) If following a recommendation the Secretary of State decides not to make the regulations, the Secretary of State must publish a document setting out—
 - (a) the regulator’s recommendation,
 - (b) the Secretary of State’s decision not to make the regulations, and
 - (c) the reasons for that decision.
- (8) In this Part “major incident” means an incident resulting in—
 - (a) a significant number of deaths, or
 - (b) serious injury to a significant number of people.

Meaning of “higher-risk building”

65 Meaning of “higher-risk building” etc

- (1) In this Part “higher-risk building” means a building in England that—
 - (a) is at least 18 metres in height or has at least 7 storeys, and
 - (b) contains at least 2 residential units.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision supplementing this section.
- (3) The regulations may in particular—
 - (a) define “building” or “storey” for the purposes of this section;
 - (b) make provision about how the height of a building is to be determined for those purposes;
 - (c) provide that “higher-risk building” does not include a building of a prescribed description.
- (4) Regulations made by virtue of subsection \(3\)\(a\) may in particular define “building” so as to provide that it includes—
 - (a) any other structure or erection of any kind (whether temporary or permanent);
 - (b) any vehicle, vessel or other movable object of any kind, in such circumstances as may be prescribed.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend this section (other than subsection \(2\) or this subsection).
- (6) For the meaning of “residential unit” see section 115.

66 Regulations under section 65: procedure

- (1) Before making regulations under section 65, the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the regulator, and
 - (b) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (2) But the regulator need not be consulted if—
 - (a) the regulations give effect to a recommendation made by the regulator under section 63(4) or 69, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State has under section 70 asked the regulator for advice about the description of building in question.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 67 Regulations under section 65: additional procedure in certain cases

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary of State proposes to make regulations under section 65 that would result in a description of building (including anything within subsection \(4\) of that section) becoming a higher-risk building for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) The Secretary of State must ask the regulator under section 70(1) for advice about the description of building, except where the regulations would give effect to a recommendation under section 69(2).
- (3) The Secretary of State must carry out a cost-benefit analysis and publish it.
- (4) In this section “cost-benefit analysis” means—
 - (a) an analysis of the costs together with an analysis of the benefits that will arise if the regulations are made, and
 - (b) an estimate of those costs and of those benefits (subject to subsection \(5\)).
- (5) If, in the opinion of the Secretary of State—
 - (a) the costs or benefits cannot reasonably be estimated, or
 - (b) it is not reasonably practicable to produce an estimate,
 the cost-benefit analysis need not estimate them, but must include a statement of the Secretary of State’s opinion and an explanation of it.

68 Modification of Part in relation to certain kinds of higher-risk building

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations modifying this Part as it applies in relation to a prescribed description of higher-risk building.
- (2) Before making the regulations, the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the regulator, and
 - (b) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (3) But the regulator need not be consulted if the regulations give effect to a recommendation under section 63(4), 69 or 70.

69 Recommendations about definition of “higher-risk building” etc

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if, in respect of any description of building that is not a higher-risk building, the regulator considers—
 - (a) that a building safety risk is greater for that description of buildings than it is for buildings that are not of that description,
 - (b) that if the risk materialised as regards a building of that description it would have the potential to cause a major incident, and
 - (c) that this Part should apply (with or without modifications) in relation to buildings of that description.
- (2) The regulator must—
 - (a) recommend to the Secretary of State that buildings of that description should be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Part,
 - (b) if it considers that regulations under section 68 should be made modifying this Part as it applies in relation to that description of building, make a recommendation to the Secretary of State to that effect, and
 - (c) give the Secretary of State a statement of its assessment of the issues it considered when deciding to make the recommendation under paragraph (a) and any recommendation under paragraph (b).
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) following a recommendation under subsection (2)(a) the Secretary of State decides not to make regulations under section 65 giving effect to the recommendation, or
 - (b) following a recommendation under subsection (2)(b) the Secretary of State decides not to make regulations under section 68 giving effect to the recommendation.
- (4) The Secretary of State must publish a document setting out—
 - (a) the regulator’s recommendation,
 - (b) the Secretary of State’s decision not to make the regulations, and
 - (c) the reasons for that decision.
- (5) If the regulator considers that this Part should not apply in relation to a particular description of higher-risk building, it must recommend to the Secretary of State that buildings of that description should cease to be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Part.
- (6) For the meaning of “major incident” see section 63.

70 Advice about definition of “higher-risk building” etc

- (1) Subsections (2) to (6) apply if the Secretary of State asks the regulator for advice as to whether a specified description of building should be a higher-risk building for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) The regulator must consider whether the following conditions are met—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the first condition is that a building safety risk is greater for that description of buildings than it is for buildings that are not of that description;
 - (b) the second condition is that, if the risk materialised as regards a building of that description, it would have the potential to cause a major incident;
 - (c) the third condition is that buildings of that description should be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Part.
- (3) The regulator must—
- (a) if the conditions mentioned in subsection \(2\) are met, recommend to the Secretary of State that buildings of that description should be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Part;
 - (b) otherwise, recommend to the Secretary of State that buildings of that description should not be higher-risk buildings for those purposes.
- (4) Where the regulator—
- (a) makes a recommendation under subsection \(3\)\(a\), and
 - (b) considers that regulations under section 68 should be made modifying this Part as it applies in relation to buildings of the specified description,
- it must make a recommendation to the Secretary of State to that effect.
- (5) The regulator must give the Secretary of State a statement of its assessment of the issues it considered when deciding to make the recommendation under subsection \(3\) and any recommendation under subsection \(4\).
- (6) If, following a recommendation under subsection \(3\)\(a\), the Secretary of State decides not to make regulations under section 65 giving effect to the recommendation, the Secretary of State must publish a document setting out—
- (a) the regulator’s recommendation,
 - (b) the Secretary of State’s decision not to make the regulations, and
 - (c) the reasons for that decision.
- (7) If requested, the regulator must provide advice to the Secretary of State as to whether higher-risk buildings of a specified description should cease to be higher-risk buildings for the purposes of this Part.
- (8) In this section “specified” means specified by the Secretary of State in the request.

Meaning of “accountable person” and other key definitions

71 Meaning of “occupied” higher-risk building etc

- (1) The following provisions apply for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) A higher-risk building is “occupied” if there are residents of more than one residential unit in the building.
- (3) A reference to a resident of a higher-risk building is to a resident of a residential unit in such a building.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) amend the definition of a higher-risk building being “occupied”;
 - (b) amend the definition of a “resident” of a higher-risk building;
 - (c) define, for the purposes of this Part, the meaning of being a “resident” of a residential unit.
- (5) See—
- (a) section 65 for the meaning of “higher-risk building”;
 - (b) section 115 for the meaning of “residential unit”.

72 Meaning of “accountable person”

- (1) In this Part an “accountable person” for a higher-risk building is—
- (a) a person who holds a legal estate in possession in any part of the common parts (subject to subsection \(2\)), or
 - (b) a person who does not hold a legal estate in any part of the building but who is under a relevant repairing obligation in relation to any part of the common parts.

This subsection is subject to subsection \(5\) (special rule for commonhold land).

- (2) A person (“the estate owner”) who holds a legal estate in possession in the common parts of a higher-risk building or any part of them (“the relevant common parts”) is not an accountable person for the building by virtue of subsection \(1\)\(a\) if—
- (a) each long lease of which the estate owner is lessor provides that a particular person, who does not hold a legal estate in any part of the building, is under a relevant repairing obligation in relation to all of the relevant common parts, or
 - (b) all repairing obligations relating to the relevant common parts which would otherwise be obligations of the estate owner are functions of an RTM company.
- (3) Subsection \(4\) applies where—
- (a) under a lease, a person (“the estate owner”) holds a legal estate in possession in the common parts of a higher-risk building or any part of them (“the relevant common parts”), and
 - (b) a landlord under the lease is under a relevant repairing obligation in relation to any of the relevant common parts.
- (4) For the purposes of this section and section 73—
- (a) the legal estate in possession in so much of the relevant common parts as are within subsection \(3\)\(b\) is treated as held by the landlord (instead of the estate owner), and
 - (b) if (and so far as) the landlord’s actual legal estate in those common parts is held under a lease, the legal estate in possession mentioned in paragraph \(a\) is treated as held under that lease (and, accordingly, subsection \(3\) and this subsection may apply in relation to it).

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Where a higher-risk building is on commonhold land, the commonhold association is the accountable person for the building for the purposes of this Part.
- (6) For the purposes of this section—
- “common parts”, in relation to a building, means—
- (a) the structure and exterior of the building, except so far as included in a demise of a single dwelling or of premises to be occupied for the purposes of a business, or
 - (b) any part of the building provided for the use, benefit and enjoyment of the residents of more than one residential unit (whether alone or with other persons);
- “commonhold association” and “commonhold land” have the same meaning as in Part 1 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 (see sections 34 and 1 respectively);
- “long lease”: for the meaning of “long lease” see section 115;
- “possession”: a reference to “possession” does not include the receipt of rents and profits or the right to receive the same;
- “relevant repairing obligation”: a person is under a relevant repairing obligation in relation to anything if the person is required, under a lease or by virtue of an enactment, to repair or maintain that thing;
- “RTM company” has the same meaning as in Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 (right to manage).
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend this section (other than this subsection).

73 Meaning of “principal accountable person”

- (1) In this Part the “principal accountable person” for a higher-risk building is—
- (a) in relation to a building with one accountable person, that person;
 - (b) in relation to a building with more than one accountable person, the accountable person who—
 - (i) holds a legal estate in possession in the relevant parts of the structure and exterior of the building, or
 - (ii) is within section 72(1)(b) because of a relevant repairing obligation (within the meaning of that section) in relation to the relevant parts of the structure and exterior of the building.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) the reference to “the relevant parts of the structure and exterior” of a building is to its structure and exterior except so far as included in a demise of a single dwelling or of premises to be occupied for the purposes of a business;
 - (b) the reference to “possession” does not include the receipt of rents and profits or the right to receive the same.

75 Determinations by the tribunal

- (1) An interested person may apply to the tribunal for a determination, as regards a higher-risk building, of any of the following—
- (a) the person or persons who are accountable persons for the building;
 - (b) the person who is the principal accountable person for the building;
 - (c) the part of the building for which any accountable person for the building is responsible.
- (2) Where, on an application under subsection \(1\)\(b\), it appears to the tribunal that there is more than one accountable person within section 73(1)(b), the principal accountable person is such one of those accountable persons as the tribunal considers appropriate.
- (3) In this section “interested person” means—
- (a) the regulator,
 - (b) a person who holds a legal estate in any part of the common parts (or who claims to hold such an estate), or
 - (c) a person who is under a relevant repairing obligation in relation to any part of the common parts (or who claims to be under such an obligation).
- (4) In subsection \(3\) “relevant repairing obligation” and “common parts” have the same meaning as in section 72.

Registration and certificates

76 Requirement for completion certificate before occupation

- (1) This section applies if any of the following works are carried out—
 - (a) the construction of a higher-risk building;
 - (b) the creation of additional residential units in such a building;
 - (c) works to a building that cause it to become a higher-risk building.
- (2) If a relevant residential unit is occupied before a completion certificate relating to a relevant part of the building is issued, the relevant accountable person commits an offence.
- (3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to prove that the person had a reasonable excuse for the residential unit being occupied before such a completion certificate was issued.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both).
- (5) In this section—
 - “completion certificate” means a certificate of a prescribed description that is issued under regulations made under section 1(1) of the Building Act 1984 (building regulations);
 - “occupied”: a residential unit is occupied if there is a resident of it;
 - “relevant accountable person”, in relation to a residential unit, means the accountable person who is responsible for a relevant part of the building;
 - “relevant part” of a building, in relation to a residential unit, means a part of the building containing the residential unit;
 - “relevant residential unit” means—
 - (a) in the case of works within subsection \(1\)\(a\), any residential unit in the building;
 - (b) in the case of works within subsection \(1\)\(b\), any additional residential unit;
 - (c) in the case of works within subsection \(1\)\(c\), any residential unit in the building except one that existed before the works began.

81 Building assessment certificates

(1) This section applies where—

- (a) the principal accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building applies under section 79 for a certificate in relation to the building (a “building assessment certificate”),
- (b) the application is made pursuant to a direction of the regulator under that section, and
- (c) the building is registered under section 78.

(2) The regulator must assess whether the relevant duties are being complied with (and may inspect the building in connection with that assessment).

(3) The regulator—

- (a) must give a building assessment certificate if satisfied that all relevant duties are being complied with;
- (b) if not so satisfied, must (subject to subsection \(4\)) refuse the application and notify the principal accountable person of the refusal.

(4) If the regulator considers that a contravention of a relevant duty can be remedied promptly—

- (a) the regulator may give a notice under this subsection to the principal accountable person containing a brief description of the contravention and specifying a period for remedying the contravention, and
- (b) if it does so, and the contravention is remedied within that period, it may give a building assessment certificate (instead of refusing the application).

(5) In this section “relevant duty” means a duty of an accountable person for the building under, or under prescribed regulations made under, any of the following—

- (a) section 83 (duty to assess building safety risks);
- (b) section 84 (management of building safety risks);
- (c) section 85 (duties relating to safety case report);
- (d) section 87(5) (duties relating to mandatory occurrence reporting system);
- (e) section 89 (provision of information to regulator, residents etc);
- (f) section 91 (duty to produce a residents’ engagement strategy).

(6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about building assessment certificates and notices under this section, including in particular provision about—

82 Duty to display building assessment certificate etc

- (1) The principal accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building must ensure that the following are displayed together, in a conspicuous position in the building—
 - (a) a notice in the prescribed form containing prescribed information about accountable persons for the building;
 - (b) the most recent building assessment certificate relating to the building;
 - (c) any relevant compliance notice (see subsection \(5\)).
- (2) Where a special measures order is in force in relation to an occupied higher-risk building—
 - (a) subsection \(1\) has effect as if paragraph \(b\) were omitted, and
 - (b) the principal accountable person for the building must ensure that no building assessment certificate relating to the building is displayed in the building.
- (3) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection \(1\) or \(2\)\(b\) commits an offence.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);
 and (in either case) is liable on summary conviction to a further fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale for each day on which the default continues after the initial conviction.
- (5) In this section—
 - “building assessment certificate” has the same meaning as in section 81;
 - “relevant compliance notice”: a compliance notice is “relevant” if—
 - (a) it has been given to an accountable person for the building,
 - (b) if it was not given to the principal accountable person for the building, the regulator has given a copy of it to the principal accountable person, and
 - (c) the regulator has not notified the principal accountable person that the notice has been withdrawn.

Duties relating to building safety risks

83 Assessment of building safety risks

- (1) An accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building must as soon as reasonably practicable after the relevant time assess the building safety risks as regards the part of the building for which they are responsible.
- (2) Further such assessments must be made—
 - (a) at regular intervals,
 - (b) at any time that the accountable person has reason to suspect that the current assessment is no longer valid, and
 - (c) at the direction of the regulator, within a period specified in the direction.
- (3) An assessment under subsection \(1\) or \(2\) must be suitable and sufficient for the purposes of enabling the accountable person to comply with their duties under section 84.
- (4) In this section “the relevant time” means—
 - (a) the time when the building becomes occupied, or
 - (b) if later, the time when the person becomes an accountable person for the building.

84 Management of building safety risks

- (1) An accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building must take all reasonable steps for the following purposes—
 - (a) preventing a building safety risk materialising as regards the part of the building for which they are responsible;
 - (b) reducing the severity of any incident resulting from such a risk materialising.
- (2) Those steps may in particular involve the accountable person carrying out works to the part of the building for which they are responsible.
- (3) When taking the steps the accountable person must act in accordance with prescribed principles.
- (4) The steps must be taken promptly.
- (5) The accountable person must make and give effect to arrangements for the purpose of ensuring the effective planning, organisation, control, monitoring and review of steps taken under this section.

85 Safety case report

- (1) The principal accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building must as soon as reasonably practicable after the relevant time prepare a report (a “safety case report”) containing—
 - (a) any assessment of the building safety risks made under section 83 by an accountable person for the building, and
 - (b) a brief description of any steps taken under section 84 by an accountable person for the building.
- (2) The principal accountable person must revise a safety case report if they consider it necessary or appropriate to do so following—
 - (a) any further assessment under section 83 made by an accountable person for the building, or
 - (b) the taking of further steps under section 84 by an accountable person for the building.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about the content and form of safety case reports.
- (4) In this section “the relevant time” means—
 - (a) the time when the building becomes occupied, or
 - (b) if later, the time when the person becomes the principal accountable person for the building.

Duties relating to information and documents

87 Mandatory reporting requirements

- (1) An accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building must, in prescribed circumstances, give prescribed information to the regulator by the prescribed time and in the specified way.
- (2) The information that may be prescribed is information that relates to a building safety risk as regards the part of the building for which an accountable person is responsible.
- (3) In subsection \(1\) “specified” means specified in a direction given and published by the regulator.
- (4) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection \(1\) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine.
- (5) The principal accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building must establish and operate an effective mandatory occurrence reporting system which complies with prescribed requirements.
- (6) A “mandatory occurrence reporting system” is a system for the giving of information to accountable persons for the building for the purpose of enabling them to comply with subsection \(1\).
- (7) Information provided by a person under subsection \(1\) is not admissible in evidence against that person in criminal proceedings except—
 - (a) in proceedings for an offence under section 24 or this section,
 - (b) in proceedings for an offence of perverting the course of justice, or
 - (c) if in the proceedings—
 - (i) in giving evidence the person makes a statement inconsistent with the information, and
 - (ii) evidence as to the information that was provided is adduced, or a question relating to it is asked, by or on behalf of the person.

88 Keeping information about higher-risk buildings

- (1) An accountable person for a higher-risk building must—
 - (a) keep prescribed information in accordance with prescribed standards, and
 - (b) so far as possible keep such information up to date.
- (2) An accountable person for a higher-risk building must keep copies of prescribed documents in accordance with prescribed standards.
- (3) Where an accountable person does not hold prescribed information or a copy of a prescribed document, they must obtain it except where it is not practicable to do so.

89 Provision of information etc to the regulator, residents and other persons

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring an accountable person for a higher-risk building to give prescribed information or a copy of a prescribed document to—
- (a) the regulator,
 - (b) another accountable person for the building,
 - (c) residents of the building,
 - (d) owners of residential units in the building, or
 - (e) any other prescribed person.
- (2) The regulations may in particular make provision about—
- (a) when information or a copy of a document must be given;
 - (b) the way in which information or copy of a document must be given;
 - (c) the form in which information must be given (and may in particular require that the information is given in an accessible form);
 - (d) the standards in accordance with which information or a copy of a document must be given.
- (3) The regulations may make exceptions to any duty imposed under the regulations.
- (4) Subject to subsection \(5\), the regulations may provide that the disclosure of information under this section does not breach—
- (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the accountable person in relation to that information;
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (5) This section does not authorise a disclosure of information if the disclosure would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, take into account the powers conferred by this section).
- (6) Where the regulations provide that any information or document must be given to the regulator, they may make provision about the admissibility in any criminal proceedings of the information or document.

90 Provision of information etc on change in accountable person

- (1) This section applies where at any time (“the relevant time”) an accountable person for a higher-risk building (the “outgoing person”) ceases to be responsible for all or any part of the building.
- (2) The outgoing person must give prescribed information and a copy of any prescribed document to any person who, immediately after the relevant time—
 - (a) is an accountable person for the building, and
 - (b) is responsible for a part of the building for which the outgoing person ceased to be responsible at the relevant time.
- (3) The information and documents must be given—
 - (a) by the prescribed time,
 - (b) in the prescribed way, and
 - (c) in accordance with prescribed standards.
- (4) The outgoing person must give prescribed information to the regulator in the prescribed way, as soon as reasonably practicable after the relevant time.
- (5) Subject to subsection \(6\), regulations made by the Secretary of State under this section may provide that the disclosure of information under this section does not breach—
 - (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the outgoing person in relation to that information;
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (6) This section does not authorise a disclosure of information if the disclosure would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, take into account the powers conferred by this section).
- (7) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection \(2\) or \(4\) commits an offence and is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);

and (in either case) is liable on summary conviction to a further fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale for each day on which the default continues after the initial conviction.

- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the relevant time prepare a strategy (a “residents’ engagement strategy”) for promoting the participation of relevant persons in the making of building safety decisions;
 - (b) review the strategy at prescribed times, and revise it if they consider it necessary or appropriate to do so;
 - (c) in prescribed circumstances, consult relevant persons and prescribed persons on the strategy and take any representations made on the consultation into account when next reviewing the strategy;
 - (d) act in accordance with the strategy.
- (2) “Building safety decision” means a decision by an accountable person for the building that—
 - (a) is about the management of the building, and
 - (b) is made in connection with the performance of a duty of the accountable person under, or under regulations made under, this Part.
- (3) The strategy must include information about—
 - (a) the information that will be provided to relevant persons about decisions relating to the management of the building,
 - (b) the aspects of those decisions that relevant persons will be consulted about,
 - (c) the arrangements for obtaining and taking account of the views of relevant persons, and
 - (d) how the appropriateness of methods for promoting participation will be measured and kept under review.
- (4) As soon as reasonably practicable after the strategy is prepared or revised, each accountable person for the building must give a copy of the strategy to—
 - (a) each resident of the building who—
 - (i) is aged 16 or over, and
 - (ii) resides in a residential unit in the part of the building for which the accountable person is responsible;
 - (b) each owner of a residential unit in that part of the building;
 - (c) any prescribed person.
- (5) The duty under subsection \(4\)\(a\) does not apply in relation to a resident if the accountable person—
 - (a) is not aware of the resident, and
 - (b) has taken all reasonable steps to make themselves aware of persons who reside in residential units in the part of the building for which the accountable person is responsible.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) make further provision about the content of a residents’ engagement strategy;
 - (b) make provision about the preparation, review or revision of a residents’ engagement strategy, in cases where there is more than one accountable person for the building;
 - (c) make provision about the way in which a copy of the strategy is to be given;
 - (d) make provision about consultations under this section.
- (7) In this section—
 - “relevant persons” are—

92 Requests for further information

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a resident of an occupied higher-risk building who is aged 16 or over, or
 - (b) an owner of a residential unit in the building,makes a request to an accountable person for the building to give them prescribed information or a copy of a prescribed document.
- (2) The accountable person must as soon as reasonably practicable give the resident or owner the information or document requested.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about—
 - (a) the way in which information or a copy of a document must be given under this section;
 - (b) the form in which information must be given under this section (and may in particular require that the information is given in an accessible form).
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that in prescribed circumstances an accountable person is not required by subsection \(2\) to provide a copy of a document or some or all of the information requested.
- (5) Subject to subsection \(6\), the regulations may provide that the disclosure of information under this section does not breach—
 - (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (6) This section does not authorise a disclosure of information if the disclosure would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, take into account the powers conferred by this section).

93 Complaints procedure operated by principal accountable person

- (1) The principal accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building must as soon as reasonably practicable after the relevant time establish and operate a system for the investigation of relevant complaints.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the establishment and operation of complaints systems under this section.
- (3) The regulations may in particular make provision—
 - (a) about the way in which complaints may be made;
 - (b) about the period within which a complaint must be considered and dealt with;
 - (c) requiring the principal accountable person to refer a complaint to the regulator.
- (4) In this section—

“relevant complaint” means a complaint relating to—

 - (a) a building safety risk as regards the building, or
 - (b) the performance by an accountable person for the building of any duty under, or under regulations made under, this Part;

“the relevant time” has the meaning given by section 85.

Residents' etc duties

95 Duties on residents and owners

- (1) This section applies to—
- a resident of a residential unit in an occupied higher-risk building who is aged 16 or over;
 - an owner of a residential unit in such a building.
- (2) A person to whom this section applies—
- must not act in a way that creates a significant risk of a building safety risk materialising;
 - must not interfere with a relevant safety item;
 - must comply with a request, made by the appropriate accountable person, for information reasonably required for the purposes of a duty under section 83 or 84.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection \(2\)\(b\) a person “interferes” with a relevant safety item if they, without reasonable excuse—
- damage it,
 - remove it, or
 - do anything to, or in relation to, it that interferes with its intended function.
- (4) In this section—
- “appropriate accountable person” means the accountable person for the building who is responsible for the part of the building comprising the residential unit;
- “relevant safety item” means—
- anything that—
 - is in, or forms part of, the common parts (as defined by section 72), and
 - is intended to improve the safety of people in or about the building in relation to a building safety risk, or
 - any other prescribed thing.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The appropriate accountable person may give a contravention notice to the relevant person.
 - (3) A “contravention notice” is a notice that—
 - (a) specifies the alleged contravention;
 - (b) specifies any steps that the appropriate accountable person considers the relevant person should take in order to remedy the contravention, and a reasonable time for the taking of those steps;
 - (c) specifies anything that the appropriate accountable person considers the relevant person should refrain from doing, to avoid further contraventions of the duty;
 - (d) contains an explanation of the steps that the appropriate accountable person may take under this section if the notice is not complied with.
 - (4) Where it appears to the appropriate accountable person that the relevant person has contravened or is contravening the duty under section 95(2)(b), the contravention notice may require the relevant person to pay to the appropriate accountable person a sum specified in the notice.
 - (5) A sum may be specified in a contravention notice under subsection (4) only if—
 - (a) it is necessary to repair or replace the relevant safety item as a result of the contravention, and
 - (b) the sum specified does not exceed the reasonable cost of repairing or replacing (as the case may be) that item.
 - (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about contravention notices, including—
 - (a) provision about the form of a notice and the way a notice is to be given, and
 - (b) further provision about the content of a notice.
 - (7) The county court may, on an application made by the appropriate accountable person, make an order under this section if satisfied that—
 - (a) a contravention notice has been given,
 - (b) the contravention alleged in the notice occurred, and
 - (c) it is necessary to make the order.
 - (8) An order under this section may—
 - (a) require a relevant person to provide specified information or do a specified thing, by a specified time;
 - (b) prohibit a relevant person from doing a specified thing;
 - (c) where a contravention notice requires a sum to be paid under subsection (4), require a relevant person to pay to the appropriate accountable person a specified sum.
- “Specified” here means specified in the order.
- (9) A sum specified in an order under subsection (8)(c) may not exceed the sum specified in the contravention notice.
 - (10) In this section—
 - “appropriate accountable person” has the same meaning as in section 95;

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 97 Access to premises

- (1) This section applies where —
- (a) an accountable person for an occupied higher-risk building makes a request to a relevant person to enter relevant premises,
 - (b) the request is made for the purpose of—
 - (i) facilitating the performance of a duty under section 83 or 84 (assessment of building safety risk etc), or
 - (ii) determining whether a duty under section 95 (duties on residents and owners) has been contravened,
 - (c) the request is within subsection \(2\), and
 - (d) entry to the premises is not given.
- (2) A request is within this subsection if it—
- (a) is in writing,
 - (b) sets out the purpose for which it is made,
 - (c) contains an explanation of why it is necessary to enter the premises for that purpose,
 - (d) requests access to the premises at a reasonable time, and
 - (e) is made at least 48 hours before the time mentioned in paragraph \(d\).
- (3) The accountable person may apply to the county court for an order—
- (a) requiring the relevant person to allow the accountable person, or a person authorised by the accountable person, to enter the relevant premises at a reasonable time for the purpose mentioned in the request, and
 - (b) if necessary for that purpose, authorising the taking of measurements, photographs, recordings or samples by the accountable person or authorised person.
- (4) The county court—
- (a) may make an order under subsection \(3\)\(a\) or \(b\) if satisfied that it is necessary to do so for the purpose mentioned in the request;
 - (b) must, if it does so, specify a date on which, or in a period within which, the accountable person or authorised person may enter the relevant premises for that purpose.
- (5) In this section—
- “relevant person” in relation to relevant premises means—
- (a) a resident of those premises who is aged 16 or over;
 - (b) where those premises are controlled but not occupied, a person controlling those premises;
 - (c) in any other case, an owner of those premises;

99 Compliance notices

- (1) The regulator may give a compliance notice to an accountable person for a higher-risk building who appears to the regulator to have contravened, be contravening or be likely to contravene a relevant requirement.
- (2) A “compliance notice” is—
 - (a) a notice requiring the accountable person to take specified steps within a specified period, or
 - (b) a notice requiring the accountable person to remedy the contravention or the matters giving rise to it within a specified period.
- (3) A notice of a kind mentioned in subsection \(2\)\(a\) may specify any steps relating to—
 - (a) the remedying of the contravention, or
 - (b) avoiding the contravention occurring.
- (4) Where it appears to the regulator that the contravention has placed or will place people in or about the building in imminent danger, the regulator may specify that the compliance notice is a notice to which this subsection applies (an “urgent action notice”).
- (5) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes a compliance notice commits an offence.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);

and (in either case) is liable on summary conviction to a further fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale for each day on which the default continues after the initial conviction.

(7) In this section—

“relevant requirement” means any requirement on an accountable person under, or under regulations made under, this Part except one that is prescribed for the purposes of this section;

“specified” means specified in the notice.

100 Compliance notices: supplementary

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about compliance notices.

(2) The regulations may in particular make provision about—

- (a) the form and content of notices;
- (b) the giving of notices;
- (c) the amendment or withdrawal of notices;
- (d) the extension of any period specified in a compliance notice for the doing of a thing.

(3) Subsection \(4\) applies where the regulator has given a compliance notice to an accountable person for a higher-risk building.

(4) The regulator must take reasonable steps to notify—

- (a) the local authority for the area in which the building is situated;
- (b) the fire and rescue authority for the area in which the building is situated;
- (c) where the accountable person for the building is a registered provider of social housing, the Regulator of Social Housing;
- (d) any other prescribed person.

- (3) Where an appeal under subsection \(1\) is made and the compliance notice is not an urgent action notice—
 - (a) the compliance notice is of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal, and
 - (b) the specified period mentioned in section 99(2)(a) is treated as extended by the period—
 - (i) beginning with the day on which the appeal is made, and
 - (ii) ending with the day on which the appeal is finally determined or withdrawn.
- (4) Where an appeal under subsection \(1\) is made and the compliance notice is an urgent action notice—
 - (a) the appellant may apply to the tribunal for a direction that the compliance notice is of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal, and
 - (b) unless and until any such direction is given, the compliance notice continues to have effect despite the making of the appeal.
- (5) A person to whom a compliance notice has been given may apply to the tribunal for an extension of the period for the doing of any thing specified to be done in the notice.
- (6) Subsections \(3\) and \(4\) apply to such an application as they apply to an appeal under subsection \(1\).
- (7) In this section “urgent action notice” has the meaning given by section 99(4).

112 Implied terms in leases and recovery of safety related costs

- (1) The Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 is amended in accordance with subsections (2) to (6).
- (2) After section 30B insert—

“Higher-risk buildings in England

30C Implied terms relating to building safety

- (1) This section applies to a lease of premises which consist of or include a dwelling in a higher-risk building.
- (2) In the lease there is implied a covenant by the landlord—
 - (a) where the landlord is an accountable person for the higher-risk building, to comply with their building safety duties;

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) to cooperate with any person in connection with a relevant person complying with their building safety duties;
 - (c) where a special measures order in relation to the higher-risk building is in force, to comply with that order so far as it relates to the landlord.
- (3) In the lease there is implied a covenant by the tenant—
 - (a) to allow the landlord, a relevant person or a person authorised in writing by the landlord or a relevant person to enter the premises for a relevant building safety purpose;
 - (b) where the tenant is a resident of the higher-risk building, to comply with their duties under sections 95 and 97 of the Building Safety Act 2022;
 - (c) where a special measures order in relation to the higher-risk building is in force, to comply with that order so far as it relates to the tenant.
- (4) In the covenant implied by subsection (2)(b), “cooperate”, in relation to a person, includes—
 - (a) taking any steps which are reasonably required by the person to facilitate compliance by a relevant person with their building safety duties;
 - (b) where the person is a relevant person (or a person authorised in writing by a relevant person), providing any information (including names and contact details of residents and tenants of the premises) to the person which is reasonably required in connection with the relevant person complying with their building safety duties.
- (5) In the covenant implied by subsection (3)(a), a relevant building safety purpose means—
 - (a) inspecting the premises in connection with a relevant person complying with their building safety duties;
 - (b) carrying out works to the premises, where such works are required to be carried out in connection with a relevant person complying with their building safety duties;
 - (c) accessing a part of the higher-risk building that is not let to the tenant in order to—
 - (i) inspect that part of the building in connection with a relevant person complying with their building safety duties;
 - (ii) carry out works to that part of the building, where such works are required to be carried out in connection with a relevant person complying with their building safety duties.
- (6) The covenant implied by subsection (3)(a) requires entry to the premises to be allowed—
 - (a) only at reasonable times, and
 - (b) only if the tenant has been given at least 48 hours’ notice in writing.
- (7) Except as provided by subsection (8), the disclosure of information in accordance with subsections (2)(b) and (4)(b) does not breach—
 - (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the landlord in relation to that information;
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) Subsections (2)(b) and (4)(b) do not require a disclosure of information if the disclosure would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, take into account the duty imposed by subsections (2)(b) and (4)(b)).
- (9) In this section—
- “building safety duties”—
- (a) in relation to an accountable person, means any duties of the accountable person under Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022, or regulations made under that Part of that Act;
- (b) in relation to a special measures manager, means any duties of the manager included in the special measures order appointing the manager;
- “the data protection legislation” has the same meaning as in the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3 of that Act);
- “relevant person” means—
- (a) an accountable person for the higher-risk building;
- (b) a special measures manager for the higher-risk building;
- “resident” and “resident of a higher-risk building” have the same meaning as in Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022 (see section 71(3) and (4)(c) of that Act);
- “works” includes alterations, improvements and installations.

30D Liability for building safety costs

- (1) This section applies to a relevant lease of premises which consist of or include a dwelling in a higher-risk building.
- (2) In this section “relevant lease”—
- (a) means a lease—
- (i) that is granted for a term certain of 7 years or more, whether or not it is (or may become) terminable before the end of that term by notice given by the tenant or by re-entry or forfeiture, and
- (ii) under which the tenant is liable to pay a service charge (within the meaning of section 18), but
- (b) does not include a relevant social housing tenancy.
- (3) The relevant lease has effect—
- (a) as if the matters for which the service charge is payable under the lease included the taking of building safety measures by or on behalf of a relevant person (insofar as this would not otherwise be the case), and
- (b) where the lease contains different methods for apportioning different relevant costs (within the meaning of section 18), as if it provided for any costs for which the tenant is liable by virtue only of paragraph (a) to be apportioned in the same way as costs incurred in connection with insuring the building.
- (4) “Building safety measure” means any of the following—
- (a) applying for registration of a higher-risk building in accordance with section 78 of the Building Safety Act 2022;

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (b) applying for a building assessment certificate in accordance with section 79 of that Act;
 - (c) displaying a building assessment certificate in accordance with section 82 of that Act;
 - (d) assessing building safety risks in accordance with section 83 of that Act;
 - (e) taking reasonable steps in accordance with section 84 of that Act (management of building safety risks), other than steps involving the carrying out of works as referred to in section 84(2);
 - (f) preparing and revising a safety case report in accordance with section 85 of that Act;
 - (g) notifying the regulator of a safety case report, and giving a copy of a safety case report to the regulator, in accordance with section 86 of that Act;
 - (h) establishing and operating a mandatory occurrence reporting system, and giving information to the regulator, in accordance with section 87 of that Act;
 - (i) keeping information and documents in accordance with section 88 of that Act;
 - (j) giving information and documents to any person in accordance with section 89, 90 or 92 of that Act;
 - (k) complying with any duty under section 91 of that Act (residents' engagement strategy);
 - (l) establishing and operating a system for the investigation of complaints in accordance with section 93 of that Act;
 - (m) giving a contravention notice to a resident, and making an application to the county court, in accordance with section 96 of that Act;
 - (n) making a request to enter premises, or making an application to the county court, in accordance with section 97 of that Act (access to premises).
- (5) For the purposes of this section any of the following incurred in connection with the taking of a building safety measure are to be regarded as incurred in taking the measure—
- (a) legal and other professional fees;
 - (b) fees payable to the regulator;
 - (c) management costs.
- (6) In this section—
- “landlord” includes any person who has a right under the lease to enforce payment of a service charge (within the meaning of section 18);
- “relevant person” means—
- (a) if the landlord is an accountable person for the building, the landlord or a special measures manager for the building;
 - (b) otherwise, any superior landlord who is an accountable person for the building or a special measures manager for the building;
- “relevant social housing tenancy” has the meaning given in section 132 of the Land Registration Act 2002;

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“tenant” includes any person who has an obligation under the lease to pay a service charge (within the meaning of section 18).

- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations made by statutory instrument amend subsection (4) so as to add, remove or modify a building safety measure.
- (8) The regulations may make incidental, transitional or saving provision.
- (9) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (7) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

30E Liability for remuneration of building safety director of resident management company etc

- (1) This section applies to a lease of premises which consist of or include a dwelling in a higher-risk building if—
 - (a) the landlord is an accountable person for the building,
 - (b) the landlord is—
 - (i) a resident management company within the meaning of section 111 of the Building Safety Act 2022, or
 - (ii) an RTM company within the meaning of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 (right to manage), and
 - (c) the tenant is liable to pay a service charge.
- (2) The lease has effect—
 - (a) as if it contained provision authorising the appointment of a person (whether or not a leaseholder or a resident of the building) as a director of the landlord for a building safety purpose,
 - (b) as if the matters for which the service charge is payable under the lease included remunerating any director of the landlord appointed for a building safety purpose (insofar as this would not otherwise be the case), and
 - (c) where the lease contains different methods for apportioning different relevant costs (within the meaning of section 18), as if it provided that any costs for which the tenant is liable by virtue only of paragraph (b) to be apportioned in the same way as costs incurred in connection with insuring the building.
- (3) In this section—

“building safety purpose” means the purpose of supporting the landlord in complying with its duties under Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022 or under regulations made under that Part;

“landlord” includes any person who has a right under the lease to enforce payment of a service charge;

“service charge” has the meaning given by section 18;

“tenant” includes any person who has an obligation under the lease to pay a service charge.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

30F Restrictions on contracting out of sections 30C to 30E

- (1) A covenant or agreement, whether contained in a lease to which section 30C (implied terms) applies or in an agreement collateral to such a lease, is void in so far as it purports—
 - (a) to exclude or limit the obligations of the landlord or the tenant under section 30C, or
 - (b) to authorise any forfeiture or impose on the tenant any penalty, disability or obligation in the event of the tenant enforcing or relying upon the obligations of the landlord.
- (2) A covenant or agreement, whether contained in a lease to which section 30D or 30E applies or in an agreement collateral to such a lease, is void insofar as it purports to modify the effect of section 30D(3) or 30E(2).

30G Jurisdiction of county court

The county court has jurisdiction to deal with any claim or other proceedings arising under or in connection with any of sections 30C to 30E (implied terms etc) notwithstanding that by reason of the amount of the claim or otherwise the case would not, apart from this section, be within the jurisdiction of the county court.

30H Specific performance of implied terms

In proceedings relating to a breach of a covenant in section 30C(2) or (3) (implied building safety terms), the court may order specific performance of the covenant—

- (a) notwithstanding any equitable rule restricting the scope of the remedy, whether on the basis of a lack of mutuality or otherwise, and
- (b) in the case of a breach of a covenant in section 30C(2) or (3)(b) or (c), whether or not the breach relates to a part of the higher-risk building let to the tenant.

30I Interpretation of building safety provisions

In sections 30C to 30H—

“accountable person” has the meaning given in section 115 of the Building Safety Act 2022;

“higher-risk building” has the meaning given in section 115 of that Act;

“lease” does not include a mortgage term;

“special measures manager” has the meaning given in paragraph 1 of Schedule 7 to the Building Safety Act 2022;

“special measures order” has the meaning given in paragraph 1 of Schedule 7 to that Act.”

- (3) After section 20E (inserted by section 133) insert—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“20F Limitation of service charges: excluded costs for higher-risk buildings

- (1) This section applies in relation to a lease to which section 30D (higher-risk buildings: building safety costs) applies.
- (2) Excluded costs are not to be regarded as relevant costs to be taken into account in determining the amount of service charge payable by a tenant under the lease.
- (3) In this section “excluded costs” means any of the following incurred in connection with Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022 or regulations made under that Part—
 - (a) costs incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of a relevant person solely as a result of any penalty imposed or enforcement action taken by the regulator;
 - (b) legal costs incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of a relevant person in connection with special measures order proceedings;
 - (c) costs incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of a relevant person by reason of any negligence, breach of contract or unlawful act on the part of that relevant person or a person acting on their behalf;
 - (d) costs of a description prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State that are incurred or to be incurred by or on behalf of an accountable person or special measures manager for the building in connection with the taking of building safety measures.
- (4) In this section—

“building safety measures” has the meaning given by section 30D;

“enforcement action” means action taken with a view to, or in connection with—

 - (a) securing compliance with Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022 or regulations made under that Part, or
 - (b) the imposition of a sanction in respect of a contravention of that Part or those regulations;

“the regulator” has the meaning given by section 115 of the Building Safety Act 2022;

“relevant person” means—

 - (a) where the landlord under the lease is an accountable person for the higher-risk building, the landlord or a special measures manager for the higher-risk building;
 - (b) where the landlord is not such an accountable person, any superior landlord who is an accountable person for the higher-risk building or a special measures manager for the higher-risk building;

“special measures order proceedings” means any proceedings relating to the making, variation or discharge of, or the giving of directions in relation to, a special measures order under Schedule 7 to the Building Safety Act 2022 (including any appeals in relation to such proceedings).
- (5) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) A power to make regulations includes power to make—
- (a) incidental, transitional or saving provision;
 - (b) different provision for different purposes.
- (7) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”
- (4) In section 21 (service charge information) after subsection (6) insert—
- “(6A) In particular, regulations which make provision about higher-risk buildings (within the meaning of Part 4 of the Building Safety Act 2022) need not contain provision of a kind mentioned in subsection (2) or (3).”
- (5) In section 30 (meaning of “landlord” and “tenant”)—
- (a) after the definition of “landlord” insert—

““services” includes, in relation to a dwelling in a higher-risk building (as defined by section 30I), building safety measures within the meaning of section 30D;”;
 - (b) in the heading for ““flat”, “landlord” and “tenant”” substitute ““landlord”, “tenant” etc”.
- (6) In section 32(1) (business tenancies), after the entry relating to section 17 insert—
- “section 30C (implied terms relation to building safety), section 30D (building safety costs), section 30E (liability for remuneration of building safety director of resident management company etc).”
- (7) In section 172(1)(a) of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 (application to Crown)—
- (a) for “30B” substitute “30I”;
 - (b) after “agents” insert “and building safety”.

117 Meaning of “relevant building”

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of sections 119 to [^{F3}124] and Schedule 8.
- (2) “Relevant building” means a self-contained building, or self-contained part of a building, in England that contains at least two dwellings and—
 - (a) is at least 11 metres high, or
 - (b) has at least 5 storeys.

This is subject to subsection (3).

- (3) “Relevant building” does not include a self-contained building or self-contained part of a building—
 - (a) in relation to which a right under Part 1 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987 (tenants’ right of first refusal) or Part 3 of that Act (compulsory acquisition by tenants of landlord’s interest) has been exercised,
 - (b) in relation to which the right to collective enfranchisement (within the meaning of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of the Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993) has been exercised,
 - (c) if the freehold estate in the building or part of the building is leaseholder owned (within the meaning of regulations made by the Secretary of State), or
 - (d) which is on commonhold land.
- (4) For the purposes of this section a building is “self-contained” if it is structurally detached.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a part of a building is “self-contained” if—
 - (a) the part constitutes a vertical division of the building,
 - (b) the structure of the building is such that the part could be redeveloped independently of the remainder of the building, and

118 Section 117: height of buildings and number of storeys

- (1) This section applies for the purpose of section 117.
- (2) The height of a building is to be measured from ground level to the finished surface of the floor of the top storey of the building (ignoring any storey which is a roof-top machinery or plant area or consists exclusively of machinery or plant rooms).
- (3) When determining the number of storeys in a building—
- (a) any storey below ground level is to be disregarded;
 - (b) any mezzanine floor is to be regarded as a storey if its internal floor area is at least half of the internal floor area of the largest storey in the building which is not below ground level.
- (4) In subsection (2) “ground level”, in relation to a building, means—
- (a) the level of the surface of the ground immediately adjacent to the building, or
 - (b) where the level of the surface of the ground on which the building is situated is not uniform, the level of the lowest part of the surface of the ground immediately adjacent to it.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3) a storey is “below ground level” if any part of the finished surface of the ceiling of the storey is below the level of the surface of the ground immediately adjacent to that part of the building.

119 Meaning of “qualifying lease” and “the qualifying time”

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of sections 122 to ^[F4]124] and Schedule 8.
- (2) A lease is a “qualifying lease” if—
- (a) it is a long lease of a single dwelling in a relevant building,
 - (b) the tenant under the lease is liable to pay a service charge,
 - (c) the lease was granted before 14 February 2022, and
 - (d) at the beginning of 14 February 2022 (“the qualifying time”)—
 - (i) the dwelling was a relevant tenant’s only or principal home,
 - (ii) a relevant tenant did not own any other dwelling in the United Kingdom, or
 - (iii) a relevant tenant owned no more than two dwellings in the United Kingdom apart from their interest under the lease.
- (3) Where a dwelling was at the qualifying time let under two or more leases to which subsection (2)(a) and (b) apply, any of those leases which is superior to any of the other leases is not a “qualifying lease”.

^F5 A connected replacement lease (see section 119A) is also a “qualifying lease”.]

- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “long lease” means a lease granted for a term of years certain exceeding 21 years, whether or not it is (or may become) terminable before the end of that term by notice given by or to the tenant or by re-entry, forfeiture or otherwise;
 - (b) a person “owns” a dwelling in England, Wales or Northern Ireland if the person has a freehold interest in it or is a tenant under a long lease of it;
 - (c) “relevant tenant” means a person who, at the qualifying time, was the tenant, or any of the tenants, under the lease mentioned in subsection (2);
 - (d) “service charge” has the meaning given by section 18 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985.

^[F6]119A Meaning of “connected replacement lease”

- (1) For the purposes of section 119 (and this section) a lease (the “new lease”) is a “connected replacement lease” if—
- (a) the new lease is a lease of a single dwelling in a relevant building,
 - (b) the tenant under the new lease is liable to pay a service charge,
 - (c) the new lease was granted on or after 14 February 2022,
 - (d) the new lease replaces—

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) one other lease, which is a qualifying lease (whether under section 119(2) or (3A)), or
 - (ii) two or more other leases, at least one of which is a qualifying lease (whether under section 119(2) or (3A)), and
 - (e) there is continuity in the property let.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(d), the new lease replaces another lease if—
 - (a) the term of the new lease begins during the term of the other lease, and the new lease is granted in substitution of the other lease, or
 - (b) the term of the new lease begins at the end of the term of the other lease (regardless of when the lease is granted).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), the circumstances in which the new lease is granted in substitution of another lease include circumstances where—
 - (a) the new lease is granted by way of a surrender and regrant of the other lease (including a deemed surrender and regrant, whether deemed under an enactment or otherwise);
 - (b) the new lease is granted under—
 - (i) section 24 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (renewed business leases),
 - (ii) section 14 of, or Schedule 1 to, the Leasehold Reform Act 1967 (extension of leases of houses), or
 - (iii) section 56 of the Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993 (extension of leases of flats),in a case where that provision of that Act applies by virtue of the other lease.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1)(e) there is continuity in the property let if—
 - (a) the newly let property is exactly the same as the already let property,
 - (b) the newly let property consists of some or all of the already let property, together with other property (whether or not that other property was previously let) (a “property combination”), or
 - (c) the newly let property consists of some, but not all, of the already let property (but no other property) (a “property reduction”).
- (5) But there is no continuity in the property let by virtue of a property reduction if, as respects any lease in the relevant chain of qualifying leases, there was continuity in the property let by virtue of a property combination.
- (6) For that purpose, the “relevant” chain of qualifying leases is the chain of qualifying leases of which the new lease would be part were it a connected replacement lease.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (1)(e) there is also continuity in the property let if the new lease is granted to rectify any error in the lease, or any lease, which the new lease replaces.
- (8) Where a dwelling is at any time on or after 14 February 2022 let under two or more leases to which subsection (1)(a) and (b) apply, any of the leases which is superior to any of the other leases is not a connected replacement lease.
- (9) For the purposes of sections 122 to [F7 124] and Schedule 8, all of the leases in a chain of qualifying leases are to be treated as a single qualifying lease which has a term that—
 - (a) began when the term of the initial qualifying lease in that chain began, and

- (b) ends when the term of the current connected replacement lease in that chain ends.
- (10) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision about the meaning of “connected replacement lease” (including provision changing the meaning).
- (11) The provision that may be made in regulations under this section includes—
- (a) provision which amends this section;
 - (b) provision which has retrospective effect.
- (12) Provision in regulations under this section made by virtue of section 168(2)(a) (consequential provision etc) may (in particular) amend this Act.
- (13) In this section—
- “already let property”, in relation to a new lease, means the property let by the lease or leases which the new lease replaces;
- “chain of qualifying leases” means—
- (a) an initial qualifying lease which is the preceding qualifying lease in relation to a connected replacement lease (the “first replacement lease”),
 - (b) the first replacement lease, and
 - (c) any other connected replacement lease if the preceding qualifying lease in relation to it is—
 - (i) the first replacement lease, or
 - (ii) any other connected replacement lease which is in the chain of qualifying leases;
- and a chain of qualifying leases may accordingly consist of different leases at different times (if further connected replacement leases are granted);
- “current connected replacement lease”, in relation to a particular time, means a connected replacement lease during the term of which that time falls;
- “initial qualifying lease” means a lease which is a qualifying lease under section 119(2);
- “new lease” has the meaning given in subsection (1);
- “newly let property” means the property let by the new lease;
- “preceding qualifying lease”, in relation to the new lease, means—
- (a) in a case within subsection (1)(d)(i), the lease which the new lease replaces;
 - (b) in a case within subsection (1)(d)(ii), a lease which—
 - (i) the new lease replaces, and
 - (ii) is a qualifying lease.
- (14) The definitions in section 119(4) also apply for the purposes of this section.]

120 Meaning of “relevant defect”

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of sections 122 to [F8124] and Schedule 8.
- (2) “Relevant defect”, in relation to a building, means a defect as regards the building that—
 - (a) arises as a result of anything done (or not done), or anything used (or not used), in connection with relevant works, and
 - (b) causes a building safety risk.
- (3) In subsection (2) “relevant works” means any of the following—
 - (a) works relating to the construction or conversion of the building, if the construction or conversion was completed in the relevant period;
 - (b) works undertaken or commissioned by or on behalf of a relevant landlord or management company, if the works were completed in the relevant period;
 - (c) works undertaken after the end of the relevant period to remedy a relevant defect (including a defect that is a relevant defect by virtue of this paragraph).

“The relevant period” here means the period of 30 years ending with the time this section comes into force.
- (4) In subsection (2) the reference to anything done (or not done) in connection with relevant works includes anything done (or not done) in the provision of professional services in connection with such works.
- (5) For the purposes of this section—

“building safety risk”, in relation to a building, means a risk to the safety of people in or about the building arising from—

 - (a) the spread of fire, or
 - (b) the collapse of the building or any part of it;

“conversion” means the conversion of the building for use (wholly or partly) for residential purposes;

“relevant landlord or management company” means a landlord under a lease of the building or any part of it or any person who is party to such a lease otherwise than as landlord or tenant.

time is to be regarded, for the purposes of the provisions mentioned in subsection (1) as they apply in relation to the relevant building, as associated with the person.

- (3) A partnership is associated with any person who was a partner in the partnership, other than a limited partner, at any time in the period of 5 years ending at the qualifying time (“the relevant period”).
- (4) A body corporate is associated with any person who was a director of the body corporate at any time in the relevant period.
- (5) A body corporate is associated with another body corporate if—
 - (a) at any time in the relevant period a person was a director of both of them, or
 - (b) at the qualifying time, one of them controlled the other or a third body corporate controlled both of them.

Subsections (6) to (8) set out the cases in which a body corporate is regarded as controlling another body corporate.

- (6) A body corporate (X) controls a company (Y) if X possesses or is entitled to acquire—
 - (a) at least half of the issued share capital of Y,
 - (b) such rights as would entitle X to exercise at least half of the votes exercisable in general meetings of Y,
 - (c) such part of the issued share capital of Y as would entitle X to at least half of the amount distributed, if the whole of the income of Y were in fact distributed among the shareholders, or
 - (d) such rights as would, in the event of the winding up of Y or in any other circumstances, entitle it to receive at least half of the assets of Y which would then be available for distribution among the shareholders.
- (7) A body corporate (X) controls a limited liability partnership (Y) if X—
 - (a) holds a majority of the voting rights in Y,
 - (b) is a member of Y and has a right to appoint or remove a majority of other members, or
 - (c) is a member of Y and controls alone, or pursuant to an agreement with other members, a majority of the voting rights in Y.
- (8) A body corporate (X) controls another body corporate (Y) if X has the power, directly or indirectly, to secure that the affairs of Y are conducted in accordance with X’s wishes.
- (9) In subsection (7) a reference to “voting rights” is to the rights conferred on members in respect of their interest in a limited liability partnership to vote on those matters which are to be decided on by a vote of the members of the limited liability partnership.
- (10) In determining whether one body corporate (X) controls another, X is treated as possessing—
 - (a) any rights and powers possessed by a person as nominee for it, and
 - (b) any rights and powers possessed by a body corporate which it controls (including rights and powers which such a body corporate would be taken to possess by virtue of this paragraph).
- (11) In this section “partnership” means—

124 Remediation contribution orders

- (1) The First-tier Tribunal may, on the application of an interested person, make a remediation contribution order in relation to a relevant building if it considers it just and equitable to do so.
- (2) “Remediation contribution order”, in relation to a relevant building, means an order requiring a specified body corporate or partnership to make payments to a specified person, for the purpose of meeting costs incurred or to be incurred in remedying relevant defects (or specified relevant defects) relating to the relevant building.
- (3) A body corporate or partnership may be specified only if it is—
- (a) a landlord under a lease of the relevant building or any part of it,
 - (b) a person who was such a landlord at the qualifying time,
 - (c) a developer in relation to the relevant building, or
 - (d) a person associated with a person within any of paragraphs (a) to (c).
- (4) An order may—
- (a) require the making of payments of a specified amount, or payments of a reasonable amount in respect of the remediation of specified relevant defects (or in respect of specified things done or to be done for the purpose of remedying relevant defects);
 - (b) require a payment to be made at a specified time, or to be made on demand following the occurrence of a specified event.
- (5) In this section—
- “associated”: see section 121;
 - “developer”, in relation to a relevant building, means a person who undertook or commissioned the construction or conversion of the building (or part of the building) with a view to granting or disposing of interests in the building or parts of it;

- (a) in the case of a higher-risk building, the person is an accountable person for the building (see section 72 for the meaning of “accountable person” for a higher-risk building);
 - (b) in the case of a relevant building that is not a higher-risk building, the person would be an accountable person for the building if section 72 were read as applying to such a building (and as if the reference in that section to a residential unit were a reference to a dwelling).
- (3) The insolvency practitioner must give the information in subsection (6) (“the required information”) to—
- (a) the local authority for the area in which the building for which the person is a responsible person is situated, or (if applicable) each local authority in whose area a building for which the person is a responsible person is situated, and
 - (b) the fire and rescue authority for the area in which the building for which the person is a responsible person is situated, or (if applicable) each fire and rescue authority in whose area a building for which the person is a responsible person is situated.
- (4) If the insolvency practitioner is appointed in relation to an accountable person for a higher-risk building, the practitioner must also give the required information to the regulator.
- (5) The required information must be provided within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the insolvency practitioner is appointed.
- (6) The information is as follows—
- (a) the name and address of the person in relation to whom the insolvency practitioner is appointed;
 - (b) the address of each higher-risk building or relevant building for which the person is a responsible person (but see subsection (7));
 - (c) an official copy of the register of title and title plan relating to each registered estate or interest the person holds in such a building, if any (but see subsection (7));
 - (d) the nature of the practitioner’s appointment;
 - (e) the practitioner’s name, address, telephone number and email address (if any);
 - (f) so much of the information set out in the table in rule 1.6 of the Insolvency (England and Wales) Rules 2016 (S.I. 2016/1024) as is known to the practitioner.
- (7) A local authority or fire and rescue authority need only be notified about buildings, or registered estates or interests in buildings, in their area.
- (8) In this section “insolvency practitioner” means—
- (a) an administrator;
 - (b) an administrative receiver;
 - (c) a receiver appointed by the courts or by a mortgagee;
 - (d) a liquidator;
 - (e) a trustee in bankruptcy.
- (9) In this section—
- “fire and rescue authority” has the meaning given by section 30;

Building industry schemes

126 Building industry schemes

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) establish a scheme to be maintained by the Secretary of State, or a person designated by the Secretary of State and acting on the Secretary of State’s behalf, and
 - (b) make provision about the scheme.
- (2) A scheme may be established for any purpose connected with—
 - (a) securing the safety of people in or about buildings in relation to risks arising from buildings, or
 - (b) improving the standard of buildings,including securing that safety, or improving that standard, by securing that persons in the building industry remedy defects in buildings or contribute to costs associated with remedying defects in buildings.
- (3) Regulations that establish a scheme must prescribe—
 - (a) the descriptions of persons in the building industry who may be members of the scheme (“eligible persons”), and
 - (b) the conditions that an eligible person must meet in order to become, and remain, a member of the scheme (“membership conditions”),and may provide for different categories of membership.
- (4) The membership conditions that may be prescribed include in particular conditions relating to—
 - (a) the remedying of defects in buildings with which an eligible person has a connection of a prescribed kind;
 - (b) the making of financial contributions towards meeting costs associated with remedying defects in buildings (including buildings with which an eligible person has no connection);
 - (c) the use (or use in prescribed cases) of construction products (or construction products of a prescribed description) of prescribed persons carrying out activities in relation to construction products;
 - (d) the provision of information to the Secretary of State or any other person;
 - (e) the competence or conduct of any individual connected with an eligible person (for example, any director or senior manager of an eligible person) or any person with whom an eligible person contracts;
 - (f) whether persons with whom an eligible person contracts are members of a scheme.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

In paragraph (e) “conduct” includes conduct occurring before the coming into force of this section.

- (5) The descriptions of persons prescribed by virtue of subsection (4)(c) may in particular be prescribed by reference to—
 - (a) being eligible to be members of a scheme and not being members of that scheme;
 - (b) their conduct in relation to remedying defects in buildings or contributing to costs associated with remedying defects in buildings.
- (6) The membership conditions that may be prescribed by virtue of subsection (4)(c) include in particular a condition requiring an eligible person to ensure that no prescribed product of prescribed persons carrying out activities in relation to construction products is used in prescribed cases.
- (7) The Secretary of State must ensure that a list of members of a scheme is kept and published (and may publish a list of persons who are eligible persons but are not members of a scheme).
- (8) Regulations may make provision about the keeping and publication of other lists.

- (a) under the Defective Premises Act 1972 or section 38 of the Building Act 1984, or
 - (b) as a result of a building safety risk.
- (4) A body corporate may be specified only if it is, or has at any time in the relevant period been, associated with the original body.
- (5) A building liability order—
- (a) may be made in respect of a liability of a body corporate that has been dissolved (including where dissolution occurred before commencement);
 - (b) continues to have effect even if the body corporate is dissolved after the making of the order.
- (6) In this section—
- “associate”: see section 131;
 - “building safety risk”, in relation to a building, means a risk to the safety of people in or about the building arising from the spread of fire or structural failure;
 - “commencement” means the time this section comes into force;
 - “the relevant period” means the period—
 - (a) beginning with the beginning of the carrying out of the works in relation to which the relevant liability was incurred, and
 - (b) ending with the making of the order;
 - “specified” means specified in the building liability order.

131 Building liability orders: associates

- (1) For the purposes of section 130, a body corporate (A) is associated with another body corporate (B) if—
- (a) one of them controls the other, or
 - (b) a third body corporate controls both of them.

Subsections (2) to (4) set out the cases in which a body corporate is regarded as controlling another body corporate.

- (2) A body corporate (X) controls a company (Y) if X possesses or is entitled to acquire—
- (a) at least half of the issued share capital of Y,
 - (b) such rights as would entitle X to exercise at least half of the votes exercisable in general meetings of Y,
 - (c) such part of the issued share capital of Y as would entitle X to at least half of the amount distributed, if the whole of the income of Y were in fact distributed among the shareholders, or
 - (d) such rights as would, in the event of the winding up of Y or in any other circumstances, entitle it to receive at least half of the assets of Y which would then be available for distribution among the shareholders.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (3) A body corporate (X) controls a limited liability partnership (Y) if X—
 - (a) holds a majority of the voting rights in Y,
 - (b) is a member of Y and has a right to appoint or remove a majority of other members, or
 - (c) is a member of Y and controls alone, or pursuant to an agreement with other members, a majority of the voting rights in Y.
- (4) A body corporate (X) controls another body corporate (Y) if X has the power, directly or indirectly, to secure that the affairs of Y are conducted in accordance with X's wishes.
- (5) In subsection (3) a reference to “voting rights” is to the rights conferred on members in respect of their interest in a limited liability partnership to vote on those matters which are to be decided on by a vote of the members of the limited liability partnership.
- (6) In determining under any of subsections (2) to (4) whether one body corporate (X) controls another, X is treated as possessing—
 - (a) any rights and powers possessed by a person as nominee for it, and
 - (b) any rights and powers possessed by a body corporate which it controls (including rights and powers which such a body corporate would be taken to possess by virtue of this paragraph).
- (7) For the purposes of section 130 as it applies in relation to a building, where a person's interest in the building is held on trust, a body corporate which is a beneficiary of the trust is to be regarded as associated with the person.

Remediation and redress: other provisions

133 Service charges in respect of remediation works

- (1) The Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 20(1)(b) (limitation of service charges: consultation requirements) at the beginning insert “except in the case of works to which section 20D applies,”.
- (3) In section 20ZA (consultation requirements: supplementary) after subsection (5) insert—
 - “(5A) And in the case of works to which section 20D applies, regulations under subsection (4) may also include provision requiring the landlord—
 - (a) to give details of the steps taken or to be taken under section 20D(2),
 - (b) to give reasons about prescribed matters, and any other prescribed information, relating to the taking of such steps, and
 - (c) to have regard to observations made by tenants or the recognised tenants’ association in relation to the taking of such steps.”
- (4) After section 20C insert—

“20D Limitation of service charges: remediation works

- (1) This section applies to works of a prescribed description (“remediation works”) on a building in England of a prescribed description.
- (2) The landlord must—
 - (a) take reasonable steps to ascertain whether any grant is payable in respect of the remediation works and, if so, to obtain the grant;
 - (b) take reasonable steps to ascertain whether monies may be obtained from a third party in connection with the undertaking of the remediation works and, if so, to obtain monies from the third party;
 - (c) take prescribed steps relating to any other prescribed kind of funding.
- (3) In subsection (2)(b) the reference to obtaining monies from a third party includes obtaining monies—
 - (a) under a policy of insurance;
 - (b) under a guarantee or indemnity;
 - (c) pursuant to a claim made against—
 - (i) a developer;

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (ii) a person involved in the design of the building or of works to the building; or
 - (iii) a person involved in carrying out works in relation to the building.
- (4) Where any funding of a kind mentioned in subsection \(2\) is obtained, the amount of the funding is to be deducted from the remediation costs (and the amount of any service charge is to be reduced accordingly).
- (5) In the case of a failure to comply with subsection \(2\), a tenant may make an application for an order that all or any of remediation costs are not to be regarded as relevant costs to be taken into account in determining the amount of any service charge payable by—
 - (a) the tenant, or
 - (b) anyone else specified in the application.
- (6) An application is to be made to the prescribed court or tribunal.
- (7) The court or tribunal to which the application is made may make such order on the application as it considers just and equitable in the circumstances.
- (8) Nothing in this section requires the landlord to do anything mentioned in subsection \(2\) before carrying out remediation works.
- (9) The Secretary of State may issue guidance about the taking of steps under subsection \(2\), and may revise or withdraw any issued guidance.
- (10) Where on an application under this section it is alleged that a person failed to comply with subsection \(2\)—
 - (a) proof of a failure to comply with any applicable guidance may be relied on as tending to establish that there was such a failure, and
 - (b) proof of compliance with any applicable guidance may be relied on as tending to establish that there was no such failure.
- (11) In this section—
 - “developer”, in relation to a building, means a person who undertakes or commissions the construction or conversion of the building with a view to granting or disposing of interests in the building (or parts of it);
 - “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State;
 - “remediation costs” means costs incurred or to be incurred in carrying out the remediation works;
 - “third party” means a person other than a tenant.

20E Regulations under section 20D

- (1) In this section “regulations” means regulations under section 20D.
- (2) Regulations are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (3) A power to make regulations includes power to make—
 - (a) incidental, transitional or saving provision;
 - (b) different provision for different purposes.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 134 Duties relating to work to dwellings etc

- (1) In the Defective Premises Act 1972 after section 2 insert—

“2A Duties relating to work to dwellings etc

- (1) This section applies where a person, in the course of a business, takes on work in relation to any part of a relevant building.
- (2) In this section “relevant building” means a building consisting of or containing one or more dwellings.
- (3) The person owes a duty to—
- (a) the person for whom the work is done, and
 - (b) each person who holds or acquires an interest (whether legal or equitable) in a dwelling in the building,
- to see that the work is done in a workmanlike or (as the case may be) professional manner, with proper materials and so that as regards the work the dwelling is fit for habitation when the work is completed.
- (4) The duty under this section does not apply in relation to a dwelling if—
- (a) the work taken on is work for or in connection with the provision of the dwelling (as to which see section 1), or
 - (b) it is expected that, on completion of the work, it will have ceased to be a dwelling or will otherwise have ceased to exist.
- (5) A person (A) who takes on any work to which this section applies for another (B) on terms that A is to do it in accordance with instructions given by or on behalf of B is, to the extent to which A does it properly in accordance with those instructions, to be treated for the purposes of this section as discharging the duty imposed on A by this section except where A owes a duty to B to warn B of any defects in the instructions and fails to discharge that duty.
- (6) A person is not treated for the purposes of subsection \(5\) as having given instructions for the doing of work merely because the person has agreed to the work being done in a specified manner, with specified materials or to a specified design.
- (7) A person who, in the course of a business which consists of or includes carrying out or arranging for the carrying out of work of a kind mentioned in subsection \(1\), arranges for another to take on work of that kind is treated for the purposes of this section as included among the persons who have taken on the work.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(8) For the purposes of the Limitation Act 1980, a cause of action in respect of a breach of a duty imposed by this section is treated as accruing at the time the work is completed; but if after that time a person does further work to rectify the work the person has already done, any such cause of action in respect of that further work is treated as accruing at the time when the further work is finished.”

(2) The amendment made by this section applies in relation to work completed after the coming into force of this section.

135 Limitation periods

(1) After section 4A of the Limitation Act 1980 insert—

“4B Special time limit for certain actions in respect of damage or defects in relation to buildings

(1) Where by virtue of a relevant provision a person becomes entitled to bring an action against any other person, no action may be brought after the expiration of 15 years from the date on which the right of action accrued.

(2) An action referred to in subsection (1) is one to which—

- (a) sections 1, 28, 32, 35, 37 and 38 apply;
- (b) the other provisions of this Act do not apply.

(3) In this section “relevant provision” means—

- (a) section 1 or 2A of the Defective Premises Act 1972;
- (b) section 38 of the Building Act 1984.

(4) Where by virtue of section 1 of the Defective Premises Act 1972 a person became entitled, before the commencement date, to bring an action against any other person, this section applies in relation to the action as if the reference in subsection (1) to 15 years were a reference to 30 years.

(5) In subsection (4) “the commencement date” means the day on which section 135 of the Building Safety Act 2022 came into force.”

(2) In section 1(5) of the Defective Premises Act 1972, for “the Limitation Act 1939, the Law Reform (Limitation of Actions, &c.) Act 1954 and the Limitation Act 1963” substitute “the Limitation Act 1980”.

(3) The amendment made by subsection \(1\) in relation to an action by virtue of section 1 of the Defective Premises Act 1972 is to be treated as always having been in force.

(4) In a case where—

- (a) by virtue of section 1 of the Defective Premises Act 1972 a person became entitled, before the day on which this section came into force, to bring an action against any other person, and

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the period of 30 years from the date on which the right of action accrued expires in the initial period, section 4B of the Limitation Act 1980 (inserted by subsection (1)) has effect as if it provided that the action may not be brought after the end of the initial period.
- (5) Where an action is brought that, but for subsection \(3\), would have been barred by the Limitation Act 1980, a court hearing the action must dismiss it in relation to any defendant if satisfied that it is necessary to do so to avoid a breach of that defendant’s Convention rights.
- (6) Nothing in this section applies in relation to a claim which, before this section came into force, was settled by agreement between the parties or finally determined by a court or arbitration (whether on the basis of limitation or otherwise).
- (7) In this section—
 “Convention rights” has the same meaning as in the Human Rights Act 1998;
 “the initial period” means the period of one year beginning with the day on which this section comes into force.

137 The new homes ombudsman scheme

- (1) The conditions referred to in section 136(1) are that—
 - (a) membership of the scheme is open to all developers,
 - (b) the scheme enables qualifying complainants to have complaints against members of the scheme investigated and determined by an independent individual, and
 - (c) the scheme contains the provisions required by Schedule 9.
- (2) A “qualifying complainant” is a person who, at the time the complaint is made, is a relevant owner of a home which, at that time, is a new build home.
- (3) The individual who is to investigate and determine complaints under the scheme is to be known as “the new homes ombudsman”.
- (4) The scheme may also include provision for persons other than qualifying complainants to have complaints against members of the scheme investigated and determined under the scheme.
- (5) The scheme may provide that the new homes ombudsman is not required to investigate a complaint if the new homes ombudsman is satisfied that the complaint (or a complaint which is materially the same) is being, or has been, dealt with under another redress scheme or in legal proceedings.
- (6) In this section, “redress scheme” means a scheme under which complaints may be made to, and investigated and determined by, an independent person.
- (7) Schedule 9 contains further provision about the new homes ombudsman scheme.
- (8) Schedule 10 contains amendments connected with the establishment of the new homes ombudsman scheme.

138 “Relevant owner”, “new build home” and “developer”

- (1) This section provides for the meaning of terms used in section 137 (and in this section).
- (2) A person is a “relevant owner” of a home if the person—
 - (a) is an individual,
 - (b) has a relevant interest in land that includes the home, and
 - (c) meets the occupation condition.
- (3) A person meets the occupation condition if the person—
 - (a) occupies the home, or
 - (b) is the landlord under a lease of land that includes the home granted for a term not exceeding 21 years to another individual for that individual’s occupation of the home.
- (4) In relation to a home in Scotland or Northern Ireland, subsection (3) has effect as if in paragraph (b) the words “for a term not exceeding 21 years” were omitted.
- (5) A home is a “new build home” if—
 - (a) the home is, or is contained in—
 - (i) a building the construction of which began after the coming into force of this section, or
 - (ii) a building that has been converted, or to which any other works have been carried out, so that it consists of or contains the home, where the conversion or works began after the coming into force of this section,
 - (b) there is a person who is, or was, a developer in relation to the home, and
 - (c) no more than two years have elapsed since the first acquisition, by any person, of a relevant interest in land that includes the home from the person mentioned in paragraph \(b\).
- (6) “Relevant interest” means—
 - (a) in relation to land in England or Wales, a legal estate which is—
 - (i) an estate in fee simple absolute in possession, or
 - (ii) a term of years absolute granted for a term of more than 21 years from the date of the grant;
 - (b) in relation to land in Scotland, the interest of an owner of land;
 - (c) in relation to land in Northern Ireland, a legal estate which is—
 - (i) an estate in fee simple absolute in possession,
 - (ii) an estate in fee simple in possession subject to a rent payable under a fee farm grant, or
 - (iii) a term of years absolute granted for a term of more than 21 years from the date of the grant.
- (7) A “developer” is a person—
 - (a) who undertakes or commissions—
 - (i) the construction of a new building that is to consist of or contain a home,
 - (ii) the conversion of, or carrying out of any other works to, an existing building so that it consists of or contains a home, or
 - (iii) the conversion of, or carrying out of any other works to, an existing building so as to alter the number of homes contained in it,

New build home warranties

144 New build home warranties

- (1) This section applies where a person (“the developer”) carries out a development in England that results in the creation of one or more dwellings (“new build homes”).
- (2) The developer must, at the time of or before granting or disposing of a relevant interest in a new build home—
 - (a) provide to the purchaser a new build home warranty for the new build home, and
 - (b) provide to a prescribed person a new build home warranty for any common parts.
- (3) A “new build home warranty” for a thing is an arrangement, satisfying any requirements under subsection (4), under which—
 - (a) the developer agrees, in specified circumstances, to remedy any specified defect (or any defect) in the thing occurring in a specified period, and
 - (b) a prescribed person obtains the benefit of a policy of insurance relating to specified defects (or any defects) in the thing.

“Specified” here means specified in the arrangement.

- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations impose requirements about new build home warranties, including in particular requirements as to—
 - (a) the kinds of defect which the developer must agree to remedy;

Status: Point in time view as at 24/07/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Building Safety Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the circumstances in which the developer must agree to remedy a defect (including the minimum duration of the period mentioned in subsection (3)(a));
 - (c) the developer agreeing to meet prescribed costs incurred by a person occupying a new build home, where works to remedy a defect are carried out;
 - (d) the policy of insurance (including risks that must be covered, the minimum amount of cover, the minimum duration of the period of cover, and the maximum amount of any excess);
 - (e) the solvency of the insurer or underwriter;
 - (f) the standard of service provided by or on behalf of the insurer in relation to the policy;
 - (g) the ability of a person who has the benefit of the warranty to transfer that benefit to another person.
- (5) The regulations must provide that the period of cover under the policy of insurance must be at least 15 years beginning with the day on which the relevant interest is granted or disposed of.

(6) In this section—

“carries out a development”: the reference to a person carrying out a development is to undertaking or commissioning—

(a) the construction of a building, or

(b) the conversion of, or carrying out of any other works to, a building, with a view to granting, or disposing of, relevant interests in one or more dwellings created as a result of the construction, conversion or carrying out of works;

“common parts”, in relation to a new build home, means any part of a building, where—

(a) that part is provided for the use, benefit and enjoyment of the residents of the new build home and the residents of other dwellings (whether alone or with other persons), and

(b) the right to use that part is conferred in connection with the grant or disposal of the relevant interest in the new build home;

“defect”: any reference to a defect includes, in relation to land, contamination;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State;

“purchaser” means the person to whom the relevant interest is granted or disposed of;

“relevant interest” means a legal estate which is—

(a) an estate in fee simple absolute in possession, or

(b) a term of years absolute granted for a term of more than 21 years from the date of the grant.

145 New build home warranties: financial penalties

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for and in connection with the imposition of a financial penalty in cases where the Secretary of State, or a person designated by the Secretary of State, is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that a person has, without reasonable excuse, failed to comply with section 144(2).
- (2) The regulations may include provision—
 - (a) about the procedure to be followed in imposing penalties;
 - (b) about the amount of penalties;
 - (c) for the imposition of interest or additional penalties for late payment;
 - (d) conferring rights of appeal against penalties.
- (3) The regulations must provide that the amount of a financial penalty (excluding interest or any additional penalty) may not exceed the greater of—
 - (a) 10% of the value of the relevant interest at the time the person granted or disposed of the relevant interest, and
 - (b) £10,000.
