PART 2

FACTORS TO BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT IN DECIDING WHETHER TO GRANT PRE-CHARGE BAIL

- 17 In section 30A of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (release of person arrested elsewhere than at police station), after subsection (1A) insert—

“(1B) In determining whether releasing the person on bail is necessary and proportionate in all the circumstances, the constable must have regard in particular to—

- (a) the need to secure that the person surrenders to custody,
- (b) the need to prevent offending by the person,
- (c) the need to safeguard victims of crime and witnesses, taking into account any vulnerabilities of any alleged victim of, or alleged witness to, the offence for which the person was arrested where these vulnerabilities have been identified by the constable,
- (d) the need to safeguard the person, taking into account any vulnerabilities of the person where these vulnerabilities have been identified by the constable, and
- (e) the need to manage risks to the public.”

I50 Sch. 4 para. 20 in force at 28.10.2022 by S.I. 2022/1075, reg. 4(b)

21 (1) Section 30CA (bail under section 30A: variation of conditions by police) is amended as follows.

(2) After subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) If it is reasonably practicable to do so, the investigating officer must seek the views of the alleged victim (if any) of the relevant offence on—

- (a) whether any of the conditions that are relevant conditions should be varied under subsection (1), and
- (b) if so, what variations should be made to those conditions.

(4B) The investigating officer must inform the relevant officer of any views obtained under subsection (4A).

(4C) If any of the conditions which are relevant conditions are varied under subsection (1), the investigating officer must, if it is reasonably practicable to do so, notify the alleged victim of the variations.

(4D) If the alleged victim of the relevant offence appears to the investigating officer to be vulnerable, subsections (4A) and (4C) apply as if references to the alleged victim of the offence were to a person appearing to the officer to represent the alleged victim.”

(3) For subsection (5) substitute—

“(5) In this section—

“investigating officer”, in relation to the relevant offence, means the constable or other person in charge of the investigation of the offence;

“relevant condition”, in relation to the relevant offence and an alleged victim of that offence, means a condition that relates to the safeguarding of the alleged victim;

“relevant offence” means the offence for which the person making the request under subsection (1) was under arrest when granted bail under section 30A(1);

“relevant officer”, in relation to a designated police station, means a custody officer but, in relation to any other police station—

- (a) means a constable who is not involved in the investigation of the relevant offence, if such a constable is readily available, and
- (b) if no such constable is readily available—
 - (i) means a constable other than the one who granted bail to the person, if such a constable is readily available, and
 - (ii) if no such constable is readily available, means the constable who granted bail.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) For the purposes of this section a person (“P”) is an alleged victim of an offence if—
- (a) an allegation has been made to a constable or other person involved in the investigation of the offence that P has suffered physical, mental or emotional harm, or economic loss, which was directly caused by the offence, and
 - (b) P is an individual.
- (7) For the purposes of this section an alleged victim of an offence is vulnerable if the alleged victim—
- (a) was aged under 18 at the time of the offence, or
 - (b) may have difficulty understanding a communication from an investigating officer under this section, or communicating effectively in response to it, by reason of—
 - (i) a physical disability or disorder,
 - (ii) a mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983, or
 - (iii) a significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning.”

22 After section 47 insert—

“47ZZA Duty to seek views of alleged victims on conditions of pre-charge bail

- (1) Subsections (2) to (5) apply if—
- (a) a person has been arrested for an offence, and
 - (b) a custody officer proposes to release the person on bail under this Part (except section 37C(2)(b) or 37CA(2)(b)).
- (2) If it is reasonably practicable to do so, the investigating officer must seek the views of the alleged victim (if any) of the offence on—
- (a) whether relevant conditions should be imposed on the person’s bail, and
 - (b) if so, what relevant conditions should be imposed.
- (3) In this section “relevant condition”, in relation to an offence and an alleged victim of that offence, means a condition that relates to the safeguarding of the alleged victim.
- (4) The investigating officer must inform the custody officer of any views obtained under subsection (2).
- (5) If the person is granted bail subject to relevant conditions, the investigating officer must, if it is reasonably practicable to do so, notify the alleged victim of the offence of those conditions.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) If the alleged victim of the offence appears to the investigating officer to be vulnerable, subsections (2) and (5) apply as if references to the alleged victim of the offence were to a person appearing to the officer to represent the alleged victim.
- (7) Subsections (8) to (11) apply if—
- (a) a person has been arrested for an offence,
 - (b) the person has been released on bail under this Part subject to conditions, and
 - (c) the person requests a custody officer to vary the conditions under section 3A(8) of the Bail Act 1976.
- (8) If it is reasonably practicable to do so, the investigating officer must seek the views of the alleged victim (if any) of the offence on—
- (a) whether any of the conditions that are relevant conditions should be varied, and
 - (b) if so, what variations should be made to those conditions.
- (9) The investigating officer must inform the custody officer of any views obtained under subsection (8).
- (10) If any of the conditions which are relevant conditions are varied, the investigating officer must, if it is reasonably practicable to do so, notify the alleged victim of the variations.
- (11) If the alleged victim of the offence appears to the investigating officer to be vulnerable, subsections (8) and (10) apply as if references to the alleged victim of the offence were to a person appearing to the officer to represent the alleged victim.
- (12) In this section “investigating officer”, in relation to an offence, means the constable or other person in charge of the investigation of the offence.
- (13) For the purposes of this section a person (“P”) is an alleged victim of an offence if—
- (a) an allegation has been made to a constable or other person involved in the investigation of the offence that P has suffered physical, mental or emotional harm, or economic loss, which was directly caused by the offence, and
 - (b) P is an individual.
- (14) For the purposes of this section an alleged victim of an offence is vulnerable if the alleged victim—
- (a) was aged under 18 at the time of the offence, or
 - (b) may have difficulty understanding a communication from an investigating officer under this section, or communicating effectively in response to it, by reason of—
 - (i) a physical disability or disorder,
 - (ii) a mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983, or
 - (iii) a significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning.”

PART 6

GUIDANCE ON PRE-CHARGE BAIL

37 In the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, after section 50A insert—

“50B Guidance from the College of Policing on pre-charge bail

- (1) The College of Policing may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, issue guidance on bail that is granted to a person under Part 3 or this Part (“pre-charge bail”).
- (2) Guidance on pre-charge bail may in particular cover—
 - (a) the exercise of powers to release a person on pre-charge bail;
 - (b) the exercise of powers to impose or vary conditions of pre-charge bail;
 - (c) the exercise of powers to arrest a person—
 - (i) for failing to answer pre-charge bail, or
 - (ii) for breaching any conditions of pre-charge bail;
 - (d) the exercise of powers to extend the period of pre-charge bail;
 - (e) the duty to seek the views of alleged victims about conditions of pre-charge bail.
- (3) The College of Policing may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, from time to time revise the whole or any part of its guidance on pre-charge bail.
- (4) Before issuing or revising guidance on pre-charge bail, the College of Policing must consult—
 - (a) the National Police Chiefs’ Council,
 - (b) such persons as appear to the College to represent the views of local policing bodies, and

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

- (c) such other persons as the College thinks fit.
- (5) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament any guidance on pre-charge bail issued by the College of Policing, and any revision of such guidance.
- (6) The Secretary of State is not required by subsection (5) to lay before Parliament, or may exclude from what is laid, anything the publication of which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State—
 - (a) could prejudice the prevention or detection of crime or the apprehension or prosecution of offenders, or
 - (b) could jeopardise the safety of any person.
- (7) A person who exercises functions relating to pre-charge bail must have regard to the guidance.
- (8) But subsection (7) does not apply to—
 - (a) a member of the Serious Fraud Office,
 - (b) a member of staff of the Financial Conduct Authority,
 - (c) an officer of Revenue and Customs, or
 - (d) a National Crime Agency officer.
- (9) A failure on the part of a person to whom subsection (7) applies to comply with the guidance does not of itself render the person liable to any criminal or civil proceedings.
- (10) But guidance on pre-charge bail is admissible in evidence in criminal or civil proceedings and a court may take into account a failure to comply with it in determining a question in the proceedings.”

SCHEDULE 6

Section 56

SPECIAL PROCEDURE FOR ACCESS TO MATERIAL RELATING TO HUMAN REMAINS

Making of orders by judge

- 1 (1) On an application made by a constable, a judge may make an order under paragraph 2 if the judge is satisfied that the following conditions are met.
- (2) The first condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that material that consists of, or may relate to the location of, relevant human remains—
- (a) is in the possession or control of a person specified in the application, or
 - (b) is on premises occupied or controlled by a person specified in the application.
- (3) The second condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the material consists of or includes excluded material or special procedure material.
- (4) The third condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the material does not consist of or include items subject to legal privilege.
- (5) The fourth condition is that other methods of obtaining the material—
- (a) have been tried without success, or
 - (b) have not been tried because it appeared that they were bound to fail.
- (6) The fifth condition is that it is in the public interest, having regard—
- (a) to the need to ensure that human remains are located and disposed of in a lawful manner, and
 - (b) to the circumstances under which the person in possession of the material holds it,
- that the material should be produced or access to it should be given.

Issue of warrants by judge

- 8 (1) On an application made by a constable, a judge may issue a warrant authorising a constable to enter and search premises if the judge is satisfied that the conditions in this paragraph are met.
- (2) The first condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is material on the premises mentioned in sub-paragraph (5) below that consists of, or may relate to the location of, relevant human remains.
- (3) The second condition is that each of the conditions set out in paragraph 1(3) to (6) is met in relation to the material.
- (4) The third condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing, in relation to each set of premises specified in the application—
- (a) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises,
 - (b) that it is practicable to communicate with a person entitled to grant entry to the premises but it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant access to the material,
 - (c) that the material on the premises contains information which—
 - (i) is subject to a restriction on disclosure or an obligation of secrecy contained in any enactment, including an enactment contained in an Act passed after this Act, and
 - (ii) is likely to be disclosed in breach of it if a warrant is not issued, or
 - (d) that service of notice of an application for an order under paragraph 2 may seriously prejudice the purpose of the search.
- (5) The premises referred to in sub-paragraph (2) are—
- (a) one or more sets of premises specified in the application (in which case the application is for a “specific premises warrant”), or
 - (b) any premises occupied or controlled by a person specified in the application, including such sets of premises as are so specified (in which case the application is for an “all premises warrant”).

Section 153

COMMUNITY AND SUSPENDED SENTENCE ORDERS: SPECIAL PROCEDURES RELATING TO REVIEW AND BREACH

PART 1

AMENDMENTS TO THE SENTENCING CODE

Introductory

- 1 The Sentencing Code is amended as specified in this Part of this Schedule.

Commencement Information

I308 Sch. 14 para. 1 in force at 28.6.2022, see s. 208(5)(r)

Orders that qualify for special procedures

- 2 After section 395 insert—

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“395A Community and suspended sentence orders qualifying for special procedures

- (1) A community order or suspended sentence order qualifies for special procedures for the purposes of a relevant provision if the order—
 - (a) is of a description specified in regulations for the purposes of that provision, and
 - (b) is made within a period, or after a time, so specified.
- (2) In subsection (1) “relevant provision” means—
 - (a) section 217A;
 - (b) section 293A;
 - (c) paragraphs 10(5)(ba) and 11(2)(ba) of Schedule 10;
 - (d) paragraph 13(1)(da) of Schedule 16.
- (3) A description specified under subsection (1)(a) may, among other things, be framed by reference to—
 - (a) the courts by which the orders are made (for example, courts sitting in particular places or areas);
 - (b) the persons who are subject to the orders (for example, persons of a particular sex);
 - (c) the offences to which the orders relate.
- (4) Where regulations under subsection (1)(a) specify a description of community or suspended sentence order for the first time, they must under subsection (1)(b) specify, in relation to that description of order, a period of 18 months beginning with the day on which the regulations come into force.
- (5) Regulations under this section are to be made by the Secretary of State.
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to—
 - (a) the negative resolution procedure, where under subsection (1)(b) the regulations specify a period, and
 - (b) the affirmative resolution procedure, in any other case.”

Commencement Information

I309 Sch. 14 para. 2 in force at 28.6.2022, see s. 208(5)(r)

Review of community orders

- 3 (1) Section 211 (power of Crown Court to direct magistrates’ court supervision) is amended as follows.
 - (2) The existing provision becomes subsection (1).
 - (3) After that subsection insert—

“(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a community order that qualifies for special procedures for the purposes of section 217A.”

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. - 4 In section 217 (power to provide for court review of community orders), after subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) Regulations under this section may not make provision in respect of community orders which for the purposes of section 217A qualify for special procedures.”

Commencement Information

I311 Sch. 14 para. 4 in force at 28.6.2022, see s. 208(5)(r)

- 5 After section 217 insert—

“217A Review of community order qualifying for special procedures

- (1) A community order that—
 - (a) imposes one or more community order requirements, and
 - (b) qualifies for special procedures for the purposes of this section, may make provision for the order to be reviewed periodically (“provision for review”).
- (2) Where a community order contains provision for review under this section, it must—
 - (a) specify the intervals at which the order is to be reviewed,
 - (b) provide for each review to be made, subject to section 217B, at a hearing held for the purpose by the responsible court (a “review hearing”),
 - (c) require the offender to attend each review hearing, and
 - (d) provide for a report by an officer of a provider of probation services on the offender’s progress in complying with the community order requirements of the order (a “progress report”) to be made to the responsible court before each review.
- (3) In this section “the responsible court”, in relation to a community order, means the court by which the order is made.
- (4) For more about community orders that qualify for special procedures, see section 395A.

217B Powers on review

- (1) This section applies where a review hearing is held on a review of a community order by virtue of section 217A.
- (2) The court may, after considering the progress report, amend—
 - (a) the community order requirements of the order, or
 - (b) any provision of the order which relates to those requirements.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) But the court—
- (a) may not amend the community order requirements of the order so as to impose a requirement of a different kind unless the offender expresses willingness to comply with that requirement,
 - (b) may not amend—
 - (i) a mental health treatment requirement,
 - (ii) a drug rehabilitation requirement, or
 - (iii) an alcohol treatment requirement, unless the offender expresses willingness to comply with the requirement as amended, and
 - (c) except with the consent of the offender, may not amend the order while an appeal against the order is pending.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(a)—
- (a) a community order requirement of a kind within any entry in the table in section 201 is of the same kind as any other community requirement within that entry, and
 - (b) an electronic compliance monitoring requirement is a requirement of the same kind as any requirement within that table to which it relates.
- (5) If the court is of the opinion that the offender has without reasonable excuse breached a community order requirement of the order, the court may adjourn the hearing so that the court can deal with the case forthwith under paragraph 10 or 11 of Schedule 10 (powers of court to deal with offender on breach of requirement).
- (6) For some powers available where the court is of the opinion referred to in subsection (5) but does not deal with the case forthwith, see paragraph 9A of Schedule 10.
- (7) In this section—
- “review hearing”, and
 - “progress report”,
- have the same meanings as in section 217A.

217C Alteration of review arrangements

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply where a court—
- (a) considers the progress report relating to a review under section 217A (the “current review”), and
 - (b) forms the opinion that the offender’s progress in complying with the community order requirements of the community order is satisfactory.
- (2) If the court forms that opinion before a review hearing is held at the current review—
- (a) it may order that no review hearing is to be held at the current review, and
 - (b) it may amend the community order so as to provide for each subsequent review to be held without a review hearing.

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) If a review hearing is held at the current review, the court may at the hearing amend the community order so as to provide for each subsequent review to be held without a review hearing.
- (4) If at a review held without a review hearing the court—
- (a) considers the progress report, and
 - (b) forms the opinion that the offender’s progress under the order is no longer satisfactory,
- it may require the offender to attend a hearing of the court at a specified time and place.
- (5) At a review hearing the court may amend the community order so as to vary the intervals specified under section 217A(2)(a).
- (6) The functions of a court under this section that are exercisable in relation to a review without a hearing are to be exercised—
- (a) where the court is the Crown Court, by a judge of the court, and
 - (b) where the court is a magistrates’ court, by a justice of the peace.
- (7) In this section—
- “review hearing”, and
- “progress report”,
- have the same meanings as in section 217A.”

- 6 In Schedule 9 (community orders and suspended sentence orders: requirements), after Part 10 insert—

“PART 10A

DRUG TESTING REQUIREMENT

Requirement

- 22A (1) In this Code, “drug testing requirement”, in relation to a relevant order, means a requirement that during a period specified in the order, the offender must, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is any drug or psychoactive substance in the offender’s body during that period, provide samples in accordance with directions given by the responsible officer.
- (2) The order—
- (a) must provide that if the offender provides samples to a person other than the responsible officer, the results of the tests carried out on the samples are to be communicated to the responsible officer;
 - (b) may make provision about the provision of samples by virtue of sub-paragraph (1).
- (3) The power of the responsible officer to give directions by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) about the provision of samples—
- (a) is a power to give directions as to—
 - (i) the type of samples to be provided, and
 - (ii) the times at which, or circumstances in which, they are to be provided,
 - (b) is subject to any provision made by the order, and
 - (c) is to be exercised in accordance with guidance issued by the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State may revise any guidance issued under sub-paragraph (3)(c).
- (5) In this paragraph and paragraph 22B—
- “drug” means a controlled drug as defined by section 2 of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971;
- “psychoactive substance” has the meaning given by section 2(1) of the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016.

Restrictions on imposing drug testing requirement

- 22B (1) A court may not impose a drug testing requirement unless the following conditions are met—

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. - (a) the misuse condition, and
 - (b) the availability of arrangements condition.
- (2) The misuse condition is that the court is satisfied that the offender’s misuse of a drug or psychoactive substance—
- (a) caused or contributed to the offence to which the order relates or an associated offence, or
 - (b) is likely to cause or contribute to the commission of further offences by the offender.
- (3) The availability of arrangements condition is that the court has been notified by the Secretary of State that arrangements for implementing drug testing requirements are available in the offender’s home local justice area (and the notice has not been withdrawn).”

- (b) the offender concerned has been remanded in custody in connection with the offence or a related offence.
- (1B) In this section any reference to a “sentence”, in relation to an offender, is to—
- (a) a term of imprisonment being served by the offender as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), or
 - (b) a detention and training order made in respect of the offender as mentioned in subsection (1A)(a).”
- (4) In subsection (2), for “that purpose” substitute “the purposes of subsection (1)(b) or (1A)(b)”.
- (5) For subsection (9) substitute—
- “(8A) Subsection (9) applies in relation to an offender who is sentenced to two or more consecutive sentences or sentences which are wholly or partly concurrent if—
- (a) the sentences were imposed on the same occasion, or
 - (b) where they were imposed on different occasions, the offender has not been released during the period beginning with the first and ending with the last of those occasions.
- (9) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (5), the sentences are to be treated as a single sentence.”

- (13) After paragraph 44 insert—

“Electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement

- 45 In this Code “electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement”, in relation to a youth rehabilitation order, means a requirement to submit to electronic monitoring of the offender’s whereabouts (otherwise than for the purpose of monitoring the offender’s compliance with any other requirement included in the order) during a period specified in the order.

Person responsible for electronic monitoring: electronic whereabouts monitoring order

- 46 (1) A youth rehabilitation order which imposes an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement must include provision for making a person responsible for the monitoring.
- (2) The person who is made responsible for the monitoring must be of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

Electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement: general

- 47 Where a youth rehabilitation order imposes an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement, the offender must (in particular)—
- (a) submit, as required from time to time by the responsible officer or the person responsible for the monitoring, to—
 - (i) being fitted with, or installation of, any necessary apparatus, and

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Restrictions on imposing electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement

- 48 (1) Where—
- (a) it is proposed to include an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement in a youth rehabilitation order, but
 - (b) there is a person (other than the offender) without whose co-operation it will not be practicable to secure the monitoring,
- the requirement may not be included in the order without that person’s consent.
- (2) A court may not include an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement in a youth rehabilitation order in respect of an offender unless—
- (a) the court has been notified by the Secretary of State that electronic monitoring arrangements are available in the local justice area proposed to be specified in the order (and the notice has not been withdrawn),
 - (b) the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the offender can be fitted with any necessary apparatus under the arrangements currently available, and
 - (ii) any other necessary provision can be made under those arrangements, and
 - (c) the court is satisfied that arrangements are generally operational throughout England and Wales (even if not always operational everywhere there) under which the offender’s whereabouts can be electronically monitored.”

Commencement Information

SCHEDULE 20

Section 200

FURTHER PROVISION ABOUT VIDEO AND AUDIO LINKS IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Criminal Justice Act 2003

- 1 (1) The Criminal Justice Act 2003 is amended as follows.
- (2) For section 52 substitute—

“52 Further provision about the giving, variation and rescission of live-link directions

- (1) The power conferred by section 51 includes power to give—
 - (a) a direction that is applicable to several, or all, of the persons taking part in particular eligible criminal proceedings;
 - (b) a direction that is applicable to a particular person in respect of only some aspects of particular eligible criminal proceedings (such as giving evidence or attending the proceedings when not giving evidence);
 - (c) a direction requiring or permitting a person who is outside England and Wales (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) to take part in eligible criminal proceedings through a live audio link or a live video link.
- (2) The court may vary or rescind a direction under section 51 at any time before or during the eligible criminal proceedings to which it relates (but this does not affect the court’s power to give a further direction under that section in relation to the proceedings).
- (3) A direction under section 51 may not be rescinded unless—
 - (a) the court is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice for the direction to be rescinded,
 - (b) the parties to the proceedings have been given the opportunity to make representations, and
 - (c) if so required by subsection (9), the relevant youth offending team has been given the opportunity to make representations.
- (4) In relation to the variation of a direction given under section 51—
 - (a) so far as the effect of the variation would be to allow a person to take part in eligible criminal proceedings through a live audio link or a live video link, or to alter (without removing) a person’s ability to do so, sections 51(4) and 53(1) to (3) apply as they apply to the giving of a direction;
 - (b) so far as the effect of the variation would be to remove a person’s ability to take part in eligible criminal proceedings through a live

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) audio link or a live video link, subsection (3) applies as it applies to the rescission of a direction.

- (5) Section 51(5) and (6) applies in relation to the variation or rescission of a direction given under section 51 as it applies to the giving of a direction under that section.
- (6) A direction under section 51 may be given, varied or rescinded—
- (a) on an application by a party to the proceedings, or
 - (b) of the court’s own motion.

But a party may not apply for a variation or rescission unless there has been a material change of circumstances since the direction was given or last varied.

- (7) The court must state in open court its reasons for refusing an application for the giving, variation or rescission of a direction under section 51 and, if it is a magistrates’ court, must cause them to be entered in the register of its proceedings.
- (8) If a hearing takes place in relation to the giving, variation or rescission of a direction under section 51, the court may require or permit a person to take part in that hearing through—
- (a) a live audio link, or
 - (b) a live video link.
- (9) The requirement referred to in section 51(4)(c) and subsection (3)(c) arises in a case where—
- (a) the defendant is a party to the proceedings, and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the defendant has not attained the age of 18 years, or
 - (ii) the defendant has attained the age of 18 years but the court is dealing with the case as if the defendant had not attained that age.

52A Further provision about the effect of live-link directions

- (1) A person who takes part in eligible criminal proceedings in accordance with a direction under section 51 is to be treated as complying with any requirement (however imposed or expressed) for that person to attend or appear before court, or to surrender to the custody of the court, for the purposes of that participation in those proceedings.
- (2) A person who takes part in eligible criminal proceedings in accordance with a direction under section 51 is to be treated as present in court for the purposes of those proceedings.
- (3) If eligible criminal proceedings are conducted with one or more persons taking part in accordance with a direction under section 51, the proceedings are to be regarded as taking place—
- (a) if at least one member of the court is taking part in the proceedings while in a courtroom, in that courtroom (or, if more than one courtroom falls within this paragraph, such of them as the court directs),

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 13 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) if no member of the court, but at least one other person, is taking part in the proceedings while in a courtroom, in that courtroom (or, if more than one courtroom falls within this paragraph, such of them as the court directs), or
 - (c) if no person is taking part in the proceedings while in a courtroom, at such place as the court directs (being a place where the court could lawfully sit for the purposes of those proceedings).
 - (4) In subsection (3), “courtroom” includes any place where proceedings of the sort in question might ordinarily be held (if no person were taking part in the proceedings in accordance with a direction under section 51).
 - (5) A statement made on oath by a witness outside the United Kingdom and given in evidence through a live audio link or a live video link in accordance with a direction under section 51 is to be treated for the purposes of section 1 of the Perjury Act 1911 as having been made in the proceedings in which it is given in evidence.”
- (3) In section 53—
 - (a) for the heading substitute “Further provision about live links in magistrates’ courts”;
 - (b) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) in the words before paragraph (a), for “This section applies” substitute “Subsections (2) and (3) apply”;
 - (ii) in paragraph (a), for “for evidence to be given through a live link in proceedings before the court” substitute “requiring or permitting a person to take part in proceedings before the court through a live audio link or a live video link”;
 - (iii) in paragraph (b), for “receiving such evidence” substitute “such participation”;
 - (c) after subsection (3) insert—

“(4) The following functions of a magistrates’ court may be discharged by a single justice—

 - (a) giving a direction under section 51 or varying such a direction under section 52(2);
 - (b) rescinding under section 52(2) a direction given under section 51 before the eligible criminal proceedings concerned begin;
 - (c) requiring or permitting, under section 52(8), a person to take part by live audio link or live video link in a hearing about a matter within paragraph (a) or (b).”
- (4) In section 54(1), for “a live link” substitute “a live audio link or a live video link by a witness (including the defendant)”.
- (5) In section 55—
 - (a) in subsection (2)—
 - (i) in paragraph (a), for “51 or 52” substitute “52(6)”;
 - (ii) in paragraph (b), for “live links” substitute “live audio links and live video links”;
 - (b) in subsection (3)—

Status: Point in time view as at 19/04/2023.

- (i) in paragraph (a), omit “uncontested”;
- (ii) in paragraph (b), for “51” substitute “52(6)”;
- (iii) in paragraph (c), for “51 or 52” substitute “52(6)”.

(6) In section 56—

(a) in subsection (1)—

- (i) omit the definition of “legal representative”;
- (ii) before the definition of “local justice area” insert—

““bail” includes remand to local authority accommodation in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 3 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012,

“defendant” includes the person accused or convicted of an offence and, in the case of an enforcement hearing, the person liable to pay the sum or financial penalty concerned,

“eligible criminal proceedings” has the meaning given in section 51(3),

“enforcement hearing” means a hearing relating to collection, discharge, satisfaction or enforcement of—

- (a) a sum that has been adjudged to be paid on conviction for an offence by a magistrates’ court or the Crown Court, or
- (b) a financial penalty that is enforceable in accordance with section 85(6) and (7) of the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 as if it were such a sum (including a hearing to determine whether a financial penalty is so enforceable),

“live audio link”, in relation to a person (P) taking part in proceedings, means a live telephone link or other arrangement which—

- (a) enables P to hear all other persons taking part in the proceedings who are not in the same location as P, and
- (b) enables all other persons taking part in the proceedings who are not in the same location as P to hear P,

“live video link”, in relation to a person (P) taking part in proceedings, means a live television link or other arrangement which—

- (a) enables P to see and hear all other persons taking part in the proceedings who are not in the same location as P, and
- (b) enables all other persons taking part in the proceedings who are not in the same location as P to see and hear P”;

(iii) after the definition of “local justice area” insert—

““preliminary hearing” means a hearing in proceedings for an offence held before the start of the trial (within the meaning of subsection (11A) or (11B) of section 22 of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985), including, in the case of proceedings in the Crown Court, a preparatory hearing held under—

- (a) section 7 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987 (cases of serious or complex fraud), or

- (b) section 29 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (other serious, complex or lengthy cases),
“relevant youth offending team” means the youth offending team (established under section 39 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998) whose functions are exercisable in relation to the defendant concerned, “sentencing hearing” means any hearing following conviction for an offence which is held for the purpose of—
 - (a) proceedings (in a magistrates’ court) relating to committal to the Crown Court for sentencing,
 - (b) sentencing the offender or determining how the court should deal with the offender in respect of the offence (including reviewing, amending or revoking such a sentence or determination), or
 - (c) determining—
 - (i) how the offender has complied with a sentence given in respect of the offence, or
 - (ii) how the offender should be dealt with in respect of compliance with such a sentence,and here “sentence” includes any way in which a court has determined that the offender should be dealt with in respect of the offence,”;
- (b) after subsection (1) insert—
 - “(1A) In this Part, reference to taking part in proceedings means taking part in whatever capacity, including hearing the proceedings as a member of the court.
 - (1B) In the application of this Part in relation to a witness, a reference to taking part in proceedings includes attending those proceedings for a purpose preliminary or incidental to the giving of evidence.”;
- (c) omit subsections (2) and (3);
- (d) for subsection (4) substitute—
 - “(4) The following matters are to be disregarded for the purposes of the definitions of “live audio link” and “live video link” in subsection (1)—
 - (a) the extent (if any) to which a person is unable to see or hear by reason of any impairment of eyesight or hearing;
 - (b) the effect of any direction or order which provides for one person taking part in proceedings to be prevented by means of a screen or other arrangement from seeing another person taking part in the proceedings.”
