

---

Status: This version of this provision is prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023, Paragraph 5. (See end of Document for details)

---

PROSPECTIVE

SCHEDULE

INJUNCTIONS IN SECRETARY OF STATE PROCEEDINGS: POWERS TO REMAND

Further remand

- 5 (1) If the court is satisfied that a person who has been remanded is unable by reason of illness or accident to appear or be brought before the court at the expiration of the period for which the person was remanded, the court may, in the person's absence, remand the person for a further time.
- (2) The power mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) may, in the case of a person who was remanded on bail, be exercised by enlarging the person's recognizance and those of any sureties for the person to a later time.
- (3) Where a person remanded on bail is bound to appear before the court at any time and the court has no power to remand the person under sub-paragraph (1), the court may in the person's absence enlarge the person's recognizance and those of any sureties for the person to a later time.
- (4) The enlargement of the person's recognizance is to be deemed to be a further remand.
- (5) Paragraph 4(1) (limit of remand) does not apply to the exercise of the powers conferred by this paragraph.

---

Commencement Information

- II Sch. para. 5 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 35\(5\)

Status:

This version of this provision is prospective.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023, Paragraph 5.