

Financial Services and Markets Act 2023

2023 CHAPTER 29

U.K.

An Act to make provision about the regulation of financial services and markets; and for connected purposes. [29th June 2023]

BE IT ENACTED by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1 U.K.

REGULATORY FRAMEWORK

CHAPTER 1 U.K.

REVOCATION OF RETAINED EU LAW

1 Revocation of retained EU law relating to financial services and markets U.K.

- (1) The legislation referred to in Schedule 1 is revoked.
- (2) In that Schedule—
 - (a) Part 1 refers to retained direct principal EU legislation;
 - (b) Part 2 refers to subordinate legislation;
 - (c) Part 3 refers to EU tertiary legislation and subordinate legislation made under an instrument referred to in Part 2;
 - (d) Part 4 refers to primary legislation;
 - (e) Part 5 refers to other EU-derived legislation not covered by Parts 1 to 3.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Any rights, powers, liabilities, obligations, restrictions, remedies and procedures which—
 - (a) continue to be recognised and available in domestic law by virtue of section 4 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, and
 - (b) are derived from any provision of legislation referred to in Schedule 1, cease to be so recognised and available in domestic law.
- (4) The revocation of any legislation in accordance with this section does not affect the continued effect of any amendments to other legislation made by that revoked legislation (as those amendments had effect immediately before the revocation).
- (5) The Treasury may by regulations provide for specified subordinate legislation, or for subordinate legislation of a specified description, otherwise falling within Part 5 of Schedule 1, not to fall within that Part.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) are subject to the negative procedure.

Commencement Information

- I1 S. 1 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86\(3\)
I2 S. 1\(1\) in force at 11.7.2023 for specified purposes by S.I. 2023/779, reg. 2\(a\)

2 Transitional amendments U.K.

- (1) Schedule 2 amends particular legislation referred to in Schedule 1 in relation to the transitional period.
- (2) In this Chapter “the transitional period”, in relation to any legislation, means the period ending with the revocation of that legislation.
- (3) The amendments in Schedule 2 do not restrict the power in section 3 to modify legislation as amended by that Schedule.

3 Power to make further transitional amendments U.K.

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations modify legislation referred to in Schedule 1 in relation to the transitional period.
- (2) The power under subsection (1) is exercisable only by making such modifications as the Treasury consider necessary or desirable for or in connection with one or more of the following purposes—
 - (a) protecting and enhancing the integrity or stability of the financial system operating in the United Kingdom;
 - (b) promoting the safety and soundness of persons providing financial services;
 - (c) promoting effectiveness in the functioning of financial markets;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) promoting effective competition in the interests of consumers in financial services and markets or persons who use, or are likely to use, services provided by payment systems in the course of business carried on by those persons;
 - (e) facilitating the international competitiveness of the economy of the United Kingdom and its growth in the medium to long term;
 - (f) protecting consumers and those who are, or may become, insurance policyholders;
 - (g) providing for efficient and effective arrangements in relation to the exercise of functions under the Banking Act 2009 or Part 4 of this Act;
 - (h) protecting public funds;
 - (i) implementing, or making changes to reflect, developments in international standards and practices relating to, or applied for the purposes of, the provision of financial services or the operation of financial markets;
 - (j) providing for efficient and effective regulatory, enforcement, investigatory and supervisory arrangements in relation to the provision of financial services or the operation of financial markets;
 - (k) removing provisions that are yet to be commenced or changing the timing of their commencement.
- (3) In subsection (2)—
- (a) the integrity of the financial system operating in the United Kingdom includes the matters listed in section 1D(2) of FSMA 2000;
 - (b) references to financial markets include references to financial exchanges;
 - (c) “consumer” has the meaning given by section 1G(1) of FSMA 2000;
 - (d) “payment system” has the same meaning as in Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (see section 41 of that Act);
 - (e) the reference to regulatory arrangements includes (among other things) a reference to arrangements for the making of rules.
- (4) In modifying legislation for or in connection with a purpose mentioned in subsection (2) regulations under this section may—
- (a) confer powers on the Treasury or on a regulator;
 - (b) authorise the making of subordinate legislation by the Treasury;
 - (c) authorise the making of rules or other instruments by a regulator;
 - (d) provide for fees to be charged by a regulator in connection with the carrying out of its functions;
 - (e) apply (with or without modifications), or make equivalent or similar provision to, provisions made by or under FSMA 2000 (including criminal offences created by that Act).
- (5) The power under section 84(2)(c) to make supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision includes, in relation to regulations under this section, power to restate legislation in a clearer or more accessible way.
- (6) Before making regulations under this section the Treasury must consult the regulators.
- (7) The duty under subsection (6), so far as relating to the Bank of England or the Payment Systems Regulator, applies only if, and to the extent that, the Treasury think it appropriate to consult that regulator in view of the modifications being made by the regulations.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) The power under subsection (1) to modify legislation does not include power to modify—
- (a) primary legislation referred to in Part 4 of Schedule 1;
 - (b) technical standards of the kind mentioned in section 138P(2)(a) of FSMA 2000;
 - (c) EU tertiary legislation of the kind mentioned in section 138P(2)(b) of FSMA 2000.
- (9) Regulations under this section that modify only the following kinds of legislation referred to in Schedule 1 are subject to the negative procedure—
- (a) EU tertiary legislation;
 - (b) subordinate legislation that was not subject to affirmative resolution on being made.
- (10) Regulations under this section to which subsection (9) does not apply are subject to the affirmative procedure.

4 Power to restate and modify saved legislation U.K.

- (1) The power under section 86(5) to make saving provision in connection with the revocation of any legislation referred to in Schedule 1 includes power to restate that legislation (as it has effect immediately before its revocation)—
- (a) by amending primary legislation or subordinate legislation, or
 - (b) by making new subordinate legislation.
- (2) Regulations made by virtue of subsection (1) may make such modifications of the legislation being restated as the Treasury consider necessary or desirable for or in connection with—
- (a) the purpose of making the law clearer or more accessible, or
 - (b) any of the purposes mentioned in section 3(2).
- (3) Legislation restated by virtue of subsection (1) is not retained EU law.
- (4) Where legislation is restated by virtue of subsection (1), the Treasury may by regulations make such further modifications of that legislation as they consider necessary or desirable for or in connection with a purpose referred to in subsection (2) (a) or (b).
- (5) Subsection (4) of section 3 applies to regulations made under, or by virtue of, this section as it applies to regulations made under that section.
- (6) The power conferred by virtue of subsection (1) to restate legislation may be exercised in relation to the entirety of that legislation or in relation to such parts of it as the Treasury consider appropriate.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) The power conferred by virtue of subsection (1) to restate legislation does not include power to restate—
- (a) technical standards of the kind mentioned in section 138P(2)(a) of FSMA 2000, or
 - (b) EU tertiary legislation of the kind mentioned in section 138P(2)(b) of FSMA 2000.
- (8) Regulations made by virtue of this section that do not amend primary legislation and contain provision restating only the following kinds of legislation referred to in Schedule 1 are subject to the negative procedure—
- (a) EU tertiary legislation;
 - (b) subordinate legislation that was not subject to affirmative resolution on being made;
 - (c) any other legislation, so far as restated without any modifications made for a purpose mentioned in section 3(2).
- (9) Regulations made by virtue of this section to which subsection (8) does not apply are subject to the affirmative procedure.

5 Power to replace references to EU directives U.K.

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations modify legislation for or in connection with the purpose of replacing any reference (however expressed) to an EU directive referred to in Part 3 of Schedule 1 with such other provision (if any) as the Treasury consider appropriate.
- (2) The power under subsection (1) is exercisable only if the Treasury consider it necessary or desirable to replace the reference for or in connection with—
 - (a) the purpose of making the law clearer or more accessible, or
 - (b) any of the purposes mentioned in section 3(2).
- (3) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative procedure if they amend primary legislation.
- (4) Regulations under this section to which subsection (3) does not apply are subject to the negative procedure.

6 Restatement in rules: exemption from consultation requirements etc U.K.

- (1) A relevant requirement does not apply to the making of rules by a regulator if and to the extent that—
 - (a) the proposed rules make excluded provision in relation to provisions of legislation referred to in Schedule 1, and
 - (b) those provisions of legislation are specified, or fall within a description of provisions specified, in relation to the making of rules by the regulator in regulations made by the Treasury for the purposes of this section.
- (2) A relevant requirement does not apply to the making of rules by a regulator if and to the extent that—
 - (a) the proposed rules make excluded changes to provision of existing rules made by the regulator containing a retained EU obligation, and
 - (b) the retained EU obligation is specified, or falls within a description of obligations specified, in relation to the making of rules by the regulator in regulations made by the Treasury for the purposes of this section.
- (3) A relevant requirement does not apply to the revocation of rules by a regulator if and to the extent that—
 - (a) the rules being revoked make provision containing a retained EU obligation, and
 - (b) the rules are revoked without being replaced by other rules made by the regulator.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), rules make excluded provision in relation to provisions of legislation if, in the opinion of the regulator making the rules, the rules reproduce those provisions—
 - (a) without any changes that are material, or
 - (b) with changes that are material but their effect is to reduce a regulatory burden without having any other effects that are material.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2), rules make excluded changes to provision of existing rules if, in the opinion of the regulator making the rules—
 - (a) the effect of the changes is to reduce a regulatory burden, and
 - (b) the changes have no other effects that are material.
- (6) In this section references to a “regulatory burden” include (among other things) references to—
 - (a) a financial cost;
 - (b) an administrative inconvenience;
 - (c) an obstacle to trade or innovation;
 - (d) an obstacle to efficiency, productivity or profitability.
- (7) Where a relevant requirement does not apply to the making or revocation of rules by virtue of subsection (1), (2) or (3), the requirement also does not apply to any rules that contain incidental, supplemental, consequential or transitional provision so far as made in connection with provision made by virtue of that subsection.
- (8) “Relevant requirement” means—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in relation to rules made by the FCA, the requirements imposed by—
 - (i) section 138I of FSMA 2000, except for subsection (1)(a), and
 - (ii) section 138K of FSMA 2000;
 - (b) in relation to rules made by the PRA, the requirements imposed by—
 - (i) section 138J of FSMA 2000, except for subsection (1)(a), and
 - (ii) section 138K of FSMA 2000;
 - (c) in relation to rules made by the Bank of England, the requirements imposed by paragraph 10(1)(i) of Schedule 17A to FSMA 2000;
 - (d) in relation to rules made by the Payment Systems Regulator, the requirements imposed by section 104 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013, except for subsection (2)(a).
- (9) Where a regulator makes or revokes rules without complying with a relevant requirement by virtue of subsection (1), (2) or (3), the regulator must publish a statement which must—
- (a) in a case falling within subsection (1), list the provisions of legislation that have been restated by the rules;
 - (b) in a case falling within subsection (2), specify or describe the retained EU obligations in relation to which changes have been made by the rules;
 - (c) in a case falling within subsection (3), specify or describe the retained EU obligations that have been removed by the revocation of the rules.
- (10) Where the statement relates to the making of rules that include provision of a kind mentioned in subsection (4)(b) or (5)(a) and (b), the statement must—
- (a) if made by the FCA, include an explanation of the FCA’s reasons for believing that making the proposed rules is compatible with its duties under section 1B(1), (4A) and (5)(a) of FSMA 2000;
 - (b) if made by the PRA, include an explanation of the PRA’s reasons for believing that making the proposed rules is compatible with its duties under—
 - (i) section 2B(1) or, as the case requires, section 2C(1) or 2D(3) of FSMA 2000, and
 - (ii) section 2H of FSMA 2000;
 - (c) if made by the Bank of England, include an explanation of the Bank’s reasons for believing that making the proposed rules is compatible with—
 - (i) the Bank’s financial stability objective under section 2A of the Bank of England Act 1998, and
 - (ii) the Bank’s duties under section 30D(1)(a) of that Act;
 - (d) if made by the Payment Systems Regulator, include an explanation of the Regulator’s reasons for believing that making the proposed rules is compatible with its duties under section 49 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013.
- (11) The statement must be published in the way appearing to the regulator to be best calculated to bring the statement to the attention of the public.
- (12) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (13) In this section “rules”—
- (a) in relation to the Payment Systems Regulator, means—

7 Interpretation of Chapter U.K.

(1) In this Chapter—

“EU directive” means a directive within the meaning of Article 288 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union;

“EU tertiary legislation” has the same meaning as in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (see section 20(1));

“legislation” means primary legislation, retained direct EU legislation or subordinate legislation;

“regulator” means—

- (a) the FCA,
- (b) the PRA,
- (c) the Bank of England, or
- (d) the Payment Systems Regulator;

“the transitional period” has the meaning given in section 2(2).

(2) For the purposes of this Chapter, references to legislation do not include references to rules made by a regulator.

(3) For the purposes of this Chapter, subordinate legislation was subject to affirmative resolution on being made if it was made with approval given by a resolution of each House of Parliament (whether before or after it was made).

(4) References in this Chapter to the revocation of legislation are, in relation to the legislation referred to in Part 4 of Schedule 1, to be read as references to its repeal.

CHAPTER 2 U.K.

NEW REGULATORY POWERS

VALID FROM 29/08/2023

Designated activities regime

8 Designated activities U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) After Part 5 insert—

“PART 5A U.K.

DESIGNATED ACTIVITIES

71K Designated activities

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations provide for an activity of a specified description to be a designated activity for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Regulations under this section are referred to in this Act as designated activity regulations.
- (3) Designated activity regulations may provide for an activity to be a designated activity only if the activity relates or is connected to—
 - (a) the financial markets or exchanges of the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) financial instruments, financial products or financial investments that are (or are proposed to be) issued or sold to, or by, persons in the United Kingdom.
- (4) The description of an activity as a designated activity may be framed by reference to—
 - (a) the way in which the activity is carried on, or
 - (b) the description of persons who carry on the activity.
- (5) Schedule 6B contains examples of activities that may be specified as designated activities.
- (6) Nothing in Schedule 6B limits the powers conferred by subsection (1).
- (7) The financial instruments, financial products and financial investments mentioned in subsection (3)(b) may include cryptoassets.

71L Restrictions on carrying on of designated activities

- (1) A person must not carry on a designated activity if, or to the extent that, designated activity regulations prohibit the carrying on of that activity.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A person carrying on a designated activity that is not prohibited by virtue of subsection (1) must comply with—
 - (a) designated activity rules relating to that activity, and
 - (b) any other requirements imposed in relation to that activity by designated activity regulations.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act designated activity rules are rules made under section 71N.

71M Designated activity regulations: general

- (1) Designated activity regulations may make provision generally in relation to the carrying on of designated activities.
- (2) The following are examples of provision that may be made by designated activity regulations—
 - (a) provision about cases in which the restrictions imposed by section 71L are to apply to persons carrying on a designated activity outside the United Kingdom;
 - (b) provision supplementing, or in connection with, any requirements relating to a designated activity under designated activity rules.
- (3) Designated activity regulations may—
 - (a) provide for exemptions (including exemptions that are subject to specified conditions);
 - (b) confer powers on the Treasury or the FCA.

71N Designated activities: rules

- (1) The FCA may make rules relating to designated activities.
- (2) The power under subsection (1) is only exercisable in so far as designated activity regulations provide for the FCA to make rules—
 - (a) relating to the designated activity, or
 - (b) relating to specified matters relating to designated activities.
- (3) The FCA may by notice suspend any rules made under subsection (1) for such period as it considers appropriate.
- (4) Rules under subsection (1) may include provision enabling requirements imposed by the rules to be dispensed with, or modified, in such cases or circumstances as may be determined by the FCA under the rules (subject to subsection (5)).
- (5) The powers under subsections (3) and (4) are only exercisable in such circumstances as may be specified in designated activity regulations.
- (6) Before suspending any rules in accordance with subsection (3), the FCA must consult the PRA.
- (7) A notice under subsection (3) must be published by the FCA in the way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) The reference in section 137T(a) (supplementary powers) to “authorised persons” includes, in relation to rules made under this section, a reference to any persons to whom the rules under this section apply.

710 Designated activities: directions

- (1) The FCA may by directions impose such requirements on a person, or such description of persons, relating to the carrying on of designated activities as the FCA considers appropriate.
- (2) The power under subsection (1) is only exercisable in so far as designated activity regulations provide for the FCA to make directions relating to the designated activity.
- (3) A requirement may, in particular, be imposed so as to require the person concerned—
- (a) to take specified action, or
 - (b) to refrain from taking specified action.
- (4) A requirement may extend to activities which are not designated activities.
- (5) A direction under this section—
- (a) may specify the way in which, and the time by which, a thing is to be done;
 - (b) may be varied;
 - (c) may be expressed to have effect during a specified period or until revoked.
- (6) The FCA may at any time revoke a direction under this section by notice.
- (7) The revocation of a direction does not affect the validity of anything previously done in accordance with it.
- (8) A direction or notice under this section must be given in writing to the person or persons to whom it applies.
- (9) But if in the circumstances the FCA considers it appropriate, the FCA may, in addition to, or instead of, proceeding under subsection (8), publish the direction or notice in the way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it.
- (10) Designated activity regulations may make provision for the exercise of the power under subsection (1) to be subject to such conditions as may be specified in the regulations.
- (11) Provision under subsection (10) may (among other things) require, where the exercise of the power relates to a PRA-authorised person, consultation with the PRA.
- (12) The imposition of a requirement that expires at the end of a specified period does not affect the FCA’s power to impose a new requirement.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

71P Designated activities: liability

- (1) Designated activity regulations may make provision about liability and compensation in connection with this Part.
- (2) A contravention of a requirement under designated activity regulations or designated activity rules—
 - (a) does not, except as provided by designated activity regulations under section 71Q or by regulations under section 71R, make a person guilty of an offence;
 - (b) does not, except as provided by designated activity regulations—
 - (i) make any transaction void or unenforceable, or
 - (ii) give rise to any action for breach of statutory duty.
- (3) Designated activity regulations may in particular—
 - (a) in cases where the regulations make provision for liability, make provision excluding civil liability (whether generally or to such extent as may be specified),
 - (b) make provision for liability to be determined in accordance with designated activity rules,
 - (c) make provision so that a person being subject to a liability includes another person being entitled as against that person to rescind or repudiate an agreement, and
 - (d) make provision for the purposes of subsection (1) by applying provisions of this Act with or without modifications.

71Q Designated activities: enforcement

- (1) Designated activity regulations may make provision about enforcement in connection with this Part.
- (2) Provision about enforcement includes (among other things) provision—
 - (a) requiring the supply of information;
 - (b) about investigations (including the making of reports);
 - (c) conferring powers of entry;
 - (d) conferring powers of inspection, search and seizure;
 - (e) conferring powers of censure;
 - (f) imposing monetary penalties;
 - (g) about appeals;
 - (h) conferring functions (including functions involving the exercise of a discretion) on a person.
- (3) Designated activity regulations may in particular make provision for the purposes of subsection (1) by applying provisions of this Act with or without modifications, including any criminal offences created by this Act (and modifications made by virtue of this subsection may widen the scope of any such offences).
- (4) The power under this section includes power to amend or repeal provisions of this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

71R Designated activities and rules: connected amendments

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations make such modifications to provision made by or under this Act or any other enactment as the Treasury consider appropriate for purposes of, or connected with, any designated activity regulations or designated activity rules.
- (2) The power under subsection (1) may in particular be exercised for the purpose of removing or varying any requirement imposed by or under this Act so far as applying to the carrying on of any designated activity.
- (3) The power under subsection (1) includes power to modify any criminal offence created by this Act (including by widening the scope of any such offence).
- (4) In this section—
 - “enactment” includes—
 - (a) an enactment comprised in subordinate legislation (within the meaning given by section 21 of the Interpretation Act 1978),
 - (b) an enactment comprised in, or in an instrument made under, a Measure or Act of Senedd Cymru,
 - (c) an enactment comprised in, or in an instrument made under, an Act of the Scottish Parliament, and
 - (d) an enactment comprised in, or in an instrument made under, Northern Ireland legislation;
 - “modify” includes amend, repeal or revoke.

71S Designated activities regulations: Parliamentary control

- (1) This section applies to regulations which contain provision made under section 71K which provides for an activity of a specified description to be a designated activity.
- (2) A statutory instrument containing regulations to which this section applies, other than regulations to which subsection (3) applies, may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House.
- (3) This subsection applies to regulations which contain a statement made by the Treasury that they are of the opinion that, by reason of urgency, it is necessary to make the regulations without a draft of the statutory instrument containing the regulations being laid and approved under subsection (2).
- (4) Where subsection (3) applies to regulations, a statutory instrument containing the regulations must be laid before Parliament after being made.
- (5) Regulations contained in a statutory instrument laid before Parliament under subsection (4) cease to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the instrument is made unless, during that period, the instrument is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) In calculating the period of 28 days, no account is to be taken of any whole days that fall within a period during which—
- (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
 - (b) either House of Parliament is adjourned for more than four days.
- (7) If regulations cease to have effect as a result of subsection (5), that does not—
- (a) affect the validity of anything previously done under the regulations, or
 - (b) prevent the making of new regulations.”
- (3) The following amendments are related to the new Part 5A of FSMA 2000 inserted by subsection (2).
- (4) In section 3E (memorandum of understanding), in subsection (2) after paragraph (g) insert—
- “(ga) directions under section 71O (designated activities: directions);”.
- (5) In section 3I (power of PRA to require the FCA to refrain from specified action), in subsection (3) in paragraph (a)—
- (a) the words from “its powers in relation to the” to the end become sub-paragraph (i), and
 - (b) after that sub-paragraph insert “, or
 - (ii) its powers in relation to designated activities under Part 5A;”.
- (6) In section 138D (actions for damages), in subsection (5) after paragraph (za) insert—
- “(zaa) rules under Part 5A;”.
- (7) In section 417 (definitions), at the appropriate place insert—
- ““designated activity” has the meaning given in section 71K;”.
- (8) In section 429 (Parliamentary control of statutory instruments)—
- (a) in subsection (2B), after paragraph (a) insert—
 - “(aa) provision made under section 71Q which amends or repeals a provision of this Act;
 - “(ab) provision made under section 71R which amends, repeals or revokes a provision of this Act or another Act of Parliament, an Act of the Scottish Parliament, an Act or Measure of Senedd Cymru, or Northern Ireland legislation;”;
 - (b) in subsection (8), in the list of sections beginning with “22B,”, insert at the appropriate place “, 71S”;
 - (c) in subsection (9) (as inserted by the Financial Services Act 2021), for the words from “which” to the end substitute “which is subject to a procedure before Parliament for the approval of the instrument in draft before it is made or its approval after it is made.”
- (9) After Schedule 6A insert the Schedule 6B set out in Schedule 3 to this Act.

Financial market infrastructure: general rules and requirements

9 Rules relating to central counterparties and central securities depositories U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 300E (power to disallow excessive regulatory provision: supplementary) insert—

“General rule-making powers

300F Rules relating to central counterparties and central securities depositories

- (1) The Bank of England may make such rules applying to FMI entities—
 - (a) with respect to the carrying on by them of relevant regulated activities, or
 - (b) with respect to the carrying on by them of an activity which is not a relevant regulated activity, as appear to the Bank to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing its Financial Stability Objective.
- (2) Each of the following is an “FMI entity” for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) a recognised central counterparty;
 - (b) a recognised CSD;
 - (c) a third country central counterparty;
 - (d) a third country CSD.
- (3) The power to make rules under subsection (1), so far as applying to a third country central counterparty or a third country CSD, is subject to section 300G.
- (4) In this section “relevant regulated activity”—
 - (a) in relation to a recognised central counterparty, means a regulated activity described in section 285(3A);
 - (b) in relation to a recognised CSD, means a regulated activity described in section 285(3D);
 - (c) in relation to a third country central counterparty, means a regulated activity described in section 285(3C);
 - (d) in relation to a third country CSD, means a regulated activity described in section 285(3G).
- (5) Rules under this section may include—
 - (a) provision applying to an FMI entity even though there is no relationship between the entity to which the rules will apply and the persons whose interests will be protected by the rules;

- (b) requirements which take into account, in the case of an FMI entity which is a member of a group, any activity of another member of the group.

300G Section 300F: rules in relation to overseas FMI entities

- (1) The power to make rules under section 300F, so far as applying to an FMI entity of the kind mentioned in subsection (2)(c) or (d) of that section (an “overseas FMI entity”), is exercisable—
 - (a) only by the application of corresponding rules, and
 - (b) except in the case of systemic third country CCPs (see subsection (6)), only so far as authorised by regulations made by the Treasury.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to “corresponding rules” is—
 - (a) in relation to rules that would apply to a third country central counterparty, rules under section 300F that apply to a recognised central counterparty;
 - (b) in relation to rules that would apply to a third country CSD, rules under section 300F that apply to a recognised CSD.
- (3) Rules may be applied in accordance with subsection (1)(a)—
 - (a) by applying all corresponding rules or only such corresponding rules as the Bank considers appropriate;
 - (b) with such modifications as the Bank considers appropriate for the purpose of ensuring the effectiveness of the rules in their application to the overseas FMI entities concerned (having regard in particular to the establishment of such entities in countries other than the United Kingdom).
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1)(b) may authorise the making of rules generally in respect of overseas FMI entities or only in respect of overseas FMI entities which—
 - (a) are specified or described in the regulations, or
 - (b) satisfy conditions specified in the regulations.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1)(b) may—
 - (a) provide for the power to make rules under section 300F, so far as applying to an overseas FMI entity, to be subject to such limitations or conditions as may be specified in the regulations;
 - (b) make provision by reference to matters to be determined by the Bank;
 - (c) provide for exemptions.
- (6) The restriction imposed by subsection (1)(b) does not apply in the case of systemic third country CCPs (and accordingly references to overseas FMI entities in subsections (4) and (5) do not include references to systemic third country CCPs).
- (7) A “systemic third country CCP” means any third country central counterparty that the Bank has determined is systemically important, or is likely to become systemically important, to the financial stability of the United Kingdom.

- (8) The Bank must publish notice of any determination made under subsection (7).
- (9) A determination under subsection (7) must be made in accordance with such criteria of general application as are set out in regulations made by the Treasury for the purposes of this section.
- (10) In making a determination under subsection (7) the Bank must also have regard to any statement of policy prepared and published by the Bank for the purposes of providing further specification of the criteria of general application mentioned in subsection (9).
- (11) The Bank—
- (a) may alter or replace a statement of policy prepared for the purposes of this section;
 - (b) must publish a statement as altered or replaced.
- (12) Publication under this section is to be made in such manner as the Bank considers best designed to bring the publication to the attention of the public.
- (13) The Treasury must consult the Bank before making regulations under subsection (9).
- (14) The Treasury may by regulations provide for other provisions of this Act to apply in relation to third country central counterparties, or third country CSDs, to which rules under section 300F apply, with such modifications as may be specified in the regulations.”
- (3) In section 165 (regulators’ power to require information: authorised persons etc) omit subsection (8A).
- (4) In section 165A (PRA’s power to require information: financial stability) omit subsection (7A).
- (5) In section 293 (notification requirements)—
- (a) in subsection (7A) at the end insert “and a third country central counterparty”;
 - (b) in subsection (8) for “or an overseas clearing house” substitute “, an overseas clearing house or a third country central counterparty”.
- (6) In section 417(1) (definitions), at the appropriate place insert—
- ““Financial Stability Objective” means the objective set out in section 2A of the Bank of England Act 1998;”.

10 Central counterparties and central securities depositories: other requirements U.K.

In Schedule 17A to FSMA 2000 (further provision in relation to exercise of Part 18 functions by Bank of England), before paragraph 10 (and the heading before it) insert—

“Requirements

- 9B
- (1) The powers conferred by section 55L(3) (FCA own-initiative power to impose requirements on authorised persons) are exercisable by the Bank to impose requirements on a relevant FMI entity.
 - (2) In this paragraph “relevant FMI entity” means—
 - (a) a recognised central counterparty,
 - (b) a recognised CSD, or
 - (c) a systemic third country CCP as defined by section 300G(7).
 - (3) The power under sub-paragraph (1) is exercisable only if it appears to the Bank that either (or both) of the following conditions is met.
 - (4) The first condition is that it is desirable to exercise the power in order to advance the Financial Stability Objective.
 - (5) The second condition is that the relevant FMI entity—
 - (a) has failed, or is likely to fail, to satisfy the recognition requirements, or
 - (b) has failed to comply with any other obligation imposed on it by or under this Act.
 - (6) The power conferred by sub-paragraph (1) may not be exercised so as to restrict or prohibit discretionary payments to employees or shareholders of a recognised central counterparty (and for this purpose “discretionary payment” has the meaning given by paragraph 13(11) of Schedule 11 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 and “employee” has the meaning given by paragraph 154 of that Schedule).
 - (7) The powers conferred by section 55L(5) (FCA power to impose requirements on application of authorised persons with Part 4A permission) are exercisable by the Bank to impose requirements on a relevant FMI entity on the application of that entity.
 - (8) A power conferred by this paragraph is exercisable whether or not there is a relationship between the entity in relation to which it is exercised and the persons whose interests will be protected by its exercise.
 - (9) The following provisions apply in relation to requirements imposed by the Bank under this paragraph as they apply in relation to requirements imposed by the FCA under section 55L, with the modifications in sub-paragraph (10)—

- (a) section 55L(6) (power to refuse application to impose etc requirements);
- (b) section 55N (further provision in relation to requirements);
- (c) section 55P (prohibitions and restrictions);
- (d) section 55Q (exercise of power in support of overseas regulator);
- (e) section 55R(1) (persons connected with applicant);
- (f) section 55U(3) to (8) (applications for requirement to be imposed etc);
- (g) section 55V(1) to (6) (determination of applications);
- (h) section 55X(2) and (4)(f) (warning and decision notices on refusal of applications);
- (i) section 55Y (exercise of own-initiative power: procedure);
- (j) section 55Z3(1) and (2) (right to refer matters to the Tribunal).

(10) The modifications are—

- (a) any reference to the FCA is to be read as a reference to the Bank;
- (b) any references to own-initiative powers are to be read as references to the power conferred by sub-paragraph (1);
- (c) any references to an authorised person are to be read as references to relevant FMI entities;
- (d) in section 55L(6), the reference to the FCA’s operational objectives is to be read as a reference to the Bank’s Financial Stability Objective;
- (e) section 55N has effect as if the reference to regulated activities in subsection (2) were a reference to activities in respect of which a recognition order is in force.”

13 Testing of FMI technologies or practices U.K.

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations make provision for the purposes of—
 - (a) testing, for a limited period, the efficiency or effectiveness of the carrying on of FMI activities in a particular way, and
 - (b) assessing whether or how relevant enactments should apply in relation to FMI activities carried on in that way.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to FMI activities being carried on in a particular way includes a reference to—
 - (a) the use of developing technology in the carrying on of FMI activities;
 - (b) the adoption of new or different practices in the carrying on of FMI activities.
- (3) Provision made in regulations under subsection (1) is referred to in this group of sections as an FMI sandbox.
- (4) An FMI sandbox must specify or otherwise provide for—
 - (a) the FMI activities to which the FMI sandbox arrangements relate;
 - (b) the description—
 - (i) of FMI entities eligible to participate in the FMI sandbox arrangements, and
 - (ii) of any other persons (including in particular the users of services provided by FMI entities) eligible to so participate;
 - (c) the limited period for which the FMI sandbox arrangements apply.
- (5) An FMI sandbox may confer functions on the appropriate regulator in connection with the implementation and operation of the FMI sandbox arrangements.
- (6) An FMI sandbox may—
 - (a) provide for a relevant enactment not to apply for the purposes of the FMI sandbox arrangements;
 - (b) provide for modifications in the application of a relevant enactment for those purposes;
 - (c) provide for the application of a relevant enactment (with or without modifications) for those purposes;

but provision under this subsection may not amend, repeal or revoke a relevant enactment.

- (7) In the case of a relevant enactment that is a rule or another instrument made by an appropriate regulator, provision under subsection (6) may provide for the powers under that subsection to be exercisable by that regulator.
- (8) Schedule 4 contains further examples of types of provision that an FMI sandbox may make.
- (9) An FMI sandbox—
 - (a) may be replaced by another FMI sandbox of the same or similar effect;
 - (b) may have effect at the same time as one or more other FMI sandboxes.
- (10) Regulations under this section are subject to the negative procedure.
- (11) For the purposes of this group of sections—
 - (a) “FMI entity” means—
 - (i) a recognised investment exchange that is not an overseas investment exchange;
 - (ii) a recognised CSD;
 - (iii) the operator of a multilateral trading facility;
 - (iv) the operator of an organised trading facility;
 - (v) such other persons as may be specified in regulations under this section as eligible to participate in the FMI sandbox arrangements concerned;
 - (b) “FMI activities” are any activities carried on as part of the business of an FMI entity;
 - (c) “FMI sandbox arrangements” means any arrangements implemented as part of an FMI sandbox.

15 Permanent implementation of arrangements tested under an FMI sandbox U.K.

(1) This section applies where, after testing the efficiency or effectiveness of FMI sandbox arrangements implemented under an FMI sandbox, the Treasury determine that arrangements of the same or similar effect should have effect after the expiry of the FMI sandbox.

(2) The Treasury may by regulations make provision implementing the FMI sandbox arrangements—

- (a) as tested under the FMI sandbox, or
- (b) with such variations as the Treasury consider appropriate.

(3) Regulations under this section that implement FMI sandbox arrangements may be made before (as well as after) the expiry of the FMI sandbox concerned.

(4) Regulations under this section may include provision that amends, repeals or revokes a relevant enactment.

(5) Regulations under this section that amend, repeal or revoke any provision of primary legislation are subject to the affirmative procedure.

(6) Regulations under this section to which subsection (5) does not apply are subject to the negative procedure.

Powers in relation to critical third parties

18 Critical third parties: designation and powers U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) In the heading to Part 18, for “and CSDs” substitute “, CSDs and other parties”.
- (3) After section 312K (statement of policy: procedure) insert—

“CHAPTER 3C U.K.

CRITICAL THIRD PARTIES

312L Critical third parties

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations designate a person who provides services to one or more authorised persons, relevant service providers or FMI entities as a “critical third party”.
- (2) The Treasury may designate a person under subsection (1) only if in the Treasury’s opinion a failure in, or disruption to, the provision of those services (either individually or, where more than one service is provided, taken together) could threaten the stability of, or confidence in, the UK financial system.
- (3) The Treasury must have regard to the following factors when forming an opinion for the purposes of subsection (2)—
 - (a) the materiality of the services provided to the delivery, by any person, of essential activities, services or operations (wherever carried out);
 - (b) the number and type of authorised persons, relevant service providers or FMI entities to which the person provides services.
- (4) Before making regulations under subsection (1) the Treasury must—
 - (a) consult each of the relevant regulators and such other persons as the Treasury consider appropriate,
 - (b) give notice in writing to the person to be designated specifying a reasonable period within which that person may make representations in writing about the proposal to the Treasury, and
 - (c) have regard to any representations made to them in accordance with paragraph (b).

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The Treasury may not designate the Bank of England under subsection (1).
- (6) Each of the following is a relevant regulator for the purposes of this Chapter—
- (a) the FCA,
 - (b) the PRA, and
 - (c) the Bank of England.
- (7) Activities, services or operations are “essential” for the purposes of subsection (3) if they are essential to—
- (a) the economy of the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) the stability of, or confidence in, the UK financial system.
- (8) In this Chapter—
- “critical third party” means a person designated under subsection (1);
- “FMI entity” means—
- (a) a recognised clearing house;
 - (b) a recognised CSD;
 - (c) a recognised investment exchange which is not an overseas investment exchange;
 - (d) a recognised payment system under section 184 of the Banking Act 2009;
 - (e) a person specified as a service provider in relation to a recognised payment system under section 206A of the Banking Act 2009;
- “relevant service provider” means—
- (a) an electronic money institution as defined by regulation 2(1) of the Electronic Money Regulations 2011 (S.I. 2011/99);
 - (b) an authorised payment institution, small payment institution or registered account information services provider as defined by regulation 2(1) of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/752);
- “service” includes facility.

312M Power to make rules

- (1) A relevant regulator may make such rules imposing duties on critical third parties in connection with the provision of services to authorised persons, relevant service providers and FMI entities as appear to the regulator to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing any of its objectives.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to a relevant regulator’s objectives is a reference to—
 - (a) where the regulator is the FCA, one or more of its operational objectives;
 - (b) where the regulator is the PRA, one or more of its objectives;
 - (c) where the regulator is the Bank, the Bank’s Financial Stability Objective.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In the application of Part 9A to rules made by the FCA or the PRA under this section, the following provisions apply with the modifications specified in this subsection—
- (a) section 137T (general supplementary powers) applies as if—
 - (i) the reference in paragraph (a) to “authorised persons, activity or investment” were a reference to “critical third parties or services”, and
 - (ii) in paragraph (b) for the words from “as” to the end there were substituted “or the Bank, or standards issued by any other person, as those rules or standards have effect from time to time.”;
 - (b) section 138B (publication of directions) applies as if subsection (4) were omitted;
 - (c) section 138F (notification of rules) applies as if subsections (1A) and (2) were omitted;
 - (d) section 138I (consultation) applies as if the reference in subsection (1)(a) to the “PRA” were a reference to the “PRA and the Bank”;
 - (e) section 138J (consultation) applies as if the reference in subsection (1)(a) to the “FCA” were a reference to the “FCA and the Bank”.

312N Power of direction

- (1) A relevant regulator may, if it appears to the regulator to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing any of its objectives, direct a critical third party to—
 - (a) do anything specified in the direction, or
 - (b) refrain from doing anything specified in the direction.
- (2) A direction under this section—
 - (a) must be given by notice in writing,
 - (b) may be expressed to have effect during a specified period or until revoked, and
 - (c) may specify the way in which, and the time by which, a thing is to be done.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if a direction is given to a critical third party for the purpose of resolving or reducing a threat to the stability or integrity of the UK financial system.
- (4) The critical third party (including the critical third party’s officers and staff) has immunity from liability in damages in respect of action or inaction in accordance with the direction.
- (5) A direction given for the purpose mentioned in subsection (3) must—
 - (a) include a statement that it is given for that purpose, and
 - (b) inform the critical third party of the effect of subsection (4).
- (6) An immunity conferred by this section does not extend to action or inaction—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. - (a) in bad faith, or
- (b) in contravention of section 6(1) of the Human Rights Act 1998.

- (7) A relevant regulator may at any time revoke a direction under this section by giving notice in writing to the critical third party to which the direction relates.
- (8) The revocation of the direction does not affect the validity of anything previously done in accordance with it.
- (9) For the purposes of this section the objectives of a relevant regulator are as described in section 312M(2).

312O Directions: procedure

- (1) If a relevant regulator proposes to give a direction under section 312N, or gives such a direction with immediate effect, it must give written notice to the critical third party to which the direction is given (or is to be given) (the “relevant critical third party”).
- (2) A direction under section 312N takes effect—
 - (a) immediately, if the notice under subsection (1) states that this is the case,
 - (b) on such other date as may be specified in the notice, or
 - (c) if neither paragraph (a) or (b) applies, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.
- (3) A direction may be expressed to take effect immediately, or on a specified date, only if the relevant regulator reasonably considers that it is necessary for the direction to take effect immediately or on that date.
- (4) The notice under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) give details of the direction,
 - (b) state the relevant regulator’s reasons for the direction and for its determination as to when the direction takes effect,
 - (c) inform the relevant critical third party that it may make representations to the regulator within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not the critical third party has referred the matter to the Tribunal), and
 - (d) inform the relevant critical third party of its right to refer the matter to the Tribunal (including giving an indication of the procedure on such a reference).
- (5) The relevant regulator may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.
- (6) If, having considered any representations made by the relevant critical third party, the regulator decides—
 - (a) to give the direction proposed, or
 - (b) if the direction has been given, not to revoke the direction,
 it must give the critical third party written notice.
- (7) If, having considered any representations made by the relevant critical third party, the regulator decides—

- (a) not to give the direction proposed,
 - (b) to give a different direction, or
 - (c) to revoke a direction which has effect,
- it must give the critical third party written notice.
- (8) A notice given under subsection (6) must inform the relevant critical third party of its right to refer the matter to the Tribunal (including giving an indication of the procedure on such a reference).
- (9) A notice under subsection (7)(b) must comply with subsection (4).
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8).

312P Information gathering and investigations

- (1) The provisions of Part 11 (information gathering and investigations) mentioned in this section are to apply in relation to this Chapter in accordance with the provision made by this section.
- (2) In any case where subsection (1) applies—
- (a) any reference in Part 11 to the FCA or PRA which is contained in, or relates to, any of those provisions (however expressed) is to be read as a reference to a relevant regulator, and
 - (b) Part 11 has effect with any other necessary modifications.
- (3) The powers conferred by section 165(1) and (3) (power to require information) are exercisable by a relevant regulator or (as the case may be) a relevant regulator's officers to impose requirements on a critical third party or a person connected with a critical third party.
- (4) The information or documents that a relevant regulator may require to be produced or provided in accordance with subsection (3) are limited to information and documents reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the relevant regulator of functions conferred on it by or under this Chapter (and accordingly section 165(4) does not apply).
- (5) The power conferred by section 166 (reports by skilled person) is exercisable by a relevant regulator in relation to a critical third party or a person connected with a critical third party.
- (6) The power conferred by section 166A (appointment of skilled person) is exercisable by a relevant regulator in relation to a critical third party.
- (7) The power conferred by section 168(5) (appointment of persons to carry out investigations in particular cases) is exercisable by a relevant regulator if it appears to the relevant regulator that there are circumstances suggesting that a person may have contravened any requirement imposed by or under this Chapter.
- (8) In addition to the powers conferred by section 171, a person conducting an investigation under section 168(5) as a result of subsection (7) is to have the powers conferred by sections 172 and 173 (and for this purpose any references in those sections to an investigator are to be read accordingly).

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (9) The power under section 176(1) (entry of premises under warrant) is exercisable on information on oath given by or on behalf of a relevant regulator, or an investigator appointed by a relevant regulator, as if the reference to the third set of conditions were omitted.
- (10) For the purposes of this section a person is connected with a critical third party if that person is or has at any relevant time been—
- (a) a member of the critical third party's group,
 - (b) a controller of the critical third party, or
 - (c) in relation to the critical third party, a person mentioned in Part 1 of Schedule 15 (reading references in that Part to the authorised person as references to the critical third party).

312Q Power of censure

If a relevant regulator considers that a critical third party has contravened a requirement imposed by or under this Chapter the regulator may publish a statement to that effect.

312R Disciplinary measures

- (1) This section applies if a relevant regulator considers that a critical third party has contravened a requirement imposed by or under this Chapter.
- (2) The relevant regulator may publish a notice—
 - (a) prohibiting the critical third party from entering into arrangements, or continuing, to provide services to authorised persons, relevant service providers or FMI entities;
 - (b) prohibiting authorised persons, relevant service providers or FMI entities who receive services from the critical third party from continuing to receive those services from that party;
 - (c) prohibiting authorised persons, relevant service providers or FMI entities from entering into arrangements for receipt of services from the critical third party;
 - (d) providing for the provision of any services by the critical third party to be subject to such conditions or limitations as are specified in the notice;
 - (e) providing for any receipt of services by authorised persons, relevant service providers or FMI entities from the critical third party to be subject to such conditions or limitations as are specified in the notice.
- (3) A notice under subsection (2) may make different provision for different cases and may in particular make different provision in respect of different descriptions of services, authorised persons, FMI entities or relevant service providers.
- (4) A relevant regulator may only exercise the powers under subsection (2) if the regulator is satisfied that—
 - (a) it is appropriate in the circumstances to take action against the critical third party,

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) the exercise of the power will not threaten the stability of, or confidence in, the UK financial system, and

(c) it is desirable to exercise the power in order to advance one or more of the regulator's objectives.

(5) A relevant regulator may either on its own initiative or on an application by the critical third party concerned withdraw or vary a notice given by it under subsection (2) by publishing a further notice.

(6) Publication under this section is to be made in such manner as the relevant regulator considers best designed to bring the publication to the attention of the public.

(7) Where a notice includes a prohibition, condition or limitation imposed under subsection (2), publication of a notice under this section must in particular be made in a manner appearing to the relevant regulator to be best designed to bring the notice to the attention of the persons to whom the prohibition, condition or limitation applies.

(8) A person who breaches a prohibition, condition or limitation imposed by a notice under this section is to be taken to have contravened a requirement imposed on the person under this Act.

(9) For the purposes of this section the objectives of a relevant regulator are as described in section 312M(2).

312S Procedure and right to refer to Tribunal

(1) If a relevant regulator proposes to publish a statement or notice under section 312Q or 312R, it must give the critical third party, authorised persons, relevant service providers or FMI entities to whom the statement or notice would relate a warning notice.

(2) A warning notice must set out the terms of the proposed statement or notice.

(3) If a relevant regulator decides to publish a statement or notice under section 312Q or 312R it must give the critical third party, authorised persons, relevant service providers or FMI entities to whom the statement or notice relates a decision notice.

(4) A decision notice must set out the terms of the statement or notice.

(5) If a relevant regulator decides to act under section 312N or 312Q a critical third party who is aggrieved may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(6) If a relevant regulator decides to act under section 312R a critical third party, authorised person, relevant service provider or FMI entity who is aggrieved may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

312T Statement of policy relating to disciplinary measures

(1) The relevant regulators must prepare and publish a statement of policy with respect to the exercise of powers under section 312Q and section 312R.

(2) The relevant regulators may alter or replace a statement published under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(3) The relevant regulators must publish a statement as altered or replaced under subsection (2).

(4) Publication under this section is to be made in such manner as the relevant regulators consider best designed to bring the publication to the attention of the public.

312U Duty to ensure co-ordinated exercise of functions etc

(1) The relevant regulators must co-ordinate the exercise of their respective functions conferred by or under this Chapter.

(2) In complying with the duty in subsection (1) each relevant regulator must obtain information and advice from any of the other relevant regulators who may be expected to have relevant information or relevant expertise.

(3) The duty in subsection (1) applies only to the extent that compliance with the duty does not impose a burden on the relevant regulators that is disproportionate to the benefits of compliance.

(4) Before exercising any power conferred by or under this Chapter a relevant regulator must consult each of the other relevant regulators (where not otherwise required to do so).

312V Memorandum of understanding

(1) The relevant regulators must prepare and maintain a memorandum which describes in general terms—

(a) the role of the relevant regulators in relation to the exercise of functions conferred by or under this Chapter, and

(b) how they intend to comply with section 312U in relation to the exercise of such functions.

(2) The relevant regulators must review the memorandum at least once in each calendar year.

(3) The relevant regulators may revise a memorandum under this section.

(4) The relevant regulators must give the Treasury a copy of the memorandum and any revised memorandum.

(5) The Treasury must lay before Parliament a copy of any document received by them under this section.

(6) The relevant regulators must ensure that the memorandum as in force for the time being is published in the way appearing to them to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

(7) The memorandum need not relate to any aspect of compliance with section 312U if the relevant regulators consider—

(a) that publication of information about that aspect would be against the public interest, or

(b) that aspect is a technical or operational matter not affecting the public.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

312W Application of provisions of this Act to this Chapter

The following provisions do not apply for the purposes of this Chapter—

- (a) section 3D (duty to ensure co-ordinated exercise of functions);
- (b) section 3E (memorandum of understanding);
- (c) section 138D (actions for damages).”

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 21 (restrictions on financial promotion), after subsection (2) insert—
- “(2A) The content of a communication may be approved for the purposes of this section by an authorised person only if the giving of the approval—
- (a) is permitted under section 55NA (which enables approval to be given with FCA permission), or
- (b) falls within an exemption conferred by regulations under section 55NB.”
- (3) After section 55N insert—

“55NA General requirement relating to financial promotion approval

- (1) An authorised person must not approve the content of a communication for the purposes of section 21 unless the person has permission to do so given by the FCA under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) An authorised person who approves the content of a communication for the purposes of section 21 otherwise than in accordance with permission granted under this section is to be taken to have contravened a requirement imposed on the person by the FCA under this Act.
- (3) Permission may be granted by the FCA under this section on the application of—
 - (a) an authorised person, or
 - (b) an applicant for Part 4A permission that has yet to be determined.
- (4) The FCA may grant a person permission under this section—
 - (a) on the terms sought in the application (which may include the grant of permission to give approvals generally for the purposes of section 21), or
 - (b) subject to any other terms the FCA considers appropriate (which may in particular provide for the giving of permission in a narrower description of case than that sought in the application).
- (5) Where the FCA grants permission to a person under this section, the FCA may vary or cancel the permission—
 - (a) on the application of the person to whom it was given, or
 - (b) of its own initiative,and subsection (4)(b) applies to the variation of permission as it applies to its grant.
- (6) If the FCA grants or varies permission under this section it must set out the terms on which the permission is given, described in such way as it considers appropriate.
- (7) The FCA may refuse to grant an application for permission under this section, or for its variation or cancellation under subsection (5)(a), if it appears to the FCA that it is desirable to do so in order to advance one or more of its operational objectives.
- (8) The FCA may vary or cancel a person’s permission under subsection (5)(b) if it appears to the FCA that—
 - (a) the person has failed, during a period of at least 12 months, to give, or to refuse to give, any approvals for the purposes of section 21 in accordance with the permission, or
 - (b) it is desirable to vary or cancel the permission in order to advance one or more of its operational objectives.
- (9) The FCA must consult—
 - (a) the PRA before giving permission under this section to, or before varying or cancelling permission under this section given to—
 - (i) a person who is, or will on the granting of an application for Part 4A permission be, a PRA-authorised person, or
 - (ii) a person who is a member of a group which includes a PRA-authorised person;
 - (b) the Gibraltar regulator (within the meaning of Schedule 2A) before giving permission under this section to, or before varying or cancelling permission under this section given to, a Gibraltar-based person.

- (10) Subsection (9)(b) does not apply in a case where the FCA varies or cancels permission of a Gibraltar-based person in exercise of its power under subsection (5)(b), but the FCA must inform the Gibraltar regulator in writing of the variation or cancellation.
- (11) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if the giving of approval falls within an exemption conferred by regulations made under section 55NB.
- (12) Nothing in this section limits any other power under this Act to impose requirements in relation to approvals given for the purposes of section 21 so far as those requirements are additional to the requirement imposed by subsection (1) of this section (but any such other requirement that is inconsistent with the requirement imposed by that subsection is of no effect to the extent of that inconsistency).

55NB Section 55NA: power to provide for exemptions

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations provide for exemptions from the requirement imposed by section 55NA(1) not to give approvals for the purposes of section 21 without permission.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide for an exemption to have effect—
 - (a) in respect of specified persons;
 - (b) in respect of persons falling within a specified class;
 - (c) in respect of approval given in relation to activities of a specified description;
 - (d) only in specified circumstances;
 - (e) subject to specified conditions.
- (3) In this section “specified” means specified in regulations under this section.”
- (4) Schedule 5 contains amendments related to this section.
- (5) The amendments made by this section and Schedule 5—
 - (a) apply to an authorised person whether the person became authorised before or after the coming into force of this section;
 - (b) do not affect the approval of a communication given before the coming into force of this section.

23 Digital settlement assets: power to make regulations U.K.

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations make such provision as they consider appropriate for the purpose of, or in connection with—
 - (a) the regulation of payments that include digital settlement assets,
 - (b) the regulation of—
 - (i) recognised payment systems that include arrangements using digital settlement assets,
 - (ii) recognised DSA service providers, and
 - (iii) service providers connected with, or in relation to, the systems and providers mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii), as those terms are for the time being defined in Part 5 of the Banking Act 2009, and
 - (c) making insolvency arrangements (including administration, restructuring and any similar procedure) in respect of the systems and providers mentioned in paragraph (b).
- (2) In this section, “digital settlement asset” means a digital representation of value or rights, whether or not cryptographically secured, that—
 - (a) can be used for the settlement of payment obligations,
 - (b) can be transferred, stored or traded electronically, and
 - (c) uses technology supporting the recording or storage of data (which may include distributed ledger technology).
- (3) The provision that may be made by regulations under this section includes provision—

- (a) applying legislation relating to the regulation of electronic money and payments to digital settlement assets (subject to whatever modifications the Treasury consider appropriate);
 - (b) applying legislation relating to insolvency arrangements and interactions between different arrangements to the systems and providers mentioned in subsection (1) (subject to whatever modifications the Treasury consider appropriate);
 - (c) conferring powers on the Treasury (including a power to legislate);
 - (d) conferring powers, or imposing duties, on a relevant regulator (including a power to make rules or other instruments);
 - (e) about fees or other charges payable to a relevant regulator;
 - (f) about recognition orders and recognition criteria in Part 5 of the Banking Act 2009;
 - (g) about the enforcement of obligations arising under or by virtue of the regulations;
 - (h) about appeals in respect of decisions made under or by virtue of the regulations;
 - (i) about the sharing of information.
- (4) Provision under subsection (3)(g) may include provision creating offences punishable on summary conviction—
- (a) in England and Wales, with imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine, or both;
 - (b) in Scotland and Northern Ireland, with imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or both.
- (5) The power to make regulations under this section includes power to modify legislation.
- (6) The power under subsection (5) includes power to modify the definition of “digital settlement asset” in subsection (2).
- (7) Regulations under this section are—
- (a) subject to the affirmative procedure, or
 - (b) if the Treasury consider it necessary for the regulations to come into force without delay, subject to the made affirmative procedure.
- (8) Before making regulations under this section, the Treasury must consult—
- (a) the FCA,
 - (b) the Bank of England, and
 - (c) in relation to regulations that refer to the PRA or to the Payment Systems Regulator, those bodies.
- (9) Where regulations under this section are subject to the made affirmative procedure the statutory instrument containing them must be laid before Parliament after being made.
- (10) Regulations contained in a statutory instrument laid before Parliament under subsection (9) cease to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the instrument is made unless, during that period, the instrument is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (11) In calculating the period of 28 days, no account is to be taken of any whole days that fall within a period during which—
- (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
 - (b) either House of Parliament is adjourned for more than four days.
- (12) If regulations cease to have effect as a result of subsection (10), that does not—
- (a) affect the validity of anything previously done under the regulations, or
 - (b) prevent the making of new regulations.
- (13) In this section—
- “legislation” means primary legislation, subordinate legislation and retained direct EU legislation;
- “relevant regulator” means—
- (a) the FCA,
 - (b) the Bank of England, or
 - (c) the Payment Systems Regulator.

Mutual recognition

24 Implementation of mutual recognition agreements U.K.

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations make such provision as they consider appropriate for the purpose of, or in connection with, implementing any mutual recognition agreement to which the United Kingdom is, or is expected to become, a party.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to a “mutual recognition agreement” is a reference to any international agreement so far as it provides for, or relates to—
 - (a) the recognition that the law and practice of a foreign country is, in respect of relevant matters, equivalent to the law and practice of the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) the recognition that the law and practice of the United Kingdom is, in respect of relevant matters, equivalent to the law and practice of that foreign country.
- (3) Matters are “relevant matters” for the purposes of subsection (2) if they relate to financial services or markets (whether generally or in particular respects).
- (4) The provision that may be made by regulations under this section includes provision—
 - (a) conferring powers on the Treasury (including a power to legislate);
 - (b) conferring powers, or imposing duties, on a relevant regulator (including a power to make rules or other instruments);
 - (c) about fees or other charges payable to a relevant regulator;
 - (d) about the enforcement of obligations arising under or by virtue of the regulations;

- (f) about the sharing of information.
- (5) The reference in this section to a mutual recognition agreement to which the United Kingdom is, or is expected to become, a party includes a reference to such an agreement as modified or supplemented from time to time.
- (6) The power to make regulations under this section includes power to modify legislation.
- (7) Before making provision under subsection (4)(b) that imposes a duty on a relevant regulator the Treasury must consult the regulator.
- (8) Provision under subsection (4)(b) that imposes a duty on a relevant regulator to make rules may (among other things)—
- (a) specify matters that the rules must cover;
 - (b) specify a period within which the rules must be made.
- (9) But except so far as permitted by subsection (8), such provision may not require rules to be made in a specified form or with specified content.
- (10) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (11) In this section—
- “foreign country” means a country or territory outside the United Kingdom;
 - “legislation” means primary legislation, subordinate legislation and retained direct EU legislation;
 - “relevant regulator” means—
 - (a) the FCA,
 - (b) the PRA, or
 - (c) the Bank of England; - “specified” means specified in regulations under this section.

“(ca) how to discharge the duty in section 1B(4A) (duty to advance competitiveness and growth objective),”.

(3) In section 1K (guidance about objectives), after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) The reference in subsection (1) to the FCA’s operational objectives includes, in its application as a secondary objective, the competitiveness and growth objective (see section 1EB).”

(4) In section 2I (guidance about objectives), after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) The reference in subsection (1) to the PRA’s objectives includes, in their application as secondary objectives, the competition objective and competitiveness and growth objective (see section 2H).”

(5) In section 3B (regulatory principles to be applied by both regulators), for subsection (3) substitute—

“(3) “Objectives”—

(a) in relation to the FCA means—

(i) operational objectives, and

(ii) in its application as a secondary objective, the competitiveness and growth objective (see section 1EB), and

(b) in relation to the PRA means—

(i) the PRA’s objectives, and

(ii) in their application as secondary objectives, the competition objective and competitiveness and growth objective (see section 2H).”

(6) In section 3D (duty of FCA and PRA to ensure co-ordinated exercise of functions), for subsection (4) substitute—

“(4) In this section, “objectives”—

(a) in relation to the FCA means—

(i) operational objectives, and

(ii) in its application as a secondary objective, the competitiveness and growth objective (see section 1EB), and

(b) in relation to the PRA means—

(i) the PRA’s objectives, and

(ii) in their application as secondary objectives, the competition objective and competitiveness and growth objective (see section 2H).

(5) Where a regulator is proposing to exercise a function that is not one of its general functions, the reference to “objectives” in subsection (1)(a) does not include the secondary objectives mentioned in subsection (4)(a)(ii) and (b)(ii).

(6) In this section, “general functions”—

(a) in relation to the FCA, has the same meaning as in section 1B(6), and

(b) in relation to the PRA, has the same meaning as in section 2J(1).”

 - (a) how representations (including by a statutory panel) can be made to each regulator with respect to its review of rules under section 3RA, and
 - (b) the arrangements to ensure that those representations are considered.
- (3) In this section “statutory panel” has the meaning given by section 1RB(5).
- (4) If a statement published under this section is altered or replaced by a regulator, the regulator must publish the altered or replaced statement.
- (5) A statement prepared under this section must be published by the regulator in the way appearing to that regulator to be best designed to bring it to the attention of the public.

3RC Requirement to review specified rules

- (1) The Treasury may by direction require a regulator to carry out a review of specified rules if—
 - (a) the rules have been in force for at least 12 months,
 - (b) the Treasury consider that it is in the public interest that the rules are reviewed, and
 - (c) it does not appear to the Treasury that—
 - (i) the regulator is carrying out, or proposes to carry out, a review of those rules, or
 - (ii) if the regulator proposes to carry out a review, the proposals are appropriate for the purposes of carrying out an effective review.
- (2) Subsection (1) only applies to rules falling within section 3RA(1).
- (3) The Treasury must consult the regulator concerned before giving a direction under subsection (1).
- (4) In exercising the power under this section, the Treasury must have regard to the desirability of minimising any adverse effect that the carrying out of the review may have on the exercise by the regulator of any of its other functions.
- (5) A direction under subsection (1) may—
 - (a) specify the period within which a review must be carried out;
 - (b) determine the scope and conduct of a review;
 - (c) require the provision of interim reports during the carrying out of a review.
- (6) Provision made in a direction under subsection (5)(b) may include a requirement—
 - (a) for a review to be carried out by a person appointed by the regulator who is independent of the regulator;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) for any such appointment to be made only with the approval of the Treasury.

(7) As soon as practicable after giving a direction under subsection (1) the Treasury must—

- (a) lay before Parliament a copy of the direction, and
- (b) publish the direction in such manner as the Treasury think fit.

(8) Subsection (7) does not apply where the Treasury consider that publication of the direction would be against the public interest.

(9) A direction under subsection (1) may be varied or revoked by the giving of a further direction.

3RD Report on certain reviews

(1) This section applies where the Treasury have given a direction to a regulator under section 3RC(1) to carry out a review.

(2) The regulator must make a written report to the Treasury as to the opinion of the regulator in relation to the following matters—

- (a) if the regulator is the FCA, whether the rules under review—
 - (i) are compatible with the FCA’s strategic objective,
 - (ii) advance one or more of the FCA’s operational objectives, and
 - (iii) advance the competitiveness and growth objective;
- (b) if the regulator is the PRA, whether the rules under review—
 - (i) advance one or more of the PRA’s objectives, and
 - (ii) advance the PRA’s competition objective and the PRA’s competitiveness and growth objective;
- (c) whether and to what extent the rules are functioning effectively and achieving their intended purpose;
- (d) whether any amendments should be made to the rules and, if so, what those amendments should be;
- (e) whether any rules should be revoked (with or without replacement);
- (f) whether any other action should be taken and, if so, what that action should be.

(3) As soon as practicable after receiving the report the Treasury must—

- (a) lay before Parliament a copy of the report, and
- (b) publish the report in such manner as the Treasury think fit.

(4) When complying with subsection (3) the Treasury may withhold material from the report if the Treasury consider that publication of the material would be against the public interest.”

30 Treasury power in relation to rules U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 3RD (inserted by section 29) insert—

“3RE Power of Treasury to require making of rules by regulations

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations require a regulator to exercise a power under this Act to make rules in relation to a specified activity or a specified description of person.
 - (2) Regulations under this section may—
 - (a) specify matters that the rules must cover;
 - (b) specify a period within which the rules must be made.
 - (3) But except so far as permitted by subsection (2), regulations under this section may not require rules to be made—
 - (a) in a specified form or with specified content, or
 - (b) to achieve or advance a specified outcome.
 - (4) If no period is specified under subsection (2)(b) the rules must be made as soon as reasonably practicable after the coming into force of the regulations.”
- (3) In section 429 (Parliamentary control of statutory instruments) in subsection (2) after “section” insert “3RE,”.

31 Matters to consider when making rules U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) Before section 138F (under the italic heading “Procedural provisions”) insert—

“138EA Matters to consider when making rules

- (1) This section applies where either regulator proposes to make rules.
- (2) The regulator must have regard to any specified matters that are relevant to the making of the rules in question.
- (3) “Specified” means specified in regulations made by the Treasury for the purposes of this section.
- (4) The specification of a matter for the purposes of this section may apply generally to the making of rules or be limited in whatever way the Treasury consider appropriate, including by reference to—
 - (a) the power under which the rules are made;
 - (b) the persons to whom the rules apply;
 - (c) the activities or subject-matter to which the rules relate.

- (5) The requirement imposed by subsection (2) does not apply in respect of any rules if, or to the extent that, the rules are made for the purposes of—
- (a) complying with a direction given by the Financial Policy Committee of the Bank of England under section 9H of the Bank of England Act 1998 (directions requiring macro-prudential measures), or
 - (b) acting in accordance with a recommendation made by that Committee under section 9Q of that Act (recommendations about the exercise of the FCA and PRA functions).
- (6) The requirement to have regard to specified matters under this section when making rules is in addition to any other requirements to have regard to matters when making such rules imposed by another provision of this Act or by any other enactment.”
- (3) In section 138I (consultation by the FCA)—
- (a) in subsection (2) after paragraph (b) insert—
 - “(ba) an explanation of the ways in which having regard to specified matters under section 138EA(2) has affected the proposed rules,”;
 - (b) after subsection (8) insert—
 - “(8A) The requirement to provide the explanation referred to in subsection (2)(ba) does not apply in relation to any rules if—
 - (a) the FCA considers that the delay involved in complying with that requirement would be prejudicial to the interests of consumers (as defined in section 425A) or other persons whose interests would be protected by the rules, or
 - (b) the rules change existing rules and the changes consist of, or include, changes which, in the FCA’s opinion, are not material.
 - (8B) Where an explanation is not provided by virtue of subsection (8A) (b), the draft of the rules must be accompanied by a statement of the FCA’s opinion.”
- (4) In section 138J (consultation by the PRA)—
- (a) in subsection (2) after paragraph (b) insert—
 - “(ba) an explanation of the ways in which having regard to specified matters under section 138EA(2) has affected the proposed rules,”;
 - (b) after subsection (8) insert—
 - “(8A) The requirement to provide the explanation referred to in subsection (2)(ba) does not apply in relation to any rules if—
 - (a) the PRA considers that the delay involved in complying with that requirement would—

32 Effect of rules etc on deference decisions U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) In the italic heading before section 410, after “international” insert “powers and”.
- (3) Before section 410 insert—

“409A Consultation in relation to deference decisions

- (1) This section applies where a regulator is proposing to take a relevant action.
- (2) The regulator—
 - (a) must consider the effect of the relevant action on notified deference decisions, and
 - (b) if having done so it appears to the regulator that there is a material risk that the relevant action would be incompatible with a notified deference decision, must consult the Treasury about the likely effect of the action on the decision.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies only if a duty to consult applies in respect of the taking of the relevant action.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) a regulator proposes to take a “relevant action” if—
 - (a) it proposes to make rules under this Act or any other enactment, or
 - (b) it proposes to make changes to its general policies and practices so far as relating to its supervisory functions under section 1L (FCA supervisory functions) or (as the case may be) section 2K (PRA supervisory functions).
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2)—
 - (a) “deference decision” means a decision of the Treasury that the law and practice of another country or territory is, so far as relating to financial services and markets, equivalent to the law and practice of the United Kingdom (either generally or as it relates to a particular matter);

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) a deference decision is a “notified deference decision” if the Treasury have, by notice in writing, informed the regulator that it is relevant for the purposes of this section;
 - (c) a relevant action is “incompatible” with a notified deference decision if the action would result in the law and practice of the United Kingdom ceasing to be equivalent to the law and practice of the other country or territory to which the deference decision relates.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (3) a duty to consult applies in respect of a relevant action if—
- (a) the duty imposed by section 138I or 138J to publish a draft of proposed rules applies in respect of the action, or
 - (b) any other duty (whether or not imposed by a provision of this Act) to publish the proposal to take the action in question applies.
- (7) Section 138M(1) (consultation: exemptions for temporary product intervention rules) is to be ignored for the purposes of subsection (6) in determining whether a duty to consult applies in respect of a relevant action.
- (8) The requirement imposed by subsection (2)(b) must be carried out before the duty to consult in respect of the relevant action is carried out.
- (9) The requirements imposed by subsection (2) do not apply to the extent that the regulator takes a relevant action—
- (a) by the making of product intervention rules under section 137D if the condition in subsection (10) is met,
 - (b) by the making of rules under Part 9C (see instead section 143G(3)),
 - (c) by the making of rules under Part 9D (see instead section 144C(3)),
 - (d) by the making of rules under Part 12B (see instead section 192XB(2)),
 - (e) in order to comply with a direction given by the Financial Policy Committee of the Bank of England under section 9H of the Bank of England Act 1998 (directions required macro-prudential measures), or
 - (f) in order to act in accordance with a recommendation made by that Committee under section 9Q of that Act (recommendations about the exercise of functions).
- (10) The condition referred to in subsection (9)(a) is that the FCA considers it necessary not to comply with the requirement imposed by subsection (2) for the purpose of advancing—
- (a) the consumer protection objective, or
 - (b) if an order under section 137D(1)(b) is in force, the integrity objective.”

33 Effect of rules etc on international trade obligations U.K.

In FSMA 2000 after section 409A (inserted by section 32) insert—

“409B Notification in relation to international trade obligations

- (1) This section applies where it appears to a regulator that there is a material risk that a relevant action it proposes to take would be incompatible with an international trade obligation.
- (2) The regulator must give written notice to the Treasury of the proposed action before proceeding to take it.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies only if a duty to consult applies in respect of the taking of the relevant action.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) a regulator proposes to take a “relevant action” if—
 - (a) it proposes to make rules under this Act or any other enactment, or
 - (b) it proposes to make changes to its general policies and practices so far as relating to its supervisory functions under section 1L (FCA supervisory functions) or (as the case may be) section 2K (PRA supervisory function).
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3) a duty to consult applies in respect of a relevant action if—
 - (a) the duty imposed by section 138I or 138J to publish a draft of proposed rules applies in respect of the action, or
 - (b) any other duty (whether or not imposed by a provision of this Act) to publish the proposal to take the action in question applies.
- (6) Section 138M(1) (consultation: exemptions for temporary product intervention rules) is to be ignored for the purposes of subsection (5) in determining whether a duty to consult applies in respect of a relevant action.
- (7) The requirement imposed by subsection (2) must be carried out before the duty to consult in respect of the relevant action is carried out.
- (8) The requirement imposed by subsection (2) does not apply to the extent that the regulator takes a relevant action—
 - (a) by the making of product intervention rules under section 137D if the condition in subsection (9) is met,
 - (b) in order to comply with a direction given by the Financial Policy Committee of the Bank of England under section 9H of the Bank of England Act 1998 (directions requiring macro-prudential measures), or
 - (c) in order to act in accordance with a recommendation made by that Committee under section 9Q of that Act (recommendations about the exercise of functions).

- (9) The condition referred to in subsection (8)(a) is that the FCA considers it necessary not to comply with the requirement imposed by subsection (2) for the purpose of advancing—
- (a) the consumer protection objective, or
 - (b) if an order under section 137D(1)(b) is in force, the integrity objective.
- (10) Subsection (11) applies in a case where a notice under subsection (2) is not given because of subsection (3) or (8)(a).
- (11) The regulator must give written notice to the Treasury of the relevant action it has taken as soon as reasonably practicable after taking it if it appears to the regulator that there is a material risk that the action is incompatible with an international trade obligation.
- (12) In this section “international trade obligation” means an obligation of the United Kingdom that relates to financial services or markets under—
- (a) a free trade agreement, as defined by section 5(1) of the Trade Act 2021, or
 - (b) the agreement establishing the World Trade Organisation signed at Marrakesh on 15 April 1994.”

- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph the FCA issues a relevant consultation if it—
- (a) publishes a draft of proposed rules under section 138I,
 - (b) publishes a proposal under a duty imposed by another provision of this Act or by any other enactment, or
 - (c) publishes other proposals about the exercise of any of its general functions.
- (3) The FCA must, as soon as reasonably practicable after issuing the consultation, notify in writing the chair of each relevant Parliamentary Committee that the consultation has been issued.
- (4) The notification must specify the parts of the consultation (if any) that address the ways in which the proposals subject to consultation—
- (a) advance the FCA’s operational objectives,
 - (b) are compatible with the FCA’s strategic objective,
 - (c) demonstrate that the FCA has had regard to the regulatory principles in section 3B when preparing the proposals, and
 - (d) engage with matters to which the FCA must have regard under regulations made under section 138EA.
- (5) The reference in sub-paragraph (4)(a) to the FCA’s operational objectives includes, in its application as a secondary objective, the competitiveness and growth objective (see section 1EB).
- (6) The notification must also specify any other part of the consultation which the FCA considers should be drawn to the attention of the relevant Parliamentary Committees.
- (7) References in this paragraph to the relevant Parliamentary Committees are references to—
- (a) the Treasury Committee of the House of Commons,
 - (b) the Committee of the House of Lords which—
 - (i) is charged with responsibility by that House for the purposes of this paragraph, and
 - (ii) has notified the FCA that it is a relevant Parliamentary Committee for those purposes, and
 - (c) the Joint Committee of both Houses which—
 - (i) is charged with responsibility by those Houses for the purposes of this paragraph, and
 - (ii) has notified the FCA that it is a relevant Parliamentary Committee for those purposes.
- (8) References in this paragraph to the Treasury Committee of the House of Commons—

- (a) if the name of that Committee is changed, are references to that Committee by its new name, and
 - (b) if the functions of that Committee (or substantially corresponding functions) become functions of a different Committee of the House of Commons, are to be treated as references to the Committee by which the functions are exercisable.
- (9) Any question arising under sub-paragraph (8) is to be determined by the Speaker of the House of Commons.
- 29 (1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) the FCA issues a public consultation, and
 - (b) a Committee of the House of Commons or the House of Lords, or a joint Committee of both Houses, has provided to the FCA representations in response to the consultation.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph, the FCA issues a public consultation if it publishes the draft of any proposals for the purpose of bringing them to the attention of the public (whether or not under a duty to do so imposed by an enactment).
- (3) The FCA must give to the chair of the Committee concerned a written response to the representations.
- (4) The duty to respond imposed by sub-paragraph (3) applies only so far as the FCA would not be under a corresponding duty to do so imposed by another enactment.
- (5) The FCA is not required under sub-paragraph (3) to provide any information whose publication would in the opinion of the FCA be against the public interest.”
- (3) In Part 4 of Schedule 1ZB (miscellaneous provisions relating to the PRA), after paragraph 35 insert—

“Engagement with Parliamentary Committees

- 36 (1) This paragraph applies where the PRA issues a relevant consultation.
- (2) For the purposes of this paragraph the PRA issues a relevant consultation if it—

39 Reporting requirements U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) After paragraph 11 of Schedule 1ZA insert—

“Other reports

- 11A (1) The Treasury may (subject to this paragraph) at any time by direction require the FCA to publish a report containing information about—
 - (a) any of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (ia) of paragraph 11(1);
 - (b) such other matters that the direction may specify.
- (2) The Treasury may give a direction under this paragraph requiring information to be published only if the Treasury consider that—
 - (a) the information is reasonably necessary for the purpose of reviewing and scrutinising the discharge of the FCA’s functions, and
 - (b) other available information is not sufficient to meet that purpose.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (4), the FCA must publish a report prepared under a direction given under this paragraph in such manner, and within such period, as the direction may require.
- (4) Nothing in this paragraph requires the inclusion in the report of any information whose publication would be against the public interest.
- (5) A direction under this paragraph may not—
 - (a) require a report to be published more than once in each quarter;
 - (b) require the publication of information that is confidential information for the purposes of Part 23 (see section 348(2)).
- (6) The Treasury must consult the FCA before giving a direction under this paragraph.
- (7) In exercising the power under this paragraph, the Treasury must have regard to the desirability of minimising any adverse effect that the preparation of the report required in accordance with the direction may have on the exercise by the FCA of any of its other functions.

Co-operation of FCA and others

40 Duty to co-operate and consult in exercising functions U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) In the italic heading before section 415B, at the end insert “and co-operation”.
- (3) After section 415B (consultation) insert—

“415C Co-operation and consultation in relation to exercise of functions

- (1) In exercising its functions under this Act a relevant organisation (“R”) must—
 - (a) take such steps as R considers appropriate to co-operate with each of the other relevant organisations in relation to matters of interest to that organisation, and
 - (b) consult such other persons as R considers appropriate in relation to any matters that R considers to be of interest to those persons.
- (2) A matter is of interest to another relevant organisation for the purposes of subsection (1) if it appears to R that it has, or is likely to have, significant implications in relation to—
 - (a) the exercise by that other relevant organisation of functions under this Act, or
 - (b) the functioning generally of relevant markets within the meaning of section 1F.
- (3) The relevant organisations must prepare and publish a statement of policy with respect to compliance with the duty under subsection (1).
- (4) The relevant organisations may alter or replace a statement published under subsection (3).
- (5) The relevant organisations must publish a statement as altered or replaced under subsection (4).
- (6) The relevant organisations—
 - (a) must, at least once a year, prepare and publish a report on their compliance with the duty under subsection (1), and
 - (b) must put in place arrangements enabling representations to be made about their compliance with that duty (whether by seeking representations in response to the report or otherwise).
- (7) Except in the case of the first report to be prepared under this section, a report prepared under subsection (6)(a) must include a summary of representations received in the preceding year in accordance with arrangements made under subsection (6)(b).

“PART 3B U.K.”

CENTRAL COUNTERPARTIES AND CENTRAL SECURITIES DEPOSITORIES

30D Exercise of functions relating to CCPs and CSDs

- (1) In exercising its FMI functions in a way that advances the Financial Stability Objective (and subject to that), the Bank must have regard to—
 - (a) the regulatory principles in section 30E;
 - (b) the effects generally that the exercise of FMI functions will or may have on the financial stability of countries or territories (other than the United Kingdom) in which FMI entities are established or provide services;
 - (c) the desirability of exercising FMI functions in a manner that is not determined by whether the persons to whom FMI services are provided are located in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.
- (2) In exercising its FMI functions in a way that advances the Financial Stability Objective the Bank must, so far as reasonably possible, act in a way which, as a secondary objective, facilitates innovation in the provision of FMI services (including in the infrastructure used for that purpose) with a view to improving the quality, efficiency and economy of the services.
- (3) For the purposes of this Part the Bank’s “FMI functions” are the following functions so far as exercisable in relation to FMI entities—
 - (a) its function of making rules under FSMA 2000 (considered as a whole);
 - (b) its function of making technical standards in accordance with Chapter 2A of Part 9A of FSMA 2000;
 - (c) its function of preparing and issuing codes under FSMA 2000 (considered as a whole);
 - (d) its function of determining the general policy and principles by reference to which it performs particular functions under FSMA 2000.
- (4) In this Part—

“FMI entities” means—

 - (a) a recognised central counterparty within the meaning of Part 18 of FSMA 2000 (see section 285(1)(b)(i) of that Act),
 - (b) a recognised CSD as defined by section 285(1)(e) of FSMA 2000,
 - (c) a third country central counterparty as defined by section 285(1)(d) of FSMA 2000, and
 - (d) a third country CSD as defined by section 285(1)(g) of FSMA 2000;

“FMI services” means services provided by FMI entities as part of their business as FMI entities;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

“FSMA 2000” means the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

30E Regulatory principles

- (1) These are the regulatory principles referred to in section 30D(1)(a)—
- (a) the need to use the resources of the Bank in the most efficient and economic way;
 - (b) the principle that a burden or restriction which is imposed on a person, or on the carrying on of an activity, should be proportionate to the benefits, considered in general terms, which are expected to result from the imposition of that burden or restriction;
 - (c) the desirability of sustainable growth in the economy of the United Kingdom in the medium or long term, including in a way consistent with contributing towards achieving compliance by the Secretary of State with section 1 of the Climate Change Act 2008 (UK net zero emissions target) and section 5 of the Environment Act 2021 (environmental targets) where the Bank considers the exercise of its FMI functions to be relevant to the making of such a contribution;
 - (d) the general principle that consumers should take responsibility for their decisions;
 - (e) the responsibilities of the senior management of FMI entities subject to requirements imposed by or under FSMA 2000, including those affecting consumers, in relation to compliance with those requirements;
 - (f) the desirability where appropriate of the Bank exercising its FMI functions in a way that recognises differences in the nature of, and objectives of, businesses carried on by different persons;
 - (g) the desirability in appropriate cases of the Bank publishing information relating to persons on whom requirements are imposed as a result of the exercise of the Bank’s FMI functions, or requiring such persons to publish information, as a means of contributing to the advancement by the Bank of its Financial Stability Objective and its objective under section 30D(2);
 - (h) the principle that the Bank should exercise its FMI functions as transparently as possible;
 - (i) the desirability of facilitating fair and reasonable access to FMI services.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) “consumer” has the same meaning as in section 3B of FSMA 2000 (and for these purposes includes in particular persons who receive FMI services).

30F Financial Market Infrastructure Committee

- (1) There is to be a committee of the Bank known as the Financial Market Infrastructure Committee (the “FMI Committee”).
- (2) The FMI Committee is to consist of—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a chair appointed by the Bank;
 - (b) at least three independent members appointed by the Bank;
 - (c) such other members as may be appointed from time to time by the Bank.
- (3) The person appointed as chair under subsection (2)(a) must be the Governor, or a Deputy Governor, of the Bank.
- (4) A person is an independent member for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) if the person is an officer, employee or agent of the Bank—
- (a) as a result only of their membership of one or more of the Bank’s committees, or
 - (b) is appointed as an independent member to the FMI Committee with the consent of the Treasury.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a)—
- (a) the Bank’s committees are—
 - (i) the FMI Committee,
 - (ii) the Financial Policy Committee,
 - (iii) the Monetary Policy Committee, and
 - (iv) the Prudential Regulation Committee;
 - (b) the reference to a person who is an officer, employee or agent of the Bank as result of their membership of one or more of those committees includes a reference to a person who becomes such an officer, employee or agent as a result of their appointment to the FMI Committee under this section.
- (6) Before appointing a person under subsection (2)(b) the Bank must—
- (a) be satisfied that the person has knowledge or experience which is likely to be relevant to the FMI Committee’s functions, and
 - (b) consider whether the person has any financial or other interests that could substantially affect the functions as member that it would be proper for the person to discharge.

30G Functions of the Financial Market Infrastructure Committee

- (1) The following functions of the Bank are to be exercised by the Bank acting through the FMI Committee (and, except as authorised by this section, are not to be exercised in any other way)—
- (a) its FMI functions;
 - (b) such other functions of the Bank as the court of directors may specify as functions that are to be discharged by the FMI Committee.
- (2) The FMI Committee may arrange for such of its functions as it thinks fit to be carried out only by, or after consultation with, the Governor of the Bank.
- (3) Except as provided by subsection (4), the FMI Committee may delegate such of its functions as it thinks fit to—
- (a) a member of the FMI Committee;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) a sub-committee of the FMI Committee consisting of members of the FMI Committee or one or more such members and one or more officers, employees or agents of the Bank;
 - (c) an officer, employee or agent of the Bank;
 - (d) a committee consisting of officers, employees or agents of the Bank.
- (4) The FMI Committee may not delegate under subsection (3) its FMI functions under FSMA 2000 of making rules or technical standards (but this does not prevent arrangements under subsection (2) being made in respect of such functions).

30H Information

- (1) The Bank must publish a statement setting out the following matters in respect of the FMI Committee—
- (a) the number of members and whether each such member is a Bank member or an independent member;
 - (b) if the Committee includes any Bank members, the role of each such member within the Bank;
 - (c) arrangements for meetings and how proceedings at meetings are conducted;
 - (d) arrangements for the taking of decisions otherwise than at meetings;
 - (e) arrangements for any functions to be carried out by, or after consultation with, the Governor of the Bank (including details of the functions to which such arrangements relate);
 - (f) arrangements for the delegation of functions.
- (2) If there is a material change in any of the matters contained in the statement the Bank must publish an updated statement.
- (3) Publication under this section is to be made in such manner as the Bank considers best designed to bring the statement to the attention of the public.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
- (a) a person is an independent member if they are appointed in accordance with section 30F(2)(b) and (4);
 - (b) a person is a Bank member if they are an officer or employee of the Bank who is not appointed as mentioned in paragraph (a).

30I Recommendations by Treasury

- (1) The Treasury may at any time by notice in writing to the FMI Committee make recommendations about aspects of the economic policy of His Majesty's Government to which the Bank should have regard—
- (a) when considering how to advance the Financial Stability Objective and the objective under section 30D(2), and
 - (b) when considering the application of the regulatory principles set out in section 30E.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The Treasury must make recommendations under subsection (1) at least once in each Parliament.
- (3) The Treasury must—
 - (a) publish in such manner as they think fit any notice given under subsection (1), and
 - (b) lay a copy of it before Parliament.
- (4) The FMI Committee must respond to each recommendation made under subsection (1) by notifying the Treasury in writing of—
 - (a) action that the Bank has taken or intends to take in accordance with the recommendation, or
 - (b) the reasons why the Bank has not acted or does not intend to act in accordance with the recommendation.
- (5) The notice under subsection (4) must be given before the end of 12 months beginning with the date the notice containing the recommendation was given under subsection (1).
- (6) Where the FMI Committee has given notice under subsection (4) in relation to a recommendation, it must by notice in writing update the Treasury on the matters mentioned in subsection (4)(a) and (b) before the end of each subsequent period of 12 months.
- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply if the Treasury have notified the FMI Committee in writing that no update (or further update) is required.
- (8) The FMI Committee is not required under subsection (4) or (6) to provide any information whose publication would in the opinion of the Committee be against the public interest.”

49 Bank of England: rule-making powers U.K.

- (1) FSMA 2000 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 300H (inserted by section 11) insert—

“Bank of England rules

300I Duty of Bank of England to review rules

- (1) The Bank of England must keep under review generally any rules made by the Bank under this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to rules made for the purpose of complying with a recommendation of the Financial Policy Committee of the Bank of England under section 90 of the Bank of England Act 1998 (making of recommendations within the Bank).

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

300J Statement of policy relating to review of rules

- (1) The Bank of England must prepare and publish a statement of policy with respect to its review of rules under section 300I.
- (2) The statement must provide information about—
 - (a) how representations (including by a statutory panel) can be made to the Bank with respect to its review of rules under section 300I, and
 - (b) the arrangements to ensure that those representations are considered.
- (3) In this section “statutory panel” has the meaning given by section 1RB(5).
- (4) If a statement published under this section is altered or replaced, the Bank must publish the altered or replaced statement.
- (5) A statement prepared under this section must be published by the Bank in the way appearing to the Bank to be best designed to bring it to the attention of the public.

300K Requirement to review specified rules

- (1) The Treasury may by direction require the Bank of England to carry out a review of specified rules made by the Bank under this Act if—
 - (a) the rules have been in force for at least 12 months,
 - (b) the Treasury consider that it is in the public interest that the rules are reviewed, and
 - (c) it does not appear to the Treasury that—
 - (i) the Bank is carrying out, or plans to carry out, a review of those rules, or
 - (ii) if the Bank proposes to carry out a review, the proposals are appropriate for the purposes of carrying out an effective review.
- (2) Subsection (1) only applies to rules falling within section 300I(1).
- (3) The Treasury must consult the Bank before giving a direction under subsection (1).
- (4) In exercising the power under this section, the Treasury must have regard to the desirability of minimising any adverse effect that the carrying out of the review may have on the exercise by the Bank of any of its other functions.
- (5) A direction under subsection (1) may—
 - (a) specify the period within which a review must be carried out;
 - (b) determine the scope and conduct of a review;
 - (c) require the provision of interim reports during the carrying out of a review.
- (6) Provision made in a direction under subsection (5)(b) may include a requirement—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) for a review to be carried out by a person appointed by the Bank who is independent of the Bank;
 - (b) for any such appointment to be made only with the approval of the Treasury.
- (7) As soon as practicable after giving a direction under subsection (1) the Treasury must—
- (a) lay before Parliament a copy of the direction, and
 - (b) publish the direction in such manner as the Treasury think fit.
- (8) Subsection (7) does not apply where the Treasury consider that publication of the direction would be against the public interest.
- (9) A direction under subsection (1) may be varied or revoked by the giving of a further direction.

300L Report on certain reviews

- (1) This section applies where the Treasury have given a direction to the Bank of England under section 300K to carry out a review.
- (2) The Bank must make a written report to the Treasury as to the opinion of the Bank in relation to the following matters—
- (a) whether the rules under review advance—
 - (i) the Bank’s Financial Stability Objective, and
 - (ii) the Bank’s secondary innovation objective (see section 30D(2) of the Bank of England Act 1998);
 - (b) whether and to what extent the rules are functioning effectively and achieving their intended purpose;
 - (c) whether any amendments need to be made to the rules and, if so, what those amendments should be;
 - (d) whether any rules should be revoked (with or without replacement);
 - (e) whether any other action should be taken and, if so, what that action should be.
- (3) As soon as practicable after receiving the report the Treasury must—
- (a) lay before Parliament a copy of the report, and
 - (b) publish the report in such manner as the Treasury think fit.
- (4) When complying with subsection (3) the Treasury may withhold material from the report if the Treasury consider that publication of the material would be against the public interest.

300M Power of Treasury to require making of rules by regulations

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations require the Bank of England to exercise a power under this Act to make rules in relation to a specified activity or a specified description of person.
- (2) Regulations under this section may—
- (a) specify matters that the rules must cover;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) specify a period within which the rules must be made.
- (3) But except so far as permitted by subsection (2), regulations under this section may not require rules to be made—
 - (a) in a specified form or with specified content, or
 - (b) to achieve or advance a specified outcome.
- (4) If no period is specified under subsection (2)(b) the rules must be made as soon as reasonably practicable after the coming into force of the regulations.”
- (3) In section 429 (Parliamentary control of statutory instruments), in subsection (2), in the list of sections beginning with “90B” insert at the appropriate place “300M,”.

 - (b) a friendly society;
 - (c) a person who has such permission only in the course of effecting or carrying out contracts of insurance in accordance with that permission.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

(3) In this paragraph—

“credit union” has the meaning given by section 31(1) of the Credit Unions Act 1979 or Article 2(2) of the Credit Unions (Northern Ireland) Order 1985;

“friendly society” means a society that is registered within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1974 or incorporated under the Friendly Societies Act 1992;

“levy year” has the meaning given by paragraph 3.

(4) The Treasury may by regulations—

- (a) amend the foregoing provisions of this paragraph;
- (b) amend any other provision of this Schedule in consequence of provision made under paragraph (a).

“Levy year”

- 3 (1) For the purposes of this Schedule, a “levy year” is—
- (a) the period of 12 months beginning on such day as the Bank may determine, and
 - (b) each subsequent period of 12 months.
- (2) The day determined under sub-paragraph (1)(a) may not be before the day on which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is passed.

“Anticipated levy requirement”

- 4 (1) The Bank must, in respect of a levy year—
- (a) determine which of its policy functions it intends to fund (in whole or in part) by means of the levy;
 - (b) determine the total amount of the levy it reasonably considers it requires in connection with the funding of those functions (“the anticipated levy requirement”).
- (2) The Bank may add to the anticipated levy requirement for a levy year such amount (if any) that—
- (a) was required in connection with the funding of policy functions in the previous levy year, and
 - (b) was in excess of the total amount of the levy that it received in respect of that previous levy year.
- (3) For the purposes of this Schedule, a function of the Bank is a “policy function” if it is exercised in pursuit of—
- (a) the Financial Stability Objective (see section 2A), or
 - (b) its objectives in relation to monetary policy (see section 11).
- (4) In making a determination in accordance with sub-paragraph (1), the Bank must take account of any other amounts which are, or are likely to be, available in the levy year to fund policy functions (for example, amounts of the levy received in respect of a previous levy year or amounts available from sources other than the levy).

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The Bank must publish a determination made in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)—
 - (a) at such time before or during the levy year to which the determination relates as the Bank considers appropriate, and
 - (b) in such manner as the Bank considers appropriate.
- (6) The reference in sub-paragraph (3) to the exercise of a function includes anything done in preparation for, to facilitate, or otherwise in connection with, the exercise of the function.

Liability to pay the levy

- 5 (1) The amount of the levy that an eligible institution is liable to pay in respect of a levy year is to be determined by the Bank in accordance with regulations made by the Treasury.
- (2) Regulations under sub-paragraph (1) may—
 - (a) make provision by reference to the Bank’s anticipated levy requirement in respect of the levy year (see paragraph 4);
 - (b) make provision by reference to specified liabilities of an eligible institution;
 - (c) make provision for cases in which no amount of the levy or a reduced amount of the levy is payable.
- (3) Regulations made by virtue of sub-paragraph (2)(b) may include (among other things) provision—
 - (a) specifying types of liability that may or may not be taken into account for specified purposes;
 - (b) about how and when liabilities of a specified type are to be taken into account for specified purposes;
 - (c) about how the amount of a liability of a specified type is to be determined, including specifying times, or periods of time, by reference to which the amount is to be determined;
 - (d) for an amount of a liability of a specified type to be treated as reduced by the amount of assets of a specified type.
- (4) Regulations under sub-paragraph (1) may include provision conferring a discretion on the Bank to determine specified matters (including matters mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) or (3)).
- (5) Regulations made by virtue of sub-paragraph (4) may, in particular, confer a discretion—
 - (a) to determine the method used to determine a matter, and
 - (b) to determine different methods to be used in relation to different eligible institutions.
- (6) In this section, “specified” means specified in the regulations.

Payment of the levy

- 6 (1) The Bank must notify each eligible institution that is liable to pay the levy in respect of a levy year of the following matters—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the levy year in respect of which the levy is payable;
 - (b) the amount of the levy the institution is liable to pay;
 - (c) the time by which the levy must be paid (or, if the Bank determines that the levy may be paid in instalments, the times by which each instalment must be paid);
 - (d) the methods by which the levy may be paid.
- (2) A time notified in accordance with sub-paragraph (1)(c) (or if more than one time is notified, the earliest of them) may not be before the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the notification is given.
- (3) Notification may be given in such form or in such manner as the Bank considers appropriate (and may be given in a different form or manner to different eligible institutions or eligible institutions of a different description).

Recovery of the levy

7 The levy is recoverable as a civil debt due to the Bank.

See also paragraph 8 (interest on unpaid amounts of the levy).

Interest

- 8 (1) This paragraph applies where an eligible person has been notified—
- (a) of an amount of the levy that is payable, and
 - (b) the time by which the amount must be paid.
- (2) Interest is payable, at the rate mentioned in sub-paragraph (3), on any part of the amount mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a) which remains unpaid after the time mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(b).
- (3) The rate mentioned in this sub-paragraph is the rate equivalent to an annual percentage rate of 4% above the benchmark rate.
- (4) The “benchmark rate” is—
- (a) the percentage rate announced from time to time by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank as the official dealing rate, or
 - (b) where an order under section 19 (Treasury reserve powers) is in force, any equivalent percentage rate determined by the Treasury under that order.
- (5) The Treasury may by regulations amend this paragraph so as to change the rate of interest payable on an unpaid amount of the levy.

Power to obtain information

- 9 (1) The Bank may, by written notice, require an eligible institution to provide information or documents in connection with the levy.
- (2) The notice must specify—
- (a) the information required;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the form or manner in which the information must be provided;
- (c) the time at which, or period within which, the information must be provided;
- (d) the period to which the information must relate.

Regulations

- 10 (1) Before making regulations under this Schedule the Treasury must consult—
- (a) the Bank, and
 - (b) such other persons who appear to the Treasury to be representative of persons who are likely to be affected by the regulations.
- (2) When making regulations under this Schedule the Treasury must have regard to the financial needs of the Bank.
- (3) Regulations under this Schedule are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (4) Regulations under this Schedule may—
- (a) make different provision for different purposes;
 - (b) make incidental, supplemental, consequential, saving or transitional provision.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing (whether alone or with other provision) regulations under paragraphs 2(4) or 5(1) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing only regulations under paragraph 8(5) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

72 Liability of payment service providers for fraudulent transactions U.K.

- (1) The Payment Systems Regulator must prepare and publish a draft of a relevant requirement for reimbursement in such qualifying cases of payment orders as the Regulator considers should be eligible for reimbursement.
- (2) A case is a “qualifying case” for the purposes of this section if—
 - (a) the case relates to a payment order executed over the Faster Payments Scheme, and
 - (b) the payment order was executed subsequent to fraud or dishonesty.
- (3) The draft of the relevant requirement must—
 - (a) be published in the way appearing to the Payment Systems Regulator to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public;
 - (b) be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposed relevant requirement may be made to the Payment Systems Regulator within a specified time.
- (4) The duty imposed by subsection (1) must be carried out before the end of two months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force.
- (5) The Payment Systems Regulator must impose a relevant requirement, in whatever way and to whatever extent it considers appropriate, for reimbursement to be made in qualifying cases of payment orders.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) In complying with the duty imposed by subsection (5) the Payment Systems Regulator must have regard to any representations made in accordance with subsection (3)(b).
- (7) The duty imposed by subsection (5) must be carried out before the end of 6 months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force.
- (8) The duty under subsections (1) to (3), and under section 104(2) of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 in the application of that section to a relevant requirement imposed under subsection (5) of this section, may be satisfied by things done before (as well as after) this section comes into force.
- (9) Nothing in subsections (1) to (8) is to be taken as limiting the power of the Payment Systems Regulator—
- (a) to vary or revoke a relevant requirement imposed under the duty imposed by subsection (5), or
 - (b) to impose further relevant requirements (after that duty is complied with) in connection with reimbursement of payment orders executed subsequent to fraud or dishonesty.
- (10) In subsections (1) to (9)—
- “the Faster Payments Scheme” means the payment system, known as the Faster Payments Scheme, designated as a regulated payment system for the purposes of Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 by order made by the Treasury in exercise of the power conferred by section 43(1) of that Act;
- “relevant requirement” means a requirement imposed by or under section 54 or 55 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (or by or under a combination of those sections).
- (11) In regulation 90 of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/752) (liability of payment service providers for incorrect unique identifiers), after paragraph (5) insert—
- “(6) Nothing in this regulation affects the liability of a payment service provider under a relevant requirement in a case where the payment order is executed subsequent to fraud or dishonesty (and the requirements imposed by this regulation are subject to any such relevant requirements).
- (7) In this regulation, a “relevant requirement” means a requirement imposed by or under—
- (a) a direction given under regulation 125,
 - (b) a direction given under section 54 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013,
 - (c) a rule made under section 55 of that Act,
 - (d) an order made under section 56(3) of that Act, or
 - (e) a variation of an agreement under section 57(2) of that Act.”

77 Politically exposed persons: money laundering and terrorist financing U.K.

- (1) The Treasury must exercise the power conferred by section 49 of the Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 (power of appropriate Minister to make regulations about money laundering etc) for the purpose mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) The purpose is to make provision amending Part 3 of the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/692) (“the 2017 Regulations”) (customer due diligence) so as to secure the result required by subsection (3).
- (3) The result required by this subsection is that, where a customer is a domestic PEP, or a family member or a known close associate of a domestic PEP—
 - (a) the starting point for the relevant person’s assessment under regulation 35(3) of the 2017 Regulations is that the customer presents a lower level of risk than a non-domestic PEP, and
 - (b) if no enhanced risk factors are present, the extent of enhanced customer due diligence measures to be applied in relation to that customer is less than the extent to be applied in the case of a non-domestic PEP.
- (4) In this section—
 - (a) “customer” includes a potential customer;
 - (b) “domestic PEP” means a politically exposed person entrusted with prominent public functions by the United Kingdom;
 - (c) “enhanced risk factors”, in relation to a customer who is a domestic PEP or a family member or a known close associate of that domestic PEP, mean risk factors other than the customer’s position as a domestic PEP or as a family member or known close associate of that domestic PEP;

- (d) “non-domestic PEP” means a politically exposed person who is not a domestic PEP;
 - (e) the following terms have the same meaning as in regulation 35(12) of the 2017 Regulations—
 - “politically exposed person” or “PEP”;
 - “family member”;
 - “known close associate”.
- (5) Section 55 of the Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 (Parliamentary procedure for regulations) does not apply to regulations made in compliance with the duty imposed by subsection (1).
- (6) Regulations made in compliance with the duty imposed by subsection (1)—
- (a) are subject to the negative procedure, and
 - (b) must be laid before Parliament in accordance with paragraph (a) before the end of 12 months starting with the day on which this section comes into force.
- (7) The Treasury must, before the end of 6 months starting with the day on which this section comes into force, lay before Parliament a statement setting out what progress has been made towards making the regulations in compliance with the duty imposed by subsection (1).
- (8) The duty in subsection (7) does not apply where the regulations have been laid before Parliament in accordance with subsection (6)(a) before the end of 6 months starting with the day on which this section comes into force.

84 Regulations U.K.

- (1) Any power to make regulations under this Act is exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (2) Any power to make regulations under this Act includes power—
 - (a) to make provision by reference to any rules or other instruments as they have effect from time to time;
 - (b) to make different provision for different purposes;
 - (c) to make supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision.
- (3) Where regulations under this Act are subject to “the affirmative procedure”, the regulations may not be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing them has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (4) Where regulations under this Act are subject to “the negative procedure”, the statutory instrument containing them is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (5) Any provision that may be made by regulations under this Act, or under any other enactment, subject to the negative procedure may be made in regulations, made under or by virtue of this Act, subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (6) If an instrument, or a draft of an instrument, containing regulations under this Act would, apart from this subsection, be treated as a hybrid instrument for the purposes of the standing orders of either House of Parliament, it is to proceed in that House as if it were not a hybrid instrument.
- (7) This section does not apply to regulations under section 86, except so far as making provision by virtue of section 4(1).

PART 5 U.K.

OTHER EU-DERIVED LEGISLATION

Commencement Information

199 Sch. 1 Pt. 5 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86\(3\)

EU-derived legislation not falling within Parts 1 to 3 so far as relating to financial services or markets (other than instruments excluded from this Part by regulations under section 1(5)).

For this purpose—

- (a) “EU-derived legislation” means—
 - (i) retained direct EU legislation,
 - (ii) subordinate legislation so far as it contains provision for the purpose of implementing, or otherwise in relation to, an EU directive or any other obligation that was created or arose by or under the EU Treaties before IP completion day,
 - (iii) subordinate legislation made under section 3, or
 - (iv) subordinate legislation made under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018;
- (b) EU-derived legislation is to be taken as “relating” to financial services or markets if its purpose, or one of its main purposes, is for or in connection with the imposition of requirements on the provision of financial services or the operation of financial markets or exchanges.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. PROSPECTIVE

Transparency requirements for equities

- 2 In Article 3 (pre-trade transparency requirements), after paragraph 3 insert—
- “4. The FCA may make technical standards to specify—
- (a) the range of bid and offer prices, or designated market-maker quotes, to be made public for each class of financial instrument concerned in accordance with paragraph 1, and
 - (b) the depth of trading interest at those prices.
5. In making technical standards under paragraph 4 the FCA must take into account the necessary calibration for the different types of trading systems referred to in paragraph 2.”

Commencement Information

I101 Sch. 2 para. 2 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86\(3\)

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

PROSPECTIVE

Transparency requirements for fixed income instruments and derivatives etc

7 For Articles 8 to 11 substitute—

“Article 8

Pre-trade transparency requirements for fixed income instruments and derivatives etc

1. The FCA must by rules impose pre-trade transparency requirements on relevant persons in respect of the trading of such relevant instruments as the FCA determines should be subject to the requirements for the purposes of furthering—
 - (a) efficient price formation, and
 - (b) the fair evaluation of financial assets.
2. The power to make rules under paragraph 1 is exercisable only if the FCA considers that the rules are necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing one or more of its operational objectives referred to in section 1B(3) of FSMA.
3. In making rules under paragraph 1 the FCA must (in particular) have regard to the impact that requirements imposed by the rules will have on market liquidity.
4. The reference in paragraph 1 to “pre-trade transparency requirements” is a reference to whatever kinds of requirements relating to transparency before trading that the rules may specify, for example—
 - (a) requirements to make public matters specified in the rules in respect of the trading of relevant instruments;
 - (b) requirements about the means by which, and the times at which, such matters are to be made public;
 - (c) requirements for the giving of access to the arrangements employed for the making of such matters public;
 - (d) requirements in respect of relevant instruments that are traded in a standardised and frequent way, if not subject to disclosure requirements of the kind mentioned in sub-paragraph (a).
5. Rules under paragraph 1 may—
 - (a) impose requirements by reference to the types of trading system used;
 - (b) impose different requirements in relation to different types of trading system;
 - (c) provide for the criteria by which the determination referred to in that paragraph is to be made.
6. In this Article and in Article 9—

“relevant instruments” means bonds, structured finance products, emission allowances, derivatives and instruments included within package orders;

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“relevant persons” means market operators and investment firms operating a trading venue.

Article 9

Article 8: waivers or suspensions for fixed income instruments and derivatives etc

1. Rules under Article 8 may include provision for any requirements imposed by the rules to be waived in such cases, and to such extent, as may be determined by or under the rules.
2. Rules that include provision under paragraph 1 may impose whatever conditions on the application of a waiver the FCA considers appropriate.
3. The FCA may by notice given to a relevant person withdraw a waiver granted by virtue of paragraph 1 if the FCA considers that the waiver is being used—
 - (a) in a way that deviates from its original purpose, or
 - (b) to avoid requirements provided for in the rules.
4. The FCA may by notice suspend requirements imposed by rules under Article 8 in the case of such relevant instruments, or class of relevant instruments, as may be specified in the notice.
5. A notice under paragraph 4 suspending requirements—
 - (a) may be given subject to conditions;
 - (b) must specify the period for which the suspension has effect;
 - (c) must be published in the manner appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it;
 - (d) may be varied or withdrawn by the giving of a further notice (and sub-paragraph (c) applies to any such notice).
6. The power under paragraph 4 to suspend requirements is exercisable only if the FCA considers that it is necessary to do so to advance the FCA’s integrity objective under section 1D of FSMA.
7. In deciding whether to exercise the power under paragraph 4 to suspend requirements the FCA must also have regard to—
 - (a) its consumer protection objective under section 1C of FSMA, and
 - (b) its competition objective under section 1E of FSMA.

Article 10

Post-trade transparency requirements for fixed income instruments and derivatives etc

1. The FCA must by rules impose post-trade transparency requirements on relevant persons in respect of the trading of such relevant instruments as the FCA determines should be subject to the requirements for the purposes of furthering—
 - (a) efficient price formation, and
 - (b) the fair evaluation of financial assets.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

2. The power to make rules under paragraph 1 is exercisable only if the FCA considers that the rules are necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing one or more of its operational objectives referred to in section 1B(3) of FSMA.
3. In making rules under paragraph 1 the FCA must (in particular) have regard to the impact that requirements imposed by the rules will have on market liquidity.
4. The reference in paragraph 1 to “post-trade transparency requirements” is a reference to whatever kinds of requirements relating to transparency after the execution of trades that the rules may specify, for example—
 - (a) requirements to make public matters specified in the rules in respect of the trading of relevant instruments (including the price, volume and time of transactions);
 - (b) requirements about the means by which, and the times at which, such matters are to be made public;
 - (c) requirements for the giving of access to the arrangements employed for the making of such matters public.
5. Rules under paragraph 1 may—
 - (a) impose requirements by reference to the types of trading system used;
 - (b) impose different requirements in relation to different types of trading system;
 - (c) provide for the criteria by which the determination referred to in that paragraph is to be made.
6. In this Article and in Article 11—

“relevant instruments” means bonds, structured finance products, emission allowances, derivatives and instruments included within package transactions;

Article 11

Article 10: deferrals and suspensions for fixed income instruments and derivatives etc

1. Rules under Article 10 may include provision authorising relevant persons to defer complying with requirements imposed by the rules in such cases and to such extent as the rules may specify.
2. Rules made by virtue of paragraph 1 may impose whatever conditions on the application of a deferral the FCA considers appropriate.
3. The FCA may by notice suspend any requirements imposed by rules under Article 10 in the case of such relevant instruments, or class of relevant instruments, as may be specified in the notice.
4. A notice under paragraph 3 suspending requirements—
 - (a) may be given subject to conditions;
 - (b) must specify the period for which the suspension has effect;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) must be published in the manner appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it;
 - (d) may be varied or withdrawn by the giving of a further notice (and sub-paragraph (c) applies to any such notice).
5. The power under paragraph 3 to suspend requirements is exercisable only if the FCA considers that it is necessary to do so to advance the FCA's integrity objective under section 1D of FSMA.
6. In deciding whether to exercise the power under paragraph 3 to suspend requirements the FCA must also have regard to—
- (a) its consumer protection objective under section 1C of FSMA, and
 - (b) its competition objective under section 1E of FSMA.”

PROSPECTIVE

Systematic internalisers and other investment firms

- 8 In Article 2(1) (definitions), for points (12) and (12A) substitute—
- “(12) “systematic internaliser” means an investment firm which deals on own account when executing client orders outside a UK regulated market, UK MTF or UK OTF without operating a multilateral system and which—
- (a) does so on an organised, frequent, systematic and substantial basis, or
 - (b) has chosen to opt in to the systematic internaliser regime;
- (12A) for the purposes of point (12), whether dealing is taking place on a basis that is organised, frequent, systematic and substantial is to be determined in accordance with rules made by the FCA (but the power to make such rules is subject to any provision contained in regulations in respect of point (12) under paragraph 2 of this Article);”.

Commencement Information

I103 Sch. 2 para. 8 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86\(3\)

Share trading obligation

- 13 (1) Article 23 (trading obligation for investment firms) is amended as follows.
- (2) Omit paragraphs 1, 1A, 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(3) In the title, for “Trading obligation for investment firms” substitute “Investment firms operating internal matching systems”.

Derivatives trading obligation

15 In Article 1(3) (subject matter and scope), for “financial counterparties” to the end substitute “counterparties that are relevant financial counterparties, or relevant non-financial counterparties, for the purposes of Article 28 (see paragraph 1A of that Article)”.

Commencement Information

I106 Sch. 2 para. 15 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86\(3\)

16 (1) Article 28 (obligation to trade on regulated markets, MTFs or OTFs) is amended as follows.

(2) In paragraph 1, for the words from the beginning to “Article 10(1)(b) of Regulation \(EU\) No 648/2012” substitute “Relevant financial counterparties and relevant non-financial counterparties shall conclude transactions which are neither intragroup transactions as defined in Article 3 of Regulation \(EU\) No 648/2012 nor transactions covered by the transitional provisions in Article 89 of that Regulation with other relevant financial counterparties or other relevant non-financial counterparties”.

(3) After paragraph 1 insert—

“1A. For the purposes of this Article—

- (a) “financial counterparty” and “non-financial counterparty” have the same meanings as in Regulation \(EU\) No 648/2012 (see Article 2(8) and (9) of that Regulation);
- (b) a financial counterparty is a “relevant” financial counterparty if it is subject to the clearing obligation referred to in Article 4 of Regulation \(EU\) No 648/2012;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) a non-financial counterparty is a “relevant” non-financial counterparty in respect of derivative contracts pertaining to any asset classes if it is subject to that clearing obligation in respect of derivative contracts pertaining to those asset classes.”

Commencement Information

I107 Sch. 2 para. 16 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86(3)

17 After Article 28 insert—

“Article 28a

Suspension or modification of Article 28

1. The FCA may direct that the trading obligation imposed by Article 28(1) and (2) (the “DTO”) is suspended or modified in accordance with the direction if it considers that the suspension or modification—
 - (a) is necessary for the purpose of preventing or mitigating disruption to financial markets, and
 - (b) advances one or more of the FCA’s operational objectives referred to in section 1B(3) of FSMA.
2. A direction under this Article may provide for the DTO to be suspended or modified—
 - (a) in the case of all persons to whom the DTO applies or only to such persons or descriptions of persons as are specified in the direction;
 - (b) in the case of all derivatives to which the DTO applies or only to such derivatives, or classes of derivatives, as are specified in the direction;
 - (c) by reference to the venues on which derivative transactions are concluded under the DTO;
 - (d) subject to conditions.
3. In giving a direction under this Article the FCA must have regard to its competitiveness and growth objective in section 1EB of FSMA.
4. Before giving a direction under this Article the FCA must consult—
 - (a) the Bank of England, and
 - (b) the PRA, if the PRA has an interest in the proposed direction.

The PRA has an interest in a proposed direction if the direction—

 - (a) might affect the PRA’s discharge of its functions conferred by or under FSMA or any other enactment, or
 - (b) would apply to a PRA-authorized person or to a person connected with a PRA-authorized person (and for this purpose “PRA authorised person” has the same meaning as in FSMA and “connected” is to be read in accordance with section 165(11) of FSMA).
5. A direction under this Article may be given only with the consent of the Treasury.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- The Treasury must notify the FCA in writing whether or not consent is given before the end of four weeks beginning with the day on which the proposed direction is submitted to the Treasury for consent (and if the notice is not given before the end of that period the Treasury are deemed to have consented).
6. Where the FCA gives a direction under this Article it must also prepare a statement setting out—
 - (a) an explanation of the purpose of the direction, including (where relevant) the ways in which the direction will further the purpose mentioned in paragraph 1(a) and advance one or more of the objectives mentioned in paragraph 1(b), and
 - (b) such guidance in connection with the direction that the FCA considers appropriate.
 7. The FCA must publish a direction given under this Article together with the statement mentioned in paragraph 6.
 8. The Treasury must lay before Parliament a copy of a direction given under this Article and the statement mentioned in paragraph 6.
 9. If a direction under this Article has effect for a period lasting longer than 6 months, the FCA must publish, as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of each applicable 6 month period, a statement with an explanation as to why the conditions in paragraph 1(a) and (b) continue to be met.

The reference to each “applicable 6 month period” is to—

 - (a) the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which the direction is given, and
 - (b) each subsequent 6 month period during which the direction continues in effect.
 10. Publication under paragraph 7 or 9 is to be in whatever way appears to the FCA to be best calculated to bring the publication to the attention of the public.
 11. A direction under this Article may be varied or revoked by the giving of a further direction under this Article.
 12. For the purposes of this Article—
 - (a) the variation of a direction by virtue of paragraph 11 is not to be treated as the giving of a new direction for the purposes of paragraph 9;
 - (b) paragraphs 6(b) and 9 do not apply to the revocation of a direction by virtue of paragraph 11.
 13. The functions of the FCA under this Article are not “relevant functions” for the purposes of section 84 of the Financial Services Act 2012 (arrangements for the investigation of complaints relating to exercise of relevant functions of regulators).”

Commencement Information

I108 Sch. 2 para. 17 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86\(3\)

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

18 For Article 31 substitute—

“Article 31

Risk reduction services

1. The FCA may by rules provide for one or more relevant obligations not to apply—
 - (a) in relation to activities or transactions of a specified description carried out as part of a risk reduction service, or
 - (b) to persons of a specified description in the provision of such services.
2. The power to make rules under paragraph 1 is exercisable only if the FCA considers that the rules are necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing one or more of its operational objectives referred to in section 1B(3) of FSMA.
3. The risk reduction services to which the rules relate may only be post-trade services that do not give rise to any transactions that contribute to the price discovery process.
4. The rules—
 - (a) may describe the risk reduction services to which they relate in whatever way the FCA considers appropriate (subject to paragraph 3);
 - (b) may provide for whatever conditions or exceptions the FCA considers appropriate.
5. Before making rules under paragraph 1 the FCA must consult the Bank of England.
6. In this Article—

“relevant obligation” means—

 - (a) the best execution obligation in section 11.2A of the Conduct of Business sourcebook;
 - (b) the obligation in rule 5AA.1.1 in the Market Conduct sourcebook;
 - (c) the trading obligation imposed by Article 28 of this Regulation;

“risk reduction service” means a service provided to two or more counterparties to derivatives transactions for the purpose of reducing non-market risks in derivatives portfolios (including, for example, portfolio compression);

“specified” means specified in the rules.”

Article 6b

Risk reduction services

1. The Bank of England may by rules provide for the clearing obligation referred to in Article 4(1) in respect of a class or classes of OTC derivatives not to apply—
 - (a) in relation to activities or transactions of a specified description carried out as part of a risk reduction service, or
 - (b) to persons of a specified description in the provision of such services.
2. The power to make rules under paragraph 1 is exercisable only if the Bank of England considers that the rules are necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing the financial stability objective under section 2A of the Bank of England Act 1998.
3. The risk reduction services to which the rules relate may only be post-trade services that do not give rise to any transactions that contribute to the price discovery process.
4. The rules—
 - (a) may describe the risk reduction services to which they relate in whatever way the Bank of England considers appropriate (subject to paragraph 3);
 - (b) may provide for whatever conditions or exceptions the Bank of England considers appropriate.
5. In this Article—

“risk reduction service” means a service provided to two or more counterparties to derivatives transactions for the purpose of reducing non-market risks in derivatives portfolios (including, for example, portfolio compression);

“specified” means specified in the rules.”

30 After Article 84b insert—

“Article 84c

Bank of England rules

1. The provisions of Part 9A of FSMA (rules and guidance) listed in paragraph 2 apply in relation to rules made by the Bank of England under Article 6b, subject to the modifications in paragraphs 3 to 5.
2. The provisions are—
 - (a) section 137T (general supplementary powers);
 - (b) sections 138A and 138B (modification or waiver of rules), but with the omission of subsection (4)(b) of section 138A and subsection (4) of section 138B;
 - (c) section 138C (evidential provisions);
 - (d) section 138E (limits on effect of contravening rules);
 - (e) section 138F (notification of rules);
 - (f) section 138G (rule-making instruments);
 - (g) section 138H (verification of rules);
 - (h) section 138J (consultation by the PRA), but with the omission of subsections (2)(c) and (5)(b);
 - (i) section 138L (consultation: general exceptions), but with the omission of subsection (1).
3. Any reference in any of those provisions to an authorised person is to be read as a reference to a person to whom the clearing obligation referred to in Article 4(1) applies.
4. Section 138J(2)(d) has effect in relation to rules proposed to be made by the Bank of England as if the reference to the compatibility of the proposed rules with the provisions mentioned in section 138J(2)(d) were a reference to their compatibility with the Bank of England’s financial stability objective under section 2A of the Bank of England Act 1998.
5. Section 138L(2) has effect as if for paragraphs (a) and (b) there were substituted “be prejudicial to financial stability”.”

“CHAPTER 4A U.K.

STS EQUIVALENT NON-UK SECURITISATIONS

Designation of country or territory in relation to securitisations

1. The Treasury may by regulations designate a country or territory in relation to securitisations of descriptions specified in the regulations.
2. The power in paragraph 1 is exercisable only if the Treasury are satisfied that the law and practice which applies in the country or territory, in relation to securitisations of the descriptions specified, has equivalent effect (taken as a whole) to applicable UK law.
3. “Applicable UK law” means:
 - (a) this Regulation, as it applies to STS securitisations, and
 - (b) the Securitisation Regulations 2018 (S.I. 2018/2188), as those regulations apply to STS securitisations.
4. In making regulations under paragraph 1, the Treasury must have regard, in addition to any other matters they consider relevant, to whether the FCA (and, where relevant, the PRA) have established effective cooperation arrangements with the competent authorities of the country or territory.
5. When considering whether to make, vary or revoke regulations under paragraph 1, the Treasury may, by making a request in writing to the FCA, require the FCA to prepare a report on the law and practice of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, or particular aspects of such law and practice, in relation to securitisations of descriptions specified in the request.
6. If the Treasury request a report under paragraph 5, the FCA must:
 - (a) consult the PRA when preparing the report, and
 - (b) provide the Treasury with the report within such reasonable period as may be specified in the request (or such other period as may be agreed with the Treasury).
7. Regulations under paragraph 1 may—
 - (a) specify matters that a person carrying out a due-diligence assessment required by Article 5(3) must consider with regard to an STS equivalent non-UK securitisation;
 - (b) in relation to a matter specified, specify the extent to which the person may rely on the matter.
8. Regulations under this Article are to be made by statutory instrument.
9. Such regulations may—
 - (a) contain incidental, supplemental, consequential and transitional provision; and
 - (b) make different provision for different purposes.
- >10.. Regulations under this Article are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

Commencement Information

I135 Sch. 2 para. 44 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86(3)

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Position limits for commodity derivatives

45 In Part 3 (position limits and position management controls in commodity derivatives), before regulation 16 insert—

FCA rules relating to position limits

- “15A(1) The FCA may by rules require relevant persons to establish and apply—
- (a) position limits in respect of specified commodity derivatives, or commodity derivatives of a specified class, that are traded on a trading venue, and
 - (b) position management controls in relation to the trading of commodity derivatives.
- (2) The power to make rules under paragraph (1) is exercisable only if the FCA considers that the rules are necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing one or more of its operational objectives referred to in section 1B(3) of the Act.
 - (3) In making rules under paragraph (1) the FCA must have regard to its competitiveness and growth objective in section 1EB of the Act.
 - (4) Rules under paragraph (1) may provide for matters that relevant persons must have regard to when establishing position limits, or position management controls, under requirements imposed by the rules.
 - (5) Rules under paragraph (1) may provide for exemptions from the requirements imposed by the rules to such extent, and in such cases, as the rules may specify.
 - (6) The reference in paragraph (1)(b) to position management controls includes (for example) arrangements under which—
 - (a) the open interest positions of persons can be monitored;
 - (b) information and documentation can be obtained from persons about the size of positions entered into;
 - (c) requirements can be imposed on persons to terminate or reduce positions or to provide liquidity.
 - (7) The following provisions of Part 9A of the Act (rules and guidance) apply in relation to rules made by the FCA under this regulation as they apply in relation to rules made by the FCA under that Part of the Act, subject to the modification in paragraph (8)—
 - (a) section 137T (general supplementary powers);
 - (b) Chapter 2 (modification, waiver, contravention and procedural provisions), with the exception of sections 138D (actions for damages) and 138EA (matters to consider when making rules);
 - (c) section 141A (power to make consequential amendments of references to rules etc).
 - (8) Section 137T applies as if the reference to authorised persons were a reference to relevant persons to whom rules under this regulation apply.
 - (9) A requirement imposed by rules under this regulation is, for the purposes of section 296 of the Act (regulator’s power to give directions), to be treated as an obligation imposed under the Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

(10) In this Part “relevant persons” means market operators and investment firms operating a trading venue.”

- 46 (1) Regulation 16 (FCA duty to establish position limits) is amended as follows.
- (2) In the title, for “duty” substitute “power”.
- (3) In paragraph (1)—
- (a) for “must” substitute “may”;
- (b) for the words from “traded” to the end substitute “to which requirements imposed by rules under regulation 15A apply”.
- (4) After that paragraph insert—
- “(1A) The power to give a direction under paragraph (1) is exercisable only if the FCA considers that it is necessary to give the direction for the purpose of advancing one or more of its operational objectives referred to in section 1B(3) of the Act.
- (1B) Position limits established by virtue of regulation 15A do not apply to the extent that position limits established by virtue of this regulation apply instead.”
- (5) Omit paragraphs (2), (3) and (5).

Commencement Information

I137 Sch. 2 para. 46 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86\(3\)

- 47 (1) Regulation 27 (FCA power to require information) is amended as follows.
- (2) In paragraph (1), in both of sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) omit “or over the counter contract”.
- (3) In paragraph (2) omit “or over the counter contract”.
- (4) “(3) For the purposes of this regulation a commodity derivative is a “relevant” commodity derivative if—
- (a) requirements imposed by rules under regulation 15A apply to the commodity derivative (or to commodity derivatives of that class), or
- (b) it is a commodity derivative (or falls within a class of commodity derivatives) to which the FCA is considering making such requirements apply.”

Commencement Information

CASH ACCESS SERVICES

PART 1 U.K.

NEW PART 8B OF FSMA 2000

1 After Part 8A of FSMA 2000 (short selling) insert—

“PART 8B U.K.

CASH ACCESS SERVICES

Introductory

131M Overview

This Part—

- (a) requires the Treasury to publish a statement of policy concerning cash deposit and withdrawal services,
- (b) enables the Treasury to designate persons involved in the provision of such services, and
- (c) gives the FCA functions in relation to designated persons.

131N Cash access services and coordination arrangements

- (1) This section defines “cash”, “cash access service”, “free cash access service” and “cash access coordination arrangements” for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) “Cash” means—
 - (a) banknotes issued by the Bank of England, or an authorised bank in its capacity as an issuer of banknotes in Scotland or Northern Ireland (see Part 6 of the Banking Act 2009), or

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) coins made by the Mint, within the meaning of the Coinage Act 1971 (see section 11 of that Act).
- (3) A “cash access service” is—
 - (a) a service which enables cash to be placed on a relevant current account (a “cash deposit service”), or
 - (b) a service which enables cash to be withdrawn from a relevant current account (a “cash withdrawal service”).
- (4) A “free cash access service” is a cash access service that is—
 - (a) a free of charge service which enables cash to be placed on a relevant personal current account, or
 - (b) a free of charge service which enables cash to be withdrawn from a relevant personal current account.
- (5) “Cash access coordination arrangements” are arrangements—
 - (a) which are designed to coordinate the provision of cash access services by two or more providers of such services, but
 - (b) which do not directly provide cash access services to any person.
- (6) In relation to cash access coordination arrangements—
 - (a) a reference to the “operator” of such arrangements is to any person with responsibility under the arrangements for managing or operating them;
 - (b) a reference to the operation of such arrangements includes their management.
- (7) In this section, “relevant current account” has the meaning given by section 131O.

131O Current accounts and relevant current account providers

- (1) This section defines “current account”, “relevant current account”, “relevant personal current account” and “relevant current account provider” for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) “Current account” means an account by means of which one or more named persons are able to—
 - (a) place cash,
 - (b) withdraw cash, and
 - (c) execute and receive payment transactions to and from third parties, including the execution of credit transfers.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c), “payment transaction” means an act initiated by the payer or payee, or on behalf of the payer, of placing, transferring or withdrawing funds, irrespective of any underlying obligations between the payer and payee.
- (4) A “relevant personal current account” means a relevant current account held by one or more individuals for purposes outside any business, trade, craft or profession of that individual or those individuals.
- (5) “Relevant current account provider” means a person—
 - (a) who has a Part 4A permission to accept deposits, and

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) who provides current accounts in reliance on that permission (“relevant current accounts”).
- (6) But the following are not relevant current account providers—
 - (a) credit unions, within the meaning given by section 31(1) of the Credit Unions Act 1979 or Article 2(2) of the Credit Unions (Northern Ireland) Order 1985 (S.I. 1985/1205)(N.I.12);
 - (b) a society that is registered within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1974 (see section 111(1) of that Act) or incorporated under the Friendly Societies Act 1992.
- (7) The Treasury may by regulations—
 - (a) amend a definition in this section;
 - (b) amend any other provision of this Part in consequence of provision made under paragraph (a).

Cash access policy statement

131P Cash access policy statement

- (1) The Treasury must prepare a cash access policy statement.
- (2) A “cash access policy statement” is a statement of the policies of His Majesty’s Government concerning cash access services in the United Kingdom, or a part of the United Kingdom.
- (3) The reference to cash access services in subsection (2) includes free cash access services.
- (4) Policies may be stated in relation to, among other things—
 - (a) cash deposit services and cash withdrawal services;
 - (b) services provided in relation to current accounts of different descriptions;
 - (c) services provided in predominantly urban areas and services provided in predominantly rural areas.
- (5) In preparing a cash access policy statement, the Treasury must—
 - (a) consult the FCA, and
 - (b) have regard to any report provided under section 131Q.
- (6) The Treasury must publish a cash access policy statement in such manner as they consider appropriate.
- (7) The Treasury—
 - (a) must keep the cash access policy statement under review;
 - (b) may prepare a revised statement (and subsections (5) and (6) apply in relation to any revised statement).

131Q Provision of reports to assist the Treasury

- (1) The FCA must, on a request from the Treasury, prepare and send to the Treasury a report on a matter specified in the request.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The Treasury may only make a request under this section for a report that they reasonably require in connection with—
 - (a) the preparation of a cash access policy statement (see section 131P), or
 - (b) a decision whether or not to designate a person for the purposes of this Part (see section 131R).
- (3) A request for a report under this section—
 - (a) must be made in writing, and
 - (b) may require the FCA to send the report to the Treasury within such reasonable period as may be specified in the request (or such other period as may be agreed).
- (4) Nothing in section 348, or in regulations made under section 349, is to be taken as preventing or restricting the ability of the FCA to disclose information to the Treasury for the purposes of this section.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply in relation to information provided to the FCA by a regulatory authority outside the United Kingdom.

Designation

131R Designation

- (1) The Treasury may designate a person for the purposes of this Part if the person is—
 - (a) a relevant current account provider, or
 - (b) an operator of cash access coordination arrangements, and at least one of the participants in the arrangements is a relevant current account provider designated under this section.
- (2) A person is designated by giving the person (the “designated person”) a notice in accordance with this Part (a “designation notice”).
- (3) A designation notice must specify whether the person is designated in relation to—
 - (a) the United Kingdom,
 - (b) Great Britain only, or
 - (c) Northern Ireland only.
- (4) A designation notice given to the operator of cash access coordination arrangements must specify the arrangements in as much detail as is reasonably practicable.
- (5) Before giving a designation notice to a person the Treasury must—
 - (a) consult the FCA,
 - (b) notify the person, and
 - (c) consider any representations made.
- (6) A designated person must—
 - (a) comply with rules made by the FCA under section 131V;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) comply with directions given by the FCA to the designated person under section 131W.

131S Designation criteria

- (1) The Treasury may designate a person for the purposes of this Part, in relation to the United Kingdom, Great Britain only, or Northern Ireland only (as the case may be), only if satisfied that doing so is likely to further the purpose mentioned in section 131U(1).
- (2) In considering whether to designate a relevant current account provider, the Treasury must have regard to—
 - (a) the distribution of cash access services operated by the provider in the United Kingdom, Great Britain or Northern Ireland (as the case may be);
 - (b) the distribution in the United Kingdom, Great Britain or Northern Ireland (as the case may be) of persons holding current accounts provided by the provider;
 - (c) the provider’s share of the current account market in the United Kingdom, Great Britain or Northern Ireland (as the case may be);
 - (d) the total value of the deposits held in current accounts provided by the provider in the United Kingdom, Great Britain or Northern Ireland (as the case may be).
- (3) If a relevant current account provider is part of a group which includes one or more other relevant current account providers, references in subsection (2) to the provider are to be read as references to—
 - (a) the provider, and
 - (b) each of those other relevant current account providers.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), section 421 (meaning of “group”) applies with the omission of subsection (1)(g) of that section.

131T Cancellation or variation of a designation notice

- (1) If a designation notice has been given to a person the Treasury may, by further notice, cancel the designation notice.
- (2) If a designation notice has been given to a person (including a designation notice as varied by a notice under this subsection), the Treasury may by further notice, vary the earlier notice.
- (3) If a further notice under subsection (2) would designate a person in relation to a part of the United Kingdom in relation to which the person was not designated by the earlier notice, sections 131R(3) and (5) and 131S apply in relation to the further notice.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Supervision of designated persons

131U Purpose for which FCA must exercise functions under this Part

- (1) The FCA must exercise its functions under this Part for the purpose of seeking to ensure reasonable provision of cash access services in the United Kingdom, or a part of the United Kingdom.
- (2) In this section references to cash access services include references to free cash access services.
- (3) “Reasonable provision” of cash access services is provision of such nature and extent as the FCA may determine, having regard to—
 - (a) the cash access policy statement currently in effect (see section 131P), and
 - (b) such other matters as it considers appropriate.
- (4) In making a determination for the purposes of subsection (3) the FCA must, in particular, have regard to any local deficiencies in provision of cash access services—
 - (a) which the FCA is aware of, and
 - (b) the impacts of which the FCA considers to be significant.
- (5) A local deficiency in provision of cash access services is a circumstance which limits the ability of persons in any locality in a part of the United Kingdom to—
 - (a) withdraw cash from a relevant current account, or
 - (b) place cash on a relevant current account.
- (6) In determining whether there are local deficiencies in the provision of cash access services, and the significance of the impacts of such deficiencies, the FCA must have regard to—
 - (a) the cash access policy statement currently in effect, and
 - (b) such other matters as it considers appropriate.
- (7) Those other matters may include (but are not limited to)—
 - (a) the number of persons likely to be affected by the deficiency;
 - (b) the characteristics of the persons likely to be affected by the deficiency;
 - (c) the likely impact on the persons likely to be affected.

131V FCA rules

- (1) The FCA may make such rules applying to designated persons as appear to the FCA to be necessary or expedient for the purpose mentioned in section 131U(1).
- (2) Rules under this section must not require a designated person to do (or refrain from doing) any thing in relation to a part of the United Kingdom in relation to which the person is not designated.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Section 137T (general supplementary powers for rules made by a regulator) applies in relation to rules made by the FCA under this section as if, in paragraph (a), the reference to descriptions of authorised persons, activity or investment were to descriptions of designated persons and activities carried on by such persons.
- (4) Section 138A (modification or waiver of rules) applies in relation to rules made by the FCA under this section as if subsection (4)(b) were omitted.
- (5) Section 138I (consultation by FCA before making rules) applies to rules under this section as if, in subsection (2)(d), the reference to the FCA's duties under section 1B(1) and (5)(a) were to the purpose for which the FCA must exercise its functions under this Part.

131W Power to direct designated persons

- (1) The FCA may give a direction under this section to a designated person if it considers that it is desirable to give the direction for the purpose mentioned in section 131U(1).
- (2) A direction under this section must not require a designated person to do (or refrain from doing) any thing in relation to a part of the United Kingdom in relation to which the person is not designated.
- (3) A direction under this section may require the person to—
 - (a) take specified action;
 - (b) refrain from taking specified action;
 - (c) review, or take remedial action in respect of, past conduct.
- (4) A requirement imposed by a direction under this section may be expressed to expire at the end of a specified period, but the imposition of a requirement that expires at the end of a specified period does not affect the power to give a further direction imposing a new requirement.
- (5) A direction under this section—
 - (a) may be revoked by the FCA by written notice to the person to whom it is given, and
 - (b) ceases to be in force if the person to whom it is given ceases to be a designated person.

131X Procedure for directions

- (1) If the FCA proposes to give a direction under section 131W, or gives such a direction with immediate effect, it must give written notice to the designated person to whom the direction is given (or to be given).
- (2) A direction under section 131W takes effect—
 - (a) immediately, if the notice under subsection (1) states that is the case,
 - (b) on such other date as may be specified in the notice, or
 - (c) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A direction under section 131W may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the FCA reasonably considers that it is necessary for the direction to take effect immediately (or on that date).
- (4) The notice under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) give details of the direction;
 - (b) state the FCA’s reasons for the direction and for its determination as to when the direction takes effect;
 - (c) inform the designated person that the person may make representations to the FCA within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not the person has referred the matter to the Tribunal);
 - (d) inform the designated person of the person’s right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (5) The FCA may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.
- (6) The FCA must give the designated person written notice if, having considered any representations made by the person, it decides—
 - (a) to give the direction proposed;
 - (b) if the direction has been given, not to revoke the direction.
- (7) The FCA must give the designated person written notice if, having considered any representations made by the person, it decides—
 - (a) not to give the direction proposed;
 - (b) to give a different direction;
 - (c) to revoke a direction.
- (8) A notice given under subsection (6) must inform the notified person of the person’s right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (9) A notice under subsection (7)(b) must comply with subsection (4).
- (10) If a notice informs the designated person of the person’s right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.
- (11) For the purposes of subsection (2)(c), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8).

131Y Information gathering and investigations

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, Part 11 (information gathering and investigations) applies in accordance with this section.
- (2) Sections 165A to 165C, 169 and 169A do not apply.
- (3) Any reference to an authorised person includes a person designated for the purposes of this Part (whether or not the person is an authorised person).
- (4) In addition—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) references to an authorised person in sections 165 and 176(3A) include a person mentioned in subsection (5) (whether or not the person is an authorised person);
 - (b) sections 175 to 177 apply in relation to section 165 as modified in accordance with paragraph (a).
- (5) The persons are—
- (a) a relevant current account provider who is not a designated person for the purposes of this Part;
 - (b) an operator of cash access coordination arrangements who is not a designated person for the purposes of this Part;
 - (c) the operator of, or an infrastructure provider in relation to, a payment system, who is not a designated person for the purposes of this Part;
 - (d) a person (other than a person mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c)) who provides cash access services and is not a designated person for the purposes of this Part;
 - (e) a person who provides a relevant service to a person mentioned in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) and is not a designated person for the purposes of this Part.
- (6) In subsection (5)(c), “payment system”, and “operator” and “infrastructure provider” in relation to a payment system, have the same meanings as in Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (see section 110 of that Act).
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (5)(e), a “relevant service” is a service provided in connection with the provision of cash access services.
- (8) In relation to a person who is not an authorised person but is treated as such for the purposes of this Part (by virtue of subsection (3) or (4)), any reference to “either regulator” is to the FCA only.

131Z Disciplinary measures

For the purposes of enforcing a requirement imposed by or under this Part, Part 14 (disciplinary measures) applies as if—

- (a) any reference to an authorised person includes a person designated for the purposes of this Part (whether or not that person is an authorised person), and
- (b) section 206A (suspending permission to carry on regulated activities etc) were omitted.

131Z1 Costs of supervision

Rules made under paragraph 23 of Schedule 1ZA, in connection with the carrying out of any of the FCA’s functions under this Part, must not provide for the payment of fees to the FCA by any person other than a designated person who is a relevant current account provider.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

131Z2 Exclusion and modification of other FCA duties

- (1) Where the FCA is discharging a function under this Part, section 1B (FCA’s general duties) applies as if—
 - (a) in subsection (1)(b), the reference to one or more of the FCA’s operational objectives were to the purpose mentioned in section 131U(1);
 - (b) subsections (4) and (4A) (promoting effective competition in the interests of consumers and advancing competitiveness and growth) do not apply.
- (2) In discharging its functions under this Part, the regulatory principles in section 3B(1) have effect as if, in paragraph (g), the reference to the FCA’s objectives included the purpose mentioned in section 131U(1).
- (3) Section 395 applies in relation to a decision of the FCA made in connection with a function under this Part as if, in subsection (3)(a), the reference to the FCA’s operational objectives included the purpose mentioned in section 131U(1).”

SCHEDULE 9 U.K.

Section 55

WHOLESALE CASH DISTRIBUTION

PART 1 U.K.

NEW PART 5A OF THE BANKING ACT 2009

1 After Part 5 of the Banking Act 2009 (payment systems) insert—

“PART 5A U.K.

WHOLESALE CASH DISTRIBUTION

*Introduction206C Overview and purpose

- (1) This Part enables the Bank of England to oversee certain persons involved in wholesale cash distribution (as defined in section 206E).
- (2) The Bank must exercise its powers under this Part for the purpose of managing risks to the effectiveness, resilience and sustainability of wholesale cash distribution—
 - (a) throughout the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) throughout any part of the United Kingdom.

206D Policy statement

- (1) The Bank of England—
 - (a) must prepare a statement of its policy with respect to the exercise of its powers under this Part,
 - (b) must from time to time review the statement, and
 - (c) may prepare a revised statement.
- (2) When preparing a statement under this section, the Bank must consult such persons as appear to the Bank to be representative of persons likely to be affected by the statement.
- (3) After preparing a statement under this section the Bank must—
 - (a) provide the statement to the Treasury, and
 - (b) publish the statement.
- (4) The Treasury must lay a copy of each statement received under this section before Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(5) No power conferred on the Bank by this Part may be exercised before a statement under this section has been published.

206E Interpretation: “wholesale cash distribution”

(1) In this Part—

“wholesale cash distribution” means the arrangements (taken as a whole) by which banknotes issued by an issuing authority, or coins made by the Mint, are—

- (a) made available for retail cash distribution, and
- (b) removed from circulation;

“wholesale cash distribution activities” are activities intended to facilitate or control wholesale cash distribution and include (but are not limited to)—

- (a) purchasing cash from issuing authorities or the Mint;
- (b) storing cash;
- (c) transporting cash;
- (d) undertaking authentication processes;
- (e) facilitating the return of cash to issuing authorities or the Mint.

(2) For these purposes—

“authorised bank” has the meaning given by section 210;

“banknote” has the meaning given by section 208;

“cash” means—

- (a) banknotes issued by the Bank of England, or an authorised bank in its capacity as an issuer of banknotes in Scotland or Northern Ireland, or
- (b) coins made by the Mint, within the meaning of the Coinage Act 1971 (see section 11 of that Act);

“issue”, in relation to banknotes, has the meaning given by section 209;

“issuing authority” means—

- (a) the Bank of England, or
- (b) an authorised bank in its capacity as an issuer of banknotes in Scotland or Northern Ireland;

“retail cash distribution” means arrangements for the provision of cash to end users of cash.

206F Interpretation: other terms

(1) In this Part—

“FCA” means the Financial Conduct Authority;

“FCA-regulated person” means—

- (a) a person who has Part 4A permission,
- (b) an authorised payment institution or small payment institution, within the meaning of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/752), or

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

(c) an authorised electronic money institution or small electronic money institution, within the meaning of the Electronic Money Regulations 2011 (S.I. 2011/99);

“Part 4A permission” has the meaning given by section 55A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;

“the Payment Systems Regulator” means the Payment Systems Regulator established under section 40 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013;

“PRA” means the Prudential Regulation Authority;

“PRA-regulated activity” has the meaning given by section 22A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;

“the UK financial system” has the meaning given by section 11 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

- (2) For the purposes of this Part, a company (within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006) is wholly owned by the Crown if, and only if, every member of the company is—
- (a) a Minister of the Crown, government department or company wholly owned by the Crown, or
 - (b) a person acting on behalf of a Minister of the Crown, government department or company wholly owned by the Crown.

Recognised persons

206G Wholesale cash oversight orders

- (1) The Treasury may by order (a “wholesale cash oversight order”) specify a person as a recognised person for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) A person may be specified only if the person—
 - (a) performs a relevant function in relation to a wholesale cash distribution activity, and
 - (b) is recognised as having market significance (see section 206H).
- (3) The following are relevant functions in relation to a wholesale cash distribution activity—
 - (a) undertaking the activity;
 - (b) managing the activity;
 - (c) providing a service in relation to the activity;
 - (d) providing financial assistance in relation to the activity.
- (4) A wholesale cash oversight order must specify in as much detail as is reasonably practicable—
 - (a) each wholesale cash distribution activity in relation to which the specified person performs a relevant function, and
 - (b) each relevant function the person performs.
- (5) The Treasury may not make a wholesale cash oversight order in respect of an issuing authority or the Mint.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

206H “Market significance” and “systemic significance”

- (1) A wholesale cash oversight order must specify whether the person in respect of whom the order is made is recognised—
 - (a) as having market significance only, or
 - (b) as also having systemic significance.
- (2) The Treasury may recognise a person as having market significance only if satisfied that any significant deficiency in, or disruption to, the performance of the person’s relevant functions in relation to wholesale cash distribution activities would be likely to undermine the effectiveness, resilience, or sustainability of wholesale cash distribution—
 - (a) throughout the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) throughout any part of the United Kingdom.
- (3) The Treasury may recognise a person as having systemic significance only if satisfied that any significant deficiency in, or disruption to, the performance of the person’s relevant functions in relation to wholesale cash distribution activities would be likely (in addition to the consequences mentioned in subsection (2))—
 - (a) to threaten the stability of, or confidence in, the UK financial system, or
 - (b) to have serious consequences for business or other interests throughout the United Kingdom or any part of the United Kingdom.
- (4) Where a person is part of a group, the Treasury may have regard to functions performed by other members of the group when determining matters mentioned in subsection (2) or (3).
- (5) In subsection (4), “group” has the meaning given by section 421 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.
- (6) The Treasury must not recognise a company wholly owned by the Crown as having systemic significance.

206I Procedure

- (1) Before making a wholesale cash oversight order in respect of a person the Treasury must—
 - (a) consult the Bank of England,
 - (b) notify the person, and
 - (c) consider any representations made.
- (2) In addition, the Treasury must—
 - (a) consult the FCA before making a wholesale cash oversight order in respect of a person who is, or has applied to be, an FCA-regulated person;
 - (b) consult the PRA before making a wholesale cash oversight order in respect of a person who has, or has applied for, Part 4A permission for the carrying on of a PRA-regulated activity;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) consult the Payment Systems Regulator before making a wholesale cash oversight order in respect of a person who is a participant in a regulated payment system.
- (3) In subsection (2)(c), “participant” and “regulated payment system” have the same meanings as in Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (see section 110 of that Act).
- (4) In considering whether to make the order, the Treasury may rely on information provided by—
 - (a) the Bank of England;
 - (b) the FCA;
 - (c) the PRA;
 - (d) the Payment Systems Regulator.

206J Amendment or revocation of a wholesale cash oversight order

- (1) The Treasury may amend or revoke a wholesale cash oversight order.
- (2) The Treasury must revoke a wholesale cash oversight order if no longer satisfied that the person specified in the order—
 - (a) performs a relevant function in relation to a wholesale cash distribution activity, and
 - (b) has market significance.
- (3) If a person is specified in a wholesale cash oversight order as having systemic significance, the Treasury must amend the order (so that the person is specified as having market significance only) if—
 - (a) satisfied that the person continues to have market significance, but
 - (b) no longer satisfied that the person has systemic significance.
- (4) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Treasury must consider any request by a person specified in a wholesale cash oversight order for the amendment or revocation of the order.
- (5) Section 206I (procedure) applies to the amendment or revocation of a wholesale cash oversight order as it applies to the making of the order.

Regulation

206K Principles

- (1) The Bank of England may publish principles to which recognised persons must have regard in performing relevant functions in relation to wholesale cash distribution activities.
- (2) Different principles may be published in relation to—
 - (a) different wholesale cash distribution activities;
 - (b) different relevant functions;
 - (c) persons recognised as having market significance only and persons recognised as also having systemic significance.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Before publishing such principles, the Bank must—
 - (a) consult such persons as appear to the Bank to be representative of persons likely to be affected by the principles, and
 - (b) obtain the approval of the Treasury.

206L Codes of practice

- (1) The Bank of England may publish codes of practice about the performance by recognised persons of relevant functions in relation to wholesale cash distribution activities.
- (2) Different codes of practice may be published in relation to—
 - (a) different wholesale cash distribution activities;
 - (b) different relevant functions;
 - (c) persons recognised as having market significance only and persons recognised as also having systemic significance.
- (3) Before publishing a code of practice, the Bank of England must consult such persons as appear to the Bank to be representative of persons likely to be affected by the code.

206M Directions

- (1) The Bank of England may give directions in writing to a recognised person.
- (2) A direction may—
 - (a) require or prohibit the taking of specified action in relation to the performance of a specified relevant function in relation to a specified wholesale cash distribution activity;
 - (b) set standards to be met in the performance of a specified relevant function in relation to a specified wholesale cash distribution activity.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if a direction is given to a recognised person for the purpose of resolving or reducing a threat to the stability of the UK financial system.
- (4) The recognised person (including the recognised person's officers and staff) has immunity from liability in damages in respect of action or inaction in accordance with the direction.
- (5) A direction given for the purpose mentioned in subsection (3) must—
 - (a) include a statement that it is given for that purpose, and
 - (b) inform the recognised person of the effect of subsection (4).
- (6) The Treasury may by regulations confer immunity on any person from liability in damages in respect of action or inaction in accordance with a direction under this section (including a direction given for the purpose mentioned in subsection (3)).
- (7) Regulations under subsection (6)—
 - (a) are to be made by statutory instrument, and

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (8) An immunity conferred by or under this section does not extend to action or inaction—
 - (a) in bad faith, or
 - (b) in contravention of section 6(1) of the Human Rights Act 1998.
- (9) In this section, “specified” means specified in the direction.

206N Role of the FCA, PRA and Payment Systems Regulator

- (1) In exercising powers under this Part, the Bank of England must have regard to any action that the FCA, PRA or Payment Systems Regulator has taken or could take.
- (2) The Bank of England must—
 - (a) consult the FCA before taking action under this Part in respect of a person who is, or has applied to be, an FCA-regulated person;
 - (b) consult the PRA before taking action under this Part in respect of a person who has, or has applied for, Part 4A permission for the carrying on of a PRA-regulated activity;
 - (c) consult the Payment Systems Regulator before taking action under this Part in respect of a participant in a regulated payment system.
- (3) In subsection (2)(c), “participant” and “regulated payment system” have the same meanings as in Part 5 of the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (see section 110 of that Act).
- (4) If the FCA, PRA or Payment Systems Regulator gives the Bank of England notice that it is considering taking action in respect of a person mentioned in subsection (2), the Bank may not take action under this Part in respect of the person unless—
 - (a) the FCA, PRA or Payment Systems Regulator (as the case may be) consents, or
 - (b) the notice is withdrawn.

Enforcement

206O Inspection

- (1) The Bank of England may appoint one or more persons to inspect the performance by a recognised person of a relevant function in relation to a wholesale cash distribution activity.
- (2) A recognised person who performs a relevant function in relation to a wholesale cash distribution activity must—
 - (a) grant an inspector access, on request and at any reasonable time, to premises on or from which any part of the function is performed, and
 - (b) otherwise co-operate with an inspector.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

206P Inspection: warrant

- (1) A justice of the peace may, on the application of an inspector appointed under section 206O, issue a warrant entitling an inspector or a constable to enter premises if—
 - (a) there is performed on the premises any part of a relevant function in relation to a wholesale cash distribution activity, and
 - (b) any of the following conditions is satisfied.
- (2) Condition 1 is that—
 - (a) a requirement under section 206Z3 (information) in relation to the relevant function has not been complied with, and
 - (b) there is reason to believe that information relevant to the requirement is on the premises.
- (3) Condition 2 is that there is reason to suspect that if a requirement under section 206Z3 were imposed in relation to the relevant function in respect of information on the premises—
 - (a) the requirement would not be complied with, and
 - (b) the information would be destroyed or otherwise tampered with.
- (4) Condition 3 is that an inspector—
 - (a) gave reasonable notice of a wish to enter the premises, and
 - (b) was refused entry.
- (5) Condition 4 is that a person occupying or managing the premises has failed to co-operate with an inspector.
- (6) A warrant—
 - (a) permits an inspector or a constable to enter the premises,
 - (b) permits an inspector or a constable to search the premises and copy or take possession of information or documents, and
 - (c) permits a constable to use reasonable force.
- (7) Sections 15(5) to (8) and 16 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (warrants: procedure) apply to warrants under this section.
- (8) In the application of this section to Scotland—
 - (a) the reference to a justice of the peace includes a reference to a sheriff, and
 - (b) ignore subsection (7).
- (9) In the application of this section to Northern Ireland—
 - (a) the reference to a justice of the peace is a reference to a lay magistrate, and
 - (b) the reference to sections 15(5) to (8) and 16 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 is a reference to the equivalent provisions of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

206Q Independent report

- (1) The Bank of England may require a recognised person who performs a relevant function in relation to a wholesale cash distribution activity to appoint an expert to report on the performance of the function.
- (2) The Bank may impose a requirement only if it thinks—
 - (a) the person is not having sufficient regard to principles published by the Bank under section 206K,
 - (b) the person is failing to comply with a code of practice under section 206L, or
 - (c) the report is likely for any other reason to assist the Bank in the performance of its functions under this Part.
- (3) The Bank may impose requirements about—
 - (a) the nature of the expert to be appointed;
 - (b) the content of the report;
 - (c) treatment of the report (including disclosure and publication);
 - (d) timing.

206R Compliance failure

In this Part “compliance failure” means a failure by a recognised person to—

- (a) comply with a code of practice under section 206L,
- (b) comply with a direction under section 206M, or
- (c) ensure compliance with a requirement under section 206Q (independent reports).

206S Publication

The Bank of England may publish details of—

- (a) a compliance failure by a recognised person;
- (b) a sanction imposed under sections 206T to 206V.

206T Penalty

- (1) The Bank of England may require a recognised person to pay a penalty in respect of a compliance failure.
- (2) A penalty—
 - (a) must be paid to the Bank, and
 - (b) may be enforced by the Bank as a civil debt owed to the Bank.
- (3) The Bank must prepare a statement of the principles which it will apply in determining—
 - (a) whether to impose a penalty, and
 - (b) the amount of a penalty.
- (4) The Bank must—
 - (a) publish the statement on its website,

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) send a copy to the Treasury,
- (c) review the statement from time to time and revise it if necessary (and paragraphs (a) and (b) apply to a revision), and
- (d) in applying the statement to a compliance failure, apply the version in force when the failure occurred.

206U Closure

- (1) This section applies if the Bank of England thinks that a compliance failure by a person recognised for the purposes of this Part as having systemic significance—
 - (a) threatens the stability of, or confidence in, the UK financial system, or
 - (b) has serious consequences for business or other interests throughout the United Kingdom.
- (2) The Bank may give the person an order (a “closure order”) to stop performing specified relevant functions in relation to specified wholesale cash distribution activities—
 - (a) for a specified period,
 - (b) until further notice, or
 - (c) permanently.
- (3) Before giving a closure order to a recognised person, the Bank must have regard to the public interest in the continued performance by the person of relevant functions (whether or not specified) in relation to wholesale cash distribution activities (whether or not specified).
- (4) A recognised person who fails to comply with a closure order commits an offence.
- (5) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (c) on summary conviction in Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (d) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
- (6) In this section, “specified” means specified in the closure order.

206V Management disqualification

- (1) The Bank of England may by order prohibit a specified person from holding an office or position involving responsibility for taking decisions about the management of a recognised person—
 - (a) for a specified period,
 - (b) until further notice, or
 - (c) permanently.
- (2) A person who breaches a prohibition under subsection (1) commits an offence.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (c) on summary conviction in Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (d) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
- (4) In this section, “specified” means specified in the order.

206W Warning

- (1) Before imposing a sanction on a person the Bank of England must—
- (a) give the person a notice (“a warning notice”),
 - (b) give the person at least 21 days from the date of the notice to make representations,
 - (c) consider any representations made, and
 - (d) as soon as reasonably practicable, give the person a notice stating whether the Bank intends to impose the sanction.
- (2) In subsection (1), “imposing a sanction” means—
- (a) publishing details under section 206S;
 - (b) requiring the payment of a penalty under section 206T;
 - (c) giving a closure order under section 206U;
 - (d) making an order under section 206V.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), if satisfied that it is necessary, the Bank may without notice—
- (a) give a closure order under section 206U, or
 - (b) make an order under section 206V.

206X Appeal

- (1) Where the Bank of England notifies a person under section 206W(1) that it intends to impose a sanction, the person may appeal to the Upper Tribunal.
- (2) Where the Bank imposes a sanction on a person without notice in reliance on section 206W(3), the person may appeal to the Upper Tribunal.
- (3) The Bank of England may not impose a sanction while an appeal under this section could be brought or is pending.

206Y Injunctions

- (1) If, on the application of the Bank of England, the court is satisfied—
- (a) that there is a reasonable likelihood that there will be a compliance failure, or
 - (b) that there has been a compliance failure and there is a reasonable likelihood that it will continue or be repeated, the court may make an order restraining the conduct constituting the failure.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If, on the application of the Bank of England, the court is satisfied—
- (a) that there has been a compliance failure by a recognised person, and
 - (b) that there are steps which could be taken for remedying the failure, the court may make an order requiring the recognised person, and any other person who appears to have been knowingly concerned in the failure, to take such steps as the court may direct to remedy it.

- (3) If, on the application of the Bank of England, the court is satisfied—
- (a) that there may have been a compliance failure by a recognised person, or
 - (b) that any other person may have been knowingly concerned in a compliance failure, the court may make an order restraining the person from dealing with any assets which it is satisfied the person is reasonably likely to deal with.

- (4) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is exercisable—
- (a) in England and Wales and Northern Ireland, by the High Court;
 - (b) in Scotland, by the Court of Session.

- (5) In this section—
- (a) references to an order restraining anything are, in Scotland, to be read as references to an interdict prohibiting that thing;
 - (b) references to an order requiring steps to be taken are, in Scotland, to be read as references to an order for specific performance under section 45 of the Court of Session Act 1988;
 - (c) references to remedying a failure include mitigating its effect;
 - (d) references to dealing with assets include disposing of them.

Miscellaneous

206Z Fees

- (1) The Bank of England may require a recognised person to pay fees.
- (2) A requirement under subsection (1) must relate to a scale of fees approved by the Treasury by regulations.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (2)—
 - (a) are to be made by statutory instrument, and
 - (b) are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) A requirement under subsection (1) may be enforced by the Bank as a civil debt owed to the Bank.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

206Z1 Records

The Bank of England must maintain satisfactory arrangements for—

- (a) recording decisions made in the exercise of functions under this Part, and
- (b) the safe-keeping of those records which it considers ought to be preserved.

206Z2 Annual report

- (1) At least once a year the Bank of England must make a report to the Treasury on—
 - (a) the discharge of its functions under this Part, and
 - (b) such other matters as the Treasury may from time to time direct.
- (2) A report on the discharge of the Bank's functions under this Part must, in particular, include the Bank's opinion as to—
 - (a) the extent to which risks to the effectiveness, resilience and sustainability of wholesale cash distribution throughout the United Kingdom, or throughout any part of the United Kingdom, have been managed, and
 - (b) the extent to which, in relation to the exercise of functions in relation to persons recognised as having systemic significance, risks to the stability of the UK financial system have been managed.
- (3) This section does not require the inclusion in a report of any information the publication of which would, in the opinion of the Bank, be against the public interest.
- (4) The Treasury must lay before Parliament a copy of each report received under this section.

206Z3 Requirement to provide information

- (1) The Bank of England may by notice in writing require a person to provide information—
 - (a) which the Bank thinks will help the Treasury in determining whether to make a wholesale cash oversight order, or
 - (b) which the Bank otherwise requires in connection with its functions under this Part.
- (2) The Bank of England may by notice in writing require a person who performs a relevant function in relation to wholesale cash distribution activity to provide information which the Bank requires in connection with the exercise of its functions (whether under this Part or otherwise) in pursuance of—
 - (a) the purpose mentioned in section 206C(2), or
 - (b) the Bank's Financial Stability Objective (see section 2A of the Bank of England Act 1998).

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In particular, a notice under subsection (1) or (2) may require the person to notify the Bank if events of a specified kind occur.
- (4) A notice under subsection (1) or (2) may require information to be provided—
 - (a) in a specified form or manner;
 - (b) at, or by, a specified time;
 - (c) in respect of a specified period.
- (5) It is an offence—
 - (a) to fail without reasonable excuse to comply with a requirement under this section;
 - (b) knowingly or recklessly to give false information in pursuance of this section.
- (6) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (c) on summary conviction in Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;
 - (d) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.
- (7) In this section, “specified” means specified in the notice.

206Z4 Disclosure of information

- (1) The Bank of England may disclose information obtained by virtue of section 206Z3 to—
 - (a) the Treasury;
 - (b) the FCA;
 - (c) the PRA;
 - (d) the Mint.
- (2) Subsection (1)—
 - (a) overrides a contractual or other requirement to keep information in confidence, and
 - (b) is without prejudice to any other power to disclose information.
- (3) The Treasury may by regulations—
 - (a) permit the disclosure by the Bank of information obtained by virtue of section 206Z3 to specified persons;
 - (b) permit the publication of specified information and make provision about the manner and extent of publication.
- (4) In subsection (3), “specified” means specified in the regulations.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (3)—
 - (a) are to be made by statutory instrument, and
 - (b) are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

206Z5 Saving for informal oversight

Nothing in this Part prevents the Bank of England—

- (1) from having dealings with persons who are not recognised persons for the purposes of this Part;
 - (a) from having dealings with recognised persons other than through the provisions of this Part.

Companies wholly owned by the Crown

206Z6 Power to disapply regulation and enforcement provisions

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations provide for any provision of sections 206K to 206Z4 not to apply (insofar as it would otherwise do so), or to apply with modifications, in relation to recognised persons that are companies wholly owned by the Crown.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may modify legislation (including any provision of, or made under, this Act).
- (3) In subsection (2)—
 - “legislation” means primary legislation, subordinate legislation (within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978) and retained direct EU legislation, but does not include rules or other instruments made by any regulator;
 - “modify” includes amend, repeal or revoke.
- (4) Before making regulations under this section, the Treasury must consult the Bank of England.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1)—
 - (a) are to be made by statutory instrument, and
 - (b) may not be made unless a draft has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

SCHEDULE 10 U.K.

Section 56

PERFORMANCE OF FUNCTIONS RELATING TO FINANCIAL MARKET INFRASTRUCTURE

PART 1 U.K.

NEW CHAPTER 2A OF PART 18 OF FSMA 2000

- 1 In Part 18 of FSMA 2000 (recognised investment exchanges, clearing houses and CSDs), before Chapter 3B insert—

“CHAPTER 2A U.K.

PERFORMANCE OF FUNCTIONS OF RECOGNISED BODIES

Relevant recognised bodies

309A Recognised bodies to which this Chapter applies

- (1) The Treasury may by regulations specify as a “relevant recognised body” for the purposes of this Chapter a type of recognised body mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) The types of recognised bodies are—
 - (a) recognised investment exchanges;
 - (b) recognised central counterparties;
 - (c) recognised CSDs.
- (3) Before making regulations under subsection (1), the Treasury—
 - (a) must consult the FCA if it proposes to specify recognised investment exchanges (or recognised investment exchanges of a specified description);
 - (b) must consult the Bank of England if it proposes to specify recognised central counterparties or recognised CSDs (or recognised central counterparties or recognised CSDs of a specified description);
 - (c) in any case, must consult such persons as appear to it to be representative of interests likely to be affected by the application of this Chapter to the types, or descriptions, of bodies it proposes to specify.
- (4) In this Chapter, references to “the appropriate regulator” are to be read in accordance with section 285A (accordingly, the appropriate regulator in relation to a recognised investment exchange is the FCA, and in any other case is the Bank of England).
- (5) Nothing in this Chapter applies to overseas investment exchanges.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Prohibition

309B Part 18 prohibition orders

- (1) This section applies if it appears to the appropriate regulator that an individual is not a fit and proper person to perform functions in relation to an activity carried on by a relevant recognised body.
- (2) The appropriate regulator may make an order (a “Part 18 prohibition order”) prohibiting the individual from performing a specified function, any function falling within a specified description or any function.
- (3) A Part 18 prohibition order may relate to—
 - (a) a specified activity, any activity falling within a specified description or all activities (but see subsection (5));
 - (b) all persons falling within subsection (4), or a particular paragraph of that subsection, or all persons within a specified class of person falling within a particular paragraph of that subsection.
- (4) A person falls within this subsection if the person is—
 - (a) a relevant recognised body (whether or not the appropriate regulator making the order is the appropriate regulator in relation to relevant recognised bodies of that type),
 - (b) an authorised person,
 - (c) an exempt person (other than a relevant recognised body), or
 - (d) a person to whom, as a result of Part 20, the general prohibition does not apply in relation to a regulated activity.
- (5) If a Part 18 prohibition order makes provision in relation to a person or persons falling within subsection (4)(b), (c) or (d), subsection (3)(a) applies in relation to such provision as if references to an activity or activities were to a regulated activity or regulated activities.
- (6) In this section, “specified” means specified in the Part 18 prohibition order.

309C Procedure for making Part 18 prohibition orders

- (1) If the appropriate regulator proposes to make a Part 18 prohibition order it must—
 - (a) comply with such consultation requirements as may be prescribed, and
 - (b) give the individual to whom the order would apply a warning notice.
- (2) A warning notice under subsection (1)(b) must set out the terms of the prohibition.
- (3) If the appropriate regulator decides to make a Part 18 prohibition order it must give the individual to whom the order applies a decision notice.
- (4) The decision notice must—
 - (a) name the individual to whom the Part 18 prohibition order applies, and

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(b) set out the terms of the order.

(5) If the appropriate regulator decides to make a Part 18 prohibition order, the individual to whom the order applies may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

309D Varying and withdrawing Part 18 prohibition orders

(1) This section applies where the appropriate regulator has made a Part 18 prohibition order in relation to an individual.

(2) The appropriate regulator may vary or revoke the Part 18 prohibition order on the application of the individual.

(3) Before varying or revoking a Part 18 prohibition order, the appropriate regulator must comply with such consultation requirements as may be prescribed.

(4) On an application for the variation or revocation of a Part 18 prohibition order—

- (a) if the appropriate regulator decides to grant the application, it must give the applicant written notice of its decision;
- (b) if the appropriate regulator proposes to refuse the application, it must give the applicant a warning notice;
- (c) if the appropriate regulator decides to refuse the application, it must give the applicant a decision notice.

(5) If the appropriate regulator gives the applicant a decision notice under subsection (4)(c), the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

309E Offence of breaching prohibition

(1) An individual who performs a function, or agrees to perform a function, in breach of a Part 18 prohibition order is guilty of an offence.

(2) An individual who commits an offence under this section is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to a fine;
- (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale;
- (c) on summary conviction in Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(3) In proceedings for an offence under this section, it is a defence for the individual to show that the individual took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence.

309F Duty in relation to prohibited individuals

(1) A person (“P”) falling within section 309B(4) must take reasonable care to ensure that no function in relation to the carrying on of P’s activities is performed by an individual who is prohibited from performing that function by a Part 18 prohibition order.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A contravention of subsection (1) is actionable at the suit of a private person who suffers loss as a result of the contravention, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty.
- (3) In prescribed cases, a contravention of subsection (1) which would be actionable at the suit of a private person is actionable at the suit of a person who is not a private person, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty.
- (4) In this section “private person” has such meaning as may be prescribed.

Approval

309G Requirement for approval

- (1) A relevant recognised body must take reasonable care to ensure that a person does not perform a designated senior management function in relation to the carrying on of an activity by the body, unless the person is acting in accordance with an approval given by the appropriate regulator under this section.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only in relation to a function performed under—
 - (a) an arrangement entered into by the relevant recognised body, or
 - (b) an arrangement entered into by a contractor of the relevant recognised body.
- (3) “Designated senior management function” means a function of a description specified in rules made by the appropriate regulator.
- (4) The appropriate regulator may specify a description of function under subsection (3) only if it is satisfied that the function is a senior management function.
- (5) A function is a “senior management function” in relation to the carrying on of a relevant recognised body’s activities if—
 - (a) the function will require the person performing it to be responsible for managing one or more aspects of the body’s affairs, and
 - (b) those aspects involve, or might involve, a risk of serious consequences—
 - (i) for the body, or
 - (ii) for business or other interests in the United Kingdom.
- (6) In subsection (5)(a), the reference to managing one or more aspects of a relevant recognised body’s affairs includes a reference to taking decisions, or participating in the taking of decisions, about how one or more aspects of those affairs should be carried on.
- (7) In subsection (2), “arrangement”—
 - (a) means any kind of arrangement for the performance of a function of a relevant recognised body which is entered into by the body, or by a contractor of the body, and another person, and

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) includes, in particular, an arrangement under which the other person is appointed to an office, becomes a partner or is employed (whether under a contract of service or otherwise).

309H Rules under section 309G(3): transitional provision

- (1) In relation to rules made by the Bank of England or the FCA under section 309G(3), the power conferred by section 137T(c) to make transitional provision includes, in particular, power—
 - (a) to provide for anything done under this Chapter, or under Part 5 (performance of regulated activities), in relation to a senior management function of a particular description to be treated as having been done in relation to a senior management function of a different description;
 - (b) to provide for anything done under this Chapter, or under Part 5 (including any application or order made, any requirement imposed and any approval or notice given) to cease to have effect, to continue to have effect, or to continue to have effect with modifications, or subject to time limits or conditions;
 - (c) to provide for rules made by the regulator making the rules under section 309G(3) to apply with modifications;
 - (d) to make saving provision.
- (2) The Treasury may by regulations make whatever incidental, consequential, transitional, supplemental or saving provision the Treasury consider appropriate in connection with the making of rules under section 309G(3).
- (3) Regulations under subsection (2) may—
 - (a) confer functions on the Bank of England or the FCA (including the function of making rules);
 - (b) modify legislation (including any provision of, or made under, this Act).
- (4) In subsection (3)(b)—
 - “legislation” means primary legislation, subordinate legislation (within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978) and retained direct EU legislation, but does not include rules or other instruments made by any regulator;
 - “modify” includes amend, repeal or revoke.

309I Applications for approval

- (1) A relevant recognised body may apply for approval from the appropriate regulator under section 309G for a person to perform a designated senior management function in relation to the carrying on of the body’s activities.
- (2) The application must be made in such manner as the appropriate regulator may direct.
- (3) The application must contain—
 - (a) a statement setting out the aspects of the applicant’s affairs which it is intended that the person will be responsible for managing in performing the function, and

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) such other information as the appropriate regulator may reasonably require.
- (4) A statement provided under subsection (3)(a) is known as a “statement of responsibilities”.
- (5) At any time after the application is received, and before it is determined, the appropriate regulator may require the applicant to provide it with such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application.
- (6) The appropriate regulator may require the applicant to present information provided under this section in such form, or to verify the information in such a way, as the appropriate regulator may direct.
- (7) Different directions may be given, and different requirements may be imposed, in relation to different applications or categories of application.
- (8) In subsection (1), “relevant recognised body” includes—
 - (a) if recognised investment exchanges are a type of recognised body to which this Chapter applies, a person who has applied for recognition as such under section 287;
 - (b) if recognised central counterparties are a type of recognised body to which this Chapter applies, a person who has applied for recognition as such under section 288;
 - (c) if recognised CSDs are a type of recognised body to which this Chapter applies, a person who has applied for recognition as such under section 288A.

309J Vetting by relevant recognised bodies

- (1) Before making an application under section 309I for approval for a person to perform a designated senior management function, a relevant recognised body must be satisfied that the person is a fit and proper person to perform the function.
- (2) In deciding that question, the relevant recognised body must have regard, among other things, to whether the person, or any person who may perform a function on the person’s behalf—
 - (a) has obtained a specified qualification;
 - (b) has undergone, or is undergoing, specified training;
 - (c) possesses a specified level of competence;
 - (d) has specified personal characteristics.
- (3) In subsection (2), “specified” means specified in rules made by the appropriate regulator.
- (4) Before making rules for the purposes of this section, the appropriate regulator must comply with such consultation requirements as may be prescribed.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

309K Determining applications: power to grant approval

- (1) The appropriate regulator may grant an application under section 309I for approval for a person to perform a designated senior management function only if—
 - (a) it is satisfied that the person is a fit and proper person to perform the function, or
 - (b) it is satisfied that the condition in paragraph (a) will be met if the application is granted subject to one or more conditions (see subsection (3)).
- (2) In determining the application, the appropriate regulator may have regard, among other things, to the matters mentioned in section 309J(2) (qualifications etc of person for whom approval sought).
- (3) The appropriate regulator may, if it appears to it that it is desirable to do so in order to advance a relevant objective—
 - (a) grant the application subject to any conditions that it considers appropriate;
 - (b) grant the application so as to give approval only for a limited period.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), “relevant objective” means—
 - (a) if the appropriate regulator is the FCA, any of its operational objectives;
 - (b) if the appropriate regulator is the Bank of England, the Financial Stability Objective.
- (5) Before granting approval under this section (whether or not subject to conditions or for a limited period), the appropriate regulator must comply with such consultation requirements as may be prescribed.

309L Determining applications: period for approval

- (1) The appropriate regulator must, before the end of the period for consideration, determine whether—
 - (a) to grant an application under section 309I for approval for a person to perform a function, without imposing conditions or limiting the period for which the approval has effect, or
 - (b) to give a warning notice under section 309M(2).
- (2) In subsection (1), “the period for consideration” means the period of 3 months beginning with the day on which the appropriate regulator receives the application.

This is subject to subsections (3) and (4).

- (3) Where the application under section 309I is made by a person in reliance on section 309I(8) (applicants for recognition to be treated as relevant recognised bodies), “the period for consideration” means whichever of the following periods ends later—
 - (a) the period described in subsection (2), and

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the period within which the person’s application for recognition must be determined—
 - (i) in the case of an application under section 287, in accordance with section 290(1B);
 - (ii) in the case of an application under section 288, in accordance with Article 17(7) of the EMIR regulation;
 - (iii) in the case of an application under section 288A, in accordance with section 290(4A).

- (4) If the appropriate regulator imposes a requirement under section 309I(5), the period described in subsection (2) stops running on the day on which the requirement is imposed but starts running again—
 - (a) on the day on which the required information is received by the appropriate regulator, or
 - (b) if the information is not provided on a single day, on the last of the days on which it is received by the appropriate regulator.

- (5) An applicant may withdraw an application under section 309I, by giving written notice to the appropriate regulator, at any time before the appropriate regulator determines the application, but only with the consent of—
 - (a) the person in relation to whom the application is made, and
 - (b) the person by whom that person is to be retained to perform the function to which the application relates, if not the applicant.

309M Determining applications: further procedure

- (1) If the appropriate regulator decides to grant an application under section 309I without imposing conditions or limiting the period for which approval is given, it must give written notice of its decision to each of the interested parties.
- (2) If the appropriate regulator proposes to refuse the application, or to grant the application subject to conditions or for a limited period (or both), it must give a warning notice to each of the interested parties.
- (3) If the appropriate regulator decides to refuse the application, or to grant the application subject to conditions or for a limited period (or both), it must give a decision notice to each of the interested parties.
- (4) If the appropriate regulator decides to refuse the application, or to grant the application subject to conditions or for a limited period (or both), each of the interested parties may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (5) In this section, “the interested parties”, in relation to an application under section 309I for approval for a person to perform a function, are—
 - (a) the applicant,
 - (b) the person in relation to whom the application is made, and
 - (c) the person by whom that person is to be retained to perform the function to which the application relates, if not the applicant.

309N Changes in responsibilities

- (1) This section applies where, on an application made by a relevant recognised body under section 309I, the appropriate regulator has given approval for a person to perform a designated senior management function (and has not withdrawn the approval).
- (2) Each time there is a notifiable change in the aspects of the relevant recognised body's affairs which the person is responsible for managing in performing the function, the relevant recognised body must provide the appropriate regulator with a revised statement of responsibilities (see section 309I(4)).
- (3) Whether a change is “notifiable” is to be determined by the relevant recognised body in accordance with rules made by the appropriate regulator.
- (4) The appropriate regulator may require the relevant recognised body to present information provided under this section in such form, or to verify the information in such a way, as the appropriate regulator may direct.

309O Withdrawing approval

- (1) This section applies if an approval under section 309G has been given by the appropriate regulator in relation to the performance by a person of a designated senior management function.
- (2) The appropriate regulator may withdraw the approval if it considers that the person is not a fit and proper person to perform the function.
- (3) In considering whether to withdraw an approval, the appropriate regulator may take into account any matter which may be taken into account in considering an application under section 309I.
- (4) The relevant recognised body on whose application the approval was given must, at specified intervals—
 - (a) consider whether there are grounds on which the appropriate regulator could withdraw the approval under this section, and
 - (b) if it considers that there are such grounds, notify the appropriate regulator of those grounds.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), a “specified interval” is an interval specified in rules made by the appropriate regulator for the purposes of this section.

309P Procedure for withdrawing approval

- (1) If the appropriate regulator proposes to withdraw an approval given under section 309G, it must—
 - (a) comply with such consultation requirements as may be prescribed, and
 - (b) give each of the interested parties a warning notice.
- (2) If the appropriate regulator decides to withdraw the approval, it must give each of the interested parties a decision notice.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) If the appropriate regulator decides to withdraw the approval, each of the interested parties may refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (4) In this section, “the interested parties”, in relation to an approval given under section 309G, are—
 - (a) the relevant recognised body on whose application the approval was given,
 - (b) the person in relation to whom the approval was given, and
 - (c) the person by whom that person’s services are retained, if not the relevant recognised body.

309Q Varying approval at request of relevant recognised body

- (1) Where an approval under section 309G has effect subject to conditions, the relevant recognised body that applied for the approval may apply to the appropriate regulator to vary the approval by—
 - (a) varying a condition,
 - (b) removing a condition, or
 - (c) imposing a new condition.
- (2) Where an approval under section 309G has effect for a limited period, the relevant recognised body that applied for the approval may apply to the appropriate regulator to vary the approval by—
 - (a) varying the period, or
 - (b) removing the limit on the period for which the approval is to have effect.
- (3) The appropriate regulator must, before the end of the consultation period, determine whether—
 - (a) to grant the application, or
 - (b) to give a warning notice under section 309M(2) (as applied by subsection (8)).
- (4) The “consultation period” is—
 - (a) such period as may be prescribed (and different periods may be prescribed in relation to different types of relevant recognised bodies), or
 - (b) if no such period is prescribed, the period of 3 months beginning with the day on which the appropriate regulator receives the application to vary the approval.
- (5) The appropriate regulator may refuse an application under this section, if it appears to it that it is desirable to do so in order to advance a relevant objective.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), “relevant objective” means—
 - (a) if the appropriate regulator is the FCA, any of its operational objectives;
 - (b) if the appropriate regulator is the Bank of England, the Financial Stability Objective.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) An application may not be made under this section to vary or remove a condition or limit that was imposed under section 309Z2.
- (8) Except as provided for below, the following sections apply to an application under this section for variation of an approval as they apply to an application under section 309I—
 - (a) section 309I(2) to (8),
 - (b) section 309L(4) and (5), and
 - (c) section 309M, but as if the references in subsections (1) to (4) to granting the application subject to conditions or for a limited period, or without imposing conditions or limiting the period for which approval is given, were omitted.

309R Varying approval on the appropriate regulator’s initiative

- (1) The appropriate regulator may vary an approval under section 309G if it considers it desirable to do so in order to advance a relevant objective.
- (2) For these purposes, “relevant objective” means—
 - (a) if the appropriate regulator is the FCA, any of its operational objectives;
 - (b) if the appropriate regulator is the Bank of England, the Financial Stability Objective.
- (3) The appropriate regulator may vary the approval by doing the following—
 - (a) imposing a condition,
 - (b) varying a condition,
 - (c) removing a condition,
 - (d) where the approval has effect for an unlimited period, limiting the period of the approval, or
 - (e) where the approval has effect for a limited period, varying that period or removing the limit on the period.
- (4) A variation under this section takes effect—
 - (a) immediately, if the notice given under subsection (5) states that to be the case,
 - (b) on a date specified in the notice, or
 - (c) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.
- (5) If the appropriate regulator proposes to vary an approval or varies an approval with immediate effect, it must give each of the interested parties written notice—
 - (a) setting out details of the variation,
 - (b) stating the reasons for the variation,
 - (c) stating that each of the interested parties may make representations to the appropriate regulator within the period specified in the notice (whether or not any of the interested parties has referred the matter to the Tribunal),
 - (d) stating when the variation takes effect, and

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. - (e) setting out each interested party’s right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (6) A variation may be expressed to take effect immediately or on a specified date only if the appropriate regulator, having regard to its reason for varying the approval, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the variation to take effect immediately or on that date (as appropriate).
- (7) The appropriate regulator may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.
- (8) The appropriate regulator must give each of the interested parties written notice if, having considered the representations made, it decides—
 - (a) to vary the approval, or
 - (b) if the variation has taken effect, not to rescind it.
- (9) A notice under subsection (8) must inform the interested parties of the right of each of them to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (10) The appropriate regulator must give each of the interested parties written notice if, having considered the representations made, it decides—
 - (a) not to vary the approval,
 - (b) to vary the approval in a different way, or
 - (c) if the variation has taken effect, to rescind it.
- (11) A notice under subsection (10)(b) must comply with the requirements set out in subsection (5)(a) to (e).
- (12) A notice under this section which informs the interested parties of the right to refer a matter to the Tribunal must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.
- (13) In this section, “the interested parties” has the same meaning as in section 309P.
- (14) For the purposes of subsection (4)(c), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8).

309S Statement of policy on approval

- (1) The appropriate regulator must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to—
 - (a) the giving of approval under section 309G subject to conditions or for a limited period only, and
 - (b) the variation under section 309Q or 309R of an approval given under section 309G.
- (2) The appropriate regulator—
 - (a) may alter or replace a statement issued under this section, and
 - (b) if it does so, must issue the altered or replacement statement.
- (3) Before the appropriate regulator issues a statement of policy under this section, it must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The draft statement must be accompanied by a notice stating that representations about the proposal may be made to the appropriate regulator within a period specified in the notice.
- (5) Before issuing the proposed statement, the appropriate regulator must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (4).
- (6) If the appropriate regulator issues the proposed statement it must publish the following in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public—
 - (a) the statement,
 - (b) an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it in accordance with subsection (4) and its response to them, and
 - (c) if the statement issued differs from the draft published under subsection (3) in a way which the appropriate regulator considers to be significant, details of the difference.
- (7) The appropriate regulator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with—
 - (a) a copy of a draft statement published under subsection (3), or
 - (b) a copy of a statement published under subsection (6)(a).
- (8) The appropriate regulator must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of each statement it publishes under subsection (6)(a).

309T Breach of statutory duty by relevant recognised bodies

- (1) A contravention of section 309G(1) is actionable at the suit of a private person who suffers loss as a result of the contravention, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty.
- (2) In prescribed cases, a contravention of section 309G(1) which would be actionable at the suit of a private person is actionable at the suit of a person who is not a private person, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty.
- (3) In this section “private person” has such meaning as may be prescribed.

309U Power to impose penalties

- (1) The appropriate regulator may impose a penalty on a person if it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the person has at any time performed a designated senior management function without approval, and
 - (b) at that time the person knew, or could reasonably be expected to have known, that they were performing a designated senior management function without approval.
- (2) The penalty may be of such amount as the appropriate regulator considers appropriate.
- (3) A person performs a designated senior management function without approval at a time if—

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the person performs a designated senior management function under an arrangement entered into by a relevant recognised body, or by a contractor of a relevant recognised body, in relation to the carrying on of an activity by the body, and
 - (b) when performing the function, the person is not acting in accordance with an approval given under section 309G.
- (4) The appropriate regulator may not impose a penalty on a person under this section after the end of the limitation period unless it gave the person a warning notice under section 309V before the end of that period.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)—
- (a) “the limitation period” means the period of 6 years beginning with the first day on which the appropriate regulator knew that the person concerned had performed a designated senior management function without approval, and
 - (b) the appropriate regulator is to be treated as knowing that a person has performed a designated senior management function without approval if it has information from which that can reasonably be inferred.

309V Procedure for imposing penalties

- (1) If the appropriate regulator proposes to impose a penalty on a person under section 309U, it must give the person a warning notice.
- (2) A warning notice under this section must state the amount of the penalty.
- (3) If the appropriate regulator decides to impose a penalty on a person under section 309U, it must give the person a decision notice.
- (4) A decision notice under this section must state the amount of the penalty.
- (5) If the appropriate regulator decides to impose a penalty on a person under section 309U, the person may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

309W Statement of policy on penalties

- (1) The appropriate regulator must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to—
 - (a) the imposition of penalties under section 309U, and
 - (b) the amount of penalties under that section.
- (2) The appropriate regulator’s policy in determining whether a penalty should be imposed, and what the amount of a penalty should be, must include having regard to—
 - (a) the conduct of the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed,
 - (b) the extent to which the person could reasonably be expected to have known that a designated senior management function was performed without approval,
 - (c) the length of the period during which the person performed a designated senior management function without approval, and

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (d) whether the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed is an individual.
- (3) The appropriate regulator's policy in determining whether a penalty should be imposed on a person must also include having regard to the appropriateness of taking action against the person instead of, or in addition to, taking action against a relevant recognised body.
- (4) A statement issued under this section must include an indication of the circumstances in which the appropriate regulator would expect to be satisfied that a person could reasonably be expected to have known that the person was performing a designated senior management function without approval.
- (5) The appropriate regulator—
 - (a) may alter or replace a statement issued under this section, and
 - (b) if it does so, must issue the altered or replacement statement.
- (6) When imposing, or deciding whether to impose, a penalty on a person under section 309U, the appropriate regulator must have regard to any statement of policy published under this section (which was in force at a time when the person performed a designated senior management function without approval).

309X Procedure for statement of policy on penalties

- (1) Before the appropriate regulator issues a statement under section 309W(1) or (5), it must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (2) The draft statement must be accompanied by a notice stating that representations about the proposal may be made to the appropriate regulator within the period specified in the notice.
- (3) Before issuing the proposed statement, the appropriate regulator must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2).
- (4) If the appropriate regulator issues the proposed statement it must publish the following in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public—
 - (a) the statement,
 - (b) an account, in general terms, of the representations made to the appropriate regulator in accordance with subsection (2) and the appropriate regulator's response to them, and
 - (c) if the statement issued differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which the appropriate regulator considers to be significant, details of the difference.
- (5) The appropriate regulator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with—
 - (a) a copy of a draft statement published under subsection (1), or
 - (b) a copy of a statement published under subsection (4)(a).
- (6) The appropriate regulator must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of a statement which it publishes under subsection (4)(a).

Certification of employees

309Y Certification of employees by relevant recognised bodies

- (1) A relevant recognised body must take reasonable care to ensure that none of its employees performs a specified function in relation to the carrying on of an activity by the body, unless the employee has a valid certificate issued by the body under section 309Z.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only in relation to a function performed under an arrangement entered into by the body.
- (3) In this section, “specified function” means a function of a description specified in rules made by the appropriate regulator.
- (4) The appropriate regulator may specify a description of function under subsection (3) only if, in relation to the carrying on of an activity by a relevant recognised body of a particular description—
 - (a) the function is not a designated senior management function in relation to the carrying on of that activity by a relevant recognised body of that description, and
 - (b) the appropriate regulator is satisfied that the function is a significant-harm function.
- (5) A function is a “significant-harm function”, in relation to the carrying on of an activity by a relevant recognised body, if—
 - (a) the function will require the person performing it to be involved in one or more aspects of the body’s affairs, so far as relating to the activity, and
 - (b) those aspects involve, or might involve, a risk of significant harm to the body or to any of its consumers.
- (6) In this section, “consumers”, in relation to a relevant recognised body, means—
 - (a) persons who use, have used or may use a service provided by the body, or
 - (b) persons who have relevant rights or interests in relation to any such service.
- (7) A person (“P”) has a “relevant right or interest” in relation to a service provided by a relevant recognised body if P has a right or interest—
 - (a) which is derived from, or is otherwise attributable to, the use of the service by others, or
 - (b) which may be adversely affected by the use of the service by persons acting on P’s behalf or in a fiduciary capacity in relation to P.
- (8) For these purposes—
 - (a) if a person is providing a service as a trustee, the persons who are, have been or may be beneficiaries of the trust are to be treated as persons who use, have used or may use the service;
 - (b) a person who deals with another person (“A”) in the course of A providing a service is to be treated as using the service.

309Z Issuing certificates

- (1) A relevant recognised body may issue a certificate to a person under this section in relation to a function only if the body is satisfied that the person is a fit and proper person to perform the function.
- (2) In deciding that question the body must have regard, among other things, to whether the person—
 - (a) has obtained a specified qualification,
 - (b) has undergone, or is undergoing, specified training,
 - (c) possesses a specified level of competence, or
 - (d) has specified personal characteristics.
- (3) In subsection (2), “specified” means specified in rules made by the appropriate regulator.
- (4) A certificate issued by a relevant recognised body to a person under this section must—
 - (a) state that the body is satisfied that the person is a fit and proper person to perform the function to which the certificate relates, and
 - (b) set out the aspects of the body’s affairs in which the person will be involved in performing the function.
- (5) A certificate issued under this section is valid for a period of 12 months beginning with the day on which it is issued.
- (6) If, after having considered whether a person is a fit and proper person to perform a function, a relevant recognised body decides not to issue a certificate to the person under this section, the body must give the person a notice in writing stating—
 - (a) what steps (if any) the body proposes to take in relation to the person as a result of the decision, and
 - (b) the reasons for proposing to take those steps.
- (7) A relevant recognised body must maintain a record of every employee who has a valid certificate issued by it under this section.

Rules of conduct

309Z1 Rules of conduct

- (1) If it appears to the appropriate regulator to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of advancing a relevant objective, the appropriate regulator may make rules about the conduct of the following persons in relation to the performance by them of qualifying functions—
 - (a) persons in relation to whom the appropriate regulator has given its approval under section 309G (“Part 18 approved persons”);
 - (b) directors of relevant recognised bodies;
 - (c) employees of relevant recognised bodies.
- (2) Rules under subsection (1) may include provision requiring a relevant recognised body to—

- (a) notify persons mentioned in subsection (1) of the rules that apply to them;
 - (b) take specified steps to secure that such persons understand how those rules apply in relation to them.
- (3) Rules under subsection (1) may include provision requiring a relevant recognised body to notify the appropriate regulator if the body takes specified disciplinary action in relation to a person mentioned in subsection (1).
- (4) In this section—
- “qualifying function” means a function relating to the carrying on of activities by the following—
- (a) in the case of a Part 18 approved person, the relevant recognised body on whose application approval was given;
 - (b) in the case of a director or employee of a relevant recognised body, who is not a Part 18 approved person, the relevant recognised body;
- “relevant objective” means—
- (a) if the appropriate regulator is the FCA, any of its operational objectives;
 - (b) if the appropriate regulator is the Bank of England, the Financial Stability Objective.
- “specified” means specified in the rules.

Disciplinary action by appropriate regulator

309Z2 Power to take disciplinary action for misconduct

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if—
- (a) it appears to the appropriate regulator that a person is guilty of misconduct (see section 309Z3), and
 - (b) the appropriate regulator is satisfied that it is appropriate in all the circumstances to take action against the person.
- (2) The appropriate regulator may do one or more of the following—
- (a) publish a statement of the person’s misconduct;
 - (b) impose a penalty on the person of such amount as the appropriate regulator considers appropriate;
 - (c) suspend an approval of the performance of a function by the person under section 309G for such period as the appropriate regulator considers appropriate;
 - (d) impose such conditions as the appropriate regulator considers appropriate in relation to such an approval for such period as the appropriate regulator considers appropriate;
 - (e) limit the period for which such an approval is to have effect.
- (3) Where the appropriate regulator takes action described in subsection (2) (c), (d) or (e)—
- (a) it may not suspend an approval for more than 2 years;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. - (b) it may not impose conditions which have effect for more than 2 years;
 - (c) it may impose a condition so as to, among other things, require a person to take, or refrain from taking, specified action;
 - (d) it may impose a suspension, condition or limitation that has effect in relation to part of a function.
- (4) The appropriate regulator that has taken action described in subsection (2)(c), (d) or (e) may (at any time)—
- (a) withdraw a suspension, condition or limitation;
 - (b) vary a suspension or condition so as to reduce the period for which it has effect or otherwise to limit its effect;
 - (c) vary a limitation so as to increase the period for which the approval is to have effect.
- (5) The appropriate regulator may not take action under this section after the end of the period of 6 years beginning with the first day on which the appropriate regulator knew of the misconduct unless, before the end of that period, it gave a warning notice to the person concerned under section 309Z4.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the appropriate regulator is to be treated as knowing of misconduct if it has information from which the misconduct can reasonably be inferred.
- (7) When a suspension is in force under subsection (2)(c) in relation to part of a function, the references in section 309G and 309U to the performance of a function include the performance of part of a function.
- (8) If at any time a condition imposed under subsection (2)(d) is contravened, the approval in relation to the person concerned is to be treated for the purposes of sections 309G and 309U as if it had been withdrawn at that time.

309Z3 Meaning of “misconduct”

- (1) For the purposes of section 309Z2, a person is guilty of misconduct if any of conditions A to C is met.
- (2) Condition A is that—
- (a) the person has at any time failed to comply with rules made under section 309Z1, and
 - (b) at that time the person was—
 - (i) a Part 18 approved person,
 - (ii) an employee of a relevant recognised body, or
 - (iii) a director of a relevant recognised body.
- (3) Condition B is that—
- (a) the person has at any time after the passing of this Act been knowingly concerned in a contravention by a relevant recognised body of a relevant requirement, and
 - (b) at that time the person was—
 - (i) a Part 18 approved person in relation to the relevant recognised body,
 - (ii) an employee of the relevant recognised body, or

(iii) a director of the relevant recognised body.

(4) Condition C is that—

- (a) the person has at any time been a Part 18 approved person in relation to a relevant recognised body,
- (b) at that time there was, or continued to be, a contravention by the body of a relevant requirement,
- (c) the person was at that time responsible for the management of any of the body’s activities in relation to which the contravention occurred, and
- (d) the person did not take such steps as a person in that position could reasonably be expected to take to avoid the contravention occurring or continuing.

(5) In this section—

“Part 18 approved person”—

- (a) means a person in relation to whom an approval is given under section 309G, and
- (b) in relation to a relevant recognised body, means a person in relation to whom such approval is given on the application of the relevant recognised body;

“relevant requirement” has the meaning given by section 312E(2) and (3).

309Z4 Procedure for disciplinary action

- (1) If the appropriate regulator proposes to take action against a person under section 309Z2, it must—
 - (a) give the person a warning notice, and
 - (b) in the case of proposed action under section 309Z2(2)(c), (d) or (e), give each of the other interested parties a warning notice.
- (2) A warning notice under this section about a proposal to publish a statement of a person’s misconduct must set out the terms of the statement.
- (3) A warning notice under this section about a proposal to impose a penalty must state the amount of the penalty.
- (4) A warning notice under this section about—
 - (a) a proposal to suspend an approval given under section 309G, or
 - (b) a proposal to impose a condition in relation to such an approval, must state the period for which the suspension or condition is to have effect.
- (5) A warning notice under this section about a proposal to limit the period for which an approval under section 309G is to have effect must state the length of that period.
- (6) If the appropriate regulator decides to take action against a person under section 309Z2, it must—
 - (a) give the person a decision notice, and
 - (b) in the case of proposed action under section 309Z2(2)(c), (d) or (e), give each of the other interested parties a copy of the decision notice.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) A decision notice under this section about the publication of a statement of a person’s misconduct must set out the terms of the statement.
- (8) A decision notice under this section about the imposition of a penalty must state the amount of the penalty.
- (9) A decision notice under this section about—
 - (a) the suspension of an approval given under section 309G, or
 - (b) the imposition of a condition in relation to such an approval,must state the period for which the suspension or condition is to have effect.
- (10) A decision notice under this section about limiting the period for which an approval under section 309G is to have effect must state the length of that period.
- (11) If the appropriate regulator decides to take action against a person under section 309Z2—
 - (a) the person may refer the matter to the Tribunal, and
 - (b) in the case of proposed action under section 309Z2(2)(c), (d) or (e), each of the other interested parties may also refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (12) After a statement of a person’s misconduct is published under section 309Z2, the appropriate regulator must send a copy of it to—
 - (a) the person concerned, and
 - (b) any person to whom a copy of the decision notice was given.
- (13) In this section—

“Part 18 approved person”, in relation to a relevant recognised body, has the meaning given by section 309Z3(5);

“the other interested parties”, in relation to a Part 18 approved person in relation to a relevant recognised body, are—

 - (a) the relevant recognised body, and
 - (b) the person by whom the Part 18 approved person’s services are retained, if different from the relevant recognised body.

309Z5 Statement of policy about disciplinary action

- (1) The appropriate regulator must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to—
 - (a) the imposition of penalties, suspensions, conditions or limitations under section 309Z2,
 - (b) the amount of penalties under that section,
 - (c) the period for which suspensions or conditions under that section are to have effect, and
 - (d) the period for which approvals under section 309G are to have effect as a result of a limitation under section 309Z2.
- (2) The appropriate regulator’s policy in determining what the amount of a penalty should be, or what the period for which a suspension or restriction is to have effect should be, must include having regard to—
 - (a) the seriousness of the misconduct in question,

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the extent to which that misconduct was deliberate or reckless, and
 - (c) whether the person against whom action is to be taken is an individual.
- (3) The appropriate regulator—
- (a) may alter or replace a statement issued under this section, and
 - (b) if it does so, must issue the altered or replacement statement.
- (4) In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power under section 309Z2 in the case of particular misconduct, the appropriate regulator must have regard to any statement of policy published under this section and in force at the time when the misconduct in question occurred.

309Z6 Procedure for statement of policy about disciplinary action

- (1) Before the appropriate regulator issues a statement under section 309Z5(1) or (3), it must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (2) The draft statement must be accompanied by a notice stating that representations about the proposal may be made to the appropriate regulator within a period specified in the notice.
- (3) Before issuing the proposed statement, the appropriate regulator must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with subsection (2).
- (4) If the appropriate regulator issues the proposed statement it must publish the following in the way appearing to the appropriate regulator to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public—
- (a) the statement,
 - (b) an account, in general terms, of the representations made to the appropriate regulator in accordance with subsection (2) and the appropriate regulator’s response to them, and
 - (c) if the statement differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which the appropriate regulator considers significant, details of the difference.
- (5) The appropriate regulator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with—
- (a) a copy of a draft statement published under subsection (1), or
 - (b) a copy of a statement published under subsection (4)(a).
- (6) The appropriate regulator must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement which it publishes under subsection (4)(a).

 - “(i) an individual may not be a fit and proper person to perform functions in relation to an activity carried on by a relevant recognised body;
 - (j) an individual may have performed, or agreed to perform, a function in breach of a Part 18 prohibition order;
 - (k) a relevant recognised body may have failed to comply with section 309F(1);
 - (l) a relevant recognised body may have failed to comply with section 309G(1);
 - (m) a person in relation to whom the Bank has given approval under section 309G may not be a fit and proper person to perform the function to which that approval relates;
 - (n) a person may have performed a designated senior management function without approval under section 309G (see section 309U(3));
 - (o) a person may be guilty of misconduct for the purposes of section 309Z2.”

(4) In paragraph 22 (application of section 347 to the Bank)—

- (a) the words after “etc)” become paragraph (a);
- (b) after that paragraph insert—
 - “(b) so far as it relates to approved persons, applies in relation to the Bank as if references in that section to an approved person were to a person in relation to whom the Bank has given approval under section 309G.”

(5) In paragraph 29 (notices)—

- (a) the words after “(notices) apply” become paragraph (a);
- (b) in that paragraph, after “192L,” insert “309C, 309D, 309M, 309P, 309V, 309Z4,”;
- (c) after that paragraph insert—
 - “(b) in relation to a notice under section 309R(5), (8) or (10)(b) as they apply in relation to such a notice given by the FCA under those provisions.”

(6) In paragraph 31(1) (proceedings for an offence), after paragraph (c) insert—

- “(ca) an offence under section 309E;”.

(7) In paragraph 36 (fees), after sub-paragraph (4) insert—

Section 57

CENTRAL COUNTERPARTIES

VALID FROM 29/08/2023

SCHEDULE 12 U.K.

Section 58

WRITE-DOWN ORDERS

PART 1 U.K.

WRITE-DOWN ORDERS: MAIN PROVISIONS

- 1 (1) Part 24 of FSMA 2000 (insolvency) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 360 (application of Part 2 of 1986 Act or Part 3 of 1989 Order (administration) to insurers), at the end insert—
- “(4) Subsection (5) applies where, by virtue of an order under this section, a person may be appointed as administrator of an insurer.
- (5) While a write-down order under section 377A has effect in relation to an insurer, a person may not be appointed as administrator of the insurer without the consent of the PRA.”
- (3) Omit section 377 (reducing the value of contracts instead of winding up).
- (4) Before section 378 (treatment of assets on winding up) insert—

“377A Write-down orders

- (1) A “write-down order” is an order of the court directing that the value of one or more of an insurer’s liabilities is reduced on such terms as may be specified in the order.
- (2) The court may make a write-down order in relation to an insurer if it is satisfied that—
- the insurer is, or is likely to become, unable to pay its debts (within the meaning given to that expression by section 123 of the 1986 Act or Article 103 of the 1989 Order), and
 - making the order is reasonably likely to lead to a better outcome for the insurer’s policyholders and other creditors (taken as a whole) than not making the order.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A write-down order—
 - (a) takes effect on the later of—
 - (i) the date specified in the order, and
 - (ii) the date on which the appointment of a person to act as the manager of the order first takes effect (see section 377G(7));
 - (b) ceases to have effect in accordance with section 377H;
 - (c) may be revoked or varied in accordance with section 377I.
- (4) A write-down order may not be made in relation to an insurer—
 - (a) which is in administration (within the meaning of Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act or Schedule B1 to the 1989 Order), or
 - (b) which is in liquidation by virtue of—
 - (i) a resolution for voluntary winding up, or
 - (ii) a winding-up order under section 125 of the 1986 Act or Article 105 of the 1989 Order.
- (5) A write-down order may not reduce the value of an excluded liability (within the meaning given by section 377B).
- (6) A liability, to the extent of its reduction by a write-down order under this section, is to be treated as extinguished unless and until revived by section 377H or 377I.
- (7) In this section, “creditor” includes a contingent or prospective creditor.

377B Excluded liabilities

- (1) Each of the following is an “excluded liability”—
 - (a) a liability with an original maturity of less than 7 days;
 - (b) an amount payable in respect of goods delivered, or a service provided, on or after the date on which the write-down order is made;
 - (c) an amount in respect of remuneration or expenses of a person appointed under section 377G to act as the manager of the write-down order (including amounts incurred before, as well as after, the person’s appointment in connection with the order or the application for the order);
 - (d) an amount secured on property of any kind, other than an amount secured by a charge which, as created, was a floating charge;
 - (e) an amount payable in respect of wages or salary arising under a contract of employment;
 - (f) a contribution or other sum payable in respect of an occupational pension scheme;
 - (g) an amount payable in respect of redundancy payments;
 - (h) an amount payable under a contract or other instrument involving financial services.
- (2) In this section—

“contract or other instrument involving financial services” has the meaning given by Schedule ZA2 to the 1986 Act, but does not include an agreement which is, or forms part of, an arrangement involving the issue of a capital market investment (see paragraph 6 of that Schedule);

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“floating charge” has the meaning given by section 251 of the 1986 Act or paragraph (1) of Article 5 of the 1989 Order;

“redundancy payment” means—

- (a) a redundancy payment under Part 11 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 or Part 12 of the Employment Rights (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 (S.I. 1996/1919 (N.I. 16)), or
- (b) a payment made to a person who agrees to the termination of their employment in circumstances where they would have been entitled to a redundancy payment under that Part if dismissed;

“wages or salary” includes—

- (a) a sum payable in respect of a period of holiday;
- (b) a sum payable in respect of a period of absence through illness or other good cause;
- (c) a sum payable in lieu of holiday.

377C Application for a write-down order

- (1) An application to the court for a write-down order in relation to an insurer may be made only by—
 - (a) the Treasury;
 - (b) the PRA;
 - (c) the insurer;
 - (d) a shareholder of the insurer;
 - (e) a policyholder or other creditor (including a contingent or prospective creditor) of the insurer.
- (2) An application for a write-down order may not be withdrawn without the permission of the court.
- (3) A person other than the PRA or the Treasury—
 - (a) must obtain the consent of the PRA before making an application for a write-down order;
 - (b) must notify the PRA before seeking the court’s permission to withdraw an application for a write-down order.
- (4) Consent under subsection (3)—
 - (a) must be in writing, and
 - (b) must be filed with the court with the relevant application.
- (5) The PRA must consult the FCA before—
 - (a) making an application for a write-down order, or
 - (b) giving or refusing consent for a person to make an application for a write-down order.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

377D Powers of the FCA and PRA to participate in proceedings

- (1) This section applies if an application is made to the court for a write-down order.
- (2) The FCA and the PRA are entitled to be heard—
 - (a) at any hearing relating to the application, and
 - (b) if an order is made, at any hearing relating to the order.
- (3) Any notice or other document required to be sent to a creditor of the insurer—
 - (a) in relation to the application, or
 - (b) if an order is made, in relation to the order,must also be sent to the FCA and the PRA.

377E Powers of the court

On an application for a write-down order, the court may—

- (a) if, on hearing the application, it is satisfied of the matters in section 377A(2), make a write-down order in the terms sought, or in such other terms as the court thinks appropriate;
- (b) dismiss the application;
- (c) adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally;
- (d) make any other order which the court thinks appropriate.

377F Duty to notify creditors

- (1) This section applies where a write-down order is made in relation to an insurer.
- (2) As soon as reasonably practicable after the order is made, the insurer must notify the FCA, the PRA and each affected person that the order has been made.
- (3) An “affected person” is a person of a description specified in rules made by the PRA for the purposes of this section.
- (4) Notification under this section—
 - (a) must include such other information as may be specified in rules made by the PRA for the purposes of this section, and
 - (b) must be given in such form and manner as may be specified in rules made by the PRA for the purposes of this section.
- (5) Failure to notify an affected person in accordance with this section, or rules made by the PRA for the purposes of this section, does not affect the validity of the write-down order in relation to that person or any other person.

377G The manager

- (1) The court may by order appoint one or more eligible persons to act as the manager of a write-down order (“the manager”).

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) An order under subsection (1) may—
 - (a) be made at the same time as the write-down order or at a later date (but see section 377A(3)(a));
 - (b) appoint a person in addition to or instead of a person who is for the time being appointed;
 - (c) give such directions about the carrying out of the person’s functions as the manager as the court thinks appropriate.
- (3) The court may by order terminate the appointment of a person who is for the time being appointed to act as the manager of a write-down order.
- (4) Sections 377C and 377D apply to an application to the court for an order under subsection (1) or (3) as they apply to an application for a write-down order but—
 - (a) if the application is for the appointment of a person in addition to, or instead of, a person for the time being appointed, section 377C(1) applies as if the persons mentioned included a person for the time being appointed;
 - (b) section 377C(2) does not apply.
- (5) The court may appoint a person to act as the manager of a write-down order only if—
 - (a) the PRA has provided the court with a statement that the person is suitably qualified, and
 - (b) the person has provided the court with a statement that the person consents so to act.
- (6) Where it is proposed that more than one person should act as the manager, the statement under subsection (5)(b) must specify—
 - (a) which of the functions of the manager (if any) are to be exercised by the persons acting jointly, and
 - (b) which of the functions of the manager (if any) are to be exercised by any or all of the persons.
- (7) The appointment of a person to act as the manager—
 - (a) takes effect at the time specified in the order by which the person is appointed, and
 - (b) ceases to have effect at the time specified in the order by which the person’s appointment is terminated (whether by being replaced by another person or otherwise).
- (8) Schedule 19A makes further provision about the manager of a write-down order.

377H Write-down order ceasing to have effect

- (1) A reduction in the value of a liability of an insurer under a write-down order ceases to have effect—
 - (a) on such date as may be specified in the order (and different dates may be specified in relation to different liabilities or liabilities of different types), or

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) if earlier, or if no such date is specified, the date on which a termination event happens (or, if more than one termination event happens, the earliest of those dates).

(2) In the following table—

- (a) the first column specifies each event which is a termination event for the purposes of this section, and
- (b) the second column specifies, in relation to each termination event, the date on which the event happens for the purposes of this section.

Event	Date event happens
The write-down order being— (a) revoked, or (b) varied so as to remove the liability in question from its scope, by an order under section 377I	(a) The date specified in the order under section 377I as the date on which the revocation or variation is to take effect, or (b) if no date is specified, the date on which the order under section 377I is made
The insurer ceasing to have permission under Part 4A to carry out contracts of insurance	The date on which the withdrawal of permission takes effect
The transfer of the liability in question pursuant to an insurance business transfer scheme which has effect in accordance with an order under section 111(1)	The date on which the transfer takes effect
The making of a winding-up order against the insurer	The date on which the order is made
The voluntary winding up of the insurer	The date on which the liquidator is appointed
The coming into force of a voluntary arrangement (under Part 1 of the 1986 Act or Part 2 of the 1989 Order) in relation to the insurer	The date on which the voluntary arrangement comes into force
The insurer entering administration	The date on which the appointment of an administrator takes effect.

- (3) Where a write-down order is varied, this section applies as if references to the write-down order were to the order as varied.

377I Variation or revocation of a write-down order

- (1) The court may, by order—
- (a) revoke a write-down order, or
- (b) vary (or further vary) a write-down order.
- (2) Section 377A(2)(b) applies to the making of an order under this section as it applies to the making of the write-down order.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In varying (or further varying) a write-down order the court may, in particular—
- (a) remove one or more of the insurer’s liabilities from the scope of the order (but removing all such liabilities from the scope of the order takes effect as a termination of the order);
 - (b) bring one or more of the insurer’s liabilities within the scope of the order (on such terms as the court may specify);
 - (c) further reduce the value of one or more of the insurer’s liabilities;
 - (d) increase the value of one or more of the insurer’s liabilities to any amount less than the value the liability had before the write-down order took effect;
 - (e) vary any term specified in the order, including the period for which a reduction in the value of a liability has effect;
 - (f) make any other order that the court thinks appropriate.
- (4) Sections 377C to 377F apply to an application for an order under this section as they apply to an application for a write-down order but with the following modifications—
- (a) section 377C(1) applies as if the list of persons entitled to make an application included—
 - (i) the FCA;
 - (ii) the scheme manager of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (see section 212(1));
 - (iii) a person appointed under section 377G to act as the manager of the write-down order;
 - (b) if the person making the application is the scheme manager of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, section 377C(3) does not apply.
- (5) The scheme manager of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme must consult the FCA and the PRA before making an application to vary or revoke a write-down order.
- (6) Where a provisional liquidator of the insurer has been appointed under section 135 of the 1986 Act or Article 115 of the 1989 Order, a person appointed to act as the manager of a write-down order must obtain the consent of the provisional liquidator before making an application for an order under this section.

377J Further provision about write-down orders

In Schedule 19B—

- (a) Part 1 makes provision about the enforcement of a liability of an insurer while a write-down order has effect;
- (b) Part 2 makes provision about the disposal of an insurer’s assets and the making of certain payments by an insurer while a write-down order has effect;
- (c) Part 3 makes provision about the treatment of an insurer’s liabilities for the purposes of certain provisions relating to insolvency while a write-down order has effect;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) Part 4 makes provision about interest payable in respect of liabilities reduced under a write-down order or prevented from being enforced while a write-down order has effect.”

PART 2 U.K.

THE MANAGER OF A WRITE-DOWN ORDER

2 After Schedule 19 to FSMA 2000 (competition information), insert—

“SCHEDULE Section 377G
19A U.K.”

THE MANAGER OF A WRITE-DOWN ORDER

Application of Schedule

- 1 (1) This Schedule applies where—
- (a) a write-down order has been made under section 377A in relation to an insurer, and
 - (b) one or more persons have been appointed under section 377G to act as the manager of the order.
- (2) Where only one person acts as the manager, a reference in this Schedule to “the manager” is to that person.
- (3) Where two or more persons act jointly as the manager—
- (a) a reference in this Schedule to the manager is a reference to those persons acting jointly;
 - (b) where an offence of omission is committed by the manager, each of the persons appointed to act jointly—
 - (i) commits the offence, and
 - (ii) may be proceeded against and punished individually.
- (4) Where persons act jointly in respect of only some of the functions of the manager, sub-paragraph (3) applies only in relation to those functions.
- (5) Where two or more persons act concurrently as the manager, a reference in this Schedule to the manager is a reference to any of the persons appointed (or any combination of them).
- (6) In this Schedule, “creditor” includes a contingent or prospective creditor.

Status of the manager

- 2 The manager is an officer of the court.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Monitoring the insurer's affairs

- 3
- (1) The manager must monitor the insurer's affairs for the purpose of forming a view as to whether—
 - (a) it remains the case that the write-down order is reasonably likely to lead to a better outcome for the insurer's policyholders and other creditors (taken as a whole) than if the write-down order were not in effect, or
 - (b) that will remain the case, or once again be the case, if the directors of the insurer were to take certain action or refrain from taking certain action.
 - (2) If the manager forms the view mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(b), the manager may make such recommendations to the directors of the insurer as the manager thinks appropriate.
 - (3) In forming a view mentioned in sub-paragraph (1), the manager is entitled to rely on information provided by the insurer, unless the manager has reason to doubt its accuracy.
 - (4) If directed to do so by the FCA or the PRA, the manager must provide a report to that regulator on such matters relating to the insurer's affairs, and at such intervals, as that regulator may specify.

Application by manager to revoke or vary a write-down order

- 4
- (1) This paragraph applies if the manager forms the view that it is in the interests of the insurer's policyholders and other creditors (taken as a whole) for the write-down order to be—
 - (a) revoked, or
 - (b) varied in one or more respects.
 - (2) The manager must apply to the court for such orders (whether under section 377I or otherwise) as the manager thinks likely to achieve the best outcome for the insurer's policyholders and other creditors (taken as a whole).
 - (3) In forming the view mentioned in sub-paragraph (1), the manager may have regard, among other things—
 - (a) to whether recommendations under paragraph 3(2) have been made (and if so, whether they have been acted upon);
 - (b) to whether recommendations, or further recommendations, under paragraph 3(2) could be made (and if so, the likelihood that they will be acted upon).

Provision of information and assistance to the manager

- 5
- (1) The manager may require a relevant person to provide such information or assistance as the manager may reasonably require for the purpose of carrying out the manager's functions.
 - (2) Each of the following is a "relevant person" for these purposes—

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a director of the insurer, or of a body corporate in the same group as the insurer;
 - (b) an employee of the insurer, or of a body corporate in the same group as the insurer;
 - (c) a person providing a service to the insurer, or to a body corporate in the same group as the insurer;
 - (d) a person who has at any relevant time been a person falling within paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (3) A relevant person must comply with a requirement under this paragraph to provide information as soon as is practicable.
- (4) The obligation imposed by sub-paragraph (3) is enforceable, on the application of the manager—
- (a) by an injunction, or
 - (b) in Scotland, by an order for specific performance under section 45 of the Court of Session Act 1988.

Application by manager for directions

- 6 The manager may apply to the court for directions about the carrying out of the manager's functions.

Challenges to the manager's actions

- 7 (1) Any of the following persons may apply to the court on the ground that an act, omission or decision of the manager has unfairly harmed the interests of the applicant—
- (a) a director of the insurer;
 - (b) a shareholder of the insurer;
 - (c) a policyholder or other creditor of the insurer;
 - (d) any other person affected by the write-down order.
- (2) Any of the following persons may apply to the court on the ground that an act, omission or decision of the manager is not in the interests of the insurer's policyholders and other creditors (taken as a whole)—
- (a) the FCA;
 - (b) the PRA;
 - (c) the scheme manager of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (see section 212(1));
 - (d) a provisional liquidator of the insurer.
- (3) Before making an application under sub-paragraph (2)—
- (a) the FCA must consult the PRA;
 - (b) the PRA must consult the FCA;
 - (c) the scheme manager of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme must notify the FCA and the PRA.
- (4) On an application under this paragraph the court may—
- (a) confirm, reverse or modify any act or decision of the manager,

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) give the manager directions, or
 - (c) make such other order as the court thinks appropriate (but may not, under this paragraph, order the manager to pay any compensation).
- (5) Where an application under this paragraph relates to a failure by the manager to apply to the court for the variation or termination of the write-down order, the court may treat the application as an application for an order under section 377I made by a person entitled to apply for an order under that section.”

PART 3 U.K.

FURTHER PROVISION ABOUT WRITE-DOWN ORDERS

3 After Schedule 19A to FSMA 2000 (the manager of a write-down order), inserted by Part 2 of this Schedule, insert—

“SCHEDULE Section 377J
 19B U.K.”

FURTHER PROVISION ABOUT WRITE-DOWN ORDERS

PART 1 U.K.

RESTRICTIONS ON ENFORCEMENT

Application of this Part of this Schedule

- 1 (1) This Part of this Schedule applies in relation to an insurer—
- (a) during the period—
 - (i) beginning with the date on which an application is made for a write-down order in relation to the insurer, and
 - (ii) ending with the date on which the order is made or the application is withdrawn or dismissed;
 - (b) during the period—
 - (i) beginning with the date on which a write-down order is made in relation to the insurer, and
 - (ii) ending with the last day of the period of six months beginning with the day on which the write-down order takes effect (see section 377A(3)(a));
 - (c) during such further period as the court may order.
- (2) This Part of this Schedule ceases to apply—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) where the court orders that it should cease to apply (and in accordance with the terms of the order), or
 - (b) where the write-down order ceases to have effect (because, in accordance with section 377H, each reduction in the value of a liability of the insurer ceases to have effect).
- (3) The court—
- (a) may make an order under sub-paragraph (1)(c) or (2)(a) only on an application by a person mentioned in sub-paragraph (4);
 - (b) may not specify in an order under sub-paragraph (1)(c) a period longer than six months (but may make one or more further such orders).
- (4) The persons are—
- (a) a person entitled to make an application for a write-down order in relation to the insurer (see section 377C(1));
 - (b) a person appointed under section 377G to act as the manager of the write-down order;
 - (c) a provisional liquidator of the insurer;
 - (d) the FCA.
- (5) Before making an application for an order under this Part of this Schedule—
- (a) a person other than the PRA or the Treasury must consult the PRA;
 - (b) the PRA must consult the FCA.

Moratorium on proceedings

- 2 (1) Where this Part of this Schedule applies in relation to an insurer, except with the permission of the court—
- (a) no step may be taken to enforce security over the insurer's property;
 - (b) no step may be taken to repossess goods in the insurer's possession under a hire-purchase agreement;
 - (c) a landlord may not exercise a right of forfeiture by peaceable re-entry in relation to premises let to the insurer;
 - (d) in Scotland, a landlord may not exercise a right of irritancy in relation to premises let to the insurer;
 - (e) no legal process (including legal proceedings, execution, distress or diligence) may be instituted, carried out or continued against the insurer or its property.
- (2) Where the court gives permission for something to be done that would otherwise be prevented by this paragraph, it may impose a condition on, or a requirement in connection with, the permission.
- (3) In this paragraph, "landlord" includes a person to whom rent is payable.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Exceptions

- 3 (1) This Part of this Schedule does not apply in relation to—
- (a) arrangements entered into after the date on which this Part of this Schedule first applied in relation to the insurer;
 - (b) employment tribunal proceedings or any legal process arising out of such proceedings;
 - (c) proceedings, not within paragraph (b), involving a claim between an employer and a worker.
- (2) Nothing in this Part of this Schedule—
- (a) prevents the FCA or the PRA from exercising a function it has in relation to the insurer or any other person;
 - (b) prevents a consumer from taking steps to enforce a money award or direction under section 229 or 404B.
- (3) Nothing in this Part of this Schedule affects the operation of—
- (a) Part 7 of the Companies Act 1989 (financial markets and insolvency);
 - (b) the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1996 (S.I. 1996/1469);
 - (c) the Financial Markets and Insolvency (Settlement Finality) Regulations 1999 (S.I. 1999/2979);
 - (d) the Financial Collateral Arrangements (No.2) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/3226).
- (4) The Treasury may by regulations amend sub-paragraph (3).
- (5) In this paragraph—
- “agency worker” has the meaning given by section 13(2) of the Employment Relations Act 1999;
- “arrangements” includes any agreement, understanding, scheme, transaction or series of transactions;
- “employer”—
- (a) in relation to an agency worker, has the meaning given by section 13(2) of the Employment Relations Act 1999;
 - (b) otherwise, has the meaning given by section 230(4) of the Employment Rights Act 1996;
- “worker” means an individual who is—
- (a) a worker within the meaning of section 230(3) of the Employment Rights Act 1996, or
 - (b) an agency worker.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

PART 2 U.K.

DEALING WITH ASSETS ETC

Application of this Part of this Schedule

- 4 This Part of this Schedule applies while a write-down order has effect in relation to one or more liabilities of an insurer.

Dealing with assets

- 5 The insurer may not dispose of, or otherwise deal with, any of its assets (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) except—
- (a) in the ordinary way of the insurer’s business, or
 - (b) with the consent of the PRA.

Paying variable remuneration

- 6 The insurer may not pay variable remuneration that is not regulated by a collective bargaining agreement, except with the consent of the PRA.

Distributions

- 7 The insurer may not make a distribution, within the meaning of Part 23 of the Companies Act 2006, except with the consent of the PRA.

PART 3 U.K.

TREATMENT OF WRITTEN-DOWN LIABILITIES FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES

Application of this Part of this Schedule

- 8 (1) This Part of this Schedule applies in relation to a liability of an insurer while the value of the liability is reduced under a write-down order.
- (2) Where the write-down order is varied, this Part of this Schedule applies as if references to the write-down order were to the order as varied.

Relevant insolvency provisions

- 9 (1) In determining the value of the liability for the purposes of a relevant insolvency provision, no account is to be taken of the contingent or prospective value of the liability, or interest on the liability, arising from any expectation that the write-down order will be varied, further varied or cease to have effect (whether in relation to the liability or generally).
- (2) The relevant insolvency provisions are—

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) section 123 of the 1986 Act or Article 103 of the 1989 Order, or any statutory provision which applies that section or that Article;
 - (b) Article 11 of Commission Delegated Regulation \(EU\) 2015/35 of 10 October 2014 supplementing Directive 2009/138/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the taking-up and pursuit of the business of Insurance and Reinsurance (Solvency 2);
 - (c) PRA rules applicable to non-directive insurers, within the meaning given by the Rulebook made by the PRA under this Act (as that Rulebook has effect from time to time).
- (3) The Treasury may by regulations amend sub-paragraph (2).

Reinsurance contracts

- 10 (1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) the liability is a liability under a contract of insurance the insurer carries out as principal (“contract A”), and
 - (b) the insurer enters into a reinsurance contract under which contract A, or any liability under contract A, is reinsured (“contract B”).
- (2) In determining the value of the liability for the purposes of contract B, no account is to be taken of the reduction in value of the liability under the write-down order.

PART 4 U.K.

INTEREST

- 11 (1) This Part of this Schedule applies where—
- (a) the value of a liability of an insurer is reduced under a write-down order,
 - (b) while the write-down order has effect in relation to the liability, an amount of the liability is due and payable (or would be due and payable but for the write-down order), and
 - (c) the amount remains due and payable after the reduction ceases to have effect.
- (2) The amount carries statutory interest, within the meaning of the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998, for the period—
- (a) beginning with the date on which the write-down order took effect or, if later, the date on which the amount became due and payable (or would have become due and payable but for the write-down order), and
 - (b) ending with the day on which the amount is paid.
- (3) Where a write-down order is varied, this section applies as if references to the write-down order were to the order as varied.”

WRITE-DOWN ORDERS: FINANCIAL SERVICES COMPENSATION SCHEME

4 Part 15 of FSMA 2000 (the Financial Services Compensation Scheme) is amended as follows.

Commencement Information

I461 Sch. 12 para. 4 in force at 29.8.2023, see s. 86\(2\)\(e\)

5 After section 217 (insurers in financial difficulties) insert—

“217ZA Insurers subject to write-down orders

- (1) The compensation scheme must include provision requiring the scheme manager to take specified measures for safeguarding policyholders affected by write-down orders.
- (2) A person (“P”) is a policyholder affected by a write-down order if—
 - (a) P is a policyholder of an insurer in respect of whom a write-down order has effect, and
 - (b) the value of any thing to which P is (or may become) entitled, in P’s capacity as a policyholder of the insurer, is reduced under the write-down order.
- (3) Measures specified by virtue of subsection (1) must, in particular, require financial assistance to be given to insurers subject to write-down orders for the purpose mentioned in subsection (4).
- (4) The purpose is to enable payments to be made to affected policyholders in respect of the reduction in value of their entitlements (or contingent entitlements), as mentioned in subsection (2)(b).
- (5) Financial assistance given under this section—
 - (a) must not be used for any purpose other than the purpose mentioned in subsection (4);
 - (b) is not to be taken into account, to any extent, in valuing the assets of the insurer for any purpose.
- (6) Measures taken by the scheme manager by virtue of this section are in addition to any measures the scheme manager may take under powers provided by virtue of section 217(1).
- (7) In this section and section 217ZB—

“insurer” means a relevant person who has permission to carry out contracts of insurance;

“write-down order” means an order under section 377A (as it has effect in accordance with section 377H).

217ZB Recovery of financial assistance under section 217ZA

- (1) The compensation scheme may make provision giving the scheme manager a right of recovery in respect of financial assistance given to an insurer by virtue of section 217ZA.
- (2) Any right of recovery the scheme manager has in respect of financial assistance given to an insurer by virtue of subsection (1) must not be exercised against a policyholder of the insurer.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies where, by virtue of subsection (1), the scheme manager has a right of recovery in respect of financial assistance given to an insurer.
- (4) In valuing the insurer’s liabilities for the purposes of a relevant insolvency provision, no account is to be taken of any expectation that the right will be exercised.
- (5) In subsection (4), “relevant insolvency provision” has the same meaning as in paragraph 9 of Schedule 19B (treatment of written-down liabilities for purposes of relevant insolvency provisions).”

“SCHEDULE
19C U.K.”

Section 377K

INSURERS IN FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES: ENFORCEMENT OF CONTRACTS

PART 1 U.K.

INTRODUCTORY

Application of this Schedule

- 1 This Schedule applies in relation to an insurer while the insurer is in financial difficulties.

“Financial difficulties”

- 2 (1) An insurer is in “financial difficulties” for the purposes of this Schedule if—
 - (a) Part 1 of Schedule 19B (write-down orders: restrictions on enforcement) has effect in relation to the insurer (see paragraph 1(1) and (2) of that Schedule);
 - (b) the insurer is in administration, within the meaning of Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act or Schedule B1 to the 1989 Order, or awaiting administration;
 - (c) a petition for the winding up of the insurer has been presented and has not been withdrawn or determined.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b), an insurer is awaiting administration while an application for an administration order in respect of the insurer has been made to the court and—
 - (a) the application has not yet been granted or dismissed, or
 - (b) the application has been granted but the administration order has not yet taken effect.
- (3) For the purposes of this Schedule, an insurer “enters into financial difficulties”—
 - (a) in a case to which sub-paragraph (1)(a) applies, on the date on which Part 1 of Schedule 19B first has effect in relation to the insurer;
 - (b) in a case to which sub-paragraph (1)(b) applies, on the date on which the application for the administration order is made to the court;
 - (c) in a case to which sub-paragraph (1)(c) applies, on the date on which the winding-up petition is presented.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

PART 2 U.K.

POLICYHOLDER SURRENDER RIGHTS

Restriction on policyholder surrender rights

- 3 (1) Where this Schedule applies in relation to an insurer, the total value of a policyholder's rights under a relevant contract of insurance which the policyholder may surrender in a relevant period must not exceed the surrender limit for that period.
- (2) For these purposes—
- “relevant contract of insurance” means a contract of long-term insurance which is not a contract in respect of which the following conditions are met—
- (a) the benefits under the contract are payable only on death or in respect of incapacity due to injury, sickness or infirmity;
 - (b) the contract has no surrender value, or the consideration consists of a single premium and the surrender value does not exceed that premium;
 - (c) the contract makes no provision for its conversion or extension in a manner which would result in it ceasing to comply with either of the above conditions;
- “relevant period” means—
- (a) the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which the insurer entered into financial difficulties, and
 - (b) each subsequent period of 12 months;
- “surrender limit”, in relation to a relevant contract of insurance and relevant period, is an amount equal to 5% of the total surrender value of the contract on the day on which the relevant period began.

Switching rights

- 4 (1) This paragraph applies where the value of a right under a relevant contract of insurance is wholly or partly determined by reference to property of any description.
- (2) The reference in paragraph 3(1) to the surrender of rights by a policyholder includes the exercise by the policyholder of a contractual right to change the property by reference to which the value of a right is (wholly or partly) determined.

Consent to exceed surrender limit

- 5 (1) Paragraph 3(1) does not apply if, or to the extent that, consent for the surrender of an amount that would exceed the surrender limit for the relevant period has been given by—
- (a) the court,

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) a relevant office-holder, or
 - (c) where there is no relevant office-holder, the insurer.
- (2) For these purposes, “relevant office-holder” means—
- (a) a provisional liquidator of the insurer;
 - (b) an administrator of the insurer;
 - (c) a person appointed to act as the manager of a write-down order that has effect in relation to the insurer.
- (3) The court, a relevant office-holder or the insurer (as the case may be) may give consent under sub-paragraph (1) only if satisfied that not doing so would cause the policyholder hardship.
- (4) Where a provisional liquidator of an insurer has been appointed, the manager of a write-down order that has effect in relation to the insurer must obtain the consent of the provisional liquidator before giving consent under sub-paragraph (1).
- (5) As soon as reasonably practicable after giving consent under sub-paragraph (1), a relevant office-holder or the insurer must notify the PRA.

PART 3 U.K.

TERMINATION ETC OF RELEVANT CONTRACTS

Relevant contracts

- 6 (1) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule, a contract to which an insurer is a party is a “relevant contract” if it is—
- (a) a contract for the supply of goods or services to the insurer,
 - (b) a financial contract, or
 - (c) a reinsurance contract under which contracts of insurance the insurer carries out as principal are reinsured.
- (2) “Financial contract” means—
- (a) a contract for the provision of financial services consisting of—
 - (i) lending (including the factoring and financing of commercial transactions),
 - (ii) financial leasing, or
 - (iii) providing guarantees or commitments;
 - (b) a securities contract, including—
 - (i) a contract for the purchase, sale or loan of a security or group or index of securities;
 - (ii) an option on a security or group or index of securities;
 - (iii) a repurchase or reverse repurchase transaction on any such security, group or index;
 - (c) a commodities contract, including—

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) a contract for the purchase, sale or loan of a commodity or group or index of commodities for future delivery;
- (ii) an option on a commodity or group or index of commodities;
- (iii) a repurchase or reverse repurchase transaction on any such commodity, group or index;
- (d) a futures or forwards contract, including a contract (other than a commodities contract) for the purchase, sale or transfer of a commodity or property of any other description, service, right or interest for a specified price at a future date;
- (e) a swap agreement, including—
 - (i) a swap or option relating to interest rates, spot or other foreign exchange agreements, currency, an equity index or equity, a debt index or debt, commodity indexes or commodities, weather, emissions or inflation;
 - (ii) a total return, credit spread or credit swap;
 - (iii) any agreement or transaction similar to an agreement that is referred to in sub-paragraph (i) or (ii) and is the subject of recurrent dealing in the swaps or derivatives markets.
- (3) But a master agreement for any contract or agreement referred to in sub-paragraph (2) is not a relevant contract for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule.
- (4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2), “commodities” includes—
 - (a) units recognised for compliance with the requirements of EU Directive 2003/87/EC establishing a scheme for greenhouse gas emission allowance trading,
 - (b) allowances under paragraph 5 of Schedule 2 to the Climate Change Act 2008 relating to a trading scheme dealt with under Part 1 of that Schedule (schemes limiting activities relating to emissions of greenhouse gas), and
 - (c) renewables obligation certificates issued—
 - (i) by the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority under an order made under section 32B of the Electricity Act 1989, or
 - (ii) by the Northern Ireland Authority for Utility Regulation under the Energy (Northern Ireland) Order 2003 (S.I. 2003/419 \(N.I. 6\)) and pursuant to an order made under Articles 52 to 55F of that Order.

Restriction on termination etc

- 7 (1) Where this Schedule applies in relation to an insurer, a provision of a relevant contract, entered into by the insurer before the insurer first enters into financial difficulties, ceases to have effect if, and to the extent that, under the provision—

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the contract would terminate, a supply would cease, or any other thing would occur, because the insurer is in financial difficulties, or
 - (b) another party to the contract would be entitled to terminate the contract, cease a supply, or do any other thing, because the insurer is in financial difficulties.
- (2) Where—
- (a) under a provision of a relevant contract, another party to the contract is entitled to terminate the contract, cease a supply, or do any other thing because of an event occurring before the insurer was in financial difficulties, and
 - (b) the entitlement arises before the insurer was in financial difficulties,
- the entitlement may not be exercised while the insurer is in financial difficulties.
- (3) A supplier of goods or services to an insurer must not—
- (a) make it a condition of a supply of goods or services, while the insurer is in financial difficulties, that any outstanding charges in respect of a supply made to the insurer before the insurer is in financial difficulties are paid, or
 - (b) do anything which has that effect.

Consent to terminate relevant contracts

- 8 (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where—
- (a) a provision of a relevant contract ceases to have effect under paragraph 7(1), or
 - (b) an entitlement under a provision of a relevant contract is not exercisable under paragraph 7(2).
- (2) A party to the contract (other than the insurer) may terminate the contract, or do another thing in relation to the contract, if consent to terminate the contract or do that other thing (as the case may be) has been given by—
- (a) the court,
 - (b) a relevant office holder, or
 - (c) where there is no relevant office-holder, the insurer.
- (3) For these purposes, “relevant office-holder” means an administrator or provisional liquidator of the insurer (but does not include a person appointed to act as the manager of a write-down order that has effect in relation to the insurer).
- (4) The court, a relevant office-holder or the insurer (as the case may be) may give consent under sub-paragraph (2) only if satisfied that not doing so would cause hardship to any person.
- (5) As soon as reasonably practicable after giving consent under sub-paragraph (2), a relevant office-holder or the insurer must notify the PRA.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

PART 4 U.K.

EXCLUSIONS AND DISAPPLICATION OF THIS SCHEDULE

Exclusions

- 9 (1) Nothing in this Schedule affects the operation of—
- (a) Part 7 of the Companies Act 1989 (financial markets and insolvency);
 - (b) the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1996 (S.I. 1996/1469);
 - (c) the Financial Markets and Insolvency (Settlement Finality) Regulations 1999 (S.I. 1999/2979);
 - (d) the Financial Collateral Arrangements (No.2) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/3226).
- (2) Nothing in this Schedule affects any protected arrangements within the meaning of section 48P of the Banking Act 2009.

Disapplication of this Schedule by the court

- 10 (1) The court may order that this Schedule, or a specified provision of this Schedule—
- (a) does not apply (insofar as it would otherwise) in relation to one or more contracts to which the insurer is a party, or
 - (b) applies with specified modifications in relation to one or more such contracts.
- (2) An order under this paragraph—
- (a) must specify the contracts to which it applies;
 - (b) may specify all of the contracts to which the insurer is a party (and to which one or more provisions of this Schedule would otherwise apply).
- (3) For the purposes of an order under this paragraph—
- “contract” includes a contract of insurance;
 - “specified” means specified or described in the order.
- (4) The court may make an order under this paragraph only if satisfied that one or more of the following grounds is made out—
- (a) not making the order would be likely to cause hardship to any person (other than the insurer);
 - (b) where the insurer is in financial difficulties by virtue of paragraph 2(1)(a) (write-down order), making the order is reasonably likely to lead to a better outcome for the insurer’s policyholders and other creditors (taken as a whole) than not making the order;
 - (c) where the insurer is in financial difficulties by virtue of paragraph 2(1)(b) (administration), making the order is reasonably likely to promote the purpose of administration.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

(5) The “purpose of administration” means—

- (a) where the insurer is in, or is awaiting, administration under Part 2 of the 1986 Act (as modified, in relation to insurers, by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Administration Orders Relating to Insurers) Order 2010 (S.I. 2010/3023)), an objective specified in paragraph 3 or 3A of Schedule B1 to the 1986 Act;
- (b) where the insurer is in, or is awaiting, administration under Part 3 of the 1989 Order (as modified, in relation to insurers, by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Administration Orders Relating to Insurers) (Northern Ireland) Order 2007 (S.I. 2007/846)), an objective specified in paragraph 4 of Schedule B1 to the 1989 Order.

Procedure

11 (1) An order under paragraph 10 may be made on the court’s own motion or on an application by—

- (a) where the insurer is in financial difficulties by virtue of paragraph 2(1)(a) (write-down order), a person mentioned in paragraph 1(4) of Schedule 19B;
- (b) where the insurer is in financial difficulties by virtue of paragraph 2(1)(b) (administration), a person mentioned in sub-paragraph (2);
- (c) where the insurer is in financial difficulties by virtue of paragraph 2(1)(c) (winding up), a person entitled to petition for the winding up of the insurer;
- (d) a provisional liquidator of the insurer;
- (e) the FCA.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b), the persons are—

- (a) where an administrator has been appointed, the administrator;
- (b) where the insurer is in, or is awaiting, administration under Part 2 of the 1986 Act, a person mentioned in paragraph 12(1) of Schedule B1 to that Act;
- (c) where the insurer is in, or is awaiting, administration under Part 3 of the 1989 Order, a person mentioned in paragraph 13(1) of Schedule B1 to that Order.

(3) Before making an application for an order under paragraph 10—

- (a) a person other than a person mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) must obtain the consent of the PRA;
- (b) a person mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) must consult the PRA.

(4) The persons mentioned in this sub-paragraph are—

- (a) the FCA;
- (b) an administrator of the insurer;
- (c) a provisional liquidator of the insurer;

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) a person appointed to act as the manager of the write-down order by virtue of which the insurer is in financial difficulties for the purposes of this Schedule.
- (5) Consent under sub-paragraph (3)(a)—
 - (a) must be in writing, and
 - (b) must be filed with the court with the relevant application.
- (6) The PRA must consult the FCA before giving or refusing consent under sub-paragraph (3)(a).

PART 5 U.K.

POWERS TO AMEND THIS SCHEDULE

- 12 The Treasury may by regulations amend this Schedule so as to—
- (a) vary or omit any of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of paragraph 2(1);
 - (b) change the percentage figure specified in the definition of “surrender limit” in paragraph 3(2);
 - (c) amend paragraph 6 (meaning of “relevant contract”);
 - (d) amend paragraph 9 (exclusions from the operation of this Schedule).”

Commencement Information

1478 Sch. 14 para. 7 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86(3)

Conditional sale and hire purchase agreements

8 Before section 12 (power to hold land for limited purposes) insert—

“11E Conditional sale and hire purchase agreements

- (1) If the objects of a credit union include the optional object specified in section 1(3ZZA) it may (subject to such terms, including as to security, as its rules may provide)—
 - (a) enter into a conditional sale agreement, as the seller, with a member of the credit union, or
 - (b) enter into a hire purchase agreement, as the person from whom goods are bailed or (in Scotland) hired, with a member of the credit union.
- (2) A credit union may only enter into an agreement mentioned in subsection (1) with a corporate member if—
 - (a) the credit union’s rules provide that it may do so, and
 - (b) entering into the agreement would not result in the aggregate of the outstanding balances under all such agreements made by the credit union with corporate members exceeding 10% of the aggregate of the outstanding balances under all such agreements made by the credit union with members, or such higher percentage as may be specified in regulations made by the Treasury.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies where—
 - (a) an agreement mentioned in subsection (1) is entered into by a credit union with a member, and
 - (b) the agreement is not a secured agreement within the meaning of section 11F.
- (4) The terms of the agreement must include provision as to whether, for the duration of the agreement, the member is permitted to withdraw shares where the member’s paid-up shareholding in the credit union is, or following the withdrawal would be, less than the member’s total liability (including contingent liability) to the credit union.
- (5) Any interest charged under an agreement mentioned in subsection (1)—
 - (a) must not exceed the rate specified in subsection (7), and
 - (b) must be inclusive of all administrative and other expenses incurred in connection with the making of the agreement.

Status: Point in time view as at 11/07/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 July 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(6) The rate specified in this subsection is 3% per month on the sum outstanding under the agreement.

(7) The Treasury may by regulations amend subsection (7) to substitute a different rate for the rate that is for the time being specified.

11F Agreements to be treated as secured

(1) This section applies where—

- (a) a credit union enters into an agreement mentioned in section 11E(1) with a member of the credit union, and
- (b) at the time the agreement is entered into, the member's paid-up shareholding in the credit union is equal to or greater than the member's total liability (including contingent liability) to the credit union.

(2) On the application of the member to the credit union, the agreement is to be treated for the purposes of this Act as a secured agreement.”

Commencement Information

I479 Sch. 14 para. 8 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 86(3)

Insurance distribution activities

9 After section 11F (inserted by paragraph 8) insert—

“11G Insurance distribution activities

If the objects of a credit union include the optional object specified in section 1(3ZZA), it may (subject to such terms as the rules of the credit union may provide)—

- (a) carry on an insurance distribution activity which constitutes or involves the provision of a service to a member, and
- (b) charge such fee as it considers appropriate for providing the service.”

Commencement Information
