11 For sections 790D and 790E substitute—

“790CB Duty to find out about persons with significant control

A company to which this Part applies must take reasonable steps to find out if there is anyone who is a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company and, if so, to identify them.

790D Company’s duty to give notices to persons with significant control

- (1) A company to which this Part applies must give a notice to a person under this section if—
 - (a) the company knows or has cause to believe that the person is a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company, but
 - (b) the company has not had confirmation of the person’s status as a registrable person or registrable relevant legal entity or has not had confirmation of all of the required particulars of the person (see section 790K).
- (2) The notice must require the person—
 - (a) to inform the company whether the person is a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company, and
 - (b) if they are, to give the company all of the required particulars of the person (see section 790K).
- (3) The notice must require the person to whom it is given to comply with the notice by no later than the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is given.
- (4) The company must give the notice—
 - (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the company becomes subject to the duty to give a notice under this section, and
 - (b) in any event before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the company becomes so subject.
- (5) A company is not required to give a notice under this section to a person if—
 - (a) the application for the registration of the company contained a statement of initial significant control naming the person as someone who would, on the company’s incorporation, become a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company, and

Status: Point in time view as at 26/04/2024.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023, PART 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the company has no cause to believe that at any time since its incorporation the person has ceased to be a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about the giving of notices under this section, including provision about their form and content and the manner in which they must be given.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (6) are subject to negative resolution procedure.

790DA Obtaining information from third parties

- (1) A company to which this Part applies may give a notice to a person under this section if it knows or has cause to believe that the person—
 - (a) knows the identity of someone who falls within subsection (2), or
 - (b) knows the identity of someone likely to have that knowledge.
- (2) The persons who fall within this subsection are—
 - (a) a registrable person in relation to the company;
 - (b) a relevant legal entity in relation to the company;
 - (c) an entity which would be a relevant legal entity in relation to the company but for the fact that section 790C(6)(b) does not apply in respect of it.
- (3) A company must give a notice under subsection (1) to a person (“a third party”) if the company—
 - (a) knows or has cause to believe that a person is a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company (“a suspected PSC”),
 - (b) is under a duty to give the suspected PSC a notice under section 790D but does not have the information that it needs in order to contact them, and
 - (c) knows or has cause to believe that the third party—
 - (i) knows the identity of the suspected PSC, or
 - (ii) knows the identity of someone likely to have that knowledge.
- (4) A notice under subsection (1) must require the person to whom it is given (“the recipient”)—
 - (a) to inform the company whether the recipient knows the identity of any person who—
 - (i) falls within subsection (2), or
 - (ii) is likely to know the identity of anyone who falls within subsection (2), and
 - (b) if the recipient does, to give the company any information within the recipient’s knowledge that would allow the company to contact each such person.
- (5) The notice must require the person to whom it is given to comply with the notice by no later than the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is given.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/04/2024.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023, PART 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) A person to whom a notice under subsection (1) is given is not required by that notice to disclose any information in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege (in Scotland, to confidentiality of communications) could be maintained in legal proceedings.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about the giving of notices under this section, including provision about their form and content and the manner in which they must be given.
- (8) Regulations under subsection (7) are subject to negative resolution procedure.
- (9) In this section a reference to knowing the identity of a person includes knowing information from which that person can be identified.

790E Company's duty to find out about changes in PSC information

- (1) This section applies if a company—
 - (a) knows or has cause to believe that there has been a change in the required particulars of a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company (see section 790K), but
 - (b) has not had confirmation that the change has occurred or has not had confirmation of all of the information that the company would need to include in a notice of the change under section 790LD(1) or 790LE(1).
- (2) The company must give the person a notice requiring the person—
 - (a) to inform the company whether the change has occurred, and
 - (b) if it has, to give the company the information that the company would need to include in a notice of the change under section 790LD(1) or 790LE(1).
- (3) The notice must require the person to whom it is given to comply with the notice by no later than the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is given.
- (4) The company must give the notice—
 - (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the company becomes subject to the duty to give a notice under subsection (2), and
 - (b) in any event before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the company becomes so subject.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about the giving of notices under this section, including provision about their form and content and the manner in which they must be given.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) are subject to negative resolution procedure.

790EA Company's duty to find out about persons ceasing to be PSCs

- (1) This section applies if a company —

Status: Point in time view as at 26/04/2024.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023, PART 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) knows or has cause to believe that a person has ceased to be a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company, but
 - (b) has not had confirmation that the person has ceased to be a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company or has not had confirmation of the date on which the person so ceased.
- (2) The company must give the person a notice requiring the person—
 - (a) to inform the company whether the person has ceased to be a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company, and
 - (b) if the person has, to inform the company of the date on which the person so ceased.
- (3) The notice must require the person to whom it is given to comply with the notice by no later than the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is given.
- (4) The company must give the notice—
 - (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the company becomes subject to the duty under subsection (2), and
 - (b) in any event before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the company becomes so subject.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about the giving of notices under this section, including provision about their form and content and the manner in which they must be given.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (5) are subject to negative resolution procedure.

790EB Company's duty to notify failure to comply with notices

- (1) A company must notify the registrar if a person fails to comply with a notice given by the company under section 790D, 790DA, 790E or 790EA within the period specified in it.
- (2) The notice must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the end of the period specified in the notice under section 790D, 790DA, 790E or 790EA.

790EC Company's duty to notify of late compliance with notices

- (1) A company must notify the registrar if a person who has failed to comply with a notice given by the company under section 790D, 790DA, 790E or 790EA within the period specified in it subsequently complies.
- (2) The notice must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the person complied with the notice under section 790D, 790DA, 790E or 790EA.”

“CHAPTER 2A

DUTY TO NOTIFY REGISTRAR OF PERSONS WITH SIGNIFICANT CONTROL AND ID VERIFICATION

Duty to notify registrar of persons with significant control

790LA Duty to notify registrar of confirmed persons with significant control

- (1) A company must give a notice to the registrar if it has had confirmation of—
 - (a) a person’s status as a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company, and
 - (b) the required particulars of the person (see section 790K).
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must contain a statement of the required particulars.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the company had confirmation as mentioned in that subsection.
- (4) A company is not required to give a notice under this section in relation to a person if—
 - (a) the application for the registration of the company contained a statement of initial significant control naming the person as someone who would, on the company’s incorporation, become a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company, and
 - (b) the company has no cause to believe that at any time since its incorporation the person has ceased to be a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company.
- (5) Nothing in section 126 (notice of trusts not receivable by registrar) affects the duty to give a notice under this section (or the receipt of that notice by the registrar).

790LB Option to provide ID verification information in notice of change

- (1) A notice under section 790LA(1) that relates to a registrable person may include a statement that the person’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).
- (2) A notice under section 790LA(1) that relates to a registrable relevant legal entity may include a statement that—
 - (a) specifies the name of one of its relevant officers (within the meaning given by section 790LO(6)) who is an individual and whose identity is verified, and
 - (b) confirms that the individual’s identity is verified.
- (3) If the notice includes a statement under subsection (2), it must be accompanied by a statement by the individual confirming that the individual is a relevant officer of the registrable relevant legal entity.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/04/2024.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023, PART 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) To find out what happens if the option in subsection (1) or (2) is not exercised, see sections 790LM and 790LO.
- (5) In subsection (1) “registrable person” does not include a person mentioned in section 790C(12)(a) to (d).

790LC Duty to notify registrar of unconfirmed persons with significant control

- (1) A company must give a notice to the registrar if—
 - (a) it knows or has cause to believe that a person has become a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company, but
 - (b) it has not yet had confirmation as mentioned in section 790LA(1).
- (2) The notice must state that fact.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the company first knows or has cause to believe that the person has become a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company.
- (4) Nothing in this section requires a company, on its incorporation, to give a notice in relation to a person included in the statement of initial significant control under section 12A.

Duty to notify registrar of changes in required particulars

790LD Duties to notify of changes in required particulars

- (1) A company must give a notice to the registrar if it—
 - (a) has had confirmation that there has been a change in the required particulars of a registrable person, or a registrable relevant legal entity, in relation to the company (see section 790K), and
 - (b) has had confirmation of how the required particulars have changed and the date on which they changed.
- (2) The notice must state—
 - (a) the change in the required particulars, and
 - (b) the date on which the change occurred.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the company had confirmation as mentioned in that subsection.
- (4) Nothing in section 126 (notice of trusts not receivable by registrar) affects the duty to give a notice under this section (or the receipt of that notice by the registrar).

790LE Duty to notify of pre-incorporation changes in required particulars

- (1) A company must give a notice to the registrar if it—

Status: Point in time view as at 26/04/2024.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023, PART 3. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) has had confirmation that there was a pre-incorporation change in the required particulars of a proposed PSC (see section 790K), and
 - (b) has had confirmation of how the required particulars have changed and the date on which they changed.
- (2) But a company is not required to give a notice under subsection (1) in respect of a person if it has given a notice under section 790LG in respect of the person.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) must state—
- (a) the change in the required particulars, and
 - (b) the date on which the change occurred.
- (4) A notice under subsection (1) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the company had confirmation as mentioned in that subsection.
- (5) In this section—
- “pre-incorporation change” means a change that occurred—
 - (a) after the application for the registration of the company was delivered to the registrar, but
 - (b) before the company was incorporated;
 - “proposed PSC”, in relation to a company, means a person who was named in a statement under section 12A(1)(a) as a person who would, on the company’s incorporation, become a registrable person or registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company.

Duty to notify registrar of person ceasing to be person with significant control etc

790LF Duty to notify registrar when person ceases to have significant control

- (1) A company must give a notice to the registrar if it—
- (a) has had confirmation that a person has ceased to be a registrable person or a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to it, and
 - (b) has had confirmation of the date on which the person so ceased.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must state—
- (a) the person’s name and service address, and
