

Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Act 2024

2024 CHAPTER 13

PART 4

CONSUMER RIGHTS AND DISPUTES

CHAPTER 1

PROTECTION FROM UNFAIR TRADING

PROSPECTIVE

Interpretation

245 Meaning of “transactional decision”

In this Chapter, “transactional decision” means any decision made by a consumer relating to—

- (a) the purchase or supply of a product (including whether, how or on what terms to make the purchase or supply);
- (b) the retention, disposal or withdrawal of a product (including whether, how or on what terms to retain or dispose of it);
- (c) the exercise of contractual rights in relation to a product (including whether, how or on what terms to exercise such rights).

Commencement Information

11 S. 245 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 339\(1\)

Status: This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Digital Markets, Competition and Consumers Act 2024, Cross Heading: Interpretation. (See end of Document for details)

246 Meaning of “average consumer”: general

- (1) This section provides for how references to the average consumer are to be read for the purposes of this Chapter.
- (2) The average consumer is—
  - (a) reasonably well informed,
  - (b) reasonably observant, and
  - (c) reasonably circumspect.
- (3) The average consumer is to be treated as not knowing information in relation to a commercial practice where such information has been concealed by the trader (even if the average consumer might know the information from another source).
- (4) Where a commercial practice is directed at a particular group, the average consumer is an average member of that group (and the attributes of the average consumer in subsection (2) are to be read accordingly).
- (5) This section is subject to section 247.

- I2 S. 246 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 339\(1\)

247 Meaning of “average consumer”: vulnerable persons

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where a group of consumers is particularly vulnerable to a commercial practice in a way that the trader could reasonably be expected to foresee.
- (2) References in this Chapter to the average consumer, so far as relating to cases to which this subsection applies, are to be read as references to an average member of the group mentioned in subsection (1) (and the attributes of the average consumer in section 246\(2\) are to be read accordingly).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the reference to a group of consumers being particularly vulnerable to a commercial practice—
  - (a) is a reference to the members of the group being particularly vulnerable to the commercial practice causing them to take a transactional decision that they would not have taken otherwise, and
  - (b) includes a reference to a group of consumers being vulnerable to a practice because of the product to which it relates.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), a group of consumers may be vulnerable as a result of (among other things)—
  - (a) their age;
  - (b) their physical or mental health;
  - (c) their credulity;
  - (d) the circumstances they are in.
