

Marine Insurance Act 1906

1906 CHAPTER 41 6 Edw 7

THE POLICY

24 Signature of insurer.

- (1) A marine policy must be signed by or on behalf of the insurer, provided that in the case of a corporation the corporate seal may be sufficient, but nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the subscription of a corporation to be under seal.
- (2) Where a policy is subscribed by or on behalf of two or more insurers, each subscription, unless the contrary be expressed, constitutes a distinct contract with the assured.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Marine Insurance Act 1906, Section 24.