

Companies (Consolidation) Act 1908

1908 CHAPTER 69 8 Edw 7

PART I

CONSTITUTION AND INCORPORATION.

General Provisions.

17 Conclusiveness of certificate of incorporation.

- (1) A certificate of incorporation given by the registrar in respect of any association shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Act in respect of registration and of matters precedent and incidental thereto have been complied with, and that the association is a company authorised to be registered and duly registered under this Act.
- (2) A statutory declaration by a solicitor of the High Court, and in Scotland by an enrolled law agent, engaged in the formation of the company, or by a person named in the articles as a director or secretary of the company, of compliance with all or any of the said requirements shall be produced to the registrar, and the registrar may accept such a declaration as sufficient evidence of compliance.
