1962 CHAPTER 58

Supplementary Provisions

55 Modification of Statutory Orders (Special Procedure) Act, 1945, in its application to certain orders under this Act

The Statutory Orders (Special Procedure) Act, 1945, shall, in its application to an order to which it applies by virtue of subsection (5) of section eleven, or subsection (7) of section twelve, of this Act (not being an order that relates only to land in Scotland) have effect as if—

- (a) the proviso to subsection (1) of section four of that Act were omitted; and
- (b) for the proviso to subsection (2) of section four of that Act (which, in a case where no resolution that an order be annulled has been passed, precludes the reference to a joint Committee of both Houses of a petition of general objection unless either House has ordered that the petition be so referred), there were substituted the following proviso:—

“Provided that where any petition so certified has been certified as a petition of general objection, that petition shall not stand so referred if, during the resolution period, either House has resolved that the petition be not so referred”.
