

Mines and Quarries Act 1954

1954 CHAPTER 70

PART XV

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

Supplementary Provisions

171 Provisions as to knowledge by officials, and c., of Welsh language

Where the natural language of communication of the persons employed at a mine or quarry or of a substantial number of those persons is Welsh, then, in considering the qualifications of candidates for appointments required, by or by virtue of this Act, to be made in the case of that mine or quarry, regard shall be had to the possession of a knowledge of that language.
