

Town and Country Planning Act 1954

1954 CHAPTER 72

PART VI

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

71 Minor and consequential amendments, and repeals

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the enactments specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Act shall have effect subject to the amendments specified in that Schedule, being minor amendments or amendments consequential on the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this section, the enactments specified in the Eighth Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in relation thereto in the third column of that Schedule.
- (3) The amendment by virtue of this section of the Third Schedule to the Mineral Workings Act, 1951, shall not affect any right or liability which by virtue of section six of that Act and the said Third Schedule was subsisting immediately before the commencement of this Act.
- (4) The amendment by virtue of this section of the Third Schedule to the principal Act shall not have effect for the purposes of the following provisions of that Act, that is to say section fifty-four (which relates to the assessment of compensation for the compulsory acquisition of requisitioned land), section sixty-one (which relates to the ascertainment of development values), section sixty-nine (which relates to development charges) and subsection (1) of section eighty-nine (which relates to the calculation of the development value of requisitioned land).
- (5) As respects amendments and repeals relating to sections ninety-four and ninety-five of the principal Act, the provisions of this section shall have effect subject to section fifty-one of this Act.
- (6) The repeal by virtue of this section of the proviso to subsection (1) of section twenty-two of the principal Act shall not affect compensation in respect of any order made under section twenty-one of that Act before the commencement of this Act.
